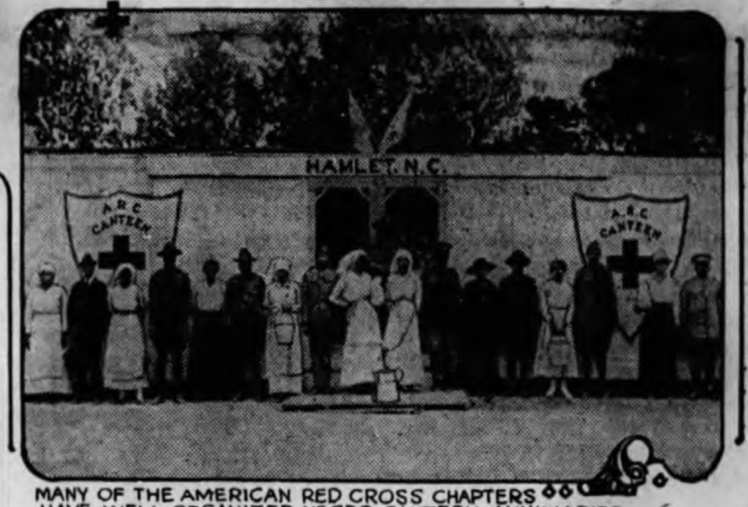
AMERICAN RED CROSS CANTEEN SERVICE FOR NEGRO TROOPS

WHEN THIS HAPPENS EN ROUTE TO CAMP OR EMBARKATION POINT HE KNOWS THAT "SOMEBODY CARES."

A SMILE IS THE PRICE HE PAYS FOR THESE BANANAS

AMERICAN RED CROSS CANTEEN WORKERS GIVE THE SAME SERVICE TO NEGRO TROOPS, AS TO WHITE MEN.



MANY OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS CHAPTERS HAVE WELL-ORGANIZED NEGRO CANTEEN AUXILIARIES.

OVER 65,000 women are now actively enrolled as workers in the 700 American Red Cross canteens extending from the most northern point in Canada to the most southern in the United States and from the Pacific to the Atlantic. Together with the canteen kitchens, medical supplies and small transfer hospitals, they comprise the equipment of the Canteen service, primarily organized to stimulate the morale of the soldiers and to let them know that the country is with them and appreciates the sacrifice they are making. It was also organized for the purpose of meeting emergencies which may arise with troops in transit—unavoidable delays, accidents, supplies exhausted, sudden illness or accidents to the men en route.

The American Red Cross Canteen Service is one branch of the service which, owing to its nature, requires a certain amount of secrecy. The United States is a tremendous country, with miles of track, and its troops are spread over tremendous areas. Men are sent from their home towns to camps, troops are moved from one camp to another, and they are shipped from camps to embarkation points and sent overseas, but wherever they are they find the American Red Cross has already blazed the trail and is there "on the job." This service, like all efforts in behalf of the soldiers, sailors and marines on duty in the armed service of the United States, both of this country and in Europe, is rendered to white and colored officers and enlisted men alike, without distinction.

Six hundred negro soldiers were served recently by an American Red Cross canteen at a point in Arkansas. In a press report of the work it was stated: "It will be a long time before the activities of that great organization, the American Red Cross, will perform a better service, or one that gives the good women, both white and colored, more pleasure. They were enlisted colored men coming direct from their farms and homes in Louisiana, going to a strange city and surroundings. They were a timid set when they stepped off the train here like a drove of lost sheep, but there was a far different feeling when they left. The interest shown in them here made new and fighting men out of them. They will take their places in the trenches just like the white soldier, and every time one of them does it he takes the place of your boy or my boy. He's an American soldier, and all honor is due the splendid work of our Canteen women and their colored women helpers."

Negro Auxiliaries.

Many cities of the South are organizing colored auxiliary canteen committees. The colored canteen in New Orleans is in charge of a very fine colored woman of education and a graduate nurse. The canteen has headquarters on the ground floor of the Pythian Temple, owned entirely by negro capital. It has five large rooms, well equipped for rest and recreation, and to date has entertained every batch of negro selects leaving for cantonments. It is maintained by New Orleans Chapter funds.

At some points, notably in Texas, Canteen service is maintained to give refreshments to the aviators at their landing fields. In some of the large railroad yards model canteen buildings have been erected, and all troop trains are switched on either side of them that the men may be served quickly and efficiently.

Upon the return recently of the national field secretary to the national headquarters of the American Red Cross, after a three months' transcontinental tour of the canteen stations, she presented a list of delightfully varied cooling refreshments served the troops—lists registering ingenuity and thrift in utilizing local resources to make an appetizing and attractive menu for the boys. The prime requisite, of course, in the summer months was something cool refreshing and perfectly harmless—inexpensive and easy to prepare and serve in large quantities on short notice. Soap and water and towels, while not on the menu exactly, were immensely appreciated, and flowers were a real refreshment. All were enthusiastically received by the men after a hot and dirty trip.

Interesting "sidelights" on the Canteen activities the length and breadth of the country find their way into the national headquarters of the American Red Cross and give one a very human insight into the work.

In one city where it was known that nineteen nurses were to pass through on the train, en route overseas, twelve canteen workers in uniform boarded the train on its arrival and presented each nurse with a beautiful red rose. They were quite overcome and declared the courtesy was one of the nicest things that had ever happened to them.

He Got Ninety!

At another canteen station a lone negro was served. He had been in France, had been wounded and was sent home on a furlough to get well. "Yessum," he said, "I was hit in the arm and the knee. And I got so mad when I was hit I grabbed my gun and I sure let her go. Yessum, I'se satisfied—got ninety of them Germans!"

En route to Waynesville hospital, a sergeant with six invalid soldiers applied to the American Red Cross Canteen at a station for a more suitable lunch for the men than could be found in the regular lunch room. Service was given immediately and eggs, fruit, milk, etc., supplied to the men. This is but one of many instances that demonstrate the efficiency of the Canteen service in emergencies.

A soldier who had not seen his mother for years found he was to pass through his "home town" and wrote her to that effect, asking that she meet him at the train. The message did not reach her. Naturally, very much disappointed not to find her at the station, the boy's woe-begone expression attracted the attention of a canteen worker. When she heard his story she immediately started out in her car, found the mother, motored her to the station and had the pleasure of witnessing a very happy reunion of mother and son before duty called him overseas.

Canteen workers often supply the messages for the "folks back home" that are written on the post cards distributed by the American Red Cross throughout its Canteen service. This is done in cases where the men are unable to write themselves. Recently a distribution of the cards was made to a number of colored troops, and many of the Canteen workers were called upon to do the writing. In commenting upon the incident one of the workers said: "The giving was not all on our part, for when they returned from their exercises through the city the colored men were formed in a hollow square by their Commandant and the 'talent' of the regiment ordered out. The singing was beautiful and the clog dancing entertaining." The colored men were so pleased with their treatment that several of them made speeches, and one spokesman stated that he was going to have the American Red Cross Canteen "writ up" when he got to where he was going.

"It was the supper hour, but my committee was at the station at work on ham sandwiches and preparing coffee within twenty minutes after notification of the time of arrival of the troops," says a Canteen captain in a recent report. "When the train arrived my five ladies served nice fresh country ham sandwiches from large trays garnished with lettuce. I had to call in the husbands, as we had only twenty minutes to serve eleven coaches. After serving the sandwiches and coffee we made the second trip around, and each boy aboard received a Red Cross chocolate bar and cigarettes. Every single boy was courteous and orderly, and their appreciation was the sweetest thing I ever saw."

"This is swell and helps a fellow a lot," said a big olive-drabbed boy after partaking of canteen refreshments at a point in the west. "And if it weren't for one thing I and my chum could come mighty near being happy now."

"Tell us about that one thing that makes you unhappy. Maybe we can fix it," smilingly encouraged a charming Canteen worker.

"Well, we're broke, and no one can fix that but our dads, and they are 'way up in Washington. We haven't time to wire for extra money—and there you are," said the lad with a wistful smile.

"That's easy," said the Canteen girl. "We'll send the wires for you and have the money sent to your next stop."

"Hurrah for you!" cried the boys. And as they boarded the out-going train they wore quite a different looking expression from that which they registered just a few minutes before.

From the foregoing, which is in reality but a "flash" of the great Canteen service in operation, one receives but the barest outline of the far-reaching effect of this branch of the American Red Cross activities in this country.

Workers Take Oath.

The American Red Cross furnishes all commanders of troop trains, conductors and railway officials with a Canteen directory, embracing the names of the chapters which have organized Canteen units. Upon being given the briefest possible telegraphic notice these chapters are prepared to render assistance of all kinds to troops en route. Troop train commanders, having government funds for the purpose, pay the government rate for rations ordered. In cases of accident or sickness occuring en route medical assistance and ambulance service are arranged for if requested in advance. Some of the Canteens, designated as "transfer stations," have immediate ambulance service for transferring sick and wounded service men to hospitals, as well as specially prepared food for sick soldiers in transit.

All official American Red Cross Canteen Workers are carefully investigated and enrolled under oath of allegiance, and the woven shield of the Canteen worker, bearing the Red Cross insignia, is worn conspicuously when on active duty. The officers of a Canteen unit includes a captain, first and second lieutenants, a supply clerk and a mail clerk. The size of the Canteen unit depends largely on the frequency of the troop movements through its location. It is estimated that a unit of fifteen women can serve five hundred men.

At first both Army officers and railway men felt that the Canteen service was not a necessity, in that it duplicated the provisions of the Government and the railroads. But observers in both Army and railroad service have come to acknowledge that the Canteen is a unique addition to troop transportation. At a time when the whole machinery of travel is geared to an unheard-of speed, it is inevitable that accident and weather should result in unforeseeable delay and discomfort—the prolongation of journeys far beyond their expected time often depletes the troop stores, and the enormous travel on the railroads often limits the available railway supplies. The American Red Cross canteen service assists the officer conducting transportation by giving him an immediate depot of supplies and helps the railroad by feeding the troops in the railroad yard, thus preventing congestion at the station.

In one city the president of the railroad ordered a freight car given the American Red Cross. It was equipped with light and gas and placed on a side-track near the railway station. The canteen unit is thus able to keep the coffee hot and have refreshments on hand for the incoming troop trains, and it also serves as a protection to the workers against cold while waiting for the trains.

The equipment of an American Red Cross canteen is just exactly what a community decides to make it. Some canteens in the larger centers are highly developed, while others embrace the minimum equipment. All are doing a wonderful work in which it is a pleasure to have a share.

WORLD NOW ENDED—MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE.

Based upon the plain and positive statements of the Scriptures and the facts and circumstances as we now see them, the properly informed Bible student is fully convinced that humanity has reached the end of the world. But before giving the evidence to back this conclusion, it is necessary that we explain the meaning of the word WORLD, as used in the Scriptures. The Bible meaning of the word WORLD has reference to a PARTICULAR ORDER OF THINGS THAT EXIST WITHIN CERTAIN DESIGNATED PERIODS OF TIME; order or dispensation is the thought. God's great plan for dealing with man is divided into three great periods of time called WORLDS OR DISPENSATIONS. The first world or dispensation (from the creation of man to the flood) is called in the Scriptures "The World That was." The second dispensation (from the flood to the second coming of Christ) is called the world that now is or "The present evil world;" and the third dispensation (from the second coming of Christ onward without end) is called the world to come wherein dwelleth righteousness. Just here I beg to say that we are now standing upon the threshold of the NEW WORLD or dispensation, but before we are permitted to enter we must be cleansed and purified from all unrighteousness, injustice and oppression of the present AGE, hence the purifying fires of trouble of every description are beginning to heat up and must soon burn with such fury, that the whole camp of humanity will cry out in dismay, feeling that all that is worth living for is gone to destruction. They will soon cry out in earnest, saying, WHERE IS GOD?

Because of the unfaithfulness, God withdrew his favor from the Jews as a nation, and gave the Gentiles a lease of power to try themselves at governing the world. The Gentiles, like the Jews, needed to learn by experience, their inability to properly govern themselves and others. The Gentiles dominion, according to the Scriptures, has been a period of 2520 years, beginning 606 B. C. at the time when Zedekiah, the Jewish ruler was dethroned and Nebuchadneezzar, king of Babylon (a Gentile) was enthroned. It follows that the full period of 2520 would end in 1914.

God foreknowing the course man would take, told through his prophet Joel (3:9-15) and Daniel (12:7) the present world conflict.-----Prophecy is simply history written in advance and whosoever doubts the Prophecies of the Bible, fails to credit Jehovah with the ability to know the future course of events and to state His plan in advance.

We submit 12 reasons from the Prophecy of Jesus Christ, the Greatest Prophet in the whole Universe in support of our assertion that the WORLD HAS ENDED. Five days before his crusification His deciples asked Him, privately, "Tell us what shall be the proof of the end of the world" Mat.:24:3.

The Gentiles had a lease of power or permission from God to try themselves at governing the world. This was a stated length of time (From 606 B. C. to 1914, a period of 2520 years) and when that time expired the Lord began proceedings at once to oust them ---They, having become enemies to the one (God) who gave them their lease of power. Jesus, referring to the end of the Gentile lease of power said, "The nations were angry and thy wrath is come and the time of the dead that they should be judged." Exactly on time, ambitious rulers of earth started the present great world conflict; further answering the deciples Jesus said, "Nations shall rise against Nations and Kingdoms against Kingdoms and there shall be famine and pestilence and earthquakes (Revolutions) in divers places;" further answering concerning the Jewish people he said, "They (Jews) shall be trodden down of the Gentiles until the time of the gentile be fulfilled. # PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Ola Caldwell of Chandler arrived in the ccity Saturday and will remain here indefinitely.

Dr. T. J. Jackson was over from Claremore Monday to see his many customers. He will be with us now on Monday, Tuseday and Wednesday

Mr. D. W. Filmore, the hustling Traveling Salesman for Elliott & Hooker, is canvassing among our people at BBBBBBBBBBoc-Hokedan people at Bristow, Okla., this week.

Several important state meetings billed to be held in Tulsa had to be cancelled on account of the epidemic

Mrs. Susie Bell, the popular cacfe woman who has been out in Colorado several months returned home last Saturday much to the delight to her many friends.

Rev. Father W. S. J. Challoughlczilczise of Africa, stopped off in our city a few hours this week enroute to Kansas City.

Mr. Lonnie Henderson of Waco, Texas, who had been on a visit to his brother at Red Bird, was in our city a few hours Sunday, visiting old Wacoites.

Dr. Emmitt Wallace and his wife of Okmulgee left Sunday for Nashville , Tenn.. She will remain there with her people and he will go on to New Port News to prepare for over sea service as a private in the Medical Corps.

Mrs. Rosanna Engram of Alabama who arrived in the city recently on a visit to her son, Mr. King Ingram, leaves to-day for Oklahoma City to visit a sister, Mrs. Wilson, after a weeks stay, Mrs. Ingram returns to Alabama where she owns more than 2000 acres of land.

The following persons died here, and were looked after by the Home Undertaking Co., No. 2: Andy Bowdy, died on the 20th. at the residence of Mrs. S. T. Partee, James Reynolds died on the 18th at the Hospital; Harry Lee died on the 18th at Red Cross Hospital, Andrew Douglass died on the 13th at N. Cheyenne St.

MAYOR HUBBARD is doing everything in his power to check the "flu" epidemic in Tulsa and he should be assisted in his efforts by every good citizen. We can all help wonderfully by complying with his request of the people of Tulsa to eliminate public gatherings of every kind. While the epidemic is raging it would be a patriotic duty for habitual "joy riders" to refrain from the practice.

Let's all help the Mayor and the doctors.

Mrs. Alberta Williams will entertain about 30 of her friends tonight at the Busy Bee cafe. This affair promises to be a swell one, as a rare menu will be served. Arrangements are being made to make it a "swell to-do" indeed.

Miss Groyce L. Moore, who spent last week in Kansas iCty, purchased a first class dressmaking establishment in that city and will in the future conduct business in K. C. iMss Moore, who is one expert along her line, leaves aSturday.

Mrs. L. D. Johnson, J. W. Williams, Green Smith and W. H. Phillips have relieved SHRDLUadhligSHRDLULU returned from a trip to Kansas City. They reported a good trip, going, but Oh my! the mud, coming back!

CHANCE FOR COLORED WOMEN

U. S. Employment Service With Branches in Many Cities Offers Aid in Obtaining Work.

NEGROES PATRIOTIC IN OFFERING SELVES

Negroes who have been notified to report to the United States employment service office at Second and Cincinnatti streets for war work never try to evade the order, said Carl Lee, the examiner in charge of the bureau, in a statement last Friday

"So far as I know," said Mr. Lee, "there is not an instance in which a Colored man or boy who has been instructed to report at a certain time has failed to report."

White men who are ordered to report at the employment office are not so obedient and it is often ncessary to send anofficer after them, according to Mr. Lee.

The black man is doing his "bit" in war work as willingly as are the White man Mr. Lee stated.

A FALSE STATEMENT NAILED

The statement published in the Tulsa Morning Times to the effect that the editor of this paper admitted to the council of defense that any article published in the Star was untrue or without foundation, or that that the editor had made no attempt to verify the story concerning the removal of the Colored woman from the Kretz home, is absolutely untrue, and the editor has asked that paper to make a correction.

The editor did appear before the council of defense and at their request gave his reasons for publishing the story as it appeared in the Star and when it was suggested that he had made a mistake by calling Mr. Kretz a Hun said: "When I wrote that article, gentlemen, I believed just what I wrote but if I was mistaken, I am as glad of it as you are."

The editor of the Star has no desire to do or say anything against the government. We are loyal to our country, but we are also loyal to our race.

We do not think it disloyal to appose injustice and mistreatment of our people, or any other people for that matter, and in defense of this principle we will be found on the firing line as usual. No man's position will influence us or deter us in our policy of fighting for even-handed justice.

A. J. SMITHERMAN.

Mr. J. W. Williams, while in Kansas City recently visited the Fox Film Company and arranged for many high clacss pictures, such as Cleopatra, Mutt and Jeff, Jack and and the Bean Stalk, etc. He said that the show going folks of Tulsa will be able to see the best that money can buy.

Mrs. Lettie Weaver, a young woman of our race, is canvassing the city for the Tulsa Star, and we ask for her your support. If, in the past , you have subscribed and have failed to get The Star, make your complaints to Miss Weaver, and she will protect you. Please do this, and let Tulsa have a strong, fearless Colored news-paper. This young woman will be to see you.

Mr. George Glaster, who resided at 420 N. Frankford St., died this morning at 8 o'clock. The funeral will take place from Jackson and Goodwin Undertaking parlors. He was the father-in-law of E. W. Scott.

The following are dead at Jackson and Goodwin's Undertaking parlors: Stephen Rose, Alex Qurrk, N. William St.James Menter, N. Greenwood St., Clinton Horton, Emergency Hospital, Curtis Price, of Sands Springs.

Prof. J. W. Hughes, the able educator, dropped in this week and and up his subscription til Jan. 1, 1919. Let others follow the example of Mr. Hughes and we will soon be able to make The Star a high-class newspaper.

Mr. S. L. Hill, a popular citizen of Claremore, was a visitor to our city Monday, the guest of Mr. "Bud" Brown.

Mr. S. W. Hooker of the firm of Elliott and Hooker, visited Muskogee Monday.

WORLD NOW ENDED

student of prophecy has understood that the return of the Jews to Jerusalem (the building of the fig tree, sign of national life) would mark the end of the Gentile dominion and the beginning of a new order of dispensation. Additionally the Lord said, "The gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached to all the world for a witness unto all nations and then the end shall come." (Please take note of the fact that the Bible does not say that the gospel must be preached to every individual, but to every nation). This has been fulfiilled. The Bible has been transalated into every known language and carried to every nations on earth; in further reply He said, "As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the end of the world" additionally, Jesus answered the inquiry saying, "The sun shall be darken and the moon shall fail to give her light and the stars shall fall from the heavens, and the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Revelation gives us a key to these symbols; the sun represents the Gospel of Jesus Christ the moon picturing the Mosaic Law Dispensation and the stars represents the great ecclesiastical teachers.----How wonderful this is being fulfilled now. The world in its mad rush to carry out its selfish aims is giving no heed to the Gospel of Christ (Sun is darkened). The sacrifice of animals under the Jewish dispensation which foreshadowed the Great sacrifice of Jesus, Christ, head and body is being repudiated as foolishness by higher critics, (The moon fail to give light). The clergy's position is one above all others, but the great majority have fallen from their exalted position of teaching the True Gospel of Christ and have taken their places in the common politics of the world--teaching only such things as are pleasing to the wicked world and which serve to gratify their selfish aims (Stars have fallen); as a result of the clergy's unfaithfulness and teachings of spurious doctrines the Ecclesiastical systems) are being shaken---Humanity is restless and is questioning the creed of different denominations and the Divine right of Kings to rule the earth; continuing, Jesus said at the end of the world there would be upon the earth distress on nations with perplexity, the sea and waves roaring (Restlessly and discontented Humanity) and men's hearts failing them for fear of the things coming upon the earth. ---Who is so blind and so void of reason as to not be able to see the fulfillment of this scripture in this very hour?

We have not attempted to produce all the evidences at our command to prove that the world has ended, but we are staisfied to rest our case upon the prophetic testimony of our Lord Jesus Christ. Summing up the circumstantial evidence as obtained from the Lord when he asked to tell what shall be the proof of the end of the world, we find true to our Lord's statement (in 1914) the nations were angry; Nations are against Nations, famine is threatening the whole world, pestilence is raging and smiting down humanity from right to left and especially verenal diseases which is said to be more destructive than war and is smiting all grades of society of both sexes and of all ages; earthquakes (revolutions) are rumbling and being heard in divers places; the Jews have returned to Jerusalem; the Gospel has been preached to every nation; as it was in Noah's day; the people are heedless as to the warning that the world HAS ENDED; the sun (the true Gospel of Christ's Kingdom) is darkened; the moon (true significance of the Law Dispensatoin) is not giving her light; the stars( the clergy) have fallen from their spiritual positions of teaching the truth; the powers of heaven (the false ecclesiastical systems) are being shaken and distress with perplexity is upon the whole earth and mens' heart failing every where for fear.

Dear friends, not for the purpose of freightening you, but for the purpose of giving you timely warning as is the duty of every true servant of the Lord, I wish to say that a very dark night is just a few steps ahead of us. If as we are confident, the present WORLD OR ORDER OF THINGS has ENDED, there is mush yet for us to experience.------A day of darkness and gloominess, let all the inhabitants of the earth tremble for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible and who can abide? Joel 2:2-11, "I bring distress upon men because they have sinned against the Lord" Zeph. 1: 14-18; "Go to now ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you" Jas. 5:1-6; "Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in that day of the wrath of the Lord Ezek. 7: 17-19; "Then shall be great tribulation such as was not since the beginning of the world, Matt. 24:21; and except those days shall be shortened, there should no flesh be saved.

Therefore we are assured that while destruction that is now upon the earth will increase in its destructiveness to surpass any thing of sorrow that has come to humanity since there was a nation. We have the assurance that some flesh will be saved and pass through this great time of trouble. The Lord speaks to us through His prophet Zechariah (13: 8-9) in the following language: "And it shall come to pass that all the land saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the third shall be left therein, and I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined and will try them as gold is tried: but They shall call on my name and I will hear them. I will say it is my people; and they shall say the Lord is my God." Don't become excited dear friends when I remind you that we have just about reached the point where at least two-thirds of the boasted population of the human race must pass into death by wars, revolutions, anarchy, pestilence and famine, (At a future date I will call your attention to the blessed promises of the Lord of regrathering all the families of the earth through the resurrection of the dead.)

When the Lord called your attention to the fact that the day of His coming and setting up of His Kingdom would be as those during the days of Noah, He intended that we should be able to draw many illustrations as to the character and condition of things during the close of this age.

During the days just before the flood the earth was filled with violence (I think violence is now beginning to fill the whole earth). The people paid no attention to the warnings of Noah that their world or order of things was coming to an end (the world will not hear such talk now). There was but a remnant of both man and beast brought over from the world that was into this world or dispensation, and there will be only a remnant carried over from this present world, or order of things, into the world to come wherein dwelleth righteousness; but while there were only eight persons brought over into this age, there may be millions carried over from this age into the age or world to come, for the reason that this age is more densely populated than was the first. But there is one thing certain, and that is that the million carried over from this age into the next, will be just as lonely and look over a world of greater devastation than Noah and his family.

In the age or world just before us upon the threshold of which we are now standing all the willing and obedient shall have life everlasting. You can rest asure that the million carried over from this age, through the great time of troul.le, into the age to come, wherein dwelleth righteousness, will be so well chastised at the hand of Jehovah that they will be glad to live willing, humble and obedient lives; therefore millions now living (but the world in general does not know it) will never go into death.

There is always some pain accompaning the birth of new conditions but the pain and agonies that will accompany the passing of the present order of things will be many folds greater than it would have been had the clergy been faithful to their trust and preached to the world the Truth concerning God's Great Plan of Salvation. They are more responsible than any other class of men for the present world wide destruction of human lives and property and for the further trouble that is sure to follow Ezek. 33 & 34th chapter also 1 Cor. 10:21.

Let us leave the dark picture for a moment and remember that accordng to the bible chronology, types, shadows and fulfilled prophecies, we are but a few years from the time of restitution to all that was lost in Father Adam will begir to flow to the world of mankind. The scriptures abound with prophecies that righteous government will be established in all the earth and that there shall be a ressurection of the dead both of the just and the unjust, Isiah 9: 9: John 5: 28-29; Acts. 24: 15, 17, 31.

In conclusion, I beg to say to the worldly minded, that the best investment you can make now is to seek a knowledge of the Lord and His great Plan of Salvation. Seek the Lord while He may be found.----To the fully consecrated, the sealed ones, the little flock this side the vail, I say let us look up and lift up our heads for our redemption draweth nigh Luke 21:28.

A WOULD BE RUSSEL CRITICISER

I beg to say to the public that I pay little or no attention to the different religeous beliefs of the different peoples of the world and pay no attention as to what persons may say derogatory to my belief but whenever a gross injustice, whether intentionally or otherwise, is attempted to be committed on the humble minded people who desire to know the truth I know it to be my duty, as an humble servant of the Lord, to raise my voice in defence of those who are seeking the truth.

I learn through this paper (I don't konw the brother personally) that there is one Mr. W. S. North, pastor of some Bethel S. D. A. Church who attempts to criticise Pastor Russel or Russelism. Now I wish to say to this brother(I call him brother because I would rather believe that his attempted ccritism is made ignorantly and not intentionally) for his own good and for the good of those whom he would attept to teach that it is well for him to understand what he reads before attempting to criticise a known servant of the Lord. If this brother is not heady and self opinionated, if he is desirous to know God's Great Plan of Salvation and if he is not bias as to the source of this information, I suggest that he go without delay and get a set of studies in the scripture edited by Pastor Russel, which book may be found in any Librare and also in many private homes. I esk the brother or any one else, to read these books along with your Bible and be enlightened as to what God's Great Plan of Salvation for man. No unbias person can read these books, along with the Bible, and note Pastor Russel's interpretation and explainations of the different prophecies of the Bible and his statement more than thirty years ago to the effect that the Gentiles time would end in 1914, and that then would begin a great time of trouble and the same would continue until a new order of things be established in all the earth. I say that no teachable persan can read these books without fully concluding that Pastor Russel was a true servant of the Lord. Though some of the books were written more than 30 years ago when you read them, it seemed as if the writer was standing here to-day noting and writing the events as we see them taking plce.---There are many persons quietly reading the studies in the scripture and are being convinced that Pastor Russel was and will ever live in the minds of the world as a true servant of God.

I beg to say in conclusion that any one who can read the the Studies in the Scripture along with the Bible and yet ramain unconvinced that their Author was a true servant of God is dangerously blind and nothing but the sledge hammer of Divine Vengeance, during the great time of trouble will open their eyes. That time is near.

The Doctrine of Eternal Torment and Money Collecting in the Churches are the Most Blasphemous of God's Character Than All Other Errors Combined

The doctrine of Eternal Torment was introduced by Papacy to scare the pagans and make them join her system and support her priesthood. It flourished at the same time that bull fights and gladiatorial contest were the public amusements most enjoyed. This doctrine of Eternal Torment flourished wwhen the crusaders were called holy wars and when men and women were called heritics and often slaughtered for speaking contrary to the teachings of papacy.

The majority of the clergy have spent and are yet spending most of their time scaring the people in the churches, telling them to get in there and escape eternal torment and when the people get in the churches and put their name on the role they are made to understand that the Lord wants them to keep up thir various church dues including a fat salary to the parson building fine church houses, etc. They are further made to understand that if they fail in these duties they will be turned out of the church where the Devil will get them and roast and torment them throughout eternity. The poor people have been taught and made to believe that the Lord needs their money in order to carry out His plans but dear friends I want to brand this money collecting in the name of the Lord as blasphemy to His righteous name. The Lord does not need your puny dimes and dollars to carry out His great plan. This money collecting business is a man made institution. I am fully aware that there are scriptures which are being misinterpreted by the clergy so as to make it appear that the collecting of money in the churches is authorized by the Bible. Some of the scriptures used are those referring to the Jewish custom of giving one-tenth, which has no application in this Gospel age, also the scripture statement "Muzzle not the ox that treadeth out the corn," which only means that a preacher should have the same opportunity to make a living as anybody else and that while he is giving all his time to advancing God's truth—(not lies)—he is entitled to the absolute necessities of life—place to sleep and food to eat and no more. Preachers are not to be a burden to the poor people in no way, shape, form or fashion. Instead of being a burden to the people the true servants of God should go and work with their hands to support themselves and be able to give to those less fortunate. Paul worked with his own hands that he might not be a burden to the people. The case where Christ had his deciples to catch a fish and get money out of its mouth and put it in the collection is sometimes held up to the people as Christ approving church collections but nothing is further from the truth than using this scripture in such way because Christ only intended to teach his deciples that it was the best policy for them to pay taxes to whatever government they may live under.

I beg to again remind you, my friends, that the paying of fat salaries to preachers and the building of expenisve church houses is not recognized by the Lord as work done unto Him. He wants no such work as that. He wants the poor people relieved of their burdens. The only condition under which the giving of money is accepted by the Lord is when it is given voluntarily and for the purpose of relieving the sufferings of the widows and orphans and others of a broken heart and also money given to aid others in getting in the truth of God's plan (not into lies). Friends, you will agree with me when I remind you that there are many millions of poor people in this land and country who are suffering greatly for the absolute necessities of life and many of whom are living in the very shadow of church houses that cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. God is not pleased with such arrangements and in the near future He will dash to pieces the present order of things and arrange matters so that the humble hearted and oppressed will come into their own.

Reverting to another phase of our subject I wish to say that the Old Testament scriptures were written in the Hebrew language and the New Testament in the Greek. The word "Hell" is an English word sometimes selected by the translators of the English Bible to express the same sense of the Hebrew word SHOEL and the Greek words Hades, TARTAROO and GEHENNA. These same words are sometime rendered "grave" and, "pit." The word "hell," in old English usage, before the Papal Theologians picked it up and gave it a new and special significance to suit their own purposes, simply ment to conceal, to cover. The word "hell" was therefore properly used synonymously with the words "grave" and "pit" to translate the words "SHEOL" and "HADES" as signifying the secret or hidden condition of death. The word Hell occurs 31 times in the Old Testament, and in every instance it is SHEOL in the Hebrew. It does not mean a lake of fire and brimstone nor anything resembling that thought; instead of it being described as a place of blazing fire it is described in the context as a state of darkness. Job 10:21 stead of being a place where shieks and groans are heard, it is described in the context as a place of silence (Psa. 115:17); instead of representing in any sense pain and suffering, or remorse, the context describes it as one of forgetfulness (Psa. 88:11, 12); "There is no work nor devise nor knowledge in the grave (SHEOL) whether though goest (Eccles. 9:10.

In Matt. 11:23 is one case where the Greek word HADES is rendered Hell "And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shall be brought down to hell"; I hope there is no one so silly as to think that the city of Capernaum is down in hell roasting in agony. The fact is that Capernaum is in the Bible hell, is in a condition as if it had never existed, in other words it is in a condition of non existence and that is the real meaning of the Bible Hell. The whole race of mankind, from creation to the present time, at death, go to this Bible Hell to wait the resurrection day, which is near even at the door.

In the New Testament two other words are rendered hell; namely TARTAROO and GEHENNA which we will consider in the order named. TARTAROO has reference to the invisible condition of the atmosphere where the Angels that kept not their first estate, before the flood, were cast to wait the Judgment day. GEHENNA occurs in all 12 times, where it is rendered Hell (Matt. 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mark 9:43-47; Luke 12:5; James 3:6). GEHENNA is the Grecian mode of spelling the Hebrew words which are translated "The valley of Hinnon." This valley lay just outside the city of Jerusalem and served the purpose of sewer and garbage burner to the city.

Every intelligent minister knows or should know that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for wilful sinners is death everlasting—the second death, a death from

NO HEAD-RAG LEADERSHIP WANTED FOR THE RACE

The war is over, and the world emerges from a seige of bloody war into an era of constructive peace. A new morale envelopes the family of nations, and our economic, social and political life must be reconstructed around a new standard of spiritual, moral and intellectual efficiency. The world, politically, economically and geographically, must be made over, and the job of reconstruction demands the wisest and most unselfish statesmanship of which mankind is capable. The world war was waged and fought to a successful conclusion, for representative government — for universal freedom. All races and creds upon the afce of the earth made common cause against a common enemy that free institutions might not perish from the face of the earth; and the victor yis a common heritage that all men will and shall enjoy in common. But this common heritage—the property of all mankind—will only be enjoyed by those of the human family who command the most sagacious and unselfish Christian statesmanship.

The American Negro will only get out of this world triumph of democracy that which the race's solidarity and wisdom challenge. The winning of world democracy for a family of nations does not necessarily guarante that the constituents, making up each nation, will enjoy fully the benefit of the triumph of government by the consent of the governed as individual citizens. Therefore, it is imperatively necessary that the Negroes of America meet and confer with an eye single to a leadership—a statesmanlike, constructive leadership — whose platform is the uncompromising enforcement of the provisions of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Federal Constitution; an equal share of civil and individual rights before the courts; a voice in the selection of representatives in every branch of our government. Let us meet, but not to confer about the leading of our forefathers into bondage in 1619, but to confer and sound the death knell to segregation, disfranchisement, pim-crowism, lynching, mob law, peonage, caste and proscription of every character. We want no more handkerchiefhead leadership which places human rights above pelf and plunder, that will go to Washington for the rights of all the people, rather than a job for self.

The head-rag movement launched by Prof. W. E. B. Dubois, who recently asked us to "close ranks and forget our grievances," to celebrate and make immortal our induction into slavery, may have merit, but the independent cannot see it. The all-important question of the hour is, not when the Dutch traded and sold our ancestors into bondage, but how can we get our share of the world democracy for which we have been fighting Germany. Races do not celebrate their induction into slavery, but celebrate and make immortal their emancipation from every form of human servitude. What we want and the things we must confer about are, the right to vote and to have our votes fairly counted; equal accommodations on the railroads and all lines of transportation; segregation in public office and public places wiped out; the right to sit on juries and be tried in the courts by and before our peers; equal distribution of the public school funds and protection to life, liberty and property. While contending for these rights, we our rights to hold office or to enjoy any other privilege that the government holds out to any citizen. We merely place the rights of all the people above the rights of a few. We mean no close rank policy, or forget our grievances, until the inter-white men, for white men and by white men. No closing of ranks or forgetting our troubles—but opening the ranks and a steady fire all along the front until every wrong locally or nationally, civilly or politically shall give way to a government by the people. No compromise! No! No! No compromise, but a fight along constructive, radical if necessary— and constructive lines until we enjoy fully, and equally with every American citizen, the fruits of universal liberty come to the Negro in this country when he protests that he does not want to be known in national life as an American citizen.

This heritage will not come to us by a continuous campaign of agitation and protest. We must get together under a safe and wise leadership and press our interests everywhere—learn to regard insults to one Negro, civilly or politically as an insult to the race. We want leadership that wears no rags on its head, that has a backbone of steel, a heart of courage and an intellect keen to discover and resent injustice. A leadership that stands for the rights of all the people; one that seeks to relieve persecution for the race's sake, and will not compromise for money or position. A leadership endowed with the genius of organization, one that can solidify and unify the potent factors of twelve million patriotic people. Then, and not until then, can we sing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." We want the freedom in America among a citizenship that America has won for the world in dethroning Kaiser William and Prussianism down in Europe.

Here is to a leadership that will not compromise with race prejudice or halt on the threshold of of temporary defeat.—ATLANTA INDEPENDENT.

NEGRO'S ATTACK ON WOMAN IS SIGNAL FOR RACE RIOT

WINSTON SALEM, N. C, Nov. 19. —Four known dead and a score or more injured, five of them seriously, was the toll early today, following a night of rioting resulting from an attempted lynching.

Troops rushed here shortly after midnight apparently have the situation well in hand.

Police believe others may have been killed. Firing continued up to an early hour today, efforts of the home guard and police to restore order being unavailing prior to the arrival of the troops.

The mob formed Sunday afternoon and stormed the jail, seeking a negro charged with shooting J. E. Childress, a farmer, and Sheriff Flint and attacking rMs. Childress. After difficulty the police drove the mob out of the jail after the negro sought had been seriously wounded.

Prof. J. W. Hughes has written a letter to Hon. Emmitt J. Scott requesting him to use and bring to bare all the influence within his reach to have a Colored man go to the "Peace Table" as a delegate.

Many important reasons are given as to why one of our race should attend this great meeting

One of great importance is that a law of the League of nations should be so written that it would end mob violence in any nation belonging to the League of nations.

PERSONAL MENTION

Messrs. O. W. Gurley and Ed Howard, after transacting business in Chicago, returned home this week. These gentlemen are among our wide-awake business men.

Miss Hillard of Muskogee has been a visitor to our city, and one certain gentleman has been carrying around a full face of smiles.

Mrs. Nevella Lee Patton, the bride of Sunday evening's nutials, received a message yesterday morning stating that her younger brother, James F. Walker, who is now in Pueblo, Colorado, is very low sick. She may go to her brother's bedside soon.

Rev. Tucker and his congregation sent The Star a nice sum of money Monday morning to help the paper succeed. If more of our leaders would manifest that kind of interest in The Star it would be a decided success. No one questions Rev. Tuckers loyalty to Race enterprises.

Major Brooks, the big cigar maker of the Race, who has a factory at Okmulgee, was a Tulsa visitor recently to notify his many customers that it was almost an impossibility to secure boxes in which to put up his wares. The Star sympathizes with Mr. and Mrs. Brooks in the death of their son which occurred recently at Okmulgee.

The Booker T. Washington High School of Tulsa and Manual Training School of Muskogee will settle their differences so far as foot ball is concerned Saturday evening at 3:30. The game promises to be a good one.

Rev. Father W. S. J. Challoughlczilczise, heir to the Provincial Throne of Abyssinia, and Rev. Dawson, pastor of the A. M. E. Church of Okmulgee, were here this week for a large order of printing that we turned out for the Reverend Father.

The building recently purchased by Mr. W. H. Smith from Mr. Lee McGregor is being torn down and a modern two-story brick will be erected; the first floor to be used for merchantile purpose, and the upper floor will be used as sleeping apartments.

The Baptists and their friends are making elaborate preparations to entertain the State Convention which convenes here next week A large number of our people from various parts of the state will be in attendance.

Attorney, R. J. Hill and wife, after a profitable stay at Oklahoma City, where they attended the International Bible Convention are home to the delight of their many friends. The Star in previous issue, stated that Mr. Hill left for Indianapolis, and it should have been Oklahoma City. The Convention was largely attended and Rev. and Mrs. Hill, reports a the session a grand one. Rev. Hill was the only Colored man who had the pleasure of addressing the Convention.

A BRILLIANT ATTORNEY

Hon. H. A. Guess

This gentleman has made good as a barrister, and has the confidence of both races. Mr. Guess is not only an able man, but a high-class gentleman.

Judge A. J. Smitherman left Thursday evening to transact business at Shawnee.

Health conditions are normal in Tulsa again.

NINE MEN TAKEN TO STATE PRISON

Frank Wright and Fred Rothwell, Convicted of Murder, Are Life Termers.

the Oklahoma state penetentiary at McAlester, nine men convicted of from Tulsa County jail Thursday morning to serve their various terms.

Frank Wright, a Negro convicted with Glen Jenkins, of murder and Fred Rothwell, of Skiatook, convicted of murder of his wife, are to serve life terms. Jenkins was taken to the penetentiary last Monday.

Those sentenced to shorter terms were: Allen Crockett, three years on grand larceny charges; Juan Medina, two years for grand larceny; Harry Truex, Walter Pierce, Arthur Kelly, F. E. Fairbanks from one to three years for grand larceny. Gene Deceptibus will serve a term after conviction on the charge of embezzlement of express matter.

Every week The Star is on its mission to the public not only fighting for the principles of democracy, but striving to educate the people along the lines of right living, love for humanity and in fact every way in which a medium of publication can advise. Read our paper and keep up with the latest news.

Charles Smith, A. Loving, and Homer Patterson were among those wounded in the shooting affray at Loving's place Wednesday night.

Don't forget the Patriotic Ball and Cake Walk, Wednesday, Thanksgiving Eve. Nov. 27th. at Convention Hall.

Mr. Goodwin is transacting business in Kansas City.

Miss L. M. Elliott, after visiting a sick sister in Muskogee returned home Wednesday.

Fire destroyed a three room rent house, near the residence of Mr. Jim Cherry, Wednesday.

Clyde Harold Wright, a 6-year-old boy died in the Gurley Addition, and the funeral will be conducted by Jackson and Goodwin to-day.

OF ONE BLOOD

Have you read "Of One Blood?" If oot, be sure to read it. You will find it at the library. Don't fail to get it.

Mr. Willie Andrew Clary, a young man, died at 918 Haskell St., and the funeral will be conducted by Jackson and Goodwin.

Mr. T. J. Elliott, of the firm of Elliottt and Hooker, spent a few hours here Wednesday. This man of our Race has made a record in the Mercantile world that is creditable indeed, and the young Colored man can well afford to pattern after him.

Mr. D. W. Filmore, the energetic Salesman for the Elliott & Hooker Store, is working in Sapulpa this week, and is doing a large business in that city.

Mr. D. W. Filmore who is making things go for the Elliott & Hooker firm of this city, as traveling salesman, returned to the city Sunday after a successful week at Bristow.

The Star the past week printed some matter for the rally to be given by the A. M. E. church Sunday, Nov. 24th for the purpose of raising some money with which to pay insurance on the church. Dr. Tucker is making things go; he is never found shirking when it comes to helping the race.

which there will never be a resurrection. They also know that Hell and the grave means one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of non existence. They further know that the Lake of Fire and Brim-stone mentioned in the scriptures is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are or should be fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs and principal cities, while they really existed, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers, including our Lord Jesus, many times used the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal cesspool, or garbage burner, (designated in the Bible as the valley of Hinnom, the lake burning with fire and brim-stone) to convey the proper thought concerning the coming kingdom of righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established in all the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in that kingdom shall have been established in all the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in that Kingdom which which will hurt and offend the people. according to the rules for the government of the literal city of Jerusalem (made of stone, cement, brick and mortar), all filth was to be cast into the literal cesspool or lake burnting with fire and brimstone to be consumed. Just so will it be in the antitypical city, the New Jerusalem, which is not made with hands or hammer. The antitypical cesspool or lake of fire which is to consume the filth of this antitypical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone but is the second death. In other words the cesspool or garbage burner for the New Jerusalem is the second death. Rev. 19:20; 20:14, 15; 21:8.

There are many poor persons of humble minds who desires to do the Lord's will but they are kept in darkness by a number of ignorant and selfish persons who are posing as ministers of God. I am glad to say that quite a number of ministers over the country are honest enough to ackniwledge to their congregation that they have been teaching error. But to those who know not the truth and careless and who continue to dope the poor people with doctrines of fire and brim-stone and concoctions of emotionalism and whose chief aim is to gather in money and make a big show to the world I warn you that your days are numbered. The good shepherd is near. He will not much longer permit you unfaithful servants to make a business of pening up and fleecing (collecting money from) His sheep. Oh the shame and confusion that will soon cover yoru faces for propogating the blasphemous doctrine of Eternal Torment, when your whole congregation come to know the justice of God and that the Bible does not teach this GOD-DISHONORING, TRUTH - BECLOUDING, LOVE - EXTINGUISHING, SAINT - HINDERING, SINNER-HARDENNING, DAMNABLE HERESAY OF ETERNAL TORMENT (2 Peter 2:1).

GOV.-GENERAL OF PHILIPPINES FOR FREEDOM

Declares It Not Right That Freedom Should Longer Be Withheld.

By FRANCIS BURTON HARRISON, Governor-General of the Philippines. (First Article.)

Gov. Gen. Harrison

My six years' experience as governor-general of the Philippine Islands have convinced me that the Filipino people are ready and fit to have their independence. I have recommended to Congress, as well as to the executive administration, that independence be granted.

As to the question of the stability of government, I wish to say to the American people upon my responsibility as the governor-general that in my opinion there exists today in the Philippine Islands a stable government, which I think should answer the requirements laid down by Presidents Grant and McKinley, and as I understand it, also by Mr. Root—namely, a government elected by the suffrage of the people, which is supported by the people, which is capable of maintaining order and of fulfilling its international obligations.

I am very glad to go on record as being entirely in sympathy with the aspirations of the Filipino nation for independence.

I have recommended to Congress that in granting independence some provision be made similar to what is known as the Platt amendment in the treaty with Cuba, which restricts the ability of the new republic in borrowing of foreign governments and also permits the United States to interfere with the affairs of the new republic in case conditions of disorder should be found to prevail. Such recommendation does not come as an expression of the views of the Filipinos; it is my own view of what would be desirable to secure a feeling of confidence and satisfaction on the part of all persons who have already invested money in the Philippines or who contemplate doing so in the near future.

But it is not right that independence itself should longer be delayed.

By temperament, by experience, by financial ability, in every way, the 11,000,000 Filipinos are entitled to be free from every government except of their own choice. They are intelligent enough to decide for themselves.

I have found the native Filipino official to be honest, efficient and as capable of administering executive positions as any men I have met anywhere in the world.

These officials are today governing 1,000 municipalities and forty-two provinces, economically, efficiently and for the good of the entire people. They have a native congress, including many graduates of Yale, Princeton, Harvard and other American universities. Other members are graduates of Santo Tomas and other Philippine universities, and in education and ability they compare favorably with any I know.

They have leaders like Speaker Osmena of the House of Representatives and President Quezon of the Senate who would adorn any office.

The Philippines are away ahead of the United States in successful government ownership and operation of public utilities.

The government took hold of the steam railways and made them pay a profit of 1,000,000 pesos a year more than under private ownership.

It took hold of the highways, and we have 7,000 miles of the best macadamized roads in the world. The Manila city government is about to take over the street railways and the gas and electric plants, while the territorial government is arranging for ownership and control of the coal supply.

The movement for independence is a peaceful one. No territory was more loyal to Uncle Sam during the war. It offered an armed and equipped division to our government, gave it a submarine destroyer and oversubscribed Liberty loans and Red Cross funds.

Two million natives speak English fluently, and there are 700,000 English speaking children in the public schools.

I am more than willing to retire if the Filipinos can be granted what they deserve—a government like that of the United States.

A MISREPRESENTED RACE.

The Filipino people are a much misrepresented race. The frequent publication of pictures of semi-naked Mindanao Moros and Igorotes has caused a great many Americans to believe they are typical of the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such is far from the case, however. Of 11,000,000 inhabitants of the islands, 10,500,000 are a Christian, civilized people with a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations. The Filipino women are exceptionally modest. A street flirtation in Manila, so far as a Filipino woman is concerned, is something that is almost unknown, as any American that has visited Manila will testify.

City Folks Becoming Wanderers Due to Increasing Cost of Homes

More Than 54 Per Cent of Nation's Population Are Paying Rent, Interchurch Survey Shows—New York City Leads Country, With 97 in Every 100 in Manhattan Giving Monthly Tribute to Landlord.

More than 88 per cent of the homes in New York City are rented. In the Borough of Manhattan the percentage rises to 97.

Nor is this condition limited to the Metropolis. It is common to most cities. The people of the United States who live in rented homes are in excess of 54 per cent of the population, according to the latest government returns. About 45 per cent can own the houses in which they live.

These statistics have been collected for the survey of city life now being conducted by the Interchurch World Movement to provide a practical program for closer co-operation of Protestant Churches in America. And the survey already reveals one of the gravest problems now confronting the Church.

Rented homes, the survey shows, mean migrant families, for the day of the long lease is passing, and increases in rent cause increases in moving. The migration of families has shifted and changed the congregations of urban churches. And too often the family that moves beyond the reach of one church does not transfer its membership to another, even though it attends that other.

The moving family, say the workers on the survey, leaves the church letter, by which membership is transferred, and the family eat behind. If the church did not have more lives than a cat, these survey workers are beginning to think, it would have been dead long ago, for, just as the family "loses" its cat, a church loses members, although another church does not gain them.

One preacher in a pastorate of 11 years noted 3,000 changes in his congregation.

The present generation of the city, the survey reveals, is a generation of wanderers because of the growing number of rented homes and the rising rents. As a result, the family church is becoming an urban rarity. The family in which the father is a founder of the Church he attends married to a member of the congregation, and with children baptized by the family minister, is more and more seldom found, the survey workers report.

Too often the increase in rent has sent the family to another neighborhood. One purpose of the Interchurch World Movement survey of the cities is to determine how, through the efficient co-operation of churches which is the major aim of the movement, migrant families may not be lost to the membership of their respective denominations.

ARE YOU SICK!

Your Resolution Should Be.

"I will Get Well the Mechano-Therapy Way"

Mechano-Therapy is a scientific method of finding the cause of disease in the spinal column (back bone), and correcting that cause by adjusting the vertebræ (segments) of the spine to eliminate any pressure on the nerves that pass out from the spinal cord to supply all parts of the body with nerve force (life). When this is done nature will make you well. Mechano-Therapy adjustments open the channels for nature to do her work.

Let us explain how Mechano-Therapy will make you well. No charge for consultation.

So-called headaches, eye diseases, deafness, epilepsy, vertigo, insomnia, wry neck, facial paralysis, locomtor ataxia and other inco-ordinations are caused by pressure on nerves at this point.

Pressure on nerves in this part of the spine is the cause of so-called throat trouble, neuralgia, pain in arms, goitre, nervous prostration, la grippe, dizziness, bleeding from nose, disorder of gums, catarrh and other so-called "diseases."

Pressure on nerves here will cause so-called bronchitis, felons, pain between the shoulder blades, hay fever, writers' cramp, and other troubles.

Nerve pressure at this point causes so-called nervousness, heart disease, asthma, pneumonia, tuberculosis, difficult breathing and other lung troubles.

So-called stomach and liver troubles, enlargement of the spleen, pleurisy and a score of other troubles are caused by pressure on nerves in this part of the spine.

At this point we find the cause of so-called gall stones, dyspepsia of upper bowels, fevers, shingles, hiccough, worms, and many other inco-ordinations.

Pressure on nerves at this point will cause so-called Bright's disease, diabetes, floating kidney, skin diseases, boils, eruptions and rheumatism.

Such troubles as so-called appendicitis, peritonitis, lumbago, etc., yield to Mechano Therapy adjustments in this part of the spine.

Why have so-called constipation, rectal troubles, sciatica, etc., when [illegible] adjustments at this part of the spine will eliminate the cause?

A slight displacement of one or both hip bones will produce so-called sciatica, together with many "diseases" of pelvis and lower extremities.

For any of these ailments, or that d readed pain in the side and back see

WELL KNOWN COOK MURDERED BY THREE WHITE MEN

What is considered by officers a cold blood murder was committed in Joe Lockard's cafe on East Archer about 12 o'clock Sunday night when Will Mosley, night cook at the place, where he has been employed for sometime by Mr. Lockard, was shot todeath by a white man known as "Blacky," who with two companions, both white, entered the cafe and ordered something to eat. While the food was being prepared for the men, "Blacky" went into the kitchen and deliberately picked a quarel with the cook, who ordered him out of the kitchen. When the three had finished eating they arose and "Blacky" pulled a revolver and shot several times at Mosley who was standing inside the dining room. Their victim fell mortally wounded and died before medical aid could reach him.

According to information secured by the Star reporter, "Blacky" has quite a reputation around Tulsa as a "high jack." It is not known who his companions were, but officers are making every effort to apprehend the trio.

BE WARNED; STOP GIVING HEED TO DOCTRINES OF DEMONS

Text: Those Angels Which Kept Not Their First Estate.—Jud. 6.

(By RICHARD J. HILL.)

The Bible's teaching that the earths atmosphere is infested with evil spirits is now generally disbelieved as a result of this disbelief thousands of well meaning people are being more or less easily intrapped by these evil spirits. The blight is both physical and moral; the usual method of procedure by these spirits is to arouse curiosity, when the quest for knowledge procedes, and influence much like that of hypnotism affects the investigator, impelling him forward to further investigation. Somethimes the curiosity is attracted through the outer senses at spiritualistic meetings with Ouija Boards, etc.

At other times it is by Spirits rappings. Again, it may be whisperings in the ear audible to others. At other times the messages come through trance Mediums but in every instance these communications purport to come from dead Human beings.

This of it's self gives to the communication a special charm to many They fell honored in being sought by the dead and in being able to communicate with them, they are curious for information respecting the hereafter. Not infrequently do these spirits personate the Heavenly Father and Christ and urge more prayer and accuse sin and recommend the reading of the Scripture. this appears to be with a view to gaining the confidence of the will.

But later on dishonorable suggestions are made. The Bible is scorned, prayer is laughed at. If, then, the subject takes fright and seeks to break the hypnotic chains, the evil spirits laugh at him, swear at him, and some times tell him that they will shortly have him fully in their power to roast him forever. If he attempts to pray they intrude and interrupt and tell him that God will not hear him now, that he has gone too far, etc. With some, the matter goes so far that the human will is broken down completely and the spirit obsess them and use their bodies foolishly—sometimes viciously, sometimes insanely, until finally they are pronounced dangerous and committed to an asylum. We do not claim that all of the insane are obsessed of evil spirits, but so far as we can judge, nearly one half the inmates of asylums are obsessed by demons who live in them while they are mastering their wills

God, through his word has forewarned his people against these delusions. In permitting his people to fall into these traps He, God, is merely teaching them a great lesson. The terrible results of disobedience, of neglect of God's word. The Divine arrangement is that ultimately the entire human family shall be released from the bonds of sin and death, ignorance and superstition and all have full opportunity for coming into full harmony with God. The present lesson will illustrate to man the necessity for searching the Scripture and obeying God's voice therein.

St. Paul, in describing this very day in which we now live declares one of it's prominent signs to be that many will give heed to these seducing spirits, whose teachings and practices lead away from God. St. Paul intimates also that by these misleading spirits many will come to hold doctrines of demons, or Devilish doctrines. It is a sad commentary upon our wonderful day of enlightenment that the most enlightned people should hold to and believe in the most awful doctrine respecting the hereafter. It certainly is a doctrine of demons which teaches that nine hundred and ninety-nine out of every thousand of humanity are to be eternally tortued either because of Divine incompetence to make better arrangements for them, or because God willed and fore-ordained it so before creation. This doctrine of demons has enslaved many honorable people who would themselves scorn to be accredited of making such a plan of the ages as thew attribute to God.

But we thank God, that the time is not far distant when these seducing spirits will be completely bound restrained, and decieve humanity no more. But the deception has so long prevailed that poor humanity is thoroughly under it's control. The falsehood leading up to all this error is Satan's first old lie to our parents in the Garden of Eden. There, contradicting the words of God, he said, "Ye shall not, surely die." Ever since, for six thousand years, he has worked along this line and all the fallen angels have been working with him. His message is "Ye shall not surely die." You do not surely die. When men seem to die, they become more alive than before they die. On account of these errors that dead men are alive, Satan and the fallen Angels, contrary to the teachings of the Bible, have instilled into the people of the whole world nonsencial and heathen superstitions respecting Heaven, Purgatory and Hell. Catholics pray for those who go to Purgatory to help them out, Protestants do not so pray, believing that the saintly few go direct to Heaven and that all the unsaintly go directly to eternal torture. If this great lie (Ye shall not surely die) wherewith Satan first seduced Mother Eve and murdered our Race could be fully eliminated from the minds of the people and from the religious creeds it would mean a religious revolution for both Catholics and Protestants—men would turn to the Bible and away from the domination and seduction of these lying spirits and the fallen Angels who are now busy personating humanity.

So far as we can learn from those who have once been spirit Mediums the trend of the spiritism is toward unchastity, and impurity. And this agrees with the scripitorial declaration relative to the sin through which these fallen Angels first became reprobates. Saint Jude: 6, and Saint Peter: (2 Peter 2: 4) tell us briefly of the fall of the Angels—that they left their own habitations and kept not their first estate. Both Apostles mention the circumstances in connection with human lasciviousness. This story of the fall of the Angels is given to us briefly in Gen. 6: 1-4. After Man's fall into sin God permitted the Holy Angels to have communication with humanity. As because human eyes can not see spirit beings, God permitted the Angels to materalize, that is to take on human form. For instance, we note the case of the Angels who visited Abraham on the plains of Mamre and for whom he prepared a veal dinner. We read that, materialided the Angels were like men while they ate and talked with him. It was subsequently that Abraham learned that they were really Heavenly visitants so it was with all the Angels before the flood. They were permitted to materialize and to appear in every sense of the word as men. The records show that the Angels became lusful. We read, "The sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair and took unto themselves wives of such as they chose." The Angels, with superior powers and superior knowledge to man, acted as the masters of men, who were practically obliged to do their bidding. The result is stated in few words. The children of the union of inferior humanity with the superior angelic beings produced a race as we are told, who were giants as compared with the ordinary members of our Race. And not only were they giants physically, but also intellectually—"They were men of renown." Poor humanity could not compete with this race. The result was that strife and contention and lustful, and sinful practices abounded in all the earth, until God declared that every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart was only evil continually. God had foreknown all of this and a canopy of waters, which then surrouided the earth similar to Satura's rings now, was held in readiness to cause a flood, that sinful men and the human offspring of these lustful Angels might be destroyed. Only Noah and his family were found worthy of preservation to be the new start of humanity this side of the flood. The declaration of the scripture respecting Noah's family is, "Now Noah was perfect in his generation," he was properly generated or born and so was his children. There was no strain or admixture of Angelic stock in that family. The plain inference of the scripture is that the remainder of humanity was so degraded by the seduction of those fallen Angels that they were not fit to live. The entire race had become corrupt. (Sorry to say the present race and generation of mankind are fast approaching the same condition morally that pertained just before the flood of Noah's day).

Of course the fallen Angels were not destroyed in the flood for they not only had power to materialize, that is the ability to change to human form, but also they had the power to dematerialize, that is to change from human body and form back to spirit being. It was at that time however, that all of the fallen Angels were put under restraint—that is not permitted again to materalize and they were to remain in this condition of restraint until the Judgement of the Great day. Their restraints or chains are not physical to confine them to a place in Tartarus—the earth's atmosphere. They may roam at will anywhere but are chained or restrained from materializing. The intimation of the scripture seems to be that, with the ending of the Gospel age, just prior to the inauguration of the new dispensation, these evil spirits may be allowed to break their chains and manifest themselves as men, in connection with the great time of trouble incidental to the change of dispensation. (That time is right now). Separated from God and the Holy Angels and unable to assume human bodies these sinful Angels have probably had terrible experiences during the past forty-four hundred years. It is well understoon by the thoughtful that true happiness is not to be expected amongst those alienated from God. Anger, malice, hatred, strife, works of the Devil the Apostle says are not compatible with the love, joy and peace which belongs alone to a condition of holiness. Under such circumstances we cannot wonder that the fallen angels ,would seek association with humanity. And they being under the control of Satan as a chief or Prince of Devils have followed his course and propagated his original lie, "Ye shall not surely die." They have conjured the minds of men to believing in the hell of the heathens, the hell and purgatory of the Catholics and worse of all the enternal and never ending torture taught by Protestants. These doctrines of demons have increased the gulf between God and humanity and have made the Bible a message of God's love, a book of terrors—not to be loved, but merely to be endured or kept as a fetish to secure possibly a cooler place in Purgatory. We may safely say that all the false doctrines of the creeds of the various Denominations of Christendom and of the dark ages are doctrines of demons, our minds have become defiled our hymn-books, our creeds, in fact everything and the greatest agents or exponents of these doctrines of demons and the clergy whether intelligently or ignorantly. The world has a right to believe what the clergy says since they pose as God's representatives and mouth-pieces here on earth but the ninety-nine out of every one-hundred of the clergy and the great and wise of today are, the cause of selfishness and pride of heart under the influence, in one form or another, of the fallen Angels. I make this criticism of the clergy and the most prominent of today not in the sense of a know-all or in hatred for those criticised but in the sense of one who loves and heartily desires that the poor blinded world have timely warning against this great flood of evil spirits which through cunning devices are deceiving the poor people to their great injury. We thank God that the light of the new despencation is now bringing to us the beginning of blessings—release from some of our darkness. The seeing of the true wage of sin—that it is death and not eternal torment—is one of the most important features connected with our enlightenment. When we lear that the dead are really dead and, as the Bible declares, will not know anything until the resurrection, then we begin to see the beauty of God's plan. The needs of Christ's death, the need of His second coming, the need of His Kingdom, the need of a resurrection, the need of an opportunity for all mankind to come to a clear knowledge of the great truth of redemption through Christ's blood, and the opportunity then by God's grace of obtaining eternal life.

Our great Redeemer manifested his power by casting out demons from those who have become obsessed. And we read further where he commissioned his Apostles to heal all manner of diseases and to cast out unclean spirits. We are told that they did this in numerous instances. An illustration is given us of one man who was obsessed by a legion of these spirits. No wonder the poor fellow was crazy but after they were cast out he was clothed and in his right mind and became a dicipie—Luke: 8; 26-30. St. Paul and Silas had an experience with an obsessed young woman who practiced soothsaying, fortune telling, like many are doing today, by the power of the evil spirits which obsessed her. As the evil spirits recognized Jesus and cried, "We know Thee who thou art Jesus." So this spirit knew the Apostles and through the young woman's lips cried after them "these be the Servants of the most high God which show to us the way to obtain eternal life. Act. 16; 18" Neither Jesus or the Apostles were willing to accept testimonies from persons under the influence of these evil spirits but would command the evil spirits to come out of their victim. So it should be with the earnest Christian and sober-minded people of today, they should keep away from the influence of everything and everybody who appear to be under the influence of these fallen Angels, fortune telling, Devine healing, hypnotism, Christian Science and any and all these phenomenas which are not easily explained. Many of the wise of the world have become victims of spiritism because they dared to use human wisdom and have attempted to investigate the claims of spiritism but such is foolishness on the part of anyone. An attempt to investigate the phenomenas of spiritism is just what the fallen Angels want for there is no human being wise enough to cope with these wicked Angels who are old with age and can read the thoughts of men.

The scripture indicates that there will be a wonderful activity amongst the fallen Angels at the close of this Gospel age. The Master declared that the deception would be such that, if it were possible the very elects would be deceived. But that will not be possible because divine providence stands engaged to protect the elect. The 91 Psalms which gives a picture of the closing of this age and its sundry trials and tests, declares that God will give his messengers a charge concerning the Feet-members of the body of Christ in all their ways—lest a foot should be dashed against a stone of stumbling. Psalms; 91: 12.

GALLEY FOUR

As Satan and the fallen Angels operate largely through the children of disobedience, so God and his Holy Messengers use not only the scriptures but also God's children of obedience as his mouth-pieces, as helpers, and as God's Ambassadors in building one and others up in the most Holy Faith. Hence, the time when a thousand shall fall at thy side and ten thousand at thy right hand, will be also the time when these ensnaring and deceptive errors will not come nigh the members and true followers of the Body of Christ. If our understanding of the scriptures be correct we need not be surprised if the fallen Angels may again seemingly gain a victory over the Divine restraints and materialize that is, take on the form of the human body in broad day light—personating not only the dead but also at times personating the living. The Spiritualist and Mediums are already claiming such things and tre beginning to take place on a grand scale. Should it come (and it is most certain to come, that is, the fallen Angels be permitted to take on human form) it will inaugurate a terrible time of trouble such as has not been since the flood. God's people while resting confidently and at ease under divine supervision, should be on the alert to resist everything akin to spiritism occultism, hypnotism, and to warn their friends respecting these things. Numerous scientific men are being entrapped by these lying spirits whose doings and powers they are unwittingly investigating under the name of Psychicphenomena, we thank God that we are nearing the time when Satan shall be bound and when every evil influence shall be restrained. Not only will there be a full cleansing from a physical obsession, but there will also be a still greater cleansing and freeing from the doctrines of demons.

BURR THREATENS TO SUE.

IN LAST WEEK'S ISSUE if the Star there appeared a news report of an incident that occurred in the lodge room of the Colored Elks of this city in which J. M. Burr, employed as a teacher in one of the Schools of this city, was mentioned as one of principal.

The article was an impartial report of news as obtained from reliable sources and was published without malice to any of the parties concerned.

J. M. Burr came into the Star office before the article was published and said he had been advised that such article would appear, and endeavired by special request and the jingle of a few silver dollars in his pocket to have the article kept out of the paper.

This, of course, he could not do, and he left the office. The article appeared, and was forgotten so far as the Star office is concerned, until Thursday morning when we received the following letter from Denney and Allen, a white law frm of this city:

Tulsa, Oklahoma, March 23, 1920.

A. J. Smitherman,
Publisher of Tulsa Star,
Dear Sir:

We represent J. M. Burr, who is making preparation who began action against you for liable, because the publication appearing in your paper under day of March 20th, 1920.

Professor Burr feels very much of aggrieved and has advised with us relative to your liability concerning the matter and we have told him that in our judgement your article was libelous and injurous to his reputation and good name. In the first place this was an unpriviledged communication, and in the second place, to publish an article like that, lessens a man's influence, damages his reputation, holds him up to public contempt, and ridicule and ruins his standing in the community as a teacher of good morals, and a leader of the younger element.

There is no questiin in our mind as to your liability and before filing suit we have decided we would submit the matter to you, and if you desire to adjust the matter without litigatiin, we will give you an opportunity to do so.

Yours very truly,
DENNY & ALLEN
By F. L. ALLEN.

These lawyers say, that in their judgement, the article was libelous and injurous to Burr's "reputation and good name," etc.

We will not attempt to discuss the legal phase of the question, for the reason that our legal training has not been as extensive as the writer of the above letter.

But our legal conception of "libel" does not agree with that of Denny and Allen. It is quite true that "libel," according to our training, is a noun meaning defamation of character or reputation, in the first case; any writing or printing calculated to injurg the reputation or character of a person and thus bring such person into public contempt, in the second case, "Libel" as a transitive verb, means the printing or publishing of a libelius statement against a person.

According to our conception of the law, a newspaper is guilty of libel when it publishes false statements about any person, but may publish anything against anybody, so long as it is true.

As to Burr's "good name," if he had any, he lost it when he lost his temper and began cursing those who were seeking to fellowship him into their organization. By his conduct on this occasiin he was adding to a reputation he had already made in Tulsa and elsewhere. As to his character—well a man's character is usually reflected in his conduct. Judging from this, Burr's character is no better than his reputation.

The Tulsa Star is a newspaper. It does not make the news, but after it is made the Star or any other newspaper may publish it. That's exactly what was done in Burr's case. We simply published his conduct and we have ample substantuation of everything published about him and a great deal more.

The Star has no desire at this time to pull back the curtain and reveal "Professor Burr" in his true light, but if it becomes necessary we can certainly do it.

Burr is not the character of man to be employed as a teacher of our boys and girls and no one knows this better than he. His usefulness to the schools of this city is at an end and he himself ended it. Unfortunately, Burr has deceived many of us in Tulsa. No other way could he have gone as far as he has. So far as his threatened libel suit is concerned, the editor of this paper has nothing to fear. We await patiently the next move of "Professor" Burr. In the language of the lamented Shakespear we say to Burr and his attorneys, "Lay on McDuff, and damned be he who first cries, 'hold, enough.'"

THE TULSA WORLD seems to be very much perturbed over the probability of the re-election of the present administration. On the editorial page of our illustrous contemporary is carried daily what might be called a "hand picked" ticket of five republicans and one democrat. This ticket the World would put into office, because the Wirld says they are the class of men that Tulsa needs. They are spotless and infallable, according to the World.

But that the majority of the peiple of Tulsa do not agree with the World in its position in the present campaign was very clearly shown by the votes polled in the primary election, and will be reaffirmed in the final decision to be registered in the general election. Some of us still remember a few months ago when the World was decidedly pro-Hubbard and published flattering editorials about the keen foresight, business sagacity etc., of our Mayor, and we are wondering what has happened to give the World a change of heart.

HON. RICHARD J. HILL, one of Tulsa's foremost citizens and a writer of note and ability, whose writings on Truth have appeared in the columns of this paper heretofore, resumes his writing with this issue of the Star, after several weeks omission, due to pressing business matters.

A number of our readers have expressed a desire to keep up with Mr Hill's articles and these, as well as many others will doubtless be pleased to again meet Mr. Hill through these columns. We commend him and his able writings to those who are earnestly seeking food for thought.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED? If you have been in the State one year, in the County six months and in the precinct thirty days, you are entitled to a vote in the approaching election. If you are interested in Tulsa and your own future well being, it is your imperative duty to register and vote on election day. Do your duty.

"Sunshine Club" is Organized

Mrs. F. R. Williams of this city has organized a children's club that is to be known as the "Sunshine Club." All children of this city are invited to join this club, which Mrs. Williams says is intended to help make better and happier children—a very worthy movement, indeed.

The public library on Frankfort and Archer has been donated to Mrs. Williams for use by the club every Sunday afternoon from four to five o'clock, which has been designated the "Story Hour."

Reading and telling stories will be the entertainmemt during these meetings, after which the children will be taken for an outing. Sunday afternoon following the club meeting the little ones will be given an auto ride around the city by Mrs. Williams.

Parents who desire may send their children to the library every Sunday afternoon.

"After The Ball" Reception.

One of the most enjoyable events given in connection with the recent successful Elks Ball at Convention Hall last Friday night was an impromptu reception given under the patronage of Mrs. L. Simmons, our well known and popular leader in Tulsa's best social circle. The reception was given in the handsomely furnished and spacious parlor of the Red Wing Hotel, and nothing was left undone in providing pleasure for all who had the honor to be guests of the generous hostess, Mrs. Simmons.

Those enjoying Mrs. Simmons' hospitality were: Mrs. Sarah Robinson, the Misses Evelyn Williams, Jessie Woods, M. Singleton, Prof. F. W. Bruner, Oklahoma City, Edward Howard, E. C. Corbett and Mr. and Mrs. Pressley. Entertainment was furnished by the Messrs. Wesley Manning and P. Lewis. It was not until the "wee sma' hours of morn" that the party broke up and left showering benedictions upon their hostess, Mrs. Simmons, for their early morning enjoyment.

BE WARNED; STOP GIVING HEED TO DOCTRINES OF DEMONS

Text: Those Angels Which Kept Not Their First Estate.—Jud. 6.

(By RICHARD J. HILL.)

The Bible's teaching that the earths atmosphere is infested with evil spirits is now generally disbelieved as a result of this disbelief thousands of well meaning people are being more or less easily intrapped by these evil spirits. The blight is both physical and moral; the usual method of procedure by these spirits is to arouse curiosity, when the quest for knowledge procedes, and influence much like that of hypnotism affects the investigator, impelling him forward to further investigation. Somethimes the curiosity is attracted through the outer senses at spiritualistic meetings with Ouija Boards, etc.

At other times it is by Spirits rappings. Again, it may be whisperings in the ear audible to others. At other times the messages come through trance Mediums but in every instance these communications purport to come from dead Human beings.

This of it's self gives to the communication a special charm to many They fell honored in being sought by the dead and in being able to communicate with them, they are curious for information respecting the hereafter. Not infrequently do these spirits personate the Heavenly Father and Christ and urge more prayer and accuse sin and recommend the reading of the Scripture. this appears to be with a view to gaining the confidence of the will.

But later on dishonorable suggestions are made. The Bible is scorned, prayer is laughed at. If, then, the subject takes fright and seeks to break the hypnotic chains, the evil spirits laugh at him, swear at him, and some times tell him that they will shortly have him fully in their power to roast him forever. If he attempts to pray they intrude and interrupt and tell him that God will not hear him now, that he has gone too far, etc. With some, the matter goes so far that the human will is broken down completely and the spirit obsess them and use their bodies foolishly—sometimes viciously, sometimes insanely, until finally they are pronounced dangerous and committed to an asylum. We do not claim that all of the insane are obsessed of evil spirits, but so far as we can judge, nearly one half the inmates of asylums are obsessed by demons who live in them while they are mastering their wills

God, through his word has forewarned his people against these delusions. In permitting his people to fall into these traps He, God, is merely teaching them a great lesson. The terrible results of disobedience, of neglect of God's word. The Divine arrangement is that ultimately the entire human family shall be released from the bonds of sin and death, ignorance and superstition and all have full opportunity for coming into full harmony with God. The present lesson will illustrate to man the necessity for searching the Scripture and obeying God's voice therein.

St. Paul, in describing this very day in which we now live declares one of it's prominent signs to be that many will give heed to these seducing spirits, whose teachings and practices lead away from God. St. Paul intimates also that by these misleading spirits many will come to hold doctrines of demons, or Devilish doctrines. It is a sad commentary upon our wonderful day of enlightenment that the most enlightned people should hold to and believe in the most awful doctrine respecting the hereafter. It certainly is a doctrine of demons which teaches that nine hundred and ninety-nine out of every thousand of humanity are to be eternally tortued either because of Divine incompetence to make better arrangements for them, or because God willed and fore-ordained it so before creation. This doctrine of demons has enslaved many honorable people who would themselves scorn to be accredited of making such a plan of the ages as thew attribute to God.

But we thank God, that the time is not far distant when these seducing spirits will be completely bound restrained, and decieve humanity no more. But the deception has so long prevailed that poor humanity is thoroughly under it's control. The falsehood leading up to all this error is Satan's first old lie to our parents in the Garden of Eden. There, contradicting the words of God, he said, "Ye shall not, surely die." Ever since, for six thousand years, he has worked along this line and all the fallen angels have been working with him. His message is "Ye shall not surely die." You do not surely die. When men seem to die, they become moge alive than before they die. On account of these errors that dead men are alive, Satan and the fallen Angels, contrary to the teachings of the Bible, have instilled into the people of the whole world nonsencial and heathen superstitions respecting Heaven, Purgatory and Hell. Catholics pray for those who go to Purgatory to help them out, Protestants do not so pray, believing that the saintly few go direct to Heaven and that all the unsaintly go directly to eternal torture. If this great lie (Ye shall not surely die) wherewith Satan first seduced Mother Eve and murdered our Race could be fully eliminated from the minds of the people and from the religious creeds it would mean a religious revolution for both Catholics and Protestants—men would turn to the Bible and away from the domination and seduction of these lying spirits and the fallen Angels who are now busy personating humanity.

So far as we can learn from those who have once been spirit Mediums the trend of the spiritism is toward unchastity, and impurity. And this agrees with the scriptorial declaration relative to the sin through which these fallen Angels first became reprobates. Saint Jude: 6, and Saint Peter: (2 Peter 2: 4) tell us briefly of the fall of the Angels—that they left their own habitations and kept not their first estate. Both Apostles mention the circumstances in connection with human lasciviousness. This story of the fall of the Angels is given to us briefly in Gen. 6: 1-4. After Man's fall into sin God permitted the Holy Angels to have communication with humanity. As because human eyes can not see spirit beings, God permitted the Angels to materalize, that is to take on human form. For instance, we note the case of the Angels who visited Abraham on the plains of Mamre and for whom he prepared a veal dinner. We read that, materialided the Angels were like men while they ate and talked with him. It was subsequently that Abraham learned that they were really Heavenly visitants so it was with all the Angels before the flood. They were permitted to materialize and to appear in every sense of the word as men. The records show that the Angels became lusful. We read, "The sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair and took unto themselves wives of such as they chose." The Angels, with superior powers and superior knowledge to man, acted as the masters of men, who were practically obliged to do their bidding. The result is stated in few words. The children of the union of inferior humanity with the superior angelic beings produced a race as we are told, who were giants as compared with the ordinary members of our Race. And not only were they giants physically, but also intellectually—"They were men of renown." Poor humanity could not compete with this race. The result was that strife and contention and lustful, and sinful practices abounded in all the earth, until God declared that every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart was only evil continually. God had foreknown all of this and a canopy of waters, which then surrouided the earth similar to Satura's rings now, was held in readiness to cause a flood, that sinful men and the human offspring of these lustful Angels might be destroyed. Only Noah and his family were found worthy of preservation to be the new start of humanity this side of the flood. The declaration of the scripture respecting Noah's family is, "Now Noah was perfect in his generation," he was properly generated or born and so was his children. There was no strain or admixture of Angelic stock in that family. The plain inference of the scripture is that the remainder of humanity was so degraded by the seduction of those fallen Angels that they were not fit to live. The entire race had become corrupt. (Sorry to say the present race and generation of mankind are fast approaching the same condition morally that pertained just before the flood of Noah's day).

Of course the fallen Angels were not destroyed in the flood for they not only had power to materialize, that is the ability to change to human form, but also they had the power to dematerialize, that is to change from human body and form back to spirit being. It was at that time however, that all of the fallen Angels were put under restraint—that is not permitted again to materalize and they were to remain in this condition of restraint until the Judgement of the Great day. Their restraints or chains are not physical to confine them to a place in Tartarus—the earth's atmosphere. They may roam at will anywhere but are chained or restrained from materializing. The intimation of the scripture seems to be that, with the ending of the Gospel age, just prior to the inauguration of the new dispensation, these evil spirits may be allowed to break their chains and manifest themselves as men, in connection with the great time of trouble incidental to the change of dispensation. (That time is right now). Separated from God and the Holy Angels and unable to assume human bodies these sinful Angels have probably had terrible experiences during the past forty-four hundred years. It is well understoon by the thoughtful that true happiness is not to be expected amongst those alienated from God. Anger, malice, hatred, strife, works of the Devil the Apostle says are not compatible with the love, joy and peace which belongs alone to a condition of holiness. Under such circumstances we cannot wonder that the fallen angels would seek association with humanity. And they being under the control of Satan as a chief or Prince of Devils have followed his course and propagated his original lie, "Ye shall not surely die." They have conjured the minds of men to believing in the hell of the heathens, the hell and purgatory of the Catholics and worse of all the enternal and never ending torture taught by Protestants. These doctrines of demons have increased the guif between God and humanity and have made the Bible a message of God's love, a book of terrors—not to be loved, but merely to be endured or kept as a fetish to secure possibly a cooler place in Purgatory. We may safely say that all the false doctrines of the creeds of the various Denominations of Christendom and of the dark ages are doctrines of demons, our minds have become defiled our hymn-books, our creeds, in fact everything and the greatest agents or exponents of these doctrines of demons and the clergy whether inteligently or ignorantly. The world has a right to believe what the clergy says since they pose as God's representatives and mouth-pieces here on earth but the ninety-nine out of every one-hundred of the clergy and the great and wise of today are, the cause of selfishness and pride of heart under the influence, in one form or another, of the fallen Angels. I make this criticism of the clergy and the most prominent of today not in the sense of a know-all or in hatred for those criticised but in the sense of one who loves and heartily desires that the poor blinded world have timely warning against this great flood of evil spirits which through cunning devices are deceiving the poor people to their great injury. We thank God that the light of the new despencation is now bringing to us the beginning of blessings—release from some of our darkness. The seeing of the true wage of sin—that it is death and not eternal torment—is one of the most important features connected with our enlightenment. When we lear that the dead are really dead and, as the Bible declares, will not know anything until the resurrection, then we begin to see the beauty of God's plan. The needs of Christ's death, the need of His second coming, the need of His Kingdom, the need of a resurrection, the need of an opportunity for all mankind to come to a clear knowledge of the great truth of redemption through Christ's blood, and the opportunity then by God's grace of obtaining eternal life.

Our great Redeemer manifested his power by casting out demons from those who have become obsessed. And we read further where he commissioned his Apostles to heal all manner of diseases and to cast out unclean spirits. We are told that they did this in numerous instances. An illustration is given us of one man who was obsessed by a legion of these spirits. No wonder the poor fellow was crazy but after they were cast out he was clothed and in his right mind and became a diciple—Luke: 8; 26-30. St. Paul and Silas had an experience with an obsessed young woman who practiced soothsaying, fortune telling, like many are doing today, by the power of the evil spirits which obsessed her. As the evil spirits recognized Jesus and cried, "We know Thee who thou art Jesus." So this spirit knew the Apostles and through the young woman's lips cried after them "these be the Servants of the most high God which show to us the way to obtain eternal life. Act. 16; 18" Neither Jesus or the Apostles were willing to accept testimonies from persons under the influence of these evil spirits but would command the evil spirits to come out of their victim. So it should be with the earnest Christian and sober-minded people of today, they should keep away from the influence of everything and everybody who appear to be under the influence of these fallen Angels, fortune telling, Devine healing, hypnotism, Christian Science and any and all these phenomenas which are not easily explained. Many of the wise of the world have become victims of spiritism because they dared to use human wisdom and have attempted to investigate the claims of spiritism but such is foolishness on the part of anyone. An attempt to investigate the phenomenas of spiritism is just what the fallen Angels want for there is no human being wise enough to cope with these wicked Angels who are old with age and can read the thoughts of men.

The scripture indicates that there will be a wonderful activity amongst the fallen Angels at the close of this Gospel age. The Master declared that the deception would be such that, if it were possible the very elects would be deceived. But that will not be possible because divine providence stands engaged to protect the elect. The 91 Psalms which gives a picture of the closing of this age and its sundry trials and tests, declares that God will give his messengers a charge concerning the Feet-members of the body of Christ in all their ways—lest a foot should be dashed against a stone of stumbling. Psalms; 91: 12.

GALLEY FOUR

As Satan and the fallen Angels operate largely through the children of disobedience, so God and his Holy Messengers use not only the scriptures but also God's children of obedience as his mouth-pieces, as helpers, and as God's Ambassadors in building one and others up in the most Holy Faith. Hence, the time when a thousand shall fall at thy side and ten thousand at thy right hand, will be also the time when these ensnaring and deceptive errors will not come nigh the members and true followers of the Body of Christ. If our understanding of the scriptures be correct we need not be surprised if the fallen Angels may again seemingly gain a victory over the Divine restraints and materialize that is, take on the form of the human body in broad day light—personating not only the dead but also at times personaling the living. The Spiritualist and Mediums are already claiming such things and tre beginning to take place on a grand scale. Should it come (and it is most certain to come, that is, the fallen Angels be permitted to take on human form) it will inaugurate a terrible time of trouble such as has not been since the flood. God's people while resting confidently and at ease under divine supervision, should be on the alert to resist everything akin to spiritism occultism, hypnotism, and to warn their friends respecting these things. Numerous scientific men are being entrapped by these lying spirits whose doings and powers they are unwittingly investigating under the name of Psychicphenomena, we thank God that we are nearing the time when Satan shall be bound and when every evil influence shall be restrained. Not only will there be a full cleansing from a physical obsession, but there will also be a still greater cleansing and freeing from the doctrines of demons.

Just now a stupendeous effort is being made every where to convince the people that the dead are alive and not dead and that the dead are really spirit beings and able to communicate, through Mediums with those who are living. The largest magazines and newspapers in this country are employed to spread the doctrine, and worst of all modern clergymen have drifted away from the Bible and are taking to psychic research., They have forsaken the wisdom of Jehovah and adopted the wisdom of men. They tell us that the dead are still alive, and to prove this they refer to phenomna such as table rapping Spiritual sances, hearing of voices etc,.

Some will insist that such great and learned men as Sir Oliver Lodge William T, Stead and other emenent scientists in their lifetime were firm believers in the ability to communicate with the dead. The great British Novelist, Conan Doyle, is another witness who insists that communication with the dead is a common thing. We wish to say that there is no doctrine taught in the scripture that is unreasonable, God invites his creatures to come and reason with him, saying, "Come now let us reason together sayth the Lord," (Isa. 9; 13), He expects of course that such a one will reason in the light of the scriptures, the divine word. But if any one ignores the scriptures he cannot reason along such lines,

Just here we desire to sound the warning that the teaching of the doctrine that the living can communicate with the dead is one of the great gigantic frauds that is deceiving mankind. The public press throughout the country, since the war, with big headlines have said: "The war has changed the world's view of life, death and hereafter." Had the writer been familiar with the scriptures he would not have written such a headline, because the so called phenomena is not new but ages old. It is true that since so many homes have been bereaved by the war there is a great desire to know of the condition of the dead friends; hence they are subject to the delusions practiced upon them by the great Advosary. Spiritualism is now sweeping over the world and when final accounting is made, it will be seen that the clergy are chiefly responsible for this, because they have failed to advise themselves concerning the Bible's teachings and have neglected to instruct the people. Hence the people are falling victims to this monastrous delusion.

That many are able to hear voices which claim to represent their dead friends, there can be no doubt. Instead of attempting to dispute the phenomina, we readily admit the happening of events claimed, But the voices heard are not the voices of dead friends, because dead people can not speak. They are not the voices of someone with whom you used to communicate with in the flesh. What, then, are those voices? And from whence come they?

We answer that after Adam had violated God's laws and was driven from Eden, God permitted certain of the Angelic host, spirit beings, to have a supervising control over man. (Heb. 2; 5). These Angels were spirit beings, but under the divine permission could materalize and appear unto human beings; for instance, when the Angel appeared to Abraham and again to Daniel, and other instances, (Gen. 22; 15), (Zac. 12; 9). The Genesis account is to the effect that the materialized spirit beings cohabited with the daughters of men. These "Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bear children to them. The same become mighty men, which were of old men of renown. And God saw that the wickedness of men was great on the earth and that every imagination of the heart was only evil continually." (Gen. 6; 1-5) All the peoples of earth had become so debauched with these degraded Angelic beings (Materialized as men) That only Noah and the members of his household was free from such. God declared that he would destroy all flesh in the earth. He directed Noah from to build an Ark in which to save himself and family. When this was completed Jehovah brought the great deluge upon the earth, and all human beings were destroyed that were not in the ark.

The materialized Angels were not human beings, yet they occupied human bodies; and while the deluge would destroy all flesh, it would not and did not destroy these spirit beings. What became of them? St. Peter answers: "God spared not the Angels that sinned but cast them down to Hell," (Tartarus), and delivered them into chains of darkness and to be reserved until judgement," (2 Peter; 2-4),. Saint Jude, corrobates this saying; "The Angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, (Proper condition), he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness until the judgement of the great day. (Jud. 6).

According to St. Peter these evil spirits were in prison in Tartarus, but not destroyed, Tartarus does not mean the grave, nor a place of torment, but it does signify a condition of restraint in darkness. These evil ones, then were as stated by the above authority, restrained under chains of darkness. And this restriction must continue until the judgement of the great day. The conclusion must be reached that at the time of the Judgement of the great day this restraint would be removed, in a measure at least, and these evil spirits permitted to work greater deceptions and wonders amongst the people than ever before. Since the time of the flood they have been in this condition of restraint. The world is now entering the great day of the Judgement as other scriptures show, and which we hope to show in the course of these articles. We are in a time therefore, when these evil spirits are to exercise and are exercising greater powers of deception than ever before, deceiving many of the brightest minds, and would deceive if possible the very elect of God.

From the time of the flood these evil spirits or demons have been able to communicate in some limited degree with those in the earth. To protect the children of Iseral, Jehovah specially provided in his law that it was a capital offense for anyone to have to do with these demons through instrumentalities of Mediums, witches or Necromancers. We cite a few provisions of the divine law in proof of this; "Thou shall not suffer a witch to live" (Exodus 22-18). "When thou cometh into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shall not learn to do after the abomination of those nations. There shall not be found among you any that use divinations, or an observer of times or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a Necromancer; for all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord," (Deut. 18; 10-12). A man also, or a woman, that hath a familiar spirit or that is a wizard, (Medium), shall surely be put to death," (Levtt. 20; 27).

When Jesus was on earth he found many persons whose minds had bee taken possession of by these demons and he cast them out, "When the even was come they brought unto him many that was possessed with demons, and he cast out the spirits with his word and healed all that was sick." (Matthew, 8-16), "And when he was come to the other side in the country of the Geergesenes there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way, And behold they cried out, saying, what have we to do with thee, Jesus thou son of God? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. So the devils besought him saying, "If thou cast us out suffer us to go away into the herd of swine," (Mat. 8; 28-31).

Saul was the King of Iseral he had been unfaithful to the Lord. The Philistines gathered to make war against Iseral. Samuel the good prophet was dead and Saul could not consult him. He called upon God in prayer, and the Lord answered him not. This story is recorded in First Samuel; 28th chapter, and shows the methods that the demons have used down through the ages to deceive men. Being fearful of the enemy the Philistines and getting no answer to his prayer, "Then Saul said unto his servants seek me a woman that hath a familar spirit that I may go and inquire of her. And the servant said to him there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor. Saul knew that the law required him to put to death all spirit Mediums or witches, and therefore if he appeared as the king, the witch would not act in his behalf. So the records disclose, he disguised himself and went to the cave at Endor to see the Medium and asked her to call up the one whom he would name. The witch, or Medium, then accused him of laying a trap to cause her death. Evidently the demons revealed to her the idenity of King Saul, then he promised her that she should not be punished. The witch then proceed to call up what was supposed to be Samuel the prophet, but which, in fact was the demon misrepresenting the prophet. These demons caused to pass before the mental vision of the witch one like unto the prophet, but Saul saw nothing himself. The description that she gave was that the one appearing was an old man wearing a mantel. We are reminded here that the evil spirits are spoken of as lying spirits and here we see that they lied to the witch and to Saul. Samuel was dead, and therefore could not appear. Being a good man, according to the theory of the clergyman, he must have been in Heaven, but he was not in fact, in Heaven. Had he been an evil man he would, according to the clergy, have been at that time in Hell fire and brimstone, and his mantle would certainly have been burned away, but he was not in fact, in such a place. The scriptures plainly state that Samuel was dead and he knew not anything. On that occasion, the demons, acting through the Medium, informed Saul that, "Tomorrow shalt thou and thy son be with me (Dead); The Lord also shalt deliver the host of Iseral into the hands of the Philistines." The well informed demons knew better than did Saul, the strength of the Philistines, their position and their army, and the weakness of Saul's position and army, and that Saul was already panic stricken and would be easily defeated. Any one familiar with the conditions would know that one day's battle would probably settle the question and that the logical result would be that Saul and his sons would be killed. Notwithstanding, the demons did not fully state the truth for two of Saul's sons escaped and lived for years arterwards. Some scholars even deny that the battle and death of Saul occurred the next day, but several days later. We cite this as a Biblical incident showing the manner in which the evil spirits operate.

With reference to hearing of voices of what is supposed to be those of dead friends and relatives we wish to say that these demons having been in existence for long ages and centuries, and possessing minds far superior to human minds are not only familiar with present conditions but are familiar with past conditions and the history of the lives of people. It would be an easy matter, therefore, for such demons to impersonate a dead person and refer to events familiar only to the persons envolved, and this would serve a greater means of deception. For the same reason and by the same methods these demons are able to produce other great phemonina, such as hand writing the painting of pictures, the productions of flowers, conveying of messages by telepathy, voices and other means of appearing to represent persons who are dead. That they are succeeding in deceiving many of the bright minds of the earth and through these deceivings, vast numbers of people no one can attempt gain say. Naturally these fallen angels would put forth greater efforts following a great war in which millions of lives were destroyed, and millions of others remaining on earth with sad hearts, and having a keen desire to know something of their dead friends. Under such conditions millions are falling victims to their deceptions. But one may suggest, why could any falling easy victims to their deceptions. But one may suggest, why could any evil come from this? We answer that back of every act there is a motive and the motive is either good or bad. If the motive is bad, evil must result. Beyond question these demons are evil. All their thoughts are wickedness. The chief amongst all the devils is Satan, the father of lies, the great deceiver of mankind, and the enemy of God and of Rightousness and of everything that is good. (Jno. 3; 44). The first lie was that which he told mother Eve in Eden, " Thou shall not surely die." It was Satan who dabauched the Angels and caused them to fall away from their first estate. And through them he has been debauching and deceiving the human race ever since. He has ever kept before the minds of the people his original lie: "There is no Death." "Inherent immortality of all souls is Satan's lie stated in another form. The real motive, then, back of all this deception of mankind is that he may make them believe that all souls are immortal—(Can never die): Hence no need for the redemptive power and merit of Christ Jesus, and by this method turn away the people from the Lord. Concerning him and his mysterious work, Saint Paul wrote: "If our glad tidings be hid it is hid from them that are perishing, (The dying human race), in whom the God of this world, (Satan) hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them." (2 Cor. 4; 4).

Because of Adam's disobedience death came upon man. In due course, Jehovah provided for the redemption of mankind from death through the death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. (Heb, 2; 9; 1st Tim. 2-3). It is here to be seen that in God's due time all shall have an opportunity to be brought to a knowledge of the truth, and believing this shall have a chance to live. The hope of all the dead is the resurrection. And there is no doctrine so clearly taught in the Bible. If the soul it immortal if the dead are alive and can talk to the living then a resurrection would not only be useless but senseless. If the people's faith in the resurrection can be destroyed, their faith in the great redemptive sacrifice of Jesus is destroyed, and Satan has succeeded in his great deception. The scripture declares: "There is no other name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." (Act. 4; 12). Jesus Christ and Him crucified is the hope of mankind. Satan's doctrine of demon communicating with the dead, is diametrically opposed to the doctrines of the ransom sacrificed.

K. C. HAS ONLY INCORPORATED NEGRO POLITICAL PARTY

Built Up By Dr. W. J. Thompkins, Central Democratic Body has 2,800 Members, and Will Conduct Weekly Meetings During Campaign.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Apr. 3.—Negro political leaders declare that Mayor Cowgill will receive the largest Negro vote ever polled by a Democrat seeking office in Kansas City. Supporting the mayor in the race for a second term is the Negro Central Democratic organization of Kansas City and Jackson county, the only incorporated Negro political organization known to exist in the world.

The organization was built up by Dr. W. J. Thompkins, Negro physician, and a leader among those of his Race. He is superintended of the city hospital for Negroes, and received his political training directly under the late Sen. William Joel Stone. Doctor Thompkin's parents were slaves in the Stone family in Missouri.

The Negro Central Democratic organization has 2,800 members. Affiliated with the central body are ward and township clubs, and the representatives of every ward and township organization from the executive committee of the central organization. Doctor Thompkins is Chairman of the executive committee and A. V. Monholland, Negro business man, is president of the central organization.

During the present campaign the central organization will conduct meetings for the Negroes in every Negro district in the city.

Among the speakers at the weekly meeting at the headquarters of the organization, 1630 East Eighteenth street, were Judge Edward J Fleming, D mocratic candidate for re-election to the South municipal court; William J. Scannell, present Eighth ward alderman and a candidate for alderman on the upper house ticket, and the following Negro leaders: Doctor Thompkins, Monholland, the Rev. A. B. Harris, F. H. Payne, Ike Mitchell and John Umbles.

The International Committee of Young Men's Christian Association.

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—The Colored Men's Department of the International Committee Y. M. C. A. will conduct two important Student Y. M. C. A. Officers Training Conferences in co-operation with the various State Committees of the Southern and Southeastern Departments during April. Delegates from Arkansas, West Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma will convene at Prarie View College, Prarie View, Texas, April 15-19. Delegates from Mississippi, Louisiana, West Alabama, and West Tennessee will hold their sessions at Tougaloo College, Tougaloo Mississippi, April 22-26. The following speakers of State and National note have been invited: Dr. R E. Jones, New Orleans, Dr. C. V. Roman, Nashville, President John Hope, Atlanta, Pres. W. T. Holmes, Mississippi, Prof. Wallace Battle, Mississippi, Mr. B. M. Roddy, of Roddy Co-Operative Stores, Memphis, Profs. W. R. Banks and O. A. Fuller, Texas, State Secretaries: E. L. Gordon, Texas, Chac. Harris, Kentucky, Henry Attaway, Mississippi and others. Among the invited international secretaries are: Max Yergan, War Worker East Africa, Dr. J. E. Moorland, Senior Secretary Colored Men's Department, C. H. Tobias, Student Dept., J. B. Watson, Industrial Secretary, R. T. Weatherby, Industrial Secretary, Southeastern Department and others. The Conference will be directed by Mr. William C. Craver, International Student Secretary for the Southwestern Field.

LINCOLN REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

The fraud of Lincoln still persists! This time we find a clique of discredited Negro politicians and would-be job seekers hibernating, under the aegis of Governor Lowden, to Chicago, Illinois, to boom and boost his boom. This is the same Governor Lowden who winked at, connived at, and still holds in the penitentiary, Dr. Leroy Bundy of East St. Louis, because he simply acted in self defense when mobocrats were slaying Negroes, burning down their property and howling for his blood. We warn Negroes against Governor Lowden and against the Lincoln League. This Lincoln League is a capitalist tool composed largely of either hat-in-hand or ignorant Negroes seeking jobs and slush funds. This Lincoln League is a veritable Trojan Horse. We know, of course, that there are some respectable Negroes in the League, who have been innocently deceived by the charlatans and political parasites.—Messenger.

Just now a stupendeous effort is being made every where to convince the people that the dead are alive and not dead and that the dead are really spirit beings and able to communicate, through Mediums with those who are living. The largest magazines and newspapers in this country are employed to spread the doctrine, and worst of all modern clergymen have drifted away from the Bible and are taking to psychic research., They have forsaken the wisdom of Jehovah and adopted the wisdom of men. They tell us that the dead are still alive, and to prove this they refer to phenomna such as table rapping Spiritual sances, hearing of voices etc,.

Some will insist that such great and learned men as Sir Oliver Lodge William T, Stead and other emenent scientists in their lifetime were firm believers in the ability to communicate with the dead. The great British Novelist, Conan Doyle, is another witness who insists that communication with the dead is a common thing. We wish to say that there is no doctrine taught in the scripture that is unreasonable, God invites his creatures to come and reason with him, saying, "Come now let us reason together sayth the Lord," (Isa. 9; 13), He expects of course that such a one will reason in the light of the scriptures, the divine word. But if any one ignores the scriptures he cannot reason along such lines,

Just here we desire to sound the warning that the teaching of the doctrine that the living can communicate with the dead is one of the great gigantic frauds that is deceiving mankind. The public press throughout the country, since the war, with big headlines have said: "The war has changed the world's view of life, death and hereafter." Had the writer been familiar with the scriptures he would not have written such a headline, because the so called phenomena is not new but ages old. It is true that since so many homes have been bereaved by the war there is a great desire to know of the condition of the dead friends; hence they are subject to the delusions practiced upon them by the great Advosary. Spiritualism is now sweeping over the world and when final accounting is made, it will be seen that the clergy are chiefly responsible for this, because they have failed to advise themselves concerning the Bible's teachings and have neglected to instruct the people. Hence the people are falling victims to this monastrous delusion.

That many are able to hear voices which claim to represent their dead friends, there can be no doubt. Instead of attempting to dispute the phenomina, we readily admit the happening of events claimed, But the voices heard are not the voices of dead friends, because dead people can not speak. They are not the voices of someone with whom you used to communicate with in the flesh. What, then, are those voices? And from whence come they?

We answer that after Adam had violated God's laws and was driven from Eden, God permitted certain of the Angelic host, spirit beings, to have a supervising control over man. (Heb. 2; 5). These Angels were spirit beings, but under the divine permission could materalize and appear unto human beings; for instance, when the Angel appeared to Abraham and again to Daniel, and other instances, (Gen. 22; 15), (Zac. 12; 9). The Genesis account is to the effect that the materialized spirit beings cohabited with the daughters of men. These "Sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bear children to them. The same become mighty men, which were of old men of renown. And God saw that the wickedness of men was great on the earth and that every imagination of the heart was only evil continually." (Gen. 6; 1-5) All the peoples of earth had become so debauched with these degraded Angelic beings (Materialized as men) That only Noah and the members of his household was free from such. God declared that he would destroy all flesh in the earth. He directed Noah from to build an Ark in which to save himself and family. When this was completed Jehovah brought the great deluge upon the earth, and all human beings were destroyed that were not in the ark.

The materialized Angels were not human beings, yet they occupied human bodies; and while the deluge would destroy all flesh, it would not and did not destroy these spirit beings. What became of them? St. Peter answers: "God spared not the Angels that sinned but cast them down to Hell," (Tartarus), and delivered them into chains of darkness and to be reserved until judgement," (2 Peter; 2-4),. Saint Jude, corrobates this saying; "The Angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, (Proper condition), he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness until the judgement of the great day. (Jud. 6).

According to St. Peter these evil spirits were in prison in Tartarus, but not destroyed. Tartarus does not mean the grave, nor a place of torment, but it does signify a condition of restraint in darkness. These evil ones, then were as stated by the above authority, restrained under chains of darkness. And this restriction must continue until the judgement of the great day. The conclusion must be reached that at the time of the Judgement of the great day this restraint would be removed, in a measure at least, and these evil spirits permitted to work greater decptions and wonders amongst the people than ever before. Since the time of the flood they have been in this condition of restraint. The world is now entering the great day of the Judgement as other scriptures show, and which we hope to show in the course of these articles. We are in a time therefore, when these evil spirits are to exercise and are exercising greater powers of deception than ever before, deceiving many of the brightest minds, and would deceive if possible the very elect of God.

From the time of the flood these evil spirits or demons have been able to communicate in some limited degree with those in the earth. To protect the children of Iseral, Jehovah specially provided in his law that it was a capital offense for anyone to have to do with these demons through instrumentalities of Mediums, witches or Necromancers. We cite a few provisions of the divine law in proof of this; "Thou shall not suffer a witch to live" (Exodus 22-18). "When thou cometh into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shall not learn to do after the abomination of those nations. There shall not be found among you any that use divinations, or an observer of times or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a Necromancer; for all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord," (Deut. 18; 10-12). A man also, or a woman, that hath a familiar spirit or that is a wizard, (Medium), shall surely be put to death," (Levtt. 20; 27).

When Jesus was on earth he found many persons whose minds had bee taken possession of by these demons and he cast them out, "When the even was come they brought unto him many that was possessed with demons, and he cast out the spirits with his word and healed all that was sick." (Matthew, 8-16), "And when he was come to the other side in the country of the Geergesenes there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way, And behold they cried out, saying, what have we to do with thee, Jesus thou son of God? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. So the devils besought him saying, "If thou cast us out suffer us to go away into the herd of swine," (Mat. 8; 28-31).

Saul was the King of Iseral he had been unfaithful to the Lord. The Philistines gathered to make war against Iseral. Samuel the good prophet was dead and Saul could not consult him. He called upon God in prayer, and the Lord answered him not. This story is recorded in First Samuel; 28th chapter, and shows the methods that the demons have used down through the ages to deceive men. Being fearful of the enemy the Philistines and getting no answer to his prayer, "Then Saul said unto his servants seek me a woman that hath a familar spirit that I may go and inquire of her. And the servant said to him there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor. Saul knew that the law required him to put to death all spirit Mediums or witches, and therefore if he appeared as the king, the witch would not act in his behalf. So the records disclose, he disguised himself and went to the cave at Endor to see the Medium and asked her to call up the one whom he would name. The witch, or Medium, then accused him of laying a trap to cause her death. Evidentiy the demons revealed to her the idenity of King Saul, then he promised her that she should not be punished. The witch then proceed to call up what was supposed to be Samuel the prophet, but which, in fact was the demon misrepresenting the prophet. These demons caused to pass before the mental vision of the witch one like unto the prophet, but Saul saw nothing himself. The description that she gave was that the one appearing was an old man wearing a mantel. We are reminded here that the evil spirits are spoken of as lying spirits and here we see that they lied to the witch and to Saul. Samuel was dead, and therefore could not appear. Being a good man, according to the theory of the clergyman, he must have been in Heaven, but he was not in fact, in Heaven. Had he been an evil man he would, according to the clergy, have been at that time in Hell fire and brimstone, and his mantle would certainly have been burned away, but he was not in fact, in such a place. The scriptures plainly state that Samuel was dead and he knew not anything. On that occasion, the demons, acting through the Medium, informed Saul that, "Tomorrow shalt thou and thy son be with me (Dead); The Lord also shalt deliver the host of Iseral into the hands of the Philistines." The well informed demons knew better than did Saul, the strength of the Philistines, their position and their army, and the weakness of Saul's position and army, and that Saul was already panic stricken and would be easily defeated. Any one familiar with the conditions would know that one day's battle would probably settle the question and that the logical result would be that Saul and his sons would be killed. Notwithstanding, the demons did not fully state the truth for two of Saul's sons escaped and lived for years arterwards. Some scholars even deny that the battle and death of Saul occurred the next day, but several days later. We cite this as a Biblical incident showing the manner in which the evil spirits operate.

With reference to hearing of voices of what is supposed to be those of dead friends and relatives we wish to say that these demons having been in existence for long ages and centuries, and possessing minds far superior to human minds are not only familiar with present conditions but are familiar with past conditions and the history of the lives of people. It would be an easy matter, therefore, for such demons to impersonate a dead person and refer to events familiar only to the persons envolved, and this would serve a greater means of deception. For the same reason and by the same methods these demons are able to produce other great phemonina, such as hand writing the painting of pictures, the productions of flowers, conveying of messages by telepathy, voices and other means of appearing to represent persons who are dead. That they are succeeding in deceiving many of the bright minds of the earth and through these deceivings, vast numbers of people no one can attempt gain say. Naturally these fallen angels would put forth greater efforts following a great war in which millions of lives were destroyed, and millions of others remaining on earth with sad hearts, and having a keen desire to know something of their dead friends. Under such conditions millions are falling victims to their deceptions. But one may suggest, why could any falling easy victims to their deceptions. But one may suggest, why could any evil come from this? We answer that back of every act there is a motive and the motive is either good or bad. If the motive is bad, evil must result. Beyond question these demons are evil. All their thoughts are wickedness. The chief amongst all the devils is Satan, the father of lies, the great deceiver of mankind, and the enemy of God and of Rightousness and of everything that is good. (Jno. 3; 44). The first lie was that which he told mother Eve in Eden, " Thou shall not surely die." It was Satan who dabauched the Angels and caused them to fall away from their first estate. And through them he has been debauching and deceiving the human race ever since. He has ever kept before the minds of the people his original lie: "There is no Death." "Inherent immortality of all souls is Satan's lie stated in another form. The real motive, then, back of all this deception of mankind is that he may make them believe that all souls are immortal—(Can never die): Hence no need for the redemptive power and merit of Christ Jesus, and by this method turn away the people from the Lord. Concerning him and his mysterious work, Saint Paul wrote: "If our glad tidings be hid it is hid from them that are perishing. (The dying human race), in whom the God of this world, (Satan) hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them." (2 Cor. 4; 4).

Because of Adam's disobedience death came upon man. In due course, Jehovah provided for the redemption of mankind from death through the death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. (Heb. 2; 9; 1st Tim. 2-3). It is here to be seen that in God's due time all shall have an opportunity to be brought to a knowledge of the truth, and believing this shall have a chance to live. The hope of all the dead is the resurrection. And there is no doctrine so clearly taught in the Bible. If the soul it immortal if the dead are alive and can talk to the living then a resurrection would not only be useless but senseless. If the people's faith in the resurrection can be destroyed, their faith in the great redemptive sacrifice of Jesus is destroyed, and Satan has succeeded in his great deception. The scripture declares: "There is no other name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." (Act. 4; 12). Jesus Christ and Him crucified is the hope of mankind. Satan's doctrine of demon communicating with the dead, is diametrically opposed to the doctrines of the ransom sacrificed.

(By RICHARD J. HILL.)

We have reached the point on the stream of time where every earnest hearted person should say in the language of St. Paul, "Let God be true, though it prove every man a liar." (Rom. 3: 4.) Then let us settle the question according to the word of God. "The dead praise not the Lord, neither they that go down in silence." (Psalms 115: 17) "His (man's) breath goeth forth, he returns to the dust; in that very day his thoughts perish." (Psalms 145: 4, "For the living know that they shall die; but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy is now perished; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is under the sun. What soever thy hand findeth to do, do with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave where thou goest." (Eccl. 9: 5, 6, 10) Why should intelligent people pay large sums of money to priests (who are nothing but sinful men) to pray prayers for persons in this condition? The Psalmist says, "In death there is no remembrance of thee, in the grave who shall give thee thanks." (Psa. 6: 5).

But I hear someone ask, "Is not there a Hell?" We answer, sure there is. But the Bible Hell is not a place of conscious torment, by forked tail devils or otherwise. The Hell mentioned in the Bible is the condition of death, oblivion, the tomb, the grave, or in other words it is a condition of non-existence. The only word in the Old Testament translated "hell" is the Hebrew word "sheol." It is translated more times "grave" than it is translated "hell" and means the same thing in each instance. We give a few samples.

Jacob, weighted down with grief because of the suppose death of his son Joseph, said, "I will go down to my son, Joseph in sheol (hell) mourning." (Gen. 37: 35). Later when requested to send Benjamin to Egypt, he said, "My son Benjamin shall not go down with you to Egypt for if evil befalls him you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to (sheol) hell." (Gen. 43: 38). If hell means conscious torment in fire, we ask: "How long would the gray hairs of Jacob last in such a place? Would God make the gray hairs immortal in order to torment them?"

Job was a good and godly man. After he had suffered the loss of all his earthly possessions, his children killed, his wife became his enemy, his neighbors taunted him because of his suffering, his body putrid with running sores, suffering bodily pain and mental anguish, in this awful condition he prayed that God might send him to hell. "O, that thou wouldst hide me in hell (sheol) until thy wrath be passed." (Job 14: 13.) Does any sane person believe that Job prayed that he might go to a place to be tormentd and suffer more agony than he was already suffering? If you were in his position would you ask to go to a place where you would be tormented forever? Job then defines hell. He says "If I wait, hell is my house. I have made my bed in the darkness. Our rest is in the dust." (Job 17: 13-16.) If darkness, there could be no fire there. Again, he (Job) said concerning man, "His sons come to honor and he knoweth it not, they are brought low and he perceiveth it not." (Job 14: 21).

Jehovah, through his prophets, foretold that Jesus would go to hell, and he did. He went to the same hell to which the other dead go, and he was dead until the third day, when God raised him. Referring to Him the Psalmist wrote, "Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell." (Psa. 16: 10). This text is quoted with approval, by the apostle Peter in Acts 2: 27. If Heil is a place of conscious torment, eternal in duration, then it would have been impossible for Jesus to have gotten out; whereas the scriptures conclusively prove that he was raised on the third day.

The New Testament deals with the same hell. As we know, the New Testament is translated from the Greek and the Greek word "hades" means the same as the Hebrew word "sheol." In the Revised Version of the New Testament, the Greek word "hades" has been left untranslated. Evidently the translators were ashamed to translate it "hell" after the meaning of eternal torment had been attached to the word. Our Common Version renders three different words in the New Testament "hell" and the people have long been taught by a false bunch of preachers that these words mean eternal torture. In not a single instance, as is well known by every preacher, worth the name, and scholar, does the word "hell" as used in the scriptures mean a place of conscious torment. Aside from the Greek word "hades" there are two other words from which the word "hell" is translated as appears in the New Testament; to-wit, Gehenna and Tartarus. We will examine some text on each of these.

Addressing himself to the people of Capernaum, Jesus said, "And thou Capernaum, which are exalted unto Heaven, shall be thrust down to hell." (Luke 19: 15). I hope no one is so foolish as to think of Capernaum, the proud city with its lands, houses, and population in a place of eternal roasting. The people of Capernaum had been greatly favored and figuratively speaking, had been exalted highly in the standards of the peoples and nations, but because of their misuse of God's blessings they were told by the Lord Jesus that they as a people should be thrust down to hades that is to say, overthrown, destroyed, go into oblivion, or in other words, that proud city was to be brought to a condition the same as though it had never existed. It is a historic fact that Capernaum is so thoroughly buried in oblivion that not even the sight where it stood is definitely known.

Jesus addressed the people of that time in parables or dark sayings, hence, He used the symbolic language as above stated. "All these things spake Jesus unto the multitudes in parables, and without a parable, spake He not unto them." (Math. 13: 34). Again he said, "Thou art Peter (Greek, petros") a rock or stone one of the living stones—strong minded, of strong character) and upon this rock (Greek) "petra," mass of rock, fundamental rock truth; the great truth that Jesus is the Christ. I will build my church (composed of faithful followers like St. Peter) and the gates of hell (Greek "hades") shall not prevail against it." (Math. 16: 18).

Paraphrased we would understand these words to mean that Jesus established the church, which is his body, composed of many members (Col. 1: 18; Cor. 12: 12), and all the bitter and relentless persecution which has been experienced of His true followers throughout the Gospel Age and which has taken them down into hell, the grave, the same place where He went, should not prevail to her utter extermination, because in God's due time the church would be brought forth in the first resurection. (Rev. 20: 6).

Again Jesus said, "I am he that liveth and was dead. Behold I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of death and hell (hades, the grave)" ((Rev. 1: 18). The keys means the power to unlock. Jesus statement here is that once He was dead, but now He has been raised and is alive forevermore and has the power to unlock the tomb, the grave, the condition of death, and bring forth the dead in the time of the resurection.

"The lake of fire and brimstone" is several times mentioned in the book of Revelation, which all Christians admit to be a book of symbols. However, most of them, under the influence of the teachings of selfish and ignorant preachers, think and speak of this particular symbol as a literal statement, and that it gives support to the eternal torment doctrine, notwithstanding the fact that the symbol is clearly defined as meaning the second death. "And death and hell was cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, etc. (Rev. 20: 14). It is some time spoken of as "a lake of fire burning with brimstone." (Rev. 19: 20), the element brimstone being mentioned to intensify the symbol of destruction, the second death. Burning brimstone is one of the most deadly elements known. It is destructive to all forms of life. The symbolsim of this lake of fire and brimstone is further shown by the fact that the symbolic beast and the symbolic false prophet and death and hell (hades) as well as the devil and all his followers are destroyed in it. (Rev. 19: 20; 20: 10, 14, 15; 21: 8).

Dear friends, I would be more than glad if some of these false teachers or their followers who believe in the "Lake of fire and brimstone doctrine" to tell me who is going to keep the fires burning when the Devil and all his followers are destroyed in the above mentioned lake? You know the above cited scriptures plainly state that the devil will be destroyed in that lake.

All the preachers worthy of the name know that this doctrine of Eternal Torment in a lake of fire and brimstone is absolutely false, but because of their selfish interest (love of money and undeserved honors) they will not come out with the truth.

Brother Parsons, take my advice, as one who loves you if you will tell the truth, and come out for the truth boldly and live with your people. If you don't do this very soon you will find yourself backed in the corner by the demands of the people for the truth. If you wait until that condition is reached then the only thing that you could do would be to get out as quickly as you can because the sight of you would become a stench to the moral nostril of the truth loving people.

SOUTHERN WHITE "GE'MMEN" TO WEAR OVERALLS

"Massa" John Starts Fight on Profiteers, But is Met More Than Half Way.

(Star News Service).

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Apr. 16.—The excessive and criminally high prices charged for clothing have caused the prominent white citizens of this city to put aside thoughts of Negro domination and to concentrate their minds upon some effective method of reducing the high cost of living, especially in the matter of clothing. Oddly enough the plan agreed upon by a group of leading white bankers, merchants, and professional men, was for them to discard their woolen business suits and wear overalls.

Now this course is especially odd because for generations the Colored laborers in the fields, factories and other commercial activities have always worn overalls. Hence every where members of our Group could be seen at work, or lounging alternately in the sun and shade, attired in the inevitable blue or striped overalls. In fact, with many laborers, dressing up merely meant change one overall suit for another. But now, "Col." Bill and "Massa" John are to make the overall suit eminently respectable, thus discarding it as the insignia distinguishing a white gentleman from a Negro.

Certainly such a movement tending to reduce living expenses is worthy of highest commendation, but Birmingham clothing profiteers and bandits looked upon it with such disfavor, that they raised the price of overalls nearly 300 per cent thus placing them in the same class with other high priced clothing. Overall pants selling for $2.00 were raised to $6.00 and etc.

The Birmingham Overall Club, with a membership of 3,000, was formally organized at a mass meeting recently. Alvin Douglas, well known attorney, was elected chairman, and Theodore Lamar, business man and attorney, was made secretary. Friday was set as the day on which every member is to appear on the streets clad in overalls. A pledge was taken that they will be worn until the price of clothing "hits the toboggan."

FIRES COLORED CLERK AND APPOINTS HIS SON

St. Louis Republican Official Shows His Love of Race by Unusual Selfishness.

(Star News Service).

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Apr. 17.—James N. McKelvay, Commissioner of Public Safety and 23 Ward Republican Committeeman, last week removed the only Colored clerk he had in his department, and appointed his son. The son was then promoted to the most important job in the department. This attracted the attention and condemnation of the Associated Engineering Societies of the city.

The selfish ambition of James N. McKelvey, Commissioner of Public Safety and Twenty-third Ward Republican Committeeman, to place his whole family on the city payroll, at high salaries, has run into a snag, and there must be some explaining done. The joint council of the Associated Engineering Societies wants to know why McKelvey has appointed his youthful son without an efficiency examination, to the highly important position of chief engineer of the Building Department. The position pays $300 a month and was filled until January 1 by one of the best and most experienced engineers in the country. The boy has been on his father's payroll since the summer of 1917, two years before he was old enough to vote.

The Third Annual Dental Day exercises under the auspices of the Ewell-Neil Dental Society at Meharry Medical College recently was a pronounced success in every respect.

(By RICHARD J. HILL.)

We have reached the point on the stream of time where every earnest hearted person should say in the language of St. Paul, "Let God be true, though it prove every man a liar." (Rom. 3: 4.) Then let us settle the question according to the word of God. "The dead praise not the Lord, neither they that go down in silence." (Psalms 115: 17) "His (man's) breath goeth forth, he returns to the dust; in that very day his thoughts perish." (Psalms 145: 4. "For the living know that they shall die; but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy is now perished; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is under the sun. What soever thy hand findeth to do, do with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave where thou goest." (Eccl. 9: 5, 6, 10) Why should intelligent people pay large sums of money to priests (who are nothing but sinful men) to pray prayers for persons in this condition? The Psalmist says, "In death there is no remembrance of thee, in the grave who shall give thee thanks." (Psa. 6: 5).

But I hear someone ask, "Is not there a Hell?" We answer, sure there is. But the Bible Hell is not a place of conscious torment, by forked tail devils or otherwise. The Hell mentioned in the Bible is the condition of death, oblivion, the tomb, the grave, or in other words it is a condition of non-existence. The only word in the Old Testament translated "hell" is the Hebrew word "sheol." It is translated more times "grave" than it is translated "hell" and means the same thing in each instance. We give a few samples.

Jacob, weighted down with grief because of the suppose death of his son Joseph, said, "I will go down to my son, Joseph in sheol (hell) mourning." (Gen. 37: 35). Later when requested to send Benjamin to Egypt, he said, "My son Benjamin shall not go down with you to Egypt for if evil befalls him you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to (sheol) hell." (Gen. 43: 38). If hell means conscious torment in fire, we ask: "How long would the gray hairs of Jacob last in such a place? Would God make the gray hairs immortal in order to torment them?"

Job was a good and godly man. After he had suffered the loss of all his earthly possessions, his children killed, his wife became his enemy, his neighbors taunted him because of his suffering, his body putrid with running sores, suffering bodily pain and mental anguish, in this awful condition he prayed that God might send him to hell. "O, that thou wouldst hide me in hell (sheol) until thy wrath be passed." (Job 14: 13.) Does any sane person believe that Job prayed that he might go to a place to be tormentd and suffer more agony than he was already suffering? If you were in his position would you ask to go to a place where you would be tormented forever? Job then defines hell. He says "If I wait, hell is my house. I have made my bed in the darkness. Our rest is in the dust." (Job 17: 13-16.) If darkness, there could be no fire there. Again, he (Job) said concerning man, "His sons come to honor and he knoweth it not, they are brought low and he perceiveth it not." (Job 14: 21).

Jehovah, through his prophets, foretold that Jesus would go to hell, and he did. He went to the same hell to which the other dead go, and he was dead until the third day, when God raised him. Referring to Him the Psalmist wrote, "Thou wilt not leave my soul in hell." (Psa. 16: 10). This text is quoted with approval, by the apostle Peter in Acts 2: 27. If Hell is a place of conscious torment, eternal in duration, then it would have been impossible for Jesus to have gotten out; whereas the scriptures conclusively prove that he was raised on the third day.

The New Testament deals with the same hell. As we know, the New Testament is translated from the Greek and the Greek word "hades" means the same as the Hebrew word "sheol." In the Revised Version of the New Testament, the Greek word "hades" has been left untranslated. Evidently the translators were ashamed to translate it "hell" after the meaning of eternal torment had been attached to the word. Our Common Version renders three different words in the New Testament "hell" and the people have long been taught by a false bunch of preachers that these words mean eternal torture. In not a single instance, as is well known by every preacher, worth the name, and scholar, does the word "hell" as used in the scriptures mean a place of conscious torment. Aside from the Greek word "hades" there are two other words from which the word "hell" is translated as appears in the New Testament; to-wit, Gehenna and Tartarus. We will examine some text on each of these.

Addressing himself to the people of Capernaum, Jesus said, "And thou Capernaum, which are exalted unto Heaven, shall be thrust down to hell." (Luke 19: 15). I hope no one is so foolish as to think of Capernaum, the proud city with its lands, houses, and population in a place of eternal roasting. The people of Capernaum had been greatly favored and figuratively speaking, had been exalted highly in the standards of the peoples and nations, but because of their misuse of God's blessings they were told by the Lord Jesus that they as a people should be thrust down to hades that is to say, overthrown, destroyed, go into oblivion, or in other words, that proud city was to be brought to a condition the same as though it had never existed. It is a historic fact that Capernaum is so thoroughly buried in oblivion that not even the sight where it stood is definitely known.

Jesus addressed the people of that time in parables or dark sayings, hence, He used the symbolic language as above stated. "All these things spake Jesus unto the multitudes in parables, and without a parable, spake He not unto them." (Math. 13: 34). Again he said, "Thou art Peter (Greek, petros") a rock or stone one of the living stones—strong minded, of strong character) and upon this rock (Greek) "petra," mass of rock, f undamental rock truth; the great truth that Jesus is the Christ. I will build my church (composed of faithful followers like St. Peter) and the gates of hell (Greek "hades") shall not prevail against it." (Math. 16: 18).

Paraphrased we would understand these words to mean that Jesus established the church, which is his body, composed of many members (Col. 1: 18; Cor. 12: 12), and all the bitter and relentless persecution which has been experienced of His true followers throughout the Gospel Age and which has taken them down into hell, the grave, the same place where He went, should not prevail to her utter extermination, because in God's due time the church would be brought forth in the first resurection. (Rev. 20: 6).

Again Jesus said, "I am he that liveth and was dead. Behold I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of death and hell (hades, the grave)" ((Rev. 1: 18). The keys means the power to unlock. Jesus statement here is that once He was dead, but now He has been raised and is alive forevermore and has the power to unlock the tomb, the grave, the condition of death, and bring forth the dead in the time of the resurection.

"The lake of fire and brimstone" is several times mentioned in the book of Revelation, which all Christians admit to be a book of symbols. However, most of them, under the influence of the teachings of selfish and ignorant preachers, think and speak of this particular symbol as a literal statement, and that it gives support to the eternal torment doctrine, notwithstanding the fact that the symbol is clearly defined as meaning the second death. "And death and hell was cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, etc. (Rev. 20: 14). It is some time spoken of as "a lake of fire burning with brimstone." (Rev. 19: 20), the element brimstone being mentioned to intensify the symbol of destruction, the second death. Burning brimstone is one of the most deadly elements known. It is destructive to all forms of life. The symbolsim of this lake of fire and brimstone is further shown by the fact that the symbolic beast and the symbolic false prophet and death and hell (hades) as well as the devil and all his followers are destroyed in it. (Rev. 19: 20; 20: 10, 14, 15; 21: 8).

Dear friends, I would be more than glad if some of these false teachers or their followers who believe in the "Lake of fire and brimstone doctrine" to tell me who is going to keep the fires burning when the Devil and all his followers are destroyed in the above mentioned lake? You know the above cited scriptures plainly state that the devil will be destroyed in that lake.

All the preachers worthy of the name know that this doctrine of Eternal Torment in a lake of fire and brimstone is absolutely false, but because of their selfish interest (love of money and undeserved honors) they will not come out with the truth.

Brother Parsons, take my advice, as one who loves you if you will tell the truth, and come out for the truth boldly and live with your people. If you don't do this very soon you will find yourself backed in the corner by the demands of the people for the truth. If you wait until that condition is reached then the only thing that you could do would be to get out as quickly as you can because the sight of you would become a stench to the moral nostril of the truth loving people.

ELLIOTT AND HOOKER'S WEEKLY STORE NEWS

Mrs. Hooker of the Millinery Department, who has been on the sick list is back on the job, ready to serve the ladies of Tulsa in all that is new and stylish in millinery. She extends to the ladies, an invitation to come in and see her new assortment of Hats, Veils and trimmings.

Mr. M. Erwin, traveling representative of the Elliott and Hooker store spent three days last week in Pawnuska, Okla., in the interest of the store.

Mr. T. J. Elliott, head of the Elliott Store in Muskogee, Okmulgee and Tulsa, spent a day in Tulsa last week, looking over the business here, preparatory to his trip to the Eastern markets to buy mid-summer merchandise for the three stores.

We are in business to compete with the big stores, our buying capacity enables us to buy as cheap—and sell as cheap. The same quality of goods as any store of Tulsa.

Come in any time and give us a look over.

SOUTHERN WHITE "GE'MMEN" TO WEAR OVERALLS

"Massa" John Starts Fight on Profiteers, But is Met More Than Half Way.

(Star News Service).

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Apr. 16.—The excessive and criminally high prices charged for clothing have caused the prominent white citizens of this city to put aside thoughts of Negro domination and to concentrate their minds upon some effective method of reducing the high cost of living, especially in the matter of clothing. Oddly enough the plan agreed upon by a group of leading white bankers, merchants, and professional men, was for them to discard their woolen business suits and wear overalls.

Now this course is especially odd because for generations the Colored laborers in the fields, factories and other commercial activities have always worn overalls. Hence every where members of our Group could be seen at work, or lounging alternately in the sun and shade, attired in the inevitable blue or striped overalls. In fact, with many laborers, dressing up merely meant change one overall suit for another. But now, "Col." Bill and "Massa" John are to make the overall suit eminently respectable, thus discarding it as the insignia distinguishing a white gentleman from a Negro.

Certainly such a movement tending to reduce living expenses is worthy of highest commendation, but Birmingham clothing profiteers and bandits looked upon it with such disfavor, that they raised the price of overalls nearly 300 per cent thus placing them in the same class with other high priced clothing. Overall pants selling for $2.00 were raised to $6.00 and etc.

The Birmingham Overall Club, with a membership of 3,000, was formally organized at a mass meeting recently. Alvin Douglas, well known attorney, was elected chairman, and Theodore Lamar, business man and attorney, was made secretary. Friday was set as the day on which every member is to appear on the streets clad in overalls. A pledge was taken that they will be worn until the price of clothing "hits the toboggan."

FIRES COLORED CLERK AND APPOINTS HIS SON

(Star News Service).

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Apr. 17.—James N. McKelvay, Commissioner of Public Safety and 23 Ward Republican Committeeman, last week removed the only Colored clerk he had in his department, and appointed his son. The son was then promoted to the most important job in the department. This attracted the attention and condemnation of the Associated Engineering Societies of the city.

The selfish ambition of James N. McKelvey, Commissioner of Public Safety and Twenty-third Ward Republican Committeeman, to place his whole family on the city payroll, at high salaries, has run into a snag, and there must be some explaining done. The joint council of the Associated Engineering Societies wants to know why McKelvey has appointed his youthful son without an efficiency examination, to the highly important position of chief engineer of the Building Department. The position pays $300 a month and was filled until January 1 by one of the best and most experienced engineers in the country. The boy has been on his father's payroll since the summer of 1917, two years before he was old enough to vote.

The Third Annual Dental Day exercises under the auspices of the Ewell-Neil Dental Society at Meharry Medical College recently was a pronounced success in every respect.

Shall The Dead Be Resurrected And Live Again?

(By RICHARD J. HILL)

To those who accept the Bible as the word of God, the Creator and Finisher of all things, there is little difficulty in showing to them through the Bible the fact and philosophy of the Resurrection of the dead.

The faithful Job, after suffering great bodily pain and mental anguish, after praying that he might die and go to hell, the grave, and there rest in silence until the wrath of God be over passed, asked the question, "If a man die shall he live again?" (Job 14: 14). Millions have asked this question since that time and had it been fairly treated and honestly answered by those, the preachers, who claim to teach the word of God, much sorrow would have been avoided in the earth.

According to statistics furnished, approximately nine million men were the victims of the Great World War just past. Within that same period twelve million fell victims to the great dreaded pestilence, "Spanish Influenza." For some years now in addition to this the average death rate, in the world, has been approximately one hundred thousand per day. When there is a great calamity and many people lose their lives, the peoples of earth stand amazed and shocked, but in the daily routine of affairs death has become so common that many think it must always be this way. Most naturally the people have looked to something upon which they could base their hopes for the future for themselves and their loved ones. Truly this is an earth of sorrow, the sorrow of the people bowed down under the great burden of sin, groaning and travailing for something that would deliver them from it. The poet has well expressed it when he says:

"The Earth is old with centuries.
But not for this she hangs her head;
Closer to her heart the sorrow lies,
She holds so many dead."

From the bloody battle fields broken regiments have returned and some fathers, mothers and sweethearts have waited at the station and looked in vain for the coming of the one they have dearly loved and they have asked, "Shall we ever see him again?" "If they have fallen in the battle is there any hope of our being united again in happiness and love?" The scripture alone answers this question satisfactorily.

The hope of the world lies in the resurrection of the dead. Wonderfully beautiful is the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead and those who see and appreciate it rejoice in the fact that God, in the exercise of his loving kindness, has provided a means whereby those who have suffered death might be awakened again, and those waiting in sorrow may have their hearts made glad. "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentations and bitter weeping. Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. (They were dead not conscious somewhere). Thus saith the Lord, refrain thy voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears, for thy works shall be rewarded, saith the Lord, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in the end saith the Lord, That thy children shall come again to their own border." (Jer. 13: 15-17). Every where in the Bible death is spoken of as an enemy. So the land of the enemy, therefore is the condition of death. The promise here is that these dead shall be brought back to their own border namely, the earth, their former condition. We here submit that if the doctrine of inherent immortality is correct, then there could be no resurrection of the dead for the reason that you can not resurrect a person that is immortal—death proof. Resurrection means a restanding to life and no one could be immortal without having life in it's fullness. Hence the doctrine of inherent immortality of the soul denies the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the doctrine of eternal torture is true the resurrection of the dead could not be true for the reason that no one could be eternally tortured without having eternal life, an existence indestructible, and if one is already in a state of life indestructible and subject to eternal torment, a restanding to life, the resurrection would be utterly impossible. Thus we see that the doctrine of eternal torture is a plain denial of the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the dead are conscious and can now communicate with living friends through the influence of Mediums, or otherwise, that the doctrine of the resurrection could not be true, for the further reason that one who is conscious and able to communicate could not be resurrected to life because they would already have life. Hence the doctrine of spiritualism or communication with the dead is a plain denial of the resurrection of the dead.

All these doctrines completely deny the great ransom sacrifice. The Ransom Sacrifice is the key note to every doctrine, as to whether or not it is true or false. In other words, it is the measuring rod by which every teaching can be measured and can be determined whether any doctrine is true or false. Thus we see that if the Bible teaches clearly and conclusively the resurrection of the dead and the doctrine of the great Ransom Sacrifice, the other doctrines of inherent immortality, eternal torment, and spiritism, are as false as the Devil himself, and this we will prove by the scriptures.

Ransom means, literally, "a corresponding price." God created the first man, Adam, perfect in organism and character. He gave him his law, the penalty of which prescribed, death for it's violation. He, Adam, violated the law and death came upon him. While under that sentence of death he begat children. He did not beget any children while in a perfect state and condition but after he had violated God's just law and the sentence of death passed upon him and he was driven out of the garden. Being legally condemned and having the death process in him, and feeding upon the poisneous elements of the earth and being in a dying condition, necessarily Adam could not transmit to his off-spring the perfect life germ. The race not being born until after Adam's sin would legally come under condemnation by inheritance. Therefore, all of Adam's progeny were born in sin—an imperfect condition.

Evidently this was David's thought when he said, "Behold I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." (Psa. 51: 5.) Every child born is imperfect a sinner subject to death not because of any wilful wrong child inherited this condition from father Adam. St. Paul corroborates this when he says, "By one man's sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5: 12). Every one dies therefore, because he can not avoid it, and this death would be eternal had not God graciously provided a ransom price or redemptive process. Jehovah made promise, saying, "I will ransom them from the power of the grave. I will redeem them from death. Oh, Death, I will be thy plagues; Oh Grave, I will be thy destruction." (Hos. 13: 14.). Pe it noticed here that he did not promise to redeem or ransom any one from a conscious state of hell torture, but his promise is entirely consistent with all the other scripture, that the dead are dead and waiting the progressive steps of Jehovah's plans to awaken them out of death.

A perfect man (Adam) sinned. Nothing but a perfect man could redeem him. God provided in his law, "A life for a life, a tooth for a tooth." Man has ever desired redemption and deliverance, but to carry this out for himself was an impossibility. Hence, the Psalmist wrote, "None can by any means redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him." (Psa. 49: 7).

In his prehuman condition, Jesus was the logos. He was God's active agent in the creation of all things. God promised to deliver mankind and the one who should accomplish this deliverance would be honored above all others and he offered this honor to Jesus. Consequently his life was transformed from the spirit to human conditions. "He was madeflesh and dwelt among us." (John 1: 14). The whole race being under the condemnation of death desired life, and Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life." (John 10: 10). Of him the Apostle Paul writes, "We see Jesus who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that he by the grace of God might taste death for every man." (Heb. 2: 9). He was born of a woman not begotten of man, being begotten by the power of Jehovah. (Luke 1: 35). When he reached the age of thirty years he was a perfect man, physically, mentally, in character, every way. He exactly corresponded with Adam in Eden before he sinned. Therefore, he was able to become a ransom, a corresponding price. He offered himself in full consecration to the Father. God accepted him and beget him to the divine nature. He was crucified upon the cross and was raised from the dead by the Father's power and ascended upon high, with the price sufficient to redeem all mankind.—Why did God permit his beloved son to come to the earth and die? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3: 16). His, Jesus, resurection from the dead is a complete guarantee that all the dead shall be awakened. The Apostle Paul says, "There shall be a resurection of the dead both of the just and the unjust." (Acts 24: 15). Jesus declared that the hour is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and live, when all the dead in their graves shall be awakened and brought forth to be given a full knowledge of the Truth and a trial for life. (John 5: 25-28-29). There was a class of clergymen in Jesus' days known as Sadducees, who denied the resurrection of the dead. There is a class of clergymen today, who by their teachings deny in substance, if not in terms the resurection of the dead. How strange that they have been unable to see that one must be dead before he can be raised from the dead. If alive they could not be resurected. When Jesus said that God sent him to earth to die in order that the others might have life and might not perish, it meant that they would perish and could not live except by his death and resurection and any position or teaching, therefore, that denies the unconscious state of the dead, negates the Ransom, and denies the resurection. The Apostle Paul emphasizes this argument when he says, "Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurection of the dead? But if there is no resurection of the dead then is Christ not risen?" (1 Cor. 15: 12-13). The converse of this proposition must of necessity be true. If Christ did rise from the dead, then all others who have died must also be brought forth. Emphasizing this fact the Apostle further says, "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain?" (Verse 14). In other words, it would be useless to preach anything about God's plan, the condition of the dead, or anything else if we deny the resurection of the dead. If we took any other position we would be false witnesses and so says the Apostle. "Yes and we are found false witnesses of God because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not then is Christ not raised. And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished." (Verses 15-18). Is it not strange that St. Paul did not say here that even those fallen asleep in Christ are alive in Purgatory, waiting to be prayed out by some priests? Why not take the Apostle Paul, the Lord Jesus Christ and all the faithful writers of the Bible's of the resurecting the dead? Why should not the people cast out all and refuse to listen to those whose principal object is to get in all the filthy lucre and undeserved honors that they can? It is no wonder that the people are so far in the dark concerning God's plan of salvation. The people have already permitted these false shepherds, (False Preachers, Wolves in sheep's clothing) to lead them too far in darkness. The time has come when every honest hearted individual should demand the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth on matters pertaining to God's great plan of salvation.

In the Apostle's argument concerning the resurection of the dead in First Cor. 15. After arguing the negative side of the question he assumes the positive side and says, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruit of them that slept." (Verse 20). In other words, for four thousand years man had been dying and in that time none had been resurected. Now Jesus, the perfect one had come. He had suffered death and God had raised him up from the dead and he was the first that ever was raised up. Continuing his argument St. Paul says, "For since by man came death, by man (Jesus) came also the resurection of the dead. For as in Adam all died, even so all in Christ shall be made alive, but every man in his own order. Christ the first fruits, afterward, (after the resurection of the Christ) they that are Christ at his appearing." (Verses 21-23). Thus he establishes the fact that until the second coming of Christ, the dead must remain dead, fully unconscious, out of existence, and at the second coming of Christ the resurection takes place. This same Apostle continuing his argument in his epistle to the Thessalonians, says, "But I would not have you ignorant brethren concerning them that are asleep, (dead). That ye sorrow not even as others have no hope for if we believe that Jesus died and arose again even so them which are sleeping, (in death) in Jesus will God bring with him. (Otherwise stated, not until the coming of Jesus, will those asleep in death be awakened). For this we say unto you, by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout and the voice of the ark angel, and the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with him in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord." (1 Thes. 4; 13-16). Here the Apostle, however, is discussing particularly the resurrection of the Church, that these shall be first resurrected. Afterwards shall come the resurrection of mankind in general. The purpose of their awakening out of death is to give them a fair trial for life everlasting. The apostle gives this thought when he says, "For it is the will of God that all men be saved and come unto the knowledge of the truth." (1 Thes. 2: 3-4). The salvation here mentioned is the salvation from death provided by the merit of Christ Jesus.

IF YOU WANT TO SEE real Race Progress come to Tulsa. We have it.

TULSA IS SOON TO HAVE three weekly publications published by men of our Group. But look who we are! We're Tulsa!

THE FELLOW WHO allows jealousy and envy to inspire and prompt his actions in any direction usually pays a big price for his experience.

THE OVERALL CLUB may be alright—so far as it goes—but what we need more than anything else is some kind of movement to make it possible for a newspaper editor to be on equal terms with other dilligent toilers when it comes to eating.

THE STAR HAS ITS FAULTS, doubtless. But who has none? It must be acknowledged, however, that we have the most completely equipped newspaper plant in the Southwest, and hence are best prepared for publishing a journal full of the best class of race news and for executing in a superior manner all kinds of commercial printing.

THE TULSA STAR is not a mere possibility nor a probability—it is an established fact, with an assured future. We make this statement because one of the future city officials is reported as having said that the Star would die during the next two years. This may be the hope of some of our republican friends but it as vain as the howl of the canine that barks at the moon. The Star will continue to espouse the cause of true democratic principles under the banner of democracy and we will not ask any advice or any assistance from our political adversaries. We lived through the two years of a former republican administration and there is no reason to believe that we can not survive the next two years.

THE SUNDAY'S NEW YORK TRIBUNE contains an explanation of the views of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, one of the prominent American women who as feminine Moses have labored many years in leading their charges to the Promised Land—women's suffrage. She opposes the idea of forming a women's party and urges American women to go into the political parties of their choice and cast their lots with other citizens. The same things should guide women in their voting that should guide men, says Mrs. Catt. She especially emphasizes the admonition that: "Voters, men and women, should look forward." The Star heartily commends this "looking forward" attitude of Mrs. Catt. We are glad to be able to refer with pride to the position taken by our Colored Women of Tulsa, who in the recent city election espoused and supported the candidates of the Tulsa democracy. Our women were looking forward and were wise in doing so. Unfortunately there are too many of our group, both women and men, who persist in looking backward. There is absolutely nothing to be gained in so doing. It is simple and plain. A vote cast today cannot affect to a hair's breadth anything that occurred yesterday, last month, last year or fifty years ago. Your vote today, however, does have influence upon tomorrow—the veiled and unknown future in which all our hopes and fears are to be revealed. Why worry about the past? "Look forward," and "let the dead past bury it's dead."

THE "JIM CROW" EVILS

FEW PEOPLE outside of our group can possibly realize the sting, the humiliation, the hardships that black men and women are forced to endure under the provisions and interpretation of the so called "Jim Crow" law. A careful study on the part of any social student will convince that it is contrary to a Christian sense of fairness, utterly incompatible and conducive to more friction between the races than any other policy of public probity known in our government. It is a false theory which must some day be overthrown. But the solution must be found by big brave men of a later day, no doubt in the near future.

In the meantime, we must continue to suffer the evils of the law such as are so often seen on the railroad trains and street cars—enought to make desperadoes of men who have always enjoyed an enviable record as law abiding citizens.

When we board a train after paying first class fare and find ourselves ushered into an all-too-small and ill-kept compartment set aside especially for our group and designated "For Negroes" where men and women are most times compelled to sit together and use the same public conveniences, and realize that we are barred from the Pullman and chair cars behind, simply because we belong to the black race, we are forced to marvel that great America, the proud United States of America, should seek to espouse the cause of oppressed peoples of other lands while her own go begging for mercy and justice.

This farce must end some place, sometime and it looks like the oppressed must take the lead in bringing the end about.

To start with, let us at all times insist on a full and complete enforcement of the law while it is a law and demand at all times a strict observance of our full rights under the provisions thereof.

Let's make a study of this particular law so we will know it and then let's observe it and compel the other fellow to do likewise.

The Supreme Court of the United States has held that in states where Separate Coaches are maintained for the two races (all races except ours may ride together) that the railroad company must furnish exact and equal accomodation for both races. This means that we are entitled to every comfort and convenience provided for white passengers, but we don't get it, and the reason is plain: We don't demand it. We have a right to demand it and if necessary we have a right to fight for it. Now let's have it.

Recently, Prof. Wm. Hutton a refined man of our group boarded a train and took a seat in the smoker in "our compartment." He had not gone far when the conductor came in removed the "Jim Crow" sign and ordered him and several other Colored men out in order to make room for a few white men. The Colored ladies' compartment of the train was already crowded and Mr. Hutton refused to move. An argument ensued, but he held his position. The result was that the conductor replaced the sign and ordered the white men out.

This is the kind of interpretation of the infamous "Jim Crow" law that makes the infernal thing so obnoxious to black men. We need more men like Mr. Hutton who know the law, who know their rights under the law and if need be will fight to enjoy them.

Rev. F. B. AMOS,
Pastor.

The Rev. A. R. Norris has returned home from the M. E. Conference and was grieved to find his wife quite ill.

Mr. Milton C. Simmons, proprietor Simmon's Drug Store, is back from attending the Lincoln M. E. Conference, Kansas City, Mo., and says the work of the conference was the most significant in its history.

Mr. M. C. Perara, the popular and hustling representative of the Standard Life Insurance company left for Tulsa Tuesday on important business.

Green Smith, the well known contractor says that there is more building going on in and around Muskogee by well-to-do Colored people than ever before. The buildings erected range from homes to business houses and gins. Smith is kept busy and has a large force of men working under him on contract work.

Dean William Pickens, the noted orator of New York City, spent a few days here last week in interest of the N. A. A. C. P. Association. While here Prof. Pickens delivered talks at the M. T. H. S. and several churches.

Rev. Blake, former pastor of the Central Baptist Church, is rapidly recovering from his recent illness, much to the happiness of his numerous friends.

Mr. George Bass, one of the strong young pillars of Rev. Well's congregation, has accepted work at Gibson Sta., Okla., and is making good.

Editor A. J. Smitherman of the Tulsa Star paid a brief trip to Muskogee last Monday to deliver the handsomely executed minutes of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, printed in the Tulsa Star's complete job department.

George McDowell, the well known magazine and newspaper agent of this city has accepted agency for the Tulsa Star at Muskogee. The Star is the largest and newsiest weekly paper published by the Race in the Southwest and merits generous support. Mr. McDowell will be glad to receive your news items and also your subscriptions. He can be found at 312 South Second and will be glad to serve all friends of the Star.

The Chandler Cold Drink and Barbecue stand on South Second is rapidly being converted into a swell grocery and meat market. This shows what perserverance and patience can accomplish.

The reporter learns that the public schools are to continue for full period—nine months, much to the satisfaction of both pupils and patrons. It is reported that a number of Muskogee banks contributed liberally toward the fund to continue the schools.

Miss Towler, the efficient and talented T. B. Nurse, was tendered a reception last week by Mrs. L. C. Clark and her mother, Mrs. C. Buckingham. Quite an enjoyable time was had.

Attorney R. E. Stewart was called out of the city on an important case during the week.

Mr. J. W. Adams, the well known and successful North Second street merchant, has organized a company, which will soon pull off a stunt in real estate circles creditable to the Race.

The Hotel Givens under its present management is catering to and rendering satisfactory service to many of the best people of Oklahoma and other states who visit Muskogee frequently.

Quite a happy crowd of teachers and pupils of city schools attended the closing exercises of the school out near Haynes last week.

Prof. C. C. Buttran is preparing his program for closing of the Baptist College at Pecan Mission and expects to have a celebration exceeding any previous year.

N. Fuller, well known proprietor of the People's Cafe, has purchased a three story business on North Second street and will alter it for use of the professional people who must soon vacate the Escoe Building which is to be remodeled in such a way as to exclude Afro-Americans in the future. So when one door closes, another opens after all.

FRISCO EXPOSITION SHOWS

Coming here to Tulsa for six days and nights, starting Monday, April 26th. At last the amusement going public of this city and all our friends and neighbors in the surrounding territory can make arrangements for one grand holiday, commencing, Monday, April 26.

When the Frisco Exposition Shows begin here an engagement that will be remembered for its novelty and excellence, when the thirty heavily loaded cars of equipment and parapharnalia are placed on the show grounds, every opportunity will be offered patrons to inspect and enjoy the multitude of attractions, one of the leading standard attractions is the Wild West, and Indian Congress, a true realistic representation of the past glories of the old stage coach days, and the pioneer days.

Another feature attraction is the circus and horse show, featuring Teddy, the Horse with a human brain. Teddy goes to bed, saves the baby from the burning building. Starlight, the Shimmie dancing horse, Crash, the beautiful Arabian stallion in his famous leap for life over an automobile, and a wonderful troupe of educated ponies, monkeys, baboons and for extreme novelty, is an entertainment unsurpassed.

Jackson's Jazzland Joymakers is a pleasing and modern, up-to-date Colored minstrel show, worthy of a hearing. Piggly Wiggly, a fun show explains its self, for no more joy would be possible to crowd within the walls of this up-side-down crazy, topsy turvy exhibit. A night in Tokio, presenting a troupe of Japanese acrobats, athletics, magicians, singers, dancers, direct from the Royal Palace of Mikado. Congress of Wonders, includes all new attractions, human curiosities calculated for wierd showing of nature when in her most fanceyful mood. The Whip, several new sensational thrills have been added to this popular riding device, the popular Athletic Show, where the athletic contests are held by the Nation's Champion athletics. Frisco Underworld, is a new version of the old Chinatown Show.

Coney Island Illusion Show, consists of fifteen new sensational European latest novelty illusions never seen in this country before.

Lutha, the four handed man is the world's greatest wonder. Estes Palace of Models and Minature working world full operation. Marjah is the wonderful show mystery. Suoko, the human Volcano. Over the Waves is the latest mechanical show of a new joyland, this attraction was very popular with the ladies and children at Coney Island, N. Y. and Riverview Park, Chicago. Brand new Jumping Horse Carousal, the children's dream of fairyland. Big Eli Ferris Wheel, Shooting the Rapids, Aerial Swings, Big Aeroplane ride will have more further extended notices in future articles, all however are worthy of visiting and in fact the entire program of exhibitions are calculated to please and where every person's money will more than receive its full value.

Hustling Tulsa Merchant.

One of the centers of grocery trade in Tulsa is rapidly forging to the front rank is the Williams Grocery Store out at the corner of Williams and Hartford streets. This store carries one of the most complete lines of fancy and staple groceries to be had anywhere, as it is the proprietor's ambition to always have on hand just what any of his many customers call for. Mr. Williams is a natural born merchant and goes about his daily tasks with a keen eye ever watchful of the welfare and satisfaction of his patrons. It goes without saying that a genial and affable gentleman, such as Mr. Williams is, is very deserving of generous backing by the people living in this community.

Ethiopian Conference Meets at Okmulgee.

(Star News Service).

OKMULGEE, Okla., Apr. 22.—The General Conference of the International Ethiopian Rescue and Relief Conference of Oklahoma convened here last Friday and held a very interesting two-day session. A large number of delegates and visitors were present and many of them participated in the program. Women took an unusually active part in the proceedings and everyone seemed to be much interested in the work being done for the Race in this State by the black Prince, Rev. W. S. J. Chaulloughlozlezise, president of the Conference. It was shown at this meeting that the conference under the direction of the Prince is operating three stores, one at Okmulgee, one at Haskell and one at Earlsboro, and that the organization has acquired considerable real estate. J. C. McGee of this city is general manager of the stores and under his supervision other stores will be started in communities where branches of this organization have been established.

Prof. E. M. B. Hendrix general secretary of the conference says the organization is rapidly spreading its influence all over the state and that the sale of stock during the past few months has increased daily. Nearly $1000 worth of stock was sold during the conference meeting here Friday and Saturday.

Inter-Racial Co-Operation.

In slavery days there was in the South a class of Negroes whose skill as workmen and whose personal devotion to their masters' interest excited general praise. They were the house servants (chief of whom was Mammy), the foreman in the fields, and the mechanics, such as blacksmiths, carpenters, coopers, etc. It was into the hands of this class of slaves that the masters, when the Civil War came on, committed the care of their plantations and their women and children. So faithful were these blacks that during the entire period of the war there was not a single instance of a betrayal of the trust committed to their hands.

After emancipation what became of this house-servant and mechanic class, the most intelligent element of the slave population? To a large extent its members established homes for themselves, acquired property, and became the leaders in getting the Race started on the road to that remarkable progress which, after fifty years, is the wonder and admiration of the world. Thus it came to pass that the best element in the Negro race got more or less out of touch with the best element of the white race. The descendants of this house-servant and mechanic class are today the preachers, teachers, doctors, mechanics, farm owners, and business men, who, as leaders of their race, live in their own world apart from the whites. They are the new order of black men, whom, through the medium of the Southern Sociological Congress, and in other ways, the New South is coming to know and, to some extent, to understand. They are a part of the South. They are disposed to be as devoted to the interests as their fathers were to the interests of their masters. It is through this new order of black men that interracial co-operation can be made effective.—Southern Workman.

Property Joins Muskogee on South And is Destined toBe a Choice Resident District.

(Star News Service).

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Apr. 23.—Muskogee is to have another addition. It has already been plotted and put on the market by the W. C. Reid Realty company of this city. The property joins Muskogee on the South and is considered the most desirable out-lying residence property in Muskogee at this time.

The new addition is to be known as "Reed's Addition" and will be sold exclusively to Colored people. Lots in this addition are all 50x140 and will be sold at very reasonable figures for cash or on terms.

Mr. Reid, who is sole owner of the property, says he intends to make this addition a choice residence district and he will not spare money to make it so.

CORINNE GRIFFITH

It was particularly appropriate that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, should have selected Corinne Griffith for the leading role of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers," for she has been steadily climbing ever since she left her home in the south to become a film player. Now she has reached the top rung of film success. In addition to her imposing personal appearance and histrionic talent, Miss Griffith has the happy faculty of wearing beautiful and unusual gowns with grace and has had a splendid athletic training. Some of her most recent features have been "A Girl at Bay," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collateral" and "Deadline at Eleven."

Shall The Dead Be Resurrected And Live Again?

(By RICHARD J. HILL)

To those who accept the Bible as the word of God, the Creator and Finisher of all things, there is little difficulty in showing to them through the Bible the fact and philosophy of the Resurrection of the dead.

The faithful Job, after suffering great bodily pain and mental anguish, after praying that he might die and go to hell, the grave, and there rest in silence until the wrath of God be over passed, asked the question, "If a man die shall he live again?" (Job 14: 14). Millions have asked this question since that time and had it been fairly treated and honestly answered by those, the preachers, who claim to teach the word of God, much sorrow would have been avoided in the earth.

According to statistics furnished, approximately nine million men were the victims of the Great World War just past. Within that same period twelve million fell victims to the great dreaded pestilence, "Spanish Influenza." For some years now in addition to this the average death rate, in the world, has been approximately one hundred thousand per day. When there is a great calamity and many people lose their lives, the peoples of earth stand amazed and shocked, but in the daily routine of affairs death has become so common that many think it must always be this way. Most naturally the people have looked to something upon which they could base their hopes for the future for themselves and their loved ones. Truly this is an earth of sorrow, the sorrow of the people bowed down under the great burden of sin, groaning and travailing for something that would deliver them from it. The poet has well expressed it when he says:

"The Earth is old with centuries,
But not for this she hangs her head;
Closer to her heart the sorrow lies,
She holds so many dead."

From the bloody battle fields broken regiments have returned and some fathers, mothers and sweethearts have waited at the station and looked in vain for the coming of the one they have dearly loved and they have asked, "Shall we ever see him again?" "If they have fallen in the battle is there any hope of our being united again in happiness and love?" The scripture alone answers this question satisfactorily.

The hope of the world lies in the resurrection of the dead. Wonderfully beautiful is the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead and those who see and appreciate it rejoice in the fact that God, in the exercise of his loving kindness, has provided a means whereby those who have suffered death might be awakened again, and those waiting in sorrow may have their hearts made glad. "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentations and bitter weeping. Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. (They were dead not conscious somewhere). Thus saith the Lord, refrain thy voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears, for thy works shall be rewarded, saith the Lord, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in the end saith the Lord. That thy children shall come again to their own border." (Jer. 13: 15-17). Every where in the Bible death is spoken of as an enemy. So the land of the enemy, therefore is the condition of death. The promise here is that these dead shall be brought back to their own border namely, the earth, their former condition. We here submit that if the doctrine of inherent immortality is correct, then there could be no resurrection of the dead for the reason that you can not resurrect a person that is immortal—death proof. Resurrection means a restanding to life and no one could be immortal without having life in it's fullness. Hence the doctrine of inherent immortality of the soul denies the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the doctrine of eternal torture is true the resurrection of the dead could not be true for the reason that no one could be eternally tortured without having eternal life, an existence indestructible, and if one is already in a state of life indestructible and subject to eternal torment, a restanding to life, the resurrection would be utterly impossible. Thus we see that the doctrine of eternal torture is a plain denial of the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the dead are conscious and can now communicate with living friends through the influence of Mediums, or otherwise, that the doctrine of the resurrection could not be true, for the further reason that one who is conscious and able to communicate could not be resurrected to life because they would already have life. Hence the doctrine of spiritualism or communication with the dead is a plain denial of the resurrection of the dead.

All these doctrines completely deny the great ransom sacrifice. The Ransom Sacrifice is the key note to every doctrine, as to whether or not it is true or false. In other words, it is the measuring rod by which every teaching can be measured and can be determined whether any doctrine is true or false. Thus we see that if the Bible teaches clearly and conclusively the resurrection of the dead and the doctrine of the great Ransom Sacrifice, the other doctrines of inherent immortality, eternal torment, and spiritism, are as false as the Devil himself, and this we will prove by the scriptures.

Ransom means, literally, "a corresponding price." God created the first man, Adam, perfect in organism and character. He gave him his law, the penalty of which prescribed, death for it's violation. He, Adam, violated the law and death came upon him. While under that sentence of death he begat children. He did not beget any children while in a perfect state and condition but after he had violated God's just law and the sentence of death passed upon him and he was driven out of the garden. Being legally condemned and having the death process in him, and feeding upon the poisneous elements of the earth and being in a dying condition, necessarily Adam could not transmit to his off-spring the perfect life germ. The race not being born until after Adam's sin would legally come under condemnation by inheritance. Therefore, all of Adam's progeny were born in sin—an imperfect condition.

Evidently this was David's thought when he said, "Behold I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." (Psa. 51: 5.) Every child born is imperfect a sinner subject to death not because of any wilful wrong child inherited this condition from father Adam. St. Paul corroborates this when he says, "By one man's sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5: 12). Every one dies therefore, because he can not avoid it, and this death would be eternal had not God graciously provided a ransom price or redemptive process. Jehovah made promise, saying, "I will ransom them from the power of the grave. I will redeem them from death. Oh, Death, I will be thy plagues; Oh Grave, I will be thy destruction." (Hos. 13: 14.). Be it noticed here that he did not promise to redeem or ransom any one from a conscious state of hell torture, but his promise is entirely consistent with all the other scripture, that the dead are dead and waiting the progressive steps of Jehovah's plans to awaken them out of death.

A perfect man (Adam) sinned. Nothing but a perfect man could redeem him. God provided in his law, "A life for a life, a tooth for a tooth." Man has ever desired redemption and deliverance, but to carry this out for himself was an impossibility. Hence, the Psalmist wrote, "None can by any means redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him." (Psa. 49: 7).

In his prehuman condition, Jesus was the logos. He was God's active agent in the creation of all things. God promised to deliver mankind and the one who should accomplish this deliverance would be honored above all others and he offered this honor to Jesus. Consequently his life was transformed from the spirit to human conditions. "He was madeflesh and dwelt among us." (John 1: 14). The whole race being under the condemnation of death desired life, and Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life." (John 10: 10). Of him the Apostle Paul writes, "We see Jesus who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that he by the grace of God might taste death for every man." (Heb. 2: 9). He was born of a woman not begotten of man, being begotten by the power of Jehovah. (Luke 1: 35). When he reached the age of thirty years he was a perfect man, physically, mentally, in character, every way. He exactly corresponded with Adam in Eden before he sinned. Therefore, he was able to become a ransom, a corresponding price. He offered himself in full consecration to the Father. God accepted him and beget him to the divine nature. He was crucified upon the cross and was raised from the dead by the Father's power and ascended upon high, with the price sufficient to redeem all mankind.—Why did God permit his beloved son to come to the earth and die? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3: 16). His, Jesus, resurrection from the dead is a complete guarantee that all the dead shall be awakened. The Apostle Paul says, "There shall be a resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust." (Acts 24: 15). Jesus declared that the hour is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and live, when all the dead in their graves shall be awakened and brought forth to be given a full knowledge of the truth and a trial for life. (John 5: 25-28-29). There was a class of clergymen in Jesus' days known as Sadducees, who denied the resurrection of the dead. There is a class of clergymen today, who by their teachings deny in substance, if not in terms the resurrection of the dead. How strange that they have been unable to see that one must be dead before he can be raised from the dead. If alive they could not be resurected. When Jesus said that God sent him to earth to die in order that the others might have life and might not perish, it meant that they would perish and could not live except by his death and resurection and any position or teaching, therefore, that denies the unconscious state of the dead, negates the Ransom, and denies the resurection. The Apostle Paul emphasizes this argument when he says, "Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurection of the dead? But if there is no resurection of the dead then is Christ not risen?" (1 Cor. 15: 12-13). The converse of this proposition must of necessity be true. If Christ did rise from the dead, then all others who have died must also be brought forth. Emphasizing this fact the Apostle further says, "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain?" (Verse 14). In other words, it would be useless to preach anything about God's plan, the condition of the dead, or anything else if we deny the resurection of the dead. If we took any other position we would be false witnesses and so says the Apostle. "Yes and we are found false witnesses of God because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not then is Christ not raised. And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished." (Verses 15-18). Is it not strange that St. Paul did not say here that even those fallen asleep in Christ are alive in Purgatory, waiting to be prayed out by some priests? Why not take the Apostle Paul, the Lord Jesus Christ and all the faithful writers of the Bible's of the resurecting the dead? Why should not the people cast out all and refuse to listen to those whose principal object is to get in all the filthy lucre and undeserved honors that they can? It is no wonder that the people are so far in the dark concerning God's plan of salvation. The people have already permitted these false shepherds, (False Preachers, Wolves in sheep's clothing) to lead them too far in darkness. The time has come when every honest hearted individual should demand the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth on matters pertaining to God's great plan of salvation.

In the Apostle's argument concerning the resurection of the dead in First Cor. 15. After arguing the negative side of the question he assumes the positive side and says, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruit of them that slept." (Verse 20). In other words, for four thousand years man had been dying and in that time none had been resurected. Now Jesus, the perfect one had come. He had suffered death and God had raised him up from the dead and he was the first that ever was raised up. Continuing his argument St. Paul says, "For since by man came death, by man (Jesus) came also the resurection of the dead. For as in Adam all died, even so all in Christ shall be made alive, but every man in his own order. Christ the first fruits, afterward, (after the resurection of the Christ) they that are Christ at his appearing." (Verses 21-23). Thus he establishes the fact that until the second coming of Christ, the dead must remain dead, fully unconscious, out of existence, and at the second coming of Christ the resurection takes place. This same Apostle continuing his argument in his epistle to the Thessalonians, says, "But I would not have you ignorant brethren concerning them that are asleep, (dead). That ye sorrow not even as others have no hope for if we believe that Jesus died and arose again even so them which are sleeping, (in death) in Jesus will God bring with him. (Otherwise stated, not until the coming of Jesus, will those asleep in death be awakened). For this we say unto you, by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout and the

It was particularly appropriate that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, should have selected Corinne Griffith for the leading role of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers," for she has been steadily climbing ever since she left her home in the south to become a film player. Now she has reached the top rung of film success. In addition to her imposing personal appearance and histrionic talent, Miss Griffith has the happy faculty of wearing beautiful and unusual gowns with grace and has had a splendid athletic training. Some of her most recent features have been "A Girl at Bay," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collateral" and "Deadline at Eleven."

Shall The Dead Be Resurrected And Live Again?

(By RICHARD J. HILL)

To those who accept the Bible as the word of God, the Creator and Finisher of all things, there is little difficulty in showing to them through the Bible the fact and philosophy of the Resurrection of the dead.

The faithful Job, after suffering great bodily pain and mental anguish, after praying that he might die and go to hell, the grave, and there rest in silence until the wrath of God be over passed, asked the question, "If a man die shall he live again?" (Job 14: 14). Millions have asked this question since that time and had it been fairly treated and honestly answered by those, the preachers, who claim to teach the word of God, much sorrow would have been avoided in the earth.

According to statistics furnished, approximately nine million men were the victims of the Great World War just past. Within that same period twelve million fell victims to the great dreaded pestilence, "Spanish Influenza." For some years now in addition to this the average death rate, in the world, has been approximately one hundred thousand per day. When there is a great calamity and many people lose their lives, the peoples of earth stand amazed and shocked, but in the daily routine of affairs death has become so common that many think it must always be this way. Most naturally the people have looked to something upon which they could base their hopes for the future for themselves and their loved ones. Truly this is an earth of sorrow, the sorrow of the people bowed down under the great burden of sin, groaning and travailing for something that would deliver them from it. The poet has well expressed it when he says:

"The Earth is old with centuries,
But not for this she hangs her head;
Closer to her heart the sorrow lies,
She holds so many dead."

From the bloody battle fields broken regiments have returned and some fathers, mothers and sweethearts have waited at the station and looked in vain for the coming of the one they have dearly loved and they have asked, "Shall we ever see him again?" "If they have fallen in the battle is there any hope of our being united again in happiness and love?" The scripture alone answers this question satisfactorily.

The hope of the world lies in the resurrection of the dead. Wonderfully beautiful is the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead and those who see and appreciate it rejoice in the fact that God, in the exercise of his loving kindness, has provided a means whereby those who have suffered death might be awakened again, and those waiting in sorrow may have their hearts made glad. "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentations and bitter weeping. Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. (They were dead not conscious somewhere). Thus saith the Lord, refrain thy voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears, for thy works shall be rewarded, saith the Lord, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in the end saith the Lord. That thy children shall come again to their own border." (Jer. 13: 15-17). Every where in the Bible death is spoken of as an enemy. So the land of the enemy, therefore is the condition of death. The promise here is that these dead shall be brought back to their own border namely, the earth, their former condition. We here submit that if the doctrine of inherent immortality is correct, then there could be no resurrection of the dead for the reason that you can not resurrect a person that is immortal—death proof. Resurrection means a restanding to life and no one could be immortal without having life in it's fullness. Hence the doctrine of inherent immortality of the soul denies the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the doctrine of eternal torture is true the resurrection of the dead could not be true for the reason that no one could be eternally tortured without having eternal life, an existence indestructible, and if one is already in a state of life indestructible and subject to eternal torment, a restanding to life, the resurrection would be utterly impossible. Thus we see that the doctrine of eternal torture is a plain denial of the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the dead are conscious and can now communicate with living friends through the influence of Mediums, or otherwise, that the doctrine of the resurrection could not be true, for the further reason that one who is conscious and able to communicate could not be resurrected to life because they would already have life. Hence the doctrine of spiritualism or communication with the dead is a plain denial of the resurrection of the dead.

All these doctrines completely deny the great ransom sacrifice. The Ransom Sacrifice is the key note to every doctrine, as to whether or not it is true or false. In other words, it is the measuring rod by which every teaching can be measured and can be determined whether any doctrine is true or false. Thus we see that if the Bible teaches clearly and conclusively the resurrection of the dead and the doctrine of the great Ransom Sacrifice, the other doctrines of inherent immortality, eternal torment, and spiritism, are as false as the Devil himself, and this we will prove by the scriptures.

Ransom means, literally, "a corresponding price." God created the first man, Adam, perfect in organism and character. He gave him his law, the penalty of which prescribed, death for it's violation. He, Adam, violated the law and death came upon him. While under that sentence of death he begat children. He did not beget any children while in a perfect state and condition but after he had violated God's just law and the sentence of death passed upon him and he was driven out of the garden. Being legally condemned and having the death process in him, and feeding upon the poisneous elements of the earth and being in a dying condition, necessarily Adam could not transmit to his off-spring the perfect life germ. The race not being born until after Adam's sin would legally come under condemnation by inheritance. Therefore, all of Adam's progeny were born in sin—an imperfect condition.

Evidently this was David's thought when he said, "Behold I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." (Psa. 51: 5.) Every child born is imperfect a sinner subject to death not because of any wilful wrong child inherited this condition from father Adam. St. Paul corroborates this when he says, "By one man's sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5: 12). Every one dies therefore, because he can not avoid it, and this death would be eternal had not God graciously provided a ransom price or redemptive process. Jehovah made promise, saying, "I will ransom them from the power of the grave. I will redeem them from death. Oh, Death, I will be thy plagues; Oh Grave, I will be thy destruction." (Hos. 13: 14.). Be it noticed here that he did not promise to redeem or ransom any one from a conscious state of hell torture, but his promise is entirely consistent with all the other scripture, that the dead are dead and waiting the progressive steps of Jehovah's plans to awaken them out of death.

A perfect man (Adam) sinned. Nothing but a perfect man could redeem him. God provided in his law, "A life for a life, a tooth for a tooth." Man has ever desired redemption and deliverance, but to carry this out for himself was an impossibility. Hence, the Psalmist wrote, "None can by any means redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him." (Psa. 49: 7).

In his prehuman condition, Jesus was the logos. He was God's active agent in the creation of all things. God promised to deliver mankind and the one who should accomplish this deliverance would be honored above all others and he offered this honor to Jesus. Consequently his life was transformed from the spirit to human conditions. "He was madeflesh and dwelt among us." (John 1: 14). The whole race being under the condemnation of death desired life, and Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life." (John 10: 10). Of him the Apostle Paul writes, "We see Jesus who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that he by the grace of God might taste death for every man." (Heb. 2: 9). He was born of a woman not begotten of man, being begotten by the power of Jehovah. (Luke 1: 35). When he reached the age of thirty years he was a perfect man, physically, mentally, in character, every way. He exactly corresponded with Adam in Eden before he sinned. Therefore, he was able to become a ransom, a corresponding price. He offered himself in full consecration to the Father. God accepted him and beget him to the divine nature. He was crucified upon the cross and was raised from the dead by the Father's power and ascended upon high, with the price sufficient to redeem all mankind.—Why did God permit his beloved son to come to the earth and die? "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3: 16). His, Jesus, resurrection from the dead is a complete guarantee that all the dead shall be awakened. The Apostle Paul says, "There shall be a resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust." (Acts 24: 15). Jesus declared that the hour is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and live, when all the dead in their graves shall be awakened and brought forth to be given a full knowledge of the truth and a trial for life. (John 5: 25-28-29). There was a class of clergymen in Jesus' days known as Sadducees, who denied the resurrection of the dead. There is a class of clergymen today, who by their teachings deny in substance, if not in terms the resurrection of the dead. NOTICE TO ODD FELLOWS

Grand master's visit to the various lodges of the southwestern part of the state showed the order to be in splendid working condition with the exception of some who are paying burial tax and endowment and paying no dues in their lodge. This is bad practice and will not benefit any member to do such thing for at their death there will be no benefits paid to the beneficiary.

Take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly if you want your families duly protected at your death.

E. D. JEFFERSON,
Grand Master.

SHALL THE DEAD BE RESURECTED AND LIVE AGAIN?

voice of the ark angel, and the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with him in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord." (I Thes. 4: 13-16). Here the Apostle, however, is discussing particularly the resurection of the Church, that these shall be first resurected. Afterwards shall come the resurection of mankind in general. The purpose of their awakening out of death is to give them a fair trial for life everlasting. The apostle gives this thought when he says, "For it is the will of God that all men be saved and come unto the knowledge of the truth." (I Thes. 2: 3-6. The salvation here mentioned is the salvation from death provided by the merit of Christ Jesus.

IF YOU WANT TO SEE real Race Progress come to Tulsa. We have it.

TULSA IS SOON TO HAVE three weekly publications published by men of our Group. But look who we are! We're Tulsa!

THE FELLOW WHO allows jealousy and envy to inspire and prompt his actions in any direction usually pays a big price for his experience.

THE OVERALL CLUB may be alright so far as it goes—but what we need more than anything else is some kind of movement to make it possible for a newspaper editor to be on equal terms with other dilligent toilers when it comes to eating.

THE STAR HAS ITS FAULTS, doubtless. But who has none? It must be acknowledged, however, that we have the most completely equipped newspaper plant in the Southwest, and hence are best prepared for publishing a journal full of the best class of race news and for executing in a superior manner all kinds of commercial printing.

THE TULSA STAR is not a mere possibility nor a probability—it is an established fact, with an assured future. We make this statement because one of the future city officials is reported as having said that the Star would die during the next two years. This may be the hope of some of our republican friends but it as vain as the howl of the canine that barks at the moon. The Star will continue to espouse the cause of true democratic principles under the banner of democracy and we will not ask any advice or any assistance from our political adversaries. We lived through the two years of a former republican administration and there is no reason to believe that we can not survive the next two years.

THE SUNDAY'S NEW YORK TRIBUNE contains an explanation of the views of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, one of the prominent American women who as feminine Moses have labored many years in leading their charges to the Promised Land—women's suffrage. She opposes the idea of forming a women's party and urges American women to go into the political parties of their choice and cast their lots with other citizens. The same things should guide women in their voting that should guide men, says Mrs. Catt. She especially emphasizes the admonition that: "Voters, men and women, should look forward." The Star heartily commends this "looking forward" attitude of Mrs. Catt. We are glad to be able to refer with pride to the position taken by our Colored Women of Tulsa, who in the recent city election espoused and supported the candidates of the Tulsa democracy. Our women were looking forward and were wise in doing so. Unfortunately there are too many of our group, both women and men, who persist in looking backward. There is absolutely nothing to be gained in so doing. It is simple and plain. A vote cast today cannot affect to a hair's breadth anything that occurred yesterday, last month, last year or fifty years ago. Your vote today, however, does have influence upon tomorrow—the veiled and unknown future in which all our hopes and fears are to be revealed. Why worry about the past? "Look forward," and "let the dead past bury it's dead."

THE "JIM CROW" EVILS

FEW PEOPLE outside of our group can possibly realize the sting, the humiliation, the hardships that black men and women are forced to endure under the provisions and interpretation of the so called "Jim Crow" law. A careful study on the part of any social student will convince that it is contrary to a Christian sense of fairness, utterly incompatible and conducive to more friction between the races than any other policy of public probity known in our government. It is a false theory which must some day be overthrown. But the solution must be found by big brave men of a later day, no doubt in the near future.

In the meantime, we must continue to suffer the evils of the law such as are so often seen on the railroad trains and street cars—enought to make desperadoes of men who have always enjoyed an enviable record as law abiding citizens.

When we board a train after paying first class fare and find ourselves ushered into an all-too-small and ill-kept compartment set aside especially for our group and designated "For Negroes" where men and women are most times compelled to sit together and use the same public conveniences, and realize that we are barred from the Pullman and chair cars behind, simply because we belong to the black race, we are forced to marvel that great America, the proud United States of America, should seek to espouse the cause of oppressed peoples of other lands while her own go begging for mercy and justice.

This farce must end some place, sometime and it looks like the oppressed must take the lead in bringing the end about.

To start with, let us at all times insist on a full and complete enforcement of the law while it is a law and demand at all times a strict observance of our full rights under the provisions thereof.

Let's make a study of this particular law so we will know it and then let's observe it and compel the other fellow to do likewise.

The Supreme Court of the United States has held that in states where Separate Coaches are maintained for the two races (all races except ours may ride together) that the railroad company must furnish exact and equal accomodation for both races. This means that we are entitled to every comfort and convenience provided for white passengers, but we don't get it, and the reason is plain: We don't demand it. We have a right to demand it and if necessary we have a right to fight for it. Now let's have it.

Recently, Prof. Wm. Hutton a refined man of our group boarded a train and took a seat in the smoker in "our compartment." He had not gone far when the conductor came in removed the "Jim Crow" sign and ordered him and several other Colored men out in order to make room for a few white men. The Colored ladies' compartment of the train was already crowded and Mr. Hutton refused to move. An argument ensued, but he held his position. The result was that the conductor replaced the sign and ordered the white men out.

This is the kind of interpretation of the infamous "Jim Crow" law that makes the infernal thing so obnoxious to black men. We need more men like Mr. Hutton who know the law, who know their rights under the law and if need be will fight to enjoy them.

MUSKOGEE NEWS NOTES

BEEBE CHAPEL, C. M. E. CHURCH
Muskogee, Oklahoma.
Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.
Morning Services, 11:00 A. M.
Young People's League, 6:00 P. M.
Evening Services, 8:00 P. M.
Official Board Meeting every Monday night. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday night. Choir practice every Friday night.
Rev. F. B. AMOS,
Pastor.

The Rev. A. B. Norris has returned home from the M. E. Conference and was grieved to find his wife quite ill.

Mr. Milton C. Simmons, proprietor Simmon's Drug Store, is back from attending the Lincoln M. E. Conference, Kansas City, Mo., and says the work of the conference was the most significant in its history.

Mr. M. C. Perara, the popular and hustling representative of the Standard Life Insurance company left for Tulsa Tuesday on important business.

Green Smith, the well known contractor says that there is more building going on in and around Muskogee by well-to-do Colored people than ever before. The buildings erected range from homes to business houses and gins. Smith is kept busy and has a large force of men working under him on contract work.

Dean William Pickens, the noted orator of New York City, spent a few days here last week in interest of the N. A. A. C. P. Association. While here Prof. Pickens delivered talks at the M. T. H. S. and several churches.

Rev. Blake, former pastor of the Central Baptist Church, is rapidly recovering from his recent illness, back to the happiness of his numerous friends.

Mr. George Buss, one of the strong young pillars of Rev. Well's congregation, has accepted work at Gibson Sta., Okla., and is making good.

Editor A. J. Smitherman of the Tulsa Star paid a brief trip to Muskogee last Monday to deliver the handsomely executed minutes of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, printed in the Tulsa Star's complete job department.

George McDowell, the well known magazine and newspaper agent of this city has accepted agency for the Tulsa Star at Muskogee. The Star is the largest and newsiest weekly paper published by the Race in the Southwest and merits generous support. Mr. McDowell will be glad to receive your news items and also your subscriptions. He can be found at 312 South Second and will be glad to serve all friends of the Star.

The Chandler Cold Drink and Barbecue stand on South Second is rapidly being converted into a swell grocery and meat market. This shows what perserverance and patience can accomplish.

The reporter learns that the public schools are to continue for full period—nine months, much to the satisfaction of both pupils and patrons. It is reported that a number of Muskogee banks contributed liberally toward the fund to continue the schools.

Miss Towler, the efficient and talented T. B. Nurse, was tendered a reception last week by Mrs. L. C. Clark and her mother, Mrs. C. Buckingham. Quite an enjoyable time was had.

Attorney B. E. Stewart was called out of the city on an important case during the week.

Mr. J. W. Adams, the well known and sucessful North Second street merchant, has organized a company, which will soon pull off a stunt in real estate circles creditable to the Race.

The Hotel Givens under its present management is catering to and rendering satisfactory service to many of the best people of Oklahoma and other states who visit Muskogee frequently.

Quite a happy crowd of teachers and pupils of city schools attended the closing exercises of the school out near Haynes last week.

Prof. C. C. Butiran is preparing his program for closing of the Baptist College at Pecan Mission and expects to have a celebration exceeding any previous year.

N. Fuller, well known proprietor of the People's Cafe, has purchased a three story business on North Second street and will alter it for use of the professional people who must soon vacate the Escoe Building which is to be remodeled in such a way as to exclude Afro-Americans in the future. So when one door closes, another opens after all.

George McDowell, Reporter.

FRISCO EXPOSITION SHOWS

Coming here to Tulsa for six days and nights, starting Monday, April 26th. At last the amusement going public of this city and all our friends and neighbors in the surrounding territory can make arrangements for one grand holiday, commencing, Monday, April 26.

When the Frisco Exposition Shows begin here an engagement that will be remembered for its novelty and excellence, when the forty heavily loaded cars of equipment and parapharnalia are placed on the show grounds, every opportunity will be offered patrons to inspect and enjoy the multitude of attractions, one of the leading standard attractions is the Wild West, and Indian Congress, a true realistic representation of the past glories of the old stage coach days, and the pioneer days.

Another feature attraction is the circus and horse show, featuring Teddy, the Horse with a human brain. Teddy goes to bed, saves the baby from the burning building. Starlight, the Shimmie dancing horse, Crash, the beautiful Arabian stallion in his famous leap for life over an automobile, and a wonderful troupe of educated ponies, monkeys, baboons and for extreme novelty, is an entertainment unsurpassed.

Jackson's Jazzland Joymakers is a pleasing and modern, up-to-date Colored minstrel show, worthy of a hearing. Piggly Wiggly, a fun show explains its self, for no more joy would be possible to crowd within the walls of this up-side-down crazy, topsy turvy exhibit. A night in Tokio, presenting a troupe of Japanese acrobats, athletics, magicians, singers, dancers, direct from the Royal Palace of Mikado. Congress of Wonders, includes all new attractions, human curiosities calculated for wierd showing of nature when in her most fanceyful mood. The Whip, several new sensational thrills have been added to this popular riding device, the popular Athletic Show, where the athletic contests are held by the Nation's Champion athletics. Frisco Underworld, is a new version of the old Chinatown Show.

Coney Island Illusion Show, consists of fifteen new sensational European latest novelty illusions never seen in this country before.

Luba, the four handed man is the world's greatest wonder. Estes Palace of Models and Minature working world full operation. Marjah is the wonderful show mystery. Smoko, the human Volcano. Over the Waves is the latest mechanical show of a new joyland, this attraction was very popular with the ladies and children at Coney Island, N. Y. and Riverview Park, Chicago. Brand new Jumping Horse Carousal, the childre 's dream of fairyland. Big Eli Ferris Wheel Shooting the Rapids, Aerial Swings, Big Aeroplane ride will have more further extended notices in future articles, all however are worthy of visiting and in fact the entire program of exhibitions are calculated to please and where every person's money will more than receive its full value.

Hustling Tulsa Merchant.

One of the centers of grocery trade in Tulsa is rapidly forging to the front rank is the Williams Grocery Store out at the corner of Williams and Hartford streets. This store carries one of the most complete lines of fancy and staple groceries to be had anywhere, as it is the proprietor's ambition to always have on hand just what any of his many customers call for. Mr. Williams is a natural born merchant and goes about his daily tasks with a keen eye ever watchful of the welfare and satisfaction of his patrons. It goes without saying that a genial and affable gentleman, such as Mr. Williams is, is very deserving of generous backing by the people living in this community.

Ethiopian Conference Meets at Okmulgee.

(Star News Service).

OKMULGEE, Okla., Apr. 22.—The General Conference of the International Ethiopian Rescue and Relief Conference of Oklahoma convened here last Friday and held a very interesting two-day session. A large number of delegates and visitors were present and many of them participated in the program. Women took an unusually active part in the proceedings and everyone seemed to be much interested in the work being done for the Race in this State by the black Prince, Rev. W. S. J. Chaulloughlozlzise, president of the Conference. It was shown at this meeting that the conference under the direction of the Prince is operating three stores, one at Okmulgee, one at Haskell and one at Earlsboro, and that the organization has acquired considerable real estate. J. C. McGee of this city is general manager of the stores and under his supervision other stores will be started in communities where branches of this organization have been established.

Prof. E. M. B. Hendrix general secretary of the conference says the organization is rapidly spreading its influence all over the state and that the sale of stock during the past few months has increased daily. Nearly $1000 worth of stock was sold during the conference meeting here Friday and Saturday.

Inter-Racial Co-Operation.

In slavery days there was in the South a class of Negroes whose skill as workmen and whose personal devotion to their masters' interest excited general praise. They were the house servants (chief of whom was Mammy), the foreman in the fields, and the mechanics, such as blacksmiths, carpenters, coopers, etc. It was into the hands of this class of slaves that the masters, when the Civil War came on, committed the care of their plantations and their women and children. So faithful were these blacks that during the entire period of the war there was not a single instance of a betrayal of the trust committed to their hands.

After emancipation what became of this house-servant and mechanic class, the most intelligent element of the slave population? To a large extent its members established homes for themselves, acquired property, and became the leaders in getting the Race started on the road to that remarkable progress which, after fifty years, is the wonder and admiration of the world. Thus it came to pass that the best element in the Negro race got more or less out of touch with the best element of the white race. The descendants of this house-servant and mechanic class are today the preachers, teachers, doctors, mechanics, farm owners, and business men, who, as leaders of their race, live in their own world apart from the whites. They are the new order of black men, whom, through the medium of the Southern Sociological Congress, and in other ways, the New South is coming to know and, to some extent, to understand. They are a part of the South. They are disposed to be as devoted to the interests as their fathers were to the interests of their masters. It is through this new order of black men that interracial co-operation can be made effective.—Southern Workman.

Reid Opens New Addition to Muskogee

W. C. REID, in his office building Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Property Joins Muskogee on South And is Destined toBe a Choice Resident District.

(Star News Service).

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Apr. 23.—Muskogee is to have another addition. It has already been plotted and put on the market by the W. C. Reid Realty company of this city. The property joins Muskogee on the South and is considered the most desirable out-lying residence property in Muskogee at this time.

The new addition is to be known as "Reed's Addition" and will be sold exclusively to Colored people. Lots in this addition are all 50x140 and will be sold at very reasonable figures for cash or on terms.

Mr. Reid, who is sole owner of the property, says he intends to make this addition a choice residence district and he will not spare money to make it so.

"REMEMBER THE SABBATH"

By RICHARD J. HILL

RICHARD J. HILL.

Math. 12: 1-13.

"The Son of man is Lord even on the Sabbath Day."

Those who have little of the truth are sometimes great sticklers for formalities. This was true of the Jews at the first advtnt of our Lord. Feast-days, fast-days, Sabbaths and giving of tents, were very carefully attinded to by them but the weightier matters of the law, respecting justice and love to God and man were sadly neglected. This is our Lord's testimony. So today there are people who give strict attention to Church attendance and to various religious formalities, who wholly overlook the real spirit and intention of theScriptural commands. Their attention to the formality seem to satisfy them from making a thorough reformation of life, and seeking to bring all it's affairs into harmony with the Divine law, Love to God and for our fellows.

The Jews of our Lord's day laid great stress upon the Sabbath, keeping, which fact, according to some people of our day, should have seen ample evidence of their Holliness, full of harmony with the entire law—but such was not the estimation of our Lord. They even undertook to chide our Lord and his diciples respecting their neglect of the Sabbath, although they generally admitted that Christ and his Apostles' characters were blameless. On one of these occasions in which reproof was administered by the Pharisees, our Lord took up the subject and explained it, showing that they had wholly misapprehended the Divine intention respecting the Sabbath. It was not intended to be a burden, but a blessing. The Sabbath was not given for God's sake, but for man's sake. He, the Lord Jesus, called them to witness that his diciples were doing no harm, that they were merely 'satisfying their hunger lawfully. He then proved the correctness of his position from authorities, they would be willing to accept. They recognized David as a Holy man, approved of God, and he pointed out to them how that David ander stress of hunger had eaten bread that otherwise would have been unlawful to eat. Then he laid down the general principle that although labor was prohibited under the law, it was for the purpose of bringing to man rest, comfort, refreshment and blessing, and not to bring hunger, inconvenience and distress upon either man or beast. He cited them to the fact that certain work was done on the Sabbath by the priest, and under Divine direction, and that this proved that labor done sacrificially for the assistance of others, as well as for their own necessities, could be no violation of the fourth commandment. After declaring himself fully qualified to decide the Sabbath question, he tells them that, watching out for the letter of the law they neglected its spirit, and should learn that the Lord desires mercy, sympathy, pity, love, more than he desires sacrifice and that any deeds of mercy, sympathy, pity, love, done on the Sabbath day, are more pleasing in God's sight, than were those sacrifices which were performed on the Sabbath as well as other days, in the typical Temple. With this proper view before their minds they would not have condemned his deciples whom he, the Master of the Sabbath did not condemn.

The blindness of the Pharisees respecting the proper interpretation of the law of the Sabbath, is shown by the fact that even after our Lord had given them this explanation, they evidently still supposed that while it would be right for a Priest in the Temple to labor in the offering of a sacrifice it would be contrary to the same law for some one to heal the sick and relieve distress. Our Lord, however, soon discovered to them the error if not the hyprocrisy of their own hearts. He well knew that in their love of gain they would help a sheep or an ass out of a pit on the Sabbath Day, because it represented value, and it's remaining in the pit over the Sabbath might mean it's death, and hence a financial loss. Thus, he showed them that they well knew how to interpret the law correctly liberally, when it touched their purse, but that they were so lacking in mercy, sympathy, and love, that they failed to properly interpret the law as respects acts of mercy, where financial loss or gain was not involved. Our Lord, as a Jew, was bound under the Jewish covenant so long as he lived as a human being; because he did not in any sense of the word make an end of the law covenant until his death—there he became the end of the law for righteousness (justification) to every one that believith. When the Scriptures inform us that Christ by his death made an end of the law, it means that there was nothing further to be gained by the keeping of the law, and that what there was to be gained by the keeping of that law was captured by our Lord Jesus Christ when at death he said unto the cross it is finished. The offer to any Jew who would keep the law perfectly was eternal life, but all the Jews failed except Christ hence there was no further need of holding out the offer since the prize has been won. All who desire to share any of the benefit of this prize which was captured by our Lord Jesus must of necessity go to the one who has it and receive from him; and all who come to Christ are not under the law but under the grace or favor which is higher than the law.

We are therefore to understand that from our Lord's discourse hereabove mentioned to the Jews was to the effect that while neglecting the weightier matters and the real interest of the law covenant they had fallen into certain habits of thoughts and certain customs which were perversions of the law and wholly inconsistent with the laws real sentiment. Phariseeism had become formish in many respects. It is claimed that according to their definition of Sabbath breaking the Diciples had thrashed the wheat when they rubbed it in their hands. So also it is claimed, and so argued with apparent seriousness, that if any one walked upon the grass with nailed shoes, upon the Sabbath day, that would be a violation of the law, because it would produce a kind of threshing, since one might trample out some of the seeds. With equal seriousness according to Jewish history, it was claimed, that to catch a flea upon one's person would be a kind of hunting and thus a violation of the Sabbath. It is even said to have been debated whether or not a fresh egg should be eaten on the first day of the week since it implied work on the part of a hen on the seventh day; and we can safely say that quite probably if clocks had been invented at that time they would all have been stepped over the Sabbath. Our Lord shows by his criticism that this was merely hypocricy and self-delusion on the part of the Pharisees, who found it easier to make a show of righteousness in such triflinf things than to consider and seek to obey the weightier matters of the law—justice and mercy. Our Lord showed them that God as he had foretold had more pleasure in mercy than in sacrifice and that if they had his spirit in respect to the matter, they would not be hypocritically condemning their fellow creatures who were really doing no wrong. This was a prelude to what followed and prepared the way. For coming to the synagogue the same day, our Lord found a poor cripple who needed help and while the Pharisees were looking and waiting for a chance to condemn him for violating the Sabbath according to their false assertions respecting it, he took the opportunity to administer a rebuke before performing a cure, realizing no doubt, that the effect upon his hearers would thereby be more favorable. He knew what to teach them—he knew their tender spots of selfishness; and that however much they might delude themselves and others in theorizing respecting observance of the Sabbath when it would come down to a matter of loss or gain they would be well able to rid themselves of their superstition and act accordingly, hence he put the question whether or not they would deliver a sheep or an ass on the Sabbath day if it should fall into a pit. He and they well knew what they would do,, what was the custom, and hence, without waiting for an answer, but taking it for granted he proceeded to show that the poor cripple before him was much better than the sheep or ass, and that he had been trapped into sin, sickness by the Adversary, and that if it were right to deliver the sheep or the ass, much more would it be right on the Sabbath day to help a fellow creature in distress.

Every human obligation is based upon some Divine law. Looking to the Jewish Sabbath, we find that it was the seventh day of the week and was made obligatory through a Divine command—being one of the Ten Commandments given to Israel at Mt. Sinai, consequently it was not optional with them how they should keep it,but was obligatory upon the terms explicidly stated. To violate it, the Fourth Commandment of the Decalogue, was to violate one point of the law; and to violate one point of the law was to violate the entire law; because the offer of eternal life to the Jew was based upon his absolute obedience to all its preceipts without a solitary exception. In other words, they had to keep the law perfectly before they could gain the prize of eternal life. As we have heretofore seen, however, and as our Lord and the apostle expressly declaired no Isrealite did keep or could keep inviolately all the items of their law, and consequently, according to their covenant, not one of them was ever justified to eternal life.

The Scriptures do not teach and no thinking person can be made to believe that God has made the question of life-everlasting or Death eternal dependent upon the keeping of certain days. The Scriptures specifically warns all who would be followers of Jesus Christ to let the wold judge them by the fruits of the Spirit and not to permit themselves to be judged by the keeping of certain days; Gal. 5: 22-23; "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, Godliness, faith, meekness, temperance; Against such there is no law." "Col." 16-17, reads thus: "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an wholly day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath day; Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." The Scripture last quoted means to inform us that the laws and ceremonies of the Jewish age including the Sabbath were but shadows pointing to the real thing and the real thing sins Christ's baptism at Jordan is the Christ. It is true that the law covenant relating to the keeping of the seventh day and all other features of that law was binding upon the Jews with whom it was made and it is still binding upon all Jews who do not believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God; but the law covenant was never binding upon the Gentiles. (All persons not decendant from Abrahem) For the reason that they were never a party to it. The Lord had no dealings with the Gentiles and made no covenants or contracts with them prior to the Gospel age, that is before Christ's baptism at Jordan. ( Amos. 3: 2). "The Lord speaking to the Jews said: "You only have I known of all the families of the earth therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities." All Jews who accepts Christ as the Son of God and consecrate themselves to follow him are not under the law covenant but under Grace and the only law binding upon them is the law of love.

In order to more fully understand this subject we should know for what purpose was the law covenant given. The Scriptures inform us that the law was given to the Jews to serve them as a teacher or instructor in the rudimentary principles of Godliness and to help all the humble minded to be ready to pass from the house of servants into the house of Sons when Christ came. —Gal. 3: 24-25; but all who failed to do their best under the law covenant was not permitted to pass out of the house of servants into the house of Sons and therefore they remain under the law covenant. In other words, to simplify the matter let us suppose that we are preparing persons for school teachers; their schooling would beging with the rudiments of first-grade principles and they would remain in that grade until they gave satisfaction before they would be permitted to enter higher grades. They would remain under the laws or rules of passing until they complied therewith. So it is with the Jews; all must remain under the law covenant until they accept Christ which act is the passing mark. The philosophy of the matter is this since no imperfect man was able to keep the law in letter and spirit the love of God, John 3: 16, arranged that Christ who was perfect should come in the flesh perfect, and without sin and keep the law showing that a perfect person can keep the law and at the same time arrange to help imperfect men to keep the law; but before any of the imperfect humanity can receive this help and be counted perfect under the law they must come to Christ and agree to do his will and not their own. Under such conditions Christ's merit will be applied to their weakness and they will be considered perfect and as fulfilling the whole law as long as they remain in that condition of untarnished love and desire to do the will of God to the extent of their ability at any cost. All persons so coming to Christ are said to be under a covenant of Grace or favor and not under the law covenant. Christ's death would amount to nothing if any one could be justified by keeping the law. In the first place Christ would not have died if there was any who were able to keep the law perfectly. Gal. 2: 21.

While the law covenant only represented the A-B-C principles of the Divine law, yet sinful man has never been able to keep it perfectly. Jesus Christ was the only one that ever kept that law perfectly, and therefore, as we have above stated, he captured the prize—Eternal Life, that was offered to any Jew who could keep it. Now after gaining the prize of Life-Everlasting, he has arranged that the Jews may pass under the curse of the law by having faith in him and following in his foot-steps. All Jews who come out from under the law covenant by accepting Christ do more by faith than is required of them under the law covenant; instead of giving one-tenth to the Lord, they consecrate and give their all including their lives; instead of keeping one day out of seven as a Sabbath unto the Lord, they keep every day for they have entered into their rest. (Heb. 4: 3).

The Gentiles (all persons not decendants of Abraham) have never been under the law covenant and therefore having nothing what ever to do with this seventh day Sabbath except to know its typical significance as fore-shadowing the antitypical rest of the Gospel age which is not rest of body but a rest of faith in the merits of the Ransome Sacrifice.

The Kentucky democratic delegation was instructed for Governor James M. Cox of Ohio for president last Tuesday.

TO TRY TO WARM ENGLAND'S HEART

Thirty-Five Thousand Sightless Men and Women Are Marching on Whitehall.

(Star News Service)

LONDON, May 5.—The suburb of Willesden was the scene recently of the most pathetic gathering since the war days when batches of maimed men were coming in from France.

Representatives of the 35,000 sightless men and women in England who have been marching upon London for three weeks, gathered at Willesden and made their preparations for their entry into the city tomorrow.

Most of the afflicted members making up this tragic little "Coxey's army" came from the north of England. They seek legislation for the proper care and education of the blind together with employment. It is claimed that only one-seventh of the blind men in this country have work, despite the fact that many of them sacrificed their sight for their country in the war. Most of the blind are dependent upon public charity.

The sightless marchers had planned to call upon Premier Lloyd George the following day, but the premier is at San Remo attending the meeting of the suprem ecouncil and it was not known when he could return.

The blind men will march to the government buildings in Whitehall and present a petition.

A mass meeting was held at Trafalgar Square just before the petition was turned in.

During the 20 days' march from Manchester, Leeds, Birmingham and other industrial cities, the blind grouped their way with sticks, assisted by friends. Some carried banners and some bundles of clothing.

Kind hearted persons assisted the progress of the blind marchers and furnished them with food and money. Labor unions are supporting the plea of the blind men and leaders spoke at the Trafalgar Square meeting.

Prominent Wise Men in Town.

The Star office was honored by a visit last Tuesday from a group of noble Wisemen who were in the city attending the sessions of the State Grand Lodge, held at the First Baptist Church. The party consisted of those well known Muskogeeans, the Messrs. W. V. Gentry, Member Advisory Board, F. J. Gordon, Supreme Grand Auditor; J. E. Hart, M. D. Supreme Grand Scribe; and J. B. Mosley, Worthy Ruler of Pontiac Council, No. 1, Muskogee. These gentlemen were highly pleased with their visit at the Star office, and commented on its fine equipment for doing work in its line. Mr. Gentry voiced his good opinion of the Star by entering his name on our subscription books.

Mrs. Lucile Grayson will leave this week for Oklahoma City, after a three week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Deerman of 904 South Lansing street.

"LABOR WILL GET US ON," SAYS TAFT

As If We Were Not Laboring Centuries Before Armstrong, Frissell and Washington Were Born.

Hampton Release.

HAMPTON, Va., May 7.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States and president of the Hampton Institute Board of Trustees, in his address delivered before twenty-five hundred white and Colored citizens, assembled for the fifty-second anniversary exercises of this pioneer industrial school, whose present Principal is Dr. James E. Gregg, declared that "with clearer vision and greater hope, men of the South have come to take a very different view of the race problem." Mr. Taft added:

"What a relief it is, how soothing, how helpful to visit Tuskegee and Hampton and to meet there those who are drawn together to create opportunity for a race that has had a hard time and that is manifesting a determination and courageous purpose to overcome the obstacles that have confronted the Race!

"No one can give even casual attention to the changes that have come over the South in the last ten years, without realizing that we have today a new South—new in its material progress, new in the spirit of progress of those who are responsible for its growth and development, and therefore new in its attitude toward many of the probiems that have confronted them in the past. Men are changing their attitude in a radical way toward the questions in respect to which their attitude in the past seemed rigid and immovable.

"General Armstrong, Booker T. Washington, and Hollis Frissell taught the Negro race that the only method by which they could get on, was inthedignity of labor, of industry, of thrift, of self-sacrifice. They taught that the way to overcome prejudice was for the Race to appeal to the enlightened selfishness of those with whom they were to live in the South and prove to the people of the South that it was to their interest to accord to the Colored people rights civic, rights political, rights business and equality of opportunity.

SCOTT FERRIS ANNOUNCES WHAT HE STANDS FOR

I am anxious that you know my position on the following subjects:

"Militarism and Compulsory Training in Times of Peace:" I am against it.

"Soldier Legislation for 4,800,000 Ex-Service Men:" I am for it.

"Excess Profits Tax and Burdensome War Taxes:" I am in favor of the repeal of the former and extensions of the latter—which would do more toward reducing the high cost of living than any one thing.

"A Small Army in Peace Times." I am in favor of a small army. Large armies in peace times are burdensome, expensive and unnecessary.

"Women Suffrage:" Both branches of Congress, the Oklahoma Legislature—both State Conventions and the soverign voters of Oklahoma have declared that women may vote. I am in favor of this and have supported it every time it has ever come up.

"Peace Treaty:" Four salient things in the Peace Treaty should be preserved. First; the immediate closing of the war with proper safeguards as to indemnities and American rights; second, arbitration; third, reduction of armament; fourth, abolition of secret treaties. True Americans will not differ on these four salient propositions.

"Economy:" I am in favor of economy in governmental expenditures, consistent with good service, good salaries and good administration.

"Agricultural Legislation:" Open and honest markets, additional warehouse and storage facilities—reduced rates of interest. I am in favor of all these and everything that will encourage production and make farm life more attractive and remunerative.

"Home Ownership:" Tenantry must be reduced—home ownership encouraged. This can best be brought about by liberalization of the farm loan act and the creation of funds, both state and federal, which may be had at low rates of interest and long tenure of repayment with which to procure homes for the homeless.

BELIEVES WOMEN STRONG FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Perhaps Mississippian From Pisgah Who Preferred Hell to Women's Suffrage Suspected This.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

BOSTON, Mass., May 7.—Senator Owen of Oklahoma introduced at a luncheon of democratic leaders last Tuesday as a leader of the democratic nomination for president, said there was more hope in the national political situation than many democrats seemed to think. A special source of strength, he thought, lay in the new body of women voters because they would vote for human rights for which the democratic party has always stood.

By RICHARD J. HILL

RICHARD J. HILL.

Math. 12: 1-13.

"The Son of man is Lord even on the Sabbath Day."

Those who have little of the truth are sometimes great sticklers for formalities. This was true of the Jews at the first advint of our Lord. Feast-days, fast-days, Sabbaths and giving of tents, were very carefully attended to by them but the weightier matters of the law, respecting justice and love to God and man were sadly neglected. This is our Lord's testimony. So today there are people who give strict attention to Church attendance and to various religious formalities, who wholly overlook the real spirit and intention of theScriptural commands. Their attention to the formality seem to satisfy them from making a thorough reformation of life, and seeking to bring all it's affairs into harmony with the Divine law, Love to God and for our fellows.

The Jews of our Lord's day laid great stress upon the Sabbath, keeping, which fact, according to some people of our day, should have seen ample evidence of their Holliness, full of harmony with the entire law—but such was not the estimation of our Lord. They even undertook to chide our Lord and his diciples respecting their neglect of the Sabbath, although they generally admitted that Christ and his Apostles' characters were blameless. On one of these occasions in which reproof was administered by the Pharisees, our Lord took up the subject and explained it, showing that they had wholly misapprehended the Divine intention respecting the Sabbath. It was not intended to be a burden, but a blessing. The Sabbath was not given for God's sake, but for man's sake. He, the Lord Jesus, called them to witness that his diciples were doing no harm, that they were merely satisfying their hunger lawfully. He then proved the correctness of his position from authorities, they would be willing to accept. They recognized David as a Holy man, approved of God, and he pointed out to them how that David under stress of hunger had eaten bread that otherwise would have been unlawful to eat. Then he laid down the general principle that although labor was prohibited under the law, it was for the purpose of bringing to mag rest, comfort, refreshment and blessing, and not to bring hunger, inconvenience and distress upon either man or beast. He cited them to the fact that certain work was done on the Sabbath by the priest, and under Divine direction, and that this proved that labor done sacrificially for the assistance of others, as well as for their own necessities, could be no violation of the fourth commandment. After declaring himself fully qualified to decide the Sabbath question, he tells them that, watching out for the letter of the law they neglected its spirit, and should learn that the Lord desires mercy, sympathy, pity, love, more than he desires sacrifice and that any deeds of mercy, sympathy, pity, love, done on the Sabbath day, are more pleasing in God's sight, than were those sacrifices which were performed on the Sabbath as well as other days, in the typical Temple. With this proper view before their minds they would not have condemned his deciples whom he, the Master of the Sabbath did not condemn.

The blindness of the Pharisees respecting the proper interpretation of the law of the Sabbath, is shown by the fact that even after our Lord had given them this explanation, they evidently still supposed that while it would be right for a Priest in the Temple to labor in the offering of a sacrifice it would be contrary to the same law for some one to heal the sick and relieve distress. Our Lord, however, soon discovered to them the error if not the hyprocrisy of their own hearts. He well knew that in their love of gain they would help a sheep or an ass out of a pit on the Sabbath Day, because it represented value, and it's remaining in the pit over the Sabbath might mean it's death, and hence a financial loss. Thus, he showed them that they well knew how to interpret the law correctly liberally, when it touched their purse, but that they were so lacking in mercy, sympathy, and love, that they failed to properly interpret the law as respects acts of mercy, where financial loss or gain was not involved. Our Lord, as a Jew, was bound under the Jewish covenant so long as he lived as a human being; because he did not in any sense of the word make an end of the law covenant until his death—there he became the end of the law for righteousness (justification) to every one that believith. When the Scriptures inform us that Christ by his death made an end of the law, it means that there was nothing further to be gained by the keeping of the law, and that what there was to be gained by the keeping of that law was captured by our Lord Jesus Christ when at death he said upon the cross it is finished. The offer to any Jew who would keep the law perfectly was eternal life, but all the Jews failed except Christ hence there was no further need of holding out the offer since the prize has been won. All who desire to share any of the benefit of this prize which was captured by our Lord Jesus must of necessity go to the one who has it and receive from him; and all who come to Christ are not under the law but under the grace or favor which is higher than the law.

We are therefore to understand that from our Lord's discourse heretofore mentioned to the Jews was to the effect that while neglecting the weightier matters and the real interest of the law covenant they had fallen into certain habits of thoughts and certain customs which were perversions of the law and wholly inconsistent with the laws real sentiment. Phariseeism had become formish in many respects. It is claimed that according to their definition of Sabbath breaking the Diciples had thrashed the wheat when they rubbed it in their hands. So also it is claimed, and so argued with apparent seriousness, that if any one walked upon the grass with nailed shoes, upon the Sabbath day, that would be a violation of the law, because it would produce a kind of threshing, since one might trample out some of the seeds. With equal seriousness according to Jewish history, it was claimed, that to catch a flea upon one's person would be a kind of hunting and thus a violation of the Sabbath. It is even said to have been debated whether or not a fresh egg should be eaten on the first day of the week since it implied work on the part of a hen on the seventh day; and we can safely say that quite probably if clocks had been invented at that time they would all have been stepped over the Sabbath. Our Lord shows by his criticism that this was merely hypocricy and self-delusion on the part of the Pharisees, who found it easier to make a show of righteousness in such triflinf things than to consider and seek to obey the weightier matters of the law—justice and mercy. Our Lord showed them that God as he had foretold had more pleasure in mercy than in sacrifice and that if they had his spirit in respect to the matter, they would not be hypocritically condemning their fellow creatures who were really doing no wrong. This was a prelude to what followed and prepared the way. For coming to the synagogue the same day, our Lord found a poor cripple who needed help and while the Pharisees were looking and waiting for a chance to condemn him for violating the Sabbath according to their false assertions respecting it, he took the opportunity to administer a rebuke before performing a cure, realizing no doubt, that the effect upon his hearers would thereby be more favorable. He knew what to teach them—he knew their tender spots of selfishness; and that however much they might delude themselves and others in theorizing respecting observance of the Sabbath when it would come down to a matter of loss or gain they would be well able to rid themselves of their superstition and act accordingly, hence he put the question whether or not they would deliver a sheep or an ass on the Sabbath day if it should fall into a pit. He and they well knew what they would do,, what was the custom, and hence, without waiting for an answer, but taking it for granted he proceeded to show that the poor cripple before him was much better than the sheep or ass, and that he had been trapped into sin, sickness by the Adversary, and that if it were right to deliver the sheep or the ass, much more would it be right on the Sabbath day to help a fellow creature in distress.

Every human obligation is based upon some Divine law. Looking to the Jewish Sabbath, we find that it was the seventh day of the week and was made obligatory through a Divine command—being one of the Ten Commandments given to Israel at Mt. Sinai, consequently it was not optional with them how they should keep it,but was obligatory upon the terms explicitly stated. To violate it, the Fourth Commandment of the Decalogue, was to violate one point of the law; and to violate one point of the law was to violate the entire law; because the offer of eternal life to the Jew was based upon his absolute obedience to all its preceipts without a solitary exception. In other words, they had to keep the law perfectly before they could gain the prize of eternal life. As we have heretofore seen, however, and as our Lord and the apostle expressly declaired no Isrealite did keep or could keep inviolately all the iteans of their law, and consequently, according to their covenant, not one of them was ever justified to eternal life.

The Scriptures do not teach and no thinking person can be made to believe that God has made the question of life-everlasting or Death eternal dependent upon the keeping of certain days. The Scriptures specifically warns all who would be followers of Jesus Christ to let the wold judge them by the fruits of the Spirit and not to permit themselves to be judged by the keeping of certain days; Gal. 5: 22-23; "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, Godliness, faith, meekness, temperance; Against such there is no law." "Col." 16-17, reads thus: "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an wholly day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath day; Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." The Scripture last quoted means to inform us that the laws and ceremonies of the Jewish age including the Sabbath were but shadows pointing to the real thing and the real thing since Christ's baptism at Jordan is the Christ. It is true that the law covenant relating to the keeping of the seventh day and all other features of that law was binding upon the Jews with whom it was made and it is still binding upon all Jews who do not believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God; but the law covenant was never binding upon the Gentiles. (All persons not decendant from Abraham) For the reason that they were never a party to it. The Lord had no dealings with the Gentiles and made no covenants or contracts with them prior to the Gospel age, that is before Christ's baptism at Jordan. ( Amos. 3: 2). "The Lord speaking to the Jews said: "You only have I known of all the families of the earth therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities." All Jews who accepts Christ as the Son of God and consecrate themselves to follow him are not under the law covenant but under Grace and the only law binding upon them is the law of love.

In order to more fully understand this subject we should know for what purpose was the law covenant given. The Scriptures inform us that the law was given to the Jews to serve them as a teacher or instructor in the rudimentary principles of Godliness and to help all the humble minded to be ready to pass from the house of servants into the house of Sons when Christ came. —Gal. 3: 24-25; but all who failed to do their best under the law covenant was not permitted to pass out of the house of servants into the house of Sons and therefore they remain under the law covenant. In other words, to simplify the matter let us suppose that we are preparing persons for school teachers; their schooling would begin with the rudiments of first-grade principles and they would remain in that grade until they gave satisfaction before they would be permitted to enter higher grades. They would remain under the laws or rules of passing until they complied therewith. So it is with the Jews; all must remain under the law covenant until they accept Christ which act is the passing mark. The phylosophy of the matter is this since no imperfect man was able to keep the law in letter and spirit the love of God, John 3: 16, arranged that Christ who was perfect should come in the flesh perfect, and without sin and keep the law showing that a perfect person can keep the law and at the same time arrange to help imperfect men to keep the law; but before any of the imperfect humanity can receive this help and be counted perfect under the law they must come to Christ and agree to do his will and not their own. Under such conditions Christ's merit will be applied to their weakness and they will be considered perfect and as fulfilling the whole law as long as they remain in that condition of untarnished love and desire to do the will of God to the extent of their ability at any cost. All persons so coming to Christ are said to be under a covenant of Grace or favor and not under the law covenant. Christ's death would amount to nothing if any one could be justified by keeping the law. In the first place Christ would not have died if there was any who were able to keep the law perfectly. Gal. 2: 21.

While the law covenant only represented the A-B-C principles of the Divine law, yet sinful man has never been able to keep it perfectly. Jesus Christ was the only one that ever kept that law perfectly, and therefore, as we have above stated, he captured the prize—Eternal Life, that was offered to any Jew who could keep it. Now after gaining the prize of Life-Everlasting, he has arranged that the Jews may pass under the curse of the law by having faith in him and following in his foot-steps. All Jews who come out from under the law covenant by accepting Christ do more by faith than is required of them under the law covenant; instead of giving one-tenth to the Lord, they consecrate and give their all including their lives; instead of keeping one day out of seven as a Sabbath unto the Lord, they keep every day for they have entered into their rest. (Heb. 4; 3).

The Gentiles (all persons not decendants of Abraham) have never been under the law covenant and therefore having nothing what ever to do with this seventh day Sabbath except to know its typical significence as fore-shadowing the antitypical rest of the Gospel age which is not rest of body but a rest of faith in the merits of the Ransome Sacrifice.

TO TRY TO WARM ENGLAND'S HEART

Thirty-Five Thousand Sightless Men and Women Are Marching on Whitehall.

(Star News Service)

LONDON, May 5.—The suburb of Willesden was the scene recently of the most pathetic gathering since the war days when batches of maimed men were coming in from France.

Representatives of the 35,000 sightless men and women in England who have been marching upon London for three weeks, gathered at Willesden and made their preparations for their entry into the city tomorrow.

Most of the afflicted members making up this tragic little "Coxey's army" came from the north of England. They seek legislation for the proper care and education of the blind together with employment. It is claimed that only one-seventh of the blind men in this country have work, despite the fact that many of them sacrificed their sight for their country in the war. Most of the blind are dependent upon public charity.

The sightless marchers had planned to call upon Premier Lloyd George the following day, but the premier is at San Remo attending the meeting of the suprem ecouncil and it was not known when he could return.

The blind men will march to the government buildings in Whitehall and present a petition.

A mass meeting was held at Trafalgar Square just before the petition was turned in.

During the 20 days' march from Manchester, Leeds, Birmingham and other industrial cities, the blind grouped their way with sticks, assisted by friends. Some carried banners and some bundles of clothing.

Kind hearted persons assisted the progress of the blind marchers and furnished them with food and money. Labor unions are supporting the plea of the blind men and leaders spoke at the Trafalgar Square meeting.

Prominent Wise Men in Town.

The Star office was honored by a visit last Tuesday from a group of noble Wisemen who were in the city attending the sessions of the State Grand Lodge, held at the First Baptist Church. The party consisted of those well known Muskogeeans, the Messrs. W. V. Gentry, Member Advisory Board, F. J. Gordon, Supreme Grand Auditor; J. E. Hart, M. D. Supreme Grand Scribe; and J. B. Mosley, Worthy Ruler of Pontiac Council, No. 1, Muskogee. These gentlemen were highly pleased with their visit at the Star office, and commented on its fine equipment for doing work in its line. Mr. Gentry voiced his good opinion of the Star by entering his name on our subscription books.

Mrs. Lucile Grayson will leave this week for Oklahoma City, after a three week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Deerman of 904 South Lansing street.

"LABOR WILL GET US ON," SAYS TAFT

As If We Were Not Laboring Centuries Before Armstrong, Frissell and Washington Were Born.

Hampton Release.

HAMPTON, Va., May 7.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States and president of the Hampton Institute Board of Trustees, in his address delivered before twenty-five hundred white and Colored citizens, assembled for the fifty-second anniversary exercises of this pioneer industrial school, whose present Principal is Dr. James E. Gregg, declared that "with clearer vision and greater hope, men of the South have come to take a very different view of the race problem." Mr. Taft added:

'What a relief it is, how soothing, how helpful to visit Tuskegee and Hampton and to meet there those who are drawn together to create opportunity for a race that has had a hard time and that is manifesting a determination and courageous purpose to overcome the obstacles that have confronted the Race!

"No one can give even casual attention to the changes that have come over the South in the last ten years, without realizing that we have today a new South—new in its material progress, new in the spirit of progress of those who are responsible for its growth and development, and therefore new in its attitude toward many of the probiems that have confronted them in the past. Men are changing their attitude in a radical way toward the questions in respect to which their attitude in the past seemed rigid and immovable.

"General Armstrong, Booker T. Washington, and Hollis Frissell taught the Negro race that the only method by which they could get on was inthedignity of labor, of industry, of thrift, of self-sacrifice. They taught that the way to overcome prejudice was for the Race to appeal to the enlightened selfishness of those with whom they were to live in the South and prove to the people of the South that it was to their interest to accord to the Colored people rights civic, rights political, rights business and equality of opportunity.

SCOTT FERRIS ANNOUNCES WHAT HE STANDS FOR

I am anxious that you know my position on the following subjects:

"Militarism and Compulsory Training in Times of Peace:" I am against it.

"Soldier Legislation for 4,800,000 Ex-Service Men:" I am for it.

"Excess Profits Tax and Burdensome War Taxes:" I am in favor of the repeal of the former and extensions of the latter—which would do more toward reducing the high cost of living than any one thing.

"A Small Army in Peace Times." I am in favor of a small army. Large armies in peace times are burdensome, expensive and unnecessary.

"Women Suffrage:" Both branches of Congress, the Oklahoma Legislature—both State Conventions and the soverign voters of Oklahoma have declared that women may vote. I am in favor of this and have supported it every time it has ever come up.

"Peace Treaty:" Four salient things in the Peace Treaty should be preserved. First; the immediate closing of the war with proper safeguards as to indemnities and American rights; second, arbitration; third, reduction of armament; fourth, abolition of secret treaties. True Americans will not differ on these four salient propositions.

"Economy:" I am in favor of economy in governmental expenditures, consistent with good service, good salaries and good administration.

"Agricultural Legislation:" Open and honest markets, additional warehouse and storage facilities—reduced rates of interest. I am in favor of all these and everything that will encourage production and make farm life more attractive and remunerative.

"Home Ownership:" Tenantry must be reduced—home ownership encouraged. This can best be brought about by liberalization of the farm loan act and the creation of funds, both state and federal, which may be had at low rates of interest and long tenure of repayment with which to procure homes for the homeless.

BELIEVES WOMEN STRONG FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Perhaps Mississippian From Pisgah Who Preferred Hell to Women's Suffrage Suspected This.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

BOSTON, Mass., May 7.—Senator Owen of Oklahoma introduced at a luncheon of democratic leaders last Tuesday as a leader of the democratic nomination for president, said there was more hope in the national political situation than many democrats seemed to think. A special source of strength, he thought, lay in the new body of women voters because they would vote for human rights for which the democratic party has always stood.

"REMEMBER THE SABBATH"

By RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHAR J. HILL.

"The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath Day." Matt. 12: 1-13.

By RICHARD J. HILL.

"Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it Holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt not do any work. Thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle nor thy stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made Heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day. Wherefore, the Lord blessed the Sabbath Day and Hallowed it."

This Command merely enjoins idleness on the Seventh Day of each week. It does not say to cease from ordinary work and engage in Religious work, as many of its advocates seem to suppose. But on the contrary, it prohibits all kinds of work. Many who think themselves bound by this command neither rest on the seventh day nor on the first day of the week, which without orders, they make an effort to keep instead of the seventh day which the law appointed for those under it. On the contrary, to very many the first day is as busy a day as any. The ruling under the law was that any one who even picked up sticks or kindled a fire was a violator of thic Command, and must be put to death. (Numbers 15: 32-36). How many of those who claim to keep this commandment do far more work in the way of cooking and etc. They, their sons, and daughters, their menservants and maidservants? (See Exod. 35: 3). If that Law i nosw in force, and has been extended beyond the Isrealites (On whom alone it was put), so as to include Christians (Followers of Christ) then every Christian violates it repeatedly, and is deserving of death for each offense; for they that violated Moses' Law died without mercy.—Hebr. 10: 20.

But though our views on this subject differ widely from those of most Christian people, we are very glad that one day of each week is set apart for rest from business, without regard to which of the seventh days is thus observed, or by what law or law giver it was originally appointed. We greatly enjoy the day, and think it not only a blessing for those who use it for worship and study, but also for those who use it merely as a day of rest and recreation from toil, to enjoy the beauties of nature, or to visit with their friends and families as they can not do on other days. And we are especially pleased that the day set a part by the Government under which we live is the first day of the week, because of the same blessed memories and associations which gave that day a special sacredness to the Church in the days of the Apostles.

The Apostles declared that the Jewish Law (Which included the Command relative to the Seventh Day) was superceeded by the new and more comprehensive law of the New Creation thereafter in operation toward all who accept Christ. The Apostles used the Seventh Day as a time for preaching Christ, just as they used every day in the week, and especially because on that day, the Jews, their most hopeful hearers met for worship and study. But the Apostles no where recognized the Seventh Day Sabbath as a day of rest, as the Jewish Law Covenant had enforced it. Contrary, they taught (Romans 14: 5-8). That any and all days are acceptable for good works done in the service of God and for the benefit of fellowmen. (Math. 12: 10-12).

The ransom was given for all mankind, but its benefits are applicable only to those who believe. Thus far the believers are only a few compared with the mass of mankind. These have escaped from all condemnation of all broken laws, while of the remainder, the world in general still continues under the original condemnation, and Jews who have not accepted Christ are still condemned by Moses' Law Covenant. "He that believeth is passed (Reckonedly) from death unto life (John 5: 24). While he that believeth not is condemned already." (John 3: 18). The whole race of mankind was condemned six thousand years ago, and, if a Jew, he was additionally bounden by the Law covenant and has not escaped the condemnation that is on the world. (Roman 5: 18). The only ones who have escaped this condemnation that has so long been upon all mankind, are referred to by the Apostle Paul (Roman 8: 1). There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit.

These are the Free Ones: Free from all laws and all penalties—free indeed. "If the Son shall make you free ye shall be free indeed. (John 8: 36). This could not possibly apply to any one who put themselves under any restraint in keeping the law. But one says can it be that God has released these entirely from both the Law given at Exodus and the Law given at Sinai? Just so, such ones being justified by the death of Christ, and released from their former condemnation, and having received his spirit, which means the love I or God and all his creatures, are free from all laws so long as the will of Christ is their will and they do his will to the extent of their ability. Under such conditions we repeat, one is only under the law of love. What is the difference between the law of love and the law of thou shalt and thou shalt not? We might illustrate the operation of the law of love by the action of a mother or father who really love their child. It is absolute unnecessary to lay down rules for the father or mother as to what they should do for the absolute necessities of the child they love. All they need is to know what is best to do and they gladly do it, even at the cost of their life; but one not being moved by the spirit of love it is necessary to lay down rules of thou shalt and thou shalt not. Servant would of necessity be in the class governed by thou shalt and thou shalt not. (The Jewish people was a house of servants under Moses). A Son is supposed to act in his father's business from the standpoint of the highest interest and love for the father and his household, therefore you can readily understand that a son would do all that a servant would do and much more. When Christ came he established the house of Sons and all who come into Christ, through consecreation of their all to him, are members of the house of Sons and are not under the Servant law. "Thou shalt and thou shalt not," but are under the law of love for God and all his creatures. Through him, Christ, our best endeavors to do his will are acceptable, and we are reckoned as having passed from under condemnation to death in to justification to life so long as we abide under the blood which secured the new covenant. In no other way could any be accepted by God. For the law given in Eden was one that required absolutely perfect obedience, and the law covenant given at Sinai demanded the same. And now since we know that God could not give an imperfect law (James 3: 11), and since we know that no imperfect person could fully obey a perfect law, we see the necessity for us being free from under the law and accepted in the merit of our beloved Christ. Hence we conclude that those in Christ, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, are in no sense under the law given at Sinai, Graven upon stones, termed "The Ten Commandments," —neither to the Ceremonial attachments relating to typical feasts, sacrifices and services. (Heb. 9: 1).

No wonder, then, that the Apostle so earnestly sought to guard the new Gentile converted from becoming Jews and seeking life under the law covenant; by which neither he nor his nation had been able to profit. No wonder he exhorted them to stand fast in the liberty of Christ and his Gracious arrangements under the Covenant of Grace. It was in view of this danger of their losing faith in Christ's finished work and trusting for salvation to their own efforts to keep the Law Covenant by works that Paul even prohibited the Circumcision of Gentile converts, although he approved of it for Hebrews to whom it was given as a symbol and rite, long before the Law Covenent was made. Hence the remark that, "The Gospel to the Circumcision," was specially supervised by Peter, while the Gospel to the uncircumcised, the Gentiles, was specially Paul's mission. (Gal. 2: 7-8-14-16). It will be quite a help in the study of the Scriptures to observe that the Apostles often refer themselves as having been under the Law Covenant and subsequently freed from its bondage. And to Gentile converts as not having passed through such an experience.—See Gal. 2: 17; 3: 3; 13: 14; 5: 5-6-8-10; Eph. 2: 11-19.

Kindly understand me. There are some points concerning God's plan of Salvation upon which my Adventist friedns and I fully agree, but their doctrine of the keeping of the Seventh Day as essential to salvation, that the days of creation were periods of twenty-four hours, that Christ will appear, materially and literally, and that the whole world of mankind has been and now is on trial for life or death everlasting during this Gospel age, and that death settles the question as to whether one is lost or saved, are among some of the dead flies of error which make the Adventist's "Gospel pudding" nauseating to the logical minded and truth hungry person. I admire the zeal with which the Advents do what they believe to be right in many respects, but I do not admire their closing their eyes to the plain and logical truth stated by the Apostle and the Lord Jesus Christ concerning many points of vital interest for the salvation of Man. I note them to be like many other well meaning persons who are able to quote much scripture but gifted on misinterpretation not intentionally, of course, but ignorantly. But I am very thankful that the God I serve will reward them for all the good they do with good intention; but may it be understood that the highest rewards and blessings in the Kingdom of God will go to those who understand the plans of God and do and teach accordingly. (Math. 5: 19). Adventisism is not the only "ism" contaminated with error. Nearly all of the "isms" have within their "Gospel Pie," the dead flies of immortality of the soul, Hell Fire, Eternal Torment, and the doctrine of the Trinity.

The Christian has come into relationship with God not under the terms of the Law Covenant made with the Jews, but under the terms of the new Covenent sealed and ratified with the precious blood of Christ. The Christians therefore have nothing whatever to do with the terms and conditions of the Jewish Covenant which bore only upon Israel after the flesh. The fact that by the deeds of the Law Covenant no flesh was justified in God's sight (Romans 3: 20), leads us to rejoice that we have a better covenant with God through Christ. Our covenant is very much higher than the Law Covenant, just as its mediator, Christ, is much higher than was the mediator of the Law Covenant, Moses. So also is Spiritual Israel (All who come into Christ by consecreation), is much higher in every way than was fleshly Israel. The foundation of our covenant is not the Ten Commandments written in stone, delivered at Sinai, but a much higher statement of the Divine Law—The Spirit of that law, the meaning, the intent, the grand completeness of the Divine Law, of which the Ten Commandments was but an incomplete statement brought down to the measurable comprehension of that people. Our new Commandment, as expressed by our Master, Jesus, is not composed of a number of threats, thou shalt not! thou shalt not! But is composed of one Commandment, thou shalt love —the Lord thy God and thy fellow creatures. Love is the fulfilling of the Jewish Law but a fulfilling also of the entire Law of God, as it relates to himself and all his creatures. In this new Commandment, there is no reference whatever to a Sabbath Day. Nevertheless, as the Ten Commandments to Israel and their Covenent and their Mediator, fore-shadowed this higher law of Love and our New Covenent and our Great Mediator, so also we find that the Sabbath feature of the Jewish Law has an anti-type on a higher plane in the Christian experience —a better Sabbath. In the type it was a physical rest to the natural, typical Isrealite. In the antitype it is a mental rest, a heart rest to the antitypical Isrealite. As the Jewish Sabbath Day typified the rest of heart, the joy and peace which Christians possess through faith in Christ, in realizing their sins forgiven, ther iniquities pardoned and themselves reconciled to God thru the death of his son, so also the law of the New Covenent, Love, commands all who are in Christ to rest in full faith in the great work finished for us, by our Mediator at Calvary. As the Apostle declares: "Being justified by faith we have peace (rest) with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Thus we enjoy the rest or Sabbath of our New Covenent. Thus the New Mediator has provided for his Spiritual Isreal a very much better rest than that which was provided by the Typical Mediator for the Typical Isreal. As seven is a type of perfection, of completeness, so the Seventh Day of rest was a type of the complete or perfect rest which we have in Christ, which Isreal after the flesh never did and never could enjoy. The Sabbath or rest under the New Covenent is not merely for a day. Alas! How weary we would be if we could only rest in Christ one day in seven! But we may rest continually in Christ, every day and every hour—trusting not to our own sufficiency, but to his. Thus we rest from works of self-righteousness, from all efforts to justify our self before God. Accepting the justification freely offered to us through the precious blood, and resting in it continually we have peace with God, rest of heart. We have committed all of our affairs into his hands, and are resting in him—keeping a continual Sabbath all the days of the week and all the weeks of the year.

As respects physical rest, however, we are under no command re-

COLORED CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR NOMINATED

Blount Has no Show, But Proposes to Make Campaign Hot.

(A. N. P. Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 14.—J. H. Blount of this city, has been nominated by the Colored republicans of the State for Governor. The nomination came to him after the Colored voters had bolted the "regular" convention where only white men were seated as delegates. Blount declares he will make an active campaign and thus show to the country at large, that the Colored republicans are the only bona fide members of the organization in the State of Arkansas. He is the first Colored man in the history of the state to run for governor. His chances for election are not flattering.

School Needs Help.

(A. N. P. Service).

ORANGE, N. J., May 14.—Rev. C. T. Walkley, rector of the Grace Episcopal Church has issued an appeal in behalf of St. Paul's Normal and Industrial School. For thirty-eight years, Rev. J. S. Russell, founder and head of the school, and archdeacon for Colored work in the diocese, has supervised its instruction and work and served the community. The school trains its students of both sexes along moral and religious lins and in the principles of citizenship.

Dr. E. D. Morrison of Taft was also a caller at the Star office.

"REMBER THE SABBATH"

specting this so far as the Lord and his word are concerned, except that our law of Love requires that we shall Glorify God in our bodies and our Spirits which are his, and hence that we shall observe such rules and regulations in our physical system in relation to our food and clothing and rest as would best qualify us and enable us to perform the Divine service. While we would be glad that all might recognize this matter from this standpoint of the New Covenent, yet we know that none can view it and observe it from this standpoint except those who have entered into the New Covenent relationship with God, and those we know are comparatively few of the world's population, although our hope is that in God's due time, the Millennial Age, all mankind shall be brought to the knowledge and appreciation of this New Covenent, and may then, if they will, enjoy all of its provisions including this rest of faith, the antitypical Sabbath, which can be enjoyed only by God's faithful people.

Meantime, however, the world of mankind, amongst whom we live, have through various misconceptions, both of the Law Covenent and the New Covenent, set apart one day of the week as a Sabbath or rest day, and as Christians who enjoy the real Sabbath of Rest and Peace in Christ, we are glad to avail ourselves of the regulations of the world to abstain from worldly labor and devote ourselves to Spiritual works, spiritual feasting and spiritual up building of character in Righteousness on that day. But while recognizing and observing it carefully, because it is the law of the land, and while pleased to have this special opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual cooperation, we deny in total that it is of Divine obligation. And while we should observe what ever day might be appointed by "the powers that be," we are especially glad that they have by common consent adopted the day, which we prefer to all others, because it commemorates the resurrection of our Lord and Master, and hence it commemorates the beginning of our rest of faith in him.

Mrs. Mamie Page, 1411 South Carson street, will leave Saturday for Oklahoma City for a short visit with friends after which she will proceed to Muskogee to see her mother, Mrs. Mandy Shafer.

COLORED LABOR LIKE ANY OTHER LABOR

President Ferguson Has Greatest Confidence in Colored Race.

(A. N. P. Service).

HAMPTON, Va., May 14.—Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newports News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company, who is also a trustee of Hampton University, declared in a recent speech here, "that Colored labor is remarkably like any other kind of labor if given sympathetic and honest treatment. It save its money in about the same proportion as other people. The difference in habits between the races as to thrift is not nearly so great as you are sometimes told. The great advantage of the Colored men is their desire to own a piece of ground. Those who own ground make for the safety of our institutions and our Republic. Leaders you should be. Leaders you will be. Remember you must lead, because you have acquired and pursued the art of thinking. It is important to lead in the art of working and in the art of doing, in industry, and promptness, and in standing by the job and being steadfast—not being put aside by little difficulties. I have the greatest confidence in the future of the Colored race."

COLORED DELEGATES LOCKED OUT BY "LILLIES"

Shut Out State Convention, Colored Delegates Hold Separate Convention.

(Star News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 10.—The expected lock-out of the Colored delegation by the Republicans in convention here recently occurred. The delegates were denied seats by the credentials committee and were later defeated on the floor of the Convention.

The Colored delegation held a separate convention and not only elected delegates to the national convention, but nominated a Colored man, J. M. Blount, principal of the public school at Helena, to be a candidate for Governor.

The Colored delegates were not instructed on presidential favorites. No candidates were mentioned in the speeches that were made and no effort was made to secure an indorsement for any one.

Mr. Brashears well known oil and oil lease broker of Muskogee has opened offices here in the Myer's building.

PLANE OF JUSTICE IS ABOVE ALL OTHERS

Governor Roberts of Tennessee Advocates Race Leaders for the Colored People.

(A. N. P. Service)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 12.—The Kansas City delegation of Negro Business Men, while guests of President Hale at Tennessee Industrial and Normal College were greeted by Governor Roberts of Tennessee, who spoke in part as follows:

"There is one plane above all others," said Governor Roberts, "on which there rests the solution of all difficulties; it is not new, and it is simple, but it affords the only solution, and that is the plane of justice.

"This justice," he continued with an earnestness and sincerity that could not be questioned by the most skeptical, "applies to all men without regard to race or creed. There is no such thing as one justice for one group and another justice for another. Those looking for right do not look for color.

"The Colored race should have its own leaders, and at all times, in every avenue of life, needs honest, educated, high class, dependable leadership, who will receive the hearty co-operation and good will of the white people. It is only through leadership of this kind that the great opportunities can be worked out, and the goal of success reached in educational, industrial and religious and political life.

"There must be," said Governor Roberts, "equality before the law, and that means absolute equality. The principle of the Golden Rule must apply everywhere. A quickened conscience will demand that these things be written into all laws.

"There will be peace when we have justice. As long as I am governor of Tennessee, I will see people only as they are, and not as they profess to be; I will let nothing deter me from using every force at my command to uphold the constitution, and give to every person, no matter how humble, equal and exact justice."

Mrs. Belle Johnson is rapidly recovering the use of her right arm, injured in the recent accident on Archer street, and her friends and patrons of Bell and Little Cafe are much pleased. Her efficiency at the cafe means more satisfaction in the preparation of foods.

By RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHAR J. HILL

"The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath Day." Matt. 12: 1-13.

By RICHARD J. HILL.

"Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it Holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt not do any work. Thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle nor thy stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made Heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day. Wherefore, the Lord blessed the Sabbath Day and Hallowed it."

This Command merely enjoins idleness on the Seventh Day of each week. It does not say to cease from ordinary work and engage in Religious work, as many of its advocates seem to suppose. But on the contrary, it prohibits all kinds of work. Many who think themselves bound by this command neither rest on the seventh day nor on the first day of the week, which without orders, they make an effort to keep instead of the seventh day which the law appointed for those under it. On the contrary, to very many the first day is as busy a day as any. The ruling under the law was that any one who even picked up sticks or kindled a fire was a violator of thic Command, and must be put to death. (Numbers 15: 32-36). How many of those who claim to keep this commandment do far more work in the way of cooking and etc. They, their sons, and daughters, their menservants and maidservants? (See Exod. 35: 3). If that Law i nosw in force, and has been extended beyond the Isrealites (On whom alone it was put), so as to include Christians (Followers of Christ) then every Christian violates it repeatedly, and is deserving of death for each offense; for they that violated Moses' Law died without mercy.—Hebr. 10: 20.

But though our views on this subject differ widely from those of most Christian people, we are very glad that one day of each week is set apart for rest from business, without regard to which of the seventh days is thus observed, or by what law or law giver it was originally appointed. We greatly enjoy the day, and think it not only a blessing for those who use it for worship and study, but also for those who use it merely as a day of rest and recreation from toil, to enjoy the beauties of nature, or to visit with their friends and families as they can not do on other days. And we are especially pleased that the day set a part by the Government under which we live is the first day of the week, because of the same blessed memories and associations which gave that day a special sacredness to the Church in the days of the Apostles.

The Apostles declared that the Jewish Law (Which included the Command relative to the Seventh Day) was superceeded by the new and more comprehensive law of the New Creation thereafter in operation toward all who accept Christ. The Apostles used the Seventh Day as a time for preaching Christ, just as they used every day in the week, and especially because on that day, the Jews, their most hopeful hearers met for worship and study. But the Apostles no where recognized the Seventh Day Sabbath as a day of rest, as the Jewish Law Covenant had enforced it. Contrary, they taught (Romans 14: 5-8). That any and all days are acceptable for good works done in the service of God and for the benefit of fellowmen. (Matth. 12: 10-12).

The ransom was given for all mankind, but its benefits are applicable only to those who believe. Thus far the believers are only a few compared with the mass of mankind. These have escaped from all condemnation of all broken laws, while of the remainder, the world in general still continues under the original condemnation, and Jews who have not accepted Christ are still condemned by Moses' Law Covenant. "He that believeth is passed (Reckonedly) from death unto life (John 5: 24). While he that believeth not is condemned already." (John 3: 18). The whole race of mankind was condemned six thousand years ago, and, if a Jew, he was additionally bounden by the Law covenant and has not escaped the condemnation that is on the world. (Roman 3: 19). The only ones who have escaped this condemnation that has so long been upon all mankind, are referred to by the Apostle Paul (Roman 8: 1). "There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit."

These are the Free Ones: Free from all laws and all penalties—free indeed. "If the Son shall make you free ye shall be free indeed." (John 8: 36). This could not possibly apply to any one who put themselves under any restraint in keeping the law, but one says can it be that God has released these entirely from both the Law given at Eden and the Law given at Sinai? just so, such ones being justified by the death of Christ, and released from their former condemnation, and having received his spirit, which means the love of God and all his creatures, are free from all laws so long as the will of Christ is their will and they do his will to the extent of their ability. Under such conditions we repeat, one is only under the law of love. What is the difference between the law of love and the law of thou shalt and thou shalt not? We might illustrate the operation of the law of love by the action of a mother or father who really love their child. It is absolute unnecessary to lay down rules for the father or mother as to what they should do for the absolute necessities of the child they love. All they need is to know what is best to do and they gladly do it, even at the cost of their life; but one not being moved by the spirit of love it is necessary to lay down rules of thou shalt and thou shalt not. Servant would of necessity be in the class governed by thou shalt and thou shalt not. (The Jewish people was a house of servants under Moses). A Son is supposed to act in his father's business from the standpoint of the highest interest and love for the father and his household, therefore you can readily understand that a son would do all that a servant would do and much more. When Christ came he established the house of Sons and all who come into Christ, through consecreation of their all to him, are members of the house of Sons and are not under the Servant law. "Thou shalt and thou shalt not," but are under the law of love for God and all his creatures. Through him, Christ, our best endeavors to do his will are acceptable, and we are reckoned as having passed from under condemnation to death in to justification to life so long as we abide under the blood which secured the new covenant. In no other way could any be accepted by God. For the law given in Eden was one that required absolutely perfect obedience, and the law covenant given at Sinai demanded the same. And now since we know that God could not give an imperfect law (James 3: 11), and since we know that no imperfect person could fully obey a perfect law, we see the necessity for us being free from under the law and accepted in the merit of our beloved Christ. Hence we conclude that those in Christ, whether they be Jews or Gentiles, are in no sense under the law given at Sinai, Graven upon stones, termed "The Ten Commandments," —neither to the Ceremonial attachments relating to typical feasts, sacrifices and services. (Heb. 9: 1).

No wonder, then, that the Apostle so earnestly sought to guard the new Gentile converted from becoming Jews and seeking life under the law covenant; by which neither he nor his nation had been able to profit. No wonder he exhorted them to stand fast in the liberty of Christ and his Gracious arrangements under the Covenant of Grace. It was in view of this danger of their losing faith in Christ's finished work and trusting for salvation to their own efforts to keep the Law Covenant by works that Paul even prohibited the Circumcision of Gentile converts, although he approved of it for Hebrews to whom it was given as a symbol and rite, long before the Law Covenent was made. Hence the remark that, "The Gospel to the Circumcision," was specially supervised by Peter, while the Gospel to the uncircumcised, the Gentiles, was specially Paul's mission. (Gal. 2: 7-8-14-16). It will be quite a help in the study of the Scriptures to observe that the Apostles often refer themselves as having been under the Law Covenant and subsequently freed from its bondage. And to Gentile converts as not having passed through such an experience.—See Gal. 2: 17; 3: 3; 13: 14; 5: 5-6-8-10; Eph. 2: 11-19.

Kindly understand me. There are some points concerning God's plan of Salvation upon which my Adventist friedns and I fully agree, but their doctrine of the keeping of the Seventh Day as essential to salvation, that the days of creation were periods of twenty-four hours, that Christ will appear, materially and literally, and that the whole world of mankind has been and now is on trial for life or death everlasting during this Gospel age, and that death settles the question as to whether one is lost or saved, are among some of the dead flies of error which make the Adventist's "Gospel pudding" nauseating to the logical minded and truth hungry person. I admire the zeal with which the Advents do what they believe to be right in many respects, but I do not admire their closing their eyes to the plain and logical truth stated by the Apostle and the Lord Jesus Christ concerning many points of vital interest for the salvation of Man. I note them to be like many other well meaning persons who are able to quote much scripture but gifted on misinterpretation not intentionally, of course, but ignorantly. But I am very thankful that the God I serve will reward them for all the good they do with good intention; but may it be understood that the highest rewards and blessings in the Kingdom of God will go to those who understand the plans of God and do and teach accordingly. (Math. 5: 19). Adventisism is not the only "ism" contaminated with error. Nearly all of the "isms" have within their "Gospel Pie," the dead flies of immortality of the soul, Hell Fire, Eternal Torment, and the doctrine of the Trinity.

The Christian has come into relationship with God not under the terms of the Law Covenant made with the Jews, but under the terms of the new Covenent sealed and ratified with the precious blood of Christ. The Christians therefore have nothing whatever to do with the terms and conditions of the Jewish Covenant which bore only upon Israel after the flesh. The fact that by the deeds of the Law Covenant no flesh was justified in God's sight (Romans 3: 20), leads us to rejoice that we have a better covenant with God through Christ. Our covenant is very much higher than the Law Covenant, just as its mediator, Christ, is much higher than was the mediator of the Law Covenant, Moses. So also is Spiritual Israel (All who come into Christ by consecreation), is much higher in every way than was fleshly Israel. The foundation of our covenant is not the Ten Commandments written in stone, delivered at Sinai, but a much higher statement of the Divine Law—The Spirit of that law, the meaning, the intent, the grand completeness of the Divine Law, of which the Ten Commandments was but an incomplete statement brought down to the measurable comprehension of that people. Our new Commandment, as expressed by our Master, Jesus, is not composed of a number of threats, thou shalt not! thou shalt not! But is composed of one Commandment, thou shalt love —the Lord thy God and thy fellow creatures. Love is the fulfilling of the Jewish Law but a fulfilling also of the entire Law of God, as it relates to himself and all his creatures. In this new Commandment, there is no reference whatever to a Sabbath Day. Nevertheless, as the Ten Commandments to Israel and their Covenent and their Mediator, fore-shadowed this higher law of Love and our New Covenent and our Great Mediator, so also we find that the Sabbath feature of the Jewish Law has an anti-type on a higher plane in the Christian experience —a better Sabbath. In the type it was a physical rest to the natural, typical Isrealite. In the antitype it is a mental rest, a heart rest to the antitypical Isrealite. As the Jewish Sabbath Day typified the rest of heart, the joy and peace which Christians possess through faith in Christ, in realizing their sins forgiven, ther iniquities pardoned and themselves reconciled to God thru the death of his son, so also the law of the New Covenent, Love, commands all who are in Christ to rest in full faith in the great work finished for us, by our Mediator at Calvary. As the Apostle declares: "Being justified by faith we have peace (rest) with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Thus we enjoy the rest or Sabbath of our New Covenent. Thus the New Mediator has provided for his Spiritual Isreal a very much better rest than that which was provided by the Typical Mediator for the Typical Isreal. As seven is a type of perfection, of completeness, so the Seventh Day of rest was a type of the complete or perfect rest which we have in Christ, which Isreal after the flesh never did and never could enjoy. The Sabbath or rest under the New Covenent is not merely for a day. Alas! How weary we would be if we could only rest in Christ one day in seven! But we may rest continually in Christ, every day and every hour—trusting not to our own sufficiency, but to his. Thus we rest from works of self-righteousness, from all efforts to justify our self before God. Accepting the justification freely offered to us through the precious blood, and resting in it continually we have peace with God, rest of heart. We have committed all of our affairs into his hands, and are resting in him—keeping a continual Sabbath all the days of the week and all the weeks of the year.

As respects physical rest, however, we are under no command re-

COLORED CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR NOMINATED

Blount Has no Show, But Proposes to Make Campaign Hot.

(A. N. P. Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 14.—J. H. Blount of this city, has been nominated by the Colored republicans of the State for Governor. The nomination came to him after the Colored voters had bolted the "regular" convention where only white men were seated as delegates. Blount declares he will make an active campaign and thus show to the country at large, that the Colored republicans are the only bona fide members of the organization in the State of Arkansas. He is the first Colored man in the history of the state to run for governor. His chances for election are not flattering.

School Needs Help.

(A. N. P. Service).

ORANGE, N. J., May 14.—Rev. C. T. Walkley, rector of the Grace Episcopal Church has issued an appeal in behalf of St. Paul's Normal and Industrial School. For thirty-eight years, Rev. J. S. Russell, founder and head of the school, and archdeacon for Colored work in the diocese, has supervised its instruction and work and served the community. The school trains its students of both sexes along moral and religious lins and in the principles of citizenship.

Dr. E. D. Morrison of Taft was also a caller at the Star office.

"REMBER THE SABBATH"

specting this so far as the Lord and his word are concerned, except that our law of Love requires that we shall Glorify God in our bodies and our Spirits which are his, and hence that we shall observe such rules and regulations in our physical system in relation to our food and clothing and rest as would best qualify us and enable us to perform the Divine service. While we would be glad that all might recognize this matter from this standpoint of the New Covenent, yet we know that none can view it and observe it from this standpoint except those who have entered into the New Covenent relationship with God, and those we know are comparatively few of the world's population, although our hope is that in God's due time, the Millennial Age, all mankind shall be brought to the knowledge and appreciation of this New Covenent, and may then, if they will, enjoy all of its provisions including this rest of faith, the antitypical Sabbath, which can be enjoyed only by God's faithful people.

Meantime, however, the world of mankind, amongst whom we live, have through various misconceptions, both of the Law Covenent and the New Covenent, set apart one day of the week as a Sabbath or rest day, and as Christians who enjoy the real Sabbath of Rest and Peace in Christ, we are glad to avail ourselves of the regulations of the world to abstain from worldly labor and devote ourselves to Spiritual works, spiritual feasting and spiritual up building of character in Righteousness on that day. But while recognizing and observing it carefully, because it is the law of the land, and while pleased to have this special opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual cooperation, we deny in total that it is of Divine obligation. And while we should observe what ever day might be appointed by "the powers that be," we are especially glad that they have by common consent adopted the day, which we prefer to all others, because it commemorates the resurrection of our Lord and Master, and hence it commemorates the beginning of our rest of faith in him.

Mrs. Mamie Page, 1411 South Carson street, will leave Saturday for Oklahoma City for a short visit with friends after which she will proceed to Muskogee to see her mother, Mrs. Mandy Shafer.

COLORED LABOR LIKE ANY OTHER LABOR

President Ferguson Has Greatest Confidence in Colored Race.

(A. N. P. Service).

HAMPTON, Va., May 14.—Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newports News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company, who is also a trustee of Hampton University, declared in a recent speech here, "that Colored labor is remarkably like any other kind of labor if given sympathetic and honest treatment. It save its money in about the same proportion as other people. The difference in habits between the races as to thrift is not nearly so great as you are sometimes told. The great advantage of the Colored men is their desire to own a piece of ground. Those who own ground make for the safety of our institutions and our Republic. Leaders you should be. Leaders you will be. Remember you must lead, because you have acquired and pursued the art of thinking. It is important to lead in the art of working and in the art of doing, in industry, and promptness, and in standing by the job and being steadfast—not being put aside by little difficulties. I have the greatest confidence in the future of the Colored race."

COLORED DELEGATES LOCKED OUT BY "LILLIES"

Shut Out State Convention, Colored Delegates Hold Separate Convention.

(Star News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 10.—The expected lock-out of the Colored delegation by the Republicans in convention here recently occurred. The delegates were denied seats by the credentials committee and were later defeated on the floor of the Convention.

The Colored delegation held a separate convention and not only elected delegates to the national convention, but nominated a Colored man, J. M. Blount, principal of the public school at Helena, to be a candidate for Governor.

The Colored delegates were not instructed on presidential favorites. No candidates were mentioned in the speeches that were made and no effort was made to secure an indorsement for any one.

Mr. Brashears well known oil and oil lease broker of Muskogee has opened offices here in the Myer's building.

PLANE OF JUSTICE IS ABOVE ALL OTHERS

Governor Roberts of Tennessee Advocates Race Leaders for the Colored People.

(A. N. P. Service)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 12.—The Kansas City delegation of Negro Business Men, while guests of President Hale at Tennessee Industrial and Normal College were greeted by Governor Roberts of Tennessee, who spoke in part as follows:

"There is one plane above all others," said Governor Roberts, "on which there rests the solution of all difficulties; it is not new, and it is simple, but it affords the only solution, and that is the plane of justice.

"This justice," he continued with an earnestness and sincerity that could not be questioned by the most skeptical, "applies to all men without regard to race or creed. There is no such thing as one justice for one group and another justice for another. Those looking for right do not look for color.

"The Colored race should have its own leaders, and at all times, in every avenue of life, needs honest, educated, high class, dependable leadership, who will receive the hearty co-operation and good will of the white people. It is only through leadership of this kind that the great opportunities can be worked out, and the goal of success reached in educational, industrial and religious and political life.

"There must be," said Governor Roberts, "equality before the law, and that means absolute equality. The principle of the Golden Rule must apply everywhere. A quickened conscience will demand that these things be written into all laws.

"There will be peace when we have justice. As long as I am governor of Tennessee, I will see people only as they are, and not as they profess to be; I will let nothing deter me from using every force at my command to uphold the constitution, and give to every person, no matter how humble, equal and exact justice."

Mrs. Belle Johnson is rapidly recovering the use of her right arm injured in the recent accident on Archer street, and her friends and patrons of Bell and Little Cafe are much pleased. Her efficiency at the cafe means more satisfaction in the preparation of foods.

Examiue Your Preachers And Get Rid of Fire And Brimstone Pedlers

By RICHARD J. HILL

RICHAR J. HILL

The doctrine of eternal torment is blasphemy on God's character, is contrary to the scripture and has done more to blind theminds of people concerning God's plan of Salvation than all other errors combined. Every intelligent minister knows, or should know, that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for wilful sinners is death everlasting, the second death —a death from which there will be no ressurrection. They also know that Hell and the grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of nonexistence. They further know that the lake of fire and brimstone mentioned in the scripture is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are, or should be, fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs and principal cities, while they really existed, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers including our Lord Jesus many times, used the the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal cesspool or garbage burner (designated in the Bible as the valley of Hinnon, the lake burning with fire and brimstone) to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of Righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established in the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in it that will hurt or offend. According the rules governing the literal city, (made of stone, cement, brick nad morter) all filth was to be cast into the literal cesspool or lake burning with brimstone to be consumed. So will it be in the Antitypical city, the New Jerusalem which is not made of literal stone, cement, brick and morter, but of justice, power, love and wisdom. The Antitypical cess pool or lake of fire which is to consume the filth of this Antitypical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone but is the second death. In other words, the cess pool or garbage burner to the New Jerrusalem is the second death. Rev. 19:20; 20:14-15; 21:8.

You humble hearted Christians who desire to know and do the will of God, I beg to remind you that any preacher who is either preaching or endorsing by silence the Hell Fire doctrine is an enemy to the true Gospel and is woefully misrepresenting the Scripture. In defense of those who desire to know the truth and in defense of the good name of Jehovah, and not in the sense of a "know all," I challenge any minister in Tulsa or Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, or anywhere, who is so unfortunate as to believe that the Bible teachers an eternity of tortures for sinners, to defend his position before my face and the public. I say furiher that any minister who ignores this challenge on this most important subject and continues by word or silent endorsement to teach this Hell Fire doctrine, is a wolf in sheep's clothing and has not the interest of the sheep at heart but only desires to fleece them (get the money) and make a big show to the world.

No one has a right to pose as a minister of the Gospel and attempt to teach the people who has not a good general knowledge of God's plan of Salvation. Long before God said, "Let there be light," and before man was created, He had a well fixed plan of procedure concerning the salvation of the human race. Just as in the case of an intelligent business man,before beginning the construction of any great building, he makes out a blue print plan of procedure. All will agree that if any one would work on such building pleasing to the owner his work would have to be strictly in harmony with the plans and specifications and that all work not in harmony with those plans would be condemned as against the interest of the owner.

God knew man would sin before He made him and could have created him without the ability to sin, but God had no idea of making man a mere intelligent machine. God then, and long before, had countless numbers of agents that could not do other than His will but He desired that man should love and obey Him from an intelligent appreciation of the fact that to do so brings the greatest degree of happiness and to do otherwise brings pain and death. Hence we see the wisdom and necessity of creating him with a will of his own and permitting him to learn valuable lessons through the exercise of that will. God knowing in advance that man would sin, his love and wisdom, arranged in advance, that he (man) be rescued down the stream of time after having a long trip of more than 6,000 years upon the angry billows of war, bloodshed, sickness, sorrow, pain and death. In due time God sent His only son to arrange, through His sacrificial death, for a new trial for life for Adam and his race.

[illegible] was trying to convert the world during this Gospel Age. They have people to join the church, to keep their dues paid up and go straight to Heaven at death or do otherwise and go to Hell and burn forever. They have been, and are yet, impressing the poor people that the building of expensive churches and paying fat salaries to the parsons are very necessary in order to keep their names on the Lamb's Book of Life. Every unbiased person can now see that God did not plan the conversion of the world during this Gospel Age for the reason that there are more sins and sinners in the world today than there was when the Gospel Age began. You will agree with me when I say that all work done in the name of the Lord which is not strictly in accord with the plans and specifications of the great Architect of the Universe will be condemned and dashed to pieces in the day of inspection of judgement.

I hear some one say, "There are so many teachings and doctrines that I do not know which is right." I beg to say here that I can sympathize with you. We were all in the same condition but by the grace of God some of us now have our eyes opened and are very anxious that you get yours opened.

Listen, friends. Let me give you a rule by which you may determine at any and all times what is the true Gospel of the Kingdom of our Christ. All doctrines, teachings or interpretations of the Scriptures which do not hold out hope for the world of mankind through the resurrection of the dead and which do not square with the four attributes of God—justice, power, love and wisdom—are not sound doctrines.

In other words, all teachings which directly or in its logical interpretation shows Jehovah God to be less just, less powerful, less loving and less wise than the very ing and less wise than the very best of the human race ,should be struck down as spurious and false. God is the example of our very highest conception of justice, power, love and wisdom. God desires us to look to Him as our example and that He is more just and loving to us than we are capable of being to ourselves. By the application of this simple rule which the Lord wants us to use the doctrine of Hell fire and eternal torment falls to the ground. Search the jungles of the whole earth and you fail to find even a savage so void of love and justice as to consent to the punishment of his child in a Hell of fire and brimstone throughout all eternity. No human being has the ability to do such. The very tho't itself can only find lodgement in the mind of the very Devil himself and those who are working in his interest whether they are doing so intelligently or ignorantly.

While Divine justice, power, love and wisdomconsented to the permission of evil which has bligated humanity for more than six thousand years, this consent was granted for wise purposes. God foreknew that man would be better able to enjoy the blessings He had in store for him after having had such experience with sin. Divine justice and love take cognizance of the fact that the great masses of th human race were born and reared under conditions over which they have no control and that they are not responsible for the revenges upon them by the adversary. It, Divine justice, also recognizes the fact that man in his fallen condition is no match against the Devil and his host of demons. Therefore Divine justice demands that before the greatest penalty, the second death, is inflicted upon man the Adversary and all his agents must be chained and finally destroyed and that all the menial, physical, moral and intellectual weaknesses of the human race be removed that all may have an unhampered opportunity to gain Life Everlasting.

All teachings that do not hold out hope for the world of mankind through the resurrection of the dead and restitution of all that was lost in Eden is not the true Gospel and is contrary to theteaching of the Scripture. The preachers are to blame for all this confusion of doctrines and it is up to them to straighten out this mess they have gotten the people into; and if they do not get busy right quick and acknowledge their error the people will soon straighten them out and send them to the mines, brick yards, factories and farms where they belong. The sunlight of the true Gospel is shining too bright for selfish preachers to fool themselves in thinking they can much longer fool the people with their musty doctrines o fthe dark ages—Eternal Torment, Hell fire etc. The ministers know that they do not believe in this blasphemous doctrine. They know the Bible does not teach it and they know that their people are in ignorance of the truth. Now as to why they knowingly persist in teaching or endorsing, by silence, that which they know to be wrong I will leave

By RICHARD J. HILL

RICHAR J. HILL

The doctrine of eternal torment is blasphemy on God's character, is contrary to the scripture and has done more to blind theminds of people concerning God's plan of Salvation than all other errors combined. Every intelligent minister knows, or should know, that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for wilful sinners is death everlasting, the second death—a death from which there will be no ressurrection. They also know that Hell and the grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of nonexistence. They further know that the lake of fire and brimstone mentioned in the scripture is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are, or should be, fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs and principal cities, while they really existed, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers including our Lord Jesus many times, used the the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal cesspool or garbage burner (designated in the Bible as the valley of Hinnon, the lake burning with fire and brimstone) to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of Righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established in the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in it that will hurt or offend. According the rules governing the literal city, (made of stone, cement, brick nad morter) all filth was to be cast into the literal cesspool or lake burning with brimstone to be consumed. So will it be in the Antitypical city, the New Jerusalem which is not made of literal stone, cement, brick and morter, but of justice, power, love and wisdom. The Antitypical cess pool or lake of fire which is to consume the filth of this Antitypical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone but is the second death. In other words, the cess pool or garbage burner to the New Jerusalem is the second death. Rev. 19:20; 20:14-15; 21:8.

You humble hearted Christians who desire to know and do the will of God, I beg to remind you that any preacher who is either preaching or endorsing by silence the Hell Fire doctrine is an enemy to the true Gospel and is woefully misrepresenting the Scripture. In defense of those who desire to know the truth and in defense of the good name of Jehovah, and not in the sense of a "know all," I challenge any minister in Tulsa or Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, or anywhere, who is so unfortunate as to believe that the Bible teaches an eternity of tortures for sinners, to defend his position before my face and the public. I say further that any minister who ignores this challenge on this most important subject and continues by word or silent endorsement to teach this Hell Fire doctrine, is a wolf in sheep's clothing and has not the interest of the sheep at heart but only desires to fleece them (get the money) and make a big show to the world.

No one has a right to pose as a minister of the Gospel and attempt to teach the people who has not a good general knowledge of God's plan of Salvation. Long before God said, "Let there be light," and before man was created, He had a well fixed plan of procedure concerning the salvation of the human race. Just as in the case of an intelligent business man,before beginning the construction of any great building, he makes out a blue print plan of procedure. All will agree that if any one would work on such building pleasing to the owner his work would have to be strictly in harmony with the plans and specifications and that all work not in harmony with those plans would be condemned as against the interest of the owner.

God knew man would sin before He made him and could have created him without the ability to sin, but God had no idea of making man a mere intelligent machine. God then, and long before, had countless numbers of agents that could not do other than His will but He desired that man should love and obey Him from an intelligent appreciation of the fact that to do so brings the greatest degree of happiness and to do otherwise brings pain and death. Hence we see the wisdom and necessity of creating him with a will of his own and permitting him to learn valuable lessons through the exercise of that will. God knowing in advance that man would sin, his love and wisdom, arranged in advance, that he (man) be rescued down the stream of time after having a long trip of more than 6,000 years upon the angry billows of war, bloodshed, sickness, sorrow, pain and death. In due time God sent His only son to arrange, through His sacrificial death, for a new trial for life for Adam and his race.

[illegible] upon the cross [illegible] it became that a ransom for the man had been secured [illegible] arise unto this new trial was secured a day was set in which mankind and his posterity would be brought before the Judgement Seat of God and given a most favorable trial for life. All those in that day who, having had such experience with sin and death, and after seeing the love of God and his power manifested in the resurrection of the dead, will not hear the prescribed King will die the second death from which there will be no resurrection. The most blessed thing about this Judgement Day is that the one who loved us well enough to give his life for us will be the Judge. Let no one think for a moment that this Judgement Day is a twenty-four hour day; it is not. It is a thousand-year day. The period between the time when Jesus secured a new trial for man and time for that new trial to begin is called the Gospel Age. During the Gospel Age God has been selecting a little flock from every nation, kindred and tongue, to be with the Lord Jesus as close to Him as a bride and assist Him in judging the world in righteousness. During this Gospel Age the Lord has not been dealing with any one except those who have developed the Abrahamic faith and made a covenant with the Lord to walk in His footsteps of sacrifice and suffering. During the Patriarchel Age God dealt only with the Patriarchs, Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. During the Jewish Age God dealt only with the Jews, and during the Gospel Age the Lord has only been dealing with the consecrated Believers—the prospective bride of the Christ. Very soon the marriage of the land will take place, the the Great Judgement or human restitution will begin. That will be the time when all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and come forth. All will then have a chance to gain Life Everlasting on the human plain. Some one may say, "I don't see anything so great in everlasting life." But frineds, stop and think for a moment: Man will be perfect physically, mentally and morally. There will be no sickness, sorrow, pain or death, or any such things to molest or disturb. The Devil will first be chained and then destroyed. Every individual will be a king. If you would get some faint idea as to what a perfect individual will be, please just call to mind all the physical beauty there is in the whole world, all the knowledge of science, art, music, and what not, and combine all these qualities in one person and as great as all this might seem it would only represent a feeble remnant of the qualities of a perfect man which qualities have been in process of deterioration for more than six thousand years.

Just here we don't want to be misunderstood. The churches' hopes are not Life Everlasting on the human plane but Life Immortal on the Divine plane—the highest spirit plain, the same kind of life on the same plain as Jehovah God. To be raised from the plane of humanity to the plane of Jehovah far above the Angels. Principalities and powers are the great prizes offered to those who are loyal to God even unto death (during this Gospel Age).

Just at a glance we can see that man has not been satisfied to work according to God's plan. God did not plan the conversion of the world during this Gospel Age. He has His time set when He will begin the conversion of the world and that time is after the work of the Gospel Age (the selecting of the little flock) is ended. The fact is that the work of the Gospel Age in selecting the little flock is for the very purpose and is preparatory to the conversion of the world.

Under the blinding influence of Satan most of the preachers have been acting on the theory that God was trying to convert the world during this Gospel Age. They have people to join the church, to keep their dues paid up and go straight to Heaven at death or do otherwise and go to Hell and burn forever. They have been, and are yet, impressing the poor people that the building of expensive churches and paying fat salaries to the parsons are very necessary in order to keep their names on the Lamb's Book of Life. Every unbiased person can now see that God did not plan the conversion of the world during this Gospel Age for the reason that there are more sins and sinners in the world today than there was when the Gospel Age began. You will agree with me when I say that all work done in the name of the Lordwhich is not strictly in accord with the plans and specifications of the great Architect of the Universe will be condemned and dashed to pieces in the day of inspection of judgement.

I hear some one say, "There are so many teachings and doctrines that I do not know which is right." I beg to say here that I can sympathize with you. We were all in the same condition but by the grace of God some of us now have our eyes opened and are very anxious that you get yours opened.

Listen, friends. Let me give you a rule by which you may determine at any and all times what is the true Gospel of the Kingdom of our Christ. All doctrines, teachings or interpretations of the Scriptures which do not hold out hope for the world of mankind through the resurrection of the dead and which do not square with the four attributes of God—justice, power, love and wisdom—are not sound doctrines.

In other words, all teachings which directly or in its logical interpretation shows Jehovah God to be less just, less powerful, less loving and less wise than the very ing and less wise than the very best of the human race, should be struck down as spurious and false. God is the example of our very highest conception of justice, power, love and wisdom. God desires us to look to Him as our example and that He is more just and loving to us than we are capable of being to ourselves. By the application of this simple rule which the Lord wents us to use the doctrine of Hell fire and eternal torment falls to the ground. Search the jungles of the whole earth and you fail to find even a savage so void of love and justice as to consent to the punishment of his child in a Hell of fire and brimstone throughout all eternity. No human being has the ability to do such. The very tho't itself can only find lodgement in the mind of the very Devil himself and those who are working in his interest whether they are doing so intelligently or ignorantly.

While Divine justice, power, love and wisdomconsented to the permission of evil which has bligated humanity for more than six thousand years, this consent was granted for wise purposes. God foreknew that man would be better able to enjoy the blessings He had in store for him after having had such experience with sin. Divine justice and love take cognizance of the fact that the great masses of the human race were born and reared under conditions over which they have no control and that they are not responsible for the revenges upon them by the adversary. It, Divine justice, also recognizes the fact that man in his fallen condition is no match against the Devil and his host of demons. Therefore Divine justice demands that before the greatest penalty, the second death, is inflicted upon man the Adversary and all his agents must be chained and finally destroyed and that all the mental, physical, moral and intellectual weaknesses of the human race be removed that all may have an unhampered opportunity to gain Life Everlasting.

All teachings that do not hold out hope for the world of mankind through the resurrection of the dead and restitution of all that was lost in Eden is not the true Gospel and is contrary to theteaching of the Scripture. The preachers are to blame for all this confusion of doctrines and it is up to them to straighten out this mess they have gotten the people into; and if they do not get busy right quick and acknowledge their error the people will soon straighten them out and send them to the mines, brick yards, factories and farms where they belong. The sunlight of the true Gospel is shining too bright for selfish preachers to fool themselves in thinking they can much longer fool the people with their musty doctrines o fthe dark ages—Eternal Torment, Hell fire etc. The ministers know that they do not believe in this blasphemous doctrine. They know the Bible does not teach it and they know that their people are in ignorance of the truth. Now as to why they knowingly persist in teaching or endorsing, by silence, that which they know to be wrong I will leave

MAN WHO WAS CONVICTED IN ST. LOUIS RIOT CASE WILL APPEAR AT FIRST BAPTIST CHCHURCH TOMORROW.

St. Louisan Will Tell Thrilling Story of Bloody Race Riot At East St. Louis Tw Years Ago.

Our people are not likely soon to forget East St,. Louis, Washington, Chicago—three names which revive and awaken memories of the most harrowing and heartrending circumstances which the Race has been forced to suffer and endure. The long line of bedraggled, half-clad, wounded and humiliated Colored men, women and children that made its way across the Eads bridge from East St. Louis not long since, seeking shelter and protection as described by the daily press at the time scarcely needs re-description here. The singularly blood-thirsty, relentless and merciless persecution of the Colored citizens of East St. Louis by a frenzied and implacable white mob illustrates a phase of the mob-ruling tendencies of Americans, who countenance and participate in such horrors, and yet are smug enough to find fault with the Germans and Turks for their respective mistreatment of the Belgians and Armenians.

The outstanding unfairness and injustice meted out to our people is shown by the usual attempt of the authorities to load the blame for such racial horrors upon the shoulders of those who were cruelly abused and butchered because they were in many cases helpless on account of lack of protection, In the East St. Louis race conflict instance many prosecutions followed, both of white men and of Colored men, as well. It is a pity to have to record that justice was not impartially shown, and more Colored men than white suffered penalty at the hands of the law. It stands to reason that the Negroes of East St,. Louis were driven to the extremity of defending their lives and their homes. Under similar circumstances, white men, especially their leaders would have been classed patriotic, and the names of Kosciusko, Garibaldi, Patrick Henry and the like would have been applied to them,. But in our race's case, the men defending their lives and homes have been branded as instigators of race trouble,. Such is the experience of Dr. Leroy N,. Bundy, of East St. Louis, who is on a lecture tour in Oklahoma and is advertised to speak Sunday evening, May 30. 1920 at 8 P. M. at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Bundy was in East St. Louis during the racial conflicts which have forever blackened the name of that community, and to his great credit and honor, it should be said he was one of the heroic and brave Colored men who not only held their ground but retaliated in kind and in a manner not soon to be forgotten. Dr. Bundy will lecture on "The Coming of the New Negro," and his race devotion and experiences qualify him to present this in a manner eminently instructive and interesting for all Tulsans.

Licked By Horse; Boy Dies.

Thursday, Roy Prichard, little 7 year old Colored boy of the 400 Bryan block, was accidently kicked by a horse, and his skull was so badly fractured, that he died. Roy had been sent to look after the horse, and while leading it, the horse laid down and began rolling. Before Roy could get out of the way he was struck by the flying feet of the horse and given his death wound. Roy was well liked by the many little boys of his age and had reputation of being an obedient child.

Capt. Jackson, one of Tulsa's best known business men and citizens, leaves in a day or so, accompanied by his esteemed wife, to attend National Republican Convention. Other points East will be visited before their return.

Texans Oppose Lilly Whites.

(Star News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 26.—Two republican state conventions were held here today as a result of withdrawal from the regular convention by Negroes following the reading of the report of the state republican executive committee on delegteas to be seated. No disorder marked the break away of the Negroes, accompanied by about 10 whites and complete organization proceeded in both halls, each within earshot of cheers from the other. About 10 Negroes remained with the whites who were left to proceed with the regular convention.

Leaders in both conventions expressed confidence of acceptance of their claims to representation at the national convention.

Lowden Has Spent Near ½ Million.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 26.—The result of the Senatorial Investigation as to the amount of money spent by the various candidates in the presidential primaries has shown that the primary system is so expensive that only millionaires or friends of millionaires can have the political aspiration. While not all the managers of the candidates have yet testified, it has been made public that Gov. Frank O. Lowden has spent $404,984.75; Senator Miles Poindexter, $75,000; Senator Hiram Johnson, $68,000 and Herbert Hoover $66,000. It is said, Gov. Lowden contributed personally $379,000 to his own fund $404,000.00, which thus far leads the list.

CHAMBLISS, CHICAGO POLICEMAN, CONVICTED

Negro and Woman Companion found Guilty of Luring Kansas White Girl to Chicago Resort.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 27.—Dorsey Chambliss and Mrs. Emma Ross, both Colored, were found guilty by a jury tonight in connection with the death of Bertha Wieback, 17, white girl.

They were charged with luring the girl, whose home was at Pawnee Rock, Kan., to a Negro resort, where she died. The punishment provided by the statute is from one to five years in the penitentiary. The case went to the jury late today after an 11 days' trial.

This Bishop Was Just Humar.

(Star News Service)

ST LOUIS, Mo., May 27.—Bishop W. D. Chapelle must certainly stand well with his colleagues inasmuch as he has been reassigned to the South Carolina district over a strong protest presented by Butler W. Nance and other members of the South Carolina delegation. In a sworn statement Bishop Chapelle was charged with being tyrannical unjust and revengeful in his administration in South Carolina. He was also charged with appointing his wife and children to lucrative positions. Nance said the Bishop once referred to the ministers of his conference as "kittens, minnows, pigmies, pusilanimous gnats and mud heads," and to have boasted that he "drinks good rye liquor." These charges were ignored and Chapelle will preside over South Carolina until next quadrennial, if he lives.

Just Like Dear Old Oklahoma.

This sounds quite Oklahomaish, but British officers at Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa, search the luggage of Colored travellers for dutiable goods, but take the word of white passengers that their baggage contains nothing dutiable.

Hear Dr. Bundy tomorrow.

S. S. Yarmouth Back Home.

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 26.—The S. S. Yarmouth of the Black Star Line, the first steamship to be owned, manned and officered by the Colored people, was met on its arrival at this port by a crowd of five thousand Colored men, women and children. The Yarmouth had come from Colon of the Panama Canal here by way of Santiago and Kingston. On its outward and first voyage the Yarmouth carried several million dollars worth of whiskey, gin, etc., which had been forced out of this country by our prohibition laws.

Lilly White Contests in Ten States.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—For first time in history Colored and white women of the District of Columbia voted in the primaries of last Saturday. This fact, however, has nothing to do with the result of the primaries which gave three contesting delegations to the national republican convention. The National Republican Committee prior to the opening of the convention must decide one way or the other, for "Lilly whitism" or "Black and Tanism" in ten contests originating in each of the Southern States and brought about by the desire of Lilly White republicans to dominate affairs to the exclusion of the "Brother in Black."

Honor for Brave Boys in Brown.

(A. N. P. Service)

RICHMOND, Va., May 27.—Col. Otis B. Duncan of the famous "Eighth" of Illinois spoke at the Fifth Street Baptist Church last Friday night. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the famous warrior. The meeting was in the interest of a proposed memorial to Colored soldiers who fought and died in the wars of the United States.

Frank Caldwell, the operator for the Star has returned—bringa second party with him.

Candidates' Fate in Penrose's Hands

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 26.—The fate of quite a number of the presidential candidates for nomination at hands of the republican convention is said to depend upon the health condition of Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania. Jues at this time he is quite ill and it is doubted by many that he will be able to attend the Chicago convention. There are two republican organizations within the party, one headed by ex post master general Hitchcock, and the other by Senator Boies Penrose. The latter is the recognized and long time leader of the regular republican machine. It is expected that should Penrose attend the convention, the regulars propose to roll over Johnson, Hoover and Wood, and nominate either Senator Knox of Pennsylvania or Lowden of Illinois.

SOAP MAN "IDEALISTIC"; WILL GIVE MUCH MORE.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—T the Senate Invesigating Committee, Colonel Proctor testified that besides advancing $500,000 to General Wood's campaign fund, he had made a contribution of $10,000. He objected to naming other contributors, saying that the men charged with handling the campaign finances would give names and exact accounts. Urged by the committee, however, he said that Ambrose Monei, had given $20,000 and that William Wrigley "a fellow like me," and Mr. Byllesby, a New York banker, had been large contributors.

The witness said that his own advance of money to General Woods campaign had been "as idealistic as giving to the Red Cross during the war," and added that he "intended to advance as much more as he felt would be proper."

To Be Repaid.

Asked if he expected the $500,000 to be repaid, Colonel Proctor smilingly said he thought "expect" was putting it a little too strong. He said, however, that "he was pretty sure of getting repaid some of the total by General Wood's friends."

TULSANS TO HEAR DEBATE ON THE BIBLE.

Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, or "Black Billy Sunday" who will come to Tulsa Monday to make final arrangements to meet Mr. Hill of this city in a public debate on the Bible in this cinty in the near future, the exact date to be announced later.

Home On Vacation.

Miss Vernon May Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Gentry is home on her summer vacation from Western Univrsity.

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE MANDATE

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—President Wilson has asked for authority to exercise mandatory powers over Armenia. The democratic members of congress are lining up against the proposition. William J. Bryan has protested against it saying: "It would involve us in the politics of Europe and would compel us to deal with implacable race hatreds. Worst of all, it would compel us to surrender a vital principle of democracy, namely, that all people are capable of self government."

Colored Post of American Legion.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 27.—The "Thomas Freeman Post" No. 82 of the American Legion was organized here last Friday night. The members of the Davis King Post were present in large numbers and assisted in the organization. The Freeman Post is the only post of Colored men in this section of the state.

Pan-African Conference.

At Accra, Gold Coast, West Africa there was recently held a conference which discussed self-determination and rights of small nations. Strong resolutions demanding equal rights, educational opportunities and abolition of unfair land laws were adopted and a fund of $500,000 was raised.

IS THIS WHY THE COLORED PRESS SUPPORTS WOOD?

Colonel William C. Procter, Ivory Soap Maker, Gives Half Million to Wood Fund.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—That Governor Lowden's campaign fund had reached the colossal sum of $400,000 as shown by the Senatorial Investigation into pre-convention campaign expenditures, was apparently astounding enough, but here comes Col. William R. Procter, the millionaire soap maker of Cincinnati, Ohio., who admits he has personally put up $500,000 in the Wood Campaign Fund. This amount is greater than the total of other contributions to this fund which nearly reaches a million dollars.

Why Printing Costs More.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 26.—Announcement has been received here from the International Paper company that the contract price on print paper beginning July 1 will be $5.75 per 100 pounds, an increase of 75 cents over the price set April 1. The contract price of December 31 last was $3.75.

Florida Federation Seats Delegates.

At St. Augustine, Fla., at a meeting of the State Federation of Labor it was voted to seat the two Colored delegates from Jacksonville. The matter was debated for two days. One of the white members declared :"If they are members of the union we have got to seat them."

Colored Hospital at Enid.

(Star News Service)

ENID, Okla, May 26.—The Colored citizens of Enid are raising funds for the purpose of erecting a hospital for their own use.

The Oklahoman recently contained an editorial condemning Congressman Madden of Illinois for opening old wounds between southern and northern men who recently fought shoulder to shoulder in the World's War. But Madden spoke in behalf of Colored men who had fought in the same war shoulder to shoulder with men from both sections.

THE DOCTRINE OF ETERNAL TORMENT AND MONEY COLLECTING IN THE CHURCHES ARE BLASPHEMY ON GOD'S CHARACTER.

By RICHARD J. HILL.

The Doctrine of Eternal Torment was introduced by Papacy to scare the Pagans and make them join her system and support the Priesthood. It flourished at a time when bull-fights and gladiatorial contests were the public amusements most enjoyed. This doctrine flourished when the Crusades were called Holy Wars and when men and women were called hereties and often slaughtered for speaking contrary to the teachings of Papacy. The majority of the Clergy have spent and are yet spending most of their time in trying to scare the people into the Churches, telling them to join and escape Eternal Torment; and when the people get into the churches and put their names on the roll they are made to understand that the Lord wants them to keep up their various church dues, including a fat salary to the parson, building fine church houses, etc. They are further made to understand that if they fail in these duties they will be turned out of the church where the Devil will get them and roast and torment them throughout Eternity. The poor people have been taught and made to believe that the Lord needs their money in order to carry out his plans but dear friends, I want to brand this money collecting in the churches and for the churches in the name of the Lord as Blashpemy to His righteous name. The Lord is rich and does not need our puny dimes and dollars to carry out his great plan. This money collecting business is a man-made institution. I am fully aware that there are Scriptures which are being misintrepeted by many of the preachers in such way as to make it appear that the collecting of money in the churches is authorized by the Bible; some of the Scriptures used are those referring to the Jewish custom of giving one-tenth but which, as a matter of fact, has no application in this Gospel Age except as pointing to the antitypical giving of your all to the Lord. Also the Scriptural statement, "Muzzle not the ox that tread out the corn" which only means that a preacher should have the same opportunity to make a living as anybody else and that while he is giving all his time to advancing God's truth (not lies) he is entitled to the absolute necessities of life—place to sleep and food to eat and no more. Preachers are not to be a burden to the people in any way, shape, form or fashion. Instead of being a burden true servants of God should go and work with their own hands to support themselves and at the same time be able to give to those less fortunate. The Apostle Paul through the Scriptures lays down the rule for himself and others that those who would not work should not eat. 2nd Thes. 3-5-15. Paul worked with his own hands, tent making, that he might not be a burden to the people. The case where Christ had his Diciples to catch a fish and get money out of its mouth to put into the collection is sometime held up to the people as Christ's approval of collections in churches but nothing is further from the truth than using this Scripture in such a way; Christ only intended to teach the Diciples that it was the best policy for them to pay taxes to whatever Government they may live under.

I again remind you that the paying of fat salaries to preachers and the building of expensive church houses is not recognized by the Lord as work done unto him. He wants no such work as that. He wants the contrite heart of the poor people towards him and he wants them relieved of their burdens. The only condition under which the giving of money is acceptable to the Lord is when it is given voluntarily and for the purpose of relieving the sufferings of the widows and orphans and others of a broken heart, and also money given to aid others in geting into the light of God's plan of Salvation. You will agree with me when I remind you that there are many millions of poor people in this land and country who are suffering greatly for the absolute necessities of life and many of these are living in the very shadows of Church houses that cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. God is not pleased with such an arrangement and in the near future he will dash to pieces this order of things and arrange matters so that the humble hearted and oppressed will come into their own.

Reverting to another phase of our subject, I wish to say that the Old Testament Scriptures were written in the Hebrew language and the New Testtament in the Greek. The word Hell is an English word sometimes selected by the translators of the English Bible to express the same sense of the Hebrew word, Sheol and the Greek words Hadees, Tartaroo and Gehenna. These same words are sometimes rendered grave and pit. The word Hell in Old English usage, before the preachers gave it a new and special significance to suit their own selfish purposes, simply to conceal, to cover. The word Hell was therefore properly used synonymously with the words grave and pit to translate the words Sheol and Hades and signifying the secret or hidden condition of Death. The word Hell occurs thirty-one times in the Old Testament and in every istance it is Sheol in the Hebrew. It does not mean a Lake of Fire and Brimstone or any thing resembling that thought; instead of it being described as a place of blazing fire it is described in the context as a state of darkness (Job 10: 21); instead of being a place where shrieks and groans are heard, it is described in the Context as a place of silence, (Psalms 115: 17); instead of it representing in any sense pain and suffering or remorse the Context describes it as one of forgetfulness; (Psalms 88: 11-12); "There is no work nor devise nor knowledge in the grave (Sheol) whiter thou goest (Ecc. 9: 10).

In Matthew 11: 23 is one case where the Greek word Hades is rendered Hell "And thou Capernaum which are exaulted unto Heaven, shall be brought down to Hell." I hope there is no one so silly or foolish as to think that the city of Capernaum with all its inhabitants and buildings are down in Hell roasting in agony. The fact is that Capernaum is in the Bible Hell, is in a condition as if it had never existed, in fact, the site of where this city once stood is now hard to locate. In other words it is in a condition of non-existence and that is the real meaning of the Bible Hell. The whole race of mankind, from creation until the present time, at death, go to this Bible Hell to wait the Resurrection Day which is near even at the door.

In the New Testament two other words are rendered Hell; namely, Tartaroo and Gehenna which we will consider in the order named. Tartaron has reference to the invisible condition of the atmosphere where the Angels that kept not their first estate, before the flood, were cast to wait the judgment day. Gehenna occurs in all, twelve times where it is rendered Hell, (Mat. 5: 22 29-30; 10: 28; 23: 15-33; Mark 9: 43-47; Luke 12: 5; James 3: 6). Gehenna is the Greecian rule of spelling the Hebrew words which are translated, "The Valley of Hinnon." This Valley lay just out side of the city of Jerusalem and served the purpose of sewer and garbage burner to the city.

Every intelligent minister knows or should know that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for willful sinners is Death Everlasting—the second Death, a death from which there will be no resurrection. They, the preachers, also know that Hell and the grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of non-existence. They further know that the Lake of Fire and Brimstone mentioned in the Scriptures is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are, or should be fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs, and principal cities, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers, including Our Lord Jesus, many times used the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal Cess pool, designated in the Bible as the Valley of Hinnon, the Lake berning with Fire and Brimstone, to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established nothing will be allowed to remain in that kingdom which will hurt or offend the people. According to the rules for the government of the literal city of Jerusalem, all filth was to be cast into the literal cess pool, term the Lake burning with Fire and Brimstone, to be consumed. Just so will it be in the antitypical city, the New Jerusalem, which is not made with hand or hammer. The antitypical cess pool or Lake of Fire is to consume the filth of this antitypical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone but is the second Death. In other words, the cess pool or garbage burner for the New Jerusalem is the Second Death. Rev. 19: 20; 20: 14-15; 21: 8.

There are many poor persons of humble minds who desire to do the Lord's will but they are kept in darkness by a number of selfish and ignorant persons who are posing as ministers of God. I am glad to say that quite a number of the preachers over the country are honest enough to acknowledge to their congregation that they have been teaching error. But there is entirely too large a number who know not the ### Negroes Depopulate Georgia.

(A. N. P. Service)

VALDOSTA, Ga., May 27.—The exodus of Negroes from this section of Georgia continues and if kept up, will depopulate the section of its Negro population. The stream is steady and no one can tell when the flow will stop.

Suburban "Jimcrow" Law Sustained

(A. N. P. Service)

BALTIMORE, Md., May 26.—Judge Ambler in the City Court decided last week that the provisions of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railway company for the segregation of white and Colored passengers was legal. The decision was handed down in the case of Lewis H. Davenport, a Colored man, who sued the railway company for $5,000 damages for alleged assault by preventing him from riding in a car that the company had set aside for the use of white passengers. The judge declared that the Supreme Court had recognized the lawfulness of segregation of the races on railways.

Taft and Bryan Agree.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 26.—The United States cannot undertake a mandate for Armenia under the league of nations since this country is not a member of the league according to William H. Taft, former president, here today. Mr. Taft said he was not certain whether the mandate should be undertaken under any circumstances, and so says Wm. J. Bryan.

More Presbyterian Freedman Educational Institutions.

(A. N. P. Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 27.—Rev. J. M. truth but continue to dope the poor people with doctrines of Fire and Brimstone and whose chief aim is to gather in the money and make a big show to the world. I warn you that your days are numbered. The Good Shepherd is near. He will not much longer permit you unfaithful servants to make a business of offering up and fleecing (collecting money from) his sheep. Oh! The shame and confusion that will soon cover your faces for propagating the blasphemous Doctrines of Eternal Torment when your whole congregation come to know the justice of God and that the Bible does not teach this God dishonoring, truth beclouded, Love-Extinguishing, Saint-Hindering, Sinner-Hardening, Damnable Heresy of Eternal Torment. NOTHING BUT WAR AND RUMORS OF WAR

In Republican Party Ranks From Maine to California.

(Star News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 27.—Negro leaders of the faction of the Republican party who bolted the convention here April 28, will leave Saturday for Chicago where they will file briefs contesting the seating of delegates here by the white Republicans whom they charge with having "steam rollered" them out of the convention. The leaders say if necessary they will carry the fight to the floor of the convention.

Columbia Profesor Defends Moens.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—A Columbia University scientist has come to the rescue of Prof. M. B. Moens, who toured Oklahoma several years ago, and was indicted the second time by a grand jury at Washington, D. C., on charge of showing indecent pictures of Colored girls. Prof Franz Boas, white, head of the department of Anthropology, Columbia University, N. Y. wrote a district attorney: "Studies of the kind made by Moens to seek out physiological differences between races, require the investigation of the body in the nude, just like an examination of recruits for the army. Pictures of Colored girls said by the court to be obscene, I regard as having highest value."

Colored Woman Knocks Out White Prowler.

(Star News Service)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 26.—Notified by neighbors that a prowler was in her home, Mrs. Anna Roberts, Colored, who had never recovered from the shock of being in East St. Louis riots, became nervous and frightened, when Mrs. Cina Kivel, a neighbor, inquired what the prowler was doing there, he replied he was a real estate agent and tried to force his way out. Mrs. Kivel, being quite an athlete, gave him a solar plexus, that landed him on the floor. The women then jumped on him and held him until the police arrived.

MAN WHO WAS CONVICTED IN ST. LOUIS RIOT CASE WILL APPEAR AT FIRST BAPTIST CHCHURCH TOMORROW.

St. Louisan Will Tell Thrilling Story of Bloody Race Riot At East St. Louis Tw Years Ago.

Our people are not likely soon to forget East St,. Louis, Washington, Chicago—three names which revive and awaken memories of the most harrowing and heartrending circumstances which the Race has been forced to suffer and endure. The long line of bedraggled, half-clad, wounded and humiliated Colored men, women and children that made its way across the Eads bridge from East St. Louis not long since, seeking shelter and protection as described by the daily press at the time scarcely needs re-description here. The singularly bloodthirsty, relentless and merciless persecution of the Colored citizens of East St. Louis by a frenzied and implacable white mob illustrates a phase of the mob-ruling tendencies of Americans, who countenance and participate in such horrors, and yet are smug enough to find fault with the Germans and Turks for their respective mistreatment of the Belgians and Armenians.

The outstanding unfairness and injustice meted out to our people is shown by the usual attempt of the authorities to load the blame for such racial horrors upon the shoulders of those who were cruelly abused and butchered because they were in many cases helpless on account of lack of protection. In the East St. Louis race conflict instance many prosecutions followed, both of white men and of Colored men, as well. It is a pity to have to record that justice was not impartially shown, and more Colored men than white suffered penalty at the hands of the law. It stands to reason that the Negroes of East St,. Louis were driven to the extremity of defending their lives and their homes. Under similar circumstances, white men, especially their leaders would have been classed patriotic, and the names of Kosciusko, Garibaldi, Patrick Henry and the like would have been applied to them,. But in our race's case, the men defending their lives and homes have been branded as instigators of race trouble,. Such is the experience of Dr. Leroy N,. Bundy, of East St. Louis, who is on a lecture tour in Oklahoma and is advertised to speak Sunday evening, May 30, 1920 at 8 P. M. at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Bundy was in East St. Louis during the racial conflicts which have forever blackened the name of that community, and to his great credit and honor, it should be said he was one of the heroic and brave Colored men who not only held their ground but retaliated in kind and in a manner not soon to be forgotten. Dr. Bundy will lecture on "The Coming of the New Negro," and his race devotion and experiences qualify him to present this in a manner eminently instructive and interesting for all Tulsans.

Licked By Horse; Boy Dies.

Thursday, Roy Prichard, little 7 year old Colored boy of the 400 Bryan block, was accidently kicked by a horse, and his skull was so badly fractured, that he died. Roy had been sent to look after the horse, and while leading it, the horse laid down and began rolling. Before Roy could get out of the way he was struck by the flying feet of the horse and given his death wound. Roy was well liked by the many little boys of his age and had reputation of being an obedient child.

Capt. Jackson, one of Tulsa's best known business men and citizens, leaves in a day or so, accompanied by his esteemed wife, to attend National Republican Convention. Other points East will be visited before their return.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at Vernon Chapel, A. M. E. Church Her body will be shipped Sunday morning in charge of her husband to Wichita, Kan., for burial.

Texans Oppose Lilly Whites.

(Star News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 26.—Two republican state conventions were held here today as a result of withdrawal from the regular convention by Negroes following the reading of the report of the state republican executive committee on delegteas to be seated. No disorder marked the break away of the Negroes, accompanied by about 10 whites and complete organization proceeded in both halls, each within earshot of cheers from the other. About 10 Negroes remained with the whites who were left to proceed with the regular convention.

Leaders in both conventions expressed confidence of acceptance of their claims to representation at the national convention.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 26.—The result of the Senatorial Investigation as to the amount of money spent by the various candidates in the presidential primaries has shown that the primary system is so expensive that only millionaires or friends of millionaires can have the political aspiration. While not all the managers of the candidates have yet testified, it has been made public that Gov. Frank O. Lowden has spent $404,984.75; Senator Miles Poindexter, $75,000; Senator Hiram Johnson, $68,000 and Herbert Hoover $66,000. It is said, Gov. Lowden contributed personally $379,000 to his own fund $404,000.00, which thus far leads the list.

Who will meet "Black" Billy Sunday, in a debate on the Bible, some time in the near future. The public is well acquainted with Rev. Hill, as his sermons appear weekly in this paper. The date of this debate will be published later, which will be looked forward to by many of our readers.

CHAMBLISS, CHICAGO POLICEMAN, CONVICTED

Negro and Woman Companion found Guilty of Luring Kansas White Girl to Chicago Resort.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 27.—Dorsey Chambliss and Mrs. Emma Ross, both Colored, were found guilty by a jury tonight in connection with the death of Bertha Wieback, 17, white girl.

They were charged with luring the girl, whose home was at Pawnee Rock, Kan., to a Negro resort, where she died. The punishment provided by the statute is from one to five years in the penitentiary. The case went to the jury late today after an 11 days' trial.

This Bishop Was Just Human.

(Star News Service)

ST LOUIS, Mo., May 27.—Bishop W. D. Chapelle must certainly stand well with his colleagues inasmuch as he has been reassigned to the South Carolina district over a strong protest presented by Buller W. Nance and other members of the South Carolina delegation. In a sworn statement Bishop Chapelle was charged with being tyrannical unjust and revengeful in his administration in South Carolina. He was also charged with appointing his wife and children to lucrative positions. Nance said the Bishop once referred to the ministers of his conference as "kittens, minnows, pigmies, pusilanimous gnats and mud heads," and to have boasted that he "drinks good rye liquor." These charges were ignored and Chapelle will preside over South Carolina until next quadrennial, if he lives.

Just Like Dear Old Oklahoma.

This sounds quite Oklahomaish, but British officers at Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa, search the luggage of Colored travellers for dutiable goods, but take the word of white passengers that their baggage contains nothing dutiable.

Hear Dr. Bundy tomorrow.

S. S. Yarmouth Back Home.

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 26.—The S. S. Yarmouth of the Black Star Line, the first steamship to be owned, manned and officered by the Colored people, was met on its arrival at this port by a crowd of five thousand Colored men, women and children. The Yarmouth had come from Colon of the Panama Canal here by way of Santiago and Kingston. On its outward and first voyage the Yarmouth carried several million dollars worth of whiskey, gin, etc., which had been forced out of this country by our prohibition laws.

Lilly White Contests in Ten States.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—For first time in history Colored and white women of the District of Columbia voted in the primaries of last Saturday. This fact, however, has nothing to do with the result of the primaries which gave three contesting delegations to the national republican convention. The National Republican Committee prior to the opening of the convention must decide one way or the other, for "Lilly whitism" or "Black and Tanism" in ten contests originating in each of the Southern States and brought about by the desire of Lilly White republicans to dominate affairs to the exclusion of the "Brother in Black."

Honor for Brave Boys in Brown.

(A. N. P. Service)

RICHMOND, Va., May 27.—Col. Otis B. Duncan of the famous "Eighth" of Illinois spoke at the Fifth Street Baptist Church last Friday night. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the famous warrior. The meeting was in the interest of a proposed memorial to Colored soldiers who fought and died in the wars of the United States.

Frank Caldwell, the operator for the Star has returned—bringa second party with him.

Candidates' Fate in Penrose's Hands

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 26.—The fate of quite a number of the presidential candidates for nomination at hands of the republican convention is said to depend upon the health condition of Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania. Jues at this time he is quite ill and it is doubted by many that he will be able to attend the Chicago convention. There are two republican organizations within the party, one headed by ex-post master general Hitchcock, and the other by Senator Boies Penrose. The latter is the recognized and long time leader of the regular republican machine. It is expected that should Penrose attend the convention, the regulars propose to roll over Johnson, Hoover and Wood, and nominate either Senator Knox of Pennsylvania or Lowden of Illinois.

SOAP MAN "IDEALISTIC"; WILL GIVE MUCH MORE

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—T the Senate Invesigating Committee, Colonel Proctor testified that besides advancing $500,000 to General Wood's campaign fund, he had made a contribution of $10,000 He objected to naming other contributors, saying that the men charged with handling the campaign finances would give names and exact amounts. Urged by the committee, however, he said that Ambrose Monci, had given $20,000 and that William Wrigley "a fellow like me," and Mr. Byllesby, a New York banker, had been large contributors.

The witness said that his own advance of money to General Woods campaign had been "as idealistic as giving to the Red Cross during the war," and added that he "intended to advance as much more as he felt would be proper."

To Be Repaid.

Asked if he expected the $500,000 to be repaid, Colonel Proctor smilingly said he thought "expect" was putting it a little too strong. He said, however, that "he was pretty sure of getting repaid some of the total by General Wood's friends."

TULSANS TO HEAR DEBATE ON THE BIBLE.

Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, or "Black Billy Sunday" who will come to Tulsa Monday to make final arrangements to meet Mr. Hill of this city in a public debate on the Bible in this cinty in the near future, the exact date to be announced later.

Home On Vacation.

Miss Vernon May Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Gentry is home on her summer vacation from Western Univrsity.

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE MANDATE

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—President Wilson has asked for authority to exercise mandatory powers over Armenia. The democratic members of congress are lining up against the proposition. William J. Bryan has protested against it saying: "It would involve us in the politics of Europe and would compel us to deal with implacable race hatreds. Worst of all, it would compel us to surrender a vital principle of democracy, namely, that all people are capable of self government."

Colored Post of American Legion.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 27.—The "Thomas Freeman Post" No. 82 of the American Legion was organized here last Friday night. The members of the Davis King Post were present in large numbers and assisted in the organization. The Freeman Post is the only post of Colored men in this section of the state.

Pan-African Conference.

At Accra, Gold Coast, West Africa there was recently held a conference which discussed self-determination and rights of small nations. Strong resolutions demanding equal rights, educational opportunities and abolition of unfair land laws were adopted and a fund of $500,000 was raised.

IS THIS WHY THE COLORED PRESS SUPPORTS WOOD?

Colonel William C. Procter, Ivory Soap Maker, Gives Half Million to Wood Fund.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—That Governor Lowden's campaign fund had reached the colossal sum of $400,000 as shown by the Senatorial Investigation into pre-convention campaign expenditures, was apparently astounding enough, but here comes Col. William R. Procter, the millionaire soap maker of Cincinnati, Ohio., who admits he has personally put up $500,000 in the Wood Campaign Fund. This amount is greater than the total of other contributions to this fund which nearly reaches a million dollars.

Why Printing Costs More.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 26.—Announcement has been received here from the International Paper company that the contract price on print paper beginning July 1 will be $5.75 per 100 pounds, an increase of 75 cents over the price set April 1. The contract price of December 31 last was $3.75.

Florida Federation Seats Delegates.

At St. Augustine, Fla., at a meeting of the State Federation of Labor it was voted to seat the two Colored delegates from Jacksonville. The matter was debated for two days One of the white members declared :"If they are members of the union we have got to seat them."

Colored Hospital at Enid.

(Star News Service)

ENID, Okla, May 26.—The Colored citizens of Enid are raising funds for the purpose of erecting a hospital for their own use.

The Oklahoman recently contained an editorial condemning Congressman Madden of Illinois for opening old wounds between southern and northern men who recently fought shoulder to shoulder in the World's War. But Madden spoke in behalf of Colored men who had fought in the same war shoulder to shoulder with men from both sections.

THE DOCTRINE OF ETERNAL TORMENT AND MONEY COLLECTING IN THE CHURCHES ARE BLASPHEMY ON GOD'S CHARACTER.

By RICHARD J. HILL.

The Doctrine of Eternal Torment was introduced by Papacy to scare the Pagans and make them join her system and support the Priesthood. It flourished at a time when bullfights and gladiatorial contests were the public amusements most enjoyed. This doctrine flourished when the Crusades were called Holy Wars and when men and women were called hereties and often slaughtered for speaking contrary to the teachings of Papacy. The majority of the Clergy have spent and are yet spending most of their time in trying to scare the people into the Churches, telling them to join and escape Eternal Torment; and when the people get into the churches and put their names on the roll they are made to understand that the Lord wants them to keep up their various church dues, including a fat salary to the parson, building fine church houses, etc. They are further made to understand that if they fail in these duties they will be turned out of the church where the Devil will get them and roast and torment them throughout Eternity. The poor people have been taught and made to believe that the Lord needs their money in order to carry out his plans but dear friends, I want to brand this money collecting in the churches and for the churches in the name of the Lord as Blashpemy to His righteous name. The Lord is rich and does not need our puny dimes and dollars to carry out his great plan. This money collecting business is a man-made institution. I am fully aware that there are Scriptures which are being misintrepeted by many of the preachers in such way as to make it appear that the collecting of money in the churches is authorized by the Bible; some of the Scriptures used are those referring to the Jewish custom of giving one-tenth but which, as a matter of fact, has no application in this Gospel Age except as pointing to the antitypical giving of your all to the Lord. Also the Scriptural statement, "Muzzle not the ox that tread out the corn" which only means that a preacher should have the same opportunity to make a living as anybody else and that while he is giving all his time to advancing God's truth (not lies) he is entitled to the absolute necessities of life—place to sleep and food to eat and no more. Preachers are not to be a burden to the people in any way, shape, form or fashion. Instead of being a burden true servants of God should go and work with their own hands to support themselves and at the same time be able to give to those less fortunate. The Apostle Paul through the Scriptures lays down the rule for himself and others that those who would not work should not eat. 2nd Thes. 3-5-15. Paul worked with his own hands, tent making, that he might not be a burden to the people. The case where Christ had his Diciples to catch a fish and get money out of its mouth to put into the collection is sometime held up to the people as Christ's approval of collections in churches but nothing is further from the truth than using this Scripture in such a way; Christ only intended to teach the Diciples that it was the best policy for them to pay taxes to whatever Govern- they may live under.

I again remind you that the paying of fat salaries to preachers and the building of expensive church houses is not recognized by the Lord as work done unto him. He wants no such work as that. He wants the contrite heart of the poor people towards him and he wants them relieved of their burdens. The only condition under which the giving of money is acceptable to the Lord is when it is given voluntarily and for the purpose of relieving the sufferings of the widows and orphans and others of a broken heart; and also money given to aid others in geting into the light of God's plan of Salvation. You will agree with me when I remind you that there are many millions of poor people in this land and country who are suffering greatly for the absolute necessities of life and many of these are living in the very shadows of Church houses that cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. God is not pleased with such an arrangement and in the near future he will dash to pieces this order of things and arrange matters so that the humble hearted and oppressed will come into their own.

Reverting to another phase of our subject, I wish to say that the Old Testament Scriptures were written in the Hebrew language and the New Testtament in the Greek. The word Hell is an English word sometimes selected by the translators of the English Bible to express the same sense of the Hebrew word, Sheol and the Greek words Hadees, Tartaroo and Gehenna. These same words are sometimes rendered grave and pit. The word Hell in Old English usage, before the preachers gave it a new and special significance to suit their own selfish purposes, simply to conceal, to cover. The word Hell was therefore properly used synonymously with the words grave and pit to translate the words Sheol and Hades and signifying the secret or hidden condition of Death. The word Hell occurs thirty-one times in the Old Testament and in every istance it is Sheol in the Hebrew. It does not mean a Lake of Fire and Brimstone or any thing resembling that thought; instead of it being described as a place of blazing fire it is described in the context as a state of darkness (Job 10: 21); instead of being a place where shrieks and groans are heard, it is described in the Context as a place of silence, (Psalms 115: 17); instead of it representing in any sense pain and suffering or remorse the Context describes it as one of forgetfulness; (Psalms 88: 11-12); "There is no work nor devise nor knowledge in the grave (Sheol) whiter thou goest (Ecc. 9: 10).

In Matthew 11: 23 is one case where the Greek word Hades is rendered Hell "And thou Capernaum which are exaulted unto Heaven, shall be brought down to Hell." I hope there is no one so silly or foolish as to think that the city of Capernaum with all its inhabitants and buildings are down in Hell roasting in agony. The fact is that Capernaum is in the Bible Hell, is in a condition as if it had never existed, in fact, the site of where this city once stood is now hard to locate. In other words it is in a condition of non-existence and that is the real meaning of the Bible Hell. The whole race of mankind, from creation until the present time, at death, go to this Bible Hell to wait the Resurrection Day which is near even at the door.

In the New Testament two other words are rendered Hell; namely, Tartaroo and Gehenna which we will consider in the order named. Tartaron has reference to the invisible condition of the atmosphere where the Angels that kept not their first estate, before the flood, were cast to wait the judgment day. Gehenna occurs in all, twelve times where it is rendered Hell, (Mat. 5: 22 29-30; 10: 28; 23: 15-33; Mark 9: 43-47; Luke 12: 5; James 3: 6). Gehenna is the Greecian rule of spelling the Hebrew words which are translated, "The Valley of Hinnon." This Valley lay just out side of the city of Jerusalem and served the purpose of sewer and garbage burner to the city.

Every intelligent minister knows or should know that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for willful sinners is Death Everlasting—the second Death, a death from which there will be no resurrection. They, the preachers, also know that Hell and the grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of non-existence. They further know that the Lake of Fire and Brimstone mentioned in the Scriptures is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are, or should be fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs, and principal cities, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers, including Our Lord Jesus, many times used the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal Cess pool, designated in the Bible as the Valley of Hinnon, the Lake burning with Fire and Brimstone, to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established nothing will be allowed to remain in that kingdom which will hurt or offend the people. According to the rules for the government of the literal city of Jerusalem, all filth was to be cast into the literal cess pool, term the Lake burning with Fire and Brimstone, to be consumed. Just so will it be in the antitypical city, the New Jerusalem, which is not made with hand or hammer. The antitypical cess pool or Lake of Fire is to consume the filth of this antitypical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone but is the second Death. In other words, the cess pool or garbage burner for the New Jerusalem is the Second Death. Rev. 19: 20; 20: 14-15; 21: 8.

There are many poor persons of humble minds who desire to do the Lord's will but they are kept in darkness by a number of selfish and ignorant persons who are posing as ministers of God. I am glad to say that quite a number of the preachers over the country are honest enough to acknowledge to their congregation that they have been teaching error. But there is entirely too large a number who know not the

(A. N. P. Service)

BALTIMORE, Md., May 26.—Judge Ambler in the City Court decided last week that the provisions of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railway company for the segregation of white and Colored passengers was legal. The decision was handed down in the case of Lewis H. Davenport, a Colored man, who sued the railway company for $5,000 damages for alleged assault by preventing him from riding in a car that the company had set aside for the use of white passengers. The judge declared that the Supreme Court had recognized the lawfulness of segregation of the races on railways.

Taft and Bryan Agree.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 26.—The United States cannot undertake a mandate for Armenia under the league of nations since this country is not a member of the league according to William H. Taft, former president, here today. Mr. Taft said he was not certain whether the mandate should be undertaken under any circumstances, and so says Wm. J. Bryan.

In Republican Party Ranks From Maine to California.

(Star News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 27.—Negro leaders of the faction of the Republican party who bolted the convention here April 28, will leave Saturday for Chicago where they will file briefs contesting the seating of delegates here by the white Republicans whom they charge with having "steam rollered" them out of the convention. The leaders say if necessary they will carry the fight to the floor of the convention.

Columbia Profesor Defends Moens.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—A Columbia University scientist has come to the rescue of Prof. M. B. Moens, who toured Oklahoma several years ago, and was indicted the second time by a grand jury at Washington, D. C., on charge of showing indecent pictures of Colored girls. Prof Franz Boas, white, head of the department of Anthropology, Columbia University, N. Y. wrote a district attorney: "Studies of the kind made by Moens to seek out physiological differences between races, require the investigation of the body in the nude, just like an examination of recruits for the army. Pictures of Colored girls said by the court to be obscene, I regard as having highest value."

DUNCAN DOTS.

Duncan, Oklahoma is one of the greatest towns in Oklahoma. We have just witnessed one of the greatest closing of school exercises ever held in the state. Little Miss Geneva Kidd is the greatest star in the school. She won the prize in every exercise and she is only 8 years old. She is the star of Duncan.

The Baptists had a meeting for the first time in their new church Sunday.

Church days are every second and fourth Sundays.

We have the prettiest views in Duncan for the Colored in Duncan to come and see, plenty of room for a hundred or so families, come and look over our town. You are invited. Plenty of lots to sell reasonable for the right people. Duncan is the busiest town in Oklahoma, for the laboring man. For information write the Reporter.

DISNEY AND GRANT ARE FAVORED UNANIMOUSLY

National Committee Disposes of Second District.

"JIM CROW" CONVENTIONS ARE BARRED

Party Councils Ordered Opened in All States.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—The Oklahoma contest in the Second district was decided unanimously by the national republican committee in favor of the Hamon delegates, L. G. Disney and G. O. Grant. They were opposed by M. H. Wade and W. H. Twine, pledged to General Wood. The Muskogee convention, controlled by Hamon, did not instruct its delegates.

Aroused by continual charges that Negro republicans in southern states were discriminated against and denied admission to party councils, the national committee today directed Chairman Will H. Hays to notify all state organizations that party conventions and conclaves must be held in places of access to all republicans, regardless of color.

The continued charges by Negroes aroused the ire of committeeman Fred B. Warren of Michigan. He made a motion that the national chairman be instructed to send notification to republican organizations in southern states that party meetings must be held in places where anyone, white or black, could enter.

The specifications of the "Southern States" drew opposition from Col. C. S. Jackson of Georgia. He termed it a "fling" at the South and moved an amendment to include "all states." After considerable bickering, Warren amended his own motion and it was carried unanimously. Committeeman A. T. Hert of Kentucky, who was western campaign manager for Hughes in 1916, favored the motion.

GENERAL WOOD UNDER FIRE ONLY IN ONE BATTLE

Oswald Garrison Villard Punctures Fight Record of Presidential Candidate.

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 4.—The fact that the fund of General Wood in the presidential primary overtops a million dollars and that he is supported almost unanimously by the Negro leaders in all parts of the country, are of course mere concidents. It would not be fair for any one to presume from such a co-incident, that our Colored republican brethren, who are so vociferous in declaring their adhesion to the party is founded upon principle, are at the same time not overlooking a chance to clip off a few coupons of interest on that "principle." But be that as it may be, if the military record of General Wood has caused this stampede to enroll under his banner at the national convention, they have had their run for nothing, because the General virtually has no war record, according to Oswald Garrison Villard, the former owner and editor of the New York Post. The friendliness of Mr. Villard to the Negro Race is best attested by his unusual and unselfish labors in behalf of the National Association for the Advancement of the Colored People. For these labors, if for no other reason, the following statement written by Mr. Villard and published in current issue of "The Nation," ought to be of interest to everyone concerned in selection of proper nominee for president at the National Republican Convention. Mr. Villard says:

"In the complete transformation of Dr. Wood from an inconspicuous military surgeon into a general with a record of administrative reconstruction in Cuba four men figured largely: Theodore Roosevelt; the same Henry W. Lawton; a chain-gang convict under the alias of "E. G. Bellairs," and a retired officer of the army, James E. Runice. Theodore Roosevelt picked Leonard Wood to be the regular army nurse of the Rough Riders because of their common tastes for strenuous out-door pastimes and their close Washington friendship. When Leonarl Wood was promoted to brigadier-general, Roosevelt succeeded to the command and brought the regiment back to Montauk Point. If Lieutnant Colonel Benson is correct the only hostile shots General Wood has ever heard were those at Las Guasimas on one day. Testifying before the Senate Military Committee on December 3, 1903, Major General James H. Wilson reported the following conversation with Theodore Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill:

"He, Roosevelt, began then in rather extravagant terms of praise of General Wood, whereupon I said to him, 'Governor Roosevelt, I think you are perhaps mistaken about that. If I am correctly informed, General Wood never was under fire in his life until the Spanish War began, either in the Geronimo campaign or at any other time. In the Spanish War he was never in but one battle, and that at Las Guasimas, where, but for his rescue and support by the Colored troops, he would have been badly handled.' 'Oh, yes,' said Mr. Roosevelt, 'he was at San Juan.' To which I replied, 'I beg your pardon, he was not. You know that he was in the rear looking for ammunition.'"

"'Yes,' said he (Roosevelt), 'but do not tell anybody.'"

Baptist Ministers From All Parts of the State Hold Important Religious Meeting.

Tulsa as a convention city was again tested during the early part of last week. This time the pulpit champions of Baptist faith assembled here for the purpose of discussing biblical and ecclesiastical topics which trend toward the extension and strengthening of the Baptist organization throughout Oklahoma. The sessions began on June 1 and continued until June 3, and were held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. From a persual of the various hotel registers, it is estimated that fully 150 ministers were in the city and meetings held during the day and at night were attended by quite a large number of Tulsa's faithful and energetic advocates of the Baptist persuasion. The evening services were made particularly instructive and entertaining by means of moving screen pictures, reviewing Church Missions in all parts of the world. These pictures were shown under auspices of the Inter-Church World Movement.

Seven well known able pulpit orators and deep biblical students spoke each day for 30 minutes on following topics:

Rev. R. A. Whittaker, Stewardship: Rev. T. T. Love, Wagoner, Christian Giving; Rev. S. A. Clark, Guthrie, The Ministry; Dr. J. T. Johnson, Muskogee, The Mission of the Church; Dr. W. M. Drake, Nowata, Denominational Co-Operation; Dr. J. D. Provo, Oklahoma City, Money and Religion; Dr. N. A. Robinson, Rentiesville, Outlook of the Future Church.

DOCTRINE OF ETERNAL TORMENT TO BE DEBATED

SENSATIONAL CLASH OF ERUDITE BIBLICAL AUTHORITIES AT CONVENTION HALL

Richard J. Hill, Star's Theological Contributor and "Black Billy Sunday" to Talk on Hell.

The readers of the Tulsa Star and the few others comprising the Colored population of Tulsa who are not, are promised an intellectual and spiritual divertissement which comes to but few in a generation to enjoy. This extraordinary event consists of a spectacular debate upon the subject "Torment." Arrangements have been about consumated that enable us to announce a discussion upon this most interesting of all topics to civilided man to be held at Convention Hall,, Friday evening June 18, 1920. As admission will be free to all who wish to attend, it can be said safely that Tulsa's largest hall will be packed to the walls, and hundreds likely turned away for lack of seats and standing room.

The debate which has been arranged as indicated originiated from the series of religious articles written by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, well known Tulsa citizen, which have been published weekly for sometime in the columns of the Tulsa Star. Concerning these articles of Mr. Hill, it may be said, they have evoked both widespread approval and some dissaproval from persons living in various and distant localities of the country. One of these articles attracted the attention of "Black Billy Sunday" (Rev. McPherson), the nationally known evangelist and rival of Billy Sunday. "Black Billy Sunday" at the time was ronducting a series of highly successful meetings at Central Baptist church, Muskogee. He was so stirred up to defend the "Doctrine of Eternal Torment," he so ably and eloquently propounded, that he stopped long enough to issue a challenge to meet Mr. Hill at any time and at any old place and debate authenticity of "The Doctrine of Eternal Torment." His challenge was conveyed to Mr. Hill who willingly accepted it, and arrangements were at once made to enable these two talented and thoroughly prepared theological giants to meet upon the rostruu and present their arguments to all who avail themselves of opportunity to attend.

Both gentlemen are so well known it seems superfluous to introduce them. Mr. Hill is a well known, very highly educated and respected gentleman and citiden of Tulsa. Trained also by law, he is gifted with an ability to express himself in clean cut and easily comprehended English. Rev. McPherson, "Black Billy Sunday" is a native of Texas, but has won nation wide fame for his spectacular oratory and remarkable eloquence in his evangelistic field. The meeting of two such able Colored men naturally will prove the most sensational oratorical event ever to occur in Tulsa's history.

K. OF P. TEMPLE COMMISSION VOTES $150,000 ADDITION

Important Meeting of Pythian Officials Held at Hot Springs, Ark.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

HOT SPPINGS, Ark., June 3.—A history making meeting of prominent K. of P. officials was held here yesterday, with dignitories from seven or eight distant parts of the country. The purpose of the meeting was to consider plans and specifications submitted by a number of eminent architects for the building of an addition to the K. of P. bath house and sanitarium located here. After due consideration to the plans before them, that submitted by Mr. W. T. Bailey, the widely known Memphis, Tenn., Colored architect and contractor, was accepted, and he was awarded the contract for building the $150,000 addition. This addition will make this sanitarium the most complete institution of its kind owned by a Colored secret order in this country. Among those present were J. H. Fordham, South Carolina; E. E. Underwood, Kntucky; John Parris, Mississippi; W. W. Anderson, Florida; M. M. Rogers, Texas; E. Tidrington, Indiana; Dr. C. B. Wickham, Oklahoma and Supreme Chancellor Green of Louisiana. It is planned to begin excavation and construction of this beautiful and costly structure in July and work will be pushed until it's complete.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., June 4.—State and Federal officers of extension work in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Florida and Mississippi have endorsed the present Negro Agricultural and Home Economic extension work and plan to develop it so that more of the Negro population of the South will be reached, was the decision of the First Annual Conference of white and Negro Extension workers, which has just closed its sessions at Tuskegee Institute. Dr. J. A. Evans, Washington, D. C., Principal; R. R. Moton, T. M. Campbell, Dr. T. F. Duggar, R. S. Wilson, Miss Mary Feminear, were among the notables present.

Two Delegations From Georgia Place Claims Before Committee

(Star News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 4.—Taking up the claims of the contests between delegates from Georgia at its meeting today, the republican national committee plunged into its first fight of real candidates at next week's convention.

The fight ranged between a regular reported delegation uninstructed, but which is supposed to favor the candidacy of Governor Lowden and a contesting delegation which has been instructed for General Wood. The regularly reported delegation headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, an Atlanta Negro, who was shown to have received $9,000 from the Lowden fund and the contesting delegation, or Pickett faction, was shown to have received at least $10,000 from the Wood fund.

Governor Frank O. Lowden, candidate for the republican presidental nomination was confined in his rooms in the Blackstone hotel today with a cold he took yesterday during Memorial lay exercises. He was ordered by his physician to stay quiet for a few days.

Tulsa Republicans Displeased Over Ruling

Here's what the Tulsa republicans think of the ruling of the national republican committee Thursday regarding the right of Colored men to be admitted to State conventions. You get the trend of the white republicans minds in the following article which appeared in the Tulsa Tribune yesterday, and if you know the democrats of Tulsa you must admit that as a whole they are fairer to our people than the republicans have shown themselves to be. Here's what they say:

It is all right for the national committee to issue a warning that Negroes shall not be barred from republican conventions, but the observance of the rule in certain southern states will have to depend upon circumstances. Such was the consensus of opinion among local republican leaders here today.

The unanimous resolution of the national committee at Chicago yesterday warning the country that it would not again tolerate conventions which Negroes were barred by local prejudices, caused spirited discussion here. It followed a contest by Negroes from Muskogee district who claimed they were barred from the republican convention held in the Severs hotel.

Would Not Effect South.

"The ruling was the only one the national committee could make," said Peter Diechman, local attorney and prominent party worker. "The Negro has constitutional right to vote and that right had to be recognized. However, the question involved often becomes a pertinent problem in Oklahoma and the states of th eblack belt. We have handled the situation in the way we thought best in the past, and will be compelled to do so in the future. It is imperative that the white man should dominate these political conventions."

J. S. Overstreet, a party worker in city elections, declared it would be folly of the rankest kind to give the Negro too much political authority.

"Every man should have the freedom of the ballot, but domination of political conventions means something more that that'," he said. "The civil war left us with a big problem down in the South and we who are familiar with it must take care of it in the way past experiences has taught us is best."

Judge Ralph E. Campbell, head counsel for the Cosden Oil company and for many years federal judge for the eastern district of Oklahoma, refused to commit himself. He declared he was out of politics, suggested that the problem was too big for one man, and said he would leave it to the national committee to find a way out.

Others held in general to the view that nothing should be done to hamper the Negro in the exercise of his franchise, but white republicans should maintain control of their conventions and primaries with no uncertain hand. Few were inclined to critize the national committee for its stand. The general view seemed to be that the committee could not consistently make any other ruling, but such a ruling could not, in many cases, be observed throughout the south.

Dr. Bundy Pleased With Oklahoma

Race Loving Oklahomans Contribute Cheerfully to Aid Him in His Great Distress.

The lecture tour of Dr. Leroy Bundy through Eastern Oklahoma, which on account of mismanagement at first was threatened with disaster, in the end turned out most happily for him and all concerned. The Doctor was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience in Muskogee, Tulsa, Okmulgee and Sapulpa where unfortunately he had to arrange meetings himself. In his various addresses, Dr. Bundy was given close and interested attention and he succeeded in giving all of his hearers the impression that he was indeeded a Man among men. The people generously contributed toward the fund which he is to use in extricating himself from the coils of prejudice and injustice, and it is estimated that he collected not much less than $900.00 during his stay in the state. Mr. M. C. Perara, Oklahoma manager of the Standard Life Insurance company, a staunch friend of Dr. Bundy's, has written the Star complimenting it for its services in aid of the Doctor's mission, and extends for him full-hearted expression of appreciation and thanks to all those who contributed so liberally to this cause.

M. E General Conference Sends Bishop R. E. Jones To New Orleans.

For First Time In History M. E. Conference Elects Colored Bishops.

DES MAINES, Ia., June 3.—The M. E. General Conference has passed into history. It adjourned today, after four week's of the most memorable meetings ever known, which included the nomination and election of two Colored bishops.

Bishop Matthew W. Clair of Washington and Bishop R. E. Jones of New Orleans were consecrated in the Coliseum, Sunday afternoon along with fifteen whites. The services required nearly two hours. Bishops Wilson and Neilly ordained Bishop Jones and Bishops Anderson and Neilson ordained Bishop Clair. After the ordination all of the forty-three bishops, with their families went to First M. E. Church for private celebration of Holy Communion

In the assignments made on Tuesday, Bishop Clair was sent to Liberia and Bisho Jones to New Orleans, taking the place of Bishop Thirkield, white, who was sent to Mexico City. Bishop McDowell, white, was returned to the Washington area.

The Colored people of Sand Springs are planning big things for June 19.

DOCTRINE OF ETERNAL TORMENT TO BE DEBATED

Richard J. Hill, Star's Theological Contributor and "Black Billy Sunday" to Talk on Hell.

The readers of the Tulsa Star and the few others comprising the Colored population of Tulsa who are not, are promised an intellectual and spiritual divertissement which comes to but few in a generation to enjoy. This extraordinary event consists of a spectacular debate upon the subject "Torment." Arrangements have been about consumated that enable us to announce a discussion upon this most interesting of all topics to civilided man to be held at Convention Hall,, Friday evening June 18, 1920. As admission will be free to all who wish to attend, it can be said safely that Tulsa's largest hall will be packed to the walls, and hundreds likely turned away for lack of seats and standing room.

The debate which has been arranged as indicated originiated from the series of religious articles written by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, well known Tulsa citizen, which have been published weekly for sometime in the columns of the Tulsa Star. Concerning these articles of Mr. Hill, it may be said, they have evoked both widespread approval and some dissaproval from persons living in various and distant localities of the country. One of these articles attracted the attention of "Black Billy Sunday" (Rev. McPherson), the nationally known evangelist and rival of Billy Sunday. "Black Billy Sunday" at the time was ronducting a series of highly successful meetings at Central Baptist church, Muskogee. He was so stirred up to defend the "Doctrine of Eternal Torment," he so ably and eloquently propounded, that he stopped long enough to issue a challenge to meet Mr. Hill at any time and at any old place and debate authenticity of "The Doctrine of Eternal Torment." His challenge was conveyed to Mr. Hill who willingly accepted it, and arrangements were at once made to enable these two talented and thoroughly prepared theological giants to meet upon the rostruu and present their arguments to all who avail themselves of opportunity to attend.

Both gentlemen are so well known it seems superfluous to introduce them. Mr. Hill is a well known, very highly educated and respected gentleman and citiden of Tulsa. Trained also by law, he is gifted with an ability to express himself in clean cut and easily comprehended English. Rev. McPherson, "Black Billy Sunday" is a native of Texas, but has won nation wide fame for his spectacular oratory and remarkable eloquence in his evangelistic field. The meeting of two such able Colored men naturally will prove the most sensational oratorical event ever to occur in Tulsa's history.

K. OF P. TEMPLE COMMISSION VOTES $150,000 ADDITION

Important Meeting of Pythian Officials Held at Hot Springs, Ark.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

HOT SPPINGS, Ark., June 3.—A history making meeting of prominent K. of P. officials was held here yesterday, with dignitories from seven or eight distant parts of the country. The purpose of the meeting was to consider plans and specifications submitted by a number of eminent architects for the building of an addition to the K. of P. bath house and sanitarium located here. After due consideration to the plans before them, that submitted by Mr. W. T. Bailey, the widely known Memphis, Tenn., Colored architect and contractor, was accepted, and he was awarded the contract for building the $150,000 addition. This addition will make this sanitarium the most complete institution of its kind owned by a Colored secret order in this country. Among those present were J. H. Fordham, South Carolina; E. E. Underwood, Kntucky; John Parris, Mississippi; W. W. Anderson, Florida; M. M. Rogers, Texas; E. Tidrington, Indiana; Dr. C. B. Wickham, Oklahoma and Supreme Chancellor Green of Louisiana. It is planned to begin excavation and construction of this beautiful and costly structure in July and work will be pushed until it's complete.

Conference of Extension Workers.

(A. N. P. Service).

TUSKEGEE, Ala., June 4.—State and Federal officers of extension work in Alabama, Georgia, Tennesee, Florida and Mississippi have endorsed the present Negro Agricultural and Home Economic extension work and plan to develop it so that more of the Negro population of the South will be reached, was the decision of the First Annual Conference of white and Negro Extension workers, which has just closed its sessions at Tuskegee Institute. Dr. J. A. Evans, Washington, D. C., Principal; R. R. Moton, T. M. Campbell, Dr. T. F. Duggar, R. S. Wilson, Miss Mary Feminear, were among the notables present.

Two Delegations From Georgia Place Claims Before Committee

(Star News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 4.—Taking up the claims of the contests between delegates from Georgia at its meeting today, the republican national committee plunged into its first fight of real candidates at next week's convention.

The fight ranged between a regular reported delegation uninstructed, but which is supposed to favor the candidacy of Governor Lowden and a contesting delegation which has been instructed for General Wood. The regularly reported delegation headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, an Atlanta Negro, who was shown to have received $9,000 from the Lowden fund and the contesting delegation, or Pickett faction, was shown to have received at least $10,000 from the Wood fund.

Governor Frank O. Lowden, candidate for the republican presidental nomination was confined in his rooms in the Blackstone hotel today with a cold he took yesterday during Memorial lay exercises. He was ordered by his physician to stay quiet for a few days.

Tulsa Republicans Displeased Over Ruling

Here's what the Tulsa republicans think of the ruling of the national republican committee Thursday regarding the right of Colored men to be admitted to State conventions. You get the trend of the white republicans minds in the following article which appeared in the Tulsa Tribune yesterday, and if you know the democrats of Tulsa you must admit that as a whole they are fairer to our people than the republicans have shown themselves to be. Here's what they say:

It is all right for the national committee to issue a warning that Negroes shall not be barred from republican conventions, but the observance of the rule in certain southern states will have to depend upon circumstances. Such was the consensus of opinion among local republican leaders here today.

The unanimous resolution of the national committee at Chicago yesterday warning the country that it would not again tolerate conventions which Negroes were barred by local prejudices, caused spirited discussion here. It followed a contest by Negroes from Muskogee district who claimed they were barred from the republican convention held in the Severs hotel.

Would Not Effect South.

"The ruling was the only one the national committee could make," said Peter Diechman, local attorney and prominent party worker. "The Negro has constitutional right to vote and that right had to be recognized. However, the question involved often becomes a pertinent problem in Oklahoma and the states of th eblack belt. We have handled the situation in the way we thought best in the past, and will be compelled to do so in the future. It is imperative that the white man should dominate these political conventions."

J. S. Overstreet, a party worker in city elections, declared it would be folly of the rankest kind to give the Negro too much political authority.

"Every man should have the freedom of the ballot, but domination of political conventions means something more that that', he said. "The civil war left us with a big problem down in the South and we who are familiar with it must take care of it in the way past experiences has taught us is best."

Judge Ralph E. Campbell, head counsel for the Cosden Oil company and for many years federal judge for the eastern district of Oklahoma, refused to commit himself. He declared he was out of politics, suggested that the problem was too big for one man, and said he would leave it to the national committee to find a way out.

Others held in general to the view that nothing should be done to hamper the Negro in the exercise of his franchise, but white republicans should maintain control of their conventions and primaries with no uncertain hand. Few were inclined to critize the national committee for its stand. The general view seemed to be that the committee could not consistently make any other ruling, but such a ruling could not, in many cases, be observed throughout the south.

Dr. Bundy Pleased With Oklahoma

Race Loving Oklahomans Contribute Cheerfully to Aid Him in His Great Distress.

The lecture tour of Dr. Leroy Bundy through Eastern Oklahoma, which on account of mismanagement at first was threatened with disaster, in the end turned out most happily for him and all concerned. The Doctor was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience in Muskogee, Tulsa, Okmulgee and Sapulpa where unfortunately he had to arrange meetings himself. In his various addresses, Dr. Bundy was given close and interested attention and he succeeded in giving all of his hearers the impression that he was indeeded a Man among men. The people generously contributed toward the fund which he is to use in extricating himself from the coils of prejudice and injustice, and it is estimated that he collected not much less than $900.00 during his stay in the state. Mr. M. C. Perara, Oklahoma manager of the Standard Life Insurance company, a staunch friend of Dr. Bundy's, has written the Star complimenting it for its services in aid of the Doctor's mission, and extends for him full-hearted expression of appreciation and thanks to all those who contributed so liberally to this cause.

For First Time In History M. E. Conference Elects Colored Bishops.

DES MAINES, Ia., June 3.—The M. E. General Conference has passed into history. It adjourned today, after four week's of the most memorable meetings ever known, which included the nomination and election of two Colored bishops.

Bishop Matthew W. Clair of Washington and Bishop R. E. Jones of New Orleans were consecrated in the Coliseum, Sunday afternoon along with fifteen whites. The services required nearly two hours. Bishops Wilson and Neilly ordained Bishop Jones and Bishops Anderson and Neilson ordained Bishop Clair. After the ordination all of the forty-three bishops, with their families went to First M. E. Church for private celebration of Holy Communion

In the assignments made on Tuesday, Bishop Clair was sent to Liberia and Bisho Jones to New Orleans, taking the place of Bishop Thirkield, white, who was sent to Mexico City. Bishop McDowell, white, was returned to the Washington area.

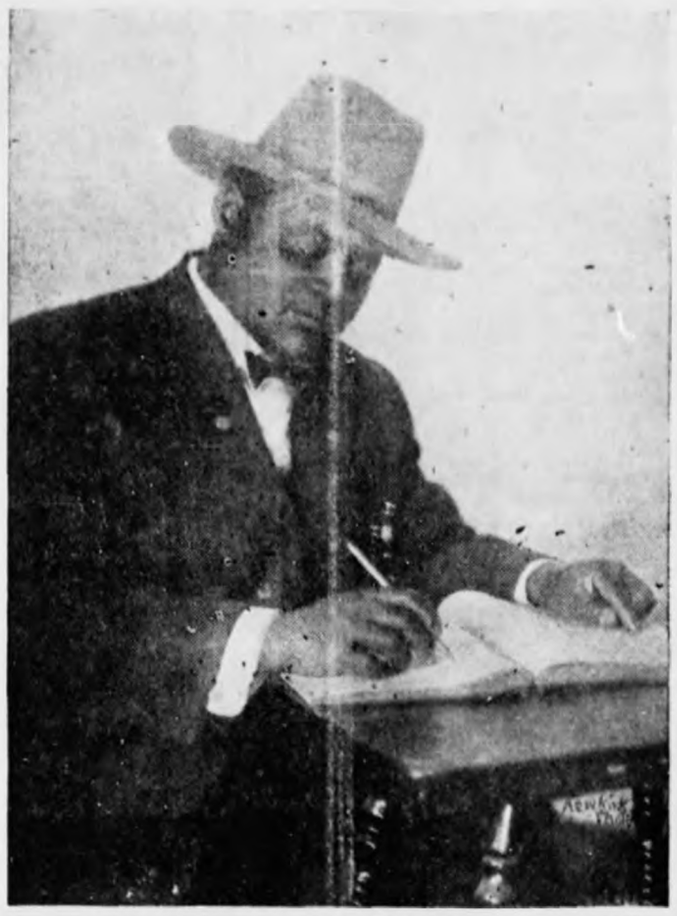
Feed The Poor Sheep And Stop Fleeing 'em



(By RICHARD J. HILL).

Since actions speak louder than words, the master statement, "Feed my sheep," has been changed, by these would be under Shepherds or Hirelings, to read, "Fleece my Sheep,"—Get the sheckles, the money.

Since the good Shepherd has been away the larger per cent of these under Shepherds have busied themselves building creed pens and echa one herd in all the sheep he can and in order to make a good show to the world, goats are freely driven in with the sheep and there he keeps himself busy fleecing sheep and milking old goats—(goats being persons who are not christians at all but connected with the church for policy sake.)—The sheckles must come it being the all important issue. These unfaithful servant have prevented the masse of God's sheep from feeding in God's green pasture of truth and the few that manage to break out of these creed-pens or those that could not be driven in are hated by these unfaithful servants and generally classed as good timber for Hell Fire.

But Alas! What are the poor sheep being fed? Nothing but the musty provender or food of the Dark Ages—join my denomination (Creed-pen), pay your church dues (be fleeced), and I will preach you straight to Heaven when you die or do otherwise and go to Hell—an eternity of torture. Another very popular food which the poor sheep is generally fed is emotionalism and this is one of the specially concocted dishes of the Devil and the one which is certainly used unsparingly, especially among the Colored people. When things seem to be getting a little quiet and the sheep begin to do a little serious thinking, the Devil behind the curtain dishes up some more emotion and passes it to the crowd through these ignorant or unfaithful servants. Most of us are possibly aware of occasion where a preacher would set his whole congregation in an uproar of shouting simply by dramatically squalling loud and groaning long with out saying a word worth hearing. I do not mean to say that all emotions are of the Devil but I do mean to say that all demonstrations of feelings not based upon thought or rationality is of the evil one. You very often hear some one say, "Oh! I heard a great sermon," but push them close to tell you what they heard and they can tell you little or nothing. I beg to suggest that the Devil and his host of Falen Angels which kept not their first estate are specialists on tickling feelings and if necessary, they will make one kick the bottom out of the church house and jump clear through the ceiling hollowing, "Amen, Glory to God," if by so doing they can prevent sober thinking men in search for truth. Bewar of all religious emotions for which you can give little or no explanation. The greater the emotion or feeling, less rationality. As an example of some of the many concoctions of the Devil to arouse the feelings or emotions; on one occasion the preacher preaches Brother So and So straight to Heaven, dresses him in a long white robe, puts a crown on his head, golden slippers on hi feet, harp in his mouth and gives him free access to an inexhaustable supply of milk and honey. On another occasion a rank sinner dies and of course by intimation if not by actual words, he is sent below to be tormented throughout eternity by fire proof Devils; and on still another occasion this same preacher gives his congregation a picture of the Resurrection day and in this picture he calls out Gabe to blow his trumphet and shows graves bursting, dead both great and small rising, etc. Now on all three of these occasions the emotions were greatly aroused. But let us see how much reason or truth is there at the bottom of it all. Are we to understand that the fellow who has spent hundreds of thousands of years in Heaven must undress and come down and the fellow below must get a permit and be relieved from Hell-Fire to come up and re-enter the grave to be resurrected in the last day? Friends, think a moment. To be reasonable one must conclude that there is either no going straight to Heaven or Hell at death or there is no resurrection of the dead. But the Bible abounds from Gennesse to Revelations with positive assurance that there will be a resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust.

Under Shepherds what are you feeding God's sheep? Are you feeding them the rich provender or food of God's plan of Salvation and his plan of selecting a little flock during this Gospel Age and afterward through them (The little flock) bring blessings to all the families of the earth? Or are you feeding them the musty doctrines of the Dark Ages, Eetrnal Torment, Hell Fire and Emotionalism? Under shepherds be warned the good Shepherd is near and when he appears and note the hundreds of creed-pens with you unfaithful servants over busy fleecing the poor sheep and milking old goats (getting the money), you can rest assured that something is going to happen. There will soon be one of the greatest old creed-pen smashing and unfaithful servant chasing that has ever taken place in all the ages.

GALLEY TWO SERMON

The time has come for the poor world to know the truth concerning God's great plan of Salvation and all who are wilfully opposing the truth are engaged in a losing proposition. You had just as well attempt to sweep back the oceantide with a broom which you know would be an impossibility. The only sensible thing to do is to fall in line with the truth and receive a blessing but if you get in the way of the truth, which is God's charriot you are sure to be crushed. Take your choice as to whether you will receive a blessing by coming out for the truth or receive a crushing by trying to oppose it.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE DIVINE PLAN!

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I have been informed that a few Pastors of the local churches have busied themselves warning their members to stay away from lectures being given at 618 East Archer, by International Bible Students every First and Third Sunday of each month. I am glad to note that most of the preachers are rather broad-minded and are beginning to recognize that the International Bible Students have the truth. But I am sorry to say that there are a few ignorant, pin-headed fellows posing as ministers who are bitter enemies to Light or Truth, and whose only object is to keep the poor people in darkness and squeeze all the money out of them they can and make a big show to the world. Listen, dear people of the public, you can put it down that any preacher who warns you to stay away from the International Bible Students' is one who wants to keep you in darkness. He (that pin-headed preacher) knows that we have the light and he also knows that if you come into the light, down goes his (the preachers) pork-chops.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for June 6, "THE JUDGMENT DAY—WHEN AND HOW."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collections.

RICHARD J. HILL.

Long before God said "Let there be light" and long before man was created, God had a well fixed plan of procedure, concerning the Salvation of the human race. Just as any intelligent business man does before beginning the construction of any great building, he makes out a blueprint plan of procedure, just so with Jehovah God. His plans were all outlined before the foundation of the world.

I think all will agree with me when I say that if anyone would work on a building, planned by the owner, such work would have to be strickly in harmony with the plans and specifications; and all work not in harmony with those plans would be condemned as against the wishes of the owner. Right here I wish to remind you dear friends, that every person who claims to be a christian and attempts to explain the Bible to others is posing as one of God's workmen upon his great plan of Salvation.

Preachers be warned. Do you understand the Great Architect's plan? Are you working strickly in harmony with the blue-print plan, (The Bible) of the ages? You had better begin at once to examine your work before the day of inspection (Judgment) comes.

There is generally just one plan of procedure for the same building and not two, three or a dozen or more plans for it. So it is with Jehovah God, the architect of the Universe. He has one Great Plan for the salvation of humanity.

I beg of you dear friends to call to your minds the unsightly spectacle of hundreds of would-be mechanics standing around the foundation of a great building disputing among themselves as to what the plan of the building is. You can readily understand that the only sensible thing for them all to do would be to study the plan carefully and then procede, working in harmony as they undrstand it. But the facts are that most of the ministers have been so very busy trying to carry out their own selfish plans that they know little or nothing as to what God planned to do before he said "Let there be light."

God knew man would sin before he made him and he could have created man without the ability to commit sin, but he, God, had no idea of creating man, a mere intelligent machine. God then, and long before man was created, had countless numbers of creatures and agents that could not do other than his will. But God had long designed that man should be of such nature that he would love and obey him, (God) from an intelligent appreciation of the fact that to do so (obey God) brings to him, man, the greatest degree of happiness and to do otherwise brings dissapointment, pain and death. Therefore, we can readily see the necessity and philosophy of his creating man with a will of his own and permitting him to learn valuable lessons from the exercise of same.

God knowing in advance, that man would become a victim of sin, his great love and wisdom arranged in advance that he (Man) be rescured down the stream of time after having a long trip of more than six-thousand years upon the angry billows of wars, blood sheds, sickness, sorrow, pain and death. In due time God sent his only son to arrange (through death) for a new trial for Adam and his posterity. When Christ said upon the cross, "It is finished," he meant that a new trial for life everlasting was secured for the human race, now, after this new trial was secured, a day was set in which Adam and his whole race would be brought before the Judgment bar of God and given a most favorable trial for life everlasting on the human plane—the same kind of life Adam had before he sinned. All those in that day, after having had such experience with sin and death and after seeing the love and power of God manifested in the resurrection of the Dead, and who will not hear and obey that priest and king will die the second death—a death from which there will be no resurrection for the reason that Christ will die no more for sinners. The most blessed thing about this Judgment Day is that the one who loved us well enough to lay down his life for us will be the judge. This Judgment Day is also spoken of as the Millenium. Let no one for a moment think this a twenty-four-day; it is a thousand year day. The period between the time when Jesus by his death, secured a new trial for man and the time for that new trial is called, the Gospel age or the period of God's selection. During this time God has been selecting a little flock from every nation, denomination, kindred and tongue to be with his son as close to him as a bride to assist in judging the world in righteousness.

Just now this country is deeply concerned about an election. The theory of an election is that good men of character will be elected from among the people to represent, help, and bless all the people with a wise, just and equitable administration. An election has never meant that all who are not elected to office will have to spend the rest of their days in the penitenttiary.

SERMON GALLEY TWO

From Penticost to the second coming of Christ—the end of the Gospel age is the period in which God has been selecting the officers to rule in his kingdom soon to be established in all the earth and it does not mean that all who are not elected must spend eternity in everlasting punishment. Unfortunately, the majority of the preachers have been and are yet maintaining this unscriptorial theory—that all must be elected to go to Heaven during this Gospel age or spend eternity in a Lake of Fire and Brimstone. They have attempted to apply the scriptural rules governing the election of the little flock to the world of mankind in general, hence, we note the muddle and great misunderstanding. You can not make the Bible statements fit in God's great plan unless you place them where they belong.

During this Gospel Age the Lord has not been dealing with any one but those who have entered the race for the Great prize. He is only dealing with those who have agreed to walk in the narrow path of suffering with the Lord in order that they may be selected to reign with him when his kingdom is set up.

Order, is Heaven's first law, and Jehovah God has order in his dealings with fallen humanity. He has not been dealing permiscuously with the whole human family. During the Patriachal age he only dealt with the Patriarchs, Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. During the Jewish age he only dealt with the Jews and during the Gospel Age, he is and has only been dealing with the electors—the little flock, the ones running for the great prize of life immortal on the devine plan. In other words he is only dealing with those who are aspiring to be judges of the world in righteousness when the kingdom is set up. The Bride of Christ, the little flock, has almost made herself ready and soon will be united in Heavenly wedlock to her Bridegroom and Lord. After which the Great Judgment or human restitution will begin. Then the whole race of mankind, including Father Adam, will have a chance to gain life everlasting on the human plane. It is after the marriage of the land, which is in the near future, when God will begin with the whole world of mankind. He has a day set, the Judgment or Millenium Day wherein he will judge the whole world in righteousness.

Someone may say, "well I do not see anything so very great in everlasting life on the human plane," but friends stop and think for a moment. Man will be perfect physically, mentally and morally. There will be no sickness, sorrow, pain, death, or any such thing to molest and disturb. The Devil will be chained and finally destroyed. Every individual will be a King. The whole earth will be as the garden of Eden. If you would get some idea as to what a perfect individual will be, call to mind all the physical beauty there is in the whole world, all the knowledge of science, art, oratory, music and what not and combine all these qualities in one individual and as great as this might seem to us we must remember that such qualities represented in such an individual would only be a feeble remnant of the qualities of a perfect man which qualities have been in process of deterioration for more than six thousand years.

Friends I would not have you misunderstand me. The Churches' hopes are not life everlasting on the human plane, but life immortal on the Divine plane—the same kind of life on the same plane as Jehovah God far above angels, principalities and powers. This immortal life on the same plane with Jehovah God is the Great Prize for which the little flock is running during this Gospel Age.

Man has not been satisfied to work according to God's plan. God did not plan the conversion of the world during the Gospel Age. His time for converting the world is after the Gospel Age, or period of election, is ended. The electing and qualifying of the little flock during this age is preparatory and for the very purpose of converting the world to Godliness.

Under the blinding inflence of Satan the majority of the preachers have been acting upon the theory that God was trying to convert the world during the Gospel Age. They have busied themselves warning the people to join the church pay their dues and go straight to Heaven when they die, or do otherwise and go to Hell to burn forever. They have been all along impressing the poor people that the building of expensive church houses and paying fat salaries to the parson are very necessary works to be done in order to keep their names upon the Lamb's Book of Life. Every reasonable minded and earnest hearted person can now see that God did not plan the conversion of the world during this Gospel Age for the reason that aside from the plain Bible statement to the effect that the conversion of the world is to begin at the close of the Gospel Age, there is more sin and sinners in the world today than were when the Gospel Age began.

I am sure all earnest hearted persons will agree with me when I say that all work done in the name of God is not strictly in accord with his plan will be condemned and

REMARKABLE PERFORMANCE OF COLORED TOTS

Negro Proficiency Exploited By Embryonic Future Artists From Langston University.

MUSKOGEE, June 9.—Langston University achieved a great triumph here last Friday evening in a recital rendered by four people who had been brought to Muskogee under the auspices of Mr. T. J. Elliott's Club of the First Baptist Church. The principal characters appearing in this recital were two tiny Colored tots, aged five years, one of them being Margie Marquess, daughter of President and Mrs. J. M. Marquess, and the other, Sammie Saddler, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Samuel Saddler of Langston University. In presenting their program, the little Misses Marquess and Saddler were assisted by Madam C. Shelor, instructor of Voice Culture, and Miss Beulah Douglass, head of the Instrumental Music Department of Langston.

The tiny performers announced each number of the program themselves, and their singing and playing brought round after round of applause from appreciative audience present. The remarkable proficiency in memory work of these little children was shown by at least a dozen nursery dittoes and an equal number of recitations. The exercises in ear training, the songs, duets both vocal and instrumental rendered by these prodigees would have been remarkable in persons much older, and would have been classed as highly creditable if performed by children of any other race.

Madam Shelor's vocal solo, "The Kiss Waltz," sung in Italian was a gem of the purest ray serene and was heartily enjoyed. Miss Beulah Douglass' instrumental solo was applauded to the echo and showed her remarkable gifts as a pianist. Both of these ladies were compelled to respond to encores.

Preliminary to the presentation of the program, Mrs. L. C. Clark, Music Supervisor of the Muskogee Schools, was called on by Mr. T. J. Elliott, master of ceremonies, to introduce the artists from Langston. In her remarks, Mrs. Clark paid a high tribute to the efficiency of the Langston faculty and pointed out the unequalled opportunities afforded students and teachers at Langston. Mr. Elliott, who had but recently returned from Langston, where he had attended the closing exercises, expressed the opinion that he had seen with his own eyes the work accomplished at the University and for that reason he had no hesitancy in commending the institution in the highest terms. He urged all of his hearers to encourage in every way possible and to stand by Langston as it was deserving of the unanimous support of all the Colored people of Oklahoma.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE DIVINE PLAN

dashed to pieces in the day of Inspection or Judgment.

In conclusion, I beg to suggest that the progress of God's great plan, which no man can hinder, can properly be likened to a great building while in progress of construction, appears to be everything else but beautiful; but when it is finished, and the rough scaffoldings are torn down it is seen or can be seen in its beauty and grandeur. So it is with God's great plan of the ages. When the unsightly scaffoldings of race hatred, war, destruction, envy, sickness, sorrow, pain, death and evil in all its various forms are torn down, it is then that the beauty and grandeur of Jehovah's design will be made manifest to all the world. In the finished and polished product of God's plan will all his creatures both in Heaven and in earth fully and joyfully recognize his unequalled justice, power, wisdom and love. Then the desire of all nations will have fully come.

KEEPING FIT FOR SUMMER COMFORT

Of First Importance—Clothing—It's Care

Let us protect your furs and winter clothing this summer in our moth and germ proof storage valuts. The cost is very trivial and the saving in clothing very great.

Assuredly the weight and mode of summer clothing has much to do with one's comfort during the hot summer months—but of more than generally recognized importance is the care of the clothing to keep physically fit.

Hot weather is the perfect breeding season for all manner of germs and insects injurious to health as well as clothing. The usual excessive heat, sapping at man's vitality, renders him more susceptible to those germs which prey upon the human body.

Soiled clothing, hot and sticky with perspiration easily forms accumulations of these germs and nourish them on to greater quantities. Continual wear of these garments retain the germs in close contact with the body so their attack may be more vulnerable.

Only proper care of the clothing during this season will protect your health from their ravages. And in this service we are better than ever prepared to protect the health of Tulsa.

Our method of clothes service is more than cleaning—it means absolute renovation of the clothing and extermination of every germ. Then, too, you will find in their refreshened appearance a goodly amount of comfort.

Start now to protect your health by using this health protection service and continue throughout the danger period.

PANAMA AND STRAW HATS

Will need an occasional renovating too, to keep them sanitary and beautiful in appearance through the hot summer months. In this work we use the famous South American method which thoroughly cleanses, without the use of acid or anything that will injure finest fibers.

These Thieves Were Very Choice.

The thieves that broke in the residence of Dr. Jackson Smitherman at 411 E. Haskell street last Monday afternoon were persons of excellent choice and taste. Doubtless they had acquired high notions by noticing the high prices of suits and diamonds in the windows of clothing and jewelry stores along Main street, down town. Anyway, while the Doctor's family were absent from their domicil last Monday, these connoisseurs availed themselves of the opportunity and swiped six suits of clothes and five diamond rings belonging to the well known Tulsa physician. While they may not have taken all the suits Dr Smitherman owns, it seems almost likely that he will file application for membership in the "Overall Club," if these base marauders are not apprehended and his property returned.

"Hell-Fire Doctrine" Debate on!

Many Out of Town Visitors Expected

SENSATIONAL DEBATE ON TORMENT INTERESTS EVERYBODY

Sermons of Star's Religious Contributor Attracts Attention All Over the Country.

It goes without saying almost that the debate to be held on the evening of the 18th at Convention Hall on the subject "Torment" between Mr. Richard J. Hill, the well known Tulsa attorney and "Black Billy Sunday," of Waco, Texas, eclipses all other events ever taking place in the city of Tulsa. It is not only being talked and whispered about in numerous homes and public places in Tulsa, but it is discussed in all cities of Oklahoma reached by The Star. Not alone that a number of leading Colored newspapers in different parts of the country have taken the matter up.

Another thing which will tend to increase and widen local interest in this debate is the fact that Mr. Hill has found it necessary to issue a public notice, appearing elsewhere in these columns, wherein he states that he has been informed "that a few pastors of the local churches have busied themselves in warning their members to stay away from the lectures being given at 618 East Archer street, by International Bible Students every first and third Sunday in each month." Of course these attacks, if true, as alleged by Mr. Hill, serve to advertise these lectures which are being afforded the people of Tulsa for religious instruction at the personal expense of Mr. Hill himself. That is how far his firm belief he has "the light and truth" and his enthusiasm carry him. In this notice Mr. Hill commends other local preachers who are not attempting to interfere with his evangelistic propoganda, and closes by warning those who heed the advice of their pastors, that said pastors know if they "come into light, down goes his (the preacher's) pork-chops." The discussion of Mr. Hill's doctrines in the pulpits of the city can only serve to increase public interest in the coming debate, and as it is to be free there can be no valid reason for any one seeking information on both sides of the question "Is there a Hell of Fire and Brimstone?" to remain away.

A Hell Roaring Time.

The widespread interest throughout the State, indicates one of the largest and most representative gatherings ever brough to Tulsa will greet the contestants in the forensic clash next Friday evening, June 18, when Attorney Richard J. Hill, and the world famed Evangelist, "Black Billy Sunday" will clash in one of the greatest Bible discussions ever witnessed in the country. The Convention Hall, which is the largest auditorium in the city, has been secured for this battle of giants. No other event in the history of Tulsa has created such wide-spread discussion among all classes, regardless of race or color or denominational affiliation as this unusual debate on the Doctrine of "Eternal Torment." "Is there a Hell of Real Brimstone and Fire?" That is the biggest question that has ever been argued in the Religious World.

Attorney Richard J. Hill, in a series of published articles, that have regularly appeared in the columns of the "STAR" has attacked this doctrine of Hell, Fire and Brimstone as a relic of the Dark Ages, that should be discarded in this age of enlightenment. His opponent, Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, or "Black Billy Sunday" as he is widely known through the length and breadth of the country, will handle the affirmative side, and declares that no amount of Worldly Wisdom or enlightenment can blot out the enternal fires of Hell, or change the plans of Divine Justice. The interest in the coming debate has created about as much interest as the Chicago Convention, hundreds of laymen, ministers, and nonchristians will make the journey from Muskogee, Okmulgee, Sapulpa, Haskell, Taft Red Bird, Braggs, and adjoining communities to hear this unusual debate. There will be no admission fee, but a Silver offering will be taken at the door to cover the heavy expense of hall rent and publicity.

May it be said to the credit of Attorney Hill, that he is a highly respected resident of Tulsa, and has a large following in both races among those who are liberal in their religious views. It can be safely predicted that his many adherents will be on the job to root for their champion. On the other hand, "Black Billy Sunday has the unique distinction of having addressed the largest mixed gatherings in the country and millions in all parts of the South. Millions have been thrilled by his burning eloquence and fiery oratory. He is a champion of the Old Time Gospel and an uncompromising defender of the doctrine of "Hell, Fire and Brimstone." He is a forceful speaker and one of the most convincing debaters in the country and this of itself means that there is going to be a Hell roaring time when these exponents of Liberal and Orthordox Religious schools, give their interpretation of the Bible.

This debate will furnish thought for thousands of Religious workers and Bible students, and will be worth going many miles to hear, as there will be a rush for seats. The doors will be opened at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, June 18, at the Convention Hall. The debate will be proceeded by an old time Gospel and Jubilee song service, every one is urged to come early to secure seats.

The doctrines promulgated so bravely and boldly by Mr. Hill in the columns of The Tulsa Star have attracted comment in the East, and this is shown by the following clipping, headlines and all, taken from the last issue of the Baltimore, Md., Afro-American:

"There Is No Such Place As Hell Oklahoma Minister Condmens Preachers of Eternal Punishment.

Hell and Grave One.

Lake of Fire and Brimstone Said to be Figurative—Only.

One man has been found who does not believe in Hell. He is the Rev. Richard J. Hill and he is a prominent minister of Tulsa.

Not only does Rev. Hill believe that the idea of hell is contrary to the Scripture and blasphemy of God's character, but he comes out in a sermon which he condemns other ministers for preaching eternal punishment.

Rev. Hill says "every intelligent minister knows or should know that the greatest punishment that God has provided for every wilful sinner is death everlasting from which there will be no resurrection. They also know that hell and the grave mean one and the same thing, such oblivion, a state of non existence.'

The lake of fire and brimstone mentioned in the scripture was said to be symbolic only of the garbage furnace located outside of the city of Jerusalem in the Valley of Hinnon

According to Rev. Hill, the hellfire doctrine woefully misrepresents the Scripture and he challenges any man in any city or state to a public debate on the question.

Rev. Hill said the word Hell, occurred thirty-one times in the Old Testament. The Hebrew word is "Sheol" and the English meaning is 'grave.' 'Hell occurrs twelve times in the New Testament. The Hebrew word there is 'Gehenna,' and the reference is to the swamp outside Jerusalem, where the city people burn their garbage."

G. O. P. Convention Still in Doubt!

"Black Billy Sunday"

The noted Evangelist who has accepted the challange of Richard J. Hill to debate the question of whether there is a literal "Hell of fire and brimstone" for the eternal torture of human beings, and the two will meet to debate the question in the convention hall next Friday night.

A. F. L. Wipes Out "Jim Crow Line"

Stormy Session Sees Race Fight When Negroes Get Equal Rights.

ACTION UNPARALLELED

For First Time In History Black Freight Handlers Given Equal Privileges.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MONTREAL, Canada, June 10—The American Federation of Labor in its annual convention today wiped out the "color line" and warned affiliated international unions that Negro workers must be given full and equal membership with white men.

The federation's action at the end of a stormy session, nearly resulted in a "race war" between delegates from Southern States and the Negroes and their sympathizers.

Rejecting the recommendation of its organization committee, the federation, for the first time in history, threatened the autonomy of an affiliated union by requesting the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks to give the Negro freight handlers, express and station employes full membership and eliminate from its constitution the words "white only."

The committee's report of "non-concurrence" on the ground that the federation had no power to interfere with the constitution of an affiliated union, immediately drew the first of Negro delegates and those of several Northern States.

There was a voluminous exchange of oratory in which the Negroes charged "taxation without representation" and discrimination" to which their opponents replied with accusations and betrayal of Negro workers of the whites in past labor disputes.

Indignation of the Negro delegates was aroused several times when speakers referred to them as "nigger" freight handlers and their objection to such remarks was sustained by the acting chairman, Jas. Duncan. They charged that the use of the word "nigger" was a slander to the race.

Many Graduate At Tuskegee.

(A. N. P. Service)

TUSKEGEE, Ala., June 8.—Diplomas were awarded to 129 graduates of Tuskegee Institute, Wednesday. This brought to a close the thirty-ninth annual commencement exercises. There was assembled one of the largest crowds of visitors ever brought together for these exercises. Beginning Sunday with a sermon by Dr. Henry Churchill King, president of Oberlin College, the week's programme has been crowded with interesting events.

Mr. Allen Harris of this city spent a few days in Kansas City recently and says he intends to locate there.

DALLAS, Tex., June 10.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of the Texas Jurisdiction in session here today, re-elected W. U. Willis of Waco, Grand Chancellor, and J. E. Smith of Dallas, Grand Secretary for the ensuing term. A total of $63,000 was reported on hand in the treasury. Grand Chancellor C. B. Wickham of Oklahoma who was an honored guest of the Texas Grand Lodge, delivered an eloquent and able address during the first day's sessions, and presided one day in the G. C's chair. Many Texas Pythians will attend the Oklahoma Grand Lodge which is to meet in Tulsa in July.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S RULING BENEFITS COLORED SCHOOLS

Excise Boards Have Hi-Jacked Negro Schools Out of 9-Mill Levy Since 1907.

(Star News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 8.—Additional revenue for separate schools for Negroes in Oklahoma will be available in accordance with an opinion written today by R. E. Wood, assistant attorney general, at the request of R. H. Wilson, state school superintendent.

Mr. Wood ruled that county excise boards may make a sufficient levy to maintain separate Negro schools on their estimates provided estimates do not exceed the 10-mill constitutional limit for county purposes. In the past, it has been the belief that no more than a 1-mill levy could be made for Negro schools.

POLITICS: A GAME OF SEE-SAW

Lincoln Johnson Boosted One Day; Attempt Made to Dump Him the Next.

(Star News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—The Georgia delegation decided today to hold a second caucus to consider a move to unseat Henry Lincoln Johnson, the Atlanta Negro who was elected national committeeman. The credentials committee in passing on the Georgia contest last night, unseated a Johnson delegate and plans were then formed to call the delegation together with a view of unseating Johnson.

MORE DEMOCRATS FILING

Office Seekers Ask Nomination at Hands of County Voters.

Filings of democrats for county offices have been on the increase this week, the following, with the exception of two republicans, having signed with the secretary of the county election board for nomination:

James Whitney, county assessor; J. R. Clark, justice of the peace; S. C. Maxey, justice of the peace; W. W. Stuckey, re-election, county treasurer; G. S. Cloud, constable; Denny Jones, constable; George W. Boone, county attorney; G. M. Liston, justice of peace. Of the republicans, the new filings are: W. M. McCullough, sheriff; Ben C. Axley attorney.

WOOD LEADS BUT JOHNSON HOLDS BALANCE OF POWER

Convention Reconvenes Today For Final Big Three Sided Fight

CHICAGO, June 11.—Four ballots in the republican national convention today failed to unite the necessary majority on a nominee.

It was the first time since 1888 that more than three ballots found the party without a choice and the seventh time since the nomination of Lincoln that more than one ballot has been required.

Wood and Lowden were at their high water mark when the convention, after the fourth ballot, adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Johnson had received on the four 7 1-2 votes less than he received on the third. The contest then stood:

Wood 134 1-2; Lowden 289; Johnson 140 1-2; Hoover 5; Harding 61 1-2; Sproul 79 1-2; Coolidge 25; Butler 20; Knox 2; Poindexter 15; Southerland 3; Borah 1; Dupont 2; LaFollette 22; Watson 4.

Wood's net gain after the first ballot was 27 votes. Lowden's was 77 and Johnson's was 17. Thus the big three made accessions to their forces during the four ballots.

Three Cornered Fight

At the adjournment hour it still remained a three-cornered fight between Wood, Lowden and Johnson for the remaining 12 contestants held only 240 scattering votes among them and most of them had been losing steadily since the first ballot, some one of the big three making accessions at their expense.

Johnson Holds Balance.

With these scattering votes Hiram Johnson still was holding the balance of power, his 140 1-2 votes alone even if cast for either Wood or Lowden would not be sufficient to nominate either, and there was not the slightest indication of Johnson delegates deserting their nominee.

GEORGIA DELEGATION HONORS HENRY LINCOLN JOHNSON

This Able Negro Leader Is Chosen National Committeeman. Cohen Also Prominent.

(Star News Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 8.—Henry Lincoln Johnson, the well known and able Republican leader in Ga., has been chosen to represent Georgia as member of the Republican National Committee. Johnson won considerable notice for himself during the preliminary sessions of the National Committee last week on account of his streuous opposition to Lowden delegates. It is generally conceded that Johnson is admirably equipped to fill his new job. Walter L. Cohen, the New Orleans delegate, was selected as member of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE DIVINE PLAN!

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I have been informed that a few Pastors of the local churches have busied themselves warning their members to stay away from lectures being given at 618 East Archer, by International Bible Students every First and Third Sunday of each month. I am glad to note that most of the preachers are rather broad-minded and are beginning to recognize that the International Bible Students have the truth. But I am sorry to say that there are a few ignorant, pin-headed fellows posing as ministers who are bitter enemies to Light or Truth, and whose only object is to keep the poor people in darkness and squeeze all the money out of them they can and make a big show to the world. Listen, dear people of the public, you can put it down that any preacher who warns you to stay away from the International Bible Students' is one who wants to keep you in darkness. He (that pin-headed preacher) knows that we have the light and he also knows that if you come into the light, down goes his (the preachers) pork-chops.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for June 6, "THE JUDGMENT DAY—WHEN AND HOW."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collections.

RICHARD J. HILL.

Long before God said "Let there be light" and long before man was created, God had a well fixed plan of procedure, concerning the Salvation of the human race. Just as any intelligent business man does before beginning the construction of any great building, he makes out a blue-print plan of procedure, just so with Jehovah God. His plans were all out-lined before the foundation of the world.

I think all will agree with me when I say that if anyone would work on a building, planned by the owner, such work would have to be strickly in harmony with the plans and specifications; and all work not in harmony with those plans would be condemned as against the wishes of the owner. Right here I wish to remind you dear friends, that every person who claims to be a christian and attempts to explain the Bible to others is posing as one of God's workmen upon his great plan of Salvation.

Preachers be warned. Do you understand the Great Architect's plan? Are you working strickly in harmony with the blue-print plan, (The Bible) of the ages? You had better begin at once to examine your work before the day of inspection (Judgment) comes.

There is generally just one plan of procedure for the same building and not two, three or a dozen or more plans for it. So it is with Jehovah God, the architect of the Universe. He has one Great Plan for the salvation of humanity.

I beg of you dear friends to call to your minds the unsightly spectacle of hundreds of would-be mechanics standing around the foundation of a great building disputing among themselves as to what the plan of the building is. You can readily understand that the only sensible thing for them all to do would be to study the plan carefully and then procede, working in harmony as they undrstand it. But the facts are that most of the ministers have been so very busy trying to carry out their own selfish plans that they know little or nothing as to what God planned to do before he said "Let there be light."

God knew man would sin before he made him and he could have created man without the ability to commit sin, but he, God, had no idea of creating man, a mere intelligent machine. God then, and long before man was created, had countless numbers of creatures and agents that could not do other than his will. But God had long designed that man should be of such nature that he would love and obey him, (God) from an intelligent appreciation of the fact that to do so (obey God) brings to him, man, the greatest degree of happiness and to do otherwise brings dissapointment, pain and death. Therefore, we can readily see the necessity and philosophy of his creating man with a will of his own and permitting him to learn valuable lessons from the exercise of same.

God knowing in advance, that man would become a victim of sin, his great love and wisdom arranged in advance that he (Man) be rescured down the stream of time after having a long trip of more than six-thousand years upon the angry billows of wars, blood sheds, sickness, sorrow, pain and death. In due time God sent his only son to arrange (through death) for a new trial for Adam and his posterity. When Christ said upon the cross, "It is finished," he meant that a new trial for life everlasting was secured for the human race, now, after this new trial was secured, a day was set in which Adam and his whole race would be brought before the Judgment bar of God and given a most favorable trial for life everlasting on the human plane—the same kind of life Adam had before he sinned. All those in that day, after having had such experience with sin and death and after seeing the love and power of God manifested in the resurrection of the Dead, and who will not hear and obey that priest and king will die the second death—a death from which there will be no resurrection for the reason that Christ will die no more for sinners. The most blessed thing about this Judgment Day is that the one who loved us well enough to lay down his life for us will be the judge. This Judgment Day is also spoken of as the Millenium. Let no one for a moment think this a twenty-four-day; it is a thousand year day. The period between the time when Jesus by his death, secured a new trial for man and the time for that new trial is called, the Gospel age or the period of God's selection. During this time God has been selecting a little flock from every nation, denomination, kindred and tongue to be with his son as close to him as a bride to assist in judging the world in righteousness.

Just now this country is deeply concerned about an election. The theory of an election is that good men of character will be elected from among the people to represent, help, and bless all the people with a wise, just and equitable administration. An election has never meant that all who are not elected to office will have to spend the rest of their days in the penitentiary.

SERMON GALLEY TWO

From Penticost to the second coming of Christ—the end of the Gospel age is the period in which God has been selecting the officers to rule in his kingdom soon to be established in all the earth and it does not mean that all who are not elected must spend eternity in everlasting punishment. Unfortunately, the majority of the preachers have been and are yet maintaining this unscriptorial theory—that all must be elected to go to Heaven during this Gospel age or spend eternity in a Lake of Fire and Brimstone. They have attempted to apply the scriptural rules governing the election of the little flock to the world of mankind in general, hence, we note the muddle and great misunderstanding. You can not make the Bible statements fit in God's great plan unless you place them where they belong.

During this Gospel Age the Lord has not been dealing with any one but those who have entered the race for the Great prize. He is only dealing with those who have agreed to walk in the narrow path of suffering with the Lord in order that they may be selected to reign with him when his kingdom is set up.

Order, is Heaven's first law, and Jehovah God has order in his dealings with fallen humanity. He has not been dealing permiscuously with the whole human family. During the Patriachal age he only dealt with the Patriarchs, Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. During the Jewish age he only dealt with the Jews and during the Gospel Age, he is and has only been dealing with the electors—the little flock, the ones running for the great prize of life immortal on the devine plan. In other words he is only dealing with those who are aspiring to be judges of the world in righteousness when the kingdom is set up. The Bride of Christ, the little flock, has almost made herself ready and soon will be united in Heavenly wedlock to her Bridegroom and Lord. After which the Great Judgment or human restitution will begin. Then the whole race of mankind, including Father Adam, will have a chance to gain life everlasting on the human plane. It is after the marriage of the land, which is in the near future, when God will begin with the whole world of mankind. He has a day set, the Judgment or Millenium Day wherein he will judge the whole world in righteousness.

Someone may say, "well I do not see anything so very great in everlasting life on the human plane," but friends stop and think for a moment. Man will be perfect physically, mentally and morally. There will be no sickness, sorrow, pain, death, or any such thing to molest and disturb. The Devil will be chained and finally destroyed. Every individual will be a King. The whole earth will be as the garden of Eden. If you would get some idea as to what a perfect individual will be, call to mind all the physical beauty there is in the whole world, all the knowledge of science, art, oratory, music and what not and combine all these qualities in one individual and as great as this might seem to us we must remember that such qualities represented in such an individual would only be a feeble remnant of the qualities of a perfect man which qualities have been in process of deterioration for more than six thousand years.

Friends I would not have you misunderstand me. The Churches' hopes are not life everlasting on the human plane, but life immortal on the Divine plane—the same kind of life on the same plane as Jehovah God far above angels, principalities and powers. This immortal life on the same plane with Jehovah God is the Great Prize for which the little flock is running during this Gospel Age.

Man has not been satisfied to work according to God's plan. God did not plan the conversion of the world during the Gospel Age. His time for converting the world is after the Gospel Age, or period of election, is ended. The electing and qualifying of the little flock during this age is preparatory and for the very purpose of converting the world to Godliness.

Under the blinding inflence of Satan the majority of the preachers have been acting upon the theory that God was trying to convert the world during the Gospel Age. They have busied themselves warning the people to join the church pay their dues and go straight to Heaven when they die, or do otherwise and go to Hell to burn forever. They have been all along impressing the poor people that the building of expensive church houses and paying fat salaries to the parson are very necessary works to be done in order to keep their names upon the Lamb's Book of Life. Every reasonable minded and earnest hearted person can now see that God did not plan the conversion of the world during this Gospel Age for the reason that aside from the plain Bible SERMON GALLEY THRE statement to the effect that the conversion of the world is to begin at the close of the Gospel Age, there is more sin and sinners in the world today than were when the Gospel Age began.

I am sure all earnest hearted persons will agree with me when I say that all work done in the name of God is not strictly in accord with his plan will be condemned and

REMARKABLE PERFORMANCE OF COLORED TOTS

Negro Proficiency Exploited By Embryonic Future Artists From Langston University.

MUSKOGEE, June 9.—Langston University achieved a great triumph here last Friday evening in a recital rendered by four people who had been brought to Muskogee under the auspices of Mr. T. J. Elliott's Club of the First Baptist Church. The principal characters appearing in this recital were two tiny Colored tots, aged five years, one of them being Margie Marquess, daughter of President and Mrs. J. M. Marquess, and the other, Sammie Saddler, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Samuel Saddler of Langston University. In presenting their program, the little Misses Marquess and Saddler were assisted by Madam C. Shelor, instructor of Voice Culture, and Miss Beulah Douglass, head of the Instrumental Music Department of Langston.

The tiny performers announced each number of the program themselves, and their singing and playing brought round after round of applause from appreciative audience present. The remarkable proficiency in memory work of these little children was shown by at least a dozen nursery dittoes and an equal number of recitations. The exercises in ear training, the songs, duets both vocal and instrumental rendered by these prodigees would have been remarkable in persons much older, and would have been classed as highly creditable if performed by children of any other race.

Madam Shelor's vocal solo, "The Kiss Waltz," sung in Italian was a gem of the purest ray serene and was heartily enjoyed. Miss Beulah Douglass' instrumental solo was applauded to the echo and showed her remarkable gifts as a pianist. Both of these ladies were compelled to respond to encores.

Preliminary to the presentation of the program, Mrs. L. C. Clark, Music Supervisor of the Muskogee Schools, was called on by Mr. T. J. Elliott, master of ceremonies, to introduce the artists from Langston. In her remarks, Mrs. Clark paid a high tribute to the efficiency of the Langston faculty and pointed out the unequalled opportunities afforded students and teachers at Langston. Mr. Elliott, who had but recently returned from Langston, where he had attended the closing exercises, expressed the opinion that he had seen with his own eyes the work accomplished at the University and for that reason he had no hesitancy in commending the institution in the highest terms. He urged all of his hearers to encourage in every way possible and to stand by Langston as it was deserving of the unanimous support of all the Colored people of Oklahoma.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE DIVINE PLAN

dashed to pieces in the day of Inspection or Judgment.

In conclusion I beg to suggest that the progress of God's great plan, which no man can hinder, can properly be likened to a great building while in progress of construction, appears to be everything else but beautiful; but when it is finished, and the rough scaffoldings are torn down it is seen or can be seen in its beauty and grandeur. So it is with God's great plan of the ages. When the unsightly scaffoldings of race hatred, war, destruction, envy, sickness, sorrow, pain, death and evil in all its various forms are torn down, it is then that the beauty and grandeur of Jehovah's design will be made manifest to all the world. In the finished and polished product of God's plan will all his creatures both in Heaven and in earth fully and joyfully recognize his unequalled justice, power, wisdom and love. Then the desire of all nations will have fully come.

KEEPING FIT FOR SUMMER COMFORT

Of First Importance—Clothing—It's Care

Assuredly the weight and mode of summer clothing has much to do with one's comfort during the hot summer months—but of more than generally recognized importance is the care of the clothing to keep physically fit.

Hot weather is the perfect breeding season for all manner of germs and insects injurious to health as well as clothing. The usual excessive heat, sapping at man's vitality, renders him more susceptible to those germs which prey upon the human body.

Soiled clothing, hot and sticky with perspiration easily forms accumulations of these germs and nourish them on to greater quantities. Continual wear of these garments retain the germs in close contact with the body so their attack may be more vulnerable.

Only proper care of the clothing during this season will protect your health from their ravages. And in this service we are better than ever prepared to protect the health of Tulsa.

Our method of clothes service is more than cleaning—it means absolute renovation of the clothing and extermination of every germ. Then, too, you will find in their refreshened appearance a goodly amount of comfort.

Start now to protect your health by using this health protection service and continue throughout the danger period.

PANAMA AND STRAW HATS

Will need an occasional renovating too, to keep them sanitary and beautiful in appearance through the hot summer months. In this work we use the famous South American method which thoroughly cleanses, without the use of acid or anything that will injure finest fibers.

Our battery is the largest in the southwest and contains every equipment to properly care for your requirements. Our corps of hatters is of the highest trained experts obtainable.

"Six Fast Autos Cover the Entire City."

Let us protect your furs and winter clothing this summer in our moth and germ proof storage valuts. The cost is very trivial and the saving in clothing very great.

Pastor Advocates Hoe Industry.

(A. N. P. Service)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 8.—Dr. W. N. DeBerry, the pastor of the largest Colored church in this city is advocating farm labor for the Colored people who have recently migrated into the New England States and in other sections of the North. He has obtained a large farm in the vicinity of Springfield which he is using for demonstrating purposes. He is meeting with much success in the venture.

Anti-Lynching Bill Proposed.

(A. N. P. Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—An Anti-Lynching Bill has been reported for favorable action by the House Judiciary Committee. Under the provisions of the measure any resident would be entitled to appeal for protection on the ground that he had reasonable cause to believe that equal protection of the laws would be denied him in State Courts. Participants in mobs would be subject to fine and imprisonment and counties in which lynching occurred would be subject to a forfeiture of $10,000.

Langston Ladies Visit Muskogee.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MUSKOGEE, June 8.—The party of ladies from Langston University, consisting of Mrs. J. M. Marquess, wife of the President, Madam C. Shelor, instructor of Voice Culture, Miss Beulah Douglass, head of the instrumental music department, Litile Misses Margie Marquess and Sammie Saddler, and Miss May Elliott, assistant teacher at Nowata, Okla., were the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Elliott in their palatial and beautiful home on the west side during their stay. They were also guests of exquisite and dainty luncheons given in their honor by Mrs. L. C. Clark and Mrs. O. B. Jefferson. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Jefferson they were given an enjoyable auto ride over the city thus visiting all the sights of the city. The Misses Nadine Davis, Freddie Riley and Cavassa Satterwhite, along with quite a number of others have gone to Langston to take in the course at the Summer School.

These Thieves Were Very Choice.

The thieves that broke in the residence of Dr. Jackson Smitherman at 411 E. Haskell street last Monday afternoon were persons of excellent choice and taste. Doubtless they had acquired high notions by noticing the high prices of suits and diamonds in the windows of clothing and jewelry stores along Main street, down town. Anyway, while the Doctor's family were absent from their domicil last Monday, these connoisseurs availed themselves of the opportunity and swiped six suits of clothes and five diamond rings belonging to the well known Tulsa physician. While they may not have taken all the suits Dr. Smitherman owns, it seems almost likely that he will file application for membership in the "Overall Club," if these base marauders are not apprehended and his property returned.

Grand Jury Indicts Cop.

(A. N. P. Service)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 8.—The local Grand Jury indicted Patrolman B. J. Bryant, white, last Monday on a charge of murder in the first degree for the killing of Lee Turner, a Negro fireman. In his charge to the new Grand Jury, Judge J. Ed Richards called special attention to the frequent killing of persons by officers of the law. Upon his advice the jury investigated the Turner killing and indicted Patrolman Bryant.

Angry Duluth Mob Kills Three!

Police Fight Mob Off With Water

5,000 IN DULUTH OVERRIDE POLICE

Three Blacks Lynched; One Within Two Blocks of Police Station.

THREE ARE ACQUITTED.

Crowd Holds Court and Lets Two Go—Take Entire Possession of Bastile.

TROOPS ARE CALLED OUT

Two Companies Ordered to Entrain for City—White Girl Is Attacked.

(By Associated Press.)

DULUTH, Minn., June 15.—Three Negroes were lynched here tonight by a mob estimated at 5,000 persons, which overpowered the police and took possession of police headquarters and seized the Negroes, who were held in connection with an attack on a young white girl.

Not a shot was fired in the attack on the police station, the members of the mob using bricks and other missiles and in the final stages of the fight, streams of water from fire hose taken from the police themselves.

A mock trial was held by the mob in the station and three Negroes were found guilty and three others also held in connection with the assault were acquitted, and turned back to the police.

Shortly after midnight the mob still surrounded the police station, but gave no indication of further trouble. The police believed the mob would disperse without other disorder.

It was reported that automobiles loaded with members of the mob, started at midnight toward Virginia, where it was said four other Negroes are held in connection with the case.

The Negroes were roustabouts with a circus, and the attack on the 17-year-old white girl took place on the circus grounds last night. The circus was in Virginia today and it was said eight Negroes were taken into custody there, but only four held.

One report was that the Virginia authorities and John Murphy, Duluth's chief of police, had started back to Duluth with these four suspects before the mob trouble had started. It was understood the party had been diverted to another city. The Negroes hanged were Isaac McGhie, Elmer Jackson and Nate Groen, all about 22 years old. They were lynched in the order named at 11:30 p. m., 11:38 p. m. and 11:45 p. m. respectively. All professed innocence.

First indications the downtown district received of the trouble brewing came at 7 o'clock when trucks loaded with men dashed through the principal streets, the men calling for "volunteers to avenge the wrong done the white girl."

There was ready response and it was estimated the mob numbered 5,000 when storming of the jail began about 8 o'clock. Police headquarters is just west of the city hall with a front entrance on Superior street, Duluth's main business thoroughfare, and a rear basement entrance on Michigan street.

On both streets the mob gathered, surging toward both entrances. The police had made preparations to put up a fight with streams of water from fire hose. The first concerted attack was on the rear entrance. The mob took quick advantage of a pile of bricks nearby. Bricks were sent flying through windows and against the rear door, which finally gave in.

This let the mob into the basement and as it started up the stairs to the first floor, strong spurts of water washed its members back.

Bricks again were brought into play and as the battle waged at the rear others of the mob obtained a section of house and started an assault on the front.

Here, too, the police were prepared, and in the water duel which ensued, neither side had a marked advantage until the mob managed to cut the police hose. This caused a momentary retreat by the police, and the mob began battering down the front door.

After entrance had been forced, the police offered no further resistance, realizing, they said, that attempts to use fire arms would turn the disturbance into a riot of more serious proportions and probably cause loss of life.

Within th police station the mob faced two heavy steel doors, barring the way to the prisoner's cells. With a large timber, the steel doors were battered down after an hour's attack.

It took only a few minutes to force open the cages and gain possession of the Negro suspects.

On the second floor of the station a mock trial was held. The three Negroes declared guilty were taken to Second avenue east and First street about one and a half blocks away.

McGhie was the first to feel the noose. He cried for mercy, declaring his innocence. Two Catholic priests called upon the crowd to let the law take its course but their please were unheeded.

One priest, Father F. J. Howard, climbed 15 feet up an electric light pole and again pleaded with the mob. He was met by hoots and cries of "remember the girl—lynch them."

Twice McGhie was jerked into the air to the shouts of the mob, and each time the rope broke. "God be with them, I am not the right man," was his last cry as the third trial he went to his death.

Scott Ferris Files For Senator.

(A. N. P. Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. June 16.—Congressman Scott Ferris, of Lawton, representing the Sixth District in the lower house of congress, who has been engaged in an active campaign for several months for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, filed his application for a place on the primary ballot with the state election board last week. Senator Gore is the only other Democrat who has filed. Twelve Republicans, "Dynamite" Ed Perry, Coalgate; Sumner T. Bisbeen; Ernest E. Blake, Henry Powers and Charles L. McGuire, of Oklahoma City; Albert A. Small, Tulsa; E. M. Clark, Pawnee; Cash Cage Shawnee; Ben Thompson, Sapulpa; Parren D. Lindsay, Hominy; James B. Cullison, Enid; N. D. Welty, Bartlesville, have filed for the G. O. P. senatorial nomination.

Considerable misunderstanding has arisen from some of the newspaper accounts of the filing, a few days ago M. L. Turner, of Oklahoma City, as an "Independent Democrat" candidate. Turner's name will not appear on the primary ballot and will in no sense affect the campaign between Ferris and Gore for the Democratic nomination at the August 3 election. Turner filed as a candidate subject to the regular election in November. The only question relative to the acceptance of his candidacy by the state election board is in the manner in which his name will appear on the November ballot. In his application to the election board he asks that the ballot read: "M. L. Turner, Independent Democrat." Secretary W. C. McAlister, of the state election board, said he is of the opinion that this cannot be done and that Turner's name will have to go on the November ballot as an "Independent" candidate. It is probable that the election board will ask an opinion from the attorney general's department of this phase of the question.

Turner was one of a number of candidates who contested in the statewide primary of 1907 for the nomination as United States senator on the Democratic ticket. Senator Owen lead the list, Judge Henry M. Furman was second and Gore was third. Because of a "gentlemen's agreement" to the effect that the east and west sides of the state should have a representative in the United States Senate Judge Furman, who with Senator Owen were east side candidates, although Furman received the second highest number of votes, withdrew his name and the short term election went to Gore.

Louisiana House Rejects Suffrage.

(Star News Service)

BATON ROUGE, La., June 16—The lower house of the Louisiana legislature, by a vote of 67 to 41, recently, rejected a resolution calling for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment.

The senate last week defeated the ratification resolution.

After the defeat of the Shattuck resolution providing for the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment, the house, by a vote of 60 to 39, adopted the Jordan resolution, which puts the house of representatives on record as opposed to federal suffrage. Prior to the vote on suffrage the house declined to hear Congressman Baker, of California, who wanted to speak in support of suffrage.

Civil Service Is Not Only Avenue.

(Star News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—One official here, Assistant Postmaster Haycock, believes that the civil service is not sufficiently tight enough as a Negro barrier, and expresses the opinion that there are already enough Colored clerks in the service. For this reason while many Colored civil service applicants of color have passed examinations successfully, none have been appointed for nearly a year. This has not served as any discouragement to the Race, however, as opening in various other fields of honorable and lucrative employment are becoming available every day in the North and East.

Colored Schools Robbed in Maryland Too.

(Star News Service)

BALTIMORE, Md., June 18.—In the town of Crisfield, Somerset County, of this State, while the enrollment of white educable children exceeds that of the Colored educable children by 1,200, the authorities have appropriated six times as much for the maintenance of the white schools than for the Colored. The budget, for instance, provides for $83,000 to pay salaries for the white teachers, and only $14,000 for the Colored. The salary of a white supervisor is fixed at $1,500 and that of the Colored at $750. This great disparity in salaries is characteristic of all the other salaries of the Colored employes, and this despite the fact that no discount of fifty per cent on the cost of living is accorded to Colored teachers. The Baltimore Afro-American will soon begin suit to compel the Somerset County authorities appropriate more money for the Colored schools.

Negro Preacher Revers "Stonewall"

(Star News Service)

ROANOAK, Va., June 18.—A mild sensation in the congregation of the Fifth avenue Presbyterian Church, (Colored), was recently created by the action of its pastor, Rev. L. L. Downing, who erected a memorial window in the church dedicated to the late distinguished Confederate General, "Stonewall" Jackson. The window was designed to portray Jackson's last words: "Let us cross over the river and rest in the shade of the trees." The scene depicts a log cabin in one of the Shenendoah valleys with soldiers, and arms stacked, weeping and praying. It appears that the Rev. Downing was prompted to this act from feelings of gratitude to the General who had taught Downing's slave parent, in a Colored Presbyterian church at Lexington, while he was serving as Professor at the Virginia Military Institute. It is said the General during his celebrated campaigns during the civil war always remembered to contribute for the support of the Colored Sabbath School of which he had been a teacher.

Negro Gets Consideration.

Colorado Court Upholds Civil Rights Law

(Star News Service)

DENVER, Colo., June 18.—In January, 1918, Mr. Darius was refused servic in a bootblack stand, and brought suit against the proprietor. When brought to trial, the case was decided against Mr. Darius, the judge declaring that the business of shoe shining was not a public business and did come under the provisions of the state Civil Rights Act. Upon the advice of the National Office of the Association all of the Colored Branches of the Association united in raising funds and employing lawyers to take the caseto the State Supreme Court. When this was done the decision of the lower court was reversed. Apostolos applied for and was granted a rehearing on the constitutionality of the Civil Rights Act. When the case was retried a decision was rendered declaring that a boot black stnd was place of public ecommodation and that Mr. Darius, could recover from the owner of the stnd who had discriminated against him.

The decision is of great importnce because of the effect it will have in othr cases which may come up in the state courts in the future.

WANTS TO DEBATE "HELL-FIRE" QUESTION

Rev. F. F. Moten, well known soul winner and preacher, who arrived in Tulsa last week from Okmulgee, is anxious to meet Mr. Richard J. Hill and debate the question: "Is there a Hell of Fire and Brimstone."

Rev. Moten is here for the purpose of conducting revival meetings at A. M. E. Church, of which Rev. Tucker is pastor. He has considerable experience in California, Missouri, Texas and other states and has achieved quite a reputation for his puipit and vocal powers. Rev. Moten was at Hill-"Black Billy Sunday' debate Friday night, and realizing that "Billy" made such a poor defense of the Bible, he wants to enter the ring with our Mr. Hill. The latter picks no favorites and is willing to meet anybody, anywhere, so he can expound the truth and the light as he sees it. This debate will be of interest if it can be arranged to get both of them at the Bible Students Hall on East Archer.

NOTICE—A CORRECTION.

"Earth's Jubilee" will be the subject discussed by Mr. Hill tomorrow afternoon at the Masonic hall. Thru an error this subject was left out of his "Notice to the Public" preceding his article in this issue.—Editor.

Teacher-Trainers Organize.

They recommended for future places of meeting, Tuskegee Institute, Hampton Institute, and the Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges. They agreed that the one-week sssion is desirable. Permanent officers of the Colored Association of State Teacher-Trainers were elected: G. W. Owens, Petersburg, Va., president; F. H. Cardozo, Albany, Ga., vice president; R. E. Malone, Greensboro, N. # Essence Of The Debate On The Doctrine of Eternal Torment

Between Richard J. Hill of Tulsa And J. Gordon McPherson of Houston

(By Rev. Gorden McPherson).

I read this article in one of your local papers; "Examine your preachers and get rid of fire and brimstone peddlers. The Doctrine of Eternal Torment is blasphemy on God's character, is contrary to the Scripture and has done more to blind the minds concerning God's plan of Salvation than all other errors combined. Every intelligent minister knows, or should know, that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for willful sinners is death everlasting, the second death—a death from which there will be no resurrection. They also know tht Hell and the Grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of non-existence. They further know that the lake of fire and brimstone mentioned in the scripture is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are or should be, fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs and principal cities, while they really existed, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers including our Lord Jesus, many times, used the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal cesspool or garbage burner, (designated in the Bible as the valley of Hinnon, the lake burning with fire and brimstone) to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of Righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established in the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in it that will hurt or offend. According to the rules governing the literal city, (made of stone, cement, brick and morter) all filth was to be cast into the literal cesspool or lake burning with brimstone to be consumed. So will it be in the Anti-Typical city, the New Jerusalem which is not made of literal stone, cement, brick and morter, but of justice, power, love and wisdom. The Anti-Typical cesspool or lake of fire which is to consume the filth of this Anti-Typical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone, but is the second death. In other words, the cesspool or garbage burner to the New Jerusalem is the second death."

I shall not attempt to read you all of this article, but I want to remind you that it is the aim to make you believe that there is no Hell. I shall read further and then I am through.

"You humble hearted Christians who desire to know the truth and do the will of God, I beg to remind you that any preacher who either preaching or endorsing by silence the Hell Fire Doctrine is an enemy to the truth and infense of the good name of Jehovah, and not in the sense of a "know all," I challenge any minister in Tulsa or Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, or any where, who is so unfortunate as to believe that the Bible teaches an eternity of tortures for sinners, to defend his position before my face and the public. I say further that any minister who ignores this challerge on this most important subject and continues by word or silent endorsement to teach this Hell Fire Doctrine, is a wolf in sheep's clothing and has not the interest of the sheep at heart but only desires to fleece them (get the money) and make a show to the world."

This is none other than the teachings of the late Pastor Russel: Ladies and gentlemen, I will give the last drop of blood to defend the people, there is not a single word of truth in this statement that there is no Hell.

He asked the question, "What is the need of a Hell?" Let me say in the words of General "Stonewall" Jackson, "There was one old man who said that he could just hear the sinners frying on the Hell Fire, so a Mr. Cocks, General do you believe that there is a Hell? What do they want with a Hell? The General replied, He would put such fools as you into it."

He said that the word Hell means the Grave and is symbolic of greater things; well if that description is only a symbol, what must the reality be?

If left to themselves, what convict is it, that would not vote the Penetentuarary out? God does not put any body in Hell. God did not make any body in Hell. He gave man a will to make his choice as to where he would go. I dare not say where Pastor Russel is, for he knows now as to whether there is a Hell or not.

The man that is behind this Pastor Russel teachings and that is furnishing the money is an ex-convict, you know that he just came out of jail. Why does he not come out himself? But he hides behind this poor deluted man. Send him out.

I want to say that there is a Hell, read 2 Corr. 33: 6; and you will see where Jesus was talking about Hell. There is a real Hell and if Mr. Hill keeps on at the gait that he is going, he will soon find out. He goes to the Bible for God's goodness, then turns right around and disputes the same Bible, on the punishment for the wicked.

I am like the man who went hunting, "I have sixteen more shots coming."

(Rev. McPherson's opening or preliminary remarks).

The balance of Mr. G. McPherson's argument was principally defamitory attacks upon the character of the late Pastor Russel and the successor to Pastor Russel, J. F. Rutherford, whom he described as an ex-convict and also attacks upon the integrity and intelligence of his opponent, Richard J. Hill.

Negative—By Richard J. Hill

I am quite sure that I do not need as many shots as my opponent. Dear friends, all I wish is to call your attention to an earnest study of the Scripture. I am here to defend the name of Jehovah God. I wish to say that the Eternal Torment Doctrine is blasphemous to the name of Jehovah.

I want to remind the people that the late Pastor Russel was a servant of God and I am glad to be able to tell any where that the God I serve and the God that Pastor Russel served is not a Fire and Brimstone God.

I want to denounce all doctrines contrary to the plan of God. I do it because the people ought to know the truth. We are not here to discuss Pastor Russel. I thought that we were here to discuss the question of Eternal Torment in a lake of fire and brimstone. If my opponent means to win on public sentiment, he is beaten now.

I want to say this about Pastor Russel and I am through. Pastor Russel did two great things; one thing he said, was that the Gentiles had a lease of power for two thousand five hundred and twenty years (2,520), from 606 B. C. to 1914 A. D. He told the world that the Gentile time would end about this time. Let the world answer as to whether this is true or not.

The two worse things that Pastor Russel did, was to throw the water hose of truth on Hell and put out the preachers fire; that was too bad. But he went on telling the truth without money, without price. He gave his fortune of $300,000 to the cause of truth, yet more he gave his life to enlighten the world concerning God's plan. Next he always had seats free, and no collections. The preachers could not stand this. If Pasor Russel had not have done this, he could have advocated, dancing, balling the jack, holy rolling, or anything else; if he only had not have advocated seats free and no collection.

I am sure we did not mean to take so much time to discuss Pastor Russel. Get your Bibles and think. I want you to convince yourselves that Grave means Hell—Psalms, 49: 15; and Hell means Grave—Psalms 55: 15, marginal reading. They both mean the same.

I want to say dear people, think! And do not be lead off by emotionalism. Most of the preaching done over the country is explained by a story told of an old Colored man down in Alabama: The old fellow had a large crop of cotton, full of grass, he worked awhile and went to dinner, leaving the mule to graze in the shade, when he returned, the mule was still standing in the shade He looked at the mule and then at the cotton, and grass all around, he saw so much grass and the sun was shining very hot, so he looked up toward the sky and said: "O Lord, the sun am so hot; the cotton am so grassy and the work am so hard, I'se believe dis Niggar am called to preach," (uproar of laughter). And he has not returned to that cotton patch since. The Colored man is not the only one, whose preaching is based upon the principles of this story.

Man is the subject of this debate. It is important to know what man is, in order to properly determine whether he is of such quality of being capable of everlasting punishment. It is necessary for one to know what a thing is, before he can properly care for that thing. A man who has never seen a sheep or has no knowledge as to what one looks like could not be trusted to go into a bunch of mixed animals and care for the sheep. Such one is liable to pet and care for wolves, bears, goats, etc. All the preachers claim to be busy trying to save souls but if you would ask one, "What is a soul?" or What does it look like?" he would possibly scratch his head and say that is too deep for you and if I would tell you, you would not understand it. As a matter of fact, the majority of the preachers know nothing as to what a soul is, and would not know one if they met it in the road at noon-day.

Man is a soul. "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the earth and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." Gen. 2: 7. The Bible declares that man is of the earth, and that he is not spiritual, First Cor. 15: 45-47. Man is not a spirit being as spirits have not flesh and bones, Luke 24: 39. Spirit beings have spiritual bodies and human beings have human or natural bodies, First Cor. 15: 44. Adam, the first man was not spiritual. "That was not first which is spiritual," First Cor. 15; 46. Man is the highest order of animal life and is composed of Body and Breath of life, which is sometimes called Spirit of Life.

Every creature that breathes is a soul. God applies the word living-soul to the lower order of animals long before the creaton of man, possibly seven thousand years before man was created. Genn. 1: 20-30 Marginal. The word soul is applied to both man and beast in Numbers, 31: 28. It reads thus: "Ard levy a tribute unto the Lord of the men of war which went out to battle; one soul of five hundred, both of the persons and of the beeves, and of asses, and of the sheep." God in his own word declares that both man and beast die alike and go to the same place. The Scripture reads thus, "For that which befalleth the sons of man, befalleth the beasts. Even one thing befalleth them; as the one die so dieth the other; yea! They have all one breath so that man hath no pre-eminence above a beast for all is vanity. All go unto one place; all are of the dust and all change to dust again." Ecc. 3: 19-20.

My opponent will have to admit according to this Scripture that the lower animals are roasting in Eternal Torment with man, for the reason thhat the Scriptures say that they all go to one place at death. My opponent must admit that before one could be eternally tormented, it is necessary to have life immortal. Man is not immortal. Man is a soul, man dies, therefore the soul dies. There is a distinction between eternal life and immortal life. A creature may live eternally and yet not be immortal. Immortality, means that quality of life not subject to death; it means that such creatures cannot die and God even has not the power to destroy such one. Has God the power to destroy the soul? Jesus answers, "Fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body." My opponent will not be able to produce a single scripture text which says that man has an immortal soul. The only scripture that he might use which has the appearance of sustaining the immorality of the soul is found in Genn. 3: 1-5. "Ye shall surely not die." And that was a lie told by the Devil for the purpose of debauching and deceiving Mother Eve. All persons who are advocating that when one dies he is not dead, is sustaining, whether intentionly or ignorantly, the Devil's first old lie, "Thou shall surely not die."

The Bible plainly tells us that God only hath immortality. First Tim. 6: 16. There is a wide distinction between man in general, and one who is a real Consecrated Christian. One line of Scripture applies to man in general, and another and different line of Scripture applies to the real and true followers of Christ. The New Testament speaks of immortality as a promised reward, not an inherent quality. Something man already possesses. Immortality is the greatest reward that God has to bestow upon his fellow creatures who love and serve him. To the Christians, Paul says, "Seek ye immortality," Romans 2: 7. A man does not seek for that which he already possesses. Again, this mortal must put on immortality, First Cor. 15: 53. The Scripture here has no reference to the world of mankind, but to Christians, only. The world of mankind will never possess the quality of immortality. It is to the church the promise is made, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the Crown of Life." The highest element of life is immortality. Rev. 2: 10.

The Scriptures clearly teaches that when man dies he is unconcious, without memory, ceases to speak, breathe, think, feel or hate. The Scriptures in proof of this statement follows: "For in death there is no rememberance of thee; in the grave who shall give thee thanks," Psalms 6: 5. "The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down in silence," Psalms, 115: 17. "Thou taketh away their breath they die and return to the dust." Psalms 104: 29. "His breath goeth forth he returneth to the earth; in that very day his thoughts perish." Psalms 146: 4. A dead man ceaseth to love, ceaseth to hate, and ceaseth to anger," Ecc. 9: 6. Furthermore, the Scripture clearly states that a dead man knowth nothing. Ecc. 9: 5. The dead stop working. "Whatsoever thy hands find to do, do with thy might; for there is nor work nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, whither thou goest." Ecc. 9: 10.

When a man reacheth the point where he cannot remember, cannot give thanks; cannot speak; cannot breathe; does not think; has no feelings; neither loves, hates, or envies, does not work; and knows not anything, he must be actually and completely dead and therefore unconscious.

Sleep is a symbol of death and therefore, since God has made an arrangement to awaken or resurect the billions of humanity, death is spoken of as a sleep. A man sound asleep knows nothing, is not conscious and knows nothing of what transpires during his sleep. So it is in death, as clearly shown in John 11: 1-44, in the case of Lazarus who knew nothing and told nothing concerning himself duriag his four days of death asleep.

The next question which logically follows is where are the dead? The Bible clearly teaches that the dead both good and bad are in Hell, the Grave. Oblivion, a condition the same as if they had not existed. Jacob weighted down with sorrow because of the supposed loss of his son Joseph said, "I will go down to my son Joseph in Sheol (In Hell) mourning." Genn. 37: 35. Genn. 43: 38. Many of the Old Testament prophets whom God approved said that they were going to Hell. Job was a Godly man and after having suffered the loss of all his earthly possessions, his children killed; his wife turned his enemy; his neighbors taunting him because of his suffering; his body putrid from running sores; and while suffering bodily pain and mental anguish, he prayed to God that he might go to Hell. If Hell is a place of eternal Torment does any sane person believe that Job prayed to go to a place to suffer more than he was already? Oh No! He said that he desired to be in Hell until God's wrath be passed. Job 14: 13. He defines Hell. "If I wait, Hell is my house; I have made my bed in the darkness our rest is in the dust," Job 17: 13-16. Again Job said that man passeth away, his sons come to honor and he knows it not, and they are brought low and he perceiveth it not," Job 14: 21. Jesus went to this same Hell as the Psalmist declares in Psalm 16: 10. "Thou will not leave my soul in Hell." The fact is that all persons who die go to the same Hell to which Jesus said Capuanrum would be brought down to it. Matt. 11: 23, reads thus, "And thou, Capernaum, which art asaulted unto Heaven shall be brought down to Hell; for if the mighty works which have done in thee, had been done in Sodom it would have remained unto this day.

ESSENCE OF THE DEBATE ON THE DOCTRINE OF ETERN- TORMENT

Kindly understand me, I do not say that there is not a Hell. There is a Hell! The Bible Hell. But the trouble is that the preachers have put a lot of things into this Hell, Fire, brimstone, forked-tail devils, etc. The Bible Hell is the Grave or Oblivion. The preachers Hell is a place where one is tormented by fire-proof devils through out all eternity. It is this creed or clergy's Hell that I attack and denounce as absolutely false and with out any scriptural foundation. Ezek. 28: 18-19 and in Heb. 2: 14, and 1st John 3: 8, Rev. 20: 10, we are told that the Devil and all his works are to be destroyed. I want my Opponent to tell me and this intelligent congregation, who is going to keep the fires burning when the Devil is destroyed?

Will the wicked be punished? They certainly will. God's law is unchangeable. In the beginning God provided a penalty for the violation of his law stating, "In the day that thou sinneth thou shall surely die." Genn. 2: 17. "The wages of sin is death (Not eternal Torment), Romans 6: 23. God having fixed this penalty for the violation of his law while man was perfect, and before he sinned, could not change the penalty and inflict a different one for the reason that God cannot be inconsistent. "He cannot deny himself," Second Tim. 2: 13. The Scriptures show that the wicked shall perish like the brute beast, Second Peter, 2: 9-12. Will my opponent contend that the mule, the horse, etc., will receive eternal torment? If the doctrine of eternal torment is true, then according to the plain statement of the Scriptures the brute beast shall perish same as the wicked.

There are several other Scriptural points that I would call your attention to but since as I see it, I have no debate, I will proceed to tell you some truths concerning God's plan.

There is no dispute that the dead, both the just and the unjust, will be resurrected. John 5: 28-29. Matt. 25: 31-46 shows that the dead will be raised from their graves and come before Christ to be blessed. From where will they be resurrected? Let the prophet of the Lord answer, "Out of the dust of the earth," Danl. 12: 2. The Judgment of the world will last one thousand years and during that time the Devil will be bound so that he may deceive the nations no more, Rev. 20: 1-3-8. Blessing is to come to the world of mankind through the seed of Abraham. In thy seed shall all the nations be blessed," Genn. 12: 3. Who is the seed of Abraham? In Gal. 4: 16, we are told that this seed is Christ. And in the 29th verse of the same chapter, we are informed that those who consecrate themselves are who are baptised into Christ are Abraham's seed. This blessing to the world of mankind, will come at the close of the Gospel age and after the fulfillment of the things mentioned by our Lord in the 24th chapter of Matt. Which he told us would be an evidence of his presence to take over the Kingdoms of the world and bless mankind.

All reasonable minded persons can now see in process the fulfillment of many of the things spoken by our Lord in this chapter, which is known to Bible Students as the Lord's great prophecy.

Thousands of millions have died and have gone into the tomb in ignorance of Jesus' great sacrifice. My opponent would have you believe that their destiny is eternal torture. Thousands of intelligent men and women of good honest hearts have lived and died not knowing anything of God's Great Plan. Thousands are living today, even in this very city of Tulsa, who know not the Lord or his Great plans. All these my opponent would consign to the flames of a burning Hell.

For a moment let us reflect upon the great sorrow that has filled the earth. We see a fair land drenched in the blood of its inhabitants. We call to mind a blood thirsty, conquering Hero, marching through the country, laying waste to the fields and reducing the homes of a peaceful people to ashes. The widow, mother and children driven into the cold world; the husband, father and brothers slain upon the battle field, the ravages of war, of famine of pestilence destroying peaceful and happy homes, leaving behind broken hearts and broken bodies. For six thousand years the poor human race has suffered under these awful conditions. What hope would my opponent hold out for them? Few, indeed, have ever known of the precious name of Jesus. Few could have known because of the many blinding doctrines that have been taught by two hundred different denominations in this country and thousands of preachers who differ in teachings and doctrines.

Shall we for a moment believe that a just and loving God would permit these poor creatures to suffer so much sorrow and misery at the hands of men and then permit the Devil to burn them in a fire and brimstone Hell to be tortured forever? Thank God this is not true. I am glad we have a message of comfort for the hearts of the people in this hour of peril, I am glad to point out that God's word holds forth a message of hope and that the hour has come for it to be understood, and soon this great flood of truth that is rising shall fill the whole earth until all shall know of the just and loving God. What will the Lord do with these creatures if only a few can go to Heaven? What is the office of the church that is taken to Heaven? The Lord answers through his prophet, Isaah. 42: 6-7. "I the Lord God hath called thee and I will give thee for a covenant for the people, for a light of the nation, to open the blinded eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."

Again Jesus says, "All in their Graves shall hear his voice and come forth the Good to a resurrection of life, the Evil to a resurrection by Judgment." When the Lord brings these forth the first thing they must have is a knowledge of the fact that Christ has died for them and redeemed them from death, and now the opportunity has come for them to live. St. Paul has beautifully declared in these words that God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man, Christ, whom he hath ordained, and of this he has given assurance unto all men in that he raised up Christ Jesus from the dead, Act. 17: 31. This day that he has appointed is the Millennial day, the one thousand year day of Christ's reign in which all shall come to a knowledge of the truth.

And what shall be the reward of those who obey the truth? The Apostle Peter answers: "Repent ye, therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord, and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you; whom the Heavens must receive until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began", Act. 3: 19-20-21. In the language of the Apostle this will be the times of refreshing, blessing for the people, for the reason it is the time of restitution. Restitution means the bringing back to a former condition the things that were lost. What a wonderful hope is held out to humanity! Adam was a perfect man with the right to live upon the earth forever in a perfect home with abundance, peace and happiness. Because of sin all of these he lost, and for more than six thousand years his progeny has passed through the vail of tears. Jesus is to set up his Kingdom and his one thousand year reign is for the express purpose of restoring to mankind all that was lost in Father Adam. Jesus is able to do this because he bought all these rights that man had lost. To use his own words "The Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19: 10.

The Lord Jesus through John the Revelator, gives a wonderful picture of the Kingdom of Messiah. A city is used as a symbol of a government, and a Holy City means Messiah's government. In symbolic language he describes this beautiful government and says: "I heard a great voice out of Heaven saying, 'Behold the Tabernacle (dwelling place) of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them and they shall be his people and God himself will be their God, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away.'" The nations of the earth, the restored people shall walk in the light, in the purity of this Kingdom." Rev. 21: 1-5; 24-26.

We can see a reason why the dead are unconscious while dead, we see that life is the most wonderful thing that one could possess, when it is possessed in perfection. We see that God through Christ Jesus has provided redemption, resurrection and restitution for all who love righteousness and hate iniquity; Jesus bought the rights long ago, and in his righteous reign he shall restore all the obedient ones of Adams stock until the earth is filled with a perfect, happy and beautiful race of people. What a Glorious prospect. Truly the poet has said, "The earth is old with centuries but not for this she hangs her head." Closer to her heart the sorrow lies, she holds so many dead. "But thanks be to God the dark night of sin and death is near an end. Soon the prison house of death shall be opened and the sleeping dead shall come forth." We are thankful to God that we are in the dawn of a new and better time, when the Son of Righteousness is rapidly rising with healing in his being When the brightness of his glorious presence shall shine upon the whole earth then wars shall cease, darkness and ignorance, superstition and falsehood, hatred and malice, slander, crime and death shall be driven away; truth and righteousness shall be enthroned forever.

What will that glorious time of refreshing and restitution mean to the world? Let us forget for a moment the scenes of misery and woe that prevail in the earth now. And having faith in the precious promise of God let us picture in our mental vision the glories of a perfect earth and a perfect people. No more blinded eyes, no more deaf ears, no more crooked limbs. No not an ache or pain, nor any evidence of decay—not even a fear of such things. Call to mind now the most beautiful specimen of humankind you have ever beheld, and then remember that every one of the members of the human family will be of far surpassing loveliness when Christ has completed his reign. The inward purity of mind and heart and moral perfection will stamp every radiane face and mark every act. Every man will love his neighbor as he loves himself, and every one will sit under his own vine and fig tree. Then men will not build and anothe inhabit.

Then behold in mental vision a perfect, righteous, peaceful and happy people, rejoicing in the blessings of a perfect earth which the Lord hath prepared for them. The earth yielding its increase; the desert blooming as a rose; the waste and arid land brought up to the condition of, even to Paradise. Then songs of gladness will fill the earth, and from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof the praises of Jehovah will be heard. "Then they will walk mid the trees by the river with the friends they have loved by their side, they will sing the glad songs of salvation and be ready to follow their guide.

St. John as he stood on the Isle of Patmos and beheld in a vision the beauties and glories of a restored earth and people, described in poetic language, how the songs of gladness will fill the earth and how those songs of praises will be caught up to Heaven and wafted back to earth again until every creature which is in Heaven and upon the earth will be heard saying, "Blessings and Honor and Glory and Power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne and unto Christ forever." Rev. 15: 13.

In conclusion dear Friends, I wish to say that the government is very busy chasing peddlers. This dope, I understand, is a thing that will make one feel happy when he is really miserable, will make one feel rich when he is really poor. The Eternal Torment Doctrine is the worse dope that has ever been brought out to mankind. The effect of all of these dopes whether literal or moral is to dethrone reason. A person being affected sufficiently with the eternal torment doctrine will at times try to kick the bottom out of the church house and jump through the ceiling, hollowing, "Glory and Honor to God." When the world awakens to its sense of justice and truth the fire and brimstone peddler will be more detestable than the worse dope peddler of today.

Dear friends, I am determined to give the world the truth to the extent of my ability, regardless to cost or sacrifice even though it costs life.

OLDEST WRITTEN CODE IS FOUND

Shows High State of Civilization Thousands of Years Before Christ's Time.

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. June 22.—What is said to be the oldest known written code of laws in the world, probably antedating that of Hammurabi by at least a thousand years, has been discovered in part among the hitherto untranslated clay tablets from Nippur at the University of Pennsylvania museum.

The Hammurabi code was prepared about 2100 B. C., and was discovered about twenty years ago on a large diorite stone by French explorers.

The laws which have just been translated by Abbe Scheil of Paris, deal with responsibilities of hired servants, with trespass on farms and orchards, harboring of slaves, rentals, rights of slave women who have borne children to their masters, punishment for adultery, etc. One interesting statute provides that rentals must run for three years in case a man has taken over a house the owner does not know how to manage. This is somewhat obscure and may mean free rentals for that term. In any event property could not lie idle or be improperly uesed if some one was willing to use it for public or private benefit.

In case of a slave bore children to her master, she and the offspring were free and if the master married the slave the children became legitimate. In general, the laws show a high state of civilization existed when they were written, and indicate milleniums of previous experience in settled communities. They deal with personal and property rights on a basis somewhat like that of the Deuteronomic code. It is thought possible the tablets were textbooks used at the great University of Nippur.

The discoveries are considered of the highest importance and search will be made for further tablets containing additional laws.

WHITE GRAFTER PROVOKES RACE DISTURBANCE

Chicago Negroes Resent Burning of American Flag and Conflict Follows.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—One Negro policeman, a disinterested cigar store clerk and a meddlesome sailor were the victims in a near riot scene at Indiana Avenue and 35th street, Sunday night. The sailor and the clerk are dead. The Negro policeman may die. All were shot in a fracas that was started by a flag ceremonial in which a group of Colored people styling themselves the "Star Order of Abyssinia," were engaged in at the front of Entertainers Hall in 35th street and Indiana avenue.

The society had been parading through the streets in the "Black Belt" and had halted at the front of the hall where a ceremony in which the American and the Abyssinian flags were symbolic features, was started. Feeling that the American flag was being desecrated by the ceremony, the Negro policeman rushed at the crowd followed by the sailor. In the scrap precipitated by their action the sailor was killed, the policeman probably fatally wounded and the clerk was killed in his store by a stray bullet.

Charge Flag Burning.

A statement by Joseph P. Owens, the wounded Negro officer, declares that the ceremony included the burning of the flags by the society and it was this action that prompted him to attempt to break up the proceedings. "The crowd looked like a group of Colored foreigners to me. They had been parading through the streets all the afternoon and acting like 'nuts' to my way of thinking. When they stopped in front of the hall and began the burning of the flags, I thought it was high time to put a stop to the circus. I don't know how the sailor got mixed up in the matter. If he had kept out of the thing and minded his own business I don't think either of us would have been hurt."

Shot With Rifles.

The shooting is said to have been with rifles. Onlookers stated that when the policeman and the sailor charged the crowd, two men rushed to an automobile that had been used in the parade and took two rifles from under the seats and began firing. Officer Owens fell at the first volley and the sailor was shot and fell dead over the prostrate body of the policeman a few seconds later. By this time the air was thick with the shouts of the great crowds attracted to the scene by the shooting. Patrols filled with policemen began to arrive and when the excited people were somewhat scattered it was then discovered that the clerk in the cigar store had been killed by a stray bullet.

Leaders of Society.

R. D. Jones, a white agitator who has been preying upon credulous Negroes in Chicago and elsewhere; Grover C. Redding, Joseph Fernon and his son are accused with being the instigators of an agitation which has been accounted as the reason for a series of demonstrations among the local Negroes which called for a "back to Africa" movement with the ultimate aim of driving the white man out of the "Dark Continent." Sunday was the second time that the society had paraded through the "Belt" following a meeting held in a hall in South State street. The flag feature occurred at each parade, consisting, the members say, of a fire consecration of both the American and Abyssianian emblems to the cause of liberty throughout the world.

Not A Race Riot.

The incident was not a race riot. The casualties were caused by the over-zealousness of a Negro police officer and a meddlesome "jackie" sailor. The store clerk was an unlucky bystander who was hit by a stray bullet. Swarms of police are being kept in the "Belt" neighborhood of 35 and Indiana who are having an easy time watching the crowds of curious people who have been drawn to the scene by the "wild and wooly" stories published in the daily newspapers. In other sections of the city sailors are amusing themselves beating any lone Negroes who happen to find their way into sections outside the "Belt." In some of these incidents the sailors have come out of the fracases with whole skins. In other instances they have caught the veritable "tartars" and been made to take to the woods.

Negroes Not Alarmed.

The Negroes, in general, are not alarmed over the situation. They declare themselves ready to take care of any crisis which may come as the result of the Sunday night affair. No meetings will be held, but every precaution will be taken to vigorously oppose any attempts at general violence by "white mobs." The city officials do not expect any genral uprising against the Negro

Essence Of The Debate On The Doctrine of Eternal Torment

Between Richard J. Hill of Tulsa And J. Gordon McPherson of Houston

(By Rev. Gorden McPherson).

I read this article in one of your local papers; "Examine your preachers and get rid of fire and brimstone peddlers. The Doctrine of Eternal Torment is blasphemy on God's character, is contrary to the Scripture and has done more to blind the minds concerning God's plan of Salvation than all other errors combined. Every intelligent minister knows, or should know, that the greatest punishment God has prescribed for willful sinners is death everlasting, the second death—a death from which there will be no resurrection. They also know tht Hell and the Grave mean one and the same thing—oblivion, a state of non-existence. They further know that the lake of fire and brimstone mentioned in the scripture is symbolic of the second death and is not literal. They are or should be, fully aware that the Israelites, their laws, customs and principal cities, while they really existed, were typical of greater things to come and that the Old and New Testament writers including our Lord Jesus, many times, used the literal city of Jerusalem and its literal cesspool or garbage burner, (designated in the Bible as the valley of Hinnon, the lake burning with fire and brimstone) to convey the proper thought concerning the coming Kingdom of Righteousness. The thought intended to be conveyed is that when the Lord's Kingdom shall have been established in the earth nothing will be allowed to remain in it that will hurt or offend. According to the rules governing the literal city, (made of stone, cement, brick and morter) all filth was to be cast into the literal cesspool or lake burning with brimstone to be consumed. So will it be in the Anti-Typical city, the New Jerusalem which is not made of literal stone, cement, brick and morter, but of justice, power, love and wisdom. The Anti-Typical cesspool or lake of fire which is to consume the filth of this Anti-Typical city is not a literal place of literal fire and brimstone, but is the second death. In other words, the cesspool or garbage burner to the New Jerusalem is the second death."

I shall not attempt to read you all of this article, but I want to remind you that it is the aim to make you believe that there is no Hell. I shall read further and then I am through.

"You humble hearted Christians who desire to know the truth and do the will of God, I beg to remind you that any preacher who either preaching or endorsing by silence the Hell Fire Doctrine is an enemy to the truth and infense of the good name of Jehovah, and not in the sense of a "know all," I challenge any minister in Tulsa or Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, or any where, who is so unfortunate as to believe that the Bible teaches an eternity of tortures for sinners, to defend his position before my face and the public. I say further that any minister who ignores this challerge on this most important subject and continues by word or silent endorsement to teach this Hell Fire Doctrine, is a wolf in sheep's clothing and has not the interest of the sheep at heart but only desires to fleece them (get the money) and make a show to the world."

This is none other than the teachings of the late Pastor Russel: Ladies and gentlemen, I will give the last drop of blood to defend the people, there is not a single word of truth in this statement that there is no Hell.

He asked the question, "What is the need of a Hell?" Let me say in the words of General "Stonewall" Jackson, "There was one old man who said that he could just hear the sinners frying on the Hell Fire, so a Mr. Cocks, General do you believe that there is a Hell? What do they want with a Hell? The General replied, He would put such fools as you into it."

He said that the word Hell means the Grave and is symbolic of greater things; well if that description is only a symbol, what must the reality be?

If left to themselves, what convict is it, that would not vote the Penetentuarary out? God does not put any body in Hell. God did not make any body in Hell. He gave man a will to make his choice as to where he would go. I dare not say where Pastor Russel is, for he knows now as to whether there is a Hell or not.

The man that is behind this Pastor Russel teachings and that is furnishing the money is an ex-convict, you know that he just came out of jail. Why does he not come out himself? But he hides behind this poor deluted man. Send him out.

I want to say that there is a Hell, read 2 Corr. 33: 6; and you will see where Jesus was talking about Hell. There is a real Hell and if Mr. Hill keeps on at the gait that he is going, he will soon find out. He goes to the Bible for God's goodness, then turns right around and dispules the same Bible, on the punishment for the wicked.

I am like the man who went hunting, "I have sixteen more shots coming."

(Rev. McPherson's opening or preliminary remarks).

The balance of Mr. G. McPherson's argument was principally defamitory attacks upon the character of the late Pastor Russel and the successor to Pastor Russel, J. F. Rutherford, whom he described as an ex-convict and also attacks upon the integrity and intelligence of his opponent, Richard J. Hill.

Negative—By Richard J. Hill

I am quite sure that I do not need as many shots as my opponent. Dear friends, all I wish is to call your attention to an earnest study of the Scripture. I am here to defend the name of Jehovah God. I wish to say that the Eternal Torment Doctrine is blasphemous to the name of Jehovah.

I want to remind the people that the late Pastor Russel was a servent of God and I am glad to be able to tell any where that the God I serve and the God that Pastor Russel served is not a Fire and Brimstone God.

I want to denounce all doctrines contrary to the plan of God. I do it because the people ought to know the truth. We are not here to discuss Pastor Russel. I thought that we were here to discuss the question of Eternal Torment in a lake of fire and brimstone. If my opponent means to win on public sentiment, he is beaten now.

I want to say this about Pastor Russel and I am through. Pastor Russel did two great things; one thing he said, was that the Gentiles had a lease of power for two thousand five hundred and twenty years (2,520), from 606 B. C. to 1914 A. D. He told the world that the Gentile time would end about this time. Let the world answer as to whether this is true or not.

The two worse things that Pastor Russel did, was to throw the water hose of truth on Hell and put out the preachers fire; that was too bad. But he went on telling the truth without money, without price. He gave his fortune of $300,000 to the cause of truth, yet more he gave his life to enlighten the world concerning God's plan. Next he always had seats free, and no collections. The preachers could not stand this. If Pastor Russel had not have done this, he could have advocated, dancing, balling the jack, holy rolling, or anything else; if he only had not have advocated seats free and no collection.

I am sure we did not mean to take so much time to discuss Pastor Russel. Get your Bibles and think. I want you to convince yourselves that Grave means Hell—Psalms, 49: 15; and Hell means Grave—Psalms 55: 15, marginal reading. They both mean the same.

I want to say dear people, think! And do not be lead off by emotionalism. Most of the preaching done over the country is explained by a story told of an old Colored man down in Alabama: The old fellow had a large crop of cotton, full of grass, he worked awhile and went to dinner, leaving the mule to graze in the shade, when he returned, the mule was still standing in the shade He looked at the mule and then at the cotton, and grass all around, he saw so much grass and the sun was shining very hot, so he looked up toward the sky and said: "O Lord, the sun am so hot; the cotton am so grassy and the work am so hard, I'se believe dis Niggar am called to preach," (uproar of laughter). And he has not returned to that cotton patch since. The Colored man is not the only one, whose preaching is based upon the principles of this story.

Man is the subject of this debate. It is important to know what man is, in order to properly determine whether he is of such quality of being capable of everlasting punishment. It is necessary for one to know what a thing is, before he can properly care for that thing. A man who has never seen a sheep or has no knowledge as to what one looks like could not be trusted to go into a bunch of mixed animals and care for the sheep. Such one is liable to pet and care for wolves, bears, goats, etc. All the preachers claim to be busy trying to save souls but if you would ask one, "What is a soul?" or What does it look like?" he would possibly scratch his head and say that is too deep for you and if I would tell you, you would not understand it. As a matter of fact, the majority of the preachers know nothing as to what a soul is, and would not know one if they met it in the road at noon-day.

Man is a soul. "The Lord God formed man of the dust of the earth and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul." Gen. 2: 7. The Bible declares that man is of the earth, and that he is not spiritual, First Cor. 15: 45-47. Man is not a spirit being as spirits have not flesh and bones, Luke 24: 39. Spirit beings have spiritual bodies and human beings have human or natural bodies, First Cor. 15: 44. Adam, the first man was not spiritual. "That was not first which is spiritual," First Cor. 15: 46. Man is the highest order of animal life and is composed of Body and Breath of life, which is sometimes called Spirit of Life.

Every creature that breathes is a soul. God applies the word living-soul to the lower order of animals long before the creaton of man, possibly seven thousand years before man was created. Genn. 1: 20-30 Marginal. The word soul is applied to both man and beast in Numbers, 31: 28. It reads thus: "And levy a tribute unto the Lord of the men of war which went out to battle; one soul of five hundred, both of the persons and of the beeves, and of asses, and of the sheep," God in his own word declares that both man and beast die alike and go to the same place. The Scripture reads thus, "For that which befalleth the sons of man, befalleth the beasts. Even one thing befalleth them; as the one die so dieth the other; yea! They have all one breath so that man hath no pre-eminence above a beast for all is vanity. All go unto one place; all are of the dust and all change to dust again." Ecc. 3: 19-20.

My opponent will have to admit according to this Scripture that the lower animals are roasting in Eternal Torment with man, for the reason thhat the Scriptures say that they all go to one place at death. My opponent must admit that before one could be eternally tormented, it is necessary to have life immortal. Man is not immortal. Man is a soul, man dies, therefore the soul dies. There is a distinction between eternal life and immortal life. A creature may live eternally and yet not be immortal. Immortality, means that quality of life not subject to death; it means that such creatures cannot die and God even has not the power to destroy such one. Has God the power to destroy the soul? Jesus answers, "Fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body." My opponent will not be able to produce a single scripture text which says that man has an immortal soul. The only scripture that he might use which has the appearance of sustaining the immorality of the soul is found in Genn. 3: 1-5. "Ye shall surely not die." And that was a lie told by the Devil for the purpose of debauching and deceiving Mother Eve. All persons who are advocating that when one dies he is not dead, is sustaining, whether intentionly or ignorantly, the Devil's first old lie, "Thou shall surely not die."

The Bible plainly tells us that God only hath immortality. First Tim. 6: 16. There is a wide distinction between man in general, and one who is a real Consecrated Christian. One line of Scripture applies to man in general, and another and different line of Scripture applies to the real and true followers of Christ. The New Testament speaks of immortality as a promised reward, not an inherent quality. Something man already possesses. Immortality is the greatest reward that God has to bestow upon his fellow creatures who love and serve him. To the Christians, Paul says, "Seek ye immortality," Romans 2: 7. A man does not seek for that which he already possesses. Again, this mortal must put on immortality, First Cor. 15: 53. The Scripture here has no reference to the world of mankind, but to Christians, only. The world of mankind will never possess the quality of immortality. It is to the church the promise is made, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the Crown of Life." The highest element of life is immortality. Rev. 2: 10.

The Scriptures clearly teaches that when man dies he is unconcious, without memory, ceases to speak, breathe, think, feel or hate. The Scriptures in proof of this statement follows: "For in death there is no rememberance of thee; in the grave who shall give thee thanks," Psalms 6: 5. "The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down in silence," Psalms, 115: 17. "Thou taketh away their breath they die and return to the dust." Psalms 104: 29. "His breath goeth forth he returneth to the earth; in that very day his thoughts perish." Psalms 146: 4. A dead man ceaseth to love, ceaseth to hate, and ceaseth to anger," Ecc. 9: 6. Furthermore, the Scripture clearly states that a dead man knowth nothing. Ecc. 9: 5. The dead stop working. "Whatsoever thy hands find to do, do with thy might; for there is nor work nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, whither thou goest." Ecc. 9: 10.

When a man reacheth the point where he cannot remember, cannot give thanks; cannot speak; cannot breathe; does not think; has no feelings; neither loves, hates, or envies, does not work; and knows not anything, he must be actualy and completely dead and therefore unconscious.

Sleep is a symbol of death and therefore, since God has made an arrangement to awaken or resurect the billions of humanity, death is spoken of as a sleep. A man sound asleep knows nothing, is not conscious and knows nothing of what transpires during his sleep. So it is in death, as clearly shown in John 11: 1-44, in the case of Lazarus who knew nothing and told nothing concerning himself duriag his four days of death asleep.

The next question which logically follows is where are the dead? The Bible clearly teaches that the dead both good and bad are in Hell, the Grave. Oblivion, a condition the same as if they had not existed. Jacob weighted down with sorrow because of the supposed loss of his son Joseph said, "I will go down to my son Joseph in Sheol (In Hell) mourning." Genn. 37: 35. Genn. 43: 38. Many of the Old Testament prophets whom God approved said that they were going to Hell. Job was a Godly man and after having suffered the loss of all his earthly possessions, his children killed; his wife turned his enemy; his neighbors taunting him because of his suffering; his body putrid from running sores; and while suffering bodily pain and mental anguish, he prayed to God that he might go to Hell. If Hell is a place of eternal Torment does any sane person believe that Job prayed to go to a place to suffer more than he was already? Oh No! He said that he desired to be in Hell until God's wrath be passed. Job 14: 13. He defines Hell. "If I wait, Hell is my house; I have made my bed in the darkness our rest is in the dust," Job 17: 13-16. Again Job said that man passeth away, his sons come to honor and he knows it not, and they are brought low and he perceiveth it not," Job 14: 21. Jesus went to this same Hell as the Psalmist declares in Psalm 16: 10. "Thou will not leave my soul in Hell." The fact is that all persons who die go to the same Hell to which Jesus said Capuanrum would be brought down to it. Matt. 11: 23, reads thus, "And thou, Capernaum, which art asaulted unto Heaven shall be brought down to Hell, for if the mighty works which have done in thee, had been done in Sodom it would have remained unto this day.

Kindly understand me, I do not say that there is not a Hell. There is a Hell! The Bible Hell. But the trouble is that the preachers have put a lot of things into this Hell, Fire, brimstone, forked-tail devils, etc. The Bible Hell is the Grave or Oblivion. The preachers Hell is a place where one is tormented by fire-proof devils through out all eternity. It is this creed or clergy's Hell that I attack and denounce as absolutely false and without any scriptural foundation. Ezek. 28: 18-19 and in Heb. 2: 14, and 1st John 3: 8, Rev. 20: 10, we are told that the Devil and all his works are to be destroyed. I want my Opponent to tell me and this intelligent congregation, who is going to keep the fires burning when the Devil is destroyed?

Will the wicked be punished? They certainly will. God's law is unchangeable. In the beginning God provided a penalty for the violation of his law stating, "In the day that thou sinneth thou shall surely die." Genn. 2: 17. "The wages of sin is death (Not eternal Torment), Romans 6: 23. God having fixed this penalty for the violation of his law while man was perfect, and before he sinned, could not change the penalty and inflict a different one for the reason that God cannot be inconsistent. "He cannot deny himself," Second Tim, 2: 13. The Scriptures show that the wicked shall perish like the brute beast, Second Peter, 2: 9-12. Will my opponent contend that the mule, the horse, etc., will receive eternal torment? If the doctrine of eternal torment is true, then according to the plain statement of the Scriptures the brute beast shall perish same as the wicked.

There are several other Scriptural points that I would call your atteation to but since as I see it, I have no debate, I will proceed to tell you some truths concerning God's plan.

There is no dispute that the dead, both the just and the unjust, will be resurrected. John 5: 28-29. Matt. 25: 31-46 shows that the dead will be raised from their graves and come before Christ to be blessed. From where will they be resurrected? Let the prophet of the Lord answer, "Out of the dust of the earth," Danl. 12: 2. The Judgment of the world will last one thousand years and during that time the Devil will be bound so that he may deceive the nations no more, Rev. 20: 1-3-8. Blessing is to come to the world of mankind through the seed of Abraham. In thy seed shall all the nations be blessed," Genn. 12: 3. Who is the seed of Abraham? In Gal. 4: 16, we are told that this seed is Christ. And in the 29th verse of the same chapter, we are informed that those who consecrate themselves are who are baptised into Christ are Abraham's seed. This blessing to the world of mankind, will come at the close of the Gospel age and after the fulfillment of the things mentioned by our Lord in the 24th chapter of Matt. Which he told us would be an evidence of his presence to take over the Kingdoms of the world and bless mankind.

All reasonable minded persons can now see in process the fulfillment of many of the things spoken by our Lord in this chapter, which is known to Bible Students as the Lord's great prophecy.

Thousands of millions have died and have gone into the tomb in ignorance of Jesus' great sacrifice. My opponent would have you believe that their destiny is eternal torture. Thousands of intelligent men and women of good honest hearts have lived and died not knowing anything of God's Great Plan. Thousands are living today, even in this very city of Tulsa, who know not the Lord or his Great plans. All these my opponent would consign to the flames of a burning Hell.

For a moment let us reflect upon the great sorrow that has filled the earth. We see a fair land drenched in the blood of its inhabitants. We call to mind a blood thirsty, conquering Hero, marching through the country, laying waste to the fields and reducing the homes of a peaceful people to ashes. The widow, mother and children driven into the cold world; the husband, father and brothers slain upon the battle field, the ravages of war, of famine of pestilence destroying peaceful and happy homes, leaving behind broken hearts and broken bodies. For six thousand years the poor human race has suffered under these awful conditions. What hope would my opponent hold out for them? Few, indeed, have ever known of the precious name of Jesus. Few could have known because of the many blinding doctrines that have been taught by two hundred different denominations in this country and thousands of preachers who differ in teachings and doctrines.

Shall we for a moment believe that a just and loving God would permit these poor creatures to suffer so much sorrow and misery at the hands of men and then permit the Devil to burn them in a fire and brimstone Hell to be tortured forever? Thank God this is not true. I am glad we have a message of comfort for the hearts of the people in this hour of peril, I am glad to point out that God's word holds forth a message of hope and that the hour has come for it to be understood, and soon this great flood of truth that is rising shall fill the whole earth until all shall know of the just and loving God. What will the Lord do with these creatures if only a few can go to Heaven? What is the office of the church that is taken to Heaven? The Lord answers through his prophet, Isaah. 42: 6-7. "I the Lord God hath called thee and I will give thee for a covenant for the people, for a light of the nation, to open the blinded eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."

Again Jesus says, "All in their Graves shall hear his voice and come forth the Good to a resurrection of life, the Evil to a resurrection by Judgment." When the Lord brings these forth the first thing they must have is a knowledge of the fact that Christ has died for them and redeemed them from death, and now the opportunity has come for them to live. St. Paul has beautifully declared in these words that God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man, Christ, whom he hath ordained, and of this he has given assurance unto all men in that he raised up Christ Jesus from the dead, Act. 17: 31. This day that he has appointed is the Millennial day, the one thousand year day of Christ's reign in which all shall come to a knowledge of the truth.

And what shall be the reward of those who obey the truth? The Apostle Peter answers: "Repent ye, therefore, and be converted that your sins may be blotted out when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord, and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you; whom the Heavens must receive until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began", Act. 3: 19-20-21. In the language of the Apostle this will be the times of refreshing, blessing for the people, for the reason it is the time of restitution. Restitution means the bringing back to a former condition the things that were lost. What a wonderful hope is held out to humanity! Adam was a perfect man with the right to live upon the earth forever in a perfect home with abundance, peace and happiness. Because of sin all of these he lost, and for more than six thousand years his progeny has passed through the vail of tears. Jesus is to set up his Kingdom and his one thousand year reign is for the express purpose of restoring to mankind all that was lost in Father Adam. Jesus is able to do this because he bought all these rights that man had lost. To use his own words "The Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19: 10.

The Lord Jesus through John the Revelator, gives a wonderful picture of the Kingdom of Messiah. A city is used as a symbol of a government, and a Holy City means Messiah's government. In symbolic language he describes this beautiful government and says: "I heard a great voice out of Heaven saying, 'Behold the Tabernacle (dwelling place) of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them and they shall be his people and God himself will be their God, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away.'" The nations of the earth, the restored people shall walk in the light, in the purity of this Kingdom." Rev. 21: 1-5; 24-26.

We can see a reason why the dead are unconscious while dead, we see that life is the most wonderful thing that one could possess, when it is possessed in perfection. We see that God through Christ Jesus has provided redemption, resurrection and restitution for all who love righteousness and hate iniquity; Jesus bought the rights long ago, and in his righteous reign he shall restore all the obedient ones of Adams stock until the earth is filled with a perfect, happy and beautiful race of people. What a Glorious prospect. Truly the poet has said, "The earth is old with centuries but not for this she hangs her head." Closer to her heart the sorrow lies, she holds so many dead. "But thanks be to God the dark night of sin and death is near an end. Soon the prison house of death shall be opened and the sleeping dead shall come forth." We are thankful to God that we are in the dawn of a new and better time, when the Son of Righteousness is rapidly rising with healing in his being When the brightness of his glorious presence shall shine upon the whole earth then wars shall cease, darkness and ignorance, superstition and falsehood, hatred and malice, slander, crime and death shall be driven away; truth and righteousness shall be enthroned forever.

What will that glorious time of refreshing and restitution mean to the world? Let us forget for a moment the scenes of misery and woe that prevail in the earth now. And having faith in the precious premise of God let us picture in our mental vision the glories of a perfect earth and a perfect people. No more blinded eyes, no more deaf ears, no more crooked limbs. No not an ache or pain, nor any evidence of decay—not even a fear of such things. Call to mind now the most beautiful specimen of humankind you have ever beheld, and then remember that every one of the members of the human family will be of far surpassing loveliness when Christ has completed his reign. The inward purity of mind and heart and moral perfection will stamp every radiant face and mark every act. Every man will love his neighbor as he loves himself, and every one will sit under his own vine and fig tree. Then men will not build and anothe inhabit.

Then behold in mental vision a perfect, righteous, peaceful and happy people, rejoicing in the blessings of a perfect earth which the Lord hath prepared for them. The earth yielding its increase; the desert blooming as a rose; the waste and arid land brought up to the condition of, even to Paradise. Then songs of gladness will fill the earth, and from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof the praises of Jehovah will be heard. "Then they will walk mid the trees by the river with the friends they have loved by their side, they will sing the glad songs of salvation and be ready to follow their guide.

St. John as he stood on the Isle of Patmos and beheld in a vision the beauties and glories of a restored earth and people, described in poetic language, how the songs of gladness will fill the earth and how those songs of praises will be caught up to Heaven and wafted back to earth again until every creature which is in Heaven and upon the earth will be heard saying, "Blessings and Honor and Glory and Power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne and unto Christ forever." Rev. 15: 13.

In conclusion dear Friends, I wish to say that the government is very busy chasing peddlers. This dope, I understand, is a thing that will make one feel happy when he is really miserable, will make one feel rich when he is really poor. The Eternal Torment Doctrine is the worse dope that has ever been brought out to mankind. The effect of all of these dopes whether literal or moral is to dethrone reason. A person being affected sufficiently with the eternal torment doctrine will at times try to kick the bottom out of the church house and jump through the ceiling, hollowing, "Glory and Honor to God." When the world awakens to its sense of justice and truth the fire and brimstone peddler will be more detestable than the worse dope peddler of today.

Dear friends, I am determined to give the world the truth to the extent of my ability, regardless to cost or sacrifice even though it costs life.

OLDEST WRITTEN CODE IS FOUND

Shows High State of Civilization Thousands of Years Before Christ's Time.

(Star News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. June 22.—What is said to be the oldest known written code of laws in the world, probably antedating that of Hammurabi by at least a thousand years, has been discovered in part among the hitherto untranslated clay tablets from Nippur at the University of Pennsylvania museum.

The Hammurabi code was prepared about 2100 B. C., and was discovered about twenty years ago on a large diorite stone by French explorers.

The laws which have just been translated by Abbe Scheil of Paris, deal with responsibilities of hired servants, with trespass on farms and orchards, harboring of slaves, rentals, rights of slave women who have borne children to their masters, punishment for adultery, etc. One interesting statute provides that rentals must run for three years in case a man has taken over a house the owner does not know how to manage. This is somewhat obscure and may mean free rentals for that term. In any event property could not lie idle or be improperly uesed if some one was willing to use it for public or private benefit.

In case of a slave bore children to her master, she and the offspring were free and if the master married the slave the children became legitimate. In general, the laws show a high state of civilization existed when they were written, and indicate milleniums of previous experience in settled communities. They deal with personal and property rights on a basis somewhat like that of the Deuteronomic code. It is thought possible the tablets were textbooks used at the great University of Nippur.

The discoveries are considered of the highest importance and search will be made for further tablets cortaining additional laws.

WHITE GRAFTER PROVOKES RACE DISTURBANCE

Chicago Negroes Resent Burning of American Flag and Conflict Follows.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—One Negro policeman, a disinterested cigar store clerk and a meddlesome sailor were the victims in a near riot scene at Indiana Avenue and 35th street, Sunday night. The sailor and the clerk are dead. The Negro policeman may die. All were shot in a fracas that was started by a flag ceremonial in which a group of Colored people styling themselves the "Star Order of Abyssinia," were engaged in at the front of Entertainers Hall in 35th street and Indiana avenue.

The society had been parading through the streets in the "Black Belt" and had halted at the front of the hall where a ceremony in which the American and the Abyssinian flags were symbolic features, was started. Feeling that the American flag was being desecrated by the ceremony, the Negro policeman rushed at the crowd followed by the sailor. In the scrap precipitated by their action the sailor was killed, the policeman probably fatally wounded and the clerk was killed in his store by a stray bullet.

Charge Flag Burning.

A statement by Joseph P. Owens, the wounded Negro officer, declares that the ceremony included the burning of the flags by the society and it was this action that prompted him to attempt to break up the proceedings. "The crowd looked like a group of Colored foreigners to me. They had been parading through the streets all the afternoon and acting like 'nuts' to my way of thinking. When they stopped in front of the hall and began the burning of the flags, I thought it was high time to put a stop to the circus. I don't know how the sailor got mixed up in the matter. If he had kept out of the thing and minded his own business I don't think either of us would have been hurt."

Shot With Rifles.

The shooting is said to have been with rifles. Onlookers stated that when the policeman and the sailor charged the crowd, two men rushed to an automobile that had been used in the parade and took two rifles from under the seats and began firing. Officer Owens fell at the first volley and the sailor was shot and fell dead over the prostrate body of the policeman a few seconds later. By this time the air was thick with the shouts of the great crowds attracted to the scene by the shooting. Patrols filled with policemen began to arrive and when the excited people were somewhat scattered it was then discovered that the clerk in the cigar store had been killed by a stray bullet.

Leaders of Society.

R. D. Jones, a white agitator who has been preying upon credulous Negroes in Chicago and elsewhere; Grover C. Redding, Joseph Fernon and his son are accused with being the instigators of an agitation which has been accounted as the reason for a series of demonstrations among the local Negroes which called for a "back to Africa" movement with the ultimate aim of driving the white man out of the "Dark Continent." Sunday was the second time that the society had paraded through the "Belt" following a meeting held in a hall in South State street. The flag feature occurred at each parade, consisting, the members say, of a fire consecration of both the American and Abyssianian emblems to the cause of liberty throughout the world.

Not A Race Riot.

The incident was not a race riot. The casualties were caused by the over-zealousness of a Negro police officer and a meddlesome "jackie" sailor. The store clerk was an unlucky bystander who was hit by a stray bullet. Swarms of police are being kept in the "Belt" neighborhood of 35 and Indiana who are having an easy time watching the crowds of curious people who have been drawn to the scene by the "wild and wooly" stories published in the daily newspapers. In other sections of the city sailors are amusing themselves beating any lone Negroes who happen to find their way into sections outside the "Belt." In some of these incidents the sailors have come out of the fracases with whole skins. In other instances they have caught the veritable "tartars" and been made to take to the woods.

Negroes Not Alarmed.

The Negroes, in general, are not alarmed over the situation. They declare themselves ready to take care of any crisis which may come as the result of the Sunday night affair. No meetings will be held, but every precaution will be taken to vigorously oppose any attempts at general violence by "white mobs." The city officials do not expect any genral uprising against the Negro

World is Ended; Millions Now Living Will Never Die

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I have been informed that a few Pastors of the local churches have heard themselves warning their members to stay away from lectures being given at 618 East Archer, by International Bible Students every First and Third Sunday of each month. I am glad to note that most of the preachers are rather broad-minded and are beginning to recognize that the International Bible Students have the truth. But I am sorry to say that there are a few ignorant, pin-head fellows posing as ministers who are bitter enemies to Light or Truth, and whose only object is to keep the poor people in darkness and squeeze all the money out of them they can and make a big show to the world. Listen, dear people of the public, you can put it down that any preacher who warns you to stay away from the International Bible Students' is one who wants to keep you in darkness. He (that pin-headed preacher) knows that we have the light and he also knows that if you come into the light, down gos his (the preachers) pork-chops.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday, July 4, will be "Where Are The Dead."

Frinds come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collections.

RICHARD J. HILL.

When a long time lease ends, and the buildings erected on it are in a decayed condition, and a new owner comes into possession with the intention of erecting new buildings, his first acts are to tear down and remove the old and clear the lot for the building of the new structure. The old order or the old world ended in 1914, and exactly on time the work of removing the old order began and still progresses. The Great King of Kings and the Lord of Lords is directing this work, and he is removing the old preparatory to the erection of the new and righteous order of things. The prophet of the Lord, having in mind this very time when the kings of the earth would be making a last desperate stand to hold their possession, wrote: "And in the days of these kings shall the God of Heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever." Dan. 2: 44.

We submit that the evidence is conclusive to the reasonable mind who believes in the scriptures, that the world has ended; that the old order is passing away and the new is coming in; and if that be true, then this must mark the dawning of a new and better day; it must mart the beginning days of the Golden Age, and of necessity must mark the time for the fulfillment of the great biblical promises that Jehovah has made for the blessing of mankind with life, liberty and happiness.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man keep my saying, he shall never die." John 8: 51.

The inquiring mind naturally asks: "Why should man see death at all? Is is not possible for him to live everlastingly? Not understanding why death has ravaged the human race and what remedy Jehovah has provided against it, the many have concluded that death has always prevailed among men and men will always die. An understanding of the scriptures clarifies the subject entirely.

The Lord created but one man—Adam. All the works of Jehovah are perfect. (Deut. 32:4). Man was created in the image and likeness of God and Jehovah gave him dominion over the things of the earth. (Gen. 1: 26-28). The first man, Adam, being perfect in organism and having a perfect wife, Eve and the right to propogate his race and fill the earth, not only had life and liberty and happiness himself but could have maintained the same for all his offspring, had he been obedient to Jehovah. God had informed him that a violation of his law would result in the loss of everything he had. The Genesis account is that God told Adam that death would result from disobedience of the Divine command. Man did violate God's law and was sentenced to death, the formal part of the judgment reading: "For dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return." To enforce this judgment of death, God separated Adam from his perfect home, Eden, deprived him of the perfect food which grew there, caused him to feed upon the poisonous elements of the earth, and thus the death sentence was executed.

The perfect Man, Adam begat no children, but while the sentence of death he exercised his procreative powers and there was born of Adam and Eve children. They inherited the imperfection resulting to their parents by reason of the death sentence. "As by disobedience of one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin, so death passed upon all men for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5: 12). Thus the whole race came under legal condemnation, and thus understanding God's arrangement we can appreciate the words of the Psalmist: "Behold, I was shapened in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." Psa. 51: 5.

This judgment of death being justly inflicted by Jehovah for a violation of his law could be reversed by him, and unless he made some provision for the relief of mankind, the whole race ultimately would go into death and there would be no resurrection—no hope for them in the future. God promised, however, that he would redeem man from death. Through the prophet he said: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death." Hosea 13:14

Since a perfect man had sinned and brought death upon the race, nothing but the life of a perfect man could satisfy that judgment; and since all of the human race was imperfect, therefore "None of them could by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him." Psa. 49: 7.

The death and resurrection of Jesus provided a ransom or purchase price for the entire human race. Then in God's due time every one of Adam's race, the living and the dead, must know this fact and have a chance to acept the benefits of it. "For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved (from the condemnation of death by the ransom sacrifice), and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. (Tim. 2. 3-6). This ransom price for the purchase of mankind from death was provided nearly 1900 years ago. But men have continued to die for the reason that it was not God's due time to begin to offer them life. "God at the first did visit the Gentiles to take out a people for his name. And after this I will return, and build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up. That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the nations upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things." Acts 15: 14-17.

For many years, good, honest men and women have asked, what hope is there for me of getting life everlasting? The church systems, thrugh their creeds, have answered this question in this wise: Catholicism said: "Only a very few die and go to Heaven. The majority of Catholics at death must spend a long period in Purgatory, and there is a chance of these being afterwards transferred from purgatory to Heaven, and all the others must spend their eternity in fire and brimstone, being tormented forever. The answer of the creed of the various Protestant systems is really worse. According to their theory, no purgator even is provided. There is no hope of life everlasting in happiness according to their theory except those who become members of the church and die and go to Heaven. All others must spend eternity being tormented by fire proof devils. Is there any wonder that reasonable, sensible men have rejected the churches, rejected the bible, and even turned against God. Force to believe that this was the only provision made, they have disregarded all biblical teaching. This has been a great mistake.

Entering the 20th century, great truths are being unfolded to mankind. The progress in invention, science, and education in general is more marked in this century than ever before, and with it has come a greater enlightenment of people concerning the Bible, because the time is due. And now students of the Scripture are finding out that the Bible means exactly what it says; namely, that Jehovah provided through the death and resurrection of Jesus a purchase price for all men and in God's due time a knowledge of this fact must be brought to all, "Because he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in rightousness by that man (Christ Jesus) whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." Acts 17: 31.

When are these precious promises due to be fulfilled? Refering to some of our previous remarks concerning the end of the world, we quote again the words of the Master: "And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants and prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that fear thy name." (Rev. 11: 18). Clearly, then, many of these great truths are now due to be understood because, the old order is passing away and the new order is coming in. Jesus taught, and everyone of his diciples emphasized, his second coming and the establishment of his kingdom. One of them reffering to that glorious time, wrote: "Times of refreshing shall come from the face of the Lord (Jehovah), and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you whom the heavens must retain until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His Holy prophets since the world began." (Acts 3: 19-21). Therefore, the time must come when there shall be offered to mankind the blessings of being restored to the condition that Adam enjoyed before he sinned. Namely, perfection of body and of mind, and perfection of conditions surrounding him, insuring his peace and lasting happiness.

Are we near the fulfilment of that prophecy? Note again, the answer of Jesus concerning the end of the world: "For then shall there be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should be no flesh saved, but for the elect's sake, those days shall be shortened." Matt. 24: 21-22.

This saying Jesus is subject to only one interpretation; namely; that the old order will completely pass away by the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known; that there will never be another such time of trouble; that it will be so great that all the humane race would perish from the earth unless the Lord would cause it to be shortened, for his elect's sake, namely, those whom he has elected or taken out of the world—the Lord Jesus and the true Christians—for the sake of such those days will be shortened and will therefore result in many human beings passing through this time of trouble without dying. Why should the Lord permit any to escape death in that time of trouble unless he expected to do them some good? Why say for the elect's sake, that he is going to shorten the time, and thus save many from death? There can be but one conclusion. The elect constitute the seed of Abraham according to the promise, through which blessings shall be ministered to the remainder of mankind. Therefore, God would spare some to pass through this time of trouble that the elects might begin the reconstruction work of the human family, first with those who remained on earth.

Again refering to the great time of trouble that is now afflicting mankind, the prophet of the Lord, wrote: "And it shall come to pass that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part t hrough the fire (The fire trouble), and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my name, and I wil hear them; I will say, it is my people; and they shall say, the Lord is my God." (Zachariah 13: 8, 9). Why bring a part of the people through the firy trouble unless it is God's purpose to give them a chance to accept the blessings that shall be ministered through Christ? Clearly this is the purpose; for he says these will hear him and will become his people and be obedient to him.

Again, the prophet of the Lord, speaking concerning those who love rightousness in this time, said: "Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in the time of trouble. The Lord will preserve him and keep him alive, and he shall be blessed upon the earth (not heaven); and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies." (Psa. 41: 1, 2). This is a wonderful incentive for men in this hour of great disturbance and distress to be considerate of the poor and afflicted, to deal rightously with their neighbors, to live in peace and honor the Lord. Such are the ones that are promised deliverance in the time of trouble. Those who seek meekness and rightousness and avoid turmoils are especially promised protection in the time of trouble. ### WORLD IS ENDED; MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

Referring again to the same great stress upon the world and what shall follow thereafter, the prophet of Jehovah said: "Wait ye, upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the pray; for my determination is to gather the nations together, that I may assemble the Kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the people a pure message, that they may call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent." (Zephaniah 3: 8, 9). Why turn to the people a pure message after this time of trouble is over, unless God intends that the people should profit by it?

Many children have been left fatherless in the recent war and revolution, and with comfort the Lord's prophte says: "Leave thy fatherless children I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me." Jeremiah 49: 11.

After those who pass through the time of trouble have been ministered unto and given the opportunities of blessings by the Messiah, then those who have slept in their graves in death shall be awakened and given knowledge of the truth. That will be their "Due time" to hear the message concerning the Ransom. "Marvel not, at this, for the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his (Christ Jesus) voice and shall come forth; they that have done good unto a resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto a resurrection by judgment." (John 5: 28, 29 Revised Version). "There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust." (Acts 24: 15). "Christ is risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man (Adam) came death, so by man (Christ Jesus) came also the resurrection of the dead. For as all in Adam died, even so in Christ shall be made alive. But every man in his own order." (1st Cor. 15: 20-23). The Apostle then proceeds to show that the Messiah "Must reign until he hath put all enemies under his foot. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."

It wil be during the reign of the glorious Messiah that the following text will be fully realized: "If a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death." It cannot be said that man, in the true sense, lives until he has a legal right to live, and the legal right to live will come to him only when it is offered as a gracious gift through Christ Jesus, as the Apostle stipulates. (Rom. 6: 23; 5: 18, 19). Jesus declared: "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John 11: 26). This Scripture must have a fulfillment, and the time for the beginning of its fulfillment is the beginning of restitution times, which commence with the reign of the Messiah. The old order being dead and passing away, and the new coming in, there are millioms of persons on this earth now who will pass through that trouble and who obeying the Lord's rightous rules, shall never die.

The prophet Job has given us a beautiful picture of this arrangement for the restoration of mankind. He describes a man who is aged and sick; and there is brought to him a knowledge of the great ransom. He believes and accepts the Lord's teaching and obeys the rightous rules and is restored to his youth, and his flesh becomes fresher than that of a child. Mark this beautiful Scripture: "He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. He (man) is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitudes of his bones with strong pain; so that his life abhoreth bread and his soul dainty meat. His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stuck out. Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers. If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand to show unto man his uprightness; then he (the Lord is gracious unto him, and saith, deliver him from going down to the pit: I, (says the man) have found a ransom. His flesh shall become fresher than a child's; he shall return to the days of his youth. He shall pray unto God and he will be favorable unto him; he shall see his face with joy; for he will render unto man his righteousness." Job 33: 18-27.

Saint John, the follower of the Lord Jesus, was convicted of the alleged crime of sedition and banished to the Isle of Patmos. While he was there as a convict in a rock quarry, the Lord visited him and gave him a wonderful mental vision of the blessings to come. Saint John saw the incoming of the Golden Age, and sublimely described it thus: "And I saw a new heaven and new earth for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away and there was no more sea and I John saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying: "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men (on earth not in heaven) and He will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and he their God. And God shall wipe all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things have passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, "behold, I will make all things new." Rev. 21: 1-5.

In this glorious reign of Christ the great enemy of mankind, death will be destroyed. When there is no more death to ravage the human race the people of earth will live in joy, in happiness, in peace forever.

JACK THOMPSON TO MEET SAM LANGFORD AGAIN

(A. N. P. Service)

ROME, June 30.—The ceremony of the beatification of twenty-two Negroes, who died martyrs for the faith in Uganda under King Mwanga, was celebrated with great pomp in the Basilica of St. Peter's. Cardinals, Bishops and other richly gowned officials, with missionary priests worn by their labors in torrid climates, passed up the center of St. Peter's to receive the announcement of beatification from Pope Benedict.

During the afternoon the Pontiff descended to St. Peter's accompanied by the Cardinals to venerate the pictures and relics of these humble saints.

FULTON-WILLS IN FIRST N. Y. BOUT

Heavyweights Clash In First 15-Round Go In New York State.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 27.—Heavy-weights Fred Fulton and Harry Wills will meet in the first boxing bout of importance under the new law permitting boxing contests in New York. This announcement was made here tonight by the International Sporting club which has matched the pugilists for a 15-round contest. The date will be made public later.

Under the terms of agreement, Fulton will receive $25,000 and Wills $10,000 without any percentage or bonus agreement.

It is the present intention of the club to limit the spectators to members of the organization, which includes some of the most prominent men in the business and social life of the country.

While no definite date has been announced, it is understood the contest will be held about the middle of July. It is intimated that the winner will be given an opportunity to face Champion Jack Dempsey later in the year.

A reception was given at the residence of Mrs. T. R. Gentry on North Detroit Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Margurette Abbott, a bride of a few days.

MEXICANS ISSUE CALL FOR VILLA

Manifesto Is Made Public Declaring in Favor of Him.

ASK NEW GOVERNMENT

Sonora Plan Is Opposed—Ten Generals Including Villa's Chief Sign Paper.

(By the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—Declaring in favor of the restoration of the constitution of 1857 and describing Francisco Villa as "the only leader who disinterestedly and patriotically combats and will continue to combat for the welfare of the people and for the re-establishment of constitutional order," 10 generals, including Villa's chief of staff and more than fifty other officers and a number of civilians have issued a manifesto to the Mexican people announcing their position in the present Mexican situation. The manifesto, a copy of which reached Washington recently, was issued at Hacienda Salacies, district of Jiminez, Chihuahua. It states that "the Agua Prieta plan, which is to be the standard of the new liberal constitutional revolution, like that of Guadalupe, will be a source of discord for the future and in consequence will bring serious evil to the country."

It further states that the signers of the manifesto "want the reign of democrarcy; true goverument of the people, by the people and not that the succession of tyrants be sought by means of treason, intrigue, disloyalty, cowardice and crime, assassinating some to elevate someoneelse."

"Product of a new military coup" the same manifesto says, "the regime which intends to establish itself in the country, with the same passions, the same jealousies, the same ambitions and the same mistakes, will be impotent to restore peace in the republic."

The manifesto states that the Villistas endeavored to join the Sonora revolt at its inception, hoping that it shared the same ideals and principles as their own, but, it states, "unfortunately our good faith, our honesty and our patriotism have been met with intrigues, disloyalty and treachery, and with the most absolute disregard for justice that has been and still is ours."

NEW PARTY ISSUES CALL

(A. N. P. Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 1.—Colored men in this city have just issued a call with avowed intention of polling 500,000 votes for a Negro candidate for president. A leaflet is being sent broadcast by the Challenge Magazine, the official organ of the new party. "We mean to abolish Jim Crowism. We swear it by Almighty God," says the leaflet. Continuing the leaflet says, "If you want to be a man, a full fledged citizen with all the rights of manhood; come into the liberty party." The organization is said to be gaining in membership

Hot Congressional Fight In The Fifth.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. June 30.—With five Democratic, two Repubublican and one Socialist candidate registered for the primary election, August 3, the contest for nominations for congressman from the Fifth District, comprising Logan, Payne, Oklahoma, Cleveland, McClain, Garvin and Murray Counties, is considered one of the warmest in the state campaign. Roy Stafford, William Franklin, F. B. Swank C. D. Webster, and Leslie G. Niblack are the Democratic contestants; Ernest E. Reardon and B. T. Hainer the republican, and J. Luther Langston the Socialist. Swank is a resident of Norman and Webster lives on a Cleveland county farm; Niblack resides at Guthrie and the rest are residents of Oklahoma City.

(Okla. State News.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. June 30.—R. A. Singletary, secretary and manager of the Oklahoma Good Roads Association, has received a large consignment of "trip" road maps intended for distribution among interstate and and auto tourists. The maps show in detail the routes between principal cities in the state, giving all the necessary information relative to stopping places, sources of supplies and places of interest as well as detailed travel information. The Oklahoma Good Roads Association is preparing to launch a state-wide membership campaign early in the fall.

World is Ended; Millions Now Living Will Never Die

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I have been informed that a few Pastors of the local churches have bound themselves warning their members to stay away from lectures being given at 618 East Archer, by International Bible Students every First and Third Sunday of each month. I am glad to note that most of the preachers are rather broad-minded and are beginning to recognize that the International Bible Students have the truth. But I am sorry to say that there are a few ignorant, pin-head fellows posing as ministers who are bitter enemies to Light or Truth, and whose only object is to keep the poor people in darkness and squeeze all the money out of them they can and make a big show to the world. Listen, dear people of the public, you can put it down that any preacher who warns you to stay away from the International Bible Students' is one who wants to keep you in darkness. He (that pin-headed preacher) knows that we have the light and he also knows that if you come into the light, down gos his (the preachers) pork-chops.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M, sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday, July 4, will be "Where Are The Dead."

Frinds come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collections.

RICHARD J. HILL.

When a long time lease ends, and the buildings erected on it are in a decayed condition, and a new owner comes into possession with the intention of erecting new buildings, his first acts are to tear down and remove the old and clear the lot for the building of the new structure. The old order or the old world ended in 1914, and exactly on time the work of removing the old order began and still progresses. The Great King of Kings and the Lord of Lords is directing this work, and he is removing the old preparatory to the erection of the new and righteous order of things. The prophet of the Lord, having in mind this very time when the kings of the earth would be making a last desperate stand to hold their possession, wrote: "And in the days of these kings shall the God of Heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever." Dani. 2: 44.

We submit that the evidence is conclusive to the reasonable mind who believes in the scriptures, that the world has ended; that the old order is passing away and the new is coming in; and if that be true, then this must mark the dawning of a new and better day; it must mart the beginning days of the Golden Age, and of necessity must mark the time for the fulfillment of the great biblical promises that Jehovah has made for the blessing of mankind with life, liberty and happiness.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man keep my saying, he shall never die." John 8: 51.

The inquiring mind naturally asks: "Why should man see death at all? Is is not possible for him to live everlastingly? Not understanding why death has ravaged the human race and what remedy Jehovah has provided against it, the many have concluded that death has always prevailed among men and men will always die. An understanding of the scriptures clarifies the subject entirely.

The Lord created but one man—Adam. All the works of Jehovah are perfect. (Deut. 32:4). Man was created in the image and likeness of God and Jehovah gave him dominion over the things of the earth. (Gen. 1: 26-28). The first man, Adam, being perfect in organism and having a perfect wife, Eve and the right to propogate his race and fill the earth, not only had life and liberty and happiness himself but could have maintained the same for all his offspring, had he been obedient to Jehovah. God had informed him that a violation of his law would result in the loss of everything he had. The Genesis account is that God told Adam that death would result from disobedience of the Divine command. Man did violate God's law and was sentenced to death, the formal part of the judgment reading: "For dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return." To enforce this judgment of death, God separated Adam from his perfect home, Eden, deprived him of the perfect food which grew there, caused him to feed upon the poisonous elements of the earth, and thus the death sentence was executed.

The perfect Man, Adam begat no children, but while the sentence of death he exercised his procreative powers and there was born of Adam and Eve children. They inherited the imperfection resulting to their parents by reason of the death sentence. "As by disobendience of one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin, so death passed upon all men for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5: 12). Thus the whole race came under legal condemnation, and thus understanding God's arrangement we can appreciate the words of the Psalmist: "Behold, I was shapened in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." Psa. 51: 5.

This judgment of death being justly inflicted by Jehovah for a violation of his law could be reversed by him, and unless he made some provision for the relief of mankind, the whole race ultimately would go into death and there would be no resurrection—no hope for them in the future. God promised, however, that he would redeem man from death. Through the prophet he said: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death." Hosea 13:14

Since a perfect man had sinned and brought death upon the race, nothing but the life of a perfect man could satisfy that judgment; and since all of the human race was imperfect, therefore "None of them could by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him." Psa. 49: 7.

The death and resurrection of Jesus provided a ransom or purchase price for the entire human race. Then in God's due time every one of Adam's race, the living and the dead, must know this fact and have a chance to acept the benefits of it. "For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved (from the condemnation of death by the ransom sacrifice), and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. (Tim. 2. 3-6). This ransom price for the purchase of mankind from death was provided nearly 1900 years ago. But men have continued to die for the reason that it was not God's due time to begin to offer them life. "God at the first did visit the Gentiles to take out a people for his name. And after this I will return, and build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up. That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the nations upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things." Acts 15: 14-17.

For many years, good, honest men and women have asked, what hope is there for me of getting life everlasting? The church systems, thrugh their creeds, have answered this question in this wise: Catholicism said: "Only a very few die and go to Heaven. The majority of Catholics at death must spend a long period in Purgatory, and there is a chance of these being afterwards transferred from purgatory to Heaven, and all the others must spend their eternity in fire and brimstone, being tormented forever. The answer of the creed of the various Protestant systems is really worse. According to their theory, no purgator even is provided. There is no hope of life everlasting in happiness according to their theory except those who become members of the church and die and go to Heaven. All others must spend eternity being tormented by fire proof devils. Is there any wonder that reasonable, sensible men have rejected the churches, rejected the bible, and even turned against God. Force to believe that this was the only provision made, they have disregarded all biblical teaching. This has been a great mistake.

Entering the 20th century, great truths are being unfolded to mankind. The progress in invention, science, and education in general is more marked in this century than ever before, and with it has come a greater enlightenment of people concerning the Bible, because the time is due. And now students of the Scripture are finding out that the Bible means exactly what it says; namely, that Jehovah provided through the death and resurrection of Jesus a purchase price for all men and in God's due time a knowledge of this fact must be brought to all, "Because he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in rightousness by that man (Christ Jesus) whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." Acts 17: 31.

When are these precious promises due to be fulfilled? Referring to some of our previous remarks concerning the end of the world, we quote again the words of the Master: "And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants and prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that fear thy name." (Rev. 11: 18). Clearly, then, many of these great truths are now due to be understood because, the old order is passing away and the new order is coming in. Jesus taught, and everyone of his diciples emphasized, his second coming and the establishment of his kingdom. One of them reffering to that glorious time, wrote: "Times of refreshing shall come from the face of the Lord (Jehovah), and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you whom the heavens must retain until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His Holy prophets since the world began." (Acts 3: 19-21). Therefore, the time must come when there shall be offered to mankind the blessings of being restored to the condition that Adam enjoyed before he sinned. Namely, perfection of body and of mind, and perfection of conditions surrounding him, insuring his peace and lasting happiness.

Are we near the fulfilment of that prophecy? Note again, the answer of Jesus concerning the end of the world: "For then shall there be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should be no flesh saved, but for the elect's sake, those days shall be shortened." Matt. 24: 21-22.

This saying Jesus is subject to only one interpretation; namely; that the old order will completely pass away by the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known; that there will never be another such time of trouble; that it will be so great that all the humane race would perish from the earth unless the Lord would cause it to be shortened, for his elect's sake, namely, those whom he has elected or taken out of the world—the Lord Jesus and the true Christians—for the sake of such those days will be shortened and will therefore result in many human beings passing through this time of trouble without dying. Why should the Lord permit any to escape death in that time of trouble unless he expected to do them some good? Why say for the elect's sake, that he is going to shorten the time, and thus save many from death? There can be but one conclusion. The elect constitute the seed of Abraham according to the promise, through which blessings shall be ministered to the remainder of mankind. Therefore, God would spare some to pass through this time of trouble that the elects might begin the reconstruction work of the human family, first with those who remained on earth.

Again refering to the great time of trouble that is now afflicting mankind, the prophet of the Lord, wrote: "And it shall come to pass that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire (The fire trouble), and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my name, and I wil hear them; I will say, it is my people; and they shall say, the Lord is my God." (Zachariah 13: 8, 9). Why bring a part of the people through the firy trouble unless it is God's purpose to give them a chance to accept the blessings that shall be ministered through Christ? Clearly this is the purpose; for he says these will hear him and will become his people and be obedient to him.

Again, the prophet of the Lord, speaking concerning those who love rightousness in this time, said: "Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in the time of trouble. The Lord will preserve him and keep him alive, and he shall be blessed upon the earth (not heaven); and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies." (Psa. 41: 1, 2). This is a wonderful incentive for men in this hour of great disturbance and distress to be considerate of the poor and afflicted, to deal rightously with their neighbors, to live in peace and honor the Lord. Such are the ones that are promised deliverance in the time of trouble. Those who seek meekness and rightousness and avoid turmoils are especially promised protection in the time of trouble. ### WORLD IS ENDED; MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

Referring again to the same great stress upon the world and what shall follow thereafter, the prophet of Jehovah said: "Wait ye, upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the pray; for my determination is to gather the nations together, that I may assemble the Kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the people a pure message, that they may call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent." (Zephaniah 3: 8, 9). Why turn to the people a pure message after this time of trouble is over, unless God intends that the people should profit by it?

Many children have been left fatherless in the recent war and revolution, and with comfort the Lord's prophte says: "Leave thy fatherless children I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me." Jeremiah 49: 11.

After those who pass through the time of trouble have been ministered unto and given the opportunities of blessings by the Messiah, then those who have slept in their graves in death shall be awakened and given knowledge of the truth. That will be their "Due time" to hear the message concerning the Ransom. "Marvel not, at this, for the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his (Christ Jesus) voice and shall come forth; they that have done good unto a resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto a resurrection by judgment." (John 5: 28, 29 Revised Version). "There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust." (Acts 24: 15). "Christ is risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man (Adam) came death, so by man (Christ Jesus) came also the resurrection of the dead. For as all in Adam died, even so in Christ shall be made alive. But every man in his own order." (1st Cor. 15: 20-23). The Apostle then proceeds to show that the Messiah "Must reign until he hath put all enemies under his foot. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."

It wil be during the reign of the glorious Messiah that the following text will be fully realized: "If a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death." It cannot be said that man, in the true sense, lives until he has a legal right to live, and the legal right to live will come to him only when it is offered as a gracious gift through Christ Jesus, as the Apostle stipulates. (Rom. 6: 23; 5: 18, 19). Jesus declared: "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John 11: 26). This Scripture must have a fulfillment, and the time for the beginning of its fulfillment is the beginning of restitution times, which commence with the reign of the Messiah. The old order being dead and passing away, and the new coming in, there are millioms of persons on this earth now who will pass through that trouble and who obeying the Lord's rightous rules, shall never die.

The prophet Job has given us a beautiful picture of this arrangement for the restoration of mankind. He describes a man who is aged and sick; and there is brought to him a knowledge of the great ransom. He believes and accepts the Lord's teaching and obeys the rightous rules and is restored to his youth, and his flesh becomes fresher than that of a child. Mark this beautiful Scripture: "He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. He (man) is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitudes of his bones with strong pain; so that his life abhoreth bread and his soul dainty meat. His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stuck out. Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers. If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand to show unto man his uprightness; then he (the Lord is gracious unto him, and saith, deliver him from going down to the pit: I, (says the man) have found a ransom. His flesh shall become fresher than a child's; he shall return to the days of his youth. He shall pray unto God and he will be favorable unto him; he shall see his face with joy; for he will render unto man his righteousness." Job 33: 18-27.

Saint John, the follower of the Lord Jesus, was convicted of the alleged crime of sedition and banished to the Isle of Patmos. While he was there as a convict in a rock quarry, the Lord visited him and gave him a wonderful mental vision of the blessings to come. Saint John saw the incoming of the Golden Age, and sublimely described it thus: "And I saw a new heaven and new earth for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away and there was no more sea and I John saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying: "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men (on earth not in heaven) and He will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and he their God. And God shall wipe all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things have passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, "behold, I will make all things new." Rev. 21: 1-5.

In this glorious reign of Christ the great enemy of mankind, death will be destroyed. When there is no more death to ravage the human race the people of earth will live in joy, in happiness, in peace forever.

(A. N. P. Service)

ROME, June 30.—The ceremony of the beatification of twenty-two Negroes, who died martyrs for the faith in Uganda under King Mwanga, was celebrated with great pomp in the Basilica of St. Peter's. Cardinals, Bishops and other richly gowned officials, with missionary priests worn by their labors in torrid climates, passed up the center of St. Peter's to receive the announcement of beatification from Pope Benedict.

During the afternoon the Pontiff descended to St. Peter's accompanied by the Cardinals to venerate the pictures and relics of these humble saints.

FULTON-WILLS IN FIRST N. Y. BOUT

Heavyweights Clash In First 15-Round Go In New York State.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 27.—Heavy-weights Fred Fulton and Harry Wills will meet in the first boxing bout of importance under the new law permitting boxing contests in New York. This announcement was made here tonight by the International Sporting club which has matched the pugilists for a 15-round contest. The date will be made public later.

Under the terms of agreement, Fulton will receive $25,000 and Wills $10,000 without any percentage or bonus agreement.

It is the present intention of the club to limit the spectators to members of the organization, which includes some of the most prominent men in the business and social life of the country.

While no definite date has been announced, it is understood the contest will be held about the middle of July. It is intimated that the winner will be given an opportunity to face Champion Jack Dempsey later in the year.

A reception was given at the residence of Mrs. T. R. Gentry on North Detroit Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Margurette Abbott, a bride of a few days.

MEXICANS ISSUE CALL FOR VILLA

Manifesto Is Made Public Declaring in Favor of Him.

ASK NEW GOVERNMENT

Sonora Plan Is Opposed—Ten Generals Including Villa's Chief Sign Paper.

(By the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—Declaring in favor of the restoration of the constitution of 1857 and describing Francisco Villa as "the only leader who disinterestedly and patriotically combats and will continue to combat for the welfare of the people and for the re-establishment of constitutional order," 10 generals, including Villa's chief of staff and more than fifty other officers and a number of civilians have issued a manifesto to the Mexican people announcing their position in the present Mexican situation. The manifesto, a copy of which reached Washington recently, was issued at Hacienda Salacies, district of Jiminez, Chihuahua. It states that "the Agua Prieta plan, which is to be the standard of the new liberal constitutional revolution, like that of Guadalupe, will be a source of discord for the future and in consequence will bring serious evil to the country."

It further states that the signers of the manifesto "want the reign of democrarcy; true goverument of the people, by the people and not that the succession of tyrants be sought by means of treason, intrigue, disloyalty, cowardice and crime, assassinating some to elevate someoneelse."

"Product of a new military coup" the same manifesto says, "the regime which intends to establish itself in the country, with the same passions, the same jealousies, the same ambitions and the same mistakes, will be impotent to restore peace in the republic."

The manifesto states that the Villistas endeavored to join the Sonora revolt at its inception, hoping that it shared the same ideals and principles as their own, but, it states, "unfortunately our good faith, our honesty and our patriotism have been met with intrigues, disloyalty and treachery, and with the most absolute disregard for justice that has been and still is ours."

NEW PARTY ISSUES CALL.

(A. N. P. Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 1.—Colored men in this city have just issued a call with avowed intention of polling 500,000 votes for a Negro candidate for president. A leaflet is being sent broadcast by the Challenge Magazine, the official organ of the new party. "We mean to abolish Jim Crowism. We swear it by Almighty God," says the leaflet. Continuing the leaflet says, "If you want to be a man, a full fledged citizen with all the rights of manhood; come into the liberty party." The organization is said to be gaining in membership

Hot Congressional Fight In The Fifth.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. June 30.—With five Democratic, two Republican and one Socialist candidate registered for the primary election, August 3, the contest for nominations for congressman from the Fifth District, comprising Logan, Payne, Oklahoma, Cleveland, McClain, Garvin and Murray Counties, is considered one of the warmest in the state campaign. Roy Stafford, William Franklin, F. B. Swank C. D. Webster, and Leslie G. Niblack are the Democratic contestants; Ernest E. Reardon and B. T. Hainer the republican, and J. Luther Langston the Socialist. Swank is a resident of Norman and Webster lives on a Cleveland county farm; Niblack resides at Guthrie and the rest are residents of Oklahoma City.

(Okla. State News.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. June 30.—R. A. Singletary, secretary and manager of the Oklahoma Good Roads Association, has received a large consignment of "trip" road maps intended for distribution among interstate and and auto tourists. The maps show in detail the routes between principal cities in the state, giving all the necessary information relative to stopping places, sources of supplies and places of interest as well as detailed travel information. The Oklahoma Good Roads Association is preparing to launch a state-wide membership campaign early in the fall.

OUR POLITICAL FAITH.

"All men are born equal and endowed with certain inalienabl rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." —Thomas Jefferson.

We believe in the principles of true Democracy as promulgated by the patriot, Thomas Jefferson, and without fear or favor, we will be found at all times fighting for an honest, impartial application of these principles to all men regardless of race or color.

OUR RELIGIOUS FAITH.

To live as near as we can to our own conception of our duty to God and to our fellowmen; to do right and live right at all times as God has given us the conscience to see and feel it.

We believe man's greatest service to God may be rendered through honest, unselfish service to mankind,

We believe in the Golden Rule and practice it.

We fear only to do wrong.

BIG MEN

I've seen folks get all excited when some Big man chanced round—
"Why he's famous all about from Maine to Puget Sound"
My that nonesense! Let me tell you—'tis as plain as A to Z.—
He's just ordinary "human" all the same as you or me.

Don't care if he is all diked up in those gaudy folderals,
If the truth was known about it he's at home in overalls!
If those English "dogs" are shining—Bet they're hurting cause they're new
And he's wished he had his old ones with the toes all shining through

Don't give him such fancy "eatins", I'll admit it's fine for style
But when one gets "sure nuff" hungry this will beat it by a mile—
Give him cornbread, beans and bacon, something that he's sure to like,
Somethin' that won't make him nervous, fearin' he can't eat jus right.

Treat him like you would a human, not a doll you are afraid to touch,
And for goodness sake, when talkin', please don't praise him overmuch.
For it's not a bit a credit to be hiked upon a shelf—
All away from everybody, gets so lonesome by yourself!

'Cause it's nice to be a genius and it's fine to have the wealth,
But it's glory to have happiness, companionship and health.
Be yourself in your own calling, for the best it can afford
Is the spirit of your presence and the honor of your word.

—EVA ALBERTA JESSYE.

IF YOU WATCH THE FELLOWS who are always hollering about Race Pride, and advising the masses of our people to spend their money with Race enterprises, to make places for our boys and girls, you will find among them some rank hypocrites, who do not practice what they preach. Open your eyes and look about you and when you have found the vultures take them at their word and foster real unassuming and impretentious RACE ENTERPRIZES that actually offer opportunities to our boys and girls. The worst enemy the Race has to contend with is that class of imposters who preach the doctrine of "Race Pride" while they are fleecing our people to build up enterprizes where a Colored boy or Colored girl nat not get a job even as janitors. If these leaders and "Race Pride" preachers have a moral right to do this to "save money" or for any other reason, so have the struggling masses of our group a moral right to follow the example thus set. If we can not be truly RACE MEN let us stop sailing under false colors.

WE WHO LIVE IN TULSA, are more concerned (or should be) in the election of Congressman, State Legislators, County and City officials than we are in the election of the president. Especially does this apply to members of our group. If we use our ballots to better local conditions we then do ourselves and the nation a great service.

HAMON, OF BIBICAL FAME in his jealous zeal to see the destruction of a fellow being, built a gallows on which he hoped to see Mordica, a good, honest man, executed. But his envious, jealous, conniving, planning and plotting met a just reward when he himself was hanged thereon. And there are some modern Hamons who, if justice prevails, will meet the same fate.

WHATEVER THE CLERGY may think or say about lawyer Richard J. Hill, his doctrine appeals to thousands of people throughout the world and he is attracting a strong following among our group here. The old world is getting restless in her search for the Truth.

THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY Colored democratic voters is certainly a strong opposition for the Tulsa County G. O. P. to overcome. In the County election, as in the city campaign, our fellows will toe the mark for the democratic ticket.

THE MEANEST FELLOW in the world is the scoundrel who polishes lies to bring strife between his fellowmen all the while himself posing as a neutral friend. Do you know him?

GOVERNOR COX of Ohio seems to be the popular favorite for the democratic nomination and may be the successful candidate. He is the logical man and ought to be nominated.

THE REPUBLICANS are kidding themselves into the belief that they can win in the County election this fall. But then Tulsa republicans are naturally dreamers.

AMONG OTHER THINGS Tulsa has a Cosmopolitan citizenship unsurpassed anywhere in the world. Won't you join us?

THE MAN who thinks he knows it all, is a fool, not worth trying to teach—in fact he is beyond teaching.

THE "GRAND OLD MAN" from Nebraska is making a strong fight, and a manly one, but the odds are against him.

FAITHFUL SERVICE GETS ITS REWARD

Race Man Gets Dividend Check for $365.00—Is Proud of His Record.

T. GILMER.

That honest living and faithful service gets its own reward was amply proven Thursday when T. Gilmer, messenger and head porter for the Exchange National Bank of this city received a check for $365 from said bank in payment of his dividend as the oldest employee of that institution.

Mr. Gilmer started work for this bank ten years ago and has worked continuously since that time faithfully discharging the duties and responsibilities reposed in him.

He is justly proud of his record, but does not feel that he is entitled to any special honors for having done his duty well.

The Exchange National Bank has a dividend system for the benefit of all employees and Mr. Gilmer being the oldest employee received the largest check. All the employees received checks aggregating thousands of dollars.

The Great Majority of Preachers Teach Error

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I have been informed that a few Pastors of the local churches have busied themselves warning their members to stay away from lectures being given at 618 East Archer, by International Bible Students every First and Third Sunday of each month. I am glad to note that most of the preachers are rather broad minded and are beginning to recognize that the International Bible Students have the truth. But I am sorry to say that there are a few ignorant, pin-head fellows posing as ministers who are bitter enemies to Light and Truth, and whose only object is to keep the poor people in darkness and squeeze all the money out of them they can and make a big show to the world. Listen, dear people of the public, you can put it down that any preacher who warns you to stay away from the International Bible Students' is one who wants to keep you in darkness. He (that pin-headed preacher) knows that we have the Light and he also knows that if you come into the Light, down goes his (the preachers) pork-chops.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday, July 18, will be entitled "THE LAST GREAT BATTLE."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

The great church system of the world, is made up of Diverse sects and each one of these sects has its own preachers who teach different theories inconsistent with each other. One class of clergymen, (Catholics), have long taught and do yet teach that at death a certain class of men go to Purgatory, there to remain for an indefinite season and that they, the preachers have power to say prayers and masses to relieve them from their Purgatorial sufferings. This system of error has proven to be a fruitful source of money-making. This class of preachers have always had their members to understand that no one is ever relieved from Purgatory under one thousand years and thus this class of Clergymen set a date so far ahead that no living person could ever pay the bill, and therefore the obligation would descend from one generation to another. Still another class of clergymen teach that God long ago fore-ordained that a few persons would be saved in a Heaven of Eternal bliss while the great mass of mankind must spend their eternity in endless torment. In another way of putting it, they claim that the destiny of an individual is fixed without the individual's knowledge or consent. Another class of preachers hold and teach that God offers freely to every man the opportunity for Salvation in Heaven and that anyone who misses that home of Endless Bliss does so by his own fault.

Another and more modern school of preachers, teach that man is a creature of evolution, springing from protoplasm and developing stage by stage from baboon to monkey and from monkey to man, and continues to progress until some time in the endless ages to come he will reach a stage of perfection.

There was a time when most of these Denominations claimed to believe in and teach the Bible as God's word of truth, but the more modern schools style themselves Higher Critics and deny the inspiration of the Scriptures and hold that they are wiser than the men of old who wrote the Bible.

The time was when these various schools of Theology were at war with each other, some going to the extreme of burning one another at the stake, because of different views. In modern times, however, they have sought a common union upon a common basis, each being willing to give up his pet theory and subscribe to no doctrine at all except an agreement to work together in the formation of a church trust. To accomplish their purpose they have united with the financial and political powers of the world.

Many thinking people have long been observing the inconsistences of the theories advanced by the preachers and have come to the conclusion that some of them, if not all of them are teaching falsehood. The result has been that many honest minded persons have been driven away from the churches from the study of the Bible and from God. The preachers realizing this fact are trying to rally their forces and organize a general system whereby they can all stand together. The people of the world are beginning to find out that the clergy as a whole are teaching error, and naturally they ask the question, "Why do they do it?" The proper answer to this question is found in Isaiah 56: 10-11. Be sure and read it.

The present condition of things were fore-told, by the Lord's servants. Holy men of old as they were moved by the Holy Spirit or invisible Power of Jehovah. 2nd Peter 1: 21. The Divine mind foreknew all things that would transpire and cause a record to be made in advance. Prophecy is history written in advance of happening of events. Only the Divine mind could have fore-told and fore-known such events. In this day and time it is not at all common for a preacher to be asked by some of his members, an explanation of some phases of the Scripture and almost invariably that preacher will answer the question like this, "The Bible cannot be understood by a layman, even though it was explained to him." In fact we hear very little explanation of the Bible any more. These preachers have become very indifferent to the teachings of the Lord and are dead asleep as to the importance of events transpiring now. Through the prophet, the Lord foretold this very condition.

The Apostles of old spoke of themselves as servants of God, but the modern clergymen take the name of Doctor of Divinity (D. D.) and call themselves the watchman of their respective flocks and claim to be God's watchmen. Now, of this class the prophet of the Lord wrote: "His watchmen (the preachers) are blind. They are all dumb dogs (D. D.). They cannot bark, sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber (Loving ease and comfort). Yea! They are greedy dogs which can never have enough and they are shepherds that cannot understand, (know nothing of the truth). They all look to their own ways, every one for his gain (money collections and honors) from his quarter (his denomination). Isaiah 56: 10-11.

The secrets of the Lord is with them that reverence Him. Psalms 25: 14. The first thing essential to the understanding of Jehovah's plan is a full and unreserved consecration to God's will at any cost. This means that such a one will never seek to please himself or man-made organizations or systems when to do so would be contrary to the will of God. To find out God's will one must study his word, namely the Bible, and once asserting the will of God, one should do his (God's) will without fear of man or hope of promised earthly reward.

God promised that in due time his plan would be unfolded to man. His due time to unfold it to the true Christians proceeds the time for its unfolding to the world in general. Jehovah showed the Prophet Daniel a vision of events to transpire, covering a long period of time and ending in a time immediately preceeding the full establishment of Messiah's Kingdom on the earth. Daniel did not understand the meaning of the vision, because it was not intended to be understood in his time. Daniel said: "I heard, but I understood not." In other words, Daniel beheld a vision and heard the words of explanation but did not understand their meaning. Then he said, "Oh my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?" And he, Jehovah said: "Go thy, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified and made white and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly and none of the wicked shall understand but the wise shall understand." Dan. 1p: 8-10. Bible Chronology shows that "the time of the end," is a period of years during which period those who reverence Jehovah will be permitted to understand the secrets of his plans and these are they who are termed, wise, not wise according to earthly wisdom, but wise according to God's manner. The modern clergymen do not pretend to study and teach the Bible but they study theology—man-made theories. They call in question the very authenticity of the Holy Scriptures and depend upon the wisdom of the world. Concerning such class it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?" 1st Cor. 1: 19-20.

Jehovah revealed to Daniel and caused him to record certain things as a keynote in order that the Godly wise might understand, saying: "But, thou, Oh! Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, even to the time of the end, many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be

During the past half century the wonderful methods of transportation have come into existence. The railways girdle the earth. The great steam ships plow with rapidity the mighty seas. The airships fly as birds from place to place, and thus the power of electricity, steam and gas has brought the people in close contact with each other to witness a great running to and fro such as the world before has never known. At the same time there has come a marvelous increase of knowledge along every line. The modern would-be wise preachers look look wise and say: "Behold, what man has accomplished." But the reverential student of God's word points to Daniel's prophecies and say: "Behold the divine testimony enabling us to determine where we are on the stream of time." Most of the preachers are wise in their own wisdom and understand not. The meek persons who reverent God are wise according to Divine order and understand and rejoice in the unfolding of Jehovah's plan.

Just here I stop to warn the preachers that the time has come when the world is demanding the whole truth concerning God's plan of Salvation. The poor people have been fooled by the preachers long enough.

Friend, you may be surprised when I make the following charges against the majority of preachers: They stand guilty before God, in that they have misrepresented his character and plan of Salvation. They are guilty before the laws of the land for receiving money and honors under false pretense. They havebusied themselves in making the great masses of people believe that if they (the people) would pay them (the preachers) good, fat salaries, build fine church houses, keep up their church dues, etc. A heaven of eternal bliss would be theirs at death, but if they did otherwise a life of eternal torment and misery in fire and brimstone SERMON GALLEY THREE 3 3 3 would be their portion. As a matter of fact, there is not one word or line in the Bible supporting such doctrines. Yet with a full knowledge of the falsity of their claim, they have collected millions in money and lived a life of ease and slumber. They are plainly guilty under the laws of the United States for receiving money and honors under false pretense.

I further charge that every intelligent minister is teaching the doctrine of eternal torment or punishment in a lake of fire and brimstone for selfish purposes and does not want the people to know the truth. The only reason that this horde of false teachers do not defend themselves before the public, is because, first, they know they have no scripture to back them in their false teachings; second, they know that the people will hear the truth at such debates.

I wish to say further that every minister here in Tulsa who endorses the eternal torment of fire and brimstone doctrine owes it to himself and his fellow brothers to defend their doctrine before my face and the public for the reason that, one self-named, "Black Billy Sunday" who attempted to defend the ministers and other fire and brimstone sufferers made such a disgraceful failure that the thinking people of this city will always believe that the supporters of the eternal torment doctrine are hard pressed for some one to defend them before the public.

Some of the would-be wise ministers have a way of pretending to others that the charges I make against them concerning their false teachings are of so little importance that it is not worth their time to bother with it, but dear people, such pretenses by these preacheres are not true. The fact is they are afraid that their selfish schemes to keep the people fooled and their gross ignorance of the Bible would be shown to the public.

The charges I am making against the preachers are serious. If they are false the ministers should show me up through the scriptures to my face before the public. But if my position is true then every eternal torment preacher should stop at once and preach no more until he learns the truth. The people are entitled to know the truth concerning the punishment of the wicked. But they cannot know the truth as long as ministers who are supposed to represent Jehovah God, teach falsehoods.

Now I am fully aware that the charges I am making against the majority of the preachers are not going to make me any friends except among those whose hearts are right and whose desire it is to please the Lord at any cost. My whole life

Bequeathed Estate to Colored People.

GASTONIA, N. C., July 8.—Miss Mittie Ross, a member of one of the oldest white families in the state, who died here recently left one half of her estate of $75,000 to Mattie Belle Hudson, colored, and the balance was divided among her colored friends and local churches.

Buffalo Firm Establishes Slavery

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 8.—The Dunlop Rubber Co., of this city is alleged to be working Colored men under a system more exacting and binding than the army—virtual slavery. The company being short of menrecently imported 500 colored men from Richmond, Va., promising them most encouraging terms and prospects. None of these have been lived up to and the men are very greatly disgruntled and disgusted. One added hardship was that Southern whites had been appointed as overseers and foremen.

Colored Girls Get Clerkship.

BUFFALO N. Y.—Two colored girls, Viola Saunders and Adelaide Hamilton, were recently given employment as clerks in the Buffalo Tax Department, having proven their qualifications by civil service examination. The local Republican League was influential in bringing about this recognition, after the girls had shown their fitness.

This Story Comes From Dear "Old Harvard."

BOSTON, Mass., July 8.—Recently at Memorial Hall, Harvard University, a near race riot took place and resulted in the injury to Donat Wilson, of Pittsburg, Pa., the sending in of a riot alarm to the police department, and the escape of A. Mayer, Colored waiter, of Washington, D. C., who, it is alleged, started the trouble by drawing a revolver. Six hundred students dine in the Memorial Hall and the majority of them are of Southern extraction. Trouble has been brewing for some time owing to the resentment of the Southern students to what they called undue familarity on the part of Mayer, as waiter. The trouble began when it is said Mayer made some slighting remark to Wilson, though different stories are told of the origin. All agree, however, that Mayer grabbed Wilson by the hair and struck him in the face. To defend himself, Wilson grabbed the water pitcher and Mayer drew a gun. A grand students' rush followed with Mayer as the objective point. The boys threw Mayer down, took the revolver from him, and beat him up. Mayer was saved by the quick action of the headwaiter, and escaped before the police arrived in answer to the call.

Casting Bread Upon the Waters.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 8.—Henry Perry, a well known barbecue dealer of this city, believes that "God has been ever so good to him." Unlike many people to whom God has also been good, Perry has indicated his purpose of showing his appreciation of God's benificence. Perry arranged to serve free barbecue to 1,000 old men, women and children on July 3, last. The tables were spread on the lawn in the rear of his establishment and all were fed to their heart's or rather their stomach's content. The barbecue feast cost Perry $500.00 but as he has neither wife nor children, the expense will not break him. One other instance of such prodigal giving stands in the feasting of the multitude by Dr. Redmond of Jackson, Miss.

THE CONFERENCE OF EDITORS

(A. N. P. Service)

The Conference of nearly fifty of the editors of the Associated Negro Press, held recently in Chicago in the library of the Appomattox Club, marks a new epoch in American life. It was the largest voluntary gathering of Negro editors ever held in this country. The discussions were fervent, practical and pointed.

These important facts were outstanding: The Negro Newspaper of today is a real commercial factor; the newspaper is the most outstanding force of public opinion in the race; the editors see with clear eyes and think straight, and there is not the slightest disposition to fear anything or anybody under the Heavens, and the newspapers of the country mean real business in working out this job of human rights and American oportunities.

Call it radical, or by any other name, the "follies of the day"—segregation, jim crow, lynching, mob violence, disfranchisement and bomb throwing—must cease and the right thinking people of both races must see to the job.

The newspapers of the country, with the backing and endorsement of the Associated Negro Press have highly resolved to work in season andout, without wearying or impatience, to get the desired results. There is no man too big, nor any section of the country too remote, to receive the serious and unflagging consideration of the newspapers published in the interest of the race.

The Chicago Conference of Editors marks a new day and a great day in working out our salvation.

THE NEGRO PRESS.

(A. N. P. Service)

The Negro Press is extending its influence and adding to its power. The gratifying results have attended its efforts because the social vision of the race has stronger and clearer sweep than ever before. If it were otherwise our hope for the future would be crushed to nothingness and we would have lived to no social purpose. The power is ours, achievement is now the order of the day.

Living, not dying, is now the dominant note in the soul-song of our higher aspiration. Heretofore our concern was centered in Heaven. We now realize that life holds the key to heaven. This knowledge has brought into striking and interesting relief the need to bring a sincere appreciation of the practical spirituality, imperatively demanded of men if they would build for substantial social progress.

Duty, not in the abstractly philosophical sense, but concretely applied to the healthy requirements of social existence has already begun to play an important part in ourtheories of contact. And here is where the Negro Press is doing its largest share of work. Character training, faith are being combined to bring about a situation which will soundly establish our right to a place in the Congress of Nations. This is real progress.

It does not matter that certain journals have attained "a phenomenal measure of success" by pandering to th baser instincts of the race. We can well afford to tolrate their unwholesome presence if out of the mists there comes something of the light of social health. Success is not achievement until its glow grows to light.

Courage, high purpose and truth —these are the essences of the power which has come to the Negro Press; and these are of the spiritthat will lift the race to the planes of worthy social endeavor. Long Live The Negro Press!

Celebration of Masons.

(A. N. P. Service.)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 8.—What is said to have been the greatest demonstration in the history of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Illinois and Jurisdiction, Free and Accepted Masons, was held here last Sunday afternoon. Fully three thousand men dressed in full Masonic Regalia participated in this St. John's day celebration. The procession was led by three bands, which divided the body into three groups. Twenty-three local lodges were represented.

To Discuss Welfare.

(A. N. P. Service.)

ALEXANDRIA, La. July 8.—A conference for the purpose of formulating plans for a welfare plan for the Negroes of this State closed its session last Friday night. Sanitation and Health; Housing and Living Conditions; Provision for Idle Moments Law and Order; Publicity and the Newspaper; Segregation Laws; Race Pride and the Preservation of Race Integrity; Economic Problems; Co-Operation; Church Responsibility; Schools, Farm and Home Life, are featured of the plan adopted.

Howard Will Aid Service Men!

Congressman Howard Offers His Services to All Ex-Service Men Who Desires to Take Advantage of Opportunity Offered By Government to All Liberty Veterans.

According to a statement made yesterday by Congressman E. B. Howard, many of the ex-service men of all races have allowed their government insurance to elapse thus depriving themselves of protection that thtey can not possibly get from any other source. An extension of time has been granted by the Bureau of War Risk for the benefit of those who wish to renew their insurance and Mr. Howard, who has taken a personal interest in looking after the welfare of the ex-service men in Washington, now urges that they avail themselves of this opportunity to provide against future disabilities.

"I am anxious to see these boys take advantage of this opportunity now while they can," said the Congressman, " and I will gladly render them any service I can to aid them if they will call on me. There is yet time for them to reinstate and for their own protection I hope they will not delay this important duty to themselves and their families any longer."

Mr. Howard was elected to the United States Congress two years ago and has made a splendid record in Washington. He is now a candidate without opposition for nomination and re-election on the democratic ticket and in all probability will be returned by substantial majority.

OHIO LILLY WHITES BUNCO PROMINENT RACE LEADER

Similarity of Names Used As Pretext To Oust Editor Smith From Republican Primary.

(A. N. P. Service)

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 16.—By a ruling handed down by the Secretary of State last Thursday, Harry C. Smith editor of The Cleveland Gazette, was forced off the Republican Ticket, as a candidate for nomination for Secretary of State, subject to the August primary election. Because the Gazette's editor has the same initials, "H. C." as the present secretary of state. Harvey C. Smith, he was charged with collusion to confuse the voters although Harry C. Smith denied collusion, and the evidence brought out at the hearing did not substantiate the charge. Because Harry M. Daugherty, political manager of Senator Harding, voluntarily, and without bearing on the case, caused to be introduced evidence purporting he had sent Harry C. Smith a check for expenses to come to Chicago to work for Harding. Colored voters are charging that the Harding-Daugherty combine was in collusion to force Smith off the ticket. The Cleveland Advocate, edited by Forte and Tyler, and between whom and the editor of the Gazette there has been no love, has bitterly denounced the ruling of Harry C. Smith from the race as high-handed injustice , and has championed the cause of its local contemporary's editor. The incident has greatly aroused Ohio Colored voters, and fear exists that they will make the party pay for it by withholding their votes from Harding in November.

CHICAGOANS HONOR MAN WHO DEFENDED FLAG

Noted Americans Commend Valor of Patrolman Owens At Notable Patriotic Testimonial.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 16.—A patriotic testimonial was given at the Eighth Regiment Armory, July 4, in honor of Joseph Owens, the Chicago patrolman who was seriously wounded in the recent outbreak here which caused the death of two people. Patrolman Owens immortalized himself by rushing in defence of the American flag when a group of fanatics sought to burn it.

The meeting was under the auspices of a citizens' committee, and the speakers were Edward H. Wright, who presided; Alderman Louis B. Anderson and Robert R. Jackson, Oscar De Priest, Chief of Police Garrity and Henry L. Johnson, of Atlanta, Ga. All of the addresses praised the faithfulness of Policeman Owens. Chief Garrity declared that all citizens of the community must be protected, and that, in his opinion, a recurrence of last summer's riot would be impossible. Within three hours after his first knowledge of the recent disturbance, he had more than 1000 patrolmen on the scene.

Colored Organize Cox-Roosevelt Club

State Meeting Called For August 9 In Tulsa to Affect Permanent Organization.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 14—A temporary State Cox-Roosevelt Club was organized in the Trayler Hotel here Tuesday by some of the leading Colored democrats of the state and plans laid to launch a vigorous campaign for the National democratic ticket this fall. A. J. Smitherman, editor of the Tulsa Star was elected temporary president of the club. The other temporary officers elected were J. W. Price, McAlester, recording secretary; J. T. Presley, Tulsa, Corresponding secretary; John W. Bush, Oklahoma City, organizer and J. H. Smitherman, Tulsa, Treasurer.

A State meeting will be held in Tulsa, Monday August 9, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. All Colored democrats in the state are invited to attend this meeting.

There are several Colored democratic clubs in the state at this time and a large attendance is expected at the Tulsa meeting next month.

JACK THOMPSON PICKS FULTON AS WINNER OF FULTON-WILLS BOUT

That the fight between Fred Fulton and Harry Wills, scheduled to take place in Newark, N. J., July 26 will not go 15 rounds and that Fred Fulton will be declared the winner is the opinion of Jack Thompson of this city, who has met both Wills and Fulton. Jack says he is not bluffing and offers to cover a bet in any amount up to $10,000.00 that his judgement is good.

If Harding isn't, Cox will be.

Scott Ferris Picked As Sure Winner

Gore Started Well But Is Loosing Speed In Final Heat of Strenerous Campaign.

After completing a careful poll of the Colored democratic voters in this city, a prominent politician announced yesterday that more than 70 per cent of the Colored vote in Tulsa will line up in the Ferris column in the primary election, Tuesday, August 3.

According to this announcement many of the voters who were formerly inclined to vote for the blind Senator have since changed their minds and will now vote for Scott Ferris in the primary.

One Colored man when approached by a scout from the Gore campaign headquarters, and asked to vote for Senator Gore, said: "Well, my mind is already made up now, and I am going to vote one time, anyhow, for that Ferris man. But in case he lose then I'll use my next vote to help the blind."

Friends of Scott Ferris claim that he will carry the State by a large majority.

National Business League to Meet

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NATIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY

Robert Curtis Ogden Association To Entertain Convention With Special Program In John Wanamaker Mercantile Emporium—The Program.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 17.—No more interesting program is being arranged in connection with the annual meeting of the National Negro Business League, to be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 18, 19, 20, 1920, than the reception to be tendered the officers and members of the National Organization by the Robert Curtis Ogden Association in University Hall of the John Wanamaker Mercantile Emporium. Mr. Ogden, for whom the Association is named, was for many years one of the partners of Mr. Wanamaker. He was deeply interested in the educational and business development of the Colored people. Often he headed pilgrimages to the South in the interest of the education of all the children of the South, black and white alike.

The special committee representing the Robert Curtis Ogden Association, charged with the responsibility of making it a success, is John W. Love, Chairman; Robert S. Jackson and John L. Grinnell.

The opening session of the League will be held in the new Dunbar Theatre while the first evening session will be held in the Academy of Music. Word has been received to the effect that delegates from Florida, Alabama, Georgia and other southern states are to assemble in Savannah and proceed under escort of the Savannah Negro Business League to Philadelphia. Mr. L. E. Williams, President of the Wage Earners' Saving Bank, Savanah, Ga., in a letter to Dr. Scott, Secretary of the League, says that Savannah is planning to bring two cars of delegates, and these together with other delegates from nearby states, will make a solid train of Business League representatives from the South. We look forward to a record-breaking meeting.

WOMAN GIVES TULSA WONDERFUL RURAL SCHOOL SYSTEM

MRS. MINNETTE HEDGES
The popular Superintendent of Tulsa County who is seeking re-election on her record alone.

"MOST WONDERFUL SCHOOL SYSTEM IN UNITED STATES" BUILT UP UNDER FEMININE GUIDANCE.

Perhaps no candidate before the people of Tulsa in the approaching primary election, August 3 is better and more favorably known to the rural people of this county than Mrs. Minnette Hedges, County Superintendent, who is seeking to succeed herself in this office. Mrs. Hedges has built up one of the best rural school systems in the country for which the people of Tulsa County will always feel themselves indebted to her.

That her work has attracted marked attention not only in Tulsa, but elsewhere is proved by an article which appeared in an Educational issue of Harlow's Weekly last year.

We reproduce the article here without further comment:

"The keen discernment, energy and untiring zeal which Mrs. Minette Hedges, Tulsa County Superintendent, has for one term and part of another put into every piece of her work is the first and best reason for a story of the progress of her county schools, one of the most wonderful school stories in America.

Just here it might be well to pay tribute to the men of large wealth on the east side of the state. With but little exception every one assists in building good schools. If there is found a trace of opposition occasionly to a school levy from a big corporation, it is a mere trace and the man at headquarters denies that he is opposing school bond issues in any way. In other words, good schools in America have grown so popular that it is poor advertising to any man or any business to oppose good school business of any kind. Many fine corporations, like the Gypsy, the Sinclair, the Carter and others, build school buildings as they build their plants and the family of the employed enjoy a modern school in all ways from first days on entering upon the field without money and without price and wholly at the expense of the company. Mrs. Hedges is loud in praise of the great companies and their managers who transact business in Tulsa County and points with pride that they save the county great expense and are her best aids in developing her rural school system.

Mrs. Hedges knows every phase of Tulsa county school development almost since statehood. Coming into the office in 1910 as assistant county superintendent and remaining there until 1916, when first elected county superintendent, then re-elected in 1918, she has had an active part in every feature of the rural school development. Five years ago there were only 1,010 pupils on the rural rolls. Today there are 7,000 in the rural schools, and village school under supervision, bringing the quota up to 10,819. In 1914 the Tulsa city district had 6,957 pupils and the county 3,953. Today the city and county of Tulsa list 26,375, a gain of 13,465, or more than 100 per cent. When Mrs. Hedges took office there were perhaps forty pupils in the strictly rural schools taking high school work. Today there are a few more than 100, including village schools, which are trtuly rural, there are enrolled more than 500 high school pupils. There are some one-room schools in the county paying teachers $75 or $80 per month, but the average salary in the rural school runs around $125, with superintendents in such centers as Glenpool, Sperry, Bixby, etc., receiving $2,000 a year and a teacherage. The salaries in Tulsa, Creek, Washington, Muskogee and Okmulgee counties are as good as may be found in the United States.

Mrs. Hedges is striking right at the base of genuine school interests in the country schools. The small, weak, pauper school must go. The good people of Tulsa rural districts are seeking this and several rural one-room schools near such fine centers as Jenks, Owasso, Skaitook, Glenpool, Dawson, Bixby, Red Fork, Sand Springs and Broken Arrow are going to disappear and Tulsa county in the next four years will more than likely present to the state and the United States a picture of a completely consolidated county; every child therein included in a school with a plant as modern as that of any city, with normal and college graduates for teachers, with supervised special subjects as manual training and domestic science, agriculture, etc. This is almost possible right now, since all over the county there are just such schools. It will be interesting to introduce some of these not only most remarkable school centers of Oklahoma but leaders among the rural school forces of all America.

The Ladies Art Club met at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Smitherman, in extraordinary session, Thursday afternoon.

3,000 Visitors Expected Next Week

The coming of the K. of P. Grand Lodge here next week is being looked forward to with considerable interest by the people of this city and elaborate preparations have been made to care for the delegates and visitors who are expecteld to come within our gates.

Grand Chancellor Wickham says he expects an unusually large crowd during the Grand Lodge of both delegates and visitors and that he further expects the people of Tulsa to do their bit toward entertaining them.

"I am counting strong on the Tulsa spirit," said Dr. Wickham "and I do not think anyone will be disappointed."

The Grand Lodge will be in session Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

HOTEL WAITERS GET LAY OFF ON PAY

Remodeling of Kitchen In Hotel Tulsa Gives Dining Room Attaches Short Vacation.

All waiters in the Hotel Tulsa are off on a short vacation on full pay, according to a statement made by B. J. Green headwaiter at the above named hotel. The vacation will be in full force and effect for about three weeks during which time the waiters will receive their regular pay. Remodelling of thte kitchen which will require about three week's time is the cause for the vacation.

All the waiters, hall boys, hall maids and bus boys, and part of the kitchen help are Colored, and it is not unlikely, according to headwaiter Green, that Colored bell hops will be in style there.

The headwaiter speaks in glowing terms of Messrs. Kyle, Triplin and Calvin, manager, assistant manager and steward, respectively.

Mr. Green is one of the best hotel men in the country and has a splendid reputation among people of his race here.

The Chamber of Commerce recently presented him with a gold medal in appreciation of his services to that body. He is the only man in Tulsa to receive such honor.

WHO WANTS TO ADOPT A PRETTY BROWN BABY BOY?

If you Are Interested Call the Star Office or A. M. Welch, Humane Agent.

There are several married people in Tulsa whose homes have not been blessed with the sunshine that "the little ones" alone can bring and many of these have often expressed a desire for a little boy or a little girl to brighten their homes. The Star is pleased to be of service in offering to one of these childless homes all the joy and sunshine, a big brown eyed two months old baby boy is capable of lavishing upon kind hearted parents.

The father of this little boy deserted him and his mother. The mother is compelled to work for a living and she desires to have her child adopted into a lesirable family. Mr. Welch, the Humane Agent is very anxious to find a good home for the little brown baby and anyone who is interested, may call him or the Star Office.

Dr. W. H. Cobb of this city left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where he will [illegible] government officials.

According to a statement made yesterday by Congressman E. B. Howard, many of the ex-service men of all races have allowed their government insurance to elapse thus depriving themselves of protection that thtey can not possibly get from any other source. An extension of time has been granted by the Bureau of War Risk for the benefit of those who wish to renew their insurance and Mr. Howard, who has taken a personal interest in looking after the welfare of the ex-service men in Washington, now urges that they avail themselves of this opportunity to provide against future disabilities.

"I am anxious to see these boys take advantage of this opportunity now while they can," said the Congressman, " and I will gladly render them any service I can to aid them if they will call on me. There is yet time for them to reinstate and for their own protection I hope they will not delay this important duty to themselves and their families any longer."

Mr. Howard was elected to the United States Congress two years ago and has made a splendid record in Washington. He is now a candidate without opposition for nomination and re-election on the democratic ticket and in all probability will be returned by substantial majority.

OHIO LILLY WHITES BUNCO PROMINENT RACE LEADER

Similarity of Names Used As Pretext To Oust Editor Smith From Republican Primary.

(A. N. P. Service)

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 16.—By a ruling handed down by the Secretary of State last Thursday, Harry C. Smith editor of The Cleveland Gazette, was forced off the Republican Ticket, as a candidate for nomination for Secretary of State, subject to the August primary election. Because the Gazette's editor has the same initials, "H. C." as the present secretary of state, Harvey C. Smith, he was charged with collusion to confuse the voters although Harry C. Smith denied collusion, and the evidence brought out at the hearing did not substantiate the charge. Because Harry M. Daugherty, political manager of Senator Harding, voluntarily, and without bearing on the case, caused to be introduced evidence purporting he had sent Harry C. Smith a check for expenses to come to Chicago to work for Harding. Colored voters are charging that the Harding-Daugherty combine was in collusion to force Smith off the ticket. The Cleveland Advocate, edited by Forte and Tyler, and between whom and the editor of the Gazette there has been no love, has bitterly denounced the ruling of Harry C. Smith from the race as high-handed injustice , and has championed the cause of its local contemporary's editor. The incident has greatly aroused Ohio Colored voters, and fear exists that they will make the party pay for it by withholding their votes from Harding in November.

CHICAGOANS HONOR MAN WHO DEFENDED FLAG

Noted Americans Commend Valor of Patrolman Owens At Notable Patriotic Testimonial.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 16.—A patriotic testimonial was given at the Eighth Regiment Armory, July 4, in honor of Joseph Owens, the Chicago patrolman who was seriously wounded in the recent outbreak here which caused the death of two people. Patrolman Owens immortalized himself by rushing in defence of the American flag when a group of fanatics sought to burn it.

The meeting was under the auspices of a citizens' committee, and the speakers were Edward H. Wright, who presided; Alderman Louis B. Anderson and Robert R. Jackson, Oscar De Priest, Chief of Police Garrity and Henry L. Johnson, of Atlanta, Ga. All of the addresses praised the faithfulness of Policeman Owens. Chief Garrity declared that all citizens of the community must be protected, and that, in his opinion, a recurrence of last summer's riot would be impossible. Within three hours after his first knowledge of the recent disturbance, he had more than 1000 patrolmen on the scene.

HASKELL WOMAN LIKES "REV. HILL'S" SERMONS

Haskell, Oklahoma, July 13, 1920.
Mr. A. J. Smitherman
Dear Editor:

I am a reader of the Tulsa Star. I got my paper this week O. K., but I have not been getting it promptly all along. I would like to know if my subscription has expired. If o, please notify me at once.

I subscribed for six months, did I not? I do not want to miss the paper for I am interested in Rev. Richard J. Hill's sermons. May God speed him on in the Light and Truth of Jesus Christ.

Colored Organize Cox-Roosevelt Club

State Meeting Called For August 9 In Tulsa to Affect Permanent Organization.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla , July 14—A temporary State Cox-Roosevelt Club was organized in the Trayler Hotel here Tuesday by some of the leading Colored democrats of the state and plans laid to launch a vigorous campaign for the National democratic ticket this fall. A. J. Smitherman, editor of the Tulsa Star was elected temporary president of the club. The other temporary officers elected were J. W. Price, McAlester, recording secretary; J. T. Presley, Tulsa, Corresponding secretary; John W. Bush, Oklahoma City, organizer and J. H. Smitherman, Tulsa, Treasurer.

A State meeting will be held in Tulsa, Monday August 9, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. All Colored democrats in the state are invited to attend this meeting.

There are several Colored democratic clubs in the state at this time and a large attendance is expected at the Tulsa meeting next month.

JACK THOMPSON PICKS FULTON AS WINNER OF FULTON-WILLS BOUT

That the fight between Fred Fulton and Harry Wills, scheduled to take place in Newark, N. J., July 26 will not go 15 rounds and that Fred Fulton will be declared the winner is the opinion of Jack Thompson of this city, who has met both Wills and Fulton. Jack says he is not bluffing and offers to cover a bet in any amount up to $10,000.00 that his judgement is good.

If Harding isn't, Cox will be.

Scott Ferris Picked As Sure Winner

Gore Started Well But Is Loosing Speed In Final Heat of Strenuous Campaign.

After completing a careful poll of the Colored democratic voters in this city, a prominent politician announced yesterday that more than 70 per cent of the Colored vote in Tulsa will line up in the Ferris column in the primary election, Tuesday, August 3.

According to this announcement many of the voters who were formerly inclined to vote for the blind Senator have since changed their minds and will now vote for Scott Ferris in the primary.

One Colored man when approached by a scout from the Gore campaign headquarters, and asked to vote for Senator Gore, said: "Well, my mind is already made up now, and I am going to vote one time, anyhow, for that Ferris man. But in case he lose then I'll use my next vote to help the blind."

Friends of Scott Ferris claim that he will carry the State by a large majority.

National Business League to Meet

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NATIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY

Robert Curtis Ogden Association To Entertain Convention With Special Program In John Wanamaker Mercantile Emporium—The Program.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 17.—No more interesting program is being arranged in connection with the annual meeting of the National Negro Business League, to be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 18, 19, 20, 1920, than the reception to be tendered the officers and members of the National Organization by the Robert Curtis Ogden Association in University Hall of the John Wanamaker Mercantile Emporium. Mr. Ogden, for whom the Association is named, was for many years one of the partners of Mr. Wanamaker. He was deeply interested in the educational and business development of the Colored people. Often he headed pilgrimages to the South in the interest of the education of all the children of the South, black and white alike.

The special committee representing the Robert Curtis Ogden Association, charged with the responsibility of making it a success, is John W. Love, Chairman; Robert S. Jackson and John L. Grinnell.

The opening session of the League will be held in the new Dunbar Theatre while the first evening session will be held in the Academy of Music. Word has been received to the effect that delegates from Florida, Alabama, Georgia and other southern states are to assemble in Savannah and proceed under escort of the Savannah Negro Business League to Philadelphia. Mr. L. E. Williams, President of the Wage Earners' Saving Bank, Savanah, Ga., in a letter to Dr. Scott, Secretary of the League, says that Savannah is planning to bring two cars of delegates, and these together with other delegates from nearby states, will make a solid train of Business League representatives from the South. We look forward to a record-breaking meeting.

WOMAN GIVES TULSA WONDERFUL RURAL SCHOOL SYSTEM

MRS. MINNETTE HEDGES
The popular Superintendent of Tulsa County who is seeking re-election on her record alone.

"MOST WONDERFUL SCHOOL SYSTEM IN UNITED STATES" BUILT UP UNDER FEMININE GUIDANCE.

Perhaps no candidate before the people of Tulsa in the approaching primary election, August 3 is better and more favorably known to the rural people of this county than Mrs. Minnette Hedges, County Superintendent, who is seeking to succeed herself in this office. Mrs. Hedges has built up one of the best rural school systems in the country for which the people of Tulsa County will always feel themselves indebted to her.

That her work has attracted marked attention not only in Tulsa, but elsewhere is proved by an article which appeared in an Educational issue of Harlow's Weekly last year.

We reproduce the article here without further comment:

"The keen discernment, energy and untiring zeal which Mrs. Minette Hedges, Tulsa County Superintendent, has for one term and part of another put into every piece of her work is the first and best reason for a story of the progress of her county schools, one of the most wonderful school stories in America.

Just here it might be well to pay tribute to the men of large wealth on the east side of the state. With but little exception every one assists in building good schools. If there is found a trace of opposition evasionly to a school levy from a oil corporation, it is a mere trace and the man at headquarters denies that he is opposing school bond issues in any way. In other words, good schools in America have grown so popular that it is poor advertising to any man or any business to oppose good school business of any kind. Many fine corporations, like the Gypsy, the Sinclair, the Carter and others, build school buildings as they build their plants and the family of the employed enjoy a modern school in all ways from first days on entering upon the field without money ,and without price and wholly at the expense of the company. Mrs. Hedges is loud in praise of the great companies and their managers who transact business in Tulsa County and points with pride that they save the county great expense and are her best aids in developing her rural school system.

Mrs. Hedges knows every phase of Tulsa county school development almost since statehood. Coming into the office in 1910 as assistant county superintendent and remaining there until 1916, when first elected county superintendent, then re-elected in 1918, she has had an active part in every feature of the rural school development. Five years ago there were only 1,010 pupils on the rural rolls. Today there are 7,000 in the rural schools, and village school under supervision, bringing the quota up to 10,819. In 1914 the Tulsa city district had 6,957 pupils and the county 5,953. Today the city and county of Tulsa list 26,375, a gain of 13,165, or more than 100 per cent. When Mrs. Hedges took office there were perhaps forty pupils in the strictly rural schools taking high school work. Today there are a few more than 100, including village schools, which are trtuly rural, there are enrolled more than 500 high school pupils. There are some one-room schools in the county paying teachers $75 or $80 per month, but the average salary in the rural school runs around $125, with superintendents in such centers as Glenpool, Sperry, Bixby, etc., receiving $2,000 a year and a teacherage. The salaries in Tulsa, Creek, Washington, Muskogee and Okmulgee counties are as good as may be found in the United States.

Mrs. Hedges is striking right at the base of genuine school interests in the country schools. The small, weak, pauper school must go. The good people of Tulsa rural districts are seeking this and several rural one-room schools near such fine centers as Jenks, Owasso, Skaitook, Glenpool, Dawson, Bixby, Red Fork, Sand Springs and Broken Arrow are going to disappear and Tulsa county in the next four years will more than likely present to the state and the United States a picture of a completely consolidated county; every child therein included in a school with a plant as modern as that of any city, with normal and college graduates for teachers, with supervised special subjects as manual training and domestic science, agriculture, etc. This is almost possible right now, since all over the county there are just such schools. It will be interesting to introduce some of these not only most remarkable school centers of Oklahoma but leaders among the rural school forces of all America.

The Ladies Art Club met at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Smitherman, in extraordinary session, Thursday afternoon.

3,000 Visitors Expected Next Week

The coming of the K. of P. Grand Lodge here next week is being looked forward to with considerable interest by the people of this city and elaborate preparations have been made to care for the delegates and visitors who are expecteld to come within our gates.

Grand Chancellor Wickham says he expects an unusually large crowd during the Grand Lodge of both delegates and visitors and that he further expects the people of Tulsa to do their bit toward entertaining them.

"I am counting strong on the Tulsa spirit," said Dr. Wickham "and I do not think anyone will be disappointed."

The Grand Lodge will be in session Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

HOTEL WAITERS GET LAY OFF ON PAY

Remodeling of Kitchen In Hotel Tulsa Gives Dining Room Attaches Short Vacation.

All waiters in the Hotel Tulsa are off on a short vacation on full pay, according to a statement made by B. J. Green headwaiter at the above named hotel. The vacation will be in full force and effect for about three weeks during which time the waiters will receive their regular pay. Remodelling of thte kitchen which will require about three week's time is the cause for the vacation.

All the waiters, hall boys, hall maids and bus boys, and part of the kitchen help are Colored, and it is not unlikely, according to headwaiter Green, that Colored bell hops will be in style there.

The headwaiter speaks in glowing terms of Messrs. Kyle, Triplin and Calvin, manager, assistant manager and steward, respectively.

Mr. Green is one of the best hotel men in the country and has a splendid reputation among people of his race here.

The Chamber of Commerce recently presented him with a gold medal in appreciation of his services to that body. He is the only man in Tulsa to receive such honor.

WHO WANTS TO ADOPT A PRETTY BROWN BABY BOY?

If you Are Interested Call the Star Office or A. M. Welch, Humane Agent.

There are several married people in Tulsa whose homes have not been blessed with the sunshine that "the little ones" alone can bring and many of these have often expressed a desire for a little boy or a little girl to brighten their homes. The Star is pleased to be of service in offering to one of these childless homes all the joy and sunshine, a big brown eyed two months old baby boy is capable of lavishing upon kind hearted parents.

The father of this little boy deserted him and his mother. The mother is compelled to work for a living and she desires to have her child adopted into a lesirable family. Mr. Welch, the Humane Agent is very anxious to find a good home for the little brown baby and anyone who is interested, may call him or the Star Office.

Dr. W. H. Cohn of this city left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where he will confer with government officials.

Entire Family Has No Tonsils; Claim Absence Natural.

(By United Press).

CHICKASHA, Okla., July 22.—A tonsilless family has been found in Grady county. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson and seven children have never been bothered with tonsils. They claim the absence is natural and not due to operations.

MUSKOGEE T. B. ASSOCIATION ISSUES WARNING

It Wars On "Social" Disease As Well As The Dread Tuberculosis.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MUSKOGEE, Okla.,—The Muskogee Anti T. B. Association gives aid not only to tuberculor sufferers, but assists any needy case that comes within their reach.

While the secrets of these unfortunate afflicted ones are carefully guarded by us, it seems only fair to the public to give them an idea of some of the ravages that disease can and does make on the human body.

A case that gives a very striking example of the result of a neglected infection due to SOCIAL DISEASE is under our observation at present, and while the name and circumstances attending the family will be withheld, the facts will be given in full with the hope that it may serve as a warning.

Ten years ago Mr. A. was a prosperous farmer, who had always been healthy, and had had very few occasions to consult his family physician. So when he noticed an eruption on his body, he simply rubbed some "salve" on the "pimples" and dismissed the matter from his mind. But the "pimples" refused to be so unceremoniously dismissed, instead had intended they should, the condition grew gradually worse, he soon found to his dismay that his body was covered with suppurating ulcers (sores). To make matters worse his case became involved, a quack doctor was summoned and for several years Mr. A. followed his instructions to no avail. He was unable to do work of any kind, in fact his lower limbs were so badly affected that he was confined to his bed, while the frightful demon, known as Social Disease, took its toll of the victim's body. Friends, relatives and acquaintances gradually ceased their sympathetic visits, not because their sympathy had waned, but seeing the ravages that it had made on their neighbor, and having a lurking suspicion that this malady might be "catching" they decided to "drop" Mr. A.

Discouraged, despondent, miserable and grovelling in poverty with a nose all gone, an eye unspeakably demolished, and body truly typical of Lazarus, who begged for the comforting coolness of a canine tongue, Mr. A was found by an organization imbued with a missionary spirit, and the case reported to the Anti T. B. Association. Then the seemingly impossible happened, Laboratory tests were made, it was proved beyond a doubt that Mr. A was suffering from an infection that Moral Living would have prevented. The services of a veneral Specialist was sought and obtained, under his direction the case was treated, the ulcers were cleaned and dressed daily, medical injections were given at regular intervals, in a very short time the ulcers began to heal, in six weeks only scars were left to show where the ulcers had been, and while Mr. A. is not free from the curse of a broken Moral Law, either physically or otherwise, he is now able to do light work and eke out an existence for himself.

Where Are The Dead

SERMON GALLEY ONE ONE
LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now Listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday August 1, will be entitled, "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness in high places." Eph. 6: 11-12.

The Great Master said concerning the Church, "Ye are the light of the world." "Darkness hateth the light." The Church is near the end of its earthly pilgrimage and the hour of the final conflict is at hand. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The words of St. John now seem appropriate: "Look to yourselves that ye lose not those things which ye have wrought, but that ye receive the full reward."

For more than 6000 years a great battle has been waged between good and evil—light and darkness. The fight has involved the entire human family. God in his wisdom has permitted the forces of evil to prevail for a time, but the time is near at hand when the tide of battle shall turn. The conflict has resulted in great carnage, thousands of millions having succumbed to the agencies of Darkness. It has been attended with untold sorrow.

The fight had its beginning when our first parents were driven from Eden. It will end only at the end of the Millennial Age.

When Jesus was on earth he fought the same good fight of faith and for a time it seemed that the enemy had vanquished him, but shortly he proved that he had triumphed over death and the grave. His victory was complete; his reward the highest of all. Through him brought life and immortality to light and has made known his purposes to all who have imbibed his spirit and sought to follow in his footsteps.

Since Pentecost, God has been electing the Church, the members of which are called to follow in the footsteps of the Great Master, fighting as he fought, and who must gain the victory before receiving the crown of life.

There are two great armies engaged in this conflict. On the side of evil is the army of darkness, marshalled by Satan, the prince of Darkness. On the other side is the army of light with Jesus Christ as its field marshall, leading his host on to certain victory.

Every man and woman on earth is doing service this day for one or the other of these armies. There is no middle ground, as Saint Paul puts it, "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves to obey, his servants ye are to whom you obey; whether of sin unto death or of obedience unto righteousness." Rom. 6: 16.

The Lord's army on earth is composed of those who have turned away from the world of sin and darkness and are following the Master wheresoever he goeth, because of their full consecration and love for him. All such manifest the spirit of Christ, all others are in the army of Satan. Who is on the Lord's side? Which side are you on?

RICHARD J. HILL.

The Church this side of the vale is the Church militant meaning, the Church at war. It is both an individual and collective warfare. Each one must fight the good fight of faith and be victorious before he can attain to the position of joint heirship with the Lord, and each one having the Master's spirit will fight together with all the other members of the body to maintain the spirit of unity in the body. All such must fight under the leadership of their captain. The same admonition Saint Paul gave to Timothy applies to each member of the body: "This charge I commit unto you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare. Fight the good fight of faith; lay hold on eternal life whereunto thou wast called and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." 1 Tim. 1: 18; 1 Tim. 6: 12. Again, St. Paul said. "Only let the lives be worthy of the gospel that we may know who are standing in one spirit and one mind, fighting shoulder to shoulder for the faith and good news. Never for a moment quail before your enemies." Phil. 1: 27-28. Weymouth.

To a soldier who engages in war it is one of the greatest importance to know who his enemies are, their number and force. A good soldier will study to know what will be the method of attack by the enemy, and seek to strengthen his position of defense that he may repell every assault. In the Christian warfare this is even more vital. Before we can successfully engage in the great and final conflict, the battle that must be decisive with us, it is of the most importance that we carefully consider the number, force and strength of the enemy, and his method of attack.

Goliath pictured Satan and his agents. None of the host of Israel would attempt to fight him until David came upon the scene. Satan found none willing and able to cope with him until antitypical David—Jesus Christ—the companion of the cause of righteousness on behalf of mankind, came. David represents the entire Christ head and body, his experiences fore shadowed the light in which they must engage.

In our text the Apostle Paul particularly warns the Church concerning our enemies. Another translation renders it thus: "For ours is not a conflict with mere flesh and blood, but with spiritual beings in unseen places, despotism, empires, the forces that control and govern this dark world, (host of evil spirits) arrayed against us in the heavenly warfare." Weymouth. Enemies or adversaries may be divided into four divisions, designated as the flesh, the world, the Devil and the evil spirits.

That all members of the New Creation must fight these enemies is clearly shown from the fact that our Master was subjected to such trials, and further evidence thereof is the positive statements of the apostle. It is important that we take heed to the Master's method of meeting these attacks.

After he had been fasting for 40 days and nights and was weak and emaciated, the Adversary approached him, first suggesting that he change the stones into bread for the gratification of his own flesh. Jesus met this attack with the sword of the Spirit saying, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Then Satan suggested to him that while it was true he was to be the king, it would require a long time for him to convince the people, therefore he should go upon the temple and jump into the valley, that Jehovah would save him and thus he would demonstrate to the people that he was more than an ordinary creature. In the same manner Jesus met this attack, thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." Then Satan made a direct attack upon the Master, suggesting that if Jesus would join him, he, Satan would turn over to him all the Kingdoms of the earth, only Jesus must recognize and give proper honor to Satan. Yielding to either one of these temptations would have been a violation to his covenant. Jesus met this attack with the words, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shall thou serve."

God governs the entire universe by fixed principles, and every one who is governed contrary thereto is governed by passion. This is clearly demonstrated in Jesus' method of defense against the Adversary. Many seem to not be able to understand what is meant by "Principle." Seemingly they think it is whatever they may consider themselves to be right when guided by their conscience, or by the argument of some one else. Principle means a steeled rule of action; the governing law of conduct. This rule of action, or governing law of conduct, is set forth in the Bible, God's word, and all who are governed by the word of God are governed by principle. Passion means the capacity of being affected by external agencies; to be controlled by outside influences; susceptible to control from external influences. The New Creation must avoid passion and be governed always by principle. If we are influenced or swayed in our judgement, or conclusion about anything by reason of what others may say or do, we are governed by passion. If we prayfully and diligently seek to know what is the Lord's will and what his word says on thematter and are governed by that, then we are governed by principle.

Attack and temptation, within the meaning of the scriptures, is one and the same thng. We have no power to turn stones into bread, but have received spiritual powers which may be used for selfish purposes contrary to God's will. For example, making merchandise of the Gospel; preaching for the applause of men or using spiritual powers for any other selfish purposes. Concerning such, the Apostle Peter says, "Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking oversight thereof, not by constraint but willingly; not for filthy lucres sake, but for a ready miad." Peter 5: 2.

The spirit of the world is to follow methods that make outward show of great piety to attract attention. Any attempt on the part of a Christian to attract attention to himself is a manifestation of the spirit of the world and a violation of principle and out of harmony with God's methods.

All temptations are the effect of

LISTEN: I will make you wise happy and healthy.

If you are sick or unhappy, failing in business or unsuccessful in life, it is your fault and none other than yourself is to blame. "Keys to the Kingdom" is a dissertation of secret powers that will enable you, if properly understood and applied, to accomplish your desires, remove or conquer disease, in fact to occupy an enviable place in the world. They tell of that central point in the body where health is produced and controlled—This is the thing which overcomes disease and gives in its place perfect health. They tell of your connection with the "Mechanism," which when understandingly put in operation is the enemy of grief, trouble, fear, failure and unhappiness. The cost is but $10.00 and after you have them in your possession I am sure you would not part with them or the results obtained, for a large sum. We wish to place in your hands the means to constitute you a power in your community to accomplish an untold good, both to yourself and others. "Keys to the Kingdom" will be sent to you by American Express on receipt of the full amount in Registered letter, Special Delivery or an American Express Money Order.

Entire Family Has No Tonsils; Claim Absence Natural.

(By United Press).

CHICKASHA, Okla., July 22.—A tonsilless family has been found in Grady county. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson and seven children have never been bothered with tonsils. They claim the absence is natural and not due to operations.

MUSKOGEE T. B. ASSOCIATION ISSUES WARNING

It Wars On "Social" Disease As Well As The Dread Tuberculosis.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MUSKOGEE, Okla.,—The Muskogee Anti T. B. Association gives aid not only to tuberculer sufferers, but assists any needy case that comes within their reach.

While the secrets of these unfortunate afflicted ones are carefully guarded by us, it seems only fair to the public to give them an idea of some of the ravages that disease can and does make on the human body.

A case that gives a very striking example of the result of a neglected infection due to SOCIAL DISEASE is under our observation at present, and while the name and circumstances attending the family will be withheld, the facts will be given in full with the hope that it may serve as a warning.

Ten years ago Mr. A. was a prosperous farmer, who had always been healthy, and had had very few occasions to consult his family physician. So when he noticed an eruption on his body, he simply rubbed some "salve" on the "pimples" and dismissed the matter from his mind. But the "pimples" refused to be so unceremoniously dismissed, instead had intended they should, the condition grew gradually worse, he soon found to his dismay that his body was covered with suppurating ulcers (sores). To make matters worse his case became involved, a quack doctor was summoned and for several years Mr. A. followed his instructions to no avail. He was unable to do work of any kind, in fact his lower limbs were so badly affected that he was confined to his bed, while the frightful demon, known as Social Disease, took its toll of the victim's body. Friends, relatives and acquaintances gradually ceased their sympathetic visits, not because their sympathy had waned, but seeing the ravages that it had made on their neighbor, and having a lurking suspicion that this malady might be "catching" they decided to "drop" Mr. A.

Discouraged, despondent, miserable and grovelling in poverty with a nose all gone, an eye unspeakably demolished, and body truly typical of Lazarus, who begged for the comforting coolness of a canine tongue, Mr. A was found by an organization imbued with a missionary spirit, and the case reported to the Anti T. B. Association. Then the seemingly impossible happened, Laboratory tests were made, it was proved beyond a doubt that Mr. A was suffering from an infection that Moral Living would have prevented. The services of a veneral Specialist was sought and obtained, under his direction the case was treated, the ulcers were cleaned and dressed daily, medical injections were given at regular intervals, in a very short time the ulcers began to heal, in six weeks only scars were left to show where the ulcers had been, and while Mr. A. is not free from the curse of a broken Moral Law, either physically or otherwise, he is now able to do light work and eke out an existence for himself.

Where Are The Dead

SERMON GALLEY ONE ONE
LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now Listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday August 1, will be entitled, "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness in high places." Eph. 6: 11-12.

The Great Master said concerning the Church, "Ye are the light of the world." "Darkness hateth the light." The Church is near the end of its earthly pilgrimage and the hour of the final conflict is at hand. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The words of St. John now seem appropriate: "Look to yourselves that ye lose not those things which ye have wrought, but that ye receive the full reward."

For more than 6000 years a great battle has been waged between good and evil—light and darkness. The fight has involved the entire human family. God in his wisdom has permitted the forces of evil to prevail for a time, but the time is near at hand when the tide of battle shall turn. The conflict has resulted in great carnage, thousands of millions having succumbed to the agencies of Darkness. It has been attended with untold sorrow.

The fight had its beginning when our first parents were driven from Eden. It will end only at the end of the Millennial Age.

When Jesus was on earth he fought the same good fight of faith and for a time it seemed that the enemy had vanquished him, but shortly he proved that he had triumphed over death and the grave. His victory was complete; his reward the highest of all. Through him brought life and immortality to light and has made known his purposes to all who have imbibed his spirit and sought to follow in his footsteps.

Since Pentecost, God has been electing the Church, the members of which are called to follow in the footsteps of the Great Master, fighting as he fought, and who must gain the victory before receiving the crown of life.

There are two great armies engaged in this conflict. On the side of evil is the army of darkness, marshalled by Satan, the prince of Darkness. On the other side is the army of light with Jesus Christ as its field marshall, leading his host on to certain victory.

Every man and woman on earth is doing service this day for one or the other of these armies. There is no middle ground, as Saint Paul puts it, "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves to obey, his servants ye are to whom you obey; whether of sin unto death or of obedience unto righteousness." Rom. 6: 16.

The Lord's army on earth is composed of those who have turned away from the world of sin and darkness and are following the Master wheresoever he goeth, because of their full consecration and love for him. All such manifest the spirit of Christ, all others are in the army of Satan. Who is on the Lord's side? Which side are you on?

RICHARD J. HILL.

The Church this side of the vale is the Church militant meaning, the Church at war. It is both an individual and collective warfare. Each one must fight the good fight of faith and be victorious before he can attain to the position of joint heirship with the Lord, and each one having the Master's spirit will fight together with all the other members of the body to maintain the spirit of unity in the body. All such must fight under the leadership of their captain. The same admonition Saint Paul gave to Timothy applies to each member of the body: "This charge I commit unto you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare. Fight the good fight of faith; lay hold on eternal life whereunto thou wast called and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." 1 Tim. 1: 18; 1 Tim. 6: 12. Again, St. Paul said. "Only let the lives be worthy of the gospel that we may know who are standing in one spirit and one mind, fighting shoulder to shoulder for the faith and good news. Never for a moment quail before your enemies." Phil. 1: 27-28. Weymouth.

To a soldier who engages in war it is one of the greatest importance to know who his enemies are, their number and force. A good soldier will study to know what will be the method of attack by the enemy, and seek to strengthen his position of defense that he may repell every assault. In the Christian warfare this is even more vital. Before we can successfully engage in the great and final conflict, the battle that must be decisive with us, it is of the most importance that we carefully consider the number, force and strength of the enemy, and his method of attack.

Goliath pictured Satan and his agents. None of the host of Israel would attempt to fight him until David came upon the scene. Satan found none willing and able to cope with him until antitypical David—Jesus Christ—the companion of the cause of righteousness on behalf of mankind, came. David represents the entire Christ head and body, his experiences fore shadowed the light in which they must engage.

In our text the Apostle Paul particularly warns the Church concerning our enemies. Another translation renders it thus: "For ours is not a conflict with mere flesh and blood, but with spiritual beings in unseen places, despotism, empires, the forces that control and govern this dark world, (host of evil spirits) arrayed against us in the heavenly warfare." Weymouth. Enemies or adversaries may be divided into four divisions, designated as the flesh, the world, the Devil and the evil spirits.

That all members of the New Creation must fight these enemies is clearly shown from the fact that our Master was subjected to such trials, and further evidence thereof is the positive statements of the apostle. It is important that we take heed to the Master's method of meeting these attacks.

After he had been fasting for 40 days and nights and was weak and emaciated, the Adversary approached him, first suggesting that he change the stones into bread for the gratification of his own flesh. Jesus met this attack with the sword of the Spirit saying, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Then Satan suggested to him that while it was true he was to be the king, it would require a long time for him to convince the people, therefore he should go upon the temple and jump into the valley, that Jehovah would save him and thus he would demonstrate to the people that he was more than an ordinary creature. In the same manner Jesus met this attack, thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." Then Satan made a direct attack upon the Master, suggesting that if Jesus would join him, he, Satan would turn over to him all the Kingdoms of the earth, only Jesus must recognize and give proper honor to Satan. Yielding to either one of these temptations would have been a violation to his covenant. Jesus met this attack with the words, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shall thou serve."

God governs the entire universe by fixed principles, and every one who is governed contrary thereto is governed by passion. This is clearly demonstrated in Jesus' method of defense against the Adversary. Many seem to not be able to understand what is meant by "Principle." Seemingly they think it is whatever they may consider themselves to be right when guided by their conscience, or by the argument of some one else. Principle means a steeled rule of action; the governing law of conduct. This rule of action, or governing law of conduct, is set forth in the Bible, God's word, and all who are governed by the word of God are governed by principle. Passion means the capacity of being affected by external agencies; to be controlled by outside influences; susceptible to control from external influences. The New Creation must avoid passion and be governed always by principle. If we are influenced or swayed in our judgement, or conclusion about anything by reason of what others may say or do, we are governed by passion. If we prayfully and diligently seek to know what is the Lord's will and what his word says on thematter and are governed by that, then we are governed by principle.

Attack and temptation, within the meaning of the scriptures, is one and the same thng. We have no power to turn stones into bread, but have received spiritual powers which may be used for selfish purposes contrary to God's will. For example, making merchandise of the Gospel; preaching for the applause of men or using spiritual powers for any other selfish purposes. Concerning such, the Apostle Peter says, "Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking oversight thereof, not by constraint but willingly; not for filthy lucres sake, but for a ready miad." Peter 5: 2.

The spirit of the world is to follow methods that make outward show of great piety to attract attention. Any attempt on the part of a Christian to attract attention to himself is a manifestation of the spirit of the world and a violation of principle and out of harmony with God's methods.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

the Adversary's influence. He employs various methods in order that he may deceive. He makes some believe that they are not receiving the proper consideration, notice and honor to which they are entitled. This leads them into a wrong course.

Saint Paul emphasizes the fact that the conflict of the church in the end of the age will be particularly with the evil spirits. These evil spirits have been restrained since the great deluge, and their days of judgment is at hand. We therefore should expect that they would be able to exercise greater power over the human race now than at any time since their restraint. Many scriptures clearly indicate that the real battle ground of the Christian is the mind, therefore, the attack of the evil spirit will be expected along this line. We learn from one who was long subject to the influence of these demons that their method of attack is as follows: First, By suggestion. By suggestion is meant that the demons intrude upon the mind evil thoughts. All Christians realize that thes have a conflict in keeping out the mind thoughts that are improper and that it is a constant warfare to keep them out. But where one indulges in evil surmising, judging another, filling his mind with evil thoughts; such is yielding to suggestions, and if persisted in, leads to the second stage, which is designated as, Abbreviation. The word Abbreviation means to cut short. It here means lack of continuity of thought, or lack of concentration of thought. One who finds himself given over to evil surmising and evil thoughts will find great difficulty in concentration of mind upon the study of the Lord's word the, "Scripture Studies," or in prayer. Attempting either prayer or study, the one finds his mind suddenly turned away from his subject and his thoughts turned to or set upon evil things. Thus continuing he loses sight of principle, namely, the great truths of God's word, and this leads to the third stage designated as,

Impression, which means that one is moved to act from sources other than the word of God. The word impression, means sensible result of influence exeried from without. In other words, it is to be controlled by passion, not by the word of God. For instance, one says, I am moved to take this course because of what I have heard, or what influence another has brought to bear upon me, at the same time entirely ignoring the word of God concerning the subject. This persisted in leads to the fourth stage namely,

Possession, whereby it is understood that the evil spirits take possession of the mind and control his conduct.

The Apostle tells us, "God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble minded." From this we would understand that humility of mind and heart would be a special protection provided by the Lord, and that any one manifesting spiritual pride or ambition, the Lord would remove from such one this protection and the evil spirits would have special power over him.

All Scriptures indicate that the conflict will become more and more severe as we near the close of the Gospel Age. We may expect that all the Lord's true servants who are actively engaged in the closing hours of the harvest will be attacked through human agencies by these evil spirits. We may expect that all manner of charges and attacks will be made by them through human agencies against the reputation and standing of others who are engaged in the harvest work, which will constitute a test of all brethren, as to whether they will be governed by passion, or whether they will be governed by the principles of God's word. The prominent position occupied by one in the harvest work, the more venemous will be the attack. Let each one examine his own heart carefully and see to it that his own conclusions are based upon right principles, namely, the word of God, and not upon outside influence. No other course is safe.

The soldiers of the cross must have special strength in order to stand at this time, and to repel the combined attack of Satan and his host of helpers. If we look at it from one standpoint, we would become dismayed and despair of winning, but looking at it from another view point, we know that, He who is for us is greater than all who can be against us, and with him for us none can prevail against us. We are now in the evil day. How then may we have the strength needed? The Apostle tells us of the Armour of God, provided for us, which will prove a guarantee against all attacks of the Adversary. "Wherefore, take unto you the whole Armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Eph. 6: 13. The assurance here is that he who has this armour on and keeps it on, and learns to use it properly will be able to stand.

God is the maker of this armour through human agents. The armour consists of his words, message of truth, put into proper shape to be used for the benefit of the New Creation. Describing this armour in detail, the Apostle says:

"Having your loins girt about with the truth." The girdle is a symbol of servitude, and suggest that no one is safe at this time unless he is a ervent of the truth. Those engaged in evil surmising, fault finding, backbiting, slander, libel or other works of darkness are not servants of the truth. Let each one of us see to it that he guards himself against such wiles of the Adversary, and on the contrary that he posses the zeal peculiar to the house of the Lord and earnestly and zealously follow in the Master's footsteps by serving his cause at this time.

"And having on the breastplate of righteousness." The breastplate was used to cover the vital organs of the body, particularly the heart. A proper condition of heart is vital to the New Creature. A rightous heart indicates purity, righteous motives, righteousness of character. "Keep thine heart withall dilligence for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4: 23. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Mat. 5: 8. "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show his strength in behalf of him whose heart is pure." 2nd. Chron. 16: 9.

DEMPSEY READY TO TACKLE WILLS, McVEA, LANGFORD OR OTHER COLORED BATTLERS

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 22.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight pugilist, is not averse to fighting a Negro boxer, according to an announcement here last night by the International Sporting club. In reversing his attitude on the color line, the champion stated he is ready to make a match with Harry Wills, who is scheduled to meet Fred Fulton at the Newark Sportsman's club next Monday.

"As for the Colored boxers," Dempsey said, "you can say for me, and make it as strong as you like, that I have absolutely no scruples of race in fighting for the championship. Jack Kearns, my manager, contended that mixed bouts are injurious to the sport, and for that reason would not consider any for me. It is different now. If the press, public or promoters want me to box a Negro, I'll gladly take the match. That goes for Harry Wills, Sam Langford, Sam McVeal or the other Colored stars. To be quite frank about it, I need the money.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

the Adversary's influence. He employs various methods in order that he may deceive. He makes some believe that they are not receiving the proper consideration, notice and honor to which they are entitled. This leads them into a wrong course.

Saint Paul emphasizes the fact that the conflict of the church in the end of the age will be particularly with the evil spirits. These evil spirits have been restrained since the great deluge, and their days of judgment is at hand. We therefore should expect that they would be able to exercise greater power over the human race now than at any time since their restraint. Many scriptures clearly indicate that the real battle ground of the Christian is the mind, therefore, the attack of the evil spirit will be expected along this line. We learn from one who was long subject to the influence of these demons that their method of attack is as follows: First, By suggestion. By suggestion is meant that the demons intrude upon the mind evil thoughts. All Christians realize that thes have a conflict in keeping out the mind thoughts that are improper and that it is a constant warfare to keep them out. But where one indulges in evil surmising, judging another, filling his mind with evil thoughts; such is yielding to suggestions, and if persisted in, leads to the second stage, which is designated as, Abbreviation. The word Abbreviation means to cut short. It here means lack of continuity of thought, or lack of concentration of thought. One who finds himself given over to evil surmising and evil thoughts will find great difficulty in concentration of mind upon the study of the Lord's word the, "Scripture Studies," or in prayer. Attempting either prayer or study, the one finds his mind suddenly turned away from his subject and his thoughts turned to or set upon evil things. Thus continuing he loses sight of principle, namely, the great truths of God's word, and this leads to the third stage designated as,

Impression, which means that one is moved to act from sources other than the word of God. The word impression, means sensible result of influence exeried from without. In other words, it is to be controlled by passion, not by the word of God. For instance, one says, I am moved to take this course because of what I have heard, or what influence another has brought to bear upon me, at the same time entirely ignoring the word of God concerning the subject. This persisted in leads to the fourth stage namely,

Possession, whereby it is understood that the evil spirits take possession of the mind and control his conduct.

The Apostle tells us, "God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble minded." From this we would understand that humility of mind and heart would be a special protection provided by the Lord, and that any one manifesting spiritual pride or ambition, the Lord would remove from such one this protection and the evil spirits would have special power over him.

All Scriptures indicate that the conflict will become more and more severe as we near the close of the Gospel Age. We may expect that all the Lord's true servants who are actively engaged in the closing hours of the harvest will be attacked through human agencies by these evil spirits. We may expect that all manner of charges and attacks will be made by them through human agencies against the reputation and standing of others who are engaged in the harvest work, which will constitute a test of all brethren, as to whether they will be governed by passion, or whether they will be governed by the principles of God's word. The prominent position occupied by one in the harvest work, the more venemous will be the attack. Let each one examine his own heart carefully and see to it that his own conclusions are based upon right principles, namely, the word of God, and not upon outside influence. No other course is safe.

The soldiers of the cross must have special strength in order to stand at this time, and to repel the combined attack of Satan and his host of helpers. If we look at it from one standpoint, we would become dismayed and despair of winning, but looking at it from another view point, we know that, He who is for us is greater than all who can be against us, and with him for us none can prevail against us. We are now in the evil day. How then may we have the strength needed? The Apostle tells us of the Armour of God, provided for us, which will prove a guarantee against all attacks of the Adversary. "Wherefore, take unto you the whole Armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Eph. 6: 13. The assurance here is that he who has this armour on and keeps it on, and learns to use it properly will be able to stand.

God is the maker of this armour through human agents. The armour consists of his words, message of truth, put into proper shape to be used for the benefit of the New Creation. Describing this armour in detail, the Apostle says:

"Having your loins girt about with the truth." The girdle is a symbol of servitude, and suggest that no one is safe at this time unless he is a ervent of the truth. Those engaged in evil surmising, fault finding, backbiting, slander, libel or other works of darkness are not servants of the truth. Let each one of us see to it that he guards himself against such wiles of the Adversary, and on the contrary that he posses the zeal peculiar to the house of the Lord and earnestly and zealously follow in the Master's footsteps by serving his cause at this time.

"And having on the breastplate of righteousness." The breastplate was used to cover the vital organs of the body, particularly the heart. A proper condition of heart is vital to the New Creature. A rightous heart indicates purity, righteous motives, righteousness of character. "Keep thine heart withall dilligence for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4: 23. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Mat. 5: 8. "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show his strength in behalf of him whose heart is pure." 2nd. Chron. 16: 9.

DEMPSEY READY TO TACKLE WILLS, McVEA, LANGFORD OR OTHER COLORED BATTLERS

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 22.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight pugilist, is not averse to fighting a Negro boxer, according to an announcement here last night by the International Sporting club. In reversing his attitude on the color line, the champion stated he is ready to make a match with Harry Wills, who is scheduled to meet Fred Fulton at the Newark Sportsman's club next Monday.

"As for the Colored boxers," Dempsey said, "you can say for me, and make it as strong as you like, that I have absolutely no scruples of race in fighting for the championship. Jack Kearns, my manager, contended that mixed bouts are injurious to the sport, and for that reason would not consider any for me. It is different now. If the press, public or promoters want me to box a Negro, I'll gladly take the match. That goes for Harry Wills, Sam Langford, Sam McVeal or the other Colored stars. To be quite frank about it, I need the money.

Entire Family Has No Tonsils; Claim Absence Natural.

(By United Press).

CHICKASHA, Okla., July 22.—A tonsilless family has been found in Grady county. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson and seven children have never been bothered with tonsils. They claim the absence is natural and not due to operations.

MUSKOGEE T. B. ASSOCIATION ISSUES WARNING

It Wars On "Social" Disease As Well As The Dread Tuberculosis.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MUSKOGEE, Okla.,—The Muskogee Anti T. B. Association gives aid not only to tubercular sufferers, but assists any needy case that comes within their reach.

While the secrets of these unfortunate afflicted ones are carefully guarded by us, it seems only fair to the public to give them an idea of some of the ravages that disease can and does make on the human body.

A case that gives a very striking example of the result of a neglected infection due to SOCIAL DISEASE is under our observation at present and while the crime and circumstances attending the family will be withheld, the facts will be given in full with the hope that it may serve as a warning.

Two years ago Mr. A was a prosperous farmer, who had always been healthy, and had very few occasions to consult his family physician. So when he noticed an eruption on his body, he simply rubbed some "salve" on the "pimples" and dismissed the matter from his mind. But the "pimples" refused to be so unceremoniously dismissed, instead had intended they should, the condition grew gradually worse, he soon found to his dismay that his body was covered with suppurating ulcers (sores). To make matters worse his nose became involved, a quick action was summoned and for several years Mr. A followed his instructions to no avail. He was unable to do work of any kind, in fact his lower limbs were so badly affected that he was confined to his bed, while the frightful demon known as Social Disease, took its toll of the victim's body. Friends relatives and acquaintances gradually ceased their sympathetic visits, not because their sympathy had waned, but seeing the ravages that it had made on their neighbor, and having a lurking suspicion that this malady might be "catching" they decided to "drop" Mr. A.

Discouraged, despondent, miserable and grovelling in poverty with a nose all gone, an eye unspeakably demolished, and body truly typical of Lazarus, who begged for the comforting coolness of a canine tongue, Mr. A was found by an investigating inbued with a missionary spirit, and the case reported to the Anti T. B. Association. Then the seemingly impossible happened. Laboratory tests were made, it was proved beyond a doubt that Mr. A was suffering from an infection that Moral Living would have prevented. The services of a venereal Specialist was sought and obtained, under his direction the case was treated, the ulcers were cleaned and dressed daily, medical injections were given at regular intervals, in a very short time the ulcers began to heal, in six weeks only scars were left to show where the ulcers had been, and while Mr. A. is not free from the curse of a broken Moral Law, either physically or otherwise, he is now able to do light work and eke out an existence for himself.

Where Are The Dead

SERMON GALLEY ONE ONE
LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now Listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would go to the barber and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open He was for my living, while this side the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday August 1, will be entitled. "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness in high places." Eph. 6: 11-12.

The Great Master said concerning the Church, "Ye are the light of the world." "Darkness hateth the light." The Church is near the end of its earthly pilgrimage and the hour of the final conflict is at hand. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The words of St. John now seems appropriate: "Look to yourselves that ye lose not those things which ye have wrought, but that ye receive the full reward."

For more than 6000 years a great battle has been waged between good and evil—light and darkness. The fight has involved the entire human family. God in his wisdom has permitted the forces of evil to prevail for a time, but the time is near at hand when the tide of battle shall turn. The conflict has resulted in great carnage, thousands of millions having succumbed to the agencies of Darkness. It has been attended with untold sorrow.

The fight had its beginning when our first parents were driven from Eden. It will end only at the end of the Millennial Age.

When Jesus was on earth he fought the same good fight of faith and for a time it seemed that the enemy had vanquished him, but shortly he proved that he had triumphed over death and the grave. His victory was complete; his reward the highest of all. Through him brought life and immortality to light and has made known his purposes to all who have imbibed his spirit and sought to follow in his footsteps.

Since Pentecost, God has been electing the Church, the members of which are called to follow in the footsteps of the Great Master, fighting as he fought, and who must gain the victory before receiving the crown of life.

There are two great armies engaged in this conflict. On the side of evil is the army of darkness, marshalled by Satan, the prince of darkness. On the other side is the army of light with Jesus Christ as its field marshall, leading his host on to certain victory.

Every man and woman on earth is doing service this day for one or the other of these armies. There is no middle ground, as Saint Paul puts it, "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves to obey, his servants ye are to whom you obey; whether of sin unto death or of obedience unto righteousness." Rom. 6: 16.

Master wheresoever he goeth, because of their full consecration and love for him. All such manifest the spirit of Christ, all others are in the army of Satan. Who is on the Lord's side? Which side are you on?

The Church this side of the vale is the Church militant meaning, the Church at war. It is both an individual and collective warfare. Each one must fight the good fight of faith and be victorious before he can attain to the position of joint heirship with the Lord, and each one having the Master's spirit will fight together with all the other members of the body to maintain the spirit of unity in the body. All such must fight under the leadership of their captain. The same admonition Saint Paul gave to Timothy applies to each member of the body: "This charge I commit unto you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare. Fight the good fight of faith; lay hold on eternal life whereunto thou wast called and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." 1 Tim. 1: 18; 1 Tim. 6: 12. Again, St. Paul said. "Only let the lives be worthy of the gospel that we may know who are standing in one spirit and one mind, fighting shoulder to shoulder for the faith and good news. Never for a moment quail before your enemies." Phil. 1: 27-28. Weymouth.

To a soldier who engages in war it is one of the greatest importance to know who his enemies are, their number and force. A good soldier will study to know what will be the method of attack by the enemy, and seek to strengthen his position of defense that he may repell every assault. In the Christian warfare this is even more vital. Before we can successfully engage in the great and final conflict, the battle that must be decisive with us, it is of the most importance that we carefully consider the number, force and strength of the enemy, and his method of attack.

Goliath pictured Satan and his agents. None of the host of Israel would attempt to fight him until David came upon the scene. Satan found none willing and able to cope with him until antitypical David—Jesus Christ—the companion of the cause of righteousness on behalf of mankind, came. David represents the entire Christ head and body, his experiences fore shadowed the light in which they must engage.

In our text the Apostle Paul particularly warns the Church concerning our enemies. Another translation renders it thus: "For ours is not a conflict with mere flesh and blood, but with spiritual beings in unseen places, despotism, empires, the forces that control and govern this dark world, (host of evil spirits) arrayed against us in the heavenly warfare." Weymouth. Enemies or adversaries may be divided into four divisions, designated as the flesh, the world, the Devil and the evil spirits.

That all members of the New Creation must fight these enemies is clearly shown from the fact that our Master was subjected to such trials, and further evidence thereof is the positive statements of the apostle. It is important that we take heed to the Master's method of meeting these attacks.

After he had been fasting for 40 days and nights and was weak and emaciated, the Adversary approached him, first suggesting that he change the stones into bread for the gratification of his own flesh. Jesus met this attack with the sword of the Spirit saying, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Then Satan suggested to him that while it was true he was to be the king, it would require a long time for him to convince the people, therefore he should go upon the temple and jump into the valley, that Jehovah would save him and thus he would demonstrate to the people that he was more than an ordinary creature. In the same manner Jesus met this attack, thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." Then Satan made a direct attack upon the Master, suggesting that if Jesus would join him, he, Satan would turn over to him all the Kingdoms of the earth, only Jesus must recognize and give proper honor to Satan. Yielding to either one of these temptations would have been a violation to his covenant. Jesus met this attack with the words, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shall thou serve."

God governs the entire universe by fixed principles, and every one who is governed contrary thereto is governed by passion. This is clearly demonstrated in Jesus' method of defense against the Adversary. Many seem to not be able to understand what is meant by "Principle." Seemingly they think it is whatever they may consider themselves to be right when guided by their conscience, or by the argument of some one else. Principle means a steeled rule of action; the governing law of conduct. This rule of action, or governing law of conduct, is set forth in the Bible, God's word, and all who are governed by the word of God are governed by principle. Passion means the capacity of being affected by external agencies; to be controlled by outside influences; susceptible to control from external influences. The New Creation must avoid passion and be governed always by principle. If we are influenced or swayed in our judgement, or conclusion about anything by reason of what others may say or do, we are governed by passion. If we prayfully and diligently seek to know what is the Lord's will and what his word says on thematter and are governed by that, then we are governed by principle.

Attack and temptation, within the meaning of the scriptures, is one and the same thng. We have no power to turn stones into bread, but have received spiritual powers which may be used for selfish purposes contrary to God's will. For example, making merchandise of the Gospel; preaching for the applause of men or using spiritual powers for any other selfish purposes. Concerning such, the Apostle Peter says, "Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking oversight thereof, not by constraint but willingly; not for filthy lucres sake, but for a ready miad." Peter 5: 2.

The spirit of the world is to follow methods that make outward show of great piety to attract attention. Any attempt on the part of a Christian to attract attention to himself is a manifestation of the spirit of the world and a violation of principle and out of harmony with God's methods.

Entire Family Has No Tonsils; Claim Absence Natural.

(By United Press).

CHICKASHA, Okla., July 22.—A tonsilless family has been found in Grady county. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson and seven children have never been bothered with tonsils. They claim the absence is natural and not due to operations.

MUSKOGEE T. B. ASSOCIATION ISSUES WARNING

It Wars On "Social" Disease As Well As The Dread Tuberculosis.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

MUSKOGEE, Okla.,—The Muskogee Anti T. B. Association gives aid not only to tubercular sufferers, but assists any needy case that comes within their reach.

While the secrets of these unfortunate afflicted ones are carefully guarded by us, it seems only fair to the public to give them an idea of some of the ravages that disease can and does make on the human body.

A case that gives a very striking example of the result of a neglected infection due to SOCIAL DISEASE is under our observation at present and while the crime and circumstances attending the family will be withheld, the facts will be given in full with the hope that it may serve as a warning.

Two years ago Mr. A was a prosperous farmer, who had always been healthy, and had very few occasions to consult his family physician. So when he noticed an eruption on his body, he simply rubbed some "salve" on the "pimples" and dismissed the matter from his mind. But the "pimples" refused to be so unceremoniously dismissed, instead had intended they should, the condition grew gradually worse, he soon found to his dismay that his body was covered with suppurating ulcers (sores). To make matters worse his nose became involved, a quick action was summoned and for several years Mr. A followed his instructions to no avail. He was unable to do work of any kind, in fact his lower limbs were so badly affected that he was confined to his bed, while the frightful demon known as Social Disease, took its toll of the victim's body. Friends relatives and acquaintances gradually ceased their sympathetic visits, not because their sympathy had waned, but seeing the ravages that it had made on their neighbor, and having a lurking suspicion that this malady might be "catching" they decided to "drop" Mr. A.

Discouraged, despondent, miserable and grovelling in poverty with a nose all gone, an eye unspeakably demolished, and body truly typical of Lazarus, who begged for the comforting coolness of a canine tongue, Mr. A was found by an investigating inbued with a missionary spirit, and the case reported to the Anti T. B. Association. Then the seemingly impossible happened. Laboratory tests were made, it was proved beyond a doubt that Mr. A was suffering from an infection that Moral Living would have prevented. The services of a venereal Specialist was sought and obtained, under his direction the case was treated, the ulcers were cleaned and dressed daily, medical injections were given at regular intervals, in a very short time the ulcers began to heal, in six weeks only scars were left to show where the ulcers had been, and while Mr. A. is not free from the curse of a broken Moral Law, either physically or otherwise, he is now able to do light work and eke out an existence for himself.

Where Are The Dead

SERMON GALLEY ONE ONE
LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now Listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would go to the barber and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open He was for my living, while this side the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this notice weekly for subject of lecture and any possible change of date.

Subject for Sunday August 1, will be entitled. "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourself the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time. Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness in high places." Eph. 6: 11-12.

The Great Master said concerning the Church, "Ye are the light of the world." "Darkness hateth the light." The Church is near the end of its earthly pilgrimage and the hour of the final conflict is at hand. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The words of St. John now seems appropriate: "Look to yourselves that ye lose not those things which ye have wrought, but that ye receive the full reward."

For more than 6000 years a great battle has been waged between good and evil—light and darkness. The fight has involved the entire human family. God in his wisdom has permitted the forces of evil to prevail for a time, but the time is near at hand when the tide of battle shall turn. The conflict has resulted in great carnage, thousands of millions having succumbed to the agencies of Darkness. It has been attended with untold sorrow.

The fight had its beginning when our first parents were driven from Eden. It will end only at the end of the Millennial Age.

When Jesus was on earth he fought the same good fight of faith and for a time it seemed that the enemy had vanquished him, but shortly he proved that he had triumphed over death and the grave. His victory was complete; his reward the highest of all. Through him brought life and immortality to light and has made known his purposes to all who have imbibed his spirit and sought to follow in his footsteps.

Since Pentecost, God has been electing the Church, the members of which are called to follow in the footsteps of the Great Master, fighting as he fought, and who must gain the victory before receiving the crown of life.

There are two great armies engaged in this conflict. On the side of evil is the army of darkness, marshalled by Satan, the prince of darkness. On the other side is the army of light with Jesus Christ as its field marshall, leading his host on to certain victory.

Every man and woman on earth is doing service this day for one or the other of these armies. There is no middle ground, as Saint Paul puts it, "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves to obey, his servants ye are to whom you obey; whether of sin unto death or of obedience unto righteousness." Rom. 6: 16.

The Lord's army on earth is composed of those who have turned away from the world of sin and darkness and are following the

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

the Adversary's influence. He employs various methods in order that he may deceive. He makes some believe that they are not receiving the proper consideration, notice and honor to which they are entitled. This leads them into a wrong course.

Saint Paul emphasizes the fact that the conflict of the church in the end of the age will be particularly with the evil spirits. These evil spirits have been restrained since the great deluge, and their days of judgment is at hand. We therefore should expect that they would be able to exercise greater power over the human race now than at any time since their restraint. Many scriptures clearly indicate that the real battle ground of the Christian is the mind, therefore, the attack of the evil spirits will be expected along this line. We learn from one who was long subject to the influence of these demons that their method of attack is as follows: First, By suggestion. By suggestion is meant that the demons intrude upon the mind evil thoughts. All Christians realize that they have a conflict in keeping out the mind thoughts that are improper and that it is a constant warfare to keep them out. But where one indulges in evil surmising, judging another, filling his mind with evil thoughts; such is yielding to suggestions, and if persisted in, leads to the second stage which is designated as, Abbreviation. The word Abbreviation means to cut short. It here means lack of continuity of thought, or lack of concentration of thought. One who finds himself given over to evil surmising and evil thoughts will find great difficulty in concentration of mind upon the study of the Lord's word the, "Scripture Studies," or in prayer. Attempting either prayer or study, the one finds his mind suddenly turned away from his subject and his thoughts turned to or set upon evil things. Thus continuing he loses sight of principle, namely, the great truths of God's word, and this leads to the third stage designated as,

Impression, which means that one is moved to act from sources other than the word of God. The word impression, means sensible result of influence exerted from without. In other words, it is to be controlled by passion, not by the word of God. For instance, one says, I am moved to take this course because of what I have heard, or what influence another has brought to bear upon me, at the same time entirely ignoring the word of God concerning the subject. This persisted in leads to the fourth stage namely,

Possession, whereby it is understood that the evil spirits take possession of the mind and control his conduct.

The Apostle tells us, "God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble minded." From this we would understand that humility of mind and heart would be a special protection provided by the Lord, and that any one manifesting spiritual pride or ambition, the Lord would remove from such one this protection and the evil spirits would have special power over him.

All Scriptures indicate that the conflict will become more and more severe as we near the close of the Gospel Age. We may expect that all the Lord's true servants who are actively engaged in the closing hours of the harvest will be attacked through human agencies by these evil spirits. We may expect that all manner of charges and attacks will be made by them through human agencies against the reputation and standing of others who are engaged in the harvest work, which will constitute a test of all brethren, as to whether they will be governed by passion, or whether they will be governed by the principles of God's word. The prominent position occupied by one in the harvest work, the more venemous will be the attack. Let each one examine his own heart carefully and see to it that his own conclusions are based upon right principles, namely, the word of God, and not upon outside influence. No other course is safe.

The soldiers of the cross must have special strength in order to stand at this time, and to repel the combined attack of Satan and his host of helpers. If we look at it from one standpoint, we would become dismayed and despair of winning, but looking at it from another view point, we know that, He who is for us is greater than all who can be against us, and with him for us none can prevail against us. We are now in the evil day. How then may we have the strength needed? The Apostle tells us of the Armour of God, provided for us, which will prove a guarantee against all attacks of the Adversary. "Wherefore, take unto you the whole Armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Eph. 6: 13. The assurance here is that he who has this armour on and keeps it on, and learns to use it properly will be able to stand.

God is the maker of this armour through human agents. The armour consists of his words, message of truth, put into proper shape to be used for the benefit of the New Creation. Describing this armour in detail, the Apostle says:

"Having your loins girt about with the truth." The girdle is a symbol of servitude, and suggest that no one is safe at this time unless he is a servent of the truth. Those engaged in evil surmising, fault finding, backbiting, slander, libel or other works of darkness are not servants of the truth. Let each one of us see to it that he guards himself against such wiles of the Adversary, and on the contrary that he posses the zeal peculiar to the house of the Lord and earnestly and zealously follow in the Master's footsteps by serving his cause at this time.

"And having on the breastplate of righteousness." The breastplate was used to cover the vital organs of the body, particularly the heart. A proper condition of heart is vital to the New Creature. A righteous heart indicates purity, righteous motives, righteousness of character, "Keep thine heart withall dilligence for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4: 23. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Mat. 5: 8. "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show his strength in behalf of him whose heart is pure." 2nd. Chron. 16: 9.

DEMPSEY READY TO TACKLE WILLS, McVEA, LANGFORD OR OTHER COLORED BATTLERS

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 22.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight pugilist, is not averse to fighting a Negro boxer, according to an announcement here last night by the International Sporting club. In reversing his attitude on the color line, the champion stated he is ready to make a match with Harry Wills, who is scheduled to meet Fred Fulton at the Newark Sportsman's club next Monday.

"As for the Colored boxers," Dempsey said, "you can say for me, and make it as strong as you like, that I have absolutely no scruples of race in fighting for the championship. Jack Kearns, my manager, contended that mixed bouts are injurious to the sport, and for that reason would not consider any for me. It is different now. If the press, public or promoters want me to box a Negro, I'll gladly take the match. That goes for Harry Wills, Sam Langford, Sam McVeal or the other Colored stars. To be quite frank about it, I need the money.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

the Adversary's influence. He employs various methods in order that he may deceive. He makes some believe that they are not receiving the proper consideration, notice and honor to which they are entitled. This leads them into a wrong course.

Saint Paul emphasizes the fact that the conflict of the church in the end of the age will be particularly with the evil spirits. These evil spirits have been restrained since the great deluge, and their days of judgment is at hand. We therefore should expect that they would be able to exercise greater power over the human race now than at any time since their restraint. Many scriptures clearly indicate that the real battle ground of the Christian is the mind, therefore, the attack of the evil spirits will be expected along this line. We learn from one who was long subject to the influence of these demons that their method of attack is as follows: First, By suggestion. By suggestion is meant that the demons intrude upon the mind evil thoughts. All Christians realize that they have a conflict in keeping out the mind thoughts that are improper and that it is a constant warfare to keep them out. But where one indulges in evil surmising, judging another, filling his mind with evil thoughts; such is yielding to suggestions, and if persisted in, leads to the second stage which is designated as, Abbreviation. The word Abbreviation means to cut short. It here means lack of continuity of thought, or lack of concentration of thought. One who finds himself given over to evil surmising and evil thoughts will find great difficulty in concentration of mind upon the study of the Lord's word the, "Scripture Studies," or in prayer. Attempting either prayer or study, the one finds his mind suddenly turned away from his subject and his thoughts turned to or set upon evil things. Thus continuing he loses sight of principle, namely, the great truths of God's word, and this leads to the third stage designated as,

Impression, which means that one is moved to act from sources other than the word of God. The word impression, means sensible result of influence exerted from without. In other words, it is to be controlled by passion, not by the word of God. For instance, one says, I am moved to take this course because of what I have heard, or what influence another has brought to bear upon me, at the same time entirely ignoring the word of God concerning the subject. This persisted in leads to the fourth stage namely,

Possession, whereby it is understood that the evil spirits take possession of the mind and control his conduct.

The Apostle tells us, "God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble minded." From this we would understand that humility of mind and heart would be a special protection provided by the Lord, and that any one manifesting spiritual pride or ambition, the Lord would remove from such one this protection and the evil spirits would have special power over him.

All Scriptures indicate that the conflict will become more and more severe as we near the close of the Gospel Age. We may expect that all the Lord's true servants who are actively engaged in the closing hours of the harvest will be attacked through human agencies by these evil spirits. We may expect that all manner of charges and attacks will be made by them through human agencies against the reputation and standing of others who are engaged in the harvest work, which will constitute a test of all brethren, as to whether they will be governed by passion, or whether they will be governed by the principles of God's word. The prominent position occupied by one in the harvest work, the more venemous will be the attack. Let each one examine his own heart carefully and see to it that his own conclusions are based upon right principles, namely, the word of God, and not upon outside influence. No other course is safe.

The soldiers of the cross must have special strength in order to stand at this time, and to repel the combined attack of Satan and his host of helpers. If we look at it from one standpoint, we would become dismayed and despair of winning, but looking at it from another view point, we know that, He who is for us is greater than all who can be against us, and with him for us none can prevail against us. We are now in the evil day. How then may we have the strength needed? The Apostle tells us of the Armour of God, provided for us, which will prove a guarantee against all attacks of the Adversary. "Wherefore, take unto you the whole Armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Eph. 6: 13. The assurance here is that he who has this armour on and keeps it on, and learns to use it properly will be able to stand.

God is the maker of this armour through human agents. The armour consists of his words, message of truth, put into proper shape to be used for the benefit of the New Creation. Describing this armour in detail, the Apostle says:

"Having your loins girt about with the truth." The girdle is a symbol of servitude, and suggest that no one is safe at this time unless he is a servent of the truth. Those engaged in evil surmising, fault finding, backbiting, slander, libel or other works of darkness are not servants of the truth. Let each one of us see to it that he guards himself against such wiles of the Adversary, and on the contrary that he posses the zeal peculiar to the house of the Lord and earnestly and zealously follow in the Master's footsteps by serving his cause at this time.

"And having on the breastplate of righteousness." The breastplate was used to cover the vital organs of the body, particularly the heart. A proper condition of heart is vital to the New Creature. A righteous heart indicates purity, righteous motives, righteousness of character, "Keep thine heart withall dilligence for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4: 23. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Mat. 5: 8. "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show his strength in behalf of him whose heart is pure." 2nd. Chron. 16: 9.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public: I have recently learned that some of the evil-doers have been and have continued that my sermons on these subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they [illegible] my challenge and [illegible] carpet before the [illegible] me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perhaps he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 1, will be entitled, "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHARD J. HILL.

And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace the soldier who engages in warfare must keep well his feet. If they are not shod, they will become sore and his attention is directed more to the soreness than to his duty, perplexity it has xza

The New Creature has now many rough roads to travel, therefore the feet members should be clothed with the message of peace and see to it that all anger, malice hatred and strife, ill will, back-biting, faultfinding, accusations of the brethren be put aside. None other will be able to stand. "Follow peace with all and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." Heb. 12:14. Those who hunt trouble now will surely find it; they will find little else. Those who avoid trouble find it necessary to diligent in keeping themselves in the peace and love of God.

"Above all taking the shield of faith, wherein ye shall be able to quench all the fire darts of the wicked." The enemy is constantly firing wicked darts at the soldiers of the cross. These darts are liable to stir up in your mind, doubts, fear, suspicion. The shield of faith is your protection. Faith means the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the word of God—true principles—and a confident reliance upon that word. "Without faith it is impossible to please God. This is the victory that overcometh the world, even your faith."

"And take the helmet of salvation." The helmet fitted over the head and represents the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the Divine Plan. This knowledge of God's word and his method and his information concerning the methods of the Adversary, is absolutely essential in order to protect ourselves against the evil one of this day. If we have no knowledge of the demons and their methods of attack, we could not be forewarned against them.

"And the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God." This is both an offensive and defensive weapon. We must have it and know how to use it. Jesus wielded it as a weapon to each attack made upon him. He said: "It is written," and such must be our battle cry. We are not to use carnal weapons, no such weapons as Satan uses. We are to use the truth and let the truth do the cutting.

It is noticed that the Apostle names only six parts of the Armour, whereas the armour of the ancient soldier was in seven parts. Seven is also a symbol of perfection. The seventh part, and one not named by the Apostle, was the greaves, and was a metal shield fitting over the front part of the foot to protect it from darts of the Adversary. The feet members of the church are now engaged in the fight. The greaves, therefore, would properly and fittingly represent the vow. When it was promulgated our attention was called to this scripture: "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." Isiah 59: 19.

How To Put On The Armour.

The words of the Apostle assume that the persons addressed have renounced the world and enlisted under the banner of the Lord by making a full surrender of their will to do God's will. Hence he says: (1 Girdle, Servitude) Be zealous and faithful servant of the truth. Let there be but one motive for service—Love for God and his righteous cause. By love serve."

(2 Breast-plate—Righteousness) Having on the robe of Christ righteousness now study to be approved of God. Learn the great and vital principles of His word and apply them to daily living; be controlled by these and let them work out in you a righteousness character. Keep a pure heart.

(3 Sandals—Peace) Do not hunt trouble. Live in peace with all so long as God's law is not sacrificed. Accept your part of suffering with joy.

(4 Shield—Faith) Maintain an abiding faith in God and his sure word of promise. Rely upon his word and not upon the advice or influence of others. Stand, leaning on the Lord.

(5 Helmet—Salvation) Strive to increase in your heart appreciation of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Continue in the study of the word. Feed upon the food provided. Keep always before your minds the strong hope of salvation and the high position to which you have been called.

(6 Sword—Word of God) Know God's word, in letter and spirit. Be able to give a reason for the hope you have. Use it deftly in repelling the Adversary. Let your battle cry be, "It is written."

(7 Vow) Daily put in practice the vow in letter and spirit. Take the Lord Jesus with you in all things. Be filled with his spirit.

If you do these things you shall be strong in the Lord and have the power which His supreme strength imparts and be a certain victor.

This is the evil day; the time when every man's work is being tried in the firey furnace; these perilous times of which we have been warned; it is the last battle, the great and final conflict. The enemy is advancing from every quarter. Shall we quail before our Adversary? Thank God, for he has made ample provision for his people. The whole armour of God is now supplied. I was never so much needed as now. Those who have it on and keep i on will stand, others will not.

Let us not be discouraged, dear soldiers of the cross; let us rise to the importance of the time and face the perils of the hour with confidence in our commander and the Lord. The history of Ages is looking down upon us. The Holy angels of Heaven are beholding the final conflict. Jesus and the members of the Bride who have passed beyond the vale are watching our course how we are quitting ourselves. It is the greatest battle of the ages, and the enemy is making a final onslaught. God's little band of soldiers are now clothed with the complete armour of the Lord are marshalled for the last time upon the batle field. We hear the encouraging words of our captain, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life." Soon this army will emerge from the smoke of battle clothed in wreathes of victory. Soon it will be asked, "Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?" Songs

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public: I have recently learned that some of the evil-doers have been and have continued that my sermons on these subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they [illegible] my challenge and [illegible] carpet before the [illegible] me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perhaps he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 1, will be entitled, "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHARD J. HILL.

And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace the soldier who engages in warfare must keep well his feet. If they are not shod, they will become sore and his attention is directed more to the soreness than to his duty, perplexity it has xza

The New Creature has now many rough roads to travel, therefore the feet members should be clothed with the message of peace and see to it that all anger, malice hatred and strife, ill will, back-biting, faultfinding, accusations of the brethren be put aside. None other will be able to stand. "Follow peace with all and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." Heb. 12:14. Those who hunt trouble now will surely find it; they will find little else. Those who avoid trouble find it necessary to diligent in keeping themselves in the peace and love of God.

"Above all taking the shield of faith, wherein ye shall be able to quench all the fire darts of the wicked." The enemy is constantly firing wicked darts at the soldiers of the cross. These darts are liable to stir up in your mind, doubts, fear, suspicion. The shield of faith is your protection. Faith means the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the word of God—true principles—and a confident reliance upon that word. "Without faith it is impossible to please God. This is the victory that overcometh the world, even your faith."

"And take the helmet of salvation." The helmet fitted over the head and represents the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the Divine Plan. This knowledge of God's word and his method and his information concerning the methods of the Adversary, is absolutely essential in order to protect ourselves against the evil one of this day. If we have no knowledge of the demons and their methods of attack, we could not be forewarned against them.

"And the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God." This is both an offensive and defensive weapon. We must have it and know how to use it. Jesus wielded it as a weapon to each attack made upon him. He said: "It is written," and such must be our battle cry. We are not to use carnal weapons, no such weapons as Satan uses. We are to use the truth and let the truth do the cutting.

It is noticed that the Apostle names only six parts of the Armour, whereas the armour of the ancient soldier was in seven parts. Seven is also a symbol of perfection. The seventh part, and one not named by the Apostle, was the greaves, and was a metal shield fitting over the front part of the foot to protect it from darts of the Adversary. The feet members of the church are now engaged in the fight. The greaves, therefore, would properly and fittingly represent the vow. When it was promulgated our attention was called to this scripture: "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." Isiah 59: 19.

How To Put On The Armour.

The words of the Apostle assume that the persons addressed have renounced the world and enlisted under the banner of the Lord by making a full surrender of their will to do God's will. Hence he says: (1 Girdle, Servitude) Be zealous and faithful servant of the truth. Let there be but one motive for service—Love for God and his righteous cause. By love serve."

(2 Breast-plate—Righteousness) Having on the robe of Christ righteousness now study to be approved of God. Learn the great and vital principles of His word and apply them to daily living; be controlled by these and let them work out in you a righteousness character. Keep a pure heart.

(3 Sandals—Peace) Do not hunt trouble. Live in peace with all so long as God's law is not sacrificed. Accept your part of suffering with joy.

(4 Shield—Faith) Maintain an abiding faith in God and his sure word of promise. Rely upon his word and not upon the advice or influence of others. Stand, leaning on the Lord.

(5 Helmet—Salvation) Strive to increase in your heart appreciation of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Continue in the study of the word. Feed upon the food provided. Keep always before your minds the strong hope of salvation and the high position to which you have been called.

(6 Sword—Word of God) Know God's word, in letter and spirit. Be able to give a reason for the hope you have. Use it deftly in repelling the Adversary. Let your battle cry be, "It is written."

(7 Vow) Daily put in practice the vow in letter and spirit. Take the Lord Jesus with you in all things. Be filled with his spirit.

If you do these things you shall be strong in the Lord and have the power which His supreme strength imparts and be a certain victor.

This is the evil day; the time when every man's work is being tried in the firey furnace; these perilous times of which we have been warned; it is the last battle, the great and final conflict. of Sol. 6: 10. Soon the answer from Heaven shall ring out, "This is Triumphant Zion, whose great leader has forever put to flifight the army of darkness." She is pure, just, holy, good, and now stands in the glorious light of Heaven with her glorious captain. Terrible has been the Christ and will continue to be in the conquest of evil. The dawn of his glorious reign is here, the new government is now to be put in operation, soon all men will have full opportunity to stand in the light of truth and be able by the grace of the Lord to free himself from all the influences of evil and darkness. Be brave, be valiant soldiers now.

"Hear the call, O gird your armour on,
Grasp the spirit's mighty sword,
Take the helmet of salvation,
Pressing on to battle for the Lord."

And never stop until we shall hear his well done good and faithful sevant and see him as he is.

of Sol. 6: 10. Soon the answer from Heaven shall ring out, "This is Triumphant Zion, whose great leader has forever put to flifight the army of darkness." She is pure, just, holy, good, and now stands in the glorious light of Heaven with her glorious captain. Terrible has been the Christ and will continue to be in the conquest of evil. The dawn of his glorious reign is here, the new government is now to be put in operation, soon all men will have full opportunity to stand in the light of truth and be able by the grace of the Lord to free himself from all the influences of evil and darkness. Be brave, be valiant soldiers now.

"Hear the call, O gird your armour on,
Grasp the spirit's mighty sword,
Take the helmet of salvation,
Pressing on to battle for the Lord."

And never stop until we shall hear his well done good and faithful sevant and see him as he is.

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public: I have recently announced that some of the evil-minded adversaries have sent me anonymous letters that are without an issue as they do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they [illegible] my challenge and [illegible] carpet before the [illegible] me up through the Star? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits, going behind my back to get like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the veil, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for any opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 1, will be entitled, "THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only vindicating message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHARD J. HILL

And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace the soldier who engages in warfare must keep well his feet. If they are not shod, they will become sore and his attention is directed more to the soreness than to his duty perplexity it fizz xzo.

The New Creature has now many rough roads to travel, therefore the feet members should be clothed with the message of peace and see to it that all anger, malice hatred and strife, ill will, backbiting, faultfinding, accusations of the brethren be put aside. None other will be able to stand. "Follow peace with all and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." Heb. 12: 14. Those who hunt trouble now will surely find it; they will find little else. Those who avoid trouble find it necessary to diligent in keeping themselves in the peace and love of God.

"Above all taking the shield of faith, wherein ye shall be able to quench all the fire darts of the wicked." The enemy is constantly firing wicked darts at the soldiers of the cross. These darts are liable to stir up in your mind, doubt, fear, suspicion. The shield of faith is your protection. Faith means the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the word of God—its principles—and a confident reliance upon that word. "Without faith it is impossible to please God. This is the victory that overcometh the world, even your faith."

"And take the helmet of salvation." The helmet fitted over the head and represents the intellectual understanding and appreciation of the Divine Plan. This knowledge of God's word and his method and his information concerning the methods of the Adversary, is absolutely essential in order to protect ourselves against the evil one of this day. If we have no knowledge of the demons and their methods of attack, we could not be forewarned against them.

"And the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God." This is both an offensive and defensive weapon. We must have it and know how to use it. Jesus wielded it successfully in each attack made upon him. He said: "It is written," and such must be our battle cry. We are not to use carnal weapons, as such weapons as Satan uses. We are to use the truth and let the truth do the cutting.

It is noticed that the Apostle names only six parts of the Armour, whereas the armour of the ancient soldier was in seven parts. Seven is also a symbol of perfection. The seventh part, and one not named by the Apostle, was the greaves, and was a metal shield fitting over the front part of the foot to protect it from darts of the Adversary. The feet members of the church are now engaged in the fight. The greaves, therefore, would properly and fittingly represent the vows. When it was promulgated our attention was called to this scripture: "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." Isiah 59: 19.

How To Put On The Armour.

The words of the Apostle assume that the persons addressed have renounced the world and enlisted under the banner of the Lord by making a full surrender of their will to do God's will. Hence he says: (1 Girdle, Servitude) Be zealous and faithful servant of the truth. Let there be but one motive for service—Love for God and his righteous cause. By love serve."

(2 Breast-plate—Righteousness) Having on the robe of Christ righteousness now study to be approved of God. Learn the great and vital principles of His word and apply them to daily living: be controlled by these and let them work out in you a righteousness character. Keep a pure heart.

(3 Sandals—Peace) Do not hunt trouble. Live in peace with all so long as God's law is not sacrificed. Accept your part of suffering with joy.

(4 Shield—Faith) Maintain an abiding faith in God and his sure word of promise. Rely upon his word and not upon the advice or influence of others. Stand, leaning on the Lord.

(5 Helmet—Salvation) Strive to increase in your heart appreciation of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Continue in the study of the word. Feed upon the food provided. Keep always before your minds the strong hope of salvation and the high position to which you have been called.

(6 Sword—Word of God) Know God's word, in letter and spirit. Be able to give a reason for the hope you have. Use it deftly in repelling the Adversary. Let your battle cry be, "It is written."

(7 Vow) Daily put in practice the vow in letter and spirit. Take the Lord Jesus with you in all things. Be filled with his spirit.

If you do these things you shall be strong in the Lord and have the power which His supreme strength imparts and be a certain victor.

This is the evil day; the time when every man's work is being tried in the firey furnace; these perilous times of which we have been warned; it is the last battle, the great and final conflict. The enemy is advancing from every quarter. Shall we quail before our Adversary? Thank God, for he has made ample provision for his people. The whole armour of God is now supplied. I was never so much needed as now. Those who have it on and keep i on will stand, others will not.

Let us not be discouraged, dear soldiers of the cross; let us rise to the importance of the time and face the perils of the hour with confidence in our commander and the Lord. The history of Ages is looking down upon us. The Holy angels of Heaven are beholding the final conflict. Jesus and the members of the Bride who have passed beyond the vale are watching our course how we are quitting ourselves. It is the greatest battle of the ages, and the enemy is making a final onslaught. God's little band of soldiers are now clothed with the complete armour of the Lord are marshalled for the last time upon the batle field. We hear the encouraging words of our captain, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life." Soon this army will emerge from the smoke of battle clothed in wreathes of victory. Soon it will be asked, "Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?" Songs

WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

of Sol. 6: 10. Soon the answer from Heaven shall ring out, "This is Triumphant Zion, whose great leader has forever put to flifight the army of darkness." She is pure, just, holy, good, and now stands in the glorious light of Heaven with her glorious captain. Terrible has been the Christ and will continue to be in the conquest of evil. The dawn of his glorious reign is here, the new government is now to be put in operation, soon all men will have full opportunity to stand in the light of truth and be able by the grace of the Lord to free himself from all the influences of evil and darkness. Be brave, be valiant soldiers now.

"Hear the call, O gird your armour on,
Grasp the spirit's mighty sword,
Take the helmet of salvation,
Pressing on to battle for the Lord."

And never stop until we shall hear his well done good and Faithful sevant and see him as he is.

"HOW TO KEEP YOUNG"

How to instantly have a beautiful Brown skin.

It changes a dingy complexion into a Brown-Skin immediately. It's impossible to detect it and gives the skin that Brown-Skin appearance and baby softness everybody raves about. You put it on in the morning and it stays there all day, perspiration does not effect it, and is a wonderful tonic for the skin, makes the skin transparent, smooth and velvety. It is absolutely harmless and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. Calcimmine liquid sold by druggist accept nothing else then you will not be disappointed. # SCOTT FERRIS WINNER?-Sure!

REPRESENTATIVE SCOTT FERRIS NOMINATED

Wins Over Senator Thomas P. Gore By Large Majority: Ferris 94,278; Gore, 69,599.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug 6.—Although late returns from Tuesday's primary cut down somewhat the early lead piled up by Represenative Scott Ferris for the democratic nomination for United States senator, the represeative still had a lead of 24,680 over Senator Thos. P. Gore on a tabulation by the Daily Oklahoman early today of complete but unofficial returns from 2,115 of the 2,768 precincts of the state. The vote stood: Ferris, 94,278; Gore, 69,599.

In a signed statement issued at his headquarters here today, Senator Thomas P. Gore declared he had "run a handicap race and lost" in the contest with Representative Scott Ferris for the democratic senatorial nomination in Tuesday's primary. The senator declared he would continue to work for the success of the democratic party.

He said: "I shall continue to wish and work for the triumph of democratic principles, liberty of thought speech, conscience, and the press."

THE PEOPLE'S MOVE.

LANGSTON, Okla., Aug. 5.—President Pettus of the State Teachers Association, commenting recently upon the movement for better schools for Negroes and better salarites for teachers in Negro schools said, "this is not primarily the teachers' fight; it is rather the people's fight. Teachers are here today or this year, and may be gone the next, but the people will continue to abide here, and whatever may be the condition of their schools, they and their children will have to put up with them. It behooves the people, therefore, to get behind this movement for better schools and push it until they have acquired what rightly belongs to them."

Replying to the question concerning the rumored recall of the opinion recently handed down by the attorney general's office, President Pettus said: "Doubtless, this ruse was made for political effect. The opinion given out from the attorney general's office relative to the so-called one mill law is the only logical one that could have been, or can be given. Any other form whatever source to the contrary is bunk. There is, as I have said before, no law limiting the levy for the support of Separat schools except that which limits the total county levy to ten mills."

Suppose some of the county excise boards adopt the same procedure as in former years respecting the estimate which the county, or city, superintendent of schools regards as necessary for the proper maintenance of Separate Schools, and which has been allowed by the county commissioners, should be met promptly by mandamus proceedings by the citizens whose school is immediately affected. This will put the question up to the court, where, under existing laws, there can be nodoubt as to the outcome.

"The time has come," he said, "when Negroes must be a unit on all questions affecting their welfare. No question is more vital to them than that of the education of their children, and in this there should be no varying nor shadow of turning. They must close rank and present a solid front."

SELLS-FLOTO SHOWS VISIT TULSA.

"The second largest circus in the world, the Sells-Floto, is coming to Tulsa, Friday, August 13th, for afternoon and night performances, 2:15 and 8:15 o'clock," said a press agent stepping up to the city editor's desk Monday morning.

And we were just a little inclined to believe that this particular press agent is a rather truthful looking fellow at that, for all advance press agents claim to be ahead of the biggest.

Anyhow, the circus, which has made for itself a great reputation in the west for years, and which ventured into the East last season, leaving such a splendid impression with the circus-going people, is coming on the day and date mentioned with trains loaded to the guards with the best ever offered to amusement-seekers who like the white tops best. There are three rings, two stages, the air and the great tracks under the big tents filled at each performance with the best to be seen in aerial, ground riding, wire, Indian, dog, pony, monkey, track, clown, elephant and just about all kinds of circus acts imaginable. The spectacular entree, "The Birth of the Rainbow," opens the big performance. In this most of the performers and animals are introduced to the audiences.

Of course, there is the parade at the usual hour—11 o'clock and it is on time.

Muskogee's Loss—Tulsa's Gain.

The Rev. S. M. Twine, one of our foremost citizens and widely known throughout the country in two fields, religious and financial, who for a number of years has been a resident of Muskogee has taken Dr. Watson's office on East Archer and will utilize it as his headquarters hereafter. This acquisition to the citizenship and commercial and financial circles of Tulsa is one in which all Tulsans should have much pride. The Rev. Twine in the religious field will continue his activities as Secretary, of the Baptist State College maintained by the Oklahoma State Baptist Association. In the financial arena this successful oil proprietor and operator has moved here to be nearer Chelsa where he has properties, a low estimate of which would be $50,000 and which promise thru his active development to run up into millions in a short time. He is associated with no corporation but enjoys the unique distinction of being by himself an operator of an extensive and promising oil holding.

DURHAM ATROCITY VICTIM DECLARED INNOCENT

Such Horrors Are Likely to Arouse Protesting American Sentiment.

(A. N. P. Service)

DURHAM, N. C., Aug., 5.—In a communication to the Durham Herald, Nello Teer, contractor who employed Ed. Roach, who was lynched near Roxboro, Person County, on charge of attempted criminal assault, declares that Roach was innocent of the attempted crime, that he could not possibly have been guilty, and that the mob made a ghastly mistake in killing Roach.

"Editor Morning Herald:

"I have just read your editorials on the lynching of Ed. Roach in Person County, and I feel I would be an unworthy citizen if I failed to state what I know about this matter.

"When this Negro was lynched an innocent man was murdered as would have been had you or I been the victim of the mob. He was working for me and was a quiet, hard-working, inoffensive, humble Negro. On Monday he came to me and stated he was sick and wanted to go with me to Durham that night to see a doctor. I greatly regret that I did not take him with me, for I believe his life would have been spared, but instead I arranged for him to go Tuesday night to Roxboro. He continued at his work all day Tuesday until about 5:30, (bear in mind the crime for which he was lynched occurred between 2 and 3 o'clock that afternoon), when he asked permission of his foreman to stop and go to Mount Tersa station to catch the train for Roxboro. Permission was given him and he left for the station walking. At 5:45 he passed the state's bridge crew (white men) and two men who were searching for the guilty Negro saw him and followed him up the road to Mount Tersa station where he sat down and waited for the train. These two men sat down on the railroad near him. When the train came he got on and paid his fare to Roxboro and got off the train there. He was not arrested until he got off the train. I am advised by the Chief of Police he asked what they had him for and told them he had not done anything, but he was not told until he got in jail what they had him for. He denied it and told the little girl when she was brought in that she was mistaken; he was not the man, so the sheriff informs me. He asked to be taken by my office to see my superintendent with whom I had arranged to carry him to the doctor, but permission was refused him. He had been working for me off and on for two years and on this particular work since November 1, 1919, and was in every way a straightforward, inoffensive Negro. His life has been taken for something he knew absolutely nothing about.

"A Negro man about Ed. Roach's size came to my camp on Sunday night, was employed on Monday and went to work Tuesday morning. About 8:45 a. m. he drove my team out to the side of the road and had been gone about 25 minutes when my foreman missed him. My foreman took out one of the mules and went to look for him, going up the road towards Mount Tersa. The Negro saw him and broke and ran over the east side of the railroad going towards Lynchburg. This was about 10:30 a. m. Tuesday morning in approximately three quarters of a mile of the scene of the crime. This man was dressed practically the same as Ed. Roach with cap and overalls, was about the same size but a little darker in color. He was a strange Negro who had never been in any of our camps before, and the circumstances would point to him as the guilty party.

"I make this statement in the interest of truth and justice and with a full knowledge of the odium I am bringing down upon my own head in doing so, but with the hope that this fearful crime may shock our people as to make its like again an impossibility."

JUSTICE IS SOLE CURE FOR INJUSTICE

Dark Races of the World Justified In Resenting Centuries of Wrongs.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 31.—More frequently these days than ever before, there appears in the daily newspapers of the country, editorials based on human justice, with argument that is unanswerable. The Associated Negro Press takes great pleasure in calling attention to exceptional editorial expressions, and sends the good news on to 15,000,000 who are cheered, inspired and strengthened by the "gospel truth" as it were. Thousands know the truth on the other side, but these who will admit it, and those who have the courage of their convictions, form a big gap which must be filled.

A recent syndicate editorial appearing in various daily newspapers throughout the country, is worthy of a place of honor in every newspaper. It is worthy because it is true and logical, and because, through the various daily newspapers, it has gone deep into the minds of thinking people, who cannot forget its philosophy, and who will, sooner or later, be brave enough to speak out boldly for the justice which has been so long and bitterly denied.

The editorial is a "nut shell" sermon, and says:

"For Duluth, Chicago, East St. Louis, your town, our town, any town.

Any white mob which lynches a black man commits the unpardonable sin. It is a crime against law and civilization. It is a crime against the black race. It is a crime against the white. More especially, it is a crime against the white.

There are twice as many Colored folk in the world as there are white. They are increasing more rapidly. They are moving toward solidarity.

Read Lothrop Stoddard's new book, "The Rising Tide of Color."

While the white race has been soaking Europe with its best blood, Japan has been tightening her grip upon the hordes of Asia.

Japan is a yellow nation. But the yellow, the brown, the red, the black, have something in common against the white.

What one colored people has done, another may do. In India, in Egypt, in Africa, there is growing bitterness against the white man. Bitterness based upon injustice, and such bitterness is deep.

There is no cure for Color, but there is a cure for injustice. That cure is Justice."

There is no desire to "strut" and "yoke out" about the words of that editorial; there is no spirit of defiance, but there is a cool, sober, solemn warning, that the people of power, and the people in power in America, had better be aroused to the terrible dynamite upon which they are sitting, away the honor, glory and future hope of the land. Lynch Law must GO, or the Nation will Perish! No Nation can live and prosper where there is no respect for LAW and HUMAN RIGHTS. July has furnished a sickly record of mobs and lynchings, assassinations and cold-blooded murder. July, the month that gave birth to the great "Delcaration of Independence," is bathed in the blood of the deeds of the insane mobs.

How much longer will the American people let this condition go on with a mild protest? How much longer will it be before the Federal Government steps in and declares: "Come What Will, Justice Must Prevail!" How much longer must men, women and children be compelled to literally flee for their lives,—as is set forth in the continuous exodus from the South—in order to find a "haven of rest," but now, sad to relate, too frequently, even in the generous North discover fomenting the ugly and damnable germs of riot? How much longer is is to be expected that one-tenth of the nation's population will endure the outrages of "crime against law and civilization?"

We speak for these people—all of them—and appeal to the sober judgment of the prudent people of earth, to hetir, be quick or be damned!

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned take this means to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our numerous friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent very great bereavement through the loss of wife, mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cornelia Williams, late of New Orleans, La., and our grandson and son, Orlando Gibbs of Tulsa.

H. B. Williams, husband and grandfather; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gibbs, son-in-law, daughter and mother; Mr. Ed. Wise, son; Mr. Theo Wise, son; and five grand sons.

Tulsa Family Sadly Stricken By Death.

Mrs. Gornelia Williams of New Orleans, La., died July 30, 1920, suddenly while on her way to visit her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Gibbs. She succumbed at Okmg, Okla. She is survived by her husband of New Orleans, H. B. Williams and two sons, Ed. Wise of Guthrie, Okla., and Theo Wise of Memphis, Tenn., one daughter, Mrs. L. A. Gibbs of Tulsa and fourteen grandchildren.

The burial ceremonies took place here from the Vernon Chapel, A. M. E. Church.

Also Orlando Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gibbs, age 17 was accidentally killed by a fall of 25 feet from a viaduct while in Joplin, Mo. He was carried to a hospital there and died shortly thereafter. He is survived by father, mother, 5 brothers, grandfather and two uncles.

He was buried at the same cemetery by the side of his grandmother, Mrs. Williams.

Services were conducted by Bro. S. T. Walker at Vernon Chapel, A. M. E. Church, which were well attended by numerous friends of the family. Among those were Mrs. C. Buckingham of Muskogee, Okla., a life-time friend of the deceased and family.

The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Jackson Undertaking company and won the highest commendation of all participating in these sad obsequies.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

It is with deep regret that we announce to our readers the quite serious illness of Mr. A. J. Smitherman, proprietor and Editor of The Tulsa Star. It is for this reason that our issue for the present week consists of four pages instead of the usual eight. We are hopeful that all will unite with us in praying and hoping for his speedy recovery to health and his wonted activity and usefulness in the Star sanctum.

State Democratic Meeting Postponed

The State-Wide Negro Democratic Convention which was called to meet in Tulsa, Okla. on August 9th is hereby postponed on account of the serious illness of the temporary chairman, Mr. A. J. Smitherman.

Will The Dead Live Again?

LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed some of the would-be-wise fellers have told their congregations that my writings (or P.P.) do not amount to anything, that they will answer [illegible] day from theid receipts.

Now listen again, if the [illegible] does not amount to anything why take the time to answer [illegible] And again, why do the [illegible] keep coming to hear me [illegible] their own private pulpits instead [illegible] back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 15, will be entitled "THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

To those who accept the Bible as the word of God, the Creator and Finisher of all things, there is little difficulty in showing to them through the Bible the fact and philosophy of the Resurrection of the dead.

The faithful Job, after suffering great bodily pain and mental anguish, after praying that he might die and go to Hell, the grave and there rest in silence until the wrath of God be over passed, asked the question, "If man dies, shall he live again?" (Job 14:14). Millions have asked this question since that time and had it been fairly treated and honestly answered by those, the preachers, who claim to teach the word of God, much sorrow could have been avoided in the earth.

According to statistics furnished, approximately nine million men are the victims of the Great World War and [illegible] victims to the great and dreaded pestilence "Spanish Influenza." For some years now in addition to this, the average death rate in the world has been approximately one hundred thousand per day. When there is a great calamity and many people loose their lives, the peoples of the earth stand amazed and shocked, but in the daily routine of affairs death has become so common that many think it must always be this way. Most naturally the people have looked to something upon which they could base their hopes for the future for themselves and their loved ones. Truly this is an earth of sorrow, the sorrow of the people bowed down under the great burden of sin, groaning and travailing for something that would deliver them from it. The poet has well expressed i when he says:

"The earth is old with centuries,
But not for this she hangs her head
Closer to her heart the sorrow lies,
She holds so many dead."

From the bloody battle fields broken regiments have returned and some fathers, mothers and sweethearts have waited at the station and looked in vain for the coming of the one they have dearly loved and they have asked, "Shall we ever see him again?" "If they have fallen in the battle is there any hope of our being united in happiness and love?" The scriptures alone answers this question satisfactorily.

The hope of the world lies in the Resurrection of the dead. Wonderfully Beautiful is the doctrine of the Ressurection of the dead and those who see and appreciate it, rejoice in the fact that God, in the exercise of his loving kindness, has provided a means whereby those who have suffered death might be raised again, and those waiting [illegible] may have their hearts [illegible] A voice was heard in [illegible] lamentations and bitter weeping for her [illegible] refused to be comforted [illegible] children, because they [illegible] not. (They were dead not [illegible] somewhere). Thus saith the Lord, refrain thy voice from weeping and thine eyes from tears: for thy works shall be rewarded [illegible] the Lord, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in the end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border." (Jer. 15: 15-17). Everywhere in the Bible death is spoken of as an enemy. So the land of the enemy therefore is the condition of death. The promise here is that these dead shall be brought back to their own border, namely, the earth, their former condition. We here submit that if the doctrine of inherent immortality is correct, then there could be no Resurrection of the dead, for the reason that you cannot resurrect a person that is immortal—death-proof. Resurrection means a restanding to life and no one could be immortal without having life in it's fullness. Hence the doctrine of inherent immortality of the soul denies the Ressurection of the dead. We further state that if the doctrine of eternal torture is true, the Ressurection of the dead could not be true for the reason that no one could be eternally tortured without having eternal life an existence indestructable, and if one is already in a state of life indestructable and subject to eternal torment, a restanding to life, the Resurrection, would be utterly impossible. Thus we see that the doctrine of eternal torture is a plain denial of the doctrine of the Resurrection of the dead. We further state that if the dead are conscious and can now communicate with living friends through the influence of mediums or otherwise, that the doctrine of the Resurrection could not be true, for the further reason that one is conscious and able to communicate could not be resurrected to life because they would already have life. Hence the doctrine of Spiritualism or communication with the dead is a plain denial of the Resurrection of the dead.

All these doctrines completely deny the Great Ransom sacrifice. The Ransom Sacrifice is the keynote to every doctrine, as to whether or not it is true or false. In other words, it is the measuring rod by which every teaching can be measured and can be determined whether any doctrine is true or false. Thus we see that if the Bible teaches clearly and conclusively the resurrection of the dead and the doctrine of the Great Ransom Sacrifice, the other doctrines of inherent immortality, eternal torment, and Spiritualism, are as false as the Devil himself and this we will prove by the Scriptures.

Ransom means literally, "A corresponding price." God created the first man, Adam, perfect in organism and character. He gave him as law the penalty of which prevailed, death for it's violation. He, Adam, violated the law and death came upon him. While under that sentence of death he begat children. He did not begat any children while in a perfect state of condition but after he had violated God's just law and the sentence of death passed upon him and he was driven out of the garden. Being legally condemned and having the death process in him, and feeding upon the poisonous elements of the earth, and being in a dying condition, necessarily Adam could not transmit to his off-spring, the perfect life germ. The race not being born until after Adam's sin would legally come under condemnation by inheritance. Therefore, all of Adam's progeny were born in an imperfect condition.

Evidently this was David's thought when he said: "Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." (Psa. 51: 5). Every child born is imperfect, a sinner subject to death, not because of any wilful wrong doings on it's part, but because the child inherited this condition from Father Adam. St. Paul corrobates this when he says: "By one man's sin interred into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." (Roman 5: 12). Every one dies therefore, because he can not avoid it, and this death would be eternal and not God graciously provided a ransom price or redemptive process. Jehovah made promise, saying, I will ransom them from the power of the grave, I will redeem them from death. Oh Death I will be thy plagues! Oh Grave! I will be thy destruction. (Hos. 13: 14). Be it noticed here that he did not promise to redeem or ransom any one from a conscious state of Hell Torture, but his promise is entirely consistent with all the other Scriptures, that the dead are dead and waiting the progressive steps of Jehovah's plans to awaken them out of death.

A perfect man (Adam) sinned. Nothing but a perfect man could redeem him, God provided in his law, "A life for a life, a tooth for a tooth." Man has ever desired redemption and deliverance, but to carry this out for himself was an impossibility. Hence the Psalmist wrote: "None can by any means redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him. (Psa. 49: 7).

In his prehuman condition, Jesus was the logos. He was God's active agent in the creation of all things. God promised to deliver mankind and the one who should accomplish this deliverance would be honored above all others and he offered this honor to Jesus. Consequently his life was transferred from the spirit to human conditions. "He was made flesh and dwelt among us." (John 1: 14). The whole race being under the condemnation of death desired life, and Jesus said, "I am come that ye might have life." (John 10: 10). Of him the Apostle Paul writes: "We see Jesus who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that he by the grace of God might taste death for every man. (Heb. 2: 9). He was born of a woman not begotten of man, being begotten by the power of Jehovah. (Luke 1: 35). When he reached the age of thirty years he was a perfect man, physically, mentally, in character, every way. He actually corresponded with Adam in Eden before he sinned. Therefore, he was able to become a ransom, a corresponding price. He offered himself in full consecration to the Father. God accepted him and begot him to the Divine nature. He was crucified upon the cross and was raised from the dead by the Father's power and ascended upon high, with the price sufficient to redeem all mankind. Why did God permit his beloved son to come to the earth and die? "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3: 16). His son, Jesus, resurrection from the dead is a complete guarantee that all the dead shall be awakened. The Apostle Paul says, "There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust." (Acts 24: 15). Jesus delcared that the hour is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of Man, and live, when all the dead in their graves shall be awakened and brought forth to be given a full knowledge of the truth and a trial for life. (John 5: 25-28-29). There was a class of clergymen in Jesus' days known as Sadjucees, who denied the Resurrection of the dead. There is a class of Clergymen today, who by their teachings deny in substance, if not in terms the resurrection of the dead. How strange that they have been unable to see that one must be dead before he can be raised from the dead. If alive they could not be resurrected. When Jesus said that God sent him to earth to die in order that others might have life and might not perish, it meant that they would perish and could not live except by his death and resurrection and any position or teaching, therefore, that denies the unconscious state of the dead, denies the Ransom, and denies the Resurrection. The Apostle Paul emphasizes this argument when he says, "Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of tre dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead then Christ is not risen. (1st Cor. 15: 12-13). The converse of this proposition must be of necessity be true. If Christ did not rise from the dead, then all others who have died must also be brought forth. Emphasizing this fact, the Apostle Paul further says, "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain." (Verse 14). In other words, it would be useless to preach anything about God's plan, the condition of the dead, or anything else if we deny the resurrection of the dead. If we took any other position we would be false witnesses and so says the Apostle. "Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: them he raised not up, so be that the dead rise not. For is the dead risen not then is Christ not raised. And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished." (verses 15-18). Is it not strange that St. Paul did not say here that even those fallen asleep in Christ are alive in Purgatory, waiting to be prayed out by some priests. Why not take the Apostle Paul, the Lord Jesus Christ and all the faithful writers of the Bible's word, concerning the condition of the dead and Jehovah's stated plan of the Resurrection of the dead? Why should not the people cast out all and refuse to listen to those whose principal object is to get in all the filthy lucre and undeserved honors that they can? It is no wander that the people are so far in the dark, concerning God's plan of Salvation. The people have already permitted these false shepherds, (False Preachers—Wolves in sheep's clothing) to lead them too far in darkness. The time has come when every honest hearted individual should demand the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth on matters pertaining to God's great plan of Salvation.

In the Apostle's argument concerning the resurrection of the dead in First Cor. 15. After arguing the negative side of the question he assumes the positive side and says, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruit of them that slept?" (Verse 20). In other words, for four thousand years man had been dieing and in that time no one had been resurrected. Now Jesus, the perfect one had come. He had suffered death and God had raised him up from the dead and he was the first that ever was raised up. Continuing this argument, St. Paul says. "For since by man came death, by man (Jesus) came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all died, even so all in Christ shall be made alive, but every man in his own order. Christ the first fruits, (after the resurrection of the Christ) they that are Christ at his appearing." (Verse 21-23). Thus he establishes the fact that until the second coming of Christ, the dead must remain dead, fully unconscious, out of existence, and at the second coming of Christ the Resurrection takes place. This same Apostle continuing his argument in his epistle to the Thessalonians, says, "But I would not have you ignorant, concerning them that are asleep, (dead). That ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again even so them which are sleeping (In death) in Jesus will God bring with him? (Otherwise stated, not until the coming of Jesus, will those asleep in death be awakened). For this we say unto you, by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout and the voice of the Ark Angel, and the trumph of God, and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with him in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1st Thes. 4: 13-16) Here the apostle, however, is discussing particularly the resurrectionof the Church, that these shall be first resurrected. Afterwards shall come the resurrection of mankind in general. The purpose of their awakening out of death is to give them a fair trial for Life-Everlasting. The Apostle gives this thought when he says, "For it is the will of God that all men be saved and come unto the knowledge of the truth. (1st Thes. 2: 3-4). The salvation here mentioned is the salvation from death provided by the merit of Christ Jesus.

HICKORY HITS.

Hickory was honored Sunday by the presence of Rev. J. H. Hooker of Tulsa and preached an able sermon at the 11 o'clock services.

He expalined the faith of the many denominations and laid great stress upon being one and only one Baptists.

His sermon was commendable and greatly enjoyed by all that attended. Hickory welcomes all men of Rev. Hooker's type at all times.

Mrs. Minnie Berry has been on the sick list this week.

Rev. J. W. Barnes of Scales has been visiting points in Texas and reports having had a nice time.

Quite a number of the Hickory people are planning to spend their 4th at Red Bird, at the two day's picnic.

OUR POLITICAL FAITH.

"All men are born equal and endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."—Thomas Jefferson.

We believe in the principles of true Democracy as promulgated by the patriot, Thomas Jefferson, and without fear or favor, we will be found at all times fighting for an honest, impartial application of these principles to all men regardless of race or color.

OUR RELIGIOUS FAITH.

To live as near as we can to our own conception of our duty to God and to our fellowmen, to do right and live right at all times as God has given us the conscience to see and feel it.

We believe man's greatest service to God may be rendered through honest, unselfish service to mankind.

We believe in the Golden Rule and practice it.

We fear only to do wrong.

THE OTHER KIND OF STATE GOVERNOR—HOBBY.

A NORTH CAROLINA NEGRO, charged with assaulting a white girl, was taken from Person County jail and lynched. The next day it was shown indisputably by his white employer that he was innocent. Governor Bickett promptly offered the largest reward legally permissible for the apprehension of each member of the mob. A week later three Negroes, charged with assault, were jailed in the town of Graham. The Governor immediately sent a machine gun company of the State National Guard with an order which should rank well with the famous epigrams in our history which from their school days Americans like to repeat: "Captain Fowler, protect these prisoners at all hazards, and notify the people I have ordered the necessary men and machine guns to shoot straight if an attempt on the life of the prisoners is made." Unfortunately, it was deemed necessary to carry out these instructions fully. A mob formed and the machine gunners killed one and wounded two—but the Negroes were saved, law and order was vindicated, and a new name, that of Governor Thomas W. Bickett, was formally placed on the roster of those who understand their duty and are not afraid to do it. They are none too numerous, these courageous Governors of Southern States. Bickett, Democrat, has ably seconded a similarly brave stand by Governor Morrow, Republican, of Kentucky. These party distinctions have some significance in the South. Meantime, there is the other kind of State Executive. In Paris, Texas, two Negroes were burned at the stake for the alleged killing of two white men. The next day the County Sheriff declared that "at least one of the two was not the right one," and that he was doubtful whether the "other was the right party." No arrests have been made or will be, but Governor Hobby promptly replied to a telegram of protest from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that "Lamar County and Texas are amply able to take care of the situation without suggestions from the outside."

"I believe the Federal Government should stamp out lynching and remove that stain from the fair name of America"—thus Senator Harding in his speech of acceptance. He is right in pointing to Federal control as the best approach. For while a courageous Governor can do much in his State to stamp out mob murder—contrast North Carolina's one lynching to date this year with the seven in Texas—a condition so grave, so inherently destructive of everything that America must stand for, cannot be left to chance manhood in the gubernatorial seat. No passages in Senator Harding's address are more praiseworthy than those dealing with our color problem. If, as we hope, his utterances are sincere and not merely campaign rhetoric and if the Colored people and the country are not to be shamefully betrayed as they were in this, and indeed in other matters, by Woodrow Wilson, Senator Harding should define specifically what he means by saying: "The Negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights." The minimum requirements, in addition to a Federal anti-lynching law, are the abolition of segregation and discrimination in civil service, army, and navy, and of Jim-Crowism in interstate travel, and the enforcement by Federal commissioners of the Fifteenth Amendment.—THE NATION.

DR. R. R. MOTON, PRESIDENT OF TUSKEGEE Institute, in his address delivered at the formal opening of the 17th Annual Session of the National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools at Baltimore, Md., said among other forceful and striking things, the following:

"No decent, self-respecting and educated Negro thinks himself inferior to the white man, I don't. The time has come for the Race to be frank to as well as with each other. Negroes are not permitted to remove garbage from their own back yards in the South and to clean their own front streets, because these are political jobs and Negroes must be kept out of politics. Criminality of Negroes in the South could be reduced 75 per cent by appointment of Colored police, constables and deputy sheriffs. God knows I hate lynching, but if all white men who committed the "unmentionable" crime against Negro women were lynched also, I would not have so much to say about it. There is a difference between justice and fairness. The courts were probably just to Jack Jhonson, had the woman been Colored and Jack Johnson white, it is certain not so much fuss would have been made out of it. Desire of Negroes to ride in Pullmans, to eat in restaurants, to go to Johns Hopkins University is not the desire for social equality, to be with white people, but to ride first-class, to enjoy a good meal and to get the best education. The test of a fine city is not its docks, its wealth or its physical beauty, but the test of a fine city is its ability to deal justly and fairly with its humblest citizen.

IT IS AN OLD SAYING that everything is fair in love and war. We are rather suprised to find that one of Tulsa's best known clergymen, the Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, has recently attempted to place the arena of religious controversy in the same catagory as love and war by taking an unfair advantage of an honorable opponent, the Hon. Richard J. Hill. This he did by recently proclaiming by publicity distributed posters that: "Russellism is the Doctrine of the Devil, and Richard J. Hill is his Tulsa Representative." In thus assailing Mr. Hill, the Rev. Johnson gave him no opportunity of being present to speak in behalf of himself. It is well known on the other hand that Mr. Hill has repeatedly expressed the wish to meet any and all of his opponents upon any rostrum, anywhere and at any time for an open and honorable discussion of the doctrines of which he is such an able advocate and exponent. In thus mistreating Mr. Hill, the Rev. Johnson in our opinion has placed himself in alignment with the Devil, rather than with our beloved Christ, who urges us all "To do unto others as we would have others do unto ourselves."

SCOTT FERRIS WINNER?-Sure!

REPRESENTATIVE SCOTT FERRIS NOMINATED

Wins Over Senator Thomas P. Gore By Large Majority: Ferris 94,278; Gore, 69,599.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug 6.—Although late returns from Tuesday's primary cut down somewhat the early lead piled up by Representative Scott Ferris for the democratic nomination for United States senator, the represeative still had a lead of 24,680 over Senator Thos. P. Gore on a tabulation by the Daily Oklahoman early today of complete but unofficial returns from 2,115 of the 2,768 precincts of the state. The vote stood: Ferris, 94,278; Gore, 69,599.

In a signed statement issued at his headquarters here today, Senator Thomas P. Gore declared he had "run a handicap race and lost" in the contest with Representative Scott Ferris for the democratic senatorial nomination in Tuesday's primary. The senator declared he would continue to work for the success of the democratic party.

He said: "I shall continue to wish and work for the triumph of democratic principles, liberty of thought speech, conscience, and the press."

THE PEOPLE'S MOVE.

LANGSTON, Okla., Aug. 5.—President Pettus of the state Teachers' Association, commenting recently upon the movement for better schools for Negroes and better salaries for teachers in Negro schools said, "this is not primarily the teachers' fight; it is rather the people's fight. Teachers are here today or this year, and may be gone the next, but the people will continue to abide here, and whatever may be the condition of their schools, they and their children will have to put up with them. It behooves the people, therefore, to get behind this movement for better schools and push it until they have acquired what rightly belongs to them."

Replying to the question concerning the rumored recall of the opinion recently handed down by the attorney general's office, President Pettus said: "Doubtless, this ruse was made for political effect. The opinion given out from the attorney general's office relative to the so-called one mill law is the only logical one that could have been, or can be given. Any other form whatever source to the contrary is bunk. There is, as I have said before, no law limiting the levy for the support of Separat schools except that which limits the total county levy to ten mills."

Suppose some of the county excise boards adopt the same procedure as in former years respecting the estimate which the county, or city, superintendent of schools regards as necessary for the proper maintenance of Separate Schools, and which has been allowed by the county commissioners, should be met promptly by mandamus proceedings by the citizens whose school is immediately affected. This will put the question up to the court, where, under existing laws, there can be nodoubt as to the outcome.

"The time has come," he said, "when Negroes must be a unit on all questions affecting their welfare. No question is more vital to them than that of the education of their children, and in this there should be no varying nor shadow of turning. They must close rank and present a solid front."

SELLS-FLOTO SHOWS VISIT TULSA.

"The second largest circus in the world, the Sells-Floto, is coming to Tulsa, Friday, August 13th, for afternoon and night performances, 2:15 and 8:15 o'clock," said a press agent stepping up to the city editor's desk Monday morning.

And we were just a little inclined to believe that this particular press agent is a rather truthful looking fellow at that, for all advance press agents claim to be ahead of the biggest.

Anyhow, the circus, which has made for itself a great reputation in the west for years, and which ventured into the East last season leaving such a splendid impression with the circus-going people, is coming on the day and date mentioned with trains loaded to the guards with the best ever offered to amusement-seekers who like the white tops best. There are three rings, two stages, the air and the great tracks under the big tents filled at each performance with the best to be seen in aerial, ground riding, wire, Indian, dog, pony, monkey, track, clown, elephant and just about all kinds of circus acts imaginable. The spectacular entree, "The Birth of the Rainbow," opens the big performance. In this most of the performers and animals are introduced to the audiences.

Of course, there is the parade at the usual hour—11 o'clock and it is on time.

Muskogee's Loss—Tulsa's Gain.

The Rev. S. M. Twine, one of our foremost citizens and widely known throughout the country in two fields, relicious and financial, who for a number of years has been a resident of Muskogee has taken Dr. Watson's office on East Archer and will utilize it as his headquarters hereafter. This acquisition to the citizenship and commercial and financial circles of Tulsa is one in which all Tulsans should have much pride. The Rev. Twine in the religious field will continue his activities as Secretary, of the Baptist State College maintained by the Oklahoma State Baptist Association. In the financial arena this successful oil proprietor and operator has moved here to be nearer Chelsa where he has properties, a low estimate of which would be 850,000 and which promise thru his active development to run up into millions in a short time. He is associated with no corporation but enjoys the unique distinction of being by himself an operator of an extensive and promising oil holding.

DURHAM ATROCITY VICTIM DECLARED INNOCENT

Such Horrors Are Likely to Arouse Protesting American Sentiment.

(A. N. P. Service)

DURHAM, N. C., Aug., 5.—In a communication to the Durham Herald, Nello Teer, contractor who employed Ed. Roach, who was lynched near Roxboro, Person County, on charge of attempted criminal assault, declares that Roach was innocent of the attempted crime, that he could not possibly have been guilty, and that the mob made a ghastly mistake in killing Roach.

"Editor Morning Herald:

"I have just read your editorials on the lynching of Ed. Roach in Person County, and I feel I would be an unworthy citizen if I failed to state what I know about this matter.

"When this Negro was lynched an innocent man was murdered as would have been had you or I been the victim of the mob. He was working for me and was a quiet, hard-working, inoffensive, humble Negro. On Monday he came to me and stated he was sick and wanted to go with me to Durham that night to see a doctor. I greatly regret that I did not take him with me, for I believe his life would have been spared, but instead I arranged for him to go Tuesday night to Roxboro. He continued at his work all day Tuesday until about 5:30, (bear in mind the crime for which he was lynched occurred between 2 and 3 o'clock that afternoon, when he asked permission of his foreman to stop and go to Mount Tersa station to catch the train for Roxboro. Permission was given him and he left for the station walking. At 5:45 he passed the state's bridge crew (white men) and two men who were searching for the guilty Negro saw him and followed him up the road to Mount Tersa station where he sat down and waited for the train. These two men sat down on the railroad near him. When the train came he got on and paid his fare to Roxboro and got off the train there. He was not arrested until he got off the train. I am advised by the Chief of Police he asked what they had him for and told them he had not done anything, but he was not told until he got in jail what they had him for. He denied it and told the little girl when she was brought in that she was mistaken; he was not the man, so the sheriff informs me. He asked to be taken by my office to see my superintendent with whom I had arranged to carry him to the doctor, but permission was refused him. He had been working for me off and on for two years and on this particular work since November 1, 1919, and was in every way a straightforward, inoffensive Negro. His life has been taken for something he knew absolutely nothing about.

"A Negro man about Ed. Roach's size came to my camp on Sunday night, was employed on Monday and went to work Tuesday morning. About 8:45 a. m. he drove my team out to the side of the road and had been gone about 25 minutes when my foreman missed him. My foreman took out one of the mules and went to look for him, going up the road towards Mount Tersa. The Negro saw him and broke and ran over the east side of the railroad going towards Lynchburg. This was about 10:30 a. m. Tuesday morning in approximately three quarters of a mile of the scene of the crime. This man was dressed practically the same as Ed. Roach with cap and overalls, was about the same size but a little darker in color. He was a strange Negro who had never been in any of our camps before, and the circumstances would point to him as the guilty party.

"I make this statement in the interest of truth and justice and with a full knowledge of the odium I am bringing down upon my own head in doing so, but with the hope that this fearful crime may shock our people as to make its like again an impossibility."

RICHARD J. HILL

The Hon. Richard J. Hill, Tulsa's leading citizen, who is in the East attending the sessions of the International Bible Students' Convention, and taking a prominent part in its proceedings. His return home in a few days is looked forward to by his numerous friends.

JUSTICE IS SOLE CURE FOR INJUSTICE

Dark Races of the World Justified In Resenting Centuries of Wrongs.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 31.—More frequently these days than ever before, there appears in the daily newspapers of the country, editorials based on human justice, with argument that is unanswerable. The Associated Negro Press takes great pleasure in calling attention to exceptional editorial expressions, and sends the good news on to 15,000,000 who are cheered, inspired and strengthened by the "gospel truth" as it were. Thousands know the truth on the other side, but these who will shout it, and those who have the courage of their convictions, form a big gap which must be filled.

A recent syndicate editorial appearing in various daily newspapers throughout the country, is worthy of a place of honor in every newspaper. It is worthy because it is true and logical, and because, through the various daily newspapers, it has gone deep into the minds of thinking people, who cannot forget its philosophy, and who will, sooner or later, be brave enough to speak out boldly for the justice which has been so long and bitterly denied.

The editorial is a "nut shell" sermon, and says:

"For Duluth, Chicago, East St. Louis, your town, our town, any town.

Any white mob which lynches a black man commits the unpardonable sin. It is a crime against law and civilization. It is a crime against the black race. It is a crime against the white. More especially, it is a crime against the white.

There are twice as many Colored folk in the world as there are white. They are increasing more rapidly. They are moving toward solidarity.

Read Lothrop Stoddard's new book, "The Rising Tide of Color."

While the white race has been soaking Europe with its best blood, Japan has been tightening her grip upon the hordes of Asia.

Japan is a yellow nation. But the yellow, the brown, the red, the black, have something in common against the white.

What one colored people has done, another may do. In India, in Egypt, in Africa, there is growing bitterness against the white man. Bitterness based upon injustice, and such bitterness is deep.

There is no cure for Color, but there is a cure for injustice. That cure is Justice."

There is no desire to "strut" and "spike out" about the words of that editorial; there is no spirit of defiance, but there is a cool, sober, solemn warning, that the people of power, and the people in power in America, had better be aroused to the terrible dynamite upon which they are fazing away the honor, glory and future hope of the land. Lynch Law must GO, or the Nation will Perish! No Nation can live and prosper where there is no respect for LAW and HUMAN RIGHTS. July has furnished a sickly record of mobs and lynchings, assassinations and cold-blooded murder. July, the month that gave birth to the great "Delcaration of Independence," is bathed in the blood of the deeds of the insane mobs.

How much longer will the American people let this condition go on with a mild protest? How much longer will it be before the Federal Government steps in and declares: "Come What Will, Justice Must Prevail!" How much longer must men, women and children be compelled to literally flee for their lives,—as is set forth in the continuous exodus from the South—in order to find a "haven of rest," but now, sad to relate, too frequently, even in the generous North discover fomenting the ugly and damnable germs of riot? How much longer is is to be expected that one-tenth of the nation's population will endure the outrages of "crime against law and civilization?"

We speak for these people—all of them—and appeal to the sober judgment of the prudent people of earth, to bestir, be quick or be damned!

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned take this means to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our numerous friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent very great bereavement through the loss of wife, mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cornelia Williams, late of New Orleans, La., and our grandson and son, Orlando Gibbs of Tulsa.

H. B. Williams, husband and grandfather; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gibbs, son-in-law, daughter and mother; Mr. Ed. Wise, son; Mr. Theo Wise, son; and five grand sons.

Tulsa Family Sadly Stricken By Death.

Mrs. Cornelia Williams of New Orleans, La., died July 30, 1920, suddenly while on her way to visit her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Gibbs. She succumbed at Okmg. Okla. She is survived by her husband of New Orleans, H. B. Williams and two sons, Ed. Wise of Guthrie, Okla., and Theo Wise of Memphis, Tenn., one daughter, Mrs. L. A. Gibbs of Tulsa and fourteen grandchildren.

The burial ceremonies took place here from the Vernon Chapel, A. M. E. Church.

Also Orlando Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gibbs, age 17 was accidentally killed by a fall of 25 feet from a viaduct while in Joplin, Mo. He was carried to a hospital there and died shortly thereafter. He is survived by father, mother, 5 brothers, grandfather and two uncles.

He was buried at the same cemetery by the side of his grandmother, Mrs. Williams.

Services were conducted by Bro. S. T. Walker at Vernon Chapel, A. M. E. Church, which were well attended by numerous friends of the family. Among those were Mrs. C. Buckingham of Muskogee, Okla., a life-time friend of the deceased and family.

The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Jackson Undertaking company and won the highest commendation of all participating in these sad obsequies.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

It is with deep regret that we announce to our readers the quite serious illness of Mr. A. J. Smitherman, proprietor and Editor of The Tulsa Star. It is for this reason that our issue for the present week consists of four pages instead of the usual eight. We are hopeful that all will unite with us in praying and hoping for his speedy recovery to health and his wonted activity and usefulness in the Star sanctum.

State Democratic Meeting Postponed

The State-Wide Negro Democratic Convention which was called to meet in Tulsa, Okla. on August 9th is hereby postponed on account of the serious illness of the temporary chairman Mr. A. J. Smitherman.

OUR POLITICAL FAITH

"All men are born equal and endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" —Thomas Jefferson.

We believe in the principles of true Democracy as promulgated by the patriot, Thomas Jefferson, and without fear or favor, we will be found at all times fighting for an honest, impartial application of these principles to all men regardless of race or color.

OUR RELIGIOUS FAITH.

To live as near as we can to our own conception of our duty to God and to our fellowmen; to do right and live right at all times as God has given us the conscience to see and feel it.

We believe man's greatest service to God may be rendered through honest, unselfish service to mankind.

We believe in the Golden Rule and practice it.

We fear only to do wrong.

THE OTHER KIND OF STATE GOVERNOR—HOBBY.

A NORTH CAROLINA NEGRO, charged with assaulting a white girl, was taken from Person County jail and lynched. The next day it was shown indisputably by his white employer that he was innocent. Governor Bickett promptly offered the largest reward legally permissible for the apprehension of each member of the mob. A week later three Negroes, charged with assault, were jailed in the town of Graham. The Governor immediately sent a machine gun company of the State National Guard with an order which should rank well with the famous epigrams in our history which from their school days Americans like to repeat: "Captain Fowler, protect those prisoners at all hazards, and notify the people I have ordered the necessary men and machine guns to shoot straight if an attempt on the life of the prisoners is made." Unfortunately, it was deemed necessary to carry out these instructions fully. A mob formed and the machine gunners killed one and wounded two —but the Negroes were saved, law and order was vindicated, and a new name, that of Governor Thomas W. Bickett, was formally placed on the roster of those who understand their duty and are not afraid to do it. They are none too numerous, these courageous Governors of Southern States. Bickett, Democrat, has ably seconded a similarly brave stand by Governor Morrow, Republican, of Kentucky. These party distinctions have some significance in the South. Meantime, there is the other kind of State Executive. In Paris, Texas, two Negroes were burned at the stake for the alleged killing of two white men. The next day the County Sheriff declared that "at least one of the two was not the right one," and that he was doubtful whether the "other was the right party." No arrests have been made or will be, but Governor Hobby promptly replied to a telegram of protest from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that "Lamar County and Texas are amply able to take care of the situation without suggestions from the outside."

"I believe the Federal Government should stamp out lynching and remove that stain from the fair name of America"— thus Senator Harding in his speech of acceptance. He is right in pointing to Federal control as the best approach. For while a courageous Governor can do much in his State to stamp out mob murder—contrast North Carolina's one lynching to date this year with the seven in Texas—a condition so grave, so inherently destructive of everything that America must stand for, cannot be left to chance manhood in the gubernatorial seat. No passages in Senator Harding's address are more praiseworthy than those dealing with our color problem. If, as we hope, his utterances are sincere and not merely campaign rhetoric and if the Colored people and the country are not to be shamefully betrayed as they were in this, and indeed in other matters, by Woodrow Wilson, Senator Harding should define specifically what he means by saying: "The Negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights." The minimum requirements, in addition to a Federal anti-lynching law, are the abolition of segregation and discrimination in civil service, army, and navy, and of Jim-Crowism in interstate travel, and the enforcement by Federal commissioners of the Fifteenth Amendment.—THE NATION.

DR. R. R. MOTON, PRESIDENT OF TUSKEGEE Institute, in his address delivered at the formal opening of the 17th Annual Session of the National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools at Baltimore, Md., said among other forceful and striking things, the following:

"No decent, self-respecting and educated Negro thinks himself inferior to the white man, I don't. The time has come for the Race to be frank to as well as with each other. Negroes are not permitted to remove garbage from their own back yards in the South and to clean their own front streets, because these are political jobs and Negroes must be kept out of politics. Criminality of Negroes in the South could be reduced 75 per cent by appointment of Colored police, constables and deputy sheriffs. God knows I hate lynching, but if all white men who committed the "unmentionable" crime against Negro women were lynched also, I would not have so much to say about it. There is a difference between justice and fairness. The courts were probably just to Jack Jhonson, had the woman been Colored and Jack Johnson white, it is certain not so much fuss would have been made out of it. Desire of Negroes to ride in Pullmans, to eat in restaurants, to go to Johns Hopkins University is not the desire for social equality, to be with white people, but to ride first-class, to enjoy a good meal and to get the best education. The test of a fine city is not its docks, its wealth or its physical beauty, but the test of a fine city is its ability to deal justly and fairly with its humblest citizen.

IT IS AN OLD SAYING that everything is fair in love and war. We are rather suprised to find that one of Tulsa's best known clergymen, the Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, has recently attempted to place the arena of religious controversy in the same catagory as love and war by taking an unfair advantage of an honorable opponent, the Hon. Richard J. Hill. This he did by recently proclaiming by publicity distributed posters that: "Russellism is the Doctrine of the Devil, and Richard J. Hill is his Tulsa Representative." In thus assailing Mr. Hill, the Rev. Johnson gave him no opportunity of being present to speak in behalf of himself. It is well known on the other hand that Mr. Hill has repeatedly expressed the wish to meet any and all of his opponents upon any rostrum, anywhere and at any time for an open and honorable discussion of the doctrines of which he is such an able advocate and exponent. In thus misstreating Mr. Hill, the Rev. Johnson in our opinion has placed himself in alignment with the Devil, rather than with our beloved Christ, who urges us all "To do unto others as we would have others do unto ourselves."

'ISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from theid pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own privatte pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could escape from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while on this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them. Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 15, will be entitled "THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

RICHARD J. HILL.

At the time of Jesus' death, man had been going into the grave covering a period of four thousand years, and two thousand years since his crucifixion have they continued to die and practically all of them without any knowledge of God's provision through Christ for their salvation. It would be impossible, therefore, for them to have a knowledge of the truth without first being awakened out of death. Therefore Jesus said: "All that are in the graves shall come forth. The good unto a resurrection of life, and they that have done evil (who are all except the true followers of Christ) unto a resurrection by judgments." John 5: 28-29 R. V.). The judgment here implies a trial, because there can be no judgment without a trial. There can be no trial first without knowledge, for the reason that even the laws of the land do not permit a man to be tried without his knowledge. Consequently, first will be the awakening of the dead. Second, they are brought to a knowledge of the truth. And third, they are put on trial for life.

The Apostle then makes clear what shall follow, and saying: "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. And he shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached unto you, whom the Heavens must receive until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his Holy Prophets since the world began. For Moses truly said unto the Fathers, "A Prophet (meaning Christ, of which Moses was a type) shall your God raise unto you of his brethren like unto me. (The antitype of Moses) him shall ye hear (Obey) in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you." (Acts 3: 19-24). Restitution means to restore that which was lost. Father Adam lost all through his disobedience. What did he have to loose? We answer, he had the right to life everlasting, the right to full liberty of the earth and happiness complete. Man has ever been seeking these things yet unable to acquire them. Jesus, by his death and resurrection bought them all for mankind. When he sets up his kingdom he will have at his disposal to give to the obedient ones these very things: viz., Life, Liberty and Happiness.

Satan, the Arch enemy of the human race has ever desired to turn the people away from Jehovah and his plan. Jehovah has permitted, or rather restrained him—to go his full limit and in due time Jehovah will make the wrath of the Adversary redound to his praise. Satan and the Demons will know that the world is now in a time of great trouble that millions of Broken hearts are in the land, millions of widows and orphans weeping and bemoaning the loss of their loved ones, because of the devastation of the great war, the pestilence that has swept the earth for the past few years. Taking advantage of this condition of sorrow, Satan, is putting forth his doctrine, as an Angel of Light attempting to comfort the sad hearts by telling them again that their loved ones are not dead but are alive and progressing along the way to greater happiness. If he succeeds in doing this what has he done? He has turned away the minds of the people from the great word of truth, the redemptive plan of salvation, and thus seemingly accomplish his purpose of turning them away from God. This is the reason why Spiritualism is so prevalent in the land today. But, we thank God this condition will not long prevail. It is with joy that we can state confidently that within a few more years the dark veil of ignorance that overhangs the earth shall be lifted and the blindness that now afflicts the people will be turned away and they shall learn that Jehovah is the Great God of Love, that Jesus is the Great Redeemer and through his kingdom they can obtain the blessings of Resurrection and Restitution. In the course of these articles we confidentially expect to show to the reasonable mind that the time for the overthrow of Satan's Empire is at hand, that the time for the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom is at the door, and in consequence thereof the great tide of sorrow, sickness and death shall be turned back and that millions of people now living on earth and coming to a knowledge of the truth and accepting it, and rendering themselves in obedience to the Lord's law, shall live and not die. Then we can confidentially say that at this very time there are millions on earth who will never die, not because they are immortal, but because the time draws near for the beginning of Restitution blessings and we have confidence that when the people come to a knowledge of the truth that they will joyfully embrace these blessings and come readily up over the highways of Holiness, back to life, Strength, Health and Blessings.

Restitution will mean the bringing back of the human race to a state of perfection, that is to say, all those who are obedient under Christ's reign, and during that time the earth itself will be restored to a condition, beautiful and grand like unto the Garden of Eden, being made a fit habitation for man.

We have come to the point where all thoughtful persons would desire to know why do the majority of the preachers teach error? The proper answer to this question in a short way is found in the fifty-sixth chapter of Isiah 10-11 verses, be sure and read it. Ecclesisasticism or the Great Church System of the world, is made up of Diverse and numerous Sect, and each one of these Sect has its own Clergymen who teach Diverse and numerous theories, inconsistent with themselves and each other. One class of preachers (Priests) have long taught and do yet teach that at death a certain class of men go to Purgatory, there to remain for an indefinite season, and that the Clergymen have power to say prayers and Masses to relieve them from their Purgatory suffering. This has proven to be a fruitful source of money making. This class of preachers have always had their members to understand that no one is ever relieved from Purgatory under a thousand years, and thus the Clergymen set a date so far ahead that no living person could ever pay the bill and therefore the obligation would descend from one generation to another. Still another class of preachers teach that God long ago fore-ordained and predestined that a few persons would be saved in a Heaven of eternal bliss while the great mass of mankind, without reference to anything that they have ever done or ever will do, must spend their eternity in endless torment. In another way of putting it, they claim that the destiny of each individual is fixed without the individual's knowledge or consent. Another class of preachers hold and teach that God offers freely to every man the opportunity for salvation in Heaven, and that any one who misses that home of endless bliss does so by his own fault. Another and more modern school of Clergymen, teach that man is a creature of evolution, springing from protoplasm and developing stage by stage from baboon to monkey and monkey to man, and continuing to progress until sometime in the endless ages to come he will reach a stage of perfection.

There was a time when most of the Sects claimed to believe in and teach the Bible as God's word of truth, but the more modern schools style themselves, (Higher Critics), "Savants." They deny the inspiration of the Scriptures, and hold that they are wiser than the men of old who wrote the Bible.

The time was when these various schools of Theology were at war with each other, some going to the extreme of burning each other at the stake because of different views. In modern times however, they observing that their inconsistencies were so glaring, have sought a common union basis, each being willing to give up his pet theory and subscribe to no doctrine at all except an agreement to work together in the formation and maintainance of an Ecclesiastical Trust. To accomplish their purpose they have united with the financial and political powers of the world. Many thinking people have long been observing the inconsistencies of the theories advanced by the majority of preachers, and necessarily have come to the conclusion that some of them if not all of them are teaching error. The result has been that many honest minded persons have been driven away from the churches, from the study of the Bible and from the Lord. The preachers realizing this fact have endeavored and are endeavoring to rally their forces and organize a general system whereby they can all stand together. Mr. William T. Ellis, writer of "The Religeous Rambler," one of America's most reliable authorities upon current religeous events, referring to the present condition of Ecclesiasticism says: "I find all men profoundly concerned over present conditions. Nothing is too venerable or sacred to escape the challenge of the war. The very existence of God has been called into question. The Christian Church is at her crisis. It is frankly admitted that sectarinism must go into the war scrap-heap." Here is a statement that after many centuries churchanity stands admittedly before the world a complete failure. The people of the world know that the preachers are teaching errors and naturally they ask the question, "Why do they do it?"

The present condition of things, fore-told, by the Lord's servants, Holy men of Old as they were moved upon by the Holy Spirit or invisible power of Jehovah. (2nd Peter 1: 21). The Divine mind foreknew all things that would transpire and caused a record of certain prominent events to be made in advance. Prophecy, is therefore history written in advance of the happening of events. Only the Divine mind could have fore-known and fore-te'd such events. In this day and time it is not at all uncommon for preachers to be asked by some of their lay-members and explanation of some phases of the Scripture. A preacher always assumes to be a learned man and invariably he will answer his interrogator that the Bible cannot be understood by the laymen even though it was explained to him. In fact we hear very little explanation of the Bible any more. The most of the preachers have become indifferent to the teachings of the Lord, and are asleep as to the importance of events now transpiring. Through the prophets the Lord fore-told this condition saying: "For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep and hath closed your eyes; the preachers, rulers, the seers hath he covered. And a vision (Understanding of his plan) of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, read (explain) this, I pray thee; and he sayth, I cannot for it is sealed." (Isa. 29: 10-11). The Apostles of Old speak of themselves as servants of God. The modern Clergymen take the name of "D. D," and call themselves the watchmen of their respective flocks, claiming to be God's watchmen. Of this class the Prophet of the Lord wrote: "His watchmen are blind. They are all dum dogs (D. D.s). They cannot bark, sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber, (loving ease and comfort). Yea they are greedy Dogs which can never have enough and they are Shepherds that cannot understand (Nor teach the truth). They all look to their own way, every one for his gain (Collection and honors) from his quarter (Sect or system)." Ish. 56: 10 11.

Before an architect attempts to construct a building he first provides himself with a well defined plan and he works accordingly. The builder could not properly construct it without such a plan. It is most reasonable to conclude that the Great Jehovah God had a well defined plan before he began to deal with the human race. The scripture proves that he did have such a plan. "Known unto God were all his works from the beginning of the world." (Act. 15: 19). This plan, of course, has been kept secret from both men and Angels, and has been unfolded gradually and in Jehovah's due time. The mere fact that he has a time and that he does unfold it in a timely and orderly way leads to the inevitable conclusion that it is his purpose to permit those to understand it who diligently seek to understand it. He did not promise to reveal this unto the heady nor to those who are wise in their own wisdom. On the contrary, we read: "The meek will he guide in Judgment; The meek will he teach his ways." God resisteth the proud and showeth his favor to the humble minded." (1st Peter 5: 6). It would not be expected, therefore, that Jehovah would reveal his plans unto those who are wise in their own conceit. On the contrary, his prophets wrote: "The secrets of the Lord is with them that reverence him." (Psalms 25: 14). To reverence God means to recognize that he is the Great First ecause, without beginning, without end, whose wisdom is without limitation, whose power is infinite, whose justice is eternal and whose love is boundless. The man who attempts to please any earthly thing above his obligation to Jehovah cannot be said to reverence God within the meaning of the Scriptures. The preacher that places his system above the loyal and faithful service of God cannot be said to reverence Jehovah. The Clergyman or any one else who would attempt to please man or to place his country or nation above, and as of greater importance than the faithful service of Jehovah cannot be said to reverence God. The one who reverences Jehovah recognizes that the world and the fullness thereof as nothing in his site. The Prophet has expressed the thought of such a one thus: "Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hands, and meted out Heaven with the span and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hill in a balance? Who hath directed the spirit of the Lord, or being his counselor hath taught him? With whom took he council? And who instructed him and taught him the path of Judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Behold the nations are as a drop of water in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance. Behold he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to be burned, nor the beast thereof sufficient for a burnt offering. All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, vanity. To whom then will ye liken God? Or what likness will ye compare unto him?" (Isiah. 40: 12-18). The first thing essential to the understanding of Jehovah's plan is a full and unreserved consecration to do God's will. This means that such a one will never seek to please himself, man made organizations or systems, when to do so would run counter to the will of God. To ascertain God's will he must study, his word, namely, the Bible, and once ascertaining it, do his will without fear of man or hope of promised earthly reward.

God promised that in due time his plan would be unfolded to man. His due time to unfold it to the true Christians preceeds the time for its unfolding to the world in general. Jehovah showed the Prophet Daniel a vision of events to transpire covering a long period of time and ending in a time immediately proceeding the full establishment of Messiah's Kingdom on the earth. Daniel did not understand the meaning of vision, because it was not intended to be understood in his time. Daniel said: "I heard but I understood not." In other words of explaination and yet did not comprehend their meaning. Then he said, "Oh my Lord what shall be the end of these things?" And he (Jehovah) said: "Go thy way, Daniel for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified and made white and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly and none of the wicked shall understand but the wise shall understand." (Daniel 12: 8-19). Bible Chronology shows that "The time of the end," is a period of years during which period those who reverence Jehovah will be permitted to understand his secrets or plan and that these are they who are termed "wise," not according to earthly wisdom, but wise according to God's manner. The modern Clergyman do not pretend to study and teach the Bible, but they study theology—man-made theories. They call in question the very authenticity of the Holy Scriptures and depend upon the wisdom of the world. Concerning such class it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?" 1st Cor. 1: 19-20). Jehovah revealed to Daniel and caused him to record certain things as a key-note in order that the Godly wise might understand, saying: "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

During the past half century wonderful methods of transportation have come into existence. The railways gird the earth. The great steam ships plow with rapidity the mighty seas. The air-ships fly as birds from place to place, and thus the powers of electricity, steam and gas have brought the people in close contact with each other to witness a great running to and fro such as the world before has never known. At the same time there has come a marvelous increase of knowledge along every line. The modern preachers look wise and say: "Behold what man has accomplished!" The Reverential student of God's word points to Daniel's prophecy and says: "Behold Divine testimony enabling us to determine where we are on the stream of time!" Most of the preachers are wise in their own wisdom and understand not. The meek persons who reverence God, are wise according to the Divine order and they [illegible] and rejoice in the unfol[illegible] Jehovah's plan. The reverent student of God's word learns that Jehovah, through his Prophets long ago described in detail the railway train speeding thru the land and the conductor gathering up the tickets of his passengers and the train unloading its burdens at the station (Nahum 2: 2-6) and they also recognized this as another evidence that we are in the time of the preparation of the setting up of Messiah's Kingdom. The same student finds that the modern airship which has astounded the world and for which the wise of the world have applauded man, was foretold centuries ago by the prophets of the Lord. (Isah. 60: 8). The wise student is again reminded by wireless telegraphy, which has revolutionized communication among [illegible] modern times, was centuries [illegible]fore-told by Divine wisdom in his Holy Word. And he begins to realize that God has a great plan and that the time is due for the meek and teachable to understand it. The Clergy as a rule ignore the Divine word, and relies upon man-made wisdom and therefore they are in the dark and do not understand the great plan of Salvation.

I beg to warn the preachers that the time has come when the world is demanding the whole truth on all subjects and those who claim to be the representatives of God will have to come clean and true on this [illegible] question or get out of the way. Friends, you may be surprised when I make the following charges against the majority of preachers. They stand guilty before God in that they have misrepresented his Great Plan of Salvation. They are guilty before the eyes of the land in that they have long been receiving money, honors and things of value under false pretense. They have busied themselves making the people believe that if they (The People) would pay them (The Preachers) good, fat salaries, build fine church houses, keep up church dues, etc., a Heaven of eternal bliss would be their portion at death but if they did otherwise a life of eternal misery in fire and brimstone would be their lot. As a matter of fact, there is not one word in the Bible supporting such doctrine and no preacher worthy of the name will attempt to prove such blasphemous doctrine by the Bible. And yet with a full knowledge of the falsity of their claim, they have collected millions in money and lived a life of ease and slumber. They are plainly guilty under the laws of the United States for receiving money under false pretense.

Now I am fully aware that the charges I am making against the majority of the preachers of the world is not calculated to make me friends except among those whose hearts are right and who desire to please the Lord at any cost. But just here I wish to say that I am the friend of both my friends and foes and my whole life is consecrated to the Lord to do his will at any cost and therefore it matters not [illegible] what the results of my telling the truth may be. I do this in the sense of a broad-minded friend giving warning to those who will be warned and enlightening those who are teachable; therefore I shall not stop until the strong-holds of error are completely demolished and the world be enlightened to the fact that the hope for humanity is restitution through the resurrection of the dead.

LYNCHING—THE NATION'S PET CRIME

(A. N. P. Service)

The pet crime of he nation—Lynching—has reached it's zenith. More than twenty years of continual protest on the part of the American Negroes, through leaders, organizations and newspapers of the group, has at last found apostleship within the circles of power.

Lynching was born nourished and cherished in the South. The Devilish power of its virule germs has been carried "with malice aforethought" into the remotest corners of the nation by the carefully "discriminating" news wires of the Associated Press and the painstaking propoganda of its writers. The baneful disease has demonstrated, beyond contradition, its ability to thrive and flourish everywhere—yes, everywhere.

It has blazed its way with sinister and jocular indifference thru the "color line," through youth and age, through men and women of honor and innocence, through the sacred tissues of expectant mothers, and through the peaceful quiet of the country side, as well as the busy, bustling centers of the great city.

To the low moan of the praying Negroes, their outstretched hands of righteousness appeal, the soft but steady and mighty tread of the migrating tens of thousands to climes of protection and safety, have recently been added the roaring voice of the daily newspapers, North, South, East and West; the wails of anxiety of the white clergy and political leaders, and the unyielding bullets of equal and exact justice, under the general direction of the great commonwealth of North Carolina, and its fearless Governor T. W. Bickett. With such a combination of effort, Lynch Law has reached its crest. It must go!

The most powerful instrumentality in the world is public sentiment. In the face of it, empires and kingdoms have crumbled to earth; human slavery has been abolished; bolshevism has marched westward with terrible potentialities, and with it, lynching must go.

Without public sentiment definitely crystalized against lynching, there has been but meager possibility of success in throttling the onrush of these barbaric performances. Now that recent events have sickened the most pessimistic, the hour for action has come, and with unflinching unity of purpose, something worth while will happen for all time to come.

It is very plain that our power in the premises, is unlimited. We now, today, must use every ounce of our ability and strength to back up the forces now in action. We must rise to the opportunity, and let there be nothing regarded as more important at this hour than settling this damnable business forever. There must be no flinching—and there will not—and there must be no equivocation. The blood of the innocent dead cries out for action; and unborn generations hold us to account.

Certain proposals are made. They all look forward to a final settlement of the terrible evil. Some say let the state be supreme, others say let the nation. We say: "Lynching Must Be Stopped Now. The Respect For Law Must Be Supreme. If The State Is Not Equal To The Occasion, The Nation Must Be. Lynching—The Nation's Pet Crime—Must Be Wiped From The Face Of The Earth. It Has Cut The Heart Strings Of Humanity And Startlingly Rocked The Foundation Of American Civilization."

Returns After Pleasant Vacation.

Mrs. Julia A. Jackson, who spent the summer in Colorado Springs and Denver visiting several places of note, among them, the Yellowstone National Park, met her sister, Mrs. L. R. Burns in Livingston, Montana, from which place she and Mrs. Burns went to Minneapolis, Minn. Here they spent a few days afterwards going to Chicago. After a few days stay in Chicago, Mrs. Jackson returned to us accompanied by Mrs. Burns, who after a short stay went to McAlester to visit her mother. Mrs. Jackson's trip evidently did her much good as she is much improved in looks.

Distinguished Mosiac In Town.

The Hon. W. M. Ezell, S. Grand Master of the Oklahoma Grand Lodge of Mosiac Templars of America, was a distinguished arrival in Tulsa early in the past week. S. G. M. Ezell is one of the leading citizens of Haskell and has for years been identified with the commercial and financial interests of his home town. He has been prominently connected with the establishment and growth of the order of Mosiac Templars in the State of Oklahoma, and very much of its present creditable showing both as to membership and financial standing is due to his persistent efforts. He is in the city to complete final arrangements for the holding of the Eighth Annual Grand Session of the State Grand Lodge of Mosiac Templars of America, Oklahoma Jurisdiction, which is to convene here on August 16, 17 and 18, at Myer's Hall on East Archer. It is expected that this meeting will attract fully as large delegations from Oklahoma cities as did the other two fraternal order which met in Tulsa during July. S. G. M. Ezell is a gentleman of most pleasing manners, and possessed of high degree of talent and culture.

Tulsa Lady Recovers Health.

The Baptist Vanguard of Little Rock, Ark., contained the following local referring to one of our well known and popular women:

Mrs. Carrie I. Person of Tulsa, Okla., who was brought home helplessly sick, has finally recovered, and may soon leave her Little Rock friends for her home in Oklahoma. Her many friends here were very anxious for her during her illness, and she is very thankful to them all for their interest in her.

NEGRO STATE FAIR, Oct. 12-15

Oct. 12, 13, 14, 15, 1920. at Wewoka, Okla.

The Negro State Fair will be held on the above dates at the Ranch of J. Coody Johnson, six miles north of Wewoka. The Fair bids fair to be the greatest ever put over by the Colored people of the State. The location is an ideal one for this exhibition being located in the heart of a 2500 acre ranch, in the best agricultural district in the county or state.

The idea of having a Negro State Fair originated with J. Coody Johnson, who is the founder and president of the Fair association. The object of the Fair is to promote and encourage agriculture and live stock raising among the Negro citizens of our state. Too many of our people are leaving the farm for the already over-crowded cities, and increasing the high cost of living, and in order to bring our people up to their true worth we are offering premiums for live stock, agriculture and domestic art Exhibits. The Negro has this assurance that he will have a chance to compete for prizes against members of his own race to be judged by judges of his own selection.

Here is a chance to encourage your boy and girl to do something that will be a credit as well as profit to themselves. Just what you produce and exhibit will be shown at the fair. If you have a fine horse, cow, pig or other domestic animal bring them to the Fair. The good housewife will have a chance to compete with other women of her own nationality, in cooking, needle work, and all other arts in which women are interested. Premiums will be given to the boys and girls Clubs for their exhibits. There is no better way to advertise your business, than by bringing an exhibit to the Fair.

Location.

The grounds are located on a beautiful elevation where you can see the surrounding country for miles, on J. Coody Johnson's vast ranch, the finest ranch and farms owned by any Negro in Oklahoma. The grounds are electric lighted, at night, and present a picture long to be remembered. It is easy of access, being on the main highway through Seminole County, State Highway from all points east and west, north and south lead to this Fair ground. A few gallons of gasoline will bring you in your "car" with the whole family to the greatest fair ever attempted by Negroes, here you can have four days of real pleasure.

Amusements of all kinds for all classes of people. A splendid race track is being prepared where horse races, auto races and cycle races will take place, some of the best horses owned by our people will be at the fair. Airplanes in which you can ride and see the whole country will make daily ascensions.

J. COODY JOHNSON, Pres.
VIRGINIA DAVIDSON, Secy.

HAMPTON ALUMNI GIVE $2500 SCHOLARSHIP

Honor Miss Mary F. Mackie—Also Pledge $2700 for "Booker T. Washington."

(By Wm. Anthony Aery)

HAMPTON, Va., Aug. 12.—The members of the Hampton Institute Alumni Association at their final meeting in Ogden Hall subscribed, in cash and pledges, within a half an hour $2700. Of this amount, $2,500 will be given to Hampton Institute to establish a permanent scholarship in memory of the late Dr. Booker T. Washington, who was graduated in 1875 and who founded Tuskegee Institute in 1881.

William M. Reid of Portsmouth, Va., president of the Association, presented Dr. James E. Gregg, principal of Hampton Institute, a check for $2,500—the gift of the Association for the "Mary F. Mackie Scholarship," in memory of the teacher who helped so largely in the training of Dr. Washington.

The Hampton Institute Alumni Association, which was founded in 1878, has already given to Hampton Institute two permanent $2,500 scholarships in honor of Gen. Samuel C. Armstrong and Dr. Hollis B. Frissell. The campaign for scholarship funds will continue.

COMMENCEMENT CULLINGS

Langston Summer Normal closed in a blaze of glory that will be reflected by the many student-teachers, who have gone from its walls to teach the youth of Oklahoma to be the future leaders of its race.

The public school music department gave a very creditable and interesting evening under its leader, Mrs. L. C. Clark of Muskogee. The teachers entered into the spirit of the occasion with all the abandon of children. There was no hesitation nor stiffness every one taking part in songs of all seasons, play ground games, folk dances, etc.

The exhibit of music (written) was indeed fine and reflected much credit upon the teachers and the school.

The Baccalaureate address to the class of 1920 by Senator Goiobie, of Guthrie was indeed fine and awaked much enthusiasm and applause from the large and appreciative audience.

The choir rendered some fine selections, class day exercises of Wednesday night were out of the ordinary. It was a playlet conceived of fostered by Prof. Fort of Okmulgee, in which the President of the class after reading a book on the transmigration of souls, falls asleep and many noted characters appear to her after the play, the student body entertained the seniors with a reception which was very enjoyable.

On Tuesday night, Miss Beulah Douglas, head of Instrumental Music department and Madame Shelor, Voice Department, gave a joint recital which was indeed fine. The voice and piano number called forth much applause and much credit is due the above named ladies for their work.

After this recital, President and Mrs. Marquess entertained the faculty with an enjoyable reception.

Mrs. Marquess is the soul of hospitality and no one left until way after the light blinked.

Thursday was Commencement night and the address was made by Rev. Johnson of Guthrie and the diplomas were given by President Marquess after a very forceful and snappy address.

Mr. and Mrs. Saddler gave a beautiful reception to the class of 1920, and the faculty. Mrs. Saddler made a very charming hostess.

Miss Kennedy, also entertained the seniors.

This summer normal was said to be the very best held at Langston, every available space was occupied by teachers, even the new laundry housed many of them.

Long live Langston!

No Color Question At Bible Student's Convention.

The Hon. Richard J. Hill, the well known writer on religious topics for The Tulsa Star, has returned to the city after attending the convention of the International Bible Students' at Columbus, Ohio and at Scranton, Pa. Mr. Hill says these meetings were attended by nearly 3,000 delegates and representatives of nearly every race on the globe were there. The presence of many of the most learned Bible scholars in the world made the meeting most important. He says one of the most remarkable incidents of these conventions was the entire absence of any question of race or color, every one was on an absolute equality. Mr. Hill enjoyed his trip in highest degree.

LANGSTON U. WILL ENTERTAIN WOMEN'S FEDERATION

Pres. Marquess Proposes to Entertain the Delegates Free Of Charge.

(Star News Service)

LANGSTON, Okla., Aug. 12.—Through the versatile enterprise and generous consideration of Prof. J. B. Marquess, President of Langston University, the women of the State of Oklahoma in connection with bi-annual meeting of the Women's Federation in this month are to have an opportunity altogether remarkable and unusual in their history. This association is called to meet at Langston, Okla., on Thursday and Friday, August 26th and 27th, and on this occasion, President Marquess, to quote his own words, has "assumed the responsibility of entertaining all the delegates to this Federation, free of charge." This no doubt unexpected proposition makes it possible for the Federation to have for this year the greatest attendance in its history, for through this offer the delegates are confronted in the matter of expense, only by their railroad fare. The beautiful buildings and surroundings and the facilities of this great Oklahoma institution are to be placed at the disposal of the delegates, and amid such an environment there is every reason to believe that the deliberations of this body will be greatly facilitated. President Marquess is making every effort to provide for the entertainment of the members of the Federation and it is his hope that all the Women's Clubs in the State will send representatives to the meeting, thus showing appreciation of his gererous hospitality.

TO THE NEGRO PHYSICIANS OF THE SEVERAL STATES:

The Hospital and Health Board of Kansas City has granted privilege to the Colored Division of the General Hospital, to establish, free of charge, an Intensive Training School in Pathology and Bacteriology to all Negro Physicians in the country for one month beginning September 1, 1920.

This is the first time such an offer has been made by any institution in this country. The Board has spent several thousand dollars in equipping the laboratory to make this work the most beneficial to the physicians from a practical stand point. Several hours during the day will be devoted to the work; besides clinics, covering the entire line of disease dealt with in the laboratory, dealing with all phases of blood chemisiry; preparation and administering of vaccines and Auto-thereapy. Specialists from different portions of the country will appear before the clinic and in addition to this treatment will be given a special course in Municipal Hygiene, including the collection and care of the milk supply; the water supply and the handling of the garbage systems and the control of quarantines of all descriptions of municipality.

A colerie of assistants and specialists under the supervision of Dr. Wm. J. Thompkins, who is Superintendent of the Hospital will aid in making this course what the physicians in this country most need. It is the purpose of this institution to help those men of the profession who desire additional scientific and technical knowledge so essential to deriving at a positive diagnosis in the handling of their case, thereby rendering high efficiency in their work with a high standing of the profession generally.

This in brief has become the measure of the Colored division of the General Hospital of Kansas City.

For the past week, the editor and proprietor of The Tulsa Star, has been at the Park Sanitarium, Guthrie, Okla., under the experienced and expert care of the widely known physician, H. W. Conrad, M. D. The latest word from Dr. Conrad indicates that Mr. Smitherman is improving and that after several weeks complete rest from his untiring and constant labors in the Star print shop during the past several months, he will be able to return and replace his "guiding hand at the helm of the greatest paper in the Southwest." The editor is a sufferer from extreme nervous exhaustion, and his many friends will be glad to welcome him back to the Star helm.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE CONVENES AT BOLEY

Many Noted Oklahomans Attended Annual Session.

BOLEY, Okla., Aug 10.—The St. John Grand Lodge of F. A. and A. M. met in this city at 10 o'clock a. m. in its 29th Annual Grand Session in the Masonic Temple. More than 300 delegates and representatives from sister states are in attendance.

Most Worshipful Grand Master Hon. R. Emmett Stewart announced that the delegates would assemble in convention for praise services to be conducted by Grand Chaplin G. A. Patrick, and to be presided over by Past master H. Butler of Eureka Lodge, No. 14 of Guthrie, Okla. The Grand Lodge was opened in due form.

The Lodges sang:

"Let not the tie that binds, etc."

And the acting Deputy appointed an appropriate number of he brothers to escort the Grand Master to the Grand East. After a few well timed remarks the Grand Master selected A. D. Johnson of Vinita, S. I. Avery, Haskell and J. L. Dixon, of Checota as a Committee on Credentials.

D. W. Lewis og Kingfisher was made reporter.

Dixie Cashier On Vacation.

Miss Marie Brown, the handsome and efficient cashier of the popular Dixie Theatre, is planning to leave for an extended vacation which she will spend in Missouri among relatives and friends. Her tour includes Springfield, St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph, where she will spend a few days with father, brother, niece and cousin respectively. Miss Brown will be greatly missed from her accustomed station by her numerous admirers and friends who join in wishing her a pleasant trip and a safe return to Tulsa.

G. O. P. LEADERS SPLIT OVER JOBS

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11.—There is such a thing as a fellow letting himself lose seriously when a chap starts and then straight way swallows the "movement" and calmly announces, "And now I will lead the way out of the wilderness." It just now happens that the politician is in the saddle. It has been his habit not only to take himself seriously but also to take everything else he could get his rapacious hands on. He is going true to form. But there is just this one ray of hope flashing cataclysmically athwart the political sides of the moment. Mr. Politician is beginning to call himself names. It would appear that there are two breeds of the species, the genus Northerinus and the genus Southerinus. By some terrifically unsavory means the genus Southerinus has "bolt" the genus Northerinus to the first serving of the political pie. The very devil is to play, as a consequence. With characteristic perspicacity of perception, Col. Perry Howard of Mississippi who, by the way, happens to be sitting at the first table, rushes to the defense of the brethren and heatedly announces that "What the race needs is worth and efficiency, courage and tact, and not leather-lunged geographical location." This is alliteratively crushing. But it is sufficiently sensible to serve the purpose we all have in hand to achieve. The election of Harding or Cox is the main question at issue. To be squabbling about jobs at the several headquarters is "small town" stuff and is, fundamentally, unseemly and at variance with the operation of common sense at this time. It is economic and political stability which is the crying need of the hour. Bread crumbs for the few may mean starvation for the many. No North, no South, but a united Race held together in the pursuit of a clear interpretation of the Constitution and a sound furtherance of the finer and fuller spirit of American life, constitute our aims, and, by the Heavens, we propose to have all of this and more. To hell with the jobs, we want freedom.

"More War," is in the air. Should it come to us I feel certain that the "Colored man and brother" will respond to the call to arms with an unanimity of spirit which will sound the death knell to the further maintenance of the lynching disposition by a large and influential element of the American people. More peace to the ashes of lynching.

Save your money. Only the other day the Pennsylvania Railroad discharged twelve thousand men from one of its main divisions and the rumor is that more are in line for discharge before the winter sets in. It is also announced that several of the big corporations in the West will discharge large numbers of men in the near future. Save your money. Coal and food next winter will go farther than automobile rides this summer.

But then the Lord is our Shepherd, we should worry.—(W. H. A. Moore)

VICTORY CELEBRATION PLANNED AT COLUMBUS

(Reciprocal News Service).

COLUMBUS, Ohio., Aug., 9.—As soon as the adoption of the National Baptist Convention Program that was prepared by the executive committee in its Springfield, Ohio, session by the local people in the big victory celebration spoken of in the program to be held at the fair grounds in this city Friday, Sept., 10th. It has been learned through Dr. E. P. Jones, the President of the convention who resides in Evanston, Ill., that this will be one of the most important days of the session, and that the prominent men from all sections of the United States, who have worked with the Convention for more than a quarter of a century will be among the speakers on the program. That Dr. L. L. Campbell of Austin, Tex., the head of the Baptist all over the state who has just reported that their five million dollar campaign had proven a succes would be the principal speaker. In this victory celebration Rev. Dr. Hughes, who heads the local committee here said last week, that Columbus alone would donate five thousand dollars during the day. Ceremonies will take place in the fair grounds where the state fairs are held annually and a number of brass bands from various cities in Ohio will be brought from all over the state.

Riot Reports Unfounded.

(A. N. P. Service)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug., 11.—The riot reported by the daily newspapers between Colored men and Italians at Chicago Heights is without foundation. There was a fight between a Colored family and a few Italians when the latter went to the house of the Colored people looking for a Hungarian who was accused of having killed an Italian last week. The Hungarian had moved and rented to the Colored family.

There are about three thousand Colored men employed in the steel mills in Chicago Heights where a strike has been in progress among the Italians and this has led to some train and feeling which the news articles have magnified. Deputy Sheriff Sultan said there had been no clash.

The ugly riots reported at West Frankfort, Ill., and Denver, Colo., in whiech mobs are reported to have killed a number of people and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property show the unceasing tendency of the American public toward mob violence and lynch-law, said a prominent Colored official today. The Government has set suplinely by while mobs have lynched Negroes and committed other atrocities upon us and may expect to reap a whirlwind from the seeds of discontent which its indifferent attitude has permitted to spring up.

WILL THE DEAD LIVE AGAIN?

'ISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from theid pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own privatte pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while on this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expenses anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them. Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, August 15, will be entitled "THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

At the time of Jesus' death, man had been going into the grave covering a period of four thousand years, and two thousand years since his crucifixion have they continued to die and practically all of them without any knowledge of God's provision through Christ for their salvation. It would be impossible, therefore, for them to have a knowledge of the truth without first being awakened out of death. Therefore Jesus said: "All that are in the graves shall come forth. The good unto a resurrection of life, and they that have done evil (who are all except the true followers of Christ) unto a resurrection by judgments." John 5: 28-29 R. V.). The judgment here implies a trial, because there can be no judgment without a trial. There can be no trial first without knowledge, for the reason that even the laws of the land do not permit a man to be tried without his knowledge. Consequently, first will be the awakening of the dead. Second, they are brought to a knowledge of the truth. And third, they are put on trial for life.

The Apostle then makes clear what shall follow, and saying: "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. And he shall send Jesus Christ, who before was preached unto you, whom the Heavens must receive until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his Holy Prophets since the world began. For Moses truly said unto the Fathers, "A Prophet (meaning Christ, of which Moses was a type) shall your God raise unto you of his brethren like unto me. (The antitype of Moses) him shall ye hear (Obey) in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you." (Acts 3: 19-24). Restitution means to restore that which was lost. Father Adam lost all through his disobedience. What did he have to loose? We answer, he had the right to life everlasting, the right to full liberty of the earth and happiness complete. Man has ever been seeking these things yet unable to acquire them. Jesus, by his death and resurrection bought them all for mankind. When he sets up his kingdom he will have at his disposal to give to the obedient ones these very things: viz., Life, Liberty and Happiness.

Satan, the Arch enemy of the human race has ever desired to turn the people away from Jehovah and his plan. Jehovah has permitted, or rather restrained him—to go his full limit and in due time Jehovah will make the wrath of the Adversary redound to his praise. Satan and the Demons will know that the world is now in a time of great trouble that millions of broken hearts are in the land, millions of widows and orphans weeping and bemoaning the loss of their loved ones, because of the devastation of the great war, the pestilence that has swept the earth for the past few years. Taking advantage of this condition of sorrow, Satan, is putting forth his doctrine, as an Angel of Light attempting to comfort the sad hearts by telling them again that their loved ones are not dead but are alive and progressing along the way to greater happiness. If he succeeds in doing this what has he done? He has turned away the minds of the people from the great word of truth, the redemptive plan of salvation, and thus seemingly accomplish his purpose of turning them away from God. This is the reason why Spiritualism is so prevalent in the land today. But, we thank God this condition will not long prevail. It is with joy that we can state confidently that within a few more years the dark veil of ignorance that overhangs the earth shall be lifted and the blindness that now afflicts the people will be turned away and they shall learn that Jehovah is the Great God of Love, that Jesus is the Great Redeemer and through his kingdom they can obtain the blessings of Resurrection and Restitution. In the course of these articles we confidentially expect to show to the reasonable mind that the time for the overthrow of Satan's Empire is at hand, that the time for the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom is at the door, and in consequence thereof the great tide of sorrow, sickness and death shall be turned back and that millions of people now living on earth and coming to a knowledge of the truth and accepting it, and rendering themselves in obedience to the Lord's law, shall live and not die. Then we can confidentially say that at this very time there are millions on earth who will never die, not because they are immortal, but because the time draws near for the beginning of Restitution blessings and we have confidence that when the people come to a knowledge of the truth that they will joyfully embrace these blessings and come readily up over the highways of Holiness, back to life, Strength, Health and Blessings.

Restitution will mean the bringing back of the human race to a state of perfection, that is to say, all those who are obedient under Christ's reign, and during that time the earth itself will be restored to a condition, beautiful and grand like unto the Garden of Eden, being made a fit habitation for man.

We have come to the point where all thoughtful persons would desire to know why do the majority of the preachers teach error? The proper answer to this question in a short way is found in the fifty-sixth chapter of Isiah 10-11 verses, be sure and read it. Ecclesisasticism or the Great Church System of the world, is made up of Diverse and numerous Sect, and each one of these Sect has its own Clergymen who teach Diverse and numerous theories, inconsistent with themselves and each other. One class of preachers (Priests) have long taught and do yet teach that at death a certain class of men go to Purgatory, there to remain for an indefinite season, and that the Clergymen have power to say prayers and Masses to relieve them from their Purgatory suffering. This has proven to be a fruitful source of money making. This class of preachers have always had their members to understand that no one is ever relieved from Purgatory under a thousand years, and thus the Clergymen set a date so far ahead that no living person could ever pay the bill and therefore the obligation would descend from one generation to another. Still another class of preachers teach that God long ago fore-ordained and predestined that a few persons would be saved in a Heaven of eternal bliss while the great mass of mankind, without reference to anything that they have ever done or ever will do, must spend their eternity in endless torment. In another way of putting it, they claim that the destiny of each individual is fixed without the individual's knowledge or consent. Another class of preachers hold and teach that God offers freely to every man the opportunity for salvation in Heaven, and that any one who misses that home of endless bliss does so by his own fault. Another and more modern school of Clergymen, teach that man is a creature of evolution, springing from protoplasm and developing stage by stage from baboon to monkey and monkey to man, and continuing to progress until sometime in the endless ages to come he will reach a stage of perfection.

There was a time when most of the Sects claimed to believe in and teach the Bible as God's word of truth, but the more modern schools style themselves, (Higher Critics), "Savants." They deny the inspiration of the Scriptures, and hold that they are wiser than the men of old who wrote the Bible.

The time was when these various schools of Theology were at war with each other, some going to the extreme of burning each other at the stake because of different views. In modern times however, they observing that their inconsistencies were so glaring, have sought a common union basis, each being willing to give up his pet theory and subscribe to no doctrine at all except an agreement to work together in the formation and maintainance of an Ecclesiastical Trust. To accomplish their purpose they have united with the financial and political powers of the world. Many thinking people have long been observing the inconsistencies of the theories advanced by the majority of preachers, and necessarily have come to the conclusion that some of them if not all of them are teaching error. The result has been that many honest minded persons have been driven away from the churches, from the study of the Bible and from the Lord. The preachers realizing this fact have endeavored and are endeavoring to rally their forces and organize a general system whereby they can all stand together. Mr. William T. Ellis, writer of "The Religeous Rambler," one of America's most reliable authorities upon current religeous events, referring to the present condition of Ecclesiasticism says: "I find all men profoundly concerned over present conditions. Nothing is too venerable or sacred to escape the challenge of the war. The very existence of God has been called into question. The Christian Church is at her crisis. It is frankly admitted that sectarinism must go into the war scrap-heap." Here is a statement that after many centuries churchanity stands admittedly before the world a complete failure. The people of the world know that the preachers are teaching errors and naturally they ask the question, "Why do they do it?"

The present condition of things, fore-told, by the Lord's servants, Holy men of Old as they were moved upon by the Holy Spirit or invisible power of Jehovah. (2nd Peter 1: 21). The Divine mind foreknew all things that would transpire and caused a record of certain prominent events to be made in advance. Prophecy, is therefore history written in advance of the happening of events. Only the Divine mind could have fore-known and fore-told such events. In this day and time it is not at all uncommon for preachers to be asked by some of their lay-members and explanation of some phases of the Scripture. A preacher always assumes to be a learned man and invariably he will answer his interrogator that the Bible cannot be understood by the laymen even though it was explained to him. In fact we hear very little explanation of the Bible any more. The most of the preachers have become indifferent to the teachings of the Lord, and are asleep as to the importance of events now transpiring. Through the prophets the Lord fore-told this condition saying: "For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep and hath closed your eyes; the preachers, rulers, the seers hath he covered. And a vision (Understanding of his plan) of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, read (explain) this, I pray thee; and he sayth, I cannot for it is sealed." (Isa. 29: 10-11). The Apostles of Old speak of themselves as servants of God. The modern Clergymen take the name of "D. D," and call themselves the watchmen of their respective flocks, claiming to be God's watchmen. Of this class the Prophet of the Lord wrote: "His watchmen are blind. They are all dum dogs (D. D.s). They cannot bark, sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber, (loving ease and comfort). Yea they are greedy Dogs which can never have enough and they are Shepherds that cannot understand (Nor teach the truth). They all look to their own way, every one for his gain (Collection and honors) from his quarter (Sect or system)." Ish. 56: 10 11.

Before an architect attempts to construct a building he first provides himself with a well defined plan and he works accordingly. The builder could not properly construct it without such a plan. It is most reasonable to conclude that the Great Jehovah God had a well defined plan before he began to deal with the human race. The scripture proves that he did have such a plan. "Known unto God were all his works from the beginning of the world." (Act. 15: 19). This plan, of course, has been kept secret from both men and Angels, and has been unfolded gradually and in Jehovah's due time. The mere fact that he has a time and that he does unfold it in a timely and orderly way leads to the inevitable conclusion that it is his purpose to permit those to understand it who diligently seek to understand it. He did not promise to reveal this unto the heady nor to those who are wise in their own wisdom. On the contrary, we read: "The meek will he guide in Judgment; The meek will he teach his ways." God resisteth the proud and showeth his favor to the humble minded." (1st Peter 5: 6). It would not be expected, therefore, that Jehovah would reveal his plans unto those who are wise in their own conceit. On the contrary, his prophets wrote: "The secrets of the Lord is with them that reverence him." (Psalms 25: 14). To reverence God means to recognize that he is the Great First ecause, without beginning, without end, whose wisdom is without limitation, whose power is infinite, whose justice is eternal and whose love is boundless. The man who attempts to please any earthly thing above his obligation to Jehovah cannot be said to reverence God within the meaning of the Scriptures. The preacher that places his system above the loyal and faithful service of God cannot be said to reverence Jehovah. The Clergyman or any one else who would attempt to please man or to place his country or nation above, and as of greater importance than the faithful service of Jehovah cannot be said to reverence God. The one who reverences Jehovah recognizes that the world and the fullness thereof as nothing in his site. The Prophet has expressed the thought of such a one thus: "Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hands, and meted out Heaven with the span and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hill in a balance? Who hath directed the spirit of the Lord, or being his counselor hath taught him? With whom took he council? And who instructed him and taught him the path of Judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Behold the nations are as a drop of water in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance. Behold he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to be burned, nor the beast thereof sufficient for a burnt offering. All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, vanity. To whom then will ye liken God? Or what likness will ye compare unto him?" (Isiah. 40: 12-18). The first thing essential to the understanding of Jehovah's plan is a full and unreserved consecration to do God's will. This means that such a one will never seek to please himself, man made organizations or systems, when to do so would run counter to the will of God. To ascertain God's will he must study, his word, namely, the Bible, and once ascertaining it, do his will without fear of man or hope of promised earthly reward.

God promised that in due time his plan would be unfolded to man. His due time to unfold it to the true Christians preceeds the time for its unfolding to the world in general. Jehovah showed the Prophet Daniel a vision of events to transpire covering a long period of time and ending in a time immediately proceeding the full establishment of Messiah's Kingdom on the earth. Daniel did not understand the meaning of vision, because it was not intended to be understood in his time. Daniel said: "I heard but I understood not." In other words of explaination and yet did not comprehend their meaning. Then he said, "Oh my Lord what shall be the end of these things?" And he (Jehovah) said: "Go thy way, Daniel for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall be purified and made white and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly and none of the wicked shall understand but the wise shall understand." (Daniel 12: 8-19). Bible Chronology shows that "The time of the end," is a period of years during which period those who reverence Jehovah will be permitted to understand his secrets or plan and that these are they who are termed "wise," not according to earthly wisdom, but wise according to God's manner. The modern Clergyman do not pretend to study and teach the Bible, but they study theology—man-made theories. They call in question the very authenticity of the Holy Scriptures and depend upon the wisdom of the world. Concerning such class it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?" 1st Cor. 1: 19-20). Jehovah revealed to Daniel and caused him to record certain things as a key-note in order that the Godly wise might understand, saying: "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

During the past half century wonderful methods of transportation have come into existence. The railways gird the earth. The great steam ships plow with rapidity the mighty seas. The air-ships fly a birds from place to place, and thus the powers of electricity, steam and gas have brought the people in close contact with each other to witness a great running to and fro such as the world before has never known. At the same time there has come a marvelous increase of knowledge along every line. The modern preachers look wise and say: "Behold what man has accomplished!" The Reverential student of God's word points to Daniel's propheey and says: "Behold Divine testimony enabling us to determine where we are on the stream of time!" Most of the preachers are wise in their own wisdom and understand not. The meek persons who reverence God, are wise according to the Divine order and they rejoice in the unfolding of Jehovah's plan. The reverent student of God's word learns that Jehovah, through his Prophets long ago described in detail the railway train speeding thru the land and the conductor gathering up the tickets of his passengers and the train unloading its burdens at the station (Nahum 2: 2-6) and they also recognized this as another evidence that we are in the time of the preparation of the setting up of Messiah's Kingdom. The same student finds that the modern airship which has astounded the world and for which the wise of the world have applauded man, was foretold centuries ago by the prophets of the Lord. (Isah. 60: 8). The wise student is again reminded that wireless telegraphy, which has revolutionized communication among nations in modern times, was centuries before-told by Divine wisdom in his Holy Word. And he begins to realize that God has a great plan and that the time is due for the meek and teachable to understand it. The Clergy as a rule ignore the Divine word, and relies upon man-made wisdom and therefore they are in the dark and do not understand the great plan of Salvation.

I beg to warn the preachers that the time has come when the world is demanding the whole truth on all subjects, and those who claim to be the representatives of God will have to come clean and true on this Bible question or get out of the way. Friends, you may be surprised when I make the following charges against the majority of preachers. They stand guilty before God in that they have misrepresented his Great Plan of Salvation. They are guilty before the laws of the land in that they have been receiving money, honors and things of value under false pretense. They have busied themselves making the people believe that if they (The People) would pay them (The Preachers) good, fat salleries, build fine church houses, keep up church dues, etc., a Heaven of eternal bliss would be their portion at death but if they did otherwise a life of eternal misery in fire and brimstone would be their lot. As a matter of fact, there is not one word in the Bible supporting such doctrine and no preacher worthy of the name will attempt to prove such blasphemous doctrine by the Bible. And yet with a full knowledge of the falsity of their claim, they have collected millions in money and lived a life of ease and slumber. They are plainly guilty under the laws of the United States for receiving money under false pretense.

Now I am fully aware that the charges I am making against the majority of the preachers of the world is not calculated to make me friends except among those whose hearts are right and who desire to please the Lord at any cost. But just here I wish to say that I am the friend of both my friends and foes and my whole life is consecrated to the Lord to do his will at any cost and therefore it matters not what the results of my telling the truth may be. I do this in the sense of a broad-minded friend giving warning to those who will be warned and enlightening those who are teachable; therefore I shall not stop until the strong-holds of error are completely demolished and the world be enlightened to the fact that the hope for humanity is restitution through the resurrection of the dead.

LYNCHING—THE NATION'S PET CRIME

(A. N. P. Service)

The pet crime of the nation—Lynching—has reached it's zenith. More than twenty years of continual protest on the part of the American Negroes, through leaders, organizations and newspapers of the group, has at last found apostleship within the circles of power.

Lynching was born nourished and cherished in the South. The hellish power of its virule germs has been carried "with malice aforethought" into the remotest corners of the nation by the carefully "discriminating" news wires of the Associated Press and the painstaking propoganda of its writers. The baneful disease has demonstrated, beyond contradition, its ability to thrive and flourish everywhere—yes, everywhere.

It has blazed its way with sinister and jocular indifference thru the "color line," through youth and age, through men and women of honor and innocence, through the sacred tissues of expectant mothers, and through the peaceful quiet of the country side, as well as the busy, bustling centers of the great city.

To the low moan of the praying Negroes, their outstretched hands of righteousness appeal, the soft but steady and mighty tread of the migrating tens of thousands to climes of protection and safety, have recently been added the roaring voice of the daily newspapers, North, South, East and West; the wails of anxiety of the white clergy and political leaders, and the unyielding bullets of equal and exact justice, under the general direction of the great commonwealth of North Carolina, and its fearless Governor T. W. Bickett. With such a combination of effort, Lynch Law has reached its crest. It must go!

The most powerful instrumentality in the world is public sentiment. In the face of it, empires and kingdoms have crumbled to earth; human slavery has been abolished; bolshevism has marched westward with terrible potentialities, and with it, lynching must go.

Without public sentiment definitely crystalized against lynching, there has been but meager possibility of success in throttling the onrush of these barbaric performances. Now that recent events have sickened the most pessimistic, the hour for action has come, and with unflinching unity of purpose, something worth while will happen for all time to come.

It is very plain that our power in the premises, is unlimited. We now, today, must use every ounce of our ability and strength to back up the forces now in action. We must rise to the opportunity, and let there be nothing regarded as more important at this hour than settling this damnable business forever. There must be no flinching—and there will not—and there must be no equivocation. The blood of the innocent dead cries out for action; and unborn generations hold us to account.

Certain proposals are made. They all look forward to a final settlement of the terrible evil. Some say let the state be supreme, others say let the nation. We say: "Lynching Must Be Stopped Now. The Respect For Law Must Be Supreme. If The State Is Not Equal To The Occasion, The Nation Must Be. Lynching—The Nation's Pet Crime—Must Be Wiped From The Face Of The Earth. It Has Cut The Heart Strings Of Humanity And Startlingly Rocked The Foundation Of American Civilization."

Returns After Pleasant Vacation.

Mrs. Julia A. Jackson, who spent the summer in Colorado Springs and Denver visiting several places of note, among them, the Yellowstone National Park, met her sister, Mrs. L. R. Burns in Livingston, Montana, from which place she and Mrs. Burns went to Minneapolis, Minn. Here they spent a few days afterwards going to Chicago. After a few days stay in Chicago, Mrs. Jackson returned to us accompanied by Mrs. Burns, who after a short stay went to McAlester to visit her mother. Mrs. Jackson's trip evidently did her much good as she is much improved in looks.

Distinguished Mosiac In Town.

The Hon. W. M. Ezell, S. Grand Master of the Oklahoma Grand Lodge of Mosiac Templars of America, was a distinguished arrival in Tulsa early in the past week. S. G. M. Ezell is one of the leading citizens of Haskell and has for years been identified with the commercial and financial interests of his home town. He has been prominently connected with the establishment and growth of the order of Mosiac Templars in the State of Oklahoma, and very much of its present creditable showing both as to membership and financial standing is due to his persistent efforts. He is in the city to complete final arrangements for the holding of the Eighth Annual Grand Session of the State Grand Lodge of Mosiac Templars of America, Oklahoma Jurisdiction, which is to convene here on August 16, 17 and 18, at Myer's Hall on East Archer. It is expected that this meeting will attract fully as large delegations from Oklahoma cities as did the other two fraternal order which met in Tulsa during July. S. G. M. Ezell is a gentleman of most pleasing manners, and possessed of high degree of talent and culture.

Good-Bye Hot Combs!

There is one sure way that has never failedl to make Knotty, Kinky hair straight without the use of hot combs.

KAP-O-LINE—isn't one of those fake hair treatment offers you have seen so many times. KAP-O-LINE has the endorsement of every reputable doctor, and guaranteed by the manufacturer. This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon. KAP-O-LINE has been sold under absolute money-back guarantee for more than fifteen years. It is especially compounded by trained chemists in the largest manufacturing laboratories of toilets in the Southwest. As a treatment for falling hair, dandruff and all scalp diseases, making the hair soft, fluffy and lustrous, is not greasy nor gummy.

The Kap O-Line Way To Make Knotty, Kinky Hair Straight

The hair must be thoroughly washed. We recommend KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, as it puts the hair and scalp in a clean, antiseptic condition. Then apply thoroughly KAP-O-LINE every night for six nights, burshing and combing the hair thoroughly night and morning. After six days' treatment you will have a gift of beautiful straight hair, full of life and vigor. Just such hair you are promised once you start the use of KAP-O-LINE.

Price of KAP-O-LINE, 35 cents; KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, 50 cts.

Sold by most druggists, or mailed upon receipt of price and your druggist's name. Manufactured by STONE & CO., Perfumers, Dallas, Texas.

IS PASTOR RUSSELL'S EXPLAINATION OF THE BIBLE THE TRUE GOSPEL?

LISTEN! LISTEN! LISTEN!

Listen, Dear People of the public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from theid pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? And again, why do they not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the Scriptures? Their attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own privatte pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while on this side of the vale, I will pay all necessary expences anywhere in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason they will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer, fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, September 5, will be entitled "THE EARTH ABIDETH FOREVER."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

RICHARD J. HILL.

Dear People:

I am going to ask you to be honest with yourselves and decide the question as to which of the denominations of the world presenting the truth to the people concerning God's Plan of Salvation. I want you to decide from the unimpeachable evidence which I shall produce as to whose teachings more correctly represent the true character of Jehovah God.

Jehovah has always used human agents to communicate to humanity his plans and purposes for them. At different times God has intimated to man his plans and purposes by positive statements, in the Bible, symbols, types and shadows; and all down the ages there have been a few persons who loved God and desired to live in harmony with him and therefore such ones have gladly received any message sent to them concerning God's Plan. But the great masses of mankind have always been seilishly bent and in opposition to God's purposes.

The crowning point of the Plans of Jehovah is a CLEAN UNIVERSE WITHOUT SIN AND LIFE EVERLASTING TO ALL THE WILLING AND OBEDIENT OF HIS CREATURES.

From creation down to the present time God has used thirty-one principal messengers to communicate to the world the various steps and progresses of his Plan. The periods in which God has shown most of his plans and purposes to man are the Patriarchal Age. (From the flood to the death of Jacob), the Jewish Age (From the death of Jacob to the baptism of Christ), the Gospel Age (From the Baptism of Christ to his second coming). The Principal messengers to man during the Patriarchal Age were Enoch and Jacob. The ones to the Jewish Age were Moses, Samuel, Job, David Solomon, Isiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, John, Micah, Mahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malkiah and John The Baptist. The messengers to the Gospel Age were (As shown in Rev. 1: 11, that the True Church would be developed through seven stages of experience—the meaning of the different names of the churches to which John wrote were significent of the character of each experience). Paul to Ephesus, John to Smyrna, Arius to Pergames, Peter Waldo to Thaystira Wycliffe to Sardis, Martin Luther to Philadelphia and Charles T. Russell to Leo Dicea.

Space will not permit comment upon the life and character of each of the above named messengers of God but their whole life is spread upon the records of both sacred and profame history, so that any one who desire may see for himself.

It is a fact note worthy that all the true prophets are messengers or preachers of God have identified themselves as true messengers of God by the fact that their messages have always been in the nature of warning the people to reform and their messages have always been directed against a ruling dignity having a false form of godliness, they have always been out to the world the crowning point of God's Great Plan of Salvation—the hope of restitution through the resurrection of the dead. The Scriptures plainly show to all who would see, that any one who does not head out to the world of mankind hope of everlasting life thru the resurrection of the dead is not a true and holy Prophet. Acts of 24-24.

God loves the world; so much so that he gave his only son to the that all may have life-everlasting, in his due time upon the sole condition that they be willing and obedient to his Righteous Law. (John 3: 16).

In these times of confused doctrines, how shall we know the true message from the false one? The Lord places the responsibility upon us to study his word and learn of his character and plan. He desires us to look to him as an example of the very highest type of justice, power, love and wisdom; and all teachings or interpretations of Scriptures which do not hold out to the world the hope of life everlasting through the resurrection of the dead; and all teachings or interpretations of the Scripture which do not show or represent Jehovah as having more justice, more power, more love, and more wisdom than the very best of humanity is spurious and false doctrine.

In order to properly decide who is presenting the truth concerning God's character and plan, let us, Dear ones, sit as a juror and hear the evidence from the three greatest witnesses of modern times on this subject "The True Gospel." The witnesses we shall present are first, the Catholics, The Protestants—meaning the majority of denominations of the world not including the Catholics, the Heathen religion, but not Russellism. Let us hear from these witnesses in the order named. First "Mr. Catholic," take the stand. We hear the Catholic testify as follows, (1) That the Priest has the power to create Christ out of bread and wine and sacrifice him for sinners, (2) that the human soul is immortal and can never die (3), that very few Saintly persons go to Heaven at death; (4) that all who have willfully opposed the Catholic faith and died are now enduring a Hell of Torture which will never end; (5) That the great mass of humanity including the most of their own members and the Heathen go to Purgatory to spend centuries or decades of suffering before deliverance to Heaven (6) that those who have it should give liberally to the Priest in order that their own and their friends days in Purgatory may be shortened; (7) that on a Papal Jubilee the Pope exercises a power which he has to set free from Purgatory certain thousands of its inmates; (8) that soon the whole world will be under the control of the Pope as God's representative. We have heard the principal evidence of "Mr. Catholic." Now let us hear what the Protestants have to say concerning the plans of salvation. We hear the Protestants testify as follows, (1) that the soul is immortal—can never die, (2) that there are but two places, Heaven and Hell and that the few saints ones go straight to Heaven at death and that all the wicked go to a Hell of Fire and brimstone to burn forever, (3) that the resurrection of the dead is only for the purpose of heaping further damnation upon the condemned, (4) that all who desire to be saved must join the church during this Gospel Age and be faithful to its rules or do otherwise and go to Hell to burn forever, (5) that the keeping up of church dues, the payment of fat salaries to the preachers and the building of fine church houses are very important parts of God's plan. So much so, that any failure, by the people to keep the dimes and dollars rolling into the church is a signal to the preachers to stop preaching. Now the above evidence as given by the Catholics and Protestants have no Scriptural foundation. Not one passage of scripture from Gen. to Rev. supports the presentations of the Catholics and Protestants and there is not one of them who have the courage to face the intelligent public before an humble Bible Student and prove by the Scriptures their false claims.

We will now listen to the last witness, Russellism, through Pastor Russel. (1) He teaches that there is a Supreme Intelligent Creator of all things and that man was created perfect in the image of God, (Gen. 1: 26, 27). (2) that man willfully and intelligently disobeyed God thereby forefeiting his right to Life Everlasting, (1st Tim. 2: 14; Gen. 2: 16, 17). (3) that God so loved the world that he gave his only son that whosoever would repent and believe on him would be awarded Life everlasting. (John 3: 16) and that Christ gave himself a ransom, a corresponding price for all, (1st Tim. 2: 5, 6), and by his death a new trial for life was gained for Adam and his race. (1st Cor. 15: 22), (4) That the Hebrew words Sheol and the Greek word Hades and the English word Hell mean one and the same thing—The grave, oblivion, a state or condition of non existence and does not mean a place burning with fire and brimstone, (5) that both good and bad go to Hell—the Grave, at death and that all the prophets and even Christ went to Hell—the Grave, (Act 2: 27; Psalm 16: 10). (6) that Christ holds the keys to Hell and the Grave, (Rev. 1: 18) and that the time is coming when all that are in their graves shall hear his voice and come forth. (Jno. 5: 28, 28). (7) That during the Gospel Age God has only been dealing with the church, the little flock, the Elects, the ones to be Priests and Kings during the Millenium—The Judgment Day. (1st Peter 1: 2; Roman 8: 28-30); and that God has appointed a day in which to Judge the world in Righteousness and that the Judges will be a Christ and his elects, the Saints. (Acts 17: 31; John 5: 22; 1st Cor. 6: 2); that the Judgment day will be a thousand years long. (2nd Peter 3: 7, 8). (8) that during the Millenium or Judgment Day the whole world shall become as the garden of Eden filled with healthy and happy people, (Isa. 35: 1-16; 33: 6; 65: 21-24). (9) that all the willfully disobedient will be destroyed in that day, in the second death—a death from which there will be no resurrection. (Rev. 21: 8). (10) That the greatest penalty God has prescribed for wilful sin is death everlating and that the dead knows nothing. (Rom. 6: 23; Ezekiel 18: 4; Eccl. 9: 5-10), in addition to the few facts above mentioned Pastor Russell announced to the world more than forty years ago that the Gentile had a lease of power on the world for 2,520 years, beginning 606 B. C. and ending in the year 1914 A. D. at which time, according to prophecy, there would begin a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation. Now I leave it to the world to answer and say whether or not a time of trouble broke loose upon the world in 1914. Pastor Russell has further stated full's how this trouble will end and what the condition of the world will be at its close.

I beg to say dear friends if you desire to get a peep into what thy world's programme is from God's standpoint you do yourself the greatest injustice to fail to get and read the studies in the Scriptures edited by Pastor Russel. When you shall have read the books carefully along with your Bible, you will be fully convinced that the greater part of the world's trouble is yet to come.

At the beginning of his ministry, Pastor Russell gave his fortune of three hundred thousand dollars amounting to aid the humble hearted in seeing the truth and during the whole period of more than forty years in the service of God he never asked for, nor collected one penny from his congregation, neither would he approve of such doings by any associated with him in his work. He died in the service of the Lord a poor man. He passed to his reward Oct. 31, 1916. There is no paid ministry in Russellism. The one aim of Pastor Russell was to give the world the truth and lighten the hearts of all who hungered and thirst after righteousness.

In conclusion I wish to say to the people who think that you have before you the principal evidence from the three great witnesses of modern times concerning the plans of God. I now leave it with you to decide for yourself which of the three, The Catholics, The Protestants or Russellism, presents to the world the truth concerning Jehovah's character and plans for human salvation.

UNIVERSAL NEGRO IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Defending Prof. DuBois, Editor Villard Dissects Marcus Garvey's World Association.

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 18.—In current issue of The Nation, Editor Oswald Garrison Villard, in defending Prof. DuBois, editor of The Crisis from an attack of Marcus Garvey, the Conqueror of Africa, has the following to say:

"Marcus Garvey is a sort of Billy Sunday of the Negro Race. Within a year he has built up an organization of Negroes which claims a million members in the world and probably has half a million in the United States alone. His Universal Negro Improvement Association, which has jat held a "Convention of the Negro Race" in New York City and elected a "President of Africa," has branches throughout the West Indies, along the west coast of Africa, and in South America as well as North. It preaches a gospel of pride in the Negro race and its future, with a superb and ignorant fanaticism which has the Sunday movement as its only white parallel. Garvey's all-Negro Black Star steamship line bids fair to be as profitable a commercial venture as the Billy Sunday song-book and syndicated-sermon business. And the dream of a vast Negro republic in Africa may be at least as probable as some of Billy Sunday's prophecies. The parceling of Africa among the white powers is a matter of the last half century, and there is no reason to believe that so unnatural a condition will endure forever. If such preaching as Garvey's should lead to a bloody race revolt in Africa, we should have to blame the white race more than the Garveys. The best of Garvey's gospel, like the best of Billy Sunday's, is old stuff; but he gives it an emotional color and a stage setting of flags and costumes which appeals to Negroes untouched by more dignified and better balanced leaders. The worst of Garvey is sheer fanaticism and demagoguery. It is a pity that any one concerned for the freedom of black Africa and the future of the Negro race should go out of his way to attack so fine spirited an apostle of his race as Dr. DuBois.

Gov. Invokes Law Vs. Mobbists

Governor Robertson Writes to Star Editor

The Editor of the Star is in receipt of the following letter from Governor J. B. A. Robertson, the same being in response to a letter sent the Governor in which Mr. Smitherman expressedt his protest against the lynching of one Tom Owens, a young white man, and the sentiment "that there is no crime, however atrocious, that justifies mob violence." The letter follows:

State of Oklahoma, Executive Office, Oklahoma City.

Mr. A. J. Smitherman
Care of Tulsa Star
Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your valued favor of the 29th ult., concerning the recent lynching in Tulsa, and say that I appreciate your letter, and thank you for the interest manifested in the subject matter of the same.

The Attorney General is now in Tulsa, making an investigation, and you are required to furnishe him with all available information on the subject which you may possess, or or which you may know of. It is only in this way we can accomplish anything.

Respectfully,
J. B. A. Robertson, Gov.

MOBS LYNCH WHITE BOY AT TULSA AND A COLORED AT OKLAHOMA CITY

Governor Robertson Aroused, offers Reward for Arrests of Violators In Both Instances

Sad to relate, Oklahoma shook hands with the American lynching state of Georgia last Saturday night at Tulsa and Sunday night at Oklahoma City by lynching of a white boy and a colored boy by mob violence.

In the Tulsa instance, the hanging of Roy Belton, a white boy, was a sequel of a long series of "highjacking" in whirh many taxie drivers had been held up, mistreated and their car taken away from them. Roy had been arrested charged with being one of a party of four which had held up Homer Nidz, a taxicab driver, on the Sapulpa road, during which it is alleged that Belton struck Nida over the head with a revolver, and then shot him in the stomach, inflicting a wound from which he afterward died. Belton was held in the county jail on top floor of Court House, only accessible by an elevator, but owing to the Sheriff to take proper precautions his protection, the mob easily overpowered the Sheriff, siezed Belton and carried him to the scene of Nida's murder, and hanged him. It is said that thousands participated in this affair, amonf them being both women and children.

In the Oklahoma City case, it appears that Claude Chandler, a colored boy and son of an alleged moonshiner, was lynched largely because of his color and further because he was caught in the wrong place at the wrong time. His father's residence, located some distance from Oklahoma City, had been raided by revenue and county officers in search of a moonshine distillery. The boy's father was arrested and left in charge of two officers. Shoots were heard by an officer who had gone up stairs, and when he came down, the elder Chandler and tre two officers in charge of him were found upon the floor dead. The boy was siezed by another officer on the outside, as he was attempting to escape out of the doorway. As Tyler, deputy sheriff was up stairs, and the other officers on the outside there could be no living witness able to connect young Chandler with the killing of any one. He may have been merely trying to get out and away. He ws taken away from the county jail by two or three men, one of whom impersonating an anofficer with a prisoner, gained acces. Only a few men participated in the lynching.

Johnson's Back Is Up

JOHNSON TO BEARD GEORGIA LION IN HIS DEN

Threats of Georgia "Crackers" do not Feaze G. O. P. Leader A. N. P.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept 3—Ever since the expose of disfranchisement methods in the South, and particularly in Georgia, by Col. Henry Lincoln Johnson, before the Senate investigation committee, threats of many kinds, insinuations and inuendoes have been made against the well being and life of the Colonel. A representative of the Associated Negro Press took the matter up with him and sought to learn his feelings on the subject.

He said: "Do you wish a news story? Well you can tell the world that I am going to deliver an address on the Campus of Morris Brown College, Atlanta before the greatest throng of people ever assembled in Georgia. I am going to tell them the truth as I see it, and I will not be afraid. I am going to send aninvitation to every newspaper in Georgia, including the dailies, and I am going to invite the members of the Georgia Legislature, and all persons who have had anything to say about conditions in the South. I want them to be present and hear me."

The date of this event has not been announced. However, direct information from Atlanta, Col. Johnson's home is to the effect that the people of that city are all ready to honor their advocate andleader. They have raised a large fund for his proper entertainment, and when Col. Johnarrives from the North, his feet will not be permitted to touch the ground, but he will be curried to a waiting automobile on the shoulders of admirers. Excursions will be run to Atlanta from all over the state.

It is learned on very excellent authority that there are large numbers of right thinking white people who agree with Col. Johnson and agree that he is right, and that he should be backed up in his efforts to stop the crime of lynching and to open the door of the voting booth to the people of his race.

OUR WOMEN HIT NAIL ON THE HEAD

Oklahoma Women's Federation Endorse Enforcement of the Laws

(Special to Tulsa Star)

LANGSTON, Okla., Sept., 3—The Oklahoma Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, held its Tenth Annual session at Langston University August 25 ad 26. The Federation of Clubs was well represented by some of the most influential ladies of the State, having in attendance 90 delegates all of whom voted unanimously to continue to contribute to the two State schools from their budget, in order to raise their standard to higher efficiency, they also voted with no opposition to contribute to the N. A. A. C. P., $25.00 yearly for the enforcement of law and order to the descendants of the Hamitie division, of mankind. The delegates were also urged to work to their full capacity to do whatever good they can in the way of civic improvements and community work in their respective homes especially at a time when the chaotic state of affairs and efficiency so difficult to obtain. The Federation was indeed honored in being entertained by that great educator and fearless leader Pres. Marquess of Langston University and as a result of which the Federation was loud in their praises of his very generous hospitality. The meeting was supersaturated with harmony and mutual co-operation from beginning to end. The delegates seehed to have all been possessed of one mind which was to render service for the uplift and advancement of mankind.

NEITHER BOMBS NOR LYNCHING STOP US

Dynamite Meets Colored Family's Desire for Better Surroundings

KANSAS CITY, Aug., 30.—Police today were serching for the perpetrators of the second bomb outrage in three days by persons attempting to halt an invasion of white residential sections by colored people. A bomb set off in a house about to be occupied by a colored family, practically demolished the building early today and shattered windows over a radius of two blocks. A sign was found pasted on the front door later which read: "To colored people: Why try to come where you are not wanted.

ATTORNEY MONROE DEMANDS INVESTIGATION

Tulsa County's Talented Prosecutor Goes After the Law Violators

(Star News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 31.—T. I. Munroe, Tulsa County attorney, reported the Tulsa lynching to Governor Robertson today, and asked aid of the state in the matter.

Mr. Munroe said that sentiment was so strong in Tulsa, an investigation would be highly unpopular. He said he arrived the jail 10 min., after the mob had taken Roy Belton away, and failed to see any evidence of preparations to defend the jail by armed deputies.

"Although I asked Sheriff James Woolley for an explanation of his actions, I have not yet had a satisfactory answer," he said.

Race Man for Congress

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept., 3—The Republicans of the Seventeenth Ward elected Ernest Patillo, a Negro, ward committeeman last Saturday in the place of Frank M. Slater, a white man who had held the position for several years. It is rumored that the Farmer-Labor Party in the 12th District intend to nominate a Negro to oppose Congressman Dyer, the present member from the district.

U. N. I. A. WILL ELECT AFRICAN PRESIDENT

Garvey Imagines A Black Embassy Will be Recognized at National Capital.

NEW YORK.—The Universal Negro Improvement Association of New York, of which Marcus Garvey is the "God's chosen" leader, in its sessions now in progress, proposes to select a president for an African Republic, yet to be established, and also an embasy of eight American Negroes, which is to be located at embassies from foreign countries. Quite a number of leading and well known colored men are mentioned as connected with Garvey's chimerical dream, among them Dr. Bundy of Illinois, W. M. Trotter of Massachusetts and John E. Bruce of New York.

SHRINERS AND KNIGHTS TEMPLAR MEETING

National Masonic Organization Hold Remarkably Interesting Convention

(Star News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 4—Over 5,000 Shriners and Knights Templar attended the national Masonic Convention held here last week. The parade held last Tuesday is cosidered the greatest and most imposing in the history of the order. Competitive drills between Arab Patrols and a grand ball at Cincinnati's famous Music Hall were notable features. Bishop Sampson Brooks of Baltimore preached a most impressive sermon before the Mystic Nobles. A relief fund for the benefit of the Shriners was established. Caesar R. Blake of Charlotte, N. C., Imperial Potentate presided over the sessions.

Giants Are To Discuss

RUSSELLISM VERSUS CHRISTIANISM

Tulsa to Enjoy Another Spectacular Debate at Convention Hall

Dr. H. T. S. Johnson of the M. E. Church has Accepted Hon. R. J. Hill's Challenge

The Star takes pleasure in announcing that Dr. H. T S. Johnson, the well known and highly respected and beloved pastor of Wesley M. E. Chaple, has accepted the long standing challenge of the Hon. Richard J. Hill for debate, and it has been arranged to have such debate on topic: "Should theRussell Religion be substituted for the Christain Religion?" to take place at the Convention Hall on the night of September 28th, 1920. This debate owing to to the eminent qualifications of the disputants will be an event long to be remembered by those who attend.

Bishop Jones Discusses League

A. N. P.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept., 3—Bishop Robert E. Jones of New Orleans, in his final summing up of the work of the twenty-first annual meeting of the National Negro Business League, which was held in Philadelphia, from August 18 to August 21, said: "The twelve million Negroes of America no have a deeper appreciation than they have ever had before of their value to the economic and social life of the Nation. Indeed, have a deeper appreciation of the fine men and women that the race has produced. American Negroes have today, a firmer faith that right makes might. We shall all work, contend and pray until the unchristain barriers are broken down. This has been the best session of the National Negro Business League."

GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ADVERSITY

Thus Styles Himself, Ross D. Brown, Eloquent Advocate of Socialism

(Star News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 31—Morris D. Brown of Munice, Ind., who has been making a speaking tour of various cities in the state in behalf of the Socialists completed his work at Enid today and has gone to New York. This eloquent man owing to failure in proper arrangements for meetings did not succeed as fully as his own merits and that of his cause warranted. But nonetheless he had a number of successfulmeetngs which will bear fruit at least in awakening more liberal thought. Mr. Brown before leaving intimated that the Messrs. Owen and Garrison, editors of the two most fearlessly outspoken magazines in the country, the Messenger and the Liberator of New York City, are to come to Oklahoma tduring the present campaign in the interest of Socialism.

The Y. M. C. A. Lifts Mortgage

A. N. P.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept., 3—The colored men's branch of the Y. M. C. A., has finished the payments on a $6000 mortgage on a double lot in Cannon Street. The association has been six years lifting the mortgage. It is expected that a building will be erected on the property in the near future.

New York Negroes Organize ...

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept.,3—Colored Citizens of the Jamacia district have organized an association which they call the Frederick Douglass Civic and Political Club. C. E. Stovall is the president of the Club.

NO SUCH THING AS RACE SUPERIORITY

Dr. Moore, White, of Durham, N. C. Says Superiority Comes Only in Servine to Mankind

RALEIGH, N. C., Augh. 31—Because white America insists upon "damning everything black and elevating everything white," Dr. A. M. Moore of Durham told the State Board of Public Welfare recently that colored people are using every means to become white.

Men, he said, marry lighter women, bleach their skins, cross the color line and become amalagmated and lost in the white race.

There is no such thing as superiority of races, according to Dr. Moore, for superiority comes only thru service to mankind. Jim Crow cars were condemned as iniquitous and politicians scored for magnifying faults and minimizing virtues of colored people.

Captain of "Hell Fighters" Marries

NEW YORK.—Captain Charles Fillmore, formerly of Ohio, who attained distinction during the world war as captain of the 15th New Fighters,' on account of their valor, was married recently to Miss Jessie S. Lee, a prominent businesswoman of Springfield, Ohio. The Captain holds a position as auditor of the N. Y. Income Tax Bureau.

NEW YORK.—The colored longshoremen and white longshoremen engaged in a race riot last week, during which two colored men were injured so badly that they had to be removed to the hospital. The trouble arose over the white longshoremen striking and demanding the discharge of the colored laborers on the river front. The colored men were outnumbered by the whites, but bravely defended themselves with rocks and staves until arrival of the police. An appeal is to be made for protection against the police, who strive to make it impossible for colored men to work on the river front.

Methodists Celebrate Election of ... Bishops.

NEW YORK.—Bishops Matthew St. Clair and Robert Jones will be accorded a welcome and reception by the members of the St. Marks Methodist Episcopal church in October. It is understood that the M. E.'s all over the country are planning these receptions in honor of their elevation to the bishopry.

Baptist Hegira to Chicago

Pastor Jumps on Garvey

A. N. P.

NEW YORK, N., Y., Sept., 3—Marcus Garvey was heartily denounced by the Rev. E. Daniels, pastor of the St. Philip's P. E. Church last Sunday morning. Dr. Daniels charged Garvey with being guilty of the "white man's fallacy of thinking only of his own race, instead of the good of all mankind. Our task is to find honorable and peaceful ways of settling the differences between race and race."

ELKS NATIONAL LODGE CLOSES

In Blace of Glory. . Oklahomans Carry off Honors at this Session.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 27—The National Meeting of the Improved, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World which closed its 21st., session here Friday night is conceded by all to be the record breaker of all other sessions. More delegates and vistors were in attendence than ever before. The Organization showed an increase in membership over last year of nearly 9,000. Monday night at the public session many musical numbers and addresses were rendered, but to the State of Oklahoma is given the credit of carrying off the palm of victory.

Mrs. Bernice Elfis-Perdue, the nightingale of Muskogee, accompanied by Mrs. Laura Smitherman of Tulsa, by special request, rendered several musical numbers and was forced to acknowledge the thunderous applause by three encores Critics present were unanimous in declaring that Mrs. Perdue has one of the sweetest voices they ever heard and that the playing of Mrs. Smitherman was highly commendable.

Lawer C. E. Corbett, who responed to the address of welcome of the Mayor of Kansas City, received long and continuous applause for his eloquent and pertinent oration. In a clear and entertaining manner, this young attorney won the hearts of his hearers as he pleaded the cause of his race and told the vast audience what the future held in store forthem.

A large number of Oklahomans were present from several towns and report an enjoyable time.

The parade according to the white papers of Kansas City, was the grandest and- most spectacular that has ever been held in Kansas City by any race or organization. The Annual Session will be held in Boston, Mass., next August.

The Index Knows Man and Church

(Special to Tulsa Star)

JACKSON, Tenn., Sept. 4—In its current issue the Christian Index, the offical organ of the C. M. E. Church, has the following to say of the well known Muskogee pastor, Rev. Amos: "Dr. E. F. B. Amos, pastor of Bebee Memorial, Muskogee, Oklahoma, reports $1871, raised in a financial drive just closed. We call that a fine piece of work, but we are not surprised. We know the churih and the man.

Tulsa Citizens "Indignate"

A well attended meeting of Tulsa citizens was held Wednesday night at Masonic Hall to express indignation at the summary removal from the city police force of the Messrs. Albaugh and Green by the City Commissioners. At the same time a protest was made against the appointment of a Kansas Citian, named Gardner, as a patrolman. The opinion was expressed that if the Commissioners wanted a Russellite, a Sanctified Christian, a Holy Roller, or a "Choc" magnate, a Bone Artist, or a Tin Horn Gambler, Tulsa had 'em in bunches to choose from. A Committee of Fifteen Citizens was selected to wait on His Honor, the Mayor, and present the grievances brought out at this meeting.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED AND MILLIONS NOW WALKING ABOUT UPON EARTH WILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE.

LISTEN! LISTEN. LISTEN!

Lisen, Dear People of the Public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? Andagain, why dothey not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the scriptures? They attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the vale, will pay all necessary expenses any where in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason that will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sunday of each month during the summer ,fall and winter.

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date.

Subject for Sunday, September 5, will be entitled "THE EARTH ABIDETH FOREVER."

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity. It costs you nothing but your time.

Seats are free and no collection.

I am fully aware that many of you who read this article will scoff and possibly say: "What on earth is the writer trying to give the people now?" Many people are of the opinion that the world will always be as it has been in the past. But based upon the plain statements of the scriptures, and the facts and circumstances as we seethem, it is clear to the properly informed Bible Student that the world of mankind has reached an end of some kind. But before giving our evidence to back the conclusion that the world has ended it is necessary that we explain the meaning of the word "world" as used in the scriptures. The Bible meaning of the word has reference to A PARTICULAR ORDER OF THINGS, or ORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENTS, SOCIETIES, etc., that existed within a certain designated period of time—order or dispensation is the thought.

God's plan for the dealing with man is divided into three great periods of time, called worlds or dispensations, the first world or dispensation (from the creation of man to the flood) is called in the Scriptures, the world that was. (2d Peter 3:6). The second dispensation (from the flood to the second coming of Christ) is called the world that now is, or the present evil old world, and the third dispensation (from the second coming of Christ onward without end) is called the world to come, wherein dwelleth righteousness, Rev. 21:1; 2d Cor. 12: 1-4; Heb. 2:5.

Right here, dear ones, I beg to remind you that we are now standupon the threshold of the New World, or dispensation wherein dwelleth righteousness; but before we are permitted to enter this glorious and Blessed condition, we must be clensed and purified from all unrighteousness, injustice, oppression, and disposition of revolt against the new order of things; therefore, we note on every hand the purifying fires of trouble of every description are burning and must soon burn with such fury that the whole camp of humanity will cry out in dismay, feeling and fearing that all that was worth living for has gone to destruction . They will soon throw up their hands and cry out in earnest saying, "Where is God."

Because of unfaithfulness to his righteous laws, God withdrew His favor from the Jews as a nation and permitted the Gentiles to have a lease of power upon the world to try themselves at governing the world. The Gentiles, like the Jews, needed to learn by eyperience that they were incapable of properly governing themselves or others. The Gentile Dominion, according to the Scripture, is a period of two thorsand,five hundred and twenty years, beginning 606 B. C., at the time when Zedekiah, the Jewish ruler, was dethroned and Nebuchadneezar, the king of Babylon, was enthroned. It follows then that the full period of two thousand, five hundred and twenty years would end 1914, A. D.

God foreknowing the course man would take, told through His prophet Joel 3:9-15, and Daniel 12:7, the present world condition. Prophecy is simply history written in advance, and whoever doubts the prophecies of the Bible fails to give Jehovah credit for having the ability of knowing His plans and stating them in advance, and also fails to give Him credit of knowing in advance the course of future events.

We now submit twelve reasons from the the prophecy of Jesus Christ, the greatest prophet in the whole universe, in support of our assertion that the world has ended. Five days before His crucifiction His Deciples asked Him privately: "Tell us, what shall be the proof of the end of the world?" Matt. 24:3.

The Gentiles had a lease of power or permission from God to try themselves at governing the world. This was a stated length of time (from 606 B. C. to 1914 A.D, a period of 2, 520 years) and when that time expired the Lord began proceedings at once to oust them—they having become enemies to the one who had given them their lease of power.

Now, Jesus referring to the end end of the Gentiles lease of power, in his answer to the question propounded to Him by the deciples, said: "The nations were angry and thy wrath has come and the time of the dead that they should be judged." Exactly on the time the ambitious rulers of the earth started the Great World War. Further answering the deciples Jesus said: "Nations shall rise against nations and Kingdoms against Kingdoms, and there shall be famine and pestilence and earth quakes (Revelations) in divers places." Further answering concerning the Jewish people he said: "They (the Jews) shall be trodden down of the Gentiles until the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled. Every student of prophecy has understood that the reof the Jews to Jeruselem would turn of the Jews to Jeruselem would and the beginning of a new order of dispensation. Jehovah, through the prophet Jeremiah, spoke to Isreal advising that people that they would be driven out of their own country into a country withwhich they were not familiar; that there they would receive great persecution and that this period of persecution and suffering would be the same length as the period of their favor, and that thereafter He would bring them back into Palestine and again show them favor. Their return to Palestine, Jesus mentioned, would mark the time of His presence and the end of the world—end of Gentile government (see Jeremiah 16:13-18). Through the prophet Zechariah, the Lord,Jehovah, foretold that there would be a great rejoicing in Jeruselem over the entrance of the King (Messiah) and that that day would mark the time when the "double" would begin to count. That is to say, it would mark the beginning of God's favor being withdrawn from the Jewish people and the beginning of a period of suffering equal to the period of their favor.

The prophet says, "Rejoice greatly O daughter of Zion; shout O daughter of Jeruselem. Behold thy king cometh unto thee. He is just and having salvation; lowly and riding on an ass, and upon a colt, the foal of an ass." (Zaechariah 9:9) Matt. 21:1-9, records a fulfillment of this prophecy when Jesus made His triumphal entry into Jeruselem, offering Himself as King. That great event transpired in the spring of the year, A. D. 33. The favor to the Jews began in 1812 B. C., and A. D. 33 marked the end of the period of 1,845 years, the time when Jesus officially withdrew Gods favor from the Jewish people, saying to them: "Behold your house is left unto you desolate." Since this period of time should be doubled, according to this prophetic evidence, we must add eighteen hundred and forty-five years to A. D. 33, which brings us should be some evidence of God's to A. D. 1878, at which time there should be some evidence of God's favor beginning to return to the Jews, in order that this parallell might be carried out. We find the fulfillment in history in this.

While the favor was officially withdrawn from the Jews in the spring of A. D. 33, it was not until exactly forty years thereafter, A. D. 73, that Judea became depopulated and the Jews ceased to be a nation. Accordingly in 1878 favor began to return to the Jews and was marked progressively by the advance of Zionism and Jews returning to Palestine, until the end of forty years, in the spring of1918,when a distinct event happened, again fulfilling the parrallellism. The allied armies under General Allenby had wrested the the possession of Palestine for the purpose of establishing in Palestine a separate and distinct nation for the Jews.

Nathan Straus, a grand old man of American Jewry, in a speech delivered in New York City, during the progress of the war, said:

"We are living in an age when we are about to realize the two thousand year old hope of the Jewish people. I am especially glad that we are witnessing the spectacle of the whole world applauding and approving and supporting our great purpose to re-establish the Jewish people on their own soil."

Jesus used a parable as further corroborative evidence of the event that shoul be transpiring at the end of the world. On a previous occasion He had likened the Jewish people unto a fig tree. Now He says, "Learn a parable of the fig tree; when its brancpes are yet tender and putteth forth leaves, you know that the summer is nigh; so, likewise, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the door. Verily, verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled."

In other words, when these events begin to take place, the people or generation then on earth would be permitted to see a complete fulfillment of the prophetic evidences set forth in this great prophecy, proving conclusively the ending of the old world and the coming in of the new. In further replying Jesus said: "As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the end of the world." Additionally Jesus answered the inquiry saying: "The sun shall be darken and the moon shall fail to give her light and the stars shall fall from the heavens and the power of Heaven shall be shaken." The Revelations gives us a key to these symbolic statements; the sun represents the gospel of Christ; the moon pictures the Mosaic Law dispensation, and the stars represent the great number of preachers in the world—how wonderfully this is being fulfilled now. The world, in its rash to carry out its selfish aims, is giving no heed to the gospel of Christ—Sunis darkened. The sacrifice of animals under the Jewish custom forshadowed the Great Sacrifice of Jesus Christ, but this is being repudiated as foolishness by higher critics (worldly wise ones), therefore the moon fails to give her light. The preachers' position is one above all others but the great majority of them have fallen from this exalted position of teaching the truth and have taken their places in the common politics of the world, teaching only such things as are pleasing to the wicked world and which serves to gratify their own selfish aims—the stars fallen. As a result of the preachers' unfaithfulness and their powers of heaven—the great church systems—are being shaken. Humanity is restless and is questioning the creed of the different denominations and the divine right of kings to rule the earth. Continuing his answers, Jesus said that at the end of the world there would be upon the earth distress of nations with perplexity, the sea and waves roaring (meaning reht-and men's hearts failing them for fear of the things coming upon the earth. Who is so blind and so void of reason as not to be able to see the fulfillment of this part of the Scripture at this time. Additionally the Lord said, "The Gospel of the the world for a witness unto all nations and then the end shall come."

Th word Gospel means good news. Now listen, dear people: The world does not know that God planned on setting up a kingdom here on the earth. This is, should be and will be, good news to the poor world when their eyes are open to the fact that the Lord is now establishing a kingdom upon earth in which, by being obedient, many that are living and walking about on earth shall live throughout eternity and never go into the grave. But now listen again and remember what I tell you: As soon as this information concerning the kingdom here on earth is given to every nation as awitness (and we are sending this message is just before us, the world will re-circumstances) you may rest assured there will be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation and just following this great time of trouble which is jut before us, the world will recognize the Kingdom of the Lord in full force and effect.

We have not attempted to produce all the evidenre at our command to prove that the world has ended, but we are satisfied to rest our case upon the prophetic testimony of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Summing up the cirrumstantial evidence, as obtained from the Lord when asked to tell what shall be the proof of the end of the world, we find true to our Lord's statement, in 1914, the nations rose against nations. Famine is threatening the whole world; epestilence is raging and smiting down humanity from right to left and especially venereal diseases, which are said to be more destructive than war and which is now smiting down all grades of society, of both sexes and of all ages; earthquakes (revolutions) are rumbling and being heard in divers places. The Jews have returned to Jerusalem. The Gospel is being preached to every nation, as it was in Noah's day; the people are heedless as to the warning that the world has ended. The sun( the true darkened; the moon (the true significance of the Law of Dispensation) is not giving her light; the stars (the preachers) have fallen from their spiritual position of teaching the truth; the powers of heaven (the church systems) are being shaken, and distress with perplexity is upon the whole earth and men's hearts are failing everywhere for the things they see coming upon the earth.

We are nearing the time of the fulfillment ofthe Scripture, which says, "Then shall there be great tribulations such as was not since the beginning of the world (Matt. 24:21) and except those days should be shortened there should be no fleshed saved." Therefore we are assured that while the destruction that is now upon theearth will increase in its destructiveness to surpass anything of sorrow that has come to humanity since there was a nation, we have the assurance that some flesh—some people—will be

For many centuries sickness, sorrow, suffering and death have afflicted the human race. But there has been just enough joy mixed with the sorrows of life to create a longing desire for Life-everlasting. And if that Life-everlasting could be accomplished by perfection and happiness man would be satisfied. Recognizing Jehovah as the great first cause, whose attributes are wisdom, justice, love and power, and who is the Creator of man, it seems entirely reasonable that having permitted man, to so long and desire the blessings of Life-everlasting, his wisdom and love would lead him to make provision for the gratification of that desire. But reason or theorizing alone would not lead us to a satisfactory conclusion, nor has man been left to rely merely upon these. Jehovah has graciously provided a record, written by holy men of old and by his inspired witnesses, which discloses that God has a great plan which he has caused to develop in an orderly and majestic manner. In this record, the Bible, we find the testimony concerning man's origin, his course, the reason for his sickness, sorrow, suffering and death, and what the future holds for him.

The Bible has never been wholly and completely understood, but according to the standard therein the light has shone brighter and brighter as the centuries have rolled by, and the promise is made that far greater light would be shed upon the Bible's pages in the close of the Gospel Age. When the Prophet Daniel recorded a brief history of the world long before these events transpired, Jehovah told him to close up the prophecy and seal the words, so that they could not be understood, until the time of the end. The inference must be reached that when that time of the end occurs the Bible would be better understood.

If in this hour of distress and great perplexity upon the human race we can find a consoling message that will bind up the brokenhearted and comfort those that mourn then with gladness we should embrace this message and be eager to transmit it to others, that they, too, may rejoice. This article is being written for the purpose of showing that the time is here to understand the Bible; that we are in the time of the end; that the old order is perishing from the earth; that the new order is coming in; that restitution blessings will soon be offered to the world and then men who obey the righteous laws of Jehovah will never die. In the examination of this subject we must apply the prophetic evidences in the places where they belong. The Scriptures admonish us: "Study to show thyself approved unto God," "A workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2d Timothy 2:15). The Scriptures that applied at one stage of the world's history may have no application now, and vice versa. Such was recognized by the New Testament writers, and particularly the Lord Jesus himself.

For nearly nineteen centuries students of divine prophecy have expected and looked for the world to end, because Jesus taught that it would end. Many Christian men, however, failing to recognize the distinction between the symbolic and literal phrases of the Bible, have been confused concerning the end of the world. For instance, the great John Calvin taught that when the world comes to an end Jesus would reappear in the air near the earth and would cause fire to be emitted from the clouds, and set the earth on fire and totally destroy the world and everything on it. He being a preacher of great renown, the people supposed that he based his conclusions upon a proper interpretation of the Bible, therefore great numbers believed his teachings; for this reason the most of the people look with fear and trembling toward the time of the ending of the world.

Reason would lead us to the conclusion that Jehovah would not create a wonderful earth like this, permit men to bring it to a high state of cultivation in many places, and then completely destroy it. Such is wholly out of harmony with his character. Such a thought is also wholly out of harmony with the plain teachings of his word, which says: "The earth abideth forever." (Ecc. 1:4.) "For thus saith the Lord, that created the Heavens: God himself that formed the earth and made it; He that established it; he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited." Isa. 45:18.) When the Bible speaks of the world ending it does not mean the literal earth, but it does refer to an epoch or dispensation of time during which a certain arrangement of things or social order exists. In proof of this the Scriptures disclose that there was a world which existed from the time of Eden until the Great Flood; "Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished." (2 Peter 3:6.) At the end of the Flood a New World began, and the promise is made by the same Scriptural writer that it (the second world in which we now live) shall end. The period of that world is from the Flood until the coming of Messiah's Kingdom, and his Kingdom would mark the beginning of another world or new order of things.

There are several distinct periods of time mentioned in the Scriptures which have their culmination or ending particularly at this time. Among these are the times of the Gentiles and the end of the world. The Scriptures disclose that the Gentile time covers a period of two thousand five hundred and twenty years. They had their beginning with the overthrow of Zedekiah, the last King of Israel, in the fall or autumn of 606 B. C. at the time Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon established the first universal empire in the earth. This period of two thousand five hundred years, then, necessarily ended in the fall of 1914. Referring to this period of time the Great Master, through the Revelator, said: "The nations were angry, and thy wrath is come." (Rev. 11:18.) This prophecy was fulfilled exactly on time.

Throughout the Scriptures the word earthquake used in a symbolic sense means revolutions. Right in our very midst here today we have a fulfillment of the prophetic answer of Jesus. With the fall of aristocracy in Russia came a great revolution. With the fall of plutocracy in Germany a revolution occurred there. The public press is almost daily reporting conditions of revolution prevailing throughout Europe, while every day the news columns are filled with reports of a disturbed condition among the laboring people in America and throughout the world.

In further answer to the questions propounded to him by the Disciples concerning the end of the world, Jesus said: "There will be upon the earth distress of nations with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing for fear and for looking after those things which they see coming on the earth." There could be no doubt of the fulfillment of this Scriptural statement in the very hour through which we are now passing. In his address to congress since these days of disturbance have begun, President Wilson said: "These are days of great perplexity when a great cloud hangs over the greater part of the world. It seems as if blind material forces have been released which have for long time been held in restraint."

Governmental officials are in perplexity; financiers are perplexed; business men are disturbed and their hearts are fearful; men who have to do with labor organizations are in perplexity and disturbed; and the restless element of humanity which the Lord likened unto the sea, is roaring. The people, the waves, are dashing against each other, and there is a general condition of unrest in all the earth, all of these things are evidence of the fact that the old world or order of things have come to an end and the time is here for the establishment of the new.

When the Lord called our attention to the fact that the day of His coming and the setting up of his kingdom would be like those during the days of Noah he intended that we should be able to draw many illustrations and pictures as to the character and condition of the times during the close of the Gospel Age. During the days just before the flood the earth was filled with violence—meaning that life and happiness were constantly in danger. (I believe all thoughtful persons recognize the fact that life and happiness are at this very time in great danger, world wide and becoming more and more so as the days go by—This earth is now being filled with violence). The people during Noah's time paid no attention to the warnings given to them by Noah that their world or order of things was coming to an end, so it is today the world will not hear such talk or warnings. There was but a remnant of both man and beast brought over from the world that was into this present evil world and mark you: there will be only a remnant carried over from this present evil world into the world to come wherein dwelleth righteousness. But while there were only eight persons brought over from the world that was into this present world, which runs from the Flood to the second coming of Christ, there will be millions carried over from this age into the world to come for the reason that this age or world is more densely populated than was the first world. But there is one thing certain, and please remember this, that the millions carried over from this age into the next age or world will be just as lonely and look over a world of far greater devastation than Noah and his family, when they noted complete destruction of all organizations and life except that found in the Ark.

In the age, or world, just before us, upon the threshhold of which we are now standing, all the willing and obedient shall live everlastingly. You can rest assured that the millions carried over from this age through the great time of trouble, which is now upon the world, into the age to come will be so well chastized at the hand of Jehovah that they will be glad to live willing, humble and obedient lives, and for their obedience the reward will be life everlasting.

There is always some pain accompanying the birth of new conditions but the pain and the agonies that will accompany the passing out of this present order of things and the incoming of the new will be many fold greater than it would have been had the preachers of the world been faithful to their trust and preached the truth concerning God's great plan of salvation. The poor world as a whole is in darkness and total ignorance concerning God's plan of salvation for the human race. The preachers are more responsible than any other class of men in the whole world for the recent world wide destruction of human lives and property and for the further trouble and destruction that is sure to come in the near future. Please be sure to read Ezek. 33 and 34th chapters, also 1st Cor. 10:21.

Let us leave the dark picture for a moment and remember that according to Bible chronology, types and shadows, we are but a few years from the time when the willing and obedient will be restored to all that was lost in Father Adam and the blessings long promised to man by Jehovah God will begin to flow to the world of mankind. I will not attempt to fix the date definitely but will hint to you my friends that great things are to take place in this world to make men turn their hearts towards God, between this and the end of nineteen twenty-five (1925). The Kingdom of the Lord is in process of establishment but something is got to happen very soon to make men believe this. The Scriptures abound with promises that a righteous government will be established in all the earth and that when this kingdom is fully established then the work of restitution will be in full swing. The Lord will begin the Kingdom work with persons living at the time the Kingdom is established in power and when the living members are in such condition of heart as to manifest complete outward obedience to the rules of the Kingdom, then the restitution through the resurrection of the dead will begin. There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. Isa. 9:9; John 5:28-29; Acts 24:15, 17, 31.

I beg to say to the worldly minded that the best investment you can make now of your time and money is to seek a knowledge of the Lord and His great plan of salvation. Seek the Lord while he may be found and before the dark night that is just before us settles upon the world; in order that you may be among the millions now living who will never go into the grave.

MUSKOGEE NEWS NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery have returned after a most enjoyable motor trip to Colorado.

Miss Hassie Towler, the tuberculosis nurse, after a happy vacation with her relatives in Virginia, is back at her station.

There are quite a number of new faces in the corps of teachers for the ensuing year. Mr. Patton, Chicago University man, will teach mathematics at high school. Mr. Wade, O. S. U. man, is the principal at Douglas school, succeeding Prof. Weaver, who has been promoted to Dunbar.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Boynton, and Mrs. Emmett Stewart have returned from their trip in which they attended the National Business Men's League at Philadelphia. The son and daughter of Mr. George Davis were in the party.

Mrs. J. W. Adams, the well known milliner, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. P. Brown at their Chicago home.

The Mystery Boys gave a swell party last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Gentry of Beggs passed through here returning from their motor trip to Buffalo, N. Y., where they left their daughters, the Misses Helen and Frances, at school, and in the care of their cousin, Mrs. James Allen Ross. Mrs. Ross was formerly Mrs. Minnie Hill, and her present husband is the well known Negro Democratic leader of western New York.

The Misses Bass and Montgomery have gone to Nowata to take up their school work.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED AND MILLIONS NOW WALKING ABOUT UPON EARTH WILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE.

LISTEN! LISTEN. LISTEN!

Lisen, Dear People of the Public, I am reliably informed that some of the would-be-wise ministers have told their congregations that my writings on Bible subjects do not amount to anything but that they will answer them every Sunday from their pulpits.

Now listen again, if these writings do not amount to anything, why take the time to answer them? Andagain, why dothey not accept my challenge and call me on the carpet before the public and show me up through the scriptures? They attempt to answer my writings by attacking them from their own private pulpits behind my back is just like a man who would lay in the bushes and assassinate an opponent if perchance he could keep from being caught.

In order that you, dear people, may know that I am in great earnest and desire to enlighten you, concerning God's plan of Salvation, I wish it understood that while I am a poor man and look to God to open the way for my living, while this side of the vale, will pay all necessary expenses any where in the state of Oklahoma to secure a proper public place for my opponents to meet me before the public and clear themselves, through the Scriptures of the charges that I have made and are making against them.

Dear people, you should inform these ministers that there must be something wrong with their teachings as a reason that will not defend themselves before my face and the public.

Remember the place, 618 East Archer street, Masonic Hall, 3:00 P. M. sharp every first and third Sun-

For many centuries sickness, sorrow, suffering and death have afflicted the human race. But there has been just enough joy mixed with the sorrows of life to create a longing desire for Life-everlasting. And if that Life-everlasting could be accomplished by perfection and happiness man would be satisfied. Recognizing Jehovah as the great first cause, whose attributes are wisdom, justice, love and power, and who is the Creator of man, it seems entirely reasonable that having permitted man, to so long and desire the blessings of Life-everlasting, his wisdom and love would lead him to make provision for the gratification of that desire. But reason or theorizing alone would not lead us to a satisfactory conclusion, nor has man been left to rely merely upon these. Jehovah has graciously provided a record, written by holy men of old and by his inspired witnesses, which discloses that God has a great plan which he has caused to develop in an orderly and majestic manner. In this record, the Bible, we find the testimony concerning man's origin, his course, the reason for his sickness, sorrow, suffering and death, and what the future holds for him.

The Bible has never been wholly and completely understood, but according to the standard therein the light has shone brighter and brighter as the centuries have rolled by, and the promise is made that far greater light would be shed upon the Bible's pages in the close of the Gospel Age. When the Prophet Daniel recorded a brief history of the world long before these events transpired, Jehovah told him to close up the prophecy and seal the words, so that they could not be understood, until the time of the end. The inference must be reached that when that time of the end occurs the Bible would be better understood.

If in this hour of distress and great perplexity upon the human race we can find a consoling message that will bind up the brokenhearted and comfort those that mourn then with gladness we should embrace this message and be eager to transmit it to others, that they, too, may rejoice. This article is being written for the purpose of showing that the time is here to understand the Bible; that we are in the time of the end; that the old order is perishing from the earth; that the new order is coming in; that restitution blessings will soon be offered to the world and then men who obey the righteous laws of Jehovah will never die. In the examination of this subject we must apply the propietic evidences in the places where they belong. The Scriptures admonish us: "Study to show thyself approved unto God," "A workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2d Timothy 2:15). The Scriptures that applied at one stage of the world's history may have no application now, and vice versa. Such was recognized by the New Testament writers, and particularly the Lord Jesus himself.

For nearly nineteen centuries students of divine prophecy have expected and looked for the world to end, because Jesus taught that it would end. Many Christian men, however, failing to recognize the distinction between the symbolic and literal phrases of the Bible, have been confused concerning the end of the world. For instance, the great John Calvin taught that when the world comes to an end Jesus would reappear in the air near the earth and would cause fire to be emitted from the clouds, and set the earth on fire and totaly destroy the world and everything on it. He being a preacher of great renown, the people supposed that he based his conclusions upon a proper interpretation of the Bible, therefore great numbers believed his teachings; for this reason the most of the people look with fear and trembling toward the time of the ending of the world.

Reason would lead us to the conclusion that Jehovah would not create a wonderful earth like this, permit men to bring it to a high state of cultivation in many places, and then completely destroy it. Such is wholly out of harmony with his character. Such a thought is also wholly out of harmony with the plain teachings of his word, which says: "The earth abideth forever." (Ecc. 1:4.) "For thus saith the Lord, that created the Heavens: God himself that formed the earth and made it; He that established it; he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited." Isa. 45:18.) When the Bible speaks of the world ending it does not mean the literal earth, but it does refer to an epoch or dispensation of time during which a certain arrangement of things or social order exists. In proof of this the Scriptures disclose that there was a world which existed from the time of Eden until the Great Flood; "Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished." (2 Peter 3:6.) At the end of the Flood a New World began, and the promise is made by the same Scriptural writer that it (the second world in which we now live) shall end. The period of that world is from the Flood until the coming of Messiah's Kingdom, and his Kingdom would mark the beginning of another world or new order of things.

There are several distinct periods of time mentioned in the Scriptures which have their culmination or ending particularly at this time. Among these are the times of the Gentiles and the end of the world. The Scriptures disclose that the Gentile time covers a period of two thousand five hundred and twenty years. They had their beginning with the overthrow of Zedekiah, the last King of Israel, in the fall or autumn of 606 B. C. at the time Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon established the first universal empire in the earth. This period of two thousand five hundred years, then, necessarily ended in the fall of 1914. Referring to this period of time the Great Master, through the Revelator, said: "The nations were angry, and thy wrath is come." (Rev. 11:18.) This prophecy was fulfilled exactly on time.

Throughout the Scriptures the word earthquake used in a symbolic sense means revolutions. Right in our very midst here today we have a fulfillment of the prophetic answer of Jesus. With the fall of aristocracy in Russia came a great revolution. With the fall of plutocracy in Germany a revolution occurred there. The public press is almost daily reporting conditions of revolution prevailing throughout Europe, while every day the news columns are filled with reports of a disturbed condition among the laboring people in America and throughout the world.

In further answer to the questions propounded to him by the Disciples concerning the end of the world, Jesus said: "There will be upon the earth distress of nations with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing for fear and for looking after those things which they see coming on the earth." There could be no doubt of the fulfillment of this Scriptural statement in the very hour through which we are now passing. In his address to congress since these days of disturbance have begun, President Wilson said: "These are days of great perplexity when a great cloud hangs over the greater part of the world. It seems as if blind material forces have been released which have for long time been held in restraint."

Governmental officials are in perplexity; financiers are perplexed; business men are disturbed and their hearts are fearful; men who have to do with labor organizations are in perplexity and disturbed; and the restless element of humanity which the Lord likened unto the sea, is roaring. The people, the waves, are dashing against each other, and there is a general condition of unrest in all the earth, all of these things are evidence of the fact that the old world or order of things have come to an end and the time is here for the establishment of the new.

When the Lord called our attention to the fact that the day of His coming and the setting up of his kingdom would be like those during the days of Noah he intended that we should be able to draw many illustrations and pictures as to the character and condition of the times during the close of the Gospel Age. During the days just before the flood the earth was filled with violence—meaning that life and happiness were constantly in danger. (I believe all thoughtful persons recognize the fact that life and happiness are at this very time in great danger, world wide and becoming more and more so as the days go by—This earth is now being filled with violence). The people during Noah's time paid no attention to the warnings given to them by Noah that their world or order of things was coming to an end, so it is today the world will not hear such talk or warnings. There was but a remnant of both man and beast brought over from the world that was into this present evil world and mark you: there will be only a remnant carried over from this present evil world into the world to come wherein dwelleth righteousness. But while there were only eight persons brought over from the world that was into this present world, which runs from the Flood to the second coming of Christ, there will be millions carried over from this age into the world to come for the reason that this age or world is more densely populated than was the first world. But there is one thing certain, and please remember this, that the millions carried over from this age into the next age or world will be just as lonely and lock over a world of far greater devastation than Noah and his family, when they noted complete destruction of all organizations and life except that found in the Ark.

In the age, or world, just before us, upon the threshhold of which we are now standing, all the willing and obedient shall live everlastingly. You can rest assured that the millions carried over from this age through the great time of trouble, which is now upon the world, into the age to come will be so well chastized at the hand of Jehovah that they will be glad to live willing, humble and obedient lives, and for their obedience the reward will be life everlasting.

There is always some pain accompanying the birth of new conditions but the pain and the agonies that will accompany the passing out of this present order of things and the incoming of the new will be many fold greater than it would have been had the preachers of the world been faithful to their trust and preached the truth concerning God's great plan of salvation. The poor world as a whole is in darkness and total ignorance concerning God's plan of salvation for the human race. The preachers are more responsible than any other class of men in the whole world for the recent world wide destruction of human lives and property and for the further trouble and destruction that is sure to come in the near future. Please be sure to read Ezek. 33 and 34th chapters, also 1st Cor. 10:21.

Let us leave the dark picture for a moment and remember that according to Bible chronology, types and shadows, we are but a few years from the time when the willing and obedient will be restored to all that was lost in Father Adam and the blessings long promised to man by Jehovah God will begin to flow to the world of mankind. I will not attempt to fix the date definitely but will hint to you my friends that great things are to take place in this world to make men turn their hearts towards God, between this and the end of nineteen twenty-five (1925). The Kingdom of the Lord is in process of establishment but something is got to happen very soon to make men believe this. The Scriptures abound with promises that a righteous government will be established in all the earth and that when this kingdom is fully established then the work of restitution will be in full swing. The Lord will begin the Kingdom work with persons living at the time the Kingdom is established in power and when the living members are in such condition of heart as to manifest complete outward obedience to the rules of the Kingdom, then the restitution through the resurrection of the dead will begin. There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. Isa. 9:9; John 5:28-29; Acts 24:15, 17, 31.

I beg to say to the worldly minded that the best investment you can make now of your time and money is to seek a knowledge of the Lord and His great plan of salvation. Seek the Lord while he may be found and before the dark night that is just before us settles upon the world; in order that you may be among the millions now living who will never go into the grave.

Interest Grows in Bible Debate!

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEBATE HAS ATTRACTED WIDE ATTENTION. MANY OUT OF TOWN VISITORS ARE EXPECTED

The debate at the Convention Hall Monday night, Sept. 28, between Hon. Richard J. Hill, International Bible Student and Rev. H. T. S Johnson, pastor M. E. Churh, both of this city, has attracted a great deal of attention not only among the citizens of Tulsa, but among the citizens of several neighboring towns, many of whom will come to Tulsa to witness the occasion.

The people of this city who know the principals of this havelong wanted to hear them discuss the merits and demerits of the opposing faiths because both are known to be well versed in the Bible and the various r ligious dictrines. Both are also men of high educational attainments which will add materialy to the interest of the debate.

The doctrine espoused by Mr. Hill is slowly but surely findi ng favor with the independent thinking class of people and many have openly declared their preference to his religious promulgations.

The debate will be conducted in a very dignified and intelligent manner and will doubtless be highly instructive to the audience. All seats in the house willl be absolutely free and there will be no after collection.

OSAGES OPPOSE INTER MARRIAGE WITH OUR RACE

Ft. Worth, Tex., Sept. 17—In an effort to save the Indian race from further intermingling of Negro blood, C. B. Trailer of Hominy, Okla son of the chief of the Osage Tribe will ask Governor Hobby to present to the next Texas Legislature a bill preventing the intermarriage of Indians and Negroes.

Through his efforts Oklahoma already has such a law and a similar was recently passed in Louisiana. He believes that it is imperative that Texas enact the same legislation.

The Osage Tribe is the wealthiest in the United States and one of the most advanced. Its lands are rich with oil and its per capita wealth in the hands of the Government mounts into the milions of dollars.

The Indian leader declares that the time has come for the Indian to take his chance with the other citizens of the Republic. He declares that the aborigine has been an unwilling ward of an unwilling Government for many years and that is now time for himto look after himself.

No aboriginal race has shown finer native qualities than the American Indian in this State who is free from Negro blood, Trailer declared. If we can get laws passed in each with the Negro Race and lend a helping hand for a while to stimulate him in his development he will contribute useful and important elements to the future citizenship of our lands.

"At the same time that we are encouraging the immigration of foreigners and their asimilaton by our people we should not neglect a like treatment of the Indians who have far more promising qualities than many of the foreigners who seek our shores.

GARVEY NEEDS ONLY ONE TICKET

New York, Sept. 17—The International Convention of Negroes, which was held in Harlem for thirty one days, closed with the dispatch of cable messages to Lloyd George asking for the release of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, to Father Dominick at Brixton Prison, expressing sympathy, and to members of the Nationalist party at Cairo Egypt, congratulating them on achieving independence.

Marcus Garvey, provisional pres., of Africa, anounced that the international executive committee will start at once on the details of establishing aNegro nation. "I hear the cry of nationalism, he said, and it is calling me home.'

Ohio—Mother of Triplets.

(Star News Service)

CHICAGO.—Senator Kenyon of the Senatorial Committee investigating Gov. Cox's charges of republican use of millions of dollars in the present campaign got off a good one the other day. He spoke of Ohio's distinction as "Mother of Presidents," but that this year she was "Mother of Tripletts." He referred to the fact that three political parties have selected Ohio men to head their ticket. They are Cox, Harding and Walton.

French Masons Will Admit Women.

(Special to Tulsa Star)

PARIS, France.—French Free Masons have just had a vigorous fight is a convention here over the question of admitting women to membership in Masonic lodges. The principle was finally adopted by a small majority and left subject to modification when delegates to the Grand Lodge attend the masonic world conference to be held this wister.

MOSAIC WOMEN HONOR SOUTHERN ORATOR
Same Old Joke About Southern People Our Best Friends?

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17—A large delegation of Negro women,who have been here attending a convention of the Mosaic Templars of America, visited the state capitol dan asked the privilege of the authorities to occupy the house of representatives for afew minutes to hear an address by Dr. J. L. Leach, a local phy sician, on the subject of "Our Duty as Citizens and Voters." The request was granted and Dr. Leach talked for 10 minutes on the subjct selected for him. He said a great political campaign was on in the county and he felt it was his duty to say a few words to the Negroes especially to the Negro women; as to their duty. He warned them to ignore parties and vote their convictions. He said here in Te it was the duty of the Negroes to support Gov. Roberts, because of his stand for law and order. He saidi the true friends of the Negro Race were the Southern White people.

Woman Uses Knife Following Quarrel

As a result of a quarrel with Jennie Fulton, Walter Gamble received an ugly knife wound on the left lower jaw, Wednesday night. According to a statement made by Gamble, the Fulton woman cut him without just provocation and while he was playing with her. The woman was arrested and fined.

VACATION DAYS OVER— SCHOOL OPENS

The happy days of vacation so dear to theschool boys and girls of Tulsa and elsewhere are over and last Monday witnessed the opening session of the Dunbar and Booker Washigton High Schools of the city Prof. J. W. Hughes and Prof. E. W. Woods, principals of these two schools, are familiar figures on the streets of Tulsa and are widely known for their attainments in educational matters.

The Dunbar School has a Faculty of ten teachers and the Booker Washington High, a Faculty of 21, including the principals. Quite a number of new faces are seen in the corps of teachers employed for the year. The atendance at these schools is larger than last year and it is likely that increased accomodations may be required. The Liberty School, with a faculty headed by Mrs. J. A. John on and two assistants opeed with about 90 pupils and this number is likely to be added to shortly. Prof. Woods and Hughes are looking forward to a most successful years work, and are planning a number of ovations which will tend toward improvement in the handling of the various subjects taught.

TULSA MUST HAVE WATER

The decision of the Supreme Court against the issuance of the $5,000,000 bonds by the city of Tulsa will delay for the time being of the building of a pipe line from Tulsa to Spavinaw a distance of fifteen miles. The decision of the Court is based upon provisions of the present charter which forbids the city owning property more than 5 miles from the city limits. This makes it necessary to change the charter and plans for re-submitting it to the vote of the people are on foot under the leadership of Mayor Evans. Tulsans are tired of satisfying their thirst thru the media of bottles.

CITY WILL OPPOSE HIKE OF TELEPHONE RATES

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed a request with the State Corporation Commission for permission to elevate the rates for the use of telephone service in all the cities in Oklahoma reached by this company. The company contends that it is earning less than four per cent per annum on its Oklahoma investments. The Companys manager flatets himself and the Company when he says there will be no disagreement between them and the public on their proposition. On the contrary the public which is very tired of the poor service now rendered by the telephone company will oppose the hiking of rates to the last ditch.

Tulsa Family Visits Tuskegee.

Hon. Richard J. Hill and his entire family, of this city left Saturday morning for Tuskegee Institute where three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hill will enter school for this term.

County Tax Rate Less This Year

Tulsa county taxpayers this year will pay just two mills or about five per cent less taxes than last, according to County Treasurer W. W. Stuckey. This is exactly the amount of the decrease anounced yesterday in the state tax which will be two mill as against four for the previius year. The reduction will mean a saving of $215,749.59 on the $407,874,979, assessed property valuations of Tulsa county.

The figures of Treasurer Stuckey show a decrease in the valuation for county purposes, but an increase which exactly off sets it for city and school purposes. The total rate of taxation in Tulsa county for all purposes is 42.2 mills as against 44.2 last year.

GOVERNOR AND AUDITOR DISAGREE ON LEVY

(Star News Special)

Oklahoma City, Sept. 16th—Gov. J. B. A. Robertson and State Auditor Frank C. Carter are at loggerheads over the question of certifying to the county assessors the collection of the 1½ mills levy which had been imposed by a majority vote by the State Board of Equalization. This levy had been made in compliance with the recommendation of Governor Robertson asd in accord with his financial statement indicating a total revenue requirement for state purposes of $9,449,765.73. The 1½ mills levy would produce about $2,500,000 of the total estimate. State Auditor Carter declares the levy is illegal and unnecessary and that he will resist issuing orders for the collection of same until he is compelled by mandamus to do so.

COLORED MAN IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

(Star News Service)

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 16th—T. J. Terrell, Secretary of the State, has announced that the name of Prof. J. H. Blount the well known Colored political and educational leader of Forrest City, would appear on the ballot in the November general election as a candidate for the ofice of Governor of Arkansas. This is quite a victory for the Colored people of the State.

COLORED VOTE MAY SWING ELECTION

Nw York, Sept .17—Figures published today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 20 Fifth Avenue New York, indicate that the vote of Negroes in Northern States may elect the next President.

"The Negro vote this year, says the Advancement Association, will constitute the balance of power or will aproach closely to being the balance of power in 8 pivotal states which have 165 votes in the electoral college.

The states with their probable Negro vote, due to immigration and enfranhisement of women are given as follows:

|---|---|
| Illinois | 125,000 |
| Indiana | 45,000 |
| Kentucky | 150,000 |
| Maryland | 150,000 |
| Michigan | 25,000 |
| New Jersey | 75,000 |
| New York | 125 |
| Ohio | 100,000 |

In each of these states the probable Negro vote is larger than the number of votes necessary to swing the State.

MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

Watch this space weekly for subject of the lecture and any possible change in date

Friends come and hear for yourselves the only consoling message during these times of great perplexity It costs you nothing but your time

Seats are free and no collection

WORLD IS ENDED AND MILLWILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE.

When a long time lease ends and the building erected on it are in a decayed condition and a new owner comes into possession with the intention of erecting new buildings his first acts are to tear down and remove the old buildings and clear the lot for the building of the new structure. The old order of the old world ended in 1914, and exactly on time the work of removing the old order began and is still in progress. The great King of Kings and Lord of Lords is directing this work, and he is removing the old order of things preparatory to the erection of the new and righteous order. The Prophet of the Lord having in mind this very time when the Kings of earth would be making a last desperate stand to hold their posessions. wrote, "And in the days of these Kings shall the God of Heaven set up a Kingdom, which shall never be destroyed; and the Kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these Kingdoms, and it shall stand forever."—Daniel 2:4-4.

We beg to say that the evidence is conclusive to the reasonable mind who believes in the scripture, that the world has ended; that the old order is passing away and the new is coming in; and if that is true, then this must mark the dawning of a new and better day; it must mark the days of the beginning day of the Golden Age, and of necessity must mark the time for the fulfillment of the Great Biblical promises that Jehovah has made for the blessing of mankind with Life. Liberty and Happiness.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you if a man keep my saying he shall never die.'—John 8:51.

The inquiring mind naturally asks why should man see death at all any way? Is it not possible for him to live everlastingly? Can man find some way of perpetuating the life and happiness of thehuman race? Man not understanding why death has ravaged the human race and what remedy God has provided against death, many have concluded that death has always prevailed among men and men will always die. But an understanding of the scriptures makes clear the whole subject.

The Lord created but one man—Adam. And we must remember that all of the work of Jehovah is perfect. (Duet. 32:4) Man was created in the image of God and Jehovah gave him dominion over the things of earth—Gen. 1:26-28. The first man, Adam, being perfect in organism and having a perfect wife, Eve, and the right to propagate this race and fill the earth, not only had life and liberty and happiness himself but could have maintained that for himself and for his offsprings had he been obedient to Jehovah. God informed him that a violation of his law would result in the loss of everything he had. The Gen. account is that God told Adam that death would result from disobedience of the Divine comand. Our Foreparents did violate God's law and were sentenced to death, the former part of the judgment reading "For dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return." To enforce this judgment of death God separated

Adam from his perfect home Eden and deprived him of the perfect food which grew there caused him to feed upon the poisonous element of the earth and thus the death sentence was executed.

The perfect man Adam begat no children while he was obedient to God's law and before the sentence of condemnation was passed upon him; but while undergoing the death sentence he exercised his God given powers of pro-creation and there was born unto him Adam and Eve children. These children inherited the imperfection, resulting to their parents by reason of the death sentence. "As by the disobedience of one man Adam sin entered into the world and death by sin so death has passed upon all men for that all have sinned." (Roman 5:12) Thus the whole race came under legal condemnation and therefore we can appreciate the words of the Psalmist which says "Behold I was shapened in iniquity and in sin did my mother conceive me."—Pst 51:5

This judgment of death being justly inflicted by Jehovah God for the violation of his law could never be reversed by him unless he made some provision for mankind the whole race would eventually go into death and there would be no resurrection—No hope for them in the future. But we are thankful that God promised that he would redeem man from death. Through the Prophet he said "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death."—Hosea 13:14.

Since a perfect man had sinned and brought death upon the whole race acording to the standard of Divine justice nothing but the life of a perfect man could satisfy that judgment; and since all the human race was imperfect therefore none of them could by any means redeem his brother nor give to God a ransom for him. Psa. 49:7.

The death and Resurection of Jesus provided a ransom or purchase price for the entire human race. Then in God's due time every one of Adam's race both the living and the dead must know about this arrangement for them to gain everlasting life if they want it upon the terms of the new Covenant. and they must have a chance to accept the benefits of this arrangement "For this good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who will have all men saved (From the condemnatios of death by the ransom sacrifice and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one Mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all to be testified in due time."—1st Tem. 2:3:6. This ransom price for the purchase of makind from death was provided nearly ninetees hundred years ago. But as all know, men have continued to die for the reasos that it was not God's due time to begin to offer man the benefit of the Ransom Sacrifice—Life. "God at first did visit the Gentiles to take out a people for his name—And after this I will return and build again the Tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the roofs thereof; and I will set it up: that the residue of men might seek after the Lord and all the nations upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord who doeth all these things." Acts 15: 14 17.

For many years good honest men and women have asked? "what hope is there for me of getting Life Everlasting?" Church systems thru their creed have answered this question in this wise—Catholicism says only a few die and go straight to Heaven. The majority of Catholics at death spend a long period is purgatory and there is no chance of these being afterwards transferred from this place of Purgatory to Heaves asd all the others must spend their eternity in fire and brimestone being tormented for eve sdlll! s s. wr;ueheso?hqnh ever by fire proof demons. The answer of the creeds of the various Protestant Systems is really worse than the Catholics. Accordisg to their theory (the Protestants) no Purgatory even is provided. There is no hope of Life Everlasting in happiness according to their theory except for those who become members of the Church and die and go to Heaven. All others must spend Eternity being tormented by fire proof devils. Is there any wonder that the reasonable minded and sensible minded men would have neglected the Churches and Bibles and even turned against God? Forced to believe that this was the only provision made for the future happiness and welfare of man these reasonable minded persons most of them, have disregarded all Bible teachings. This of course has been a great mistake.

Entering the twentieth century great truths are being unfolded to mankind. The progress in invention science and Education in general is more marked in this century than ever before, and with it has come a greater enlightenment of the people concerning the deep truths in the Bible, because the time is here for these to be understood by those who reverence Jehovah. And now students of the scripture are finding out that the Bible means exactly what it says; Namely, that Jehovah provided through the death and resurection of Jesus a purchase price for all men and in God's due time a knowledge of this fact must be brought to all because he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man (Christ Jesus) whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance to all men, in that he hath raised Jesus from the dead."—Acts 17:31.

When are all these precious promises due to be fulfilled? Referring to some of our previous remarks concerning the end of the world. we again quote the words of the Master:

"And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou should give reward unto thy servants and prophets and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name."—Rev. 11:18. Clearly then, many of these great truths are now due to be understood because the old order is now passing away and the new order is coming in at this very time which is clear to the reasonable minded. Jesus taught, and every one of his disciples emphasized, his second coming and the establishmest of the Kingdom. One of them referring to that glorious time wrote: Times Gally 3 of refreshing srall come from the face of the Lord (Jehovah) and he shall send Jesus Christ which before was preached unto you whom the Heaven must retain until the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his Holy Prophets since the world began—Acts 3:19-21.

Therefore the time must come when there shall be offered to mankind the blessisgs of being restored to the condition that Adam enjoyed before he sinned; namely, perfection of body and mind, and perfection of conditions surrounding him, which would insure his peace, and everlasting happiness.

Claremore Race Notes

Considering the opportunities for economic improvement to be had by the members of our group in Claremore, the Race here has made a deal of progress, especially in individual cases

Aside from the two bath houses, principal of which is the Cobb Bath House, there are scarcely more than a half dozen places of business in the town conducted by Colored men. Chief among these is the Claremore Confectionery commonly known as the Rainey's Place of which Wm. Rainey is the Proprietor Mr. Rainey came to the State eleven years ago and located in Claremore, landing with a good appetite and $15,00 Both have increased materially since that time and as a result he is now a much bigger man both in avorduPois and in worldly wealth.

Soon after his arrival, Mr. Rainey has successfully conducted a meat market and grocery store and with the assistance of his wife only, has made a very comendable showing. He owns besides his own home a half block of business property which he says he is nursing for a future golden egg

A E Watson conducts one of the two tailoring establishments in the town. Mr. Watson is among the home owners asd is a progressive pioneer citizens of the town and much respected. He is a true, fearless Race man who believes and says that the Race Press has done more for the Race than anything else

COBB'S BATH HOUSE

This institution which has done more than can be easily told in a newspaper story to restore health to suffering humasity through the water which has made Claremore famous as a health resort is cosducted by E Cobb who located in Claremore ten years ago coming from Hot Sprisgs, Ark With the tact and ingenuity of a true business man, Mr Cobb has hung on smilisg when there was probably little to induce a smile and continually pushisg his business until he has acquired a good share of some of the best property in Claremore. He owns a full half block and eleven lots five of which have business houses on them.

Mrs. Cobb, of course comes in for her share of whatever praise her husband is entitled to for his acquisition of wealth, because she has been and is now a valuable as well as a lovable helpmate to her husband. She personally looks after the inside intricacies peculiar to a business of this kind and in this way has been of inestimable value to their success.

What the Race here lacks in business enterprises is pleasingly offet by the number who own homes

MISSED HER MAN BY A HAIR

An unknown Colored woman created quite a sensation about noon on Wednesday at the Frisco Station near the American Express Office, when she shot at "huh" man over some difficulty and just missed him by the fraction of an inch. She was taken into custody by the police.

OUR POLITICAL FAITH.

"All men are born equal and endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."—Thomas Jefferson.

We believe in the principles of true Democracy as promulgated by the patriot, Thomas Jefferson, and without fear or favor, we will be found at all times fighting for an honest, impartial application of these principles to all men regardless of race or color.

OUR RELIGIOUS FAITH.

To live as near as we can to our own conception of our duty to God and to our fellowmen; to do right and live right at all times as God has given us the conscience to see and feel it.

We believe man's greatest service to God may be rendered through honest, unselfish service to mankind,

We believe in the Golden Rule and practice it.

We fear only to do wrong.

THE FACTS REMAIN THE SAME.

THE BLACK DISPATCH of Oklahoma City threw a spasm in last week's issue in an attempt to ridicule the Star because of an editorial concerning the action of certain members of our group following the lynching of Claude Chandler in the Capitol City three weeks ago.

The Star feels no regret in the matter and offers no retraction of our former position.

Our information came from a reliable citizen of that city and we have no reason to doubt his veracity, the tirades in the Black Dispatch to the contrary notwithstanding.

In spite of all that may be said by the Black Dispatch, it remains a fact that a Colored boy was taken from the jail in the capital city and lynched while the editor of the Black Dispatch and others like him were asleep or at a good safe distance from the jail. Chandler had been arrested in connection with the killing of two officers and put in jail in Oklahoma City.

Any Colored man in Oklahoma City with half the common sense he ought to have should have known there were probabilities of an attempted lynching under the circumstances long before the lone man took the prisoner from the jailer. Certainly the editor of the Black Dispatch should have known it, and we believe he did know it. Had he manifested the same courage in offering protection to the Chandler boy while he was a prisoner in the jail there, that seems to have been his in writing and publishing the spineless and useless editorial ridiculing the Star perhaps the Chandler boy would now be living and the courageous "Race men" of Oklahoma City who armed themselves and paraded the streets (in the Colored section of the city). After the lynching had occurred would have saved themselves from the odious charge of wilfull neglect of duty, if not downright cowardice. While the boy was in jail and while there was danger of mob violence any set of citizens had a legal right—it was their duty—to arm themselves and march in a body to the jail and apprice the the sheriff or jailer of the purpose of their visit and to take life if need be to uphold the law and protect the prisoner. No man or set of men have any right to conspire and arm themselves to desecrate the law, but any man or set of men may rightfully and legally take up arms to defend and uphold the law.

It is a custom in some localities, however, and the Capital City is no exception, for officers, and white men who are not officers, when there is apprehension of trouble between the races, to disarm Colored men while the whites are given absolute freedom going about unmolested whenever and wherever they will. No man should arm himself except for the purpose of self protection or to uphold the majesty of the law and when he is thus armed no officer has any right to divest him of his arms and he is a coward who would surrender his arms under such circumstances, regardless of the number against him.

The Tulsa Star is unalterably opposed to mob violence, regardless of the color of the men composing the mob, and while we recognize the old adage that "the pen is mightier than the sword," we have not confined our attacks on mobs alone to take the pen. We have had some actual experience with the cowards who compose mobs, which has convinced us that two or three determined men armed for the occasion can thwart the purpose of any mob if they act in earnest and in time.

The editor of the Black Dispatch can not escape his share of the responsibility for Chandler's death by publishing noisy editorials which mean nothing and does less toward moulding public sentiment against mob violence.

"WHEN TWO STRONG MEN MEET FACE TO FACE."

THE DEBATE between the Hon. Richard J. Hill and the Rev. H. T. S. Johnson in the Convention hall on the 28th of this month, will afford the public a splendid opportunity of hearing an intelligent discussion of the Bible and orthodox religion as compared to the so-called Russell Religion. Mr. Hill, who is an International Bible Student is a man of liberal education with special training as a lawyer, while his opponent in the debate is considered one of the best prepared ministers in Tulsa, regardless of race or color. Both are men of unusual attainments intellectually, and for this reason the debate should be highly instructive.

One thing is certain. There is a decided unrest among thinkiing people without the churches and no little dissatisfaction among those wihin the churches who have grown weary of the old order of things and are now demanding the searchlight of truth on the Divine Plan of human Salvation. Therefore, the Star predicts a large attendance at this debate. It will certainly be worth while for any business man to lay aside everythink and go to the Convention hall to hear these able men.

COLORED WOMEN with progressive political ideas and that native spirit of feminine independence do not take well to the mandate from the National Colored Republican headquarters that all Race women vote the Harding-Coolidge ticket. There is not better proof of women's right to suffrage. Doubtless our women have recognized our mistakes and evidently intend to profit by them. Who knows, but that the women will save us, after all—God bless 'em!

REPUBLICAN POLITICIANS are using the same old time worn tactics in their efforts to cinch the Colored vote for the republican ticket, but Colored men like men of other races, are thinking some for themselves and as a result will not allow themselves to be hog-tied to the tail of the G. O. P.

REPUBLICAN DUPLICITY is not unknown to the Colored voters of Tulsa will not go unrewarded.

DODGING FEDERAL TAXES.

ONE OF THE CURIOUS THINGS in connection with our war taxes is the fact that no Federal tax has been laid upon idle land. Taxes have been laid upon incomes, upon profits, and upon all manner of businesses, but not one cent does the Federal Government get from those who own the unused lands of the country, which have increased in value so enormously.

And this ownership represents a stupendous sum. The Committee of Manufacturers and Merchants on Federal Taxation, with headquarters at Chicago, estimates that between $50,000,000,000 and $60,000,000,000 worth of vacant land pays no taxes at all to the Federal Government. This leaves the whole war burden upon business and upon those who do the work of the country.

To correct this evil the Ralston-Nolandbil (H. R. 12397), lay a tax of one per cent on the privileges of owning land valued without improvements over $10,000. This includes urban, agricultural, coal, oil, mineral, timber, waterpower, etc. The tax would return to the Government about $1,000,000,000, and permit the remission of that amount from taxes on industry that enter into prices and increase the cost of living.

Apparently the proposal is meeting with approval, for over 13,000 firms and businesses have joined in the movement.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET IN TULSA OCT. 4TH

A call for a state-wide Republican convention signed by about 25 adherents of the G. O. P. has been issued designating Sunday October 4, as the day to assemble in Tulsa.

The question of registration and voting as well as other important questions will be discussed.

Mrs. Allen Pape of Dallas, Tex., is in the city visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill.

The Ladies Art Club was entertained at the residence of Mrs. Hooker on Independence, Wednesday afternoon.

Lawyer O. B. Jefferson of Muskogee, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

(Star News Service)

NEW YORK,—"For Sale—a man slave white in color, 23 years of age, common school education, several years training in American Navy, good mechanic, price $5,000." Such is the advertisement given to the International News Service by Jack Hardy, a white man, who says he is perfectly willing to go into self imposed slave conditions in order that he may repay a DEBT OF HONOR and gratitude to a WOMAN who has almost been a Mother to him. He says the woman has been his guide and benefactress all his life.

Jack sets a fine example to some scamps here in Oklahoma who prefer to make slaves of their actual winter.

FIRST COTTON BALE ARRIVES AT SAPULPA

Colored Farmer Is Given $25 Bonus; Growers Fear Rain Has Hurt Crop

M,- - .O SHRDL ETAARH SCM

Sapulpa, Okla., The first bale of cotton to be brought to Sapulpa was delivered today to the Sharpe gin by Will Thompson, who lives four miles east of town. The bale was sold for 8 cents a pound and a purse of $25.00 was collected from the business men of the city and presented toThompson.

That the costinued rains of the last few weekks have materially damaged the cotton crop of this section is the opinion of farmers here. Rotting bulbs, rust and blight and weevil worms are cited as some of the effects reported. Hope of a larger yield than has been made here in masy years is still held out, however, if the present sunshiny weather continues.

Mr E. P. Coker and his brother, Mr. R. H. Tucker, had the pleasure of going up in an Aeroplane Thursday, Sept. 16th. The Plane was driven by Ex-Police known asCrazy John Newport News, Va., Sept., 17—J. Thomas Newsome, Colored Lawyer, and member of the Colored Republican organizatiion in this city, stated that thus far the organization has taken no steps to line up Colored women voters in the coming election.

"There seems to be little interest in it among the Colored women," he said. "And whatever happens,it will not change the result from what it would have been if the amendment had not been passed.

KANSAS LAWYER VISITS TULSA IN INTEREST OF CONDEMNED SOLDIERS

Hon. T. W. Bell of Leavensworth, Kansas, considered the best lawyer in that state, who has made a Nation-wide reputation as a habeas corpus lawyer, adresed an audience of Tulsans at the A. M. E. Church, Monday night, his mission being to raise a fund for the defense of the thirty-one soldiers convicted and sentenced to life term at the Federal Prison at Leavensworth in connection with the Houston riot a few years ago.

According to Mr. Bell, about $8,000 is needed for the defense of the men before the Supreme Court the the United States. Of this sum he has raised $874.15 in Missouri, Kansas and Texas. His collection in Tulsa was $62.76.

COLORED WOMEN VOTERS NOT SO EASILY HANDLED

New York, Sept. 15—That Colored women in the South, enfranchised by Woman Suffrage Amendment, will be less easy to intimidate out of voting than men, is the assertion of the Current Bulletin of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Colored women are not going to submit to be as easily handled says the Bulletin, nor are they going to submit to disfranchisement as readily as Colored men in the past. Their record of protest against prejudice during past years is proof of the fact.

The Advancement Association is urging its branches throughout the country to form classes for the training of newly enfranchised women in the duties and privileges of voting.

CLAREMORE PHYSICIAN HAS MADE GOOD

Dr. Wm. Lee is the Races only physician in Claremore and while he has a large lucrative practice among numbers of our group his practice is by no means confined to members of his race. Many of his patients are among the white residents of the town and they have great faith in the ability and skill of their black doctor.

Dr. Lee is a graduate of the medical department of the University of West Tennessee, class 1906. His literary education was obtained in Lane College, Jackson, Tenn.

After graduating he followed the alluring invitations of the west and located in Weleetka, Okla., where he practced for three years. He then went to Kansas City and engaged in the practice of medicine for two and one-half years, returning after that time to Oklahoma, locating at Claremore, where he has since practiced.

Besides a beautiful home, Dr. Lee has acquired considerable business property. He is now preparing to erect a brick office building. He also owns considerable property in Cushing. Dr. Lee at present is taking a special practical sourse in cattle raising. He has about thirty head of fine cattle with which to train himself in the business and he gives every promise of developing a real cattle man as well as the good physician he already is or has the reputation of being.

Like most men who have been successful is life, Dr. Lee does not assume all the responsibility for the accumulated fruits of his labor. He is more than willing to share all he has, andalll that he is entitled to, with his wife, who he says, has been his greatest inspiration.

Dr. Lee was married in 1907 at Weleetka taking as a bride Miss Ora Alexander, a Creek Freedman. She still holds her allotment of 160 acres of land.

Bible Giants Meet Tuesday Nig't

HON. RICHARD J. HILL

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE ANXIOUSLY AWAITING CLASH BETWEEN TWO ABLE MEN IN CONVENTON HALL DEBATE

Both Men Primed and Ready For Battle Defending Their Respective Religious Reliefs

What religious faith should govern the people of the world, the Orthodox Christian religion or the religion of the late Pastor Russell? This is the big question to be debated in the Convention Hall, Tuesday night, Sept. 28, by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, International Bible Student and Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, pastor of the M. E. Church, both of Tulsa.

No little interest has been manifested in this debate since it was nounced and a large crowd of interested spectators of both races will be present to witness it. Many people who are identified with the various Churches of the city have expressed a keen interest in Mr. Hill's faith and the increasing number who attend his meetings in the Masonic Hall every first and third Sunday is proof that this interest is being gradually spread among the people of this city in all walks of life.

The ability of both men as public speakers and men of letters is generally recognized and will no doubt guarantee the large attendance now expeceted.

Both men say they are willing to leave the verdict to the audience and both feel confident of winding up victorious in the debate

"The time has come for the world to learn the truth about God's word, said Mr. Hill yesterday, "and I am only too glad to be used as the Lords instrument in shedding light on the Bible and its authentic teachings. I hope all of Rev. Johnson's members and many others, will be present to hear the debate."

The doors of the Convention Hall will be opened at seven o'clock and the debate will start promptly at 8 p. m. All seats will be free and there will be no collection.

N.W. Creek Baptists in Session at Drumiright

More Than Four Hundred Delegates Have Reported For Duty

(Special to Tulsa Star)

DUMWRIGHT, OKLA., Sept. 27—The Northwestern District Baptist Asociation, Rev. Wm. Drake, the well known pastor and race leader moderator, convened here Tuesday and will be in session until Sunday night. Fuly 200 delegates are in attendance. Rev. Drake is well pleased with the representation of the district and the enthusiasm of the deleggates, as well as with the cordial hospitality of the citizens of Drumwrght. The convention is holding its sessions in the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church.

White Man Murders Drumright Farmer.

White Man Arrested For Crime Released on Bond by Justice of the Peace

DRUMWRIGHT, OKLA., Sept. 22 E. S. Scout (white) who on the night of Sept. 15th, it is believed, shot and killed Wm. Hudspeth, a posperous farmer, of this vicinity, while he sat on his porch talking to his wife, today at his preliminary hearing before Justice Taylor asked for and was granted a 15 day continuance and allowed to go free on the same bond made by the defendant a week ago following his arrest for the murder of Hudspeth, which was the most heartless, cold blooded crime ever committed in this County. Sudspeth rented land from the white man and the two had quarreled the day of the killing.

The weapon used was a shot gun loaded with buck shot, and the murderer picked the cover of night to perpetrate this heinous crime, sneaking up to within 20 feet of his unsuspecting victim and fired point blank the full charge taking effect in Hudspeth's body, killing him insantly. The following day Scout was arrested, but was immediately granted bond by the justice of the Peace here.

Mr. Hudspeth was well thought of in this community.

Colored Children to Have Play Ground.

J. R. Garrett, President,
P. S. Thompson, Sec.,
J. E. Hardy, Asst. Sec.,
S. D. Hooker, Treas.

Dr. Robinson was elected Chairman of the Executive Committee.

OKLAHOMA DEMOCRATS TO MEET HERE

President Frank Reed Issues Call for Campaign Organization

(Star News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept 24—A dall has been issued by Frank Reed, President, and Fred Douglas, Secretary of the Colored Democracy of Oklahoma for a convention to be held in the city of Tulsa on October 2nd. A special train over the Frisco has been engaged to leave Oklahoma City on the first to bring the delegates from cities along that line to the meeting. President Reed in his call speaks encouragingly of the large numbers of Colored voters who are throwing off the republican yoke and joining the party of Jefferson. Many noted speakers are announced for this meeting, among them Gov. J. B. A. Robertson, and Congressmen Howard, Ferris and others.

Tulsa Star Efficient Force.

It is not generally known and understood by the public the energy money that must necesarly be expended in publishing a newspaper and even where sometimes these things are understood the proper appreciation is very seldom shown.

The Tulsa Sar which is the recognized leading Race journel in the State now employs ten people to aid in its editing, printing and circulation exclusive of agents employed outside of Tulsa.

These people all make their living from this enterprise and all do their share of sustaining the race's economic and commercian standing in the ommunity. This alone ordinarily entitles this establishment to a good share of patronage from business people of this city. There is no other printing establishment operated by our group in all the Southwest that employs so many of our people and probably none that pay better salaries.

Following is the line up of our working force:

A. J. Smitherman, Editor and Proprietor; H. A. Clark, Associate Editor and Auditor; Miss Nola Williamson, City reporter and Ofice girl; S. B. Gibson, Foreman Printing Department; Miss Gladys Beasley, Linotype Operator; J. H. C. Dillard, Machinist and Compositor; A. T. Mitchell, Pressman; Albert Smitherman, City Circulator; Theodore Smitherman, Janitor and Aprentice; A. T. Smitherman, Assistant Circulator.

We feel a special pride in organigation of our printing department which is as good as can be found any printing establishment in the state of similar capacity.

Mr. Gibson, our foreman, is an artistic and practical printer with 25 years' experience. For the past 15 years until last Saturday, he was foreman of the Mosaic Guide Printing Company at Little Rock and comes to us with the highest commendation.

Rev. Dillard, our Machinist and Compositor, is also an all-round printer with twenty years' erperience to his credit.

Miss Beasley, our Linotype Operator, is a product of Shorter College at Little Rock, where she learned the profession and put in three years practical machine work.

Mr. Mitchell, our pressman, is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute, where he mastered his trade in a 4 years' course. Afterwards being employed in one of the largest printing plants in Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Clark, our Associae Editor and Auditor is t man of long and varied experience in both Educational and Journalistic fields. He published years ago, the first democratic journal ever attempted by one of our people. He evidenced his versatility by his Editorial management of the late L. A. Bell's Wagoner American, a stalwart republican organ. He served his aprenticeship in journalism in office of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Clark is an expert book-keeper and acountant and his services to the Star are well nigh indispensable.

Miss Williamson, our City Reporter and office girl, a product of Langston University, is the daughter of a prosperous citizen of Pawnee. She is having her first experience in the newspaper world but is a very apt and willing student who is rapidly making good.

Mr. Albert Smitherman, our City Circulator is a real hustler. Under his administration, with the help of his assistants, this department has grown wonderfully. It is no longer possible to deliver the city papers with a walking force of carriers. We now use a horse nd cart and occasionally an auto to help in deliver ing papers.

With such a force as this, there is no way to impede the progress of the Tulsa Star in its onward march fighting at all times when necessary in defense of Right and Justice and for the advancement of our people, politically, morally and socially.

$75,000 Bond Opens New Graft for Muskogee Bunch.

COURT OFFICIALS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF TECHNICALITY TO ENFORCE AN ABSURD RACIAL DISTINCTION

(Star News Special)

MUSKOGEE, OKLA., Sept. 24—Is it a greater crime for a white man to be killed by one of our Race than for one of us to be murdered by a white man? This question has been running in the minds of the readers of the Star ever since the unfortunate episode through which Gus McIntyre, a white man, was shot and killed and Xenophon Jones, a youthful member of the Race was arrested and charged with murder. So far as the white people of this community are concerned, this custom was almost instantly answered in the affirmative, and this affirmation was indicated by the raising of a purse or sum of money for the purpose of employing specially gifted white attorneys to aid in the prosecution of the boy, Jones. It goes almost without saying that this spontaneous rallying together of the members of one race to assist in the prosecution of a member of another was founded upon race prejudice, and not upon that higher and worthier motive of qual justice and fair play. This was emphasized in a much more tangible fashion when the courts established a bond of $75,000 in the Jones' case.

This bond of $75,000, be it understood, was fixed at the time of the alleged murder of McIntyre and was given under the reasonable expectation and understading that the parties making this huge and racialy intimidating bond would be released upon the appearance of Jones at his trial on the charge of "assault to kill" on which he was held until through the subsequent death of McIntyre the charge was changed to "murder." Jones stood his trial, was convicted, and was given a life sentence to be served in the State penitentiary. Jones' attorney appealed the case to the higheh state court and pending its decisiin Jones was released on a bond of $10,000 said bond being fxed by the trial court.

The case has been bought to the attention of the public by the disapearance of Xenophon Jones at the time when in accordance with the decision handed down by the higher court the sentence imposed by the lower ciurt was affirmed and it was proper for him to give himself up and take his sentence. It is quite to be expected thatthe bond of $10,000 fixed by the trial court at the time of appeal would be forfeited and collected by authorized officials But not content with this, the prosecuing attorney of Muskogee County, W. W. Cotton, has inaugurated a suit to recover the original bond of $75,000—a bond given to make certain his appearance for trial for "assault to kill" or murder and for for which he stood trial and was convicted and sentenced.

The atitude of the Jones' attorneys in the trial now pending in the city court presided over by Judge Zick, is as follows: Attorney Crump charges the County Attorney with indulging in "child's play" and seeking to take advantage of technicalities. "If Jones was here right now," said Mr. Crump, "Mr. Cotton is not ready to try him, even if he had all his witnesses present; he could not try him because Jones was already tried in the District Court." Judge Zick held favorably to the request of the County Attorney by rendering the decision that "even if the defendant was present it would be necessary for his attorneys to introduce evidence to show that he had been

THE WORLD HAS ENDED AND MILLIONS NOW WALKING ABOUT UPON EARTH WILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE.

LISTEN! LISTEN!! LISTEN!!!

There is to be a big debate between Richard J. Hill, affirmative and H. T. S. Johnson, Negative at the Convention Hall, Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 28th beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. Subject, "Resolved That the Teachings of the International Bible Student Should Be Substituted, in the main, For What the Church Denominations Teach." Each speaker to use one hour and fifteen minutes, divided as follows: Afirmative, thirty minutes utes to open, thirty minutes rebuttal, fifteen minutes rebuttal and closing; the Negative forty-five minutes to open and thirty minutes to close.

Don't fail to hear this. This debate will be conducted upon high toned, Gentlemanly principles and with a view of enlightening the public concerning God's great plan of salvation for the human race during this hour of peril and anxiety.

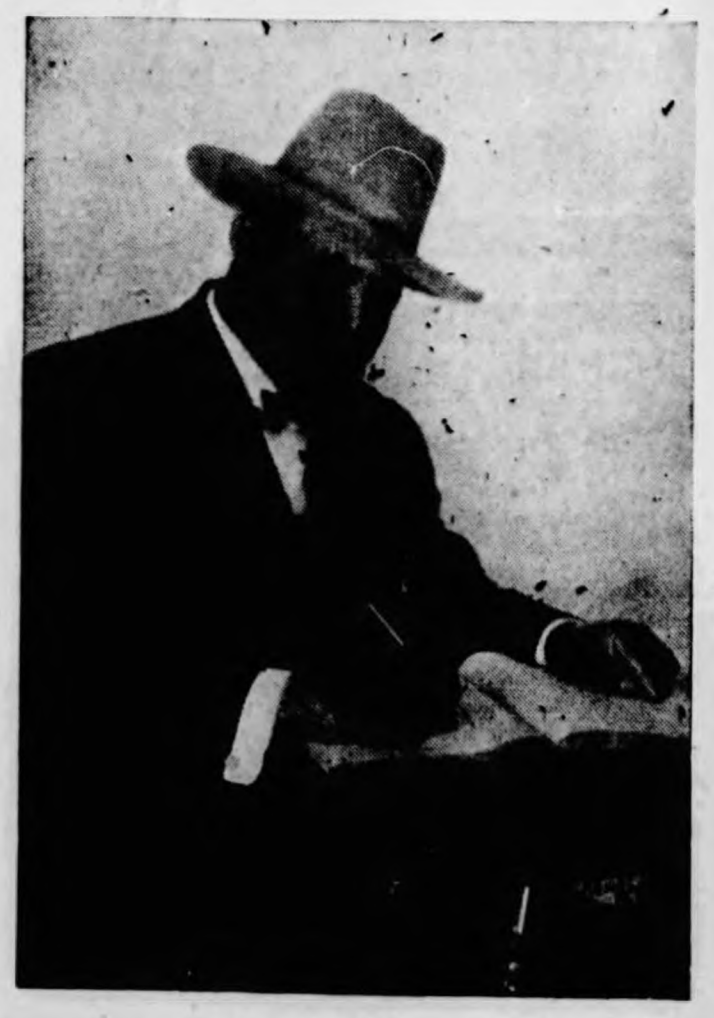
Seals Free and No Collections.

Are we nearing he fulfillment of the prophecy concerning the blessing of restitution for man? Note again the answer of Jesus concerning the end of the world "For then shall there be great tribulatios, such as was not since the beginsing of the world to this time, no, nor ever shal be. And except those days should be shortened there shonld be no flesh saved; but for the Elects sake those days shall be shortened." Matt. 24: 21-22.

This saying of Jesus is subjected to only one interpretation; namely that the old order will completely pass away by the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known; that there will never be another such time of trouble that it will be so great that all the human race would perish from the earth unless the Lord would cause it to be shortened, for his Elects sake, namely, those whom he has elected or taken out of the world. The Lord Jesus and the true Christians for the sake of those days will be shortened and will therefore result in many human beings passing through this time of trouble without dieing. Why should should he Lord permit any to scape death in that time of trouble unless he expected to do them some good? Why say for the Elects sake that he is going to shorten the time and thus save many from death? There can be but one conclusion. The elects constitute the seed of Abraham according to the promise through which blessings shall b ministered to the remainder of mankind. Therefore God would spare some of the human race to pass through this time of trouble so that the elects might begin the reconstruction work of the human family, first with those who remained on earth, out of the grave.

Again refering to the great time of trouble that is now afflicting mankind, he prophet of the Lord, wrote, "Add it shall come to pass that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third part shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire (the fire of trouble) and will refine them as silver is refined and try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my name and I will hear them, I will say it is my people ; and they shall say the Lord is my God."—Zachariah 13:8-9. Why bring part of the people through the fiery trouble unless it is God's purpose to give them a chance to accept the blessing that shall be ministered through Christ? Really this is the purpose; for he says, these will hear him and behim.

Again, Prophet of the Lord, speaking concerning hose who love righteousness is this time; "Blessed is he come his people and be obedient to that cosidereth the poor; the Lord will preserve him and keep him alive and he shall be blessed upon the earth Not in Heaven); and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies."—Psa. 41:1-2. This is a wonder incentive for men in this hour of great disturbance and distres to be considerate of the poor and aftheir neighbors, to live in peace and time of trouble—Zephaniah 2:2-3. do all theycas to honor the Lord. Such are the ones that are promised deliverance in the time of trouble.



Those who seek meekness and righteousness and avoid turmoilsare especially promised protection in the time if trouble—Zephaniah 2:2-3.

Referring again to the same great stress upon the world and what shall follow thereafter, the Prophet of Jehovah said, "wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day I rise up to destroy; for my determisation is to gather the nations together, that I may assemble the Kingdoms to pour upon them my indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured by the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the people a pure message, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent, Zeph 3:8-9. Why turn to the people a pure message after this time of trouble is over unless Gid intends that the people should profit by it?

Many children have been left fatherless in the recent war and revolution, and with comfort the Lord's Prophet says, "O save thy fatherless unto and given the opportunity of ble is over unless God istends that children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me."—Jer. 49:11.

After those who pass through the time of trouble have bees ministered unto and give the opportunity of blessings by the Messiah, then those who have slept in their graves shall be awakened asd given a knowledge of the truth. That will be their due time to hear the message concerning the ransom. Marvel not this, for the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth, they that have done good unto a resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto a resurrection by judgment."—John 5:28-29, Revised Version. There shall be a Resurrection of the dead both of the jest and the unjust."—Act 24:15. Christ is risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man, Adam came death, so by man, Christ Jesus came also the resurrection of the dead. For as all in Adam died, even so all in Christ shall be made alive. But every man in his own order."—(Cor. 15:20-23. The Epistle then proceeds to show that the Messiah must reign until he hath put all enemies under his foot. The last enemy that shall be destriyed is death."

It will be during the reign of the glorious Messiah that the following text will be fully realized: If a man keep my sayings, he shall sever see death." It cannotbe said that a man in the true sense, lives until he has a legal right to live, and the legal right to live will come to him only when it is offered as a Gracious Gift thru Christ Jesus as the Epistle stipulates. (Rom. 6:23, 5:18-19). Jesus declared and whosoever liveth and believeth shall never die. (John 11:26 This scripture must have fulfillment, and the time for the beginning of its fulfillment is the beginning of the restitution times, which commence with the reign of Messiah. The old order of being dead and passing away, and the new coming in, there are millions of persons on this earth now who will pass through that time of trouble and who, obeying the Lord's righteous rules shall never die The Prophet of Job has given us a beautiful picture of the arrangement for the restoration of mankind. He describes a man who is old and sick and who has the message of truth concerning the ransom brought to him and he believes this message and accepts the Lord's teachings and obeys the righteous rules and is restored to his youth,and his flesh becomes fresher than that of a child. Many old persons in the world today should be glad to learn o fthis message informing them that they are right near the time, when if they are obedient to the laws of God they will begin to grow younger until their flesh is fresher than that of a child. Listen to this beautiful scripture: "He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. He, man, is chastened also with pain upon his bed and the multitude of his bones with strong pain; so that his life abhorreth even dainty meat. His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers. If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand to show unto man his uprighteousness; then he, the Lord, is gracious unto him, and saith, deliver him from going down the pit; I (says the man) have found a ransom. His flesh shall become fresher than a hild's; he shall return to the days of his youth. He shall pray usto God and he will be favorable unto him; He shall see his face with joy; for he will render unto man his righteousness."—Job 33:18-27.

Saint John, the follower of the Lord Jesus was convicted of the alleged crime of sedition and banished to the Isle of Patmos. While he was there a a convict in a rock quarry, the Lord visited him and gave him a wonderful mental vision of the blessings to come. St. John saw the incomig of theGolden Age and sublimely described it thus,—"And I saw a new Heaven and a new Earth for the first Heaven and the first earth were passed away and there was no more sea and I, John, saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem (new Government upon earth) coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a Bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of Heaven saying, "Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men (On earth not in Heaven) and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God.' And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things have passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said," Behold, I will make all things new."—Rev. 21:1-5.

In this Glorious reign if Christ the great enemy ofmankind, death, will be destroyed. When there is no more death to ravage the human race, the people of earth will live in joy, in happiness, and in peace forever.

(A. N. P. Service.)

BROOKLYN, N. Y. Sept. 24—Determined ti break the non-working conditions among the longshoremes for the last two weeks on the White Star piers, officials of the line adopted radical measures. The Irish longshoremen "vacatonists," who have been out since the Baltic arrived were ignred and no appeal was made to them to come to work.

This firm had 200 Colored longshoremen ready at the outside of the pier at 7 a. m. Twosergeants and 25 policemen were ready to suppress any rioting, but there was no disorder.

DEFIED DEATH TO SAVE EMPLOYER

(A. N. P. Service)

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 24.—Alex Wilder, farmhand and ex-soldier defied death when he descended into a gas impregnated well to rescue his employer, Joe Patterson and his son, Frank Patterson (white) both of whom had been overcome by the fumes. The beroism was unavailisg. fumes. The heroism was unavailing. Though he succeeded in bringing both white men to the surface, their lives were extinct.

Wilder, realizing what had happened, ran to his cabin a few yards away and returned with the gas mask he had worn overseas. Without hesitation he dropped into the death pit. Help had arrived and ropes were lowered to Wilder who fastened 'em about the bodies of the victims. When they were houled to the top, it was found that both men were dead. Wil-

Bible Giants Meet Tuesday Nig't

What religious faith should govern the people of the world, the Orthodox Christian religion or the religion of the late Pastor Russell? This is the big question to be debated in the Convention Hall, Tuesday night, Sept. 28, by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, International Bible Student and Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, pastor of the M. E. Church, both of Tulsa.

No little interest has been manifested in this debate since it was nounced and a large crowd of interested spectators of both races will be present to witness it. Many people who are identified with the various Churches of the city have expressed a keen interest in Mr. Hill's faith and the increasing number who attend his meetings in the Masonic Hall every first and third Sunday is proof that this interest is being gradually spread among the people of this city in all walks of life.

The ability of both men as public speakers and men of letters is generally recognized and will no doubt guarantee the large attendance now expected.

Both men say they are willing to leave the verdict to the audience and both feel confident of winding up victorious in the debate

"The time has come for the world to learn the truth about God's word, said Mr. Hill yesterday, "and I am only too glad to be used as the Lords instrument in shedding light on the Bible and its authentic teachings. I hope all of Rev. Johnson's members and many others, will be present to hear the debate."

The doors of the Convention Hall will be opened at seven o'clock and the debate will start promptly at 8 p. m. All seats will be free and there will be no collection.

Drake is well pleased with the representation of the district and the enthusiasm of the deleggates, as well as with the cordial hospitality of the citizens of Drumwrght. The convention is holding its sessions in the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church.

White Man Murders Drumright Farmer.

DRUMWRIGHT, OKLA., Sept. 22 E. S. Scout (white) who on the night of Sept. 15th, it is believed, shot and killed Wm. Hudspeth, a posperous farmer, of this vicinity, while he sat on his porch talking to his wife, today at his preliminary hearing before Justice Taylor asked for and was granted a 15 day continuance and allowed to go free on the same bond made by the defendant a week ago following his arrest for the murder of Hudspeth, which was the most heartless, cold blooded crime ever committed in this County. Sudspeth rented land from the white man and the two had quarreled the day of the killing.

The weapon used was a shot gun loaded with buck shot, and the murderer picked the cover of night to perpetrate this heincus crime, sneaking up to within 20 feet of his unsuspecting victim and fired point blank the full charge taking effect in Hudspeth's body, killing him insantly. The following day Scout was arrested, but was immediately granted bond by the justice of the Peace here.

Mr. Hudspeth was well thought of in this community.

Tulsa Star Efficient Force.

It is not generally known and understood by the public the energy money that must necesarly be expended in publishing a newspaper and even where sometimes these things are understood the proper appreciation is very seldom shown.

The Tulsa Sar which is the recognized leading Race journel in the State now employs ten people to aid in its editing, printing and circulation exclusive of agents employed outside of Tulsa.

These people all make their living from this enterprise and all do their share of sustaining the race's economic and commercian standing in the ommunity. This alone ordinarily entitles this establishment to a good share of patronage from business people of this city. There is no other printing establishment operated by our group in all the Southwest that employs so many of our people and probably none that pay better salaries.

Following is the line up of our working force:

A. J. Smitherman, Editor and Proprietor; H. A. Clark, Associate Editor and Auditor; Miss Nola Williamson, City reporter and Ofice girl; S. B. Gibson, Foreman Printing Department; Miss Gladys Beasley, Linotype Operator; J. H. C. Dillard, Machinist and Compositor; A. T. Mitchell, Pressman; Albert Smitherman, City Circulator; Theodore Smitherman, Janitor and Aprentice; A. T. Smitherman, Assistant Circulator.

We feel a special pride in organigation of our printing department which is as good as can be found any printing establishment in the state of similar capacity.

Mr. Gibson, our foreman, is an artistic and practical printer with 25 years' experience. For the past 15 years until last Saturday, he was foreman of the Mosaic Guide Printing Company at Little Rock and comes to us with the highest commendation.

Rev. Dillard, our Machinist and Compositor, is also an all-round printer with twenty years' erperience to his credit.

Miss Beasley, our Linotype Operator, is a product of Shorter College at Little Rock, where she learned the profession and put in three years practical machine work.

Mr. Mitchell, our pressman, is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute, where he mastered his trade in a 4 years' course. Aferwards being employed in one of the largest printing plants in Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Clark, our Associae Editor and Auditor is t man of long and varied experience in both Educational and Journalistic fields. He published years ago, the first democratic journal ever attempted by one of our people. He evidenced his versatility by his Editorial management of the late L. A. Bell's Wagoner American, a stalwart republican organ. He served his aprenticeship in journalism in office of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Clark is an expert book-keeper and acountant and his services to the Star are well nigh indispensable.

Miss Williamson, our City Reporter and office girl, a product of Langston University, is the daughter of a prosperous citizen of Pawnee. She is having her first experience in the newspaper world but is a very apt and willing student who is rapidly making good.

Mr. Albert Smitherman, our City Circulator is a real hustler. Under his administration, with the help of his assistants, this department has grown wonderfully. It is no longer possible to deliver the city papers with a walking force of carriers. We now use a horse nd cart and occasionally an auto to help in deliver ing papers.

With such a force as this, there is no way to impede the progress of the Tulsa Star in its onward march fighting at all times when necessary in defense of Right and Justice and for the advancement of our people, politically, morally and socially.

$75,000 Bond Opens New Graft for Muskogee Bunch.

COURT OFFICIALS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF TECHNICALITY TO ENFORCE AN ABSURD RACIAL DISTINCTION

(Star News Special)

MUSKOGEE, OKLA., Sept. 24—Is it a greater crime for a white man to be killed by one of our Race than for one of us to be murdered by a white man? This question has been running in the minds of the readers of the Star ever since the unfortunate episode through which Gus McIntyre, a white man, was shot and killed and Xenophon Jones, a youthful member of the Race was arrested and charged with murder. So far as the white people of this community are concerned, this custom was almost instantly answered in the affirmative, and this affirmation was indicated by the raising of a purse or sum of money for the purpose of employing specially gifted white attorneys to aid in the prosecution of the boy, Jones. It goes almost without saying that this spontaneous rallying together of the members of one race to assist in the prosecution of a member of another was founded upon race prejudice, and not upon that higher and worthier motive of qual justice and fair play. This was emphasized in a much more tangible fashion when the courts established a bond of $75,000 in the Jones' case.

This bond of $75,000, be it understood, was fixed at the time of the alleged murder of McIntyre and was given under the reasonable expectation and understading that the parties making this huge and racialy intimidating bond would be released upon the appearance of Jones at his trial on the charge of "assault to kill" on which he was held until through the subsequent death of McIntyre the charge was changed to "murder." Jones stood his trial, was convicted, and was given a life sentence to be served in the State penitentiary. Jones' attorney appealed the case to the higheh state court and pending its decisiin Jones was released on a bond of $10,000 said bond being fxed by the trial court.

The case has been bought to the attention of the public by the disapearance of Xenophon Jones at the time when in accordance with the decision handed down by the higher court the sentence imposed by the lower ciurt was affirmed and it was proper for him to give himself up and take his sentence. It is quite to be expected thatthe bond of $10,000 fixed by the trial court at the time of appeal would be forfeited and collected by authorized officials But not content with this, the prosecuing attorney of Muskogee County, W. W. Cotton, has inaugurated a suit to recover the original bond of $75,000—a bond given to make certain his appearance for trial for "assault to kill" or murder and for for which he stood trial and was convicted and sentenced.

The atitude of the Jones' attorneys in the trial now pending in the city court presided over by Judge Zick, is as follows: Attorney Crump charges the County Attorney with indulging in "child's play" and seeking to take advantage of technicalities. "If Jones was here right now," said Mr. Crump, "Mr. Cotton is not ready to try him, even if he had all his witnesses present; he could not try him because Jones was already tried in the District Court." Judge Zick held favorably to the request of the County Attorney by rendering the decision that "even if the defendant was present it would be necessary for his attorneys to introduce evidence to show that he had been

THE WORLD HAS ENDED AND MILLIONS NOW WALKING ABOUT UPON EARTH WILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE.

LISTEN! LISTEN!! LISTEN!!!

There is to be a big debate between Richard J. Hill, affirmative and H. T. S. Johnson, Negative at the Convention Hall, Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 28th beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. Subject, "Resolved That the Teachings of the International Bible Student Should Be Substituted, in the main, For What the Church Denominations Teach." Each speaker to use one hour and fifteen minutes, divided as follows: Afirmative, thirty minutes utes to open, thirty minutes rebuttal, fifteen minutes rebuttal and closing; the Negative forty-five minutes to open and thirty minutes to close.

Don't fail to hear this. This debate will be conducted upon high toned, Gentlemanly principles and with a view of enlightening the public concerning God's great plan of salvation for the human race during this hour of peril and anxiety.

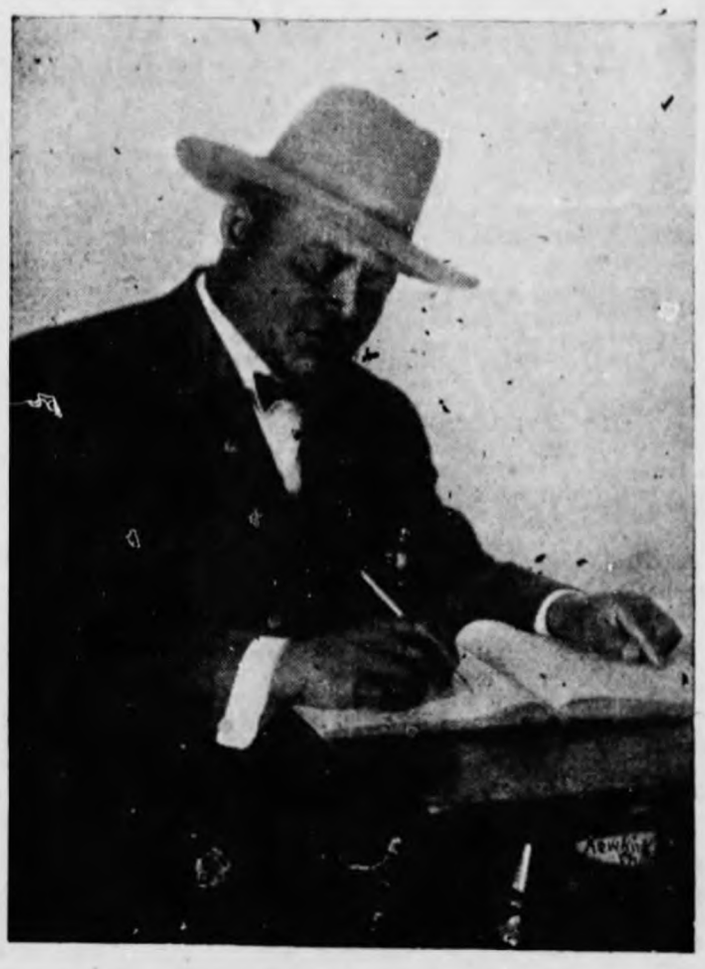
Seats Free and No Collections.

Are we nearing he fulfillment of the prophecy concerning the blessing of restitution for man? Note again the answer of Jesus concerning the end of the world "For then shall there be great tribulatios, such as was not since the beginsing of the world to this time, no, nor ever shal be. And except those days should be shortened there shonld be no flesh saved; but for the Elects sake those days shall be shortened." Matt. 24: 21-22.

This saying of Jesus is subjected to only one interpretation: namely that the old order will completely pass away by the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known; that there will never be another such time of trouble that it will be so great that all the human race would perish from the earth unless the Lord would cause it to be shortened, for his Elects sake, namely, those whom he has elected or taken out of the world. The Lord Jesus and the true Christians for the sake of those days will be shortened and will therefore result in many human beings passing through this time of trouble without dieing. Why should should he Lord permit any to scape death in that time of trouble unless he expected to do them some good? Why say for the Elects sake that he is going to shorten the time and thus save many from death? There can be but one conclusion. The elects constitute the seed of Abraham according to the promise through which blessings shall b ministered to the remainder of mankind. Therefore God would spare some of the human race to pass through this time of trouble so that the elects might begin the reconstruction work of the human family, first with those who remained on earth, out of the grave.

Again refering to the great time of trouble that is now afflicting mankind, he prophet of the Lord, wrote, "Add it shall come to pass that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third part shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire (the fire of trouble) and will refine them as silver is refined and try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my name and I will hear them, I will say it is my people ; and they shall say the Lord is my God."—Zachariah 13:8-9. Why bring part of the people through the fiery trouble unless it is God's purpose to give them a chance to accept the blessing that shall be ministered through Christ? Really this is the purpose; for he says, these will hear him and behim.

Again, Prophet of the Lord, speaking concerning hose who love righteousness is this time; "Blessed is he come his people and be obedient to that cosidereth the poor; the Lord will preserve him and keep him alive and he shall be blessed upon the earth Not in Heaven); and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies."—Psa. 41:1-2. This is a wonder incentive for men in this hour of great disturbance and distres to be considerate of the poor and af-their neighbors, to live in peace and time of trouble—Zephaniah 2:2-3. do all theycas to honor the Lord. Such are the ones that are promised deliverance in the time of trouble.



Those who seek meekness and righteousness and avoid turmoilsare especially promised protection in the time if trouble—Zephaniah 2:2-3.

Referring again to the same great stress upon the world and what shall follow thereafter, the Prophet of Jehovah said, "wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day I rise up to destroy; for my determisation is to gather the nations together, that I may assemble the Kingdoms to pour upon them my indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured by the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the people a pure message, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent, Zeph 3:8-9. Why turn to the people a pure message after this time of trouble is over unless Gid intends that the people should profit by it?

Many children have been left fatherless in the recent war and revolution, and with comfort the Lord's Prophet says, "O save thy fatherless unto and given the opportunity of ble is over unless God istends that children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me."—Jer. 49:11.

After those who pass through the time of trouble have bees ministered unto and give the opportunity of blessings by the Messiah, then those who have slept in their graves shall be awakened asd given a knowledge of the truth. That will be their due time to hear the message concerning the ransom. Marvel not this, for the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth, they that have done good unto a resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto a resurrection by judgment."—John 5:28-29, Revised Version. There shall be a Resurrection of the dead both of the just and the unjust."—Act 24:15. Christ is risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man, Adam came death, so by man, Christ Jesus came also the resurrection of the dead. For as all in Adam died, even so all in Christ shall be made alive. But every man in his own order."—(Cor. 15:20-23. The Epistle then proceeds to show that the Messiah must reign until he hath put all enemies under his foot. The last enemy that shall be destriyed is death."

It will be during the reign of the glorious Messiah that the following text will be fully realized: If a man keep my sayings, he shall sever see death." It cannotbe said that a man in the true sense, lives until he has a legal right to live, and the legal right to live will come to him only when it is offered as a Gracious Gift thru Christ Jesus as the Epistle stipulates. (Rom. 6:23, 5:18-19). Jesus declared and whosoever liveth and believeth shall never die. (John 11:26 This scripture must have fulfillment, and the time for the beginning of its fulfillment is the beginning of the restitution times, which commence with the reign of Messiah. The old order of being dead and passing away, and the new coming in, there are mnions of persons on this earth now who will pass through that time of trouble and who, obeying the Lord's righteous rules shall never die The Prophet of Job has given us a beautiful picture of the arrangement for the restoration of mankind. He describes a man who is old and sick and who has the message of truth concerning the ransom brought to him and he believes this message and accepts the Lord's teachings and obeys the righteous rules and is restored to his youth,and his flesh becomes fresher than that of a child. Many old persons in the world today should be glad to learn o fthis message informing them that they are right near the time, when if they are obedient to the laws of God they will begin to grow younger until their flesh is fresher than that of a child. Listen to this beautiful scripture: "He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. He, man, is chastened also with pain upon his bed and the multitude of his bones with strong pain; so that his life abhorreth even dainty meat. His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers. If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand to show unto man his uprighteousness; then he, the Lord, is gracious unto him, and saith, deliver him from going down the pit; I (says the man) have found a ransom. His flesh shall become fresher than a hild's; he shall return to the days of his youth. He shall pray usto God and he will be favorable unto him; He shall see his face with joy; for he will render unto man his righteousness."—Job 33:18-27.

Saint John, the follower of the Lord Jesus was convicted of the pleged crime of sedition and banished to the Isle of Patmos. While he was there a a convict in a rock quarry, the Lord visited him and gave him a wonderful mental vision of the blessings to come. St. John saw the incomig of theGolden Age and sublimely described it thus,—"And I saw a new Heaven and a new Earth for the first Heaven and the first earth were passed away and there was no more sea and I, John, saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem (new Government upon earth) coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a Bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of Heaven saying, "Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men (On earth not in Heaven) and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God.' And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things have passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said," Behold, I will make all things new."—Rev. 21:1-5.

In this Glorious reign if Christ the great enemy ofmankind, death, will be destroyed. When there is no more death to ravage the human race, the people of earth will live in joy, in happiness, and in peace forever.

RACE MEN SUPPLANT IRISHMEN

(A. N. P. Service.)

BROOKLYN, N. Y. Sept. 24—Determined ti break the non-working conditions among the longshoremes for the last two weeks on the White Star piers, officials of the line adopted radical measures. The Irish longshoremen "vacationists," who have been out since the Baltic arrived were ignred and no appeal was made to them to come to work.

This firm had 200 Colored longshoremen ready at the outside of the pier at 7 a. m. Twosergeants and 25 policemen were ready to suppress any rioting, but there was no disorder.

HILL IS WINNER OF THE DEBATE

Eminent Minister Was no Match for Advocate of Pastor Russell's Teachings

(By Special Correspondent)

It may not have been unanimous. but a good majority of the people of both races who heard the debate at the convention hall Tuesday night. between Richard J. Hill and the Rev H. T. S. Johnson left the hall irrevocable in their opinion that while Rev. Johnson is unquestionably a deep thinker and a good speaker he was nevertheless no match for his opponent.

Two hours and thirty minutes were consumed by the speakers, each having one hour and fifteen minutes in which to present their respective arguments. About 500 people fully one-half of whom were white heard the debate and all of them seemed very much interested.

Mr. Hill opened the debate on the affirmative side of the question. which was "Resolved that the teachings of the International Bible Students should be substituted for the doctrines of the Church denominations."

In opening the negative side of the question. Rev. Johnson read excerpts from the International Bible Students' Monthly and quoted Mark 16: 16, which reads: "He that believeth and is baptised. the same shall be saved and he that believeth not shall be damned," using this as Bible proof that there must be eternal punishment after death.

In his rebuttal. Mr. Hill said, "I am not surprised the poor people of the world are wrapped in such ignorance and darkness concerning the Bible, when our most learned and educated, College bred Ministers show such absolute ignorance of the Bible and God's great plan of alvation. I am very much surprised that my worthy opponent does not know that the Scriptures he has just read to you (Mark 16:16) is generally recognized by all Bible Students and Professors of his own theological institutions and any one else who knows anything about the scriptures as no part of the origial Bible but interpolations." Then for 20 minutes, Mr. Hill dwelt on the teachings of the International Bible Students giving Bible references to show the correctness of the same.

The full text of the debate will appear in the Star as soon as the transcribed copy can be obtained from an official court reporter who took in shorthand every word of the debate.

In closing the debate Mr. Hill warmed up to his subject and in a very eloquent and convincing way drove home the final points which. in the opinion of the writer, proved him easily master of the situation.

Republicans Hold Convention Monday

State-Wide Delegation Expected To Attend Tulsa Meet of G. O. P. Henchmen

That Tulsa is considered the center of political actvity among the Colored people of this State is proven by the fact that the State organization of republicans and democrats have called conventions to meet in this city within two days of each other. The democratic organization is in session today and the repubulican organization will convene here Monday.

The Colored voters of Tulsa are about evenly divided in their political faiths and it is expected that both conventions will be well attended by Tulsans as well as visiting delegates. Both coventions are expected to make some definite demands of their respective parties for promises of specific legislation to guarantee fair play and equality before the law of all citizens of this State regardless of race or color.

OFFICER TO FACE MURDER CHARGE

Following the filing of a murder charge this forenoon against S. R. Grosse, patrolman. who late Saturday night shot and killed Clem Williams, Creek Indian at the Farmers' wagon yard on Hodge st., between Lansing ave. and Admiral boulevard it was announced late today that the case would be taken before the grand jury now in session here. The complaint was sworn to by William's wife.

Grosse's plea will be self defense. The officer's statement is to the effect that when he walked up to the side of an auomobile occupied by an indentified white man Williams handing him a quart bottle of corn whiskey. Seizing the whisky Grosse placed Williams under arrest.

Williams grew boisterous in his denounciation of the officer, and grabbing the bottle hurled it against a fence breaking it, and then running to get a revolver. At that time, Grosse says he shot Williams once in the abdomen.

No weapon of any kind was found on Williams after his death. According to police officers Williams has been known as a bootlegger for several years.

Justice at Last Opens Her Eyes in Virginia

Black Who Shot Bystander to Protect His Home Acquitted

NEWPORT NEWS. Va. Sept, 30—a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Simon Wise Lewis a white seaman from Texas. The killing took place at Carr's home ten days ago and it was contended that when Carr fired the fatal shot he was attempting to defend his home from a mob engaged in rioting. Evidence bought out that Lewis had nothing to do with the riot and was merely walking along the avenue when he was killed.

Colored Democrats Meet Here

Delegates From all Parts of the State are Expected to Attend Meeting

Among the speakers at the morning session are: Hon. W. B. Williams, county judge. Cangressman E. B. Howard. Judge M A. Breckenridge and Rev. R. A. Whitaker.

Why The Missouri Colored People Vote Democrat Ticket

CITIZEN OF "SHOW ME" STATE WRITES INTERESTING LETTER TO ST. LOUIS EDITOR SHOWING COMPARATIVE ATTITUDE OF TWO PARTIES TOWARD THE RACE.

The following letter which appeared in last week's issue of the St. Louis Argus is indicative of the standing of the two great political parties among Colored people in the State of Missouri where the Democrats have always drawn heavily on the Colored vote, and will no doubt do much for the democratic party in that state in the approaching election:

To the Editor of the St. Louis Argus

As to our Negro population, I challenge the leaders of the Republican Party to show n their demanation of any State of our Republic since the freedom of the Colored man more than 50 years ago, have been more liberal and generous to the race than has the Democratic party of Missouri, which has been in control of the State of Missouri since 1870. The Twenty sixth General Assembly, of which I was a member, convened in Jefferson City on the 4th day of January 1871—the first Democratic Legislature after the Civil War and the freedom of the Colored race. That Assembly passed and put upon the statute books of the State (in which I aided to the best of my ability) a law dividing the public school moneys of the State per capita with the Colored children, a division eminently just. They also appropriated $15,000 to the Colored College which was a private school called the Lincoln Institute located at Jefferson City In 8712 we increased our appropriation to that institution to $25,000. The folliwing year the Democratic Legislature, of whch I was also a member, took over this Institution and made a State School if it, and appropriated $65.000, and it has been maintained ever since by State ad.

There has never been a single law passed in the 50 years' domination of the Democratic party in Missouri in any way inimcal to the Colored race—they have been given every right, under the law, given to a white man, and the power of the State has ever been ready to protect them in the full enjoyment of that right.

And what of today. And what's the position of the Democratic and Republcan parties in Missiuri? In the State Convention which assembled in Jefferson City on the 14th of this month to adopt a platform for each party, the intelligent Colored men of the State of both parties met in conference and agreed upon certain things that should be enacted into law for the uplift and betterment of the Colored race, and the men of that conference who were Republicans and wno were Democrats went before the Committee of their political faith and presented requests of their people. And what was that request presented to both parties? And in order to be perfectly fair and just. I submit the platform demands made in both parties.

Platform Demands Made of Both Parties by Negro Voters

"We favor the establishment of a sanitarium for the treatmennt of tubercular Negro patients.

"We favor an institution for Negro feeble-minded of the State and a school for the blind.

"We favor the establishment of a Negro agricultural experiment station

"We favor the making of a state university for Negroes of Lincoln institute.

"We favor the appointment of Negro supehvisor of Colored schools.

"We favor the creation of an industrial training school for Negro boys.

Heres What the Demand Brought

MISSOURI STATE PARTY PLATFORMS

Republican:

"Better pay and retirement provision for teachers; better support for the schools and inreased educational facilities in both white and Colored schools.

"Careful provision and adequate appropriation for the health of the state, including ample provision for tubercular Negro patients."

Democrats:

"We favor the erection and establishment of a separate home for the deaf, dumb, blind, feeble-minded and tubercular Negroes in the State

"We favor the converting of schools for Negroes into a State University for Negroes.

"We favor Negro representation in boards of Negro institutions in the State.

"We favor the establishent of an industrial school for incorrigible Negro boys.

"We favor the establishment of an agricultural experiment station for Negroes."

The comparison must be humiliating to the intelligent Colored race The Republicans handed them a cob with hardly a grain attached to it, and the Democrats not only gave them what they asked for, but added a section which was eminently just as follows:

"We favor Negro representation on boards of Negro institutions of the State.

And who wrote the platforms of both partes? The Republican platform was written by Senator Selden P. Spencer, a candidate on the Republican ticket fir Unted States Senator and Arthur M. Hyde, a candiate on the Republican ticket for the great office of Governor of Missouri. The Democratic platform was written by Breckinridge Long, a canddate on the Democratic ticket for the United States Senate and John M. Atkinson, a canddate on the Democratic ticket for the great office of Governor of Missouri. Which platform and which candidates Democratic or Republican. show a more friendly consideration for the betterment of the Colored race? It seems to me in comparison the Republican candiates so far as the Negro race is concerned, should go away back and sit down—as one seems to be earnestly in favor of the uplift and betterment of the Negro race and the other indifferent as to what may come to the Negro race as they say the Negro race will vote the Republican ticket what that party may do or say. It seems to me, viewing the Republican party as I do that if Abraham Lincoln was living in Missouri today and Fred Douglass that eminent Colored statesman of past age, were also in Missouri, were upon the Democratic ticket for office in this State, that some Colored people would scratch them if they were on the Democratic ticket.

Wewoka Defeats Rival in County Seat Fight

Seminole Loses in Effort to Remove Seat of County Government

Wewoka. Okla.. Oct. 1—The fight between Wewoka and Seminole for the prize of the County Seat of Seminole County which terminated at the polls yesterday resulted in a decisive victory for Wewoka morening theirvbgkqj gshdr lupcmfywO than the required two-thirds of the voters of the County casting their voters of the County. casting their ballots for Wewoka. This is considered a just repudiation of the race prejudice propoganda put out by Seminole in its effort to wrench the County Seat from Wewoka, this city having been referred to very often in the Campaign as a "Negro Town."

The Colored people of this County undeer the leadership of J. Coody Johnson rallied to the support of Wewoka and helped to pile up a good substantial majority against Seminole.

The Colored women of the County under the leadership of J. election.

Southern Race Journals Barred From G. O. P. Slush Fund

Manager of Republican Funds Eliminate Southern Race Papers

(A. N. P. Service)

Washingon, D. C., Sept. 10—Some of the newspapers are not "doing so well" in the effort to connect with the advertising check book of the Republican National Committee. "In the beginning," Col. Phil. H. Brown hero of several poitical battles, was supposed to be the very first and only dispensor of publicity favors.

However. the Eastern contingent "kicked up a fuss," and it became necessary to have a special "Eastern Division" which in turn received their portion of the budget. Fred R Moore, of the New York Age. it is stated, resigned from the committee, when George W. Harris and he could not agree on terms for their individual newspapers.

Now it seems that a policy of eliminating all southern newspapers from the advertising patronage has been adopted. and only certain newspapers in the North and East have been put in on the quadrennial business. This condition is causing a big protest from certain papers such as the Houston Informer, in Texas, and the Buffalo Journal in New York State. It is currently reported that less than $25,000 has been appropriated to handle the publicity among all the Negro newspapers throughout the country. Foreign language newspapers have been getting consideration from the committee for several months and the appropriation for them is several months andcmfwyp jqkgbv cmh eral times in excess of Race publication.

"The National Committee seems to underestimate the value of our newspapers. Even the Southern newspapers should get consideration not only for their loyalty, but because thousands of their readers now live in northern states." said a prominent leader here.

Grand Master Webber Calls Cabinet Meeting

All Grand Lodge Officers Called To Meet At McAlester Today

Grand Master W S. Webber. recently elected head of the Masons of Oklahoma, has issued a call for all the members of the Grand Masters' Council to meet in McAlester today for the purpose of going over the present condition of the Order and working out some definite li2.. a s.dfb x-xn GBheh ...,.;.M plan of action respecting for the organization in this State.

Grand Master Webber is very enthusiastic in the work of his new position and is planning some great things for the general benefit of the Order. Before the setting of the next Grand Lodge, he expects to set up several new lodges and add materially to the membership of the Order.

In calling the Grand Masters' Council to discuss with them his plans and to go into important business of the Order he is showing the discretion of a thoughtful executive and laying the foundation successful administration.

Popular Ohioan is Lionized by Tulsans and other Oklahomans

The visit in Tulsa of Governor Cox last night easily takes first place as the most importana public event ever marked in the history of this city.

The Governor and democratic presidential candidate arrived in the city at 7:30 over the Frisco from Oklahoma City accompanied by 50 or more Tulsans who went to Enid to meet the Governor, Gov. J, B, A. Robertson and nearly 300 other prominent democrats of the State. After a street parade the party proceeded to the Convention Hall where the democratic candidate was introduced after appropriate preliminary ceremonies and at once plunged into an earnest and eloquent discussion of the issues of the campaign.

Thousands of visitors from neighboring cities swelled he crowd that greeted Gov. Cox and augmented the deafening applause that frequently interrupted the speaker during his speech.

Everything possible was done by local organizations to properly entertain the distisguished visitor and there is no denying the fact that while here he was the lionized hero of the hour.

The Cox-Roosevelt Club—Colored—organised in this City shortly after the Frisco Cinvention had a place in the parade and was the object of much favorable comment.

Muskogee Men Sentenced in Fraud Case

Trio in Famous "Bank's Swindle" Must Pay Penalty

MUSKOGEE, OKLA., Oct 1—The three leaders. Bums (a white lawver) Banks and Edwards. the two Colored men, who. it is alleged, assisted the white man in the operation of a gigantic swindle which meted them some $1,000.000 or more all faced federal pudge Williams here yesterday, Bums and Banks received sentencs of 18 months respectively in the feedral penitentiary while Edwards got off with a fine of $250.00.

LEFLORE COUNTY FAIR CLOSES

Colored Woman Attracts Attention In Exhibition of Old Fashioned Method of Spinning Thread and Weaving Cloth

The LeFlore County Fair closed a very creditable County Fair last Saturday in which many fine hogs, cows, fancy work and farm products vied with one another.

The principal feature of the fair was the demonstration by Mrs Elnora Cooper a Race woman, wife of Mr. W. D. Cooper a prominent Pythian of the old fashioned method of spinning thread and weaving

A GREAT FINANCIAL Opportunity

First Come! First Served!

Would you like to rent, lease of buy a wo-story twenty-room. fifteen thousand dollar bungalow at Idabel, the most rapidly growing County seat in South-East Oklahoma? The building is located within two blocks from the Frisco Station, an ideal location for a first class Hotel and there is no greater demand for such an enterprise at any place than there is at Idabel. Electric lights are installed in each room in the building and connection for indoors toilets and laboratory was made with the sewerage system in July. In short, the building is modern in every phase and represents the best einstructed and most commodious frame building in McCurtain County. As a hotel, and restaurant, this building, at its present location, will serve any one knowing how to conduct such a business as a veritable "mint"—an unlimited opportunity to make money, and there is absolutely no competion.

Idabel has recently installed a modern slwerage system. A fine $150,000 Courthouse was completed in August and a Government building and ice plant are to be erected soon. Among the Colored people there are four churchs, a fine schoil, a picure theare, stores and a $40,000 gin, the hotel above occupying the cenral place.

The conditions of this proposition are as follows: Rent $75.00 (1st three months in advance); each following in advance.

5 YEAR LEASE, $3,000—payable in advance.

SALE, $9,500—$4,500 cash. Balance on terms to suit purchaser A Sale is preferable.

It is guaranteed that this building cannot be duplicated any where for less than $15,000.

Any one wishing to consider this proposition will see Prof. A. M. Solone at Booker Washington High School or 841 North Bullett St., Tulsa, Okla.

There are six other rent houses for salt on same and adjoining blocks. See Prof. Solone.

WHO ARE INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS

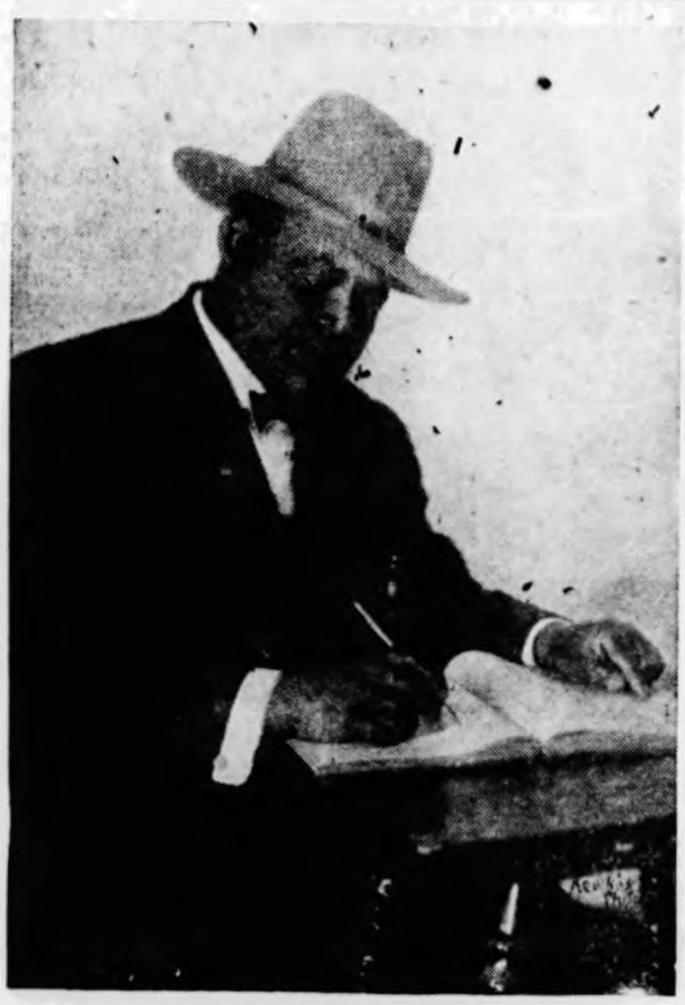
The True International Bible Students represent that class of persons who have consecrated all they have, even their lives, to do the will of God and walk as nearly as possible in the footsteps of Jesus. They are the ones who intelligently recognize that Jehovah has a great plan concerning his human creatures and that the Bible is the Blue Print of his plan of procedure. They represent the remnant of that class of persons who all down the ages, stood loyal to Godliness, even unto death. Their daily work is trying to have the world see God's Great Plan and the outworking of same. They, International Bible Students are the world's best earthly friends. They are giving their all upon the Alter of Sacrifice that in due time the world will come into a knowledge of God's plan. The sad part about the matter is that the world knoweth them not but has persecuted and put them to death even the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

for Russell more of the true light concerning his Kingdom. Pastor Russell has brought to light emmbs Russell was faithful in delivering this message up until his death Oct 30, 1916. The followers of his teachings, known as International Bible Students, have continued to the present time in calling the world's attention to God's Great Plan of Salvation. God's Plan, as shown by the teachings of Pastor Russell, has brought to light the fact that the Great Church Systems are guilty of feeding the people of the world on the old musty doctrine of the dark ages. This showing up the Church Systems have greatly angered the preachers and forty years they have been trying to find someway to get rid of Russellism. This unfaithful Clergy class would have made short work of the Russellites and their teachings were it not for the laws under which we live. The condition of the people's minds during the recent World War afforded an



All down the ages, even to the present time, God's true messengers, including Jesus Christ, have had the responsibility of announcing the coming Kinglom of God and denouncing a false form of Godliness instituted and maintained by a Clergy class known in Christ's time as Scribes and Pharisees. This denounciaion (which means nothing more than telling the world that it is not proceeding according to God's plans) has always brought a roar if indignation from this Pharisee class, the clergy, who have held themselves out as teachers of the world in all things pertaining to God. They killed Christ their best friend and have been making it everything else but pleasant for all who have tried to walk in Chrisj's foot-steps.

I beg to remind you truth loving people that there has long been a great battle raging between right and wrong and that the conflict is now more fierce than ever. The last round is being fought to the finish and soon wrong and error will go down in defeat and be counted out and righteousness, truth and justice will be crowned victor for all time to come.

One of the marks of identification of the true servant of God is that their message is always without exception disliked by a ruling class having a form of Godliness with having a farm of Godliness but with out its spirit. This has been true in the case of all the Holy Prophets, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Epostles and all the faithful followers down to the present time. Many of the faithful of the past, including our Savior, sealed their faithfulness, to Jehovah God and His Great Plan, by their blood. The true Christians of the present time are fully aware that if they would reign with their Lord and Master they must follow in his foot steps and be willing and glad of the opportunity to lay down their lives for truth and even for their enemies, that they may have the blessed opportunity of blessing even those who have said all manner of evil against them and persecuted them falsely for righteousness sake.

More than forty years ago the Lord sent to the world through Pas- opportunity for this Devilishly inclined class of preachers to get in their work. They hollered "Traitors," on these humble servants of God and had some of them placed behind prison walls without bail. They, the preachers, remarked, when this was done, that Russllism had come to an end; but the Lord had something yet for them to do before taking them beyond the vale, so here they are still on the trail of the false preachers, calling the world's attention to their false doctrine. Those who are enemies of the truth taught by this humble sect known as the International Bible Students had well remember that, "Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and that NO WEAPON FORMED AGAINST THE LORD'S TRUE PEOPLE CAN PROSPER without his permission.

Help The Women- Buy A Tag!

Y. W. C. A. INAUGURATES MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Tulsa Christian Women launch a Worthy Undertaking and Ask Support

The Young Women's Christian Association is a new organization recently set on foot by a number of the SHRDLU NNIOAT ESHC most enterprising women of the city and realizing the great benefit such an organization will bring to the community these women are desirous of securing the support of the women of all ages living in Tulsa. The promoters realize that they can do but little until the association is set upon a more firm foundation than at present. and further that such foundation can only be made lasting through a membership which will have representatives from every walk in life in this community. Only those who have been blessed with the opportunity of travelling in various sections of the country have seen and know the great amount of good that has been accomplished by strong bands of women under the banner of the Y. W. C. A.

The high aim of this organization is attested by its desire to include in its roster of membership all who are willing to aid in the uplift and protection of the young women of the city. If every woman in Tulsa will join and pledge loyal support great results are sure to follow. It is also the aim to have a Tulsa Y. W. C. A Building—a building in which all citizens could have the highest possible pride.

Saturday, October 9th, 1920, has been designated as "Tag Day." Do not refuse to buy a tag. The promoters ask generous support in this effort to raise funds and also ask the prayers of all faithful Christians.,

TULSA LOSES PROMISING YOUNG LIFE

The C. M. F. Church was the sad scene last Wednesday afternoon of the funeral obsequies of the late Miss Katherine Cherry, daughter of our well and favoraly known citizens, Mr. and Mrs. James Cherry. Quite a large congregation filled the auditorium of the church as both the departed young girl and her parents have numerous friends in the community who thus attended with a desire of showing their sympathy for the bereaved parents in this hour of distress and grief. The Rev. McLain officiated and delivered a most eloquent and touching sermon appropriate for the occasion. A program in which many of the young friends of the deceased participated was rendered and the floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Miss Katherine Cherry, who was unfortunately cut off at the very threshold of young womanhood, was one of the most talented and popular young girls of the city of Tulsa. She had received all the attention and care that foud parents could possibly shower upon one they loved most dearly, and there was every prospect for a most promising career until she was stricken by an incurable disease, the ravages of which were fought by the best medical skill in the country.

Miss Katherine was born in Sulphur Springs, Texas., Nov. 4, 1900, and soon would have passed her 20th birthday. She had lived in this city with her parents since 1906 and graduated from the High School in 1918. She spent one year 1919 at Howard University returning home early last summer. On August 30th, she left for the Hospital of Dr. Wilson at Memphis, Tenn., to be operated upon for cancer of the breast. Two operations were necessary; the first was successful, but the second proved fatal. She died Sept 25th, three days after the last operation.

She was the only daughter, and is survived by mother, father, two uncles, George Cherry, of Okmulgee and Wm. Cherry of this city. On her mother's side she left a large number of relatives.

THE BIRTH OF "THE CHRIST"

It is well for us to have a clear understanding between the terms "the man Christ Jesus" and "The Christ." The Christ is a body composed of many members (one hundred forty four thousand and one 144,001. The man Christ Jesus is the head of that body. All who consecrate themselves to do the will of the Lord at any cost, even unto death, are members of the body of "The Christ.". According to God's plan, a period of more than 1800 years known as the Gospel Age, has been designated as the time for the birth of "The Christ" Head and Body. Do you know that the Gospel Age is about closed and that it is about time for the full birth of "The Christ" head and body on the spirit plain? Do yon know that the head Christ Jesus was born at the beginning of the Gospel Age and that the feet and last members will be born at the close of the Gospel Age? Do you know that the duty of every member of the body of Christ is to explain God's Plan as is revealed in his word, the Bible, and to point out the errors of the world and give plain warnings as to the punishments that are sure to folliw disobedience of God's word? Do you know that every persecution of a Consecrated Christian is a persecution of the prophecies of the Bible more han thirty years ago, as to what would take place in these days are transpiring in these very hours? Is it good sense to claim that such an one was not a true Servant of God? Do you know that God's Great Blessings and the desire of all Nations will not come until "The Christ" head and body, is born on the spirit plain? Do you know that every true International Bible Student is a true friend of the world of mankind and that their whole life is one of prayer on bended knees before the Throne of God, asking that the poor world be soon cured of its deadly malady of war, sickness, sorrow, pain and death? Do you know that all the Holy Prophets of old, the Lord Jesus and the Apostles, sealed their faithfulness to the will of Jehovah by their death? Do you know that every International Bible Student is a feet member of the body of "The Christ" and that they have long known that a dark hour of their Gethsemane, through false acusations, awaits the ending of their work here on earth the same as did their Lord and head Jesus?,Do you know that the question as to how, when and where the feet members of "The Christ" shall reach their Gethsemane to be born on the Spirit plain with their head and Lord is not a matter of concern to them but is left with the Lord and that they must fulfill their consecration vow and be faithful to the will of God even unto death?

Dear readers: I wish to advise you to watch and read your papers closely without missing an issue from now on until the first of the year at least because of the Lord's Grace if he permits it we shall endeavor to turn loose the big guns of truth as never before with a view of continuing the bombardment until the stringholds of Babylon crumbles and humble people shown the light.

COTTON PICKERS ARE IN DEMAND

Cottonfield agent are to be seen in Tulsa every day trying to get cotton pickers. Two dollars per hundred is the inductment being offered and quite a number of hands have accepted the offer and have gone to the ladened cotton fields and others will probably go later on.

RAIN DOES DAMAGS ON GREENWOOD—AS USUAL

The heavy rain storm that visited Tulsa about 9 o'clock Sunday night did the usual amount of damage occasioned by the backing up of water which an insufficient sewage system fails to take off during heavy rains. The Red Wing and the Stradford hotel ebuildings and other buildings within half a block of these buildings were where the principal damage was done.

Every time a big rain comes the inter-section at Greenwood and Cameron resembles the water front on Lake Michigan in Chicago and considerble damage is always done to property in this vicinity.

While it is plainly the city's fault for not prividing sewage facilities no one has as yet filed suit to recover damage nesulting from this negligence.

American Japan Policy is Regarded With Dark Misgiving By Thinking Colored People

(A. N. P. Service)

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 30—The Japanese situation continues to be a matter of considerable concern to th United States. California with her recurrent efforts to pass laws designed to exclude the yellow races keeps the question agitated. The attention of our group is being attracted paricularly at this time because of the frank admissions being made by men prominent in public life, that it is a question purely of race and therefore of prejudice and justifying it upon those grounds.

Governor Cox while currying favor in California bursts forth with this ebulilition: "God Almighty provided that the fathers of America should be white men. Those from other shores who do not subscribe to that doctrine have the privilege of going back where they came from."

Senator Harding, with suave diplomatic mien, says quietly, that which promises much more ill to the pellow man. He says, 'We favor such modifications of our immigration laws and such changes in our international understandings and such a policy as regards those who come among us as will guarantee the citizens of this republic assimiliability of alien born."

All of which the thoughtful members of the race are turning over carefully in their minds. We have been disfranchised and discriminated against but it has been done indirectly by states. From a national viewpoint we have been presumably full fledged American citizens. If the Japanese came in large number and found themselves up against the same white man's prejudice, they could not be lynched and maltreated because the government and navy of Japan would be standing behind them. Therefore they had better be kept out. The Chicago Journal says:

"The Japanese are not an inferior race.,They are a great race. The Chinese are a great race. too. When the ancestors of most Americans were engaged in the task of herding hogs, the Chinese were counting the stars, creating beautiful works of art, and discussing what life meant. General Grant said that the greatest men he had ever met were Disraeli, the English Statesman. Gambetta, the French Statesman. Bismark, the German Statesman and Li Hung Chana the Chinese Statesman, and that he believed that Li Huny Chang was the greatest of the four.

But the average white man in Amerira is not likely to believe that any Chinese or Japanese gentleman

Thousands Hear Governor Cox!

HILL IS WINNER OF THE DEBATE

Eminent Minister Was no Match for Advocate of Pastor Russell's Teachings

(By Special Correspondent)

It may not have been unanimous. but a good majority of the people of both races who heard the debate at the convention hall Tuesday night. between Richard J. Hill and the Rev H. T. S. Johnson left the hall irrevocable in their opinion that while Rev. Johnson is unquestionably a deep thinker and a good speaker he was nevertheless no match for his opponent.

Two hours and thirty minutes were consumed by the speakers, each having one hour and fifteen minutes in which to present their respective arguments. About 500 people fully one-half of whom were white heard the debate and all of them seemed very much interested.

Mr. Hill opened the debate on the affirmative side of the question. which was "Resolved that the teachings of the International Bible Students should be substituted for the doctrines of the Church denominations."

In opening the negative side of the question. Rev. Johnson read excerpts from the International Bible Students' Monthly and quoted Mark 16: 16, which reads: "He that believeth and is baptised. the same shall be saved and he that believeth not shall be damned," using this as Bible proof that there must be eternal punishment after death.

In his rebuttal. Mr. Hill said, "I am not surprised the poor people of the world are wrapped in such ignorance and darkness concerning the Bible, when our most learned and educated, College bred Ministers show such absolute ignorance of the Bible and God's great plan of alvation. I am very much surprised that my worthy opponent does not know that the Scriptures he has just read to you (Mark 16:16) is generally recognized by all Bible Students and Professors of his own theological institutions and any one else who knows anything about the scriptures as no part of the origial Bible but interpolations." Then for 20 minutes, Mr. Hill dwelt on the teachings of the International Bible Students giving Bible references to show the correctness of the same.

The full text of the debate will appear in the Star as soon as the iranscribed copy can be obtained from an official court reporter who took in shorthand every word of the debate.

In closing the debate Mr. Hill warmed up to his subject and in a very eloquent and convincing way drove home the final points which, in the opinion of the writer, proved him easily master of the situation.

Republicans Hold Convention Monday

State-Wide Delegation Expected To Attend Tulsa Meet of G. O. P. Henchmen

That Tulsa is considered the center of political actvity among the Colored people of this State is proven by the fact that the State organization of republicans and democrats have called conventions to meet in this city within two days of each other. The democratic organization is in session today and the repubulican organization will convene here Monday.

The Colored voters of Tulsa are about evenly divided in their political faiths and it is expected that both conventions will be well attended by Tulsans as well as visiting delegates. Both coventions are expected to make some definite demands of their respective parties for promises of specific legislation to guarantee fair play and equality before the law of all citizens of this State regardless of race or color.

OFFICER TO FACE MURDER CHARGE

Following the filing of a murder charge this forenoon against S. R. Grosse, patrolman. who late Saturday night shot and killed Clem Williams, Creek Indian at the Farmers' wagon yard on Hodge st., between Lansing ave. and Admiral boulevard it was announced late today that the case would be taken before the grand jury now in session here. The complaint was sworn to by William's wife.

Grosse's plea will be self defense. The officer's statement is to the effect that when he walked up to the side of an auomobile occupied by an unidentified white man Williams handing him a quart bottle of corn whiskey. Seizing the whisky Grosse placed Williams under arrest.

Williams grew boisterous in his denounciation of the officer, and grabbing the bottle hurled it against a fence breaking it, and then running to get a revolver. At that time, Grosse says he shot Williams once in the abdomen.

No weapon of any kind was found on Williams after his death. According to police officers Williams has been known as a bootlegger for several years.

Why The Missouri Colored People Vote Democrat Ticket

CITIZEN OF "SHOW ME" STATE WRITES INTERESTING LETTER TO ST. LOUIS EDITOR SHOWING COMPARATIVE ATTITUDE OF TWO PARTIES TOWARD THE RACE.

The following letter which appeared in last week's issue of the St. Louis Argus is indicative of the standing of the two great political parties among Colored people in the State of Missouri where the Democrats have always drawn heavily on the Colored vote, and will no doubt do much for the democratic party in that state in the approaching election:

To the Editor of the St. Louis Argus

As to our Negro population, I challenge the leaders of the Republican Party to show n their demanation of any State of our Republic since the freedom of the Colored man more than 50 years ago, have been more liberal and generous to the race than has the Democratic party of Missouri, which has been in control of the State of Missouri since 1870. The Twenty sixth General Assembly, of which I was a member, convened in Jefferson City on the 4th day of January 1871—the first Democratic Leguslature after the Civil War and the freedom of the Colored race. That Assembly passed and put upon the statute books of the State (in which I aided to the best of my ability) a law dividing the public school moneys of the State per capita with the Colored children, a division eminently just. They also appropriated $15,000 to the Colored College which was a private school called the Lincoln Institute located at Jefferson City In 8712 we increased our appropriation to that institution to $25,000. The folliwing year the Democratic Legislature, of whch I was also a member, took over this Institution and made a State School if it, and appropriated $65.000, and it has been maintained ever since by State ad.

There has never been a single law passed in the 50 years' domination of the Democratic party in Missouri in any way inimcal to the Colored race—they have been given every right, under the law, given to a white man, and the power of the State has ever been ready to protect them in the full enjoyment of that right.

And what of today. And what's the position of the Democratic and Republcan parties in Missiuri? In the State Convention which assembled in Jefferson City on the 14th of this month to adopt a platform for each party, the inteligent Colored men of the State of both parties met in conference and agreed upon certain things that should be enacted into law for the uplift and betterment of the Colored race, and the men of that conference who were Republicans and wno were Democrats went before the Committee of their political faith and presented requests of their people. And what was that request presented to both parties? And in order to be perfectly fair and just. I submit the platform demands made in both parties.

Platform Demands Made of Both Parties by Negro Voters

"We favor the establishment of a sanitarium for the treatmennt of tubercular Negro patients.

"We favor an institution for Negro feeble-minded of the State and a school for the blind.

"We favor the establishment of a Negro agricultural experiment station

"We favor the making of a state university for Negroes of Lincoln institute.

"We favor the appointment of Negro supehvisor of Colored schools.

"We favor the creation of an industrial training school for Negro boys.

Here's What the Demand Brought

MISSOURI STATE PARTY PLATFORMS

Republican:

"Better pay and retirement provision for teachers; better support for the schools and inreased educational facilities in both white and Colored schools.

"Careful provision and adequate appropriation for the health of the state, including ample provision for tubercular Negro patients."

Democrats:

"We favor the erection and establishment of a separate home for the deaf, dumb, blind, feeble-minded and tubercular Negroes in the State

"We favor the converting of schools for Negroes into a State University for Negroes.

"We favor Negro representation in boards of Negro institutions in the State.

"We favor the establishent of an industrial school for incorrigible Negro boys.

"We favor the establishment of an an agricultural experiment station for Negroes."

The comparison must be humiliating to the intelligent Colored race The Republicans handed them a cob with hardly a grain attached to it, and the Democrats not only gave them what they asked for, but added a section which was eminently just as follows:

"We favor Negro representation on boards of Negro institutions of the State.

And who wrote the platforms of both partes? The Republican platform was written by Senator Selden P. Spencer, a candidate on the Republican ticket fir Unted States Senator and Arthur M. Hyde, a candiate on the Republican ticket for the great office of Governor of Missouri. The Democratic platform was written by Breckinridge Long, a canddate on the Democratc ticket for the United States Senate and John M. Atkinson, a candoate on the Democratic ticket for the great office of Governor of Missouri. Which platform and which candidates Democratic or Republican, show a more friendly consideration for the betterment of the Colored race? It seems to me in comparison the Republican candiates so far as the Negro race is concerned, should go away back and sit down—as one seems to be earnestly in favor of the uplift and betterment of the Negro race and the other indifferent as to what may come to the Negro race as they say the Negro race will vote the Republican ticket what that party may do or say. It seems to me, viewing the Republican party as I do that if Abraham Lincoln was living in Missouri today and Fred Douglass that eminent Colored statesman of past age, were also in Missouri, were upon the Democratic ticket for office in this State, that some Colored people would scratch them if they were on the Democratic ticket.

Wewoka Defeats Rival in County Seat Fight

Seminole Loses in Effort to Remove Seat of County Government

Wewoka, Okla.. Oct. 1—The fight between Wewoka and Seminole for the prize of the County Seat of Seminole County which terminated at the polls yesterday resulted in a decisive victory for Wewoka more ing theirvbgkqj gshdr lupcmfywO than the required two-thirds of the voters of the County casting their voters of the County. casting their ballots for Wewoka. This is considered a just repudiation of the race prejudice propoganda put out by Seminole in its effort to wrench the County Seat from Wewoka, this city having been referred to very often in the Campaign as a "Negro Town."

The Colored people of this County undeer the leadership of J. Coody Johnson rallied to the support of Wewoka and helped to pile up a good substantial majority against Seminole.

The Colored women of the County under the leadership of J. election.

Southern Race Journals Barred From G. O. P. Slush Fund

Manager of Republican Funds Eliminate Southern Race Papers

(A. N. P. Service)

Washingon, D. C., Sept. 10—Some of the newspapers are not "doing so well" in the effort to connect with the advertising check book of the Republican National Committee. "In the beginning," Col. Phil. H. Brown hero of several poitical battles, was supposed to be the very first and only dispensor of publicity favors.

However. the Eastern contingent "kicked up a fuss," and it became necessary to have a special "Eastern Division" which in turn received their portion of the budget. Fred R Moore. of the New York Age. it is stated, resigned from the committee, when George W. Harris and he could not agree on terms for their individual newspapers.

Now it seems that a policy of eliminating all southern newspapers from the advertising patronage has been adopted. and only certain newspapers in the North and East have been put in on the quadrenial business. This condition is causing a big protest from certain papers such as the Houston Informer, in Texas, and the Buffalo Journal in New York State. It is currently reported that less than $25,000 has been appropriated to handle the publicity among all the Negro newspapers hroughout the country. Foreign language newspapers have been getting consideration from the committee for several months and the appropriation for them is several months andcmfwyp jqkgbv cmh eral times in excess of Race publication.

"The National Committee seems to underestimate the value of our newspapers. Even the Southern newspapers should get consideration not only for their loyalty, but because thousands of their readers now live in northern states." said a prominent leader here.

Grand Master Webber Calls Cabinet Meeting

All Grand Lodge Officers Called To Meet At McAlester Today

Grand Master W S. Grand Master Webber is very enthusiastic in the work of his new position and is planning some great things for the general benefit of the Order. Before the setting of the next Grand Lodge, he expects to set up several new lodges and add materially to the membership of the Order.

In calling the Grand Masters' Council to discuss with them his plans and to go into important business of the Order he is showing the discretion of a thoughtful executive and laying the foundation successful administration.

The visit in Tulsa of Governor Cox last night easily takes first place as the most importana public event ever marked in the history of this city.

The Governor and democratic presidential candidate arrived in the city at 7:30 over the Frisco from Oklahoma City accompanied by 50 or more Tulsans who went to Enid to meet the Governor, Gov. J. B, A. Robertson and nearly 300 other prominent democrats of the State. After a street parade the party proceeded to the Convention Hall where the democratic candidate was introduced after appropriate preliminary ceremonies and at once plunged into an earnest and eloquent discussion of the issues of the campaign.

Thousands of visitors from neighboring cities swelled he crowd that greeted Gov. Cox and augmented the deafening applause that frequently interrupted the speaker during his speech.

Everything possible was done by local organizations to properly entertain the distisguished visitor and there is no denying the fact that while here he was the lionized hero of the hour.

The Cox-Roosevelt Club—Colored—organized in this City shortly after the Frisco Cinvention had a place in the parade and was the object of much favorable comment.

WHO ARE INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS

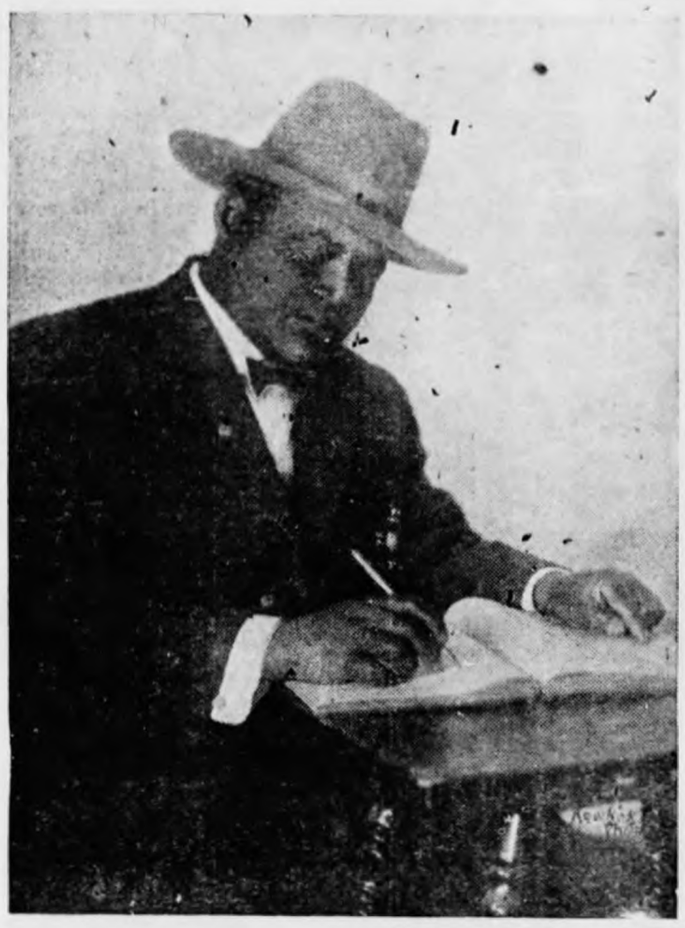
The True International Bible Students represent that class of persons who have consecrated all they have, even their lives, to do the will of God and walk as nearly as possible in the footsteps of Jesus. They are the ones who intelligently recognize that Jehovah has a great plan concerning his human creatures and that the Bible is the Blue Print of his plan of procedure. They represent the remnant of that class of persons who all down the ages, stood loyal to Godliness, even unto death. Their daily work is trying to have the world see God's Great Plan and the outworking of same. They, International Bible Students are the world's best earthly friends. They are giving their all upon the Alter of Sacrifice that in due time the world will come into a knowledge of God's plan. The sad part about the matter is that the world knoweth them not but has persecuted and put them to death even the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.



All down the ages, even to the present time, God's true messengers, including Jesus Christ, have had the responsibility of announcing the coming Kinglom of God and denouncing a false form of Godliness instituted and maintained by a Clergy class known in Christ's time as Scribes and Pharisees. This denounciaion (which means nothing more than telling the world that it is not proceeding according to God's plans) has always brought a roar if indignation from this Pharisee class, the clergy, who have held themselves out as teachers of the world in all things pertaining to God. They killed Christ their best friend and have been making it everything else but pleasant for all who have tried to walk in Christ's foot-steps.

I beg to remind you truth loving people that there has long been a great battle raging between right and wrong and that the conflict is now more fierce than ever. The last round is being fought to the finish and soon wrong and error will go down in defeat and be counted out and righteousness, truth and justice will be crowned victor for all time to come.

One of the marks of identification of the true servant of God is that their message is always without exception disliked by a ruling class having a form of Godliness with having a farm of Godliness but with out its spirit. This has been true in the case of all the Holy Prophets, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Epostles and all the faithful followers down to the present time. Many of the faithful of the past, including our Savior, sealed their faithfulness, to Jehovah God and His Great Plan, by their blood. The true Christians of the present time are fully aware that if they would reign with their Lord and Master they must follow in his foot steps and be willing and glad of the opportunity to lay down their lives for truth and even for their enemies, that they may have the blessed opportunity of blessing even those who have said all manner of evil against them and persecuted them falsely for righteousness sake.

More than forty years ago the Lord sent to the world through Pastor Russell more of the true light concerning his Kingdom. Pastor Russell has brought to light emmbs Russell was faithful in delivering this message up until his death Oct 30, 1916. The followers of his teachings, known as International Bible Students, have continued to the present time in exiling the world's attention to God's Great Plan of Salvation. God's Plan, as shown by the teachings of Pastor Russell, has brought to light the fact that the Great Church Systems are guilty of feeding the people of the world on the old musty doctrine of the dark ages. This showing up the Church Systems have greatly angered the preachers and forty years they have been trying to find someway to get rid of Russellism. This unfaithful Clergy class would have made short work of the Russellites and their teachings were it not for the laws under which we live. The condition of the people's minds during the recent World War afforded an opportunity for this Devilishly inclined class of preachers to get in their work. They hollered "Traitors," on these humble servants of God and had some of them placed behind prison walls without bail. They, the preachers, remarked, when this was done, that Russllism had come to an end; but the Lord had something yet for them to do before taking them beyond the vale, so here they are still on the trail of the false preachers, calling the world's attention to their false doctrine. Those who are enemies of the truth taught by this humble sect known as the International Bible Students had well remember that, "Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and that NO WEAPON FORMED AGAINST THE LORD'S TRUE PEOPLE CAN PROSPER without his permission.

Y. W. C. A. INAUGURATES MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Tulsa Christian Women launch a Worthy Undertaking and Ask Support

The Young Women's Christian Association is a new organization recently set on foot by a number of the reeeeeee SHRDLU NNIOAT ESHC most enterprising women of the city and realizing the great benefit such an organization will bring to the community these women are desirous of securing the support of the women of all ages living in Tulsa. The promoters realize that they can do but little until the association is set upon a more firm foundation than at present, and further that such foundation can only be made lasting through a membership which will have representatives from every walk in life in this community. Only those who have been blessed with the opportunity of travelling in various sections of the country have seen and know the great amount of good that has been accomplished by strong bands of women under the banner of the Y. W. C. A.

The high aim of this organization is attested by its desire to include in its roster of membership all who are willing to aid in the uplift and protection of the young women of the city. If every woman in Tulsa will join and pledge loyal support great results are sure to follow. It is also the aim to have a Tulsa Y. W. C. A Building—a building in which all citizens could have the highest possible pride.

Saturday, October 9th, 1920, has been designated as "Tag Day." Do not refuse to buy a tag. The promoters ask generous support in this effort to raise funds and also ask the prayers of all faithful Christians.

TULSA LOSES PROMISING YOUNG LIFE

The C. M. E. Church was the sad scene last Wednesday afternoon of the funeral obsequies of the late Miss Katherine Cherry, daughter of our well and favoraly known citizens, Mr. and Mrs. James Cherry. Quite a large congregation filled the auditorium of the church as both the departed young girl and her parents have numerous friends in the community who thus attended with a desire of showing their sympathy for the bereaved parents in this hour of distress and grief. The Rev. McLain officiated and delivered a most eloquent and touching sermon appropriate for the occasion. A program in which many of the young friends of the deceased participated was rendered and the floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Miss Katherine Cherry, who was unfortunately cut off at the very threshold of young womanhood, was one of the most talented and popular young girls of the city of Tulsa. She had received all the attention and care that foud parents could possibly shower upon one they loved most dearly, and there was every prospect for a most promising career until she was stricken by an incurable disease, the ravages of which were fought by the best medical skill in the country.

Miss Katherine was born in Sulphur Springs, Texas., Nov. 4, 1900, and soon would have passed her 20th birthday. She had lived in this city with her parents since 1906 and graduated from the High School in 1918. She spent one year 1919 at Howard University returning home early last summer. On August 30th, she left for the Hospital of Dr. Wilson at Memphis, Tenn., to be operated upon for cancer of the breast. Two operations were necessary; the first was successful, but the second proved fatal. She died Sept 25th, three days after the last operation.

She was the only daughter, and is survived by mother, father, two uncles, George Cherry, of Okmulgee and Wm. Cherry of this city. On her mother's side she left a large number of relatives.

THE BIRTH OF "THE CHRIST"

It is well for us to have a clear understanding between the terms "the man Christ Jesus" and "The Christ." The Christ is a body composed of many members (one hundred forty four thousand and one 144,001. The man Christ Jesus is the head of that body. All who consecrate themselves to do the will of the Lord at any cost, even unto death, are members of the body of "The Christ.". According to God's plan, a period of more than 1800 years known as the Gospel Age, has been designated as the time for the birth of "The Christ" Head and Body. Do you know that the Gospel Age is about closed and that it is about time for the full birth of "The Christ" head and body on the spirit plain? Do yon know that the head Christ Jesus was born at the beginning of the Gospel Age and that the feet and last members will be born at the close of the Gospel Age? Do you know that the duty of every member of the body of Christ is to explain God's Plan as is revealed in his word, the Bible, and to point out the errors of the world and give plain warnings as to the punishments that are sure to folliw disobedience of God's word? Do you know that every persecution of a Consecrated Christian is a persecution of the prophecies of the Bible more han thirty years ago, as to what would take place in these days are transpiring in these very hours? Is it good sense to claim that such an one was not a true Servant of God? Do you know that God's Great Blessings and the desire of all Nations will not come until "The Christ" head and body, is born on the spirit plain? Do you know that every true International Bible Student is a true friend of the world of mankind and that their whole life is one of prayer on bended knees before the Throne of God, asking that the poor world be soon cured of its deadly malady of war, sickness, sorrow, pain and death? Do you know that all the Holy Prophets of old, the Lord Jesus and the Apostles, sealed their faithfulness to the will of Jehovah by their death? Do you know that every International Bible Student is a feet member of the body of "The Christ" and that they have long known that a dark hour of their Gethsemane, through false acusations, awaits the ending of their work here on earth the same as did their Lord and head Jesus?,Do you know that the question as to how, when and where the feet members of "The Christ" shall reach their Gethsemane to be born on the Spirit plain with their head and Lord is not a matter of concern to them but is left with the Lord and that they must fulfill their consecration vow and be faithful to the will of God even unto death?

Dear readers: I wish to advise you to watch and read your papers closely without missing an issue from now on until the first of the year at least because of the Lord's Grace if he permits it we shall endeavor to turn loose the big guns of truth as never before with a view of continuing the bombardment until the stringholds of Babylon crumbles and humble people shown the light.

RAIN DOES DAMAGS ON GREENWOOD—AS USUAL

The heavy rain storm that visited Tulsa about 9 o'clock Sunday night did the usual amount of damage occasioned by the backing up of water which an insufficient sewage system fails to take off during heavy rains. The Red Wing and the Stradford hotel ebuildings and other buildings within half a block of these buildings were where the principal damage was done.

Every time a big rain comes the inter.section at Greenwood and Cameron resembles the water front on Lake Michigan in Chicago and considerble damage is always done to property in this vicinity.

While it is plalnly the city's fault for not prividing sewage facilities no one has as yet filed suit to recover damage nesulting from this negligence.

American Japan Policy is Regarded With Dark Misgiving By Thinking Colored People

(A. N. P. Service)

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 30—The Japanese situation continues to be a matter of considerable concern to th United States. California with her recurrent efforts to pass laws designed to exclude the yellow races keeps the question agitated. The attention of our group is being attracted paricularly at this time because of the frank admissions being made by men prominent in public life, that it is a question purely of race and therefore of prejudice and justifying it upon those grounds.

Governor Cox while currying favor in California bursts forth with this ebullition: "God Almighty provided that the fathers of America should be white men. Those from other shores who do not subscribe to that doctrine have the privilege of going back where they came from."

Senator Harding, with suave diplomatic mien. says quietly, that which promises much more ill to the pellow man. He says, 'We favor such modifications of our immigration laws and such changes in our international understandings and such a policy as regards those who come among us as will guarantee the citizens of this republic assimiliability of alien born."

All of which the thoughtful members of the race are turning over carefully in their minds. We have been disfranchised and discriminated against but it has been done indirectly by states. From a national viewpoint we have been presumably full fledged American citizens. If the Japanese came in large number and found themselves up against the same white man's prejudice, they could not be lynched and maltreated because the government and navy of Japan would be standing behind them. Therefore they had better be kept out. The Chicago Journal says:

"The Japanese are not an inferior race.,They are a great race. The Chinese are a great race. too. When the ancestors of most Americans were engaged in the task of herding hogs, the Chinese were counting the stars, creating beautiful works of art, and discussing what life meant. General Grant said that the greatest men he had ever met were Disraeli, the English Statesman. Gambetta, the French Statesman. Bismark, the German Statesman and Li Hung Chana the Chinese Statesman, and that he believed that Li Huny Chang was the greatest of the four.

But the average white man in Amerira is not likely to believe that any Chinese or Japanese gentleman

World Now Ended---Millions Now Walking About Here on Earth Will Never Go Into the Grave.

"Thus saith God. the Lord .He that created the Heavens and stretched them out; He that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; He that giveth breath unto the people upon it and spirit to them that walk therein. I the Lord have called thee in right eousness, and will hold thine hand and will keep thee. and give thee for a Covenant of the people. for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."—Isaiah 42:5 7.

The words of the foregoing text are addressed to the Christ, Head and Body. Herein is again manifested the love of God. particularly for the entire human family. The class first above mentioned are the special recipients of his favor and shall be used as a channel for the blessing of the others who respond to the terms of the New Law Covenant.

The Prophet of the Lord speaks of the days af Christendom when the old order is going to pieces, thus; "Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light. even very dark and no brightness in it? (Amos 5:20). Without doubt this reference to a time when the last members of the church have finished their course and passed on into the Kingdom. While they have been in the earth proclaiming the truth, they have been a measure of light compared with the other darkness. When the great trouble has reached its climax in the earth when every man's hand is against his neighbor it will then be even a dark time.

God foreknew this time of stress that would come upon the nations of the earth and foretold it through his prophets, and also made provisions for th complete relief and deliveranee of the people therefrom Many centuries ago he made a promise to Abraham, saying "In thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." And this seed of promise through which the blessing will come are the sons of God. the Christ, Head and Body (Galatians 3:18; 16:27 29) The Apostle Paul, speaking of the distressed conditions of the nations and of their desire to be relieved from such conditions said, "The whole creations groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now, waiting for the manifestation of the Song of God." (Romans 8: 22; 19) These sons of God are the same ones described by the Prophet Isaiah in our text first above quoted. The head of that class is Christ Jesus himself ,who, being born a man humbled himself unto death even the death of the cross wherefore God has highly exalted and given him a same that ultimately every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is the consecrated Christ to the Glory of God (Philippians 2: 8 11) At the Jordan he consecrated himself responding to the call of the Heavenly Father to the exalted position he occupies. Through all of his trying experiences the Heavenly Father sustained him. At Pentecost the members of the body of Christ began to be selected. Then it was the call went forth. Call to what? "Call to be saints (First Cor. 1:2) Called to be joint heirs with Christ Jesus in his Kingdom (Romans 8:16 17:30)

How were they calledl in righteousness? Were they not imperfect men like all others? The answer is that these were called in righteousness when they responded to the invitation to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Such have been drawn to the Lord Jesus by the Father, by giving them a knowledge of the fact that he provided redemption for them and for all men thru the blood of Christ. and that in ths Gospel Age he has opened the way for men to be followers of Jesus. Such being drawn to the Lord Jesus and offering themselves in full consecration to do the Heavenly Father's will, Christ Jesus became their advocate, He imputed to them the merit of his sacrifce, and as their High Priest, presented them to the Father. and they were made acceptable, and acceptd by the Father through and by the reason of the imputed merit of Christ Jesus. Thus they became righteous through his merit being covered with the robe of his righteousness God then begot such of his word of truth, that they should be of a kind of first fruits of his creatures. (Jas. 1:18) He begot them to a hope of life, to an inheritance insoruptable and undefiled. reserved in Heaven for them. (First Peter 1:3) He gave to such the exceeding great and precious promises, by which they might be partakers of the Divine Nature. (Second Pefer 1:4) Their path way has not been one strewn with flowers. but it has been a path way of suffering;" For hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that we should follow his steps." (First Peter 2:21) "For it is given unto you as a privilege not only to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, but to suffer with him" 'Phillippians 1:29. Diaglott)

"For it became him for whom all things. and by whom are all things in bringing many sons unto Glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctifiedl are all from one; for which he (Jesus) is not ashamed to call them Brethren" (Heb. 2:10-11) The servant is not greater than his master and since the Master was persecuted. his followers must expect to be persecuted (John 15:18-20) But through all of these trying experiences the sweet and consoling powers of the Heavenly Father are spoken to them, saying, "I will hold thine hand and will keep thee;" And all the way they are kept by the power of God, through faith unto Salvation. ready to be revealed in the last time (First Peter 1:5) The last time means the last days of Christendom, durin which time the sons of God shall be completed. glorified and made manifest.

Mark now the commission given to them to do a work in the future. "I will give thee for a covenant of the people." Saith the Lord, Godl made a covenant with the nation of Israel at Mt. Sanai through Moses as a mediator, and by this covenant promised to give them Life Everlasting if they would keep his covenant. (Leviticus 18:5. Romans 10:5) He said to them, he that kepeth the Law shall live by the law. They were unable to keep this covenant, because of their own imperfection and because their mediator was also imperfect. This covenant and their inability to keep it demonstrated two things; first that none but a righteous man can keep the law perfectly without the aid of a greater one; and second. all the race being imperfect, redemption from the condemnation by the blood of Jesus was absolutely necessary. After the Christ is completed, God will make a new Covenant "Behold the day is come saith the Lord when I will put my law in their mindsand write it in their hearts, and I will be to them a God and they shall be to me a people." (Hebrew 8:10) The mediator of this new covenant will not be an imperfect man, as was Moses. Moses was a type of the new mediator the Christ; "And Christ shall minister unto the people. and having redeemed the people, he will lift them up and bless all who will be obedient to the terms of the new law covenant (Hebrew 9:15) A covenant is a contract between parties competent to make a contract ad since the house of Israel and all others are imperfect, God will make his contract with Christ as the legal representative of Israel, and through them of the whole human family. Therefore, in our text Jehovah says to the Christ, "I will give thee for a covenant of the people."

The blessings that are coming to the people through the covenant are also intimated in the text. "I will give thee for a light unto the nations." When the nations and the people of earth have drained the cup of bitterness to the dregs; when the great dark night has settled down upon them, described by the Prophet, they will indeed be ready for a light and desirous of that light. This will come to them with the full establishment of Messiah's Kingdom. Christ and his faithful followers have been reproached throughout all the dark nights of sin and wickedness marking the Gospel Age. But with the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom the words of the prophet will apply;" Arise, shine, for thy light is come and the Glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness to the people;but the Lord shall rise upon thee and his glory shall be sent upon thee. And the Gentiles (Nations) shall come to thy light. and Kings to the brightness of thy rising (Isaiah 60: 1-3) Thus the Lord Jehovah pictures the nations seeking this light. Millions of people will be brought through this terrible time of trouble. Heretofore they have been blinded by the God of this world, Satan, who has kept the truth from themby various systems. One of his latest schemes is the organization of the Interchurch world movement which ignores the doctrines of the Bible and joins hands in action, acting together with professionals, politicians and Big Business. But the time is near at hand when the eyes of the understanding of the people will be opened. This is a part of the commission given through the Christ in our first text to wit, "To open the blind eyes." When the people get the eyes of understanding open they will rejoice and the Prophet again dlescribes it thus "The eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the laymen meet as a heart and tongue of the dumb saying; for in the wilderness shall waters break out and streams in the desert. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." (Isaiah 35: 5-6-10)

The first blessing, then, of Messiah's Kingdom will be ministered unto those who are brought thru the time of trouble and who have their eyes of understanding opened that they may discern the fact that the Kingdom has been established and their blessings are at hand. The evidence heretofore set forth is so clear, so cogent and so convincing that no student can doubt the fact that the old world is ending, the New order is coming in and therefore the time is at hand for the manifestation the Sons of God here mentioned, and that truly is can now be proclaimed that "Millions of people now walking about upon the earth will never go into the grave." This glad message is now going to the people, and here and there some are getting their eyes opened already but the hour is not far distant when millions will have their eyes of understanding opened and after they have profited by their blessings and are given the oportunity to share in the merit of Christ's ransom sacrifice and accept the terms of the new covenant and live forever in happiness, then the Christ will begin to perform the other part of the commission mentioned in the text to wit, "to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house." The prison here is the great prison house of death into which thousands of millions have gone in the past centuries. All of these shall be brought out of death. Jesus said: "Marvel not; the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his voice and come forth." (John 28:29) There shall be resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. (Act. 24:15)

The fact that our first text shows when the Messiah begins his reign the eyes of the blind are first to be opened before the awakening of the dead shows that there will be many people on earth who will then be given an opportunity of Life Everlasting without having to go into death and since other scriptures clearly show that the Christ is present setting up his Kingdom, that the old order is passing away and the new coming in, it can be confidently stated that millions now living and walking about upon the earth will never go into the grave." This is the good news that must go to Christendom as a witness, and then the complete ending of the old order will come.

World Now Ended---Millions Now Walking About Here on Earth Will Never Go Into the Grave.

"Thus saith God. the Lord .He that created the Heavens and stretched them out; He that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; He that giveth breath unto the people upon it and spirit to them that walk therein. I the Lord have called thee in right eousness, and will hold thine hand and will keep thee, and give thee for a Covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prison ers from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."—Isaiah 42:5 7.

The words of the foregoing text are addressed to the Christ, Head and Body. Herein is again mani fested the love of God, particularly for the entire human family. The class first above mentioned are the special recipients of his favor and shall be used as a channel for the blessing of the others who respond to the terms of the New Law Cove nant.

The Prophet of the Lord speaks of the days af Christendom when the old order is going to pieces, thus; "Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light, even very dark and no brightness in it? (Amos 5:20). Without doubt this reference to a time when the last members of the church have fin ished their course and passed on into the Kingdom. While they have been in the earth proclaiming the truth, they have been a measure of light compared with the other dark ness. When the great trouble has reached its climax in the earth when every man's hand is against his neighbor it will then be even a dark time.

God foreknew this time of stress that would come upon the nations of the earth and foretold it through his prophets, and also made provisiofls for th complete relief and de liverance of the people therefrom Many centuries ago he made a promise to Abraham, saying "In thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." And this seed of promise through which the blessing will come are the sons of God. the Christ, Head and Body (Galatians 3:18; 16:27 29) The Apostle Paul, speaking of the distressed conditions of the nations and of their desire to be relieved from such conditions said, "The whole cre ations groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now, waiting for the manifestation of the Song of God." (Romans 8: 22; 19) These sons of God are the same ones described by the Prophet Isaiah in our text first above quoted. The head of that class is Christ Jesus himself ,who, being born a man humbled himself unto death even the death of the cross wherefore God has highly exalted and given him a same that ultimately every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is the consecrated Christ to the Glory of God (Philip pians 2: 8 11) At the Jordan he consecrated himself responding to the call of the Heavenly Father to the exalted position he occupies. Through all of his trying experien ces the Heavenly Father sustained him. At Pentecost the members of the body of Christ began to be se lected. Then it was the call went forth. Call to what? "Call to be saints (First Cor. 1:2) Called to be joint heirs with Christ Jesus in his Kingdom (Romans 8:16 17:30)

How were they calledl in right-eousness? Were they not imper-fect men like all others? The ans-wer is that these were called in righteoushess when they responded to the invitation to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Such have been drawn to the Lord Jesus by the Father, by giving them a knowledge of the fact that he provided redemp tion for them and for all men thru the blood of Christ. and that in ths Gospel Age he has opened the way for men to be followers of Jesus. Such being drawn to the Lord Je-sus and offering themselves in full consecration to do the Heavenly Father's will, Christ Jesus became their advocate, He imputed to them the merit of his sacrifce, and as their High Priest, presented them to the Father, and they were made acceptable, and accepld by the Father through and by the reason of the imputed merit of Christ Je-sus. Thus they became righteous through his merit being covered with the robe of his righteousness God then begot such of his word of truth, that they should be of a kind of first fruits of his creatures. (Jas. 1:18) He begot them to a hope of life, to an inheritance insoruptable and undefiled, reserved in Heaven for them. (First Peter 1:3) He gave to such the exceeding great and precious promises, by which they might be partakers of the Divine Nature. (Second Pefer 1:4) Their path way has not been one strewn with flowers, but it has been a path way of suffering;" For hereunto were ye called; because Christ al-so suffered for us, leaving us an ex-ample, that we should follow his steps." (First Peter 2:21) "For it is given unto you as a privilege not only to believe in the Lord Je-sus Christ, but to suffer with him" 'Phillippians 1:29, Diaglott)

"For it became him for whom all things, and by whom are all things in bringing many sons unto Glory, to make the Captain of their salva-tion perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctifiedl are all from one; for which he (Jesus) is not ashamed to call them Brethren" (Heb. 2:10-11) The servant is not greater than his master and since the Master was persecuted, his fol-lowers maist expect to be persecuted (John 15:18-20) But through all of these trying experiences the sweet and consoling powers of the Heaven ly Father are spoken to them, say-ing, "I will hold thine hand and will keep thee;" And all the way they are kept by the power of God, through faith unto Salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time (First Peter 1:5) The last time means the last days of Christendom, dur-in which time the sons of God shall be completed, glorified and made manifest.

Mark now the commission given to them to do a work in the future. "I will give thee for a covenant of the people." Saith the Lord, God made a covenant with the nation of Israel at Mt. Sanai through Moses as a mediator, and by this covenant promised to give them Life Ever-lasting if they would keep his cove-nant. (Leviticus 18:5. Romans 10:5) He said to them, he that kepeth the Law shall live by the law. They were unable to keep this covenant, because of their own imperfection and because their mediator was al-so imperfect. This covenant and their inability to keep it demon-strated two things; first that none but a righteous man can keep the law perfectly without the aid of a greater one; and second, all the race being imperfect, redemption from the condemnation by the blood of Jesus was absolutely neces sary. After the Christ is complet-ed, God will make a new Covenant "Behold the day is come saith the Lord when I will put my law in their mindsand write it in their hearts, and I will be to them a God and they shall be to me a people." (Hebrew 8:10) The mediator of this new covenant will not be an imperfect man, as was Moses. Mos-es was a type of the new mediator the Christ; "And Christ shall min-ister unto the people, and having redeemed the people, he will lift them up and bless all who will be obedient to the terms of the new law covenant (Hebrew 9:15) A covenant is a contract between par-ties competent to make a contract ad since the house of Israel and all others are imperfect, God will make his contract with Christ as the legal representative of Israel, and through them of the whole hu-man family. Therefore, in our text Jehovah says to the Christ, "I will give thee for a covenant of the peo-ple."

The blessings that are coming to the people through the covenant are also intimated in the text. "I will give thee for a light unto the na-tions." When the nations and the people of earth have drained the cup of bitterness to the dregs; when the great dark night has set-tled down upon them, described by the Prophet, they will indeed be ready for a light and desirous of that light. This will come to them with the full establishment of Mes-siah's Kingdom. Christ and his faithful followers have been re-proached throughout all the dark nights of sin and wickedness mark-ing the Gospel Age. But with the establishment of Messiah's King-dom the words of the prophet will apply;" Arise, shine, for thy light is come and the Glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness to the people;but the Lord shall rise upon thee and his glory shall be sent upon thee. And the Gentiles (Nations) shall come to thy light, and Kings to the brightness of thy rising (Isaiah 60: 1-3) Thus the Lord Jehovah pic-tures the nations seeking this light. Millions of people will be brought through this terrible time of trou-ble. Heretofore they have been blinded by the God of this world, Satan, who has kept the truth from themby various systems. One of his latest schemes is the organiza-tion of the Interchurch world move-ment which ignores the doctrines of the Bible and joins hands in ac-tion, acting together with profes-sionals, politicians and Big Busi-ness. But the time is near at hand when the eyes of the understanding of the people will be opened. This is a part of the commission given through the Christ in our first text to wit, "To open the blind eyes." When the people get the eyes of un-derstanding open they will rejoice and the Prophet again dlescribes it thus "The eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the laymen meet as a heart and tongue of the dumb saying; for in the wil-derness shall waters break out and streams in the desert. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." (Isaiah 35: 5-6-10) Gally 3

The first blessing, then, of Mes-siah's Kingdom will be ministered unto those who are brought thru the time of trouble and who have their eyes of understanding opened that they may discern the fact that the Kingdom has been established and their blessings are at hand. The evidence heretofore set forth is so clear, so cogent and so convinc-ing that no student can doubt the fact that the old world is ending, the New order is coming in and therefore the time is at hand for the manifestation the Sons of God here mentioned, and that truly is can now be proclaimed that "Mill-ions of people now walking about upon the earth will never go into the grave." This glad message is now going to the people, and here and there some are getting their eyes opened already but the hour is not far distant when millions will have their eyes of understanding opened and after they have profited by their blessings and are given the oportunity to share in the mer-it of Christ's ransom sacrifice and accept the terms of the new cove-nant and live forever in happiness, then the Christ will begin to per-form the other part of the commis-sion mentioned in the text to wit, "to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in dark-ness out of the prison house." The prison here is the great prison house of death into which thous-ands of millions have gone in the past centuries. All of these shall be brought out of death. Jesus said: "Marvel not; the hour is coming in which all in their graves shall hear his voice and come forth." (John 28:29) There shall be resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. (Act. 24:15)

The fact that our first text shows when the Messiah begins his reign the eyes of the blind are first to be opened before the awakening of the dead shows that there will be many people on earth who will then be given an opportunity of Life Ever-lasting without having to go into death and since other scriptures clearly show that the Christ is pres-ent setting up his Kingdom, that the old order is passing away and the new coming in, it can be confi-dently stated that millions now liv-ing and walking about upon the earth will never go into the grave." This is the good news that must go to Christendom as a witness, and then the complete ending of the old order will come.

FULL TEXT OF DEBATE IN CONVENTION HALL

a character for love and justice far below that of the worst of humanity.

A son is supposed to show, in a large degree, the character, spirit and disposition of his father. A true Christian is a spiritual son of God and he is supposed to develop more and more of the character likeness of God, his Father.

If the teachings of the Church Denominations are true, then the mob who delight with hellish grin, to hear the groans of their helpless victims while struggling in the flames, would represent the elect of God. And, why do I say this? Because, if it is true that Jehovah, God, delights to torment sinners throughout eternity, then the mob which only had the power to torture its victim for a short time would be showing their father's spirit to the extent of their ability.

It is hard to do anything much worse to a person than to misrepresent his character. All the Denominations misrepresent the character of God in that they claim that God planned that a saintly few should go to Heaven while the billions of humanity spend eternity in a hell of fire and brimstone tormented by fire-proof devils. There is no Scripture foundation for the doctrine of eternal torment. This doctrine is based upon the false idea that when one dies he is not dead. There is but one plain statement in the Bible which seemingly supports the idea that the dead is not dead. It is found in Genesis 3:4 and reads thus, "Ye shall not surely die." This statement was made by the devil for the sole purpose of misrepresenting the character of God The devil intended to impress and did impress our fore-parents that God could not be depended upon and did not tell the truth when he said to them if they disobeyed His law, they would surely die. n other words, the devil told our fore-parents that God was lying. All the Denominations with few exceptions, teach that there is something about a person that remains alive and can be punished after death. By this teaching, the Denominations are saying the selfsame thing that the devil said, "That man surely does not die," and therefore they are guilty of openly calling God a liar, whether intentionally or not.

What is death? What is the meaning of the term? What did God mean when He told our fore-parents they would die if they disobeyed His law? These are very logical questions at this point. God answers all these questions himself through the Scriptures. He tells us that when a man dies, he is unconscious, has no memory, cannot speak cannot breathe, cannot think, cannot give thanks, can do no work, neither loves, hates or envies; has no feelings and knows not anything. Ecclesiastes 9:5, 6, 10; Psalms 6:5; 115: 17; 104: 29; 146:4. According to God's own word, as shown in the Scriptures just cited, there is nothing left of a man to be burned or tormented after he is dead.

The would-be wise preachers of the Church Denominations tell the people that it is the soul of a man that is blessed or punishel after death. This, then, of necessity brings up the question as to what is the soul? A soul is a moving, breathing sentient being, that has sense and exercises those senses. Man is a soul. Man has not got a soul, but man himself is a soul. There is quite a difference between a man having a cow and being a cow. Every creature that breathes is a soul. God appied the words "Living souls" to the lower order of animals long before the creation of man. Genesis 1:20-30, marginal reading. The word "soul" is applied to both man and beast in Numbers 31:28. God declares that both man and beast die alike and go to the same place. The Scripture reads thus, "For that which befalleth the beast; even one thing befalleth them, as the one dieth so dieth the other; yea they have all one breath; so that man hath no pre-eminence above a beast for all is vanity. All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again." Eccestiastes 3:19-20. My opponent, to be consistent, in view of the Scripture just cited, is forced to do one of the two things and that is, he must either denounce his claim that the wicked dead are tormentel throughout eternity, or take the position that the bad ox, mule, or horse will roast throughout eternity and the good ones will go to a Heaven of eternal bliss with man because the Scripture plainly says that both man and beast have one breath,—have the same breath and go to the same place. To what place do both man and beast go? That place do both man and beast go.That condition of non-existence, the same place Capernum went.

The principal difference between man and beast is, first, man is created with finer organism and therefore capable of doing higher and more noble thinking. Second, God has made arrangements for the resurrection of man while no such an arrangement has been made for the brute beast.

From where will man come when resurrected? From the "Dust of the earth," Daniel 12:2.

Again, some of the wise Denominational teachers claim that it is the spirit of life that lives on after man is dead and that it is the thing that is blessed with a life of endless bliss or cursed with endless torment, but I wish to say that such claim is wholly without foundatian for truth, for the reason that the phrase, "spirit of life" or "breath of life" simply means invisible power. (I would like to have a little water, if possible.) In other words, it means the power God has given life. When we read in Ecclesiastes 12:7 that the spirit returns to the God that gave it, we are to understand this to mean that the power to live or to be resurrected to life again after death, returns to the one who first gave it and no one can live again until God in His due time, uses this spirit or power of life in their behalf.

What is it about man that is to be resurrected? It cretainly is not the body that is resurrected for the reason that the Scripture plainly states that God will give it a body as it pleases Him, 1st Corinthians 15:38. It is plain to see that if it is the body that is resurrected and God gives it a body the person would have two bodies. What is the "it" that is toberesurrected? For want of better words to express the thought, we term it the "character pattern" that will be resurrected. To illustrate this thought we will use the pattern of a dress or the patent of a piano. The dress may wear out or the piano may be knocked to pieces and thrown into the scrap pile, but as long as you have the dress pattern or patent to the piano, you can reproduce that dress or that piano out of such material as pleases you. The character of no two individuals is just alike. We are all shaping characters different in some respect. God carries the "character pattern" of every person in the chamber of His memory and in the resurrection days will reproduce the "character pattern" of each person and give them bodies as it pleases Him. Now, concerning God's plan, the Scripture discloses the fact that God foreknew that man would sin and go into death and that he planned to redeem him through the death of His Son and in due time grant life everlasting to all the willing and obedient. The Scripture further shows that God is working out His plan for human salvation throuh three great periods of time called "worlds" or "ages." The first world or age runs from the flood to the second coming of Christ and the third world or age runs from the second coming of Christ onward without end. 2nd Peter 3:6, 7, 13. God used the first age from creation to the flood principally in permitting the Holy Angels to convince themselves that it was not within their power to rescue man from death. He used the first part of the second world or age to develop a house of servants which includes all persons loyal and faithful to God, down to the first advent of Christ. He is using the latter part of this second world or age known as the Gospel Age, to develop the Church, the seed promise, the seed of Abraham, the Christ, who is to bless all the families of the earth during the third great period known as the world to come, wherein dwelleth righteousness. Both the first and the second world or age have been and are being used in part to let mankind convince themselves of inability to establish a government that would be the desire of the nations. These great periods of time have also been used in letting man learn something of the exceeding selfishness of sin.

The Gospel Age was opened up for the sole purpose of selecting and qualifying the officers who are to serve in the spirit phase of the incoming Kingdom. It was not God's plan to convert the world during the Gospel Age. God has appointed a day in which to judge the worldin righteousness, Acts 17:31, and the length of the day in which man is to be judged is one thousand years. (2nd Peter 3:7-8.)

Just at this point it might be well for me to explain the meaning of the word "Church." The word "Church" means a called out class; it comes from the word "Ecclesia." It is composed of Jesus, the head and the members of his body (Colossians 1:8) (Just here I will have to stop a moment until I get a drink of water.)

REV. H. T. S. JOHNSON: Friends while we are waiting for our friend to get a drink of water let us sing "Guide Me O My Great Jehovah" somebody who can sing start it out.

(Thereupon the song entitled, Guide Me O My Great Jehovah" is now sung by the audience.)

A GREAT FINANCIAL Opportunity

First Come! First Served!

Would you like to rent, lease or buy a two story twenty-room, fifteen thousand dollar bungalow at Idabel, the most rapidly growing County seat in South-East Oklahoma? The building is located within two blocks from the Frisco Station. an ideal location for a first class Hotel and there is no greater demand for such an enterprise at any place than there is at Idabel. Electric lights are installed in each room in the building and connection for indoor toilets and lavatory was made with the sewerage system in July. In short. the building is modern in every phase and represents the best constructed and most commodious frame building in McCurtain County. As a hotel, and restaurant, this building, at its present location, will serve any one knowing how to conduct such a business as a veritable "mint"—an unlimited opportunity to make money, and there is absolutely no competition.

Idabel has recently installed a modern sewerage system. A fine $150,000 Courthouse was completed in August and a Government building and ice plant are to be erected soon. Among the Colored people there are four churches, a fine school, a picture, theatre store and a $40,000 gin, th hotel above occupying the central place.

The conditions of this proposition are as follows: Rent $75.00 (1st three months in advance); each following in advance.

5 YEAR LEASE, $5,000—payable in advance.

SALE, $9,500—$4,500 cash. Balance on terms to-suit purchaser. A Sale is preferable.

It is guaranteed that this building cannot be duplicated any where for less than $15,000.

Any one wishing to consider this proposition will see Prof. A. M. Salone at Booker Washingtos High School or 841 North Bullett St., Tulsa, Okla.

There are six other rent houses for sale on same and adjoining blocks. See Prof. Salone.

September 28th--Between the Hon. Richard J. Hill and the Rev. H. T. S. Johnson

Following is the full text of the recent debate at the convention hall between Hon. Richard J. Hill and Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, as reported by a special court stenographer.:

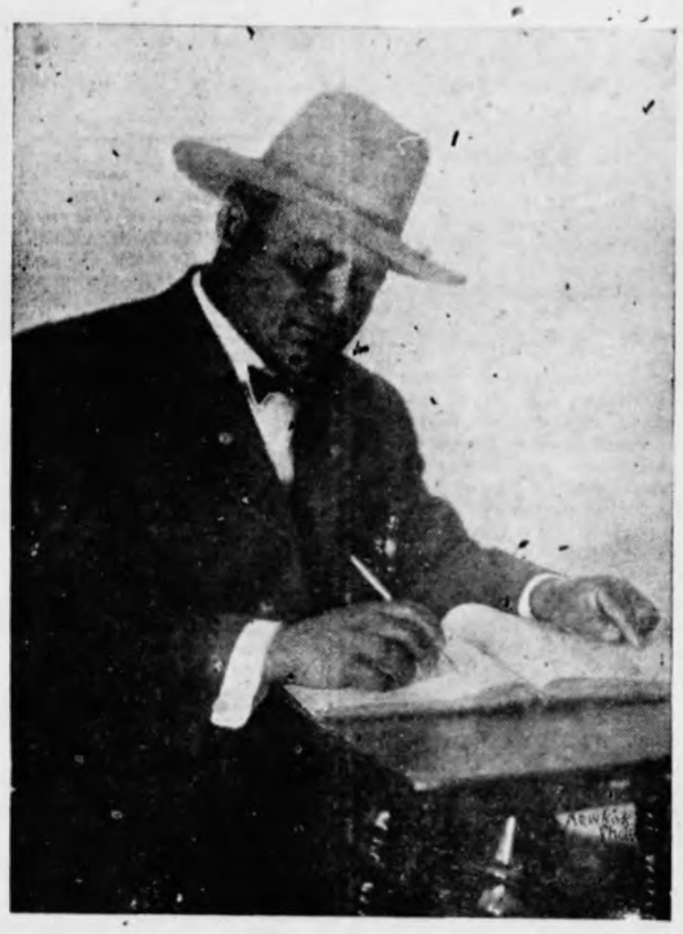
DEBATE

Between Mr. Richard J. Hill and Rev. H. T. S. Johnson at Convention Hall in the city of Tulsa, State of Oklahoma, on the 28th day of September, A. D. 1920, on the subject:

"RESOLVED THAT THE TEACHINGS OF THE INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS SHOULD BE SUBSTITUTED FOR THE DOCTRINE OF THE DENOMINATIONS"

MR. A. J. SMITHERMAN: The audience is requested to sing "Christ the Solid Rock," Number one. (Thereupon, at the conclusion of the song the following proceedings were had:)

MR. SMITHERMAN: We will have prayer now by Reverend Johnson, after which we will request the ministers present to step upon the stage. (Thereupon the audience is led in prayer by the Rev. Johnson at the conclusion of which ministers of the gospel came forward for seats on the stage.)



MR. SMITHERMAN: "You are fully aware, of course, that this is the day of the debate between Rev. Johnson and Mr. Hill and the subject of this debate is, "Resolved that the teachings of the International Bible Students should be substituted for the Doctrine of the Church Denomination." Mr. Hill in this debate, takes the affirmative and Rev. Johnson the negative. Mr. Hill has the affirmative and will consume forty minutes for the opening. Rev. Johnson has the Negative and will open his side of the question with forty-five minutes; then Mr. Hill, the affirmative, will take twenty minutes for rebuttal and Rev. Johnson will make the remainder of his hour andl fifteen minutes in closing. Then he will be followed by Mr. Hill who will close.

I will now introduce to you Mr. Hill, Richarl J. Hill will now take up the affirmative."

MR. HILL.: "I beg to remind you, dear friends, that the human race has reached the point upon the stream of time when the battle is raging as never before between justice and injustice, truth and error, and soon injustice and false teachings will go down in defeat, never to rise again.

The subject for discussion tonight is, "Resolved that the teachings of the International Bible Students should be substituted, in the main, for what the Church Denominations teach."

In my attempt to show you why the teachings of the International Bible Students should be substituted for what the Church Denominations teach, I will discuss the subject under four dlifferent heads subject under four general headings, to wit:

First, God's character; second, His plan for human salvation; third, His promises; fourth, the fulfillment of His promises.

Now first, as concerning God's character, He would have His human creatures to understand that they can look to Him as the very highest conceivable standard of justice, power, love and wisdom. God tells us in Isaiah 55:8-9 that, "My thoughts are not your thoughts neither are your ways my ways ,for as the Heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." By this statement, Jehovah would have us get the thought fully into our minds that our highest conception of justice, power, love and wisdom is as far below His standard as the earth is below the high Heavens.

To give you a clear idea of the thought intended to be conveyed in the Scripture just cited, I remind you that the boundary of the physical Heavens has never been reached by the most powerful telescope of to-day. When man invents his most powerful instrument and points it into the physical heavens, piercing millions and millions of miles of space, what does he find? Instead of finding the boundary of the physical Heavens, he learns that the more powerful the telescope used, the more realms of endless space in the physical Heavens open before his gaze. What should this teach us concerning the character of God? We should apply the measure He gives us and find out. He gives us an earthly illustration as to the distance between the boundaries of His noble character and the very best there is of His human creatures. Just as the physical Heavens is an immeasurable distance above the physical earth, so is the character of God a measureless distance above that of the very best of mankind.

Depraved humanity, with all of its weakness and short comings, would not for a moment consent to the torture of the worst criminal on earth. Nearly everybody would consent to the death of a wilful red-handed crimisal in accordance with the law. But no one would sanction his eternal torment. No where in the civilized world will men allow a law to be placed upon the statute books permitting the lasting torture of criminals Remember, that death does not mean torment. Torment carries the idea of keeping one alive in a sense for the purpose of inflicting misery and great injury.

Who would dare put God's characters for justice and love below that of a fallen hummity? No one but the representatives of the Church Dnominations would do such a thing. They claim that God, foreknowing all things planned that the wicked, after death, should be tormented throughout all eternity. Such teachings by the Church Denominations represent Gol as having

MR. HILL: (Continuing) The names of the members are not written upon some Church Registry or Inter-Church World Movement record, but are written in Heaven. (Hebrews 14:23) The members constitute a peculiar people, called out from the world, and developed into likeness of Christ Jesus (1st Peter 2:4-10) No one is considered a member of the Church that is recognized by Jehovah unless he is baptized into Christ. Neither has any one a prospective chance to live with the Lord in Heaven on the Divine Plan unless he has been baptized into Shrist's death. In other words,one must be dead with Christ so far as the things of the world are concerned. (Romans 6:3, 5-8.) To be baptized into Christ's death means to be fully consecrated to lo the will of God even unto death. When one comes to the point where he is glad to tell the Lord that he surrenders all to Him, including his life and is willing to follow Him through thick and thin even unto death, that is the time one takes his first step of baptism into Christ's death and then is when his name is entered upon the roll in Heaven as probationary members of the Church of the first born. You may judge yourselves by this standard and if you can conscientiously say that I have turned over all to the Lord and am doing all in my power to live up to my covenant, and if you are faithful unto death, you may rest assured that when the roll is called, you will be there; but, if you have not taken this step of full consecration to the Lord, I feel safe in advising you to seek the Lord with a knowledge of his plan at once and get ready to live right here upon this earth throughout eternity. These man-made organizations are not churches regardless of the names by which they are called.

The Church Denominations teach that these man-made organizations that are over busy collecting money and claiming to be trying to save souls, are churches; that the Gospel Age is the day of salvation for the world of mankind and all who die outside of these Denominations will spend their eternity in torment that death, during this Gospel Age, ends all so far as being saved or lost is concerned; that the resurrection of the dead is for the purpose of heaping further damnation upon the condemned. The Scripure plainly states that the resurrection of the dead is for the purpose of rewarding the just with life everlasting and judging the unjust and giving them a chance to gain life everlasting. (John 5:28-29) And that the judgment of the unjust will begin at the second coming of our Lord which is at the end of the Gospel Age. (Acts 2:19-21.) In all these most important points, the Church Denominations teach directly in opposition to the plain statements of the Bible. The Bible represents God's own word to his human creatures. God's words are true and any teaching which disputes the plain statements of the Scriptures is saying in so many words the same thing that the devil said to Mother Eve, "That God did not tell the truth." Therefore, God's plan, like His character, has been and is now being woefully misrepresented and the humble people left in gross darkness concerning God's plan of Salvation.

God's Promises to Man

God has promised that all that are in their graves shall hear His voice and come forth. They that have done unto a resurrection of life, and they that have done ill unto the resurrection of judgment (Revised version.) He has also told us that life, liberty, happiness and times of refreshing shall come to the world of mankind from the presence of the Lord; (Acts 3:19' that the wilderness and solitary place shall be glad, and the desert shall blossom as the rose (Isaiah 35:1;) that the eyes of the blind, both physically and mentally, shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped (physically and mentally). Then shall the lame man leap as a hart and the tongue of the dumb shall sing—Isaiah 29:18; that in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert; and parched grounds become pools and the thirsty land springs of water.—Isaiah 35:6-7; that then the earth shall yield her increase—Psalms 67:6; and the inhabitants shall not say I am sick—Isaiah 33:24 that in that day they shall build houses and inhabit them, which is not true today, because generally the ones who build the fine houses do not ive in them and they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit thereof. In that day it will not be as it is so often the case now that one poor fellow labors hard to produce while another sits back in an easy chair and profiteers on the product of his labor. Every man will have to live by the fruit of his own labor in that day. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth trouble. Isaiah 65:21-25.

The Church Denominations tell the common people about these blessed promises but instead they tell the poor people that the world is to be burned up and that the bad people roast and torture throughout all eternity and the few good ones, taken to a Heaven of eternal bliss. The Denominations are loud mouthed in claiming that the literal earth is to be burned up in the very face of God's plain statement in Ecclesiastes 1:4, "that the earth abideth forever; that He formed it to be inhabited—Isaiah 45:18, and that He gave the earth to the children of men—Psalms 115:16. The Church Denominations call God a liar concerning His promises to man

When Are God's Promises To Man To Be Fulfilled

The Church Denominations claim th atno man knows or can know the time for the ending of the world or the fuifillment of God's promises to man. They generally base their claim upon Christ's statement in the 24th Chapter of Mathew, 36th verse, which states that of that day and hour knoweth no man. The word "knoweth" carries the thought of present tense and is the same as saying, no one knows now at this time. Chist's statement was not intended to impress His disciples that no one ever would know. We must remember that at the time these words were spoken. Christ himself was still on trial to test His loyalty unto Jehovah God even unto death. Listen what he tells his disciples immediately after he is raised from the dead—"All power is given unto Me in Heaven and in earth," Mathew 28:18. Now, if all power was given unto the Lord, both in Heaven and on earth, is it reasonable to suppose that He would not know anything about the "important event." Such a thought is contrary to the plain statementsof the Scriptures. Listen! Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you—Acts 1:18, and that Spirit of Truth will guide you into all truth and will show you things to come—John 16:13. God tells us that the words are cosed and sealed until the time of the end when the wise will understand the teachable ones but none of the wickedl—those who are wise in their own way shall understand. (Daniel 12:10.) Ye brethren are not in darkness—Hebrews 3:1 that dlay should overtake you as a thief, 1st Thessalonians 5:4

(And the speaker at this time having concluded his statement, the ngative discussion of this question is began and the following proceedings are had to wit:

MR. SMITHERMAN: I will now introduce to you Rev. H. T. S. Johnson who will discuss the negative side of the question. (Applause

REV. H. T. S. JOHNSON: Mr Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, I count this a very important moment because the question—the subject we are to discuss is extraordinary. We are asked to substitute the doctrines of Orthodox Christianity for the teachings of the International Bible Students Association. That makes it necessary to call attention to the fact that you are asked to accept the teachings of an association of laymen for the doctrines of the Christian Church, that has a call and Divinely appointed ministry.

The opposition has as you noticed nothing good to say of the Church; all kinds of good things about the poor sinner, the man who is doing Gally 8 all the devilment of the world—all kinds of good thing about him, but nothing good about the Church and nothing good about the ministers of the Church. Of course he is true to his training—the father of the International Bible Studens' Association, Mr. Russell, has this to say with reference to the Church. "Suppose that the salaries anl living of all Ministers, Bishops, Priests and so forth were cut off, all churches chapesl and cathedrals destroyed, all theological seminaries broken up and their professors turned to other pursuits, all religions, guilds and societies disbanded including all sectarian organizations, what would be the effect? Who can doubt it would be a real blessing under the disguise of a great and terrible catastrophe? This appears in Bible Students' Monthly, Volume 6, Number 9. Now, I could sort of understand howan Infidel or an Atheist might utter such words as that but I declare, I don't understand how a man who claims to be God's agent and who makes for himself the place of teacher of all people and Jesus' denouncer of the Church, I don't see how he can say that about the Church and all institutions fostered through the Church in view of the good things that grow therefrom. Now, that is the ideal of Russellism or International Bible Students' Association with reference to the Church.

What is the Bible idlea of the Church? When Peter, in answer to the question of the Master, "Who do ye say I am," uttered these words, "Thou art the Chrst, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him, "Thou art Peter—upon this rock will I build this Church," and the gods of Russellism with all its insidious attacks, shall not prevail against it. (Applause).

And then, he did not stop there—he most said—Russellism says, there is no Church on earth—the Church is in Heaven and your names will appear up there, not down here, but Jesus said, "And verily I say unto thee, "whosoever" or whatsoever things ye bind on earth, shall be bound in Heaven and whatsoever things ye loose on earth shall be lost in Heaven;" If that does not give us proof for a Church down here I don't know what does. Now, it is impossible for the Church down here to bind Russellism. (Applause from followers of Russellism) and therefore my honored opponent and all of his crowd are loose so far as the Church is concerned on earth and if the Bible be true they are loose in Heaven. (Laughter)

Now, friends, if you are going to substitute the teachings of that kind for the Doctrine of the Church, there is something wrong with your thinking machine. You are asked to accept the teachings of a society that has no Divinely called and inspired ministry but a self-appointed set of lay teachers and preachers in the vocabulary of a Student, International Bible Student Association, is a comic ward, he gets tickled at the word "preacher." In the language of the International Bible Student he is the figure of a clown, a fool, a disbeliever who does not know the Bible so that—I don't need to cite but one passage of Scripture; you will find it in the tenth Chapter of Romans and the question is askd, how shall they believe on Him whom they do not know—but let me get the words right. How then (I need to get my glasses), "How then shall they call on him in whom they have ot believed.

RICHARD J. HILL

And how shall they believe in Him ow whom they have not heard. And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent?

(A VOICE FROM THE ADDIENCE: That's it, that's it,Applause)

REV. JOHNSON: (Continuing) Now, the International Bible Students Association has nothing but words of ridicule to say with reference to the preacher; they make him anything but a good man and of course, they are true to their training because Mr. Russell, before though and I want to say this: I promised my opponent, he pledged me before he started, that I would not say anything defamatory of the dead. He meant Mr. Russell. I never thought of getting him to say anything defamatory of John Wesley because I know he could not, and I promised him I would not say any thing so it is alright.

These are Mr. Russel's words in print for anybody to read (quoting from paper) "Of the two hundred thousand professed ministers of Christ, probably one hundred and eighty thousand declare privately, if not publicly, that they have no faith in the Bible as God's inspired message to His people. The other twenty thousand are sadly confused while still clinging to the Bible as theDivine word. The truth with all these ministers is that they have been giving heed to the creds and traditions of men formulated in the dark ages and have been neglecting their study of the Bible. Those who have rejected the Bible, ready fallen most abjectly, while the ready fallen most ajectly, while the one-tenth still standing, are so shaken, confused and unreliable as to be able to do little for themselves or their flock." This from the Bible Students' Monthly, volume siv, number seven. Now, what does that say? It says that whoever said it, has spoken from an assumption. How did Mr. Russell know that one hundred and eighty thousandl preachers had no faith in God's word, in the Bible, as the message of God to His people? Did he know that many preachers? No. How did he know the other twenty thousand were confused and bewildered and therefore not able to do any good? I ask you the question and I want you to anser it for yourselves. If I would make such an assumption as that to you or anybody else, you would not believe it. If a man would say that nine tenths of the lawyers in the country had fallen, he would be arrested; if a man would get up and slander nine-tenths of the physiciansof the country in that way, he would be sent to an asylum—he would be called crazy and when a man gets up and says that about the preachers of the coutnry, I will let you decide where he goes. (Applause)

You are asked to substitute for the Bible, the studies of the Scripture because that is what the father of this whole thing suggests and would recommend. Furthermore, not only do we findl that the Bible cannot show the Divine plan in studying the Bible by itself but we also find that if anyone lays the Scripture studies aside—that is those six books of the International Bible Students almost beg you to take those six books—now anybody that lays them aside, even after he has used them, after he has become familiar with them, after he has read them for ten years, if he then lays them aside and ignores them and goes to the Bible alone, after he has understood his Bible for ten years, our experience is that within two years he gets into the darkness; reading the Bible, he gets into darkness; on the other hand, if he has merely read the Scripture Studies with read the Scripture Studlies with their references and had not read a page of the Bible as such, he would be in the light at the end of the two years, because he would have the light of the Scriptures. Watch Tower, page 298, issue of September 15, 1910. Is not that putting the books that Mr. Russell wrote before the Bible that we study? Is it not saying that if you read the Bible, read it every day without these companion voumes of International Bible Students' Association, you are going into darkness in two years? How many of you believethat?

You are asked to substitute the teachings of an institution which serves God with the teachings of an institution which serves the devil. That is pretty strong, is it not?

A voice from the Audience:Pretty strong.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: I stand ready to defend what I said. The International Bible Students' Association serves the Devil because it teaches that man is not mortal—I mean that man is not immortal. My opponent, who has just left the floor, told you a great deal about what became of man when he died and said a good many things. He is running true to form because that is the teachigs of his chief. The word "immortality" is rarely used in its strict academic sense as sigifying deathlessness, or that which if proof against death—inherency of life, requiring no sustenance. immortality in this sense of the word is of course a quality which belongs to God alone. Where then is human immortality? We answer that there is no human immortality in the sense that there is Divine immortality, in the sense that man is death proof. God alone has immortality in that sense—Bible Students' Monthly, volume three, number four Those are the words of Mr. Russell. I am not saying, "Pastor Russell"—the reason I say Mr. Russell is because he is not—he was not a member of any Church. Not being a member of any Church, he could not be a preacher; a man cannot b a pastor unless he is a preacher.

VOICE FROM OUTSIDE: That's right.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: Now, if there is no deathess soul but that of Divinity, what did Christ mean, pray tell me, when He said, "Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul? What was He talking about I wondler? Well, I guess Jesus didn't know; He didn't have the International Bible Students to give Him lessons. (Applause.

Now, when an institution teils you that man is not mortal when all—when all men universally believe it without any teacher—anything men universally believe is true. it has something behind it— it has a basis upon which to stand. Men have tried to dispute the flood, but you will find that people everywhere have a tradition of the flood, and that substantiates what the Bible said about it and what men believe everywhere — universally believe Men universally believe that when they leave here they will live elsewhere—for that reason men who believe that have religion. I don't care how much heathen he is, he has religion of some kind and if he does not know the true God, he had something that represents that God, a fetish made with his own hands; he bows to that, not because he beieves that is the true God, but that is the thing through which he would serve the God he does not know and when an institution tells you or an individual tells you that man is not immortal, he is flying in the face of an accepted fact by intelligent men everywehre.

We have abundance of truth in the Scriptures that man lives on but I will get to that when I discuss the punishment side of it. I am going to say something with reference to the hell that my opponent says does not exist—the hell the preachers make—the churches make. The idlea that man is not immortal takes from him the incentive to live his best. You let a man get the idlea that this is all there is to him—there is no more to him than there is to the horse and that man will not conform to the principle of right livng as he does with the belief; we somehow feel we are citizens of two worlds; we are citizens here and citizens when we leave here in another world and because we are going to live somewhere else, we rerognize this as the place where we prepare for that other life somewhere else and therefore the necessity of putting on the brakes and best. You let a man get the idea ticements which lead to sin and curbing these passions andl appetites of ourselves, that we may be able to get a better ciondition when we get to that other place.

Now, when an institution tells you you are not immortal, it is serving the devil because it is taking away the incentive to higher and better living; that is the very thing God wants you to have. it is serving the devil because it attaches no hell and future punishment. You have heard what the speaker who just left the floor said and in that, he is true to form—he is folliowing his teacher who said, "The world will receive Divine mercy extended thru Jesus by the Father's arrangement to Adam and every member of his race, no matter how degraded, no matter how fallen no matter how been shed, the just for the unjust for the sins of the whole world and still more stupendous is the resurrection work which God proposes for the world of mankind, thousands of millions to be awakened and restored to the same condition formerly enjoyed—conditions of imperfections from which they will gradually carried forward during the one thousand years, will all be accomplished by the Father's power through the Messiah the Mediator of the New Covenant. It will be a continuous miracle of awakening and uplifting the race." Bible Students' Monthly, Volume Four Num-Three. Now the Scriptures say in the second chapter of James, 13th verse, "For he shall have judgment without mercy who hath showed no mercy," but Mr. Russell says it makes no difference how degraded, how fallen—it matters not how mean, he is going to have a chance. James says he is not—which are you going to believe? Which are yoo going to believe? ??

VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: James!

REV. JOHNSON: Mary, 16th chapter, 16th verse, says "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Applause). But the International Bible Students' Association says, "No no, that is not so—that is not so." Well, it is in the Bible and they are the works of Jesus; what are you going to do with them? Well, that is not so tute asd give you something; if they and they will go abead and substitute and give you something if they give you anythng at all, it will be a substitute and parson, 'pastor' Russell or Mr. Russell's explanation of things (interrupted with applause) and of course you will be in the light if you take that but you will be in the dark if you study the Bible without that.

Now, when you tell a man there is no hell—maybe I had better wait a little before I get to that, bu I want to say this: The Inernational Bible Students' Association teaches that hell and the grave mean the same thing, nothing more and that is true there are many passages is this blessed Book that bear out that claim. The Hebrews believed that very thing and taught it but they began to believe something else and they taught that something else was that this grave translated, "Sheol" from the Hebrew and Hades" from the Greek meant just the grave, that's all, but you will find in studying the Scritures that there is anoher meaning attached to it also and there are two departments to it and one constituted the place where the good people went, "in the grave" and the other was down beneath that where the bad people went and there was a little difference in that and that word has been translated, "Gehenna" and you will find plenty of that your iNew Testament.

Now, we are told that there is no punishment but I have just cited you Scripture which shows that they who do not believe shall be damned and the New Testament is just full of references to prove there is something doing after you leave here if you don't reconcile with God. "But whosoever shall say thou fool shall be in danger of hell fire." Now, of course I don't debate my opponent that there is a literal fire that is going to burn because I don't believe with him that the resurrected body is going to be just like this body—going to be physical and if it is not going to be physical, then physical fire could not torment, but we cannot think of punishment worse than burning and these words are used in the Scriptures to convey an idea of a much worse punishment than burning, so, if you prove that it is not a lake of fire and brimstone, you have not done anything—you have not relieved yourself because that is the language used to explain something very much worse.

(I confess these lights re not good enough for me) (Referring to poor lighting while trying to read from paper.) "And the Kingdom"—no I don't see that, but here is something I do see—"But the children of the Kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." That is the eighth hhapter of Matthew and Fourteenth verse. I have already read to you, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." And "whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him, but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world not in the world to come." It shows continued existence and it shows that punishment for sin must be done.

Now, I want to talk to you a little about the idea of ftutre punishment. My opponent grew eloquent when he talked about God being so bad—so mean—worse than the mob. In fact, he said that the mob who lynched people would be God's servants—they would be just like him if he would do all this that the churches and the preachers say He does. Well, now, you cannot think of God unless you think of Him as just. Now, you cannot think about Him, His mercy just as much as you please, but you will have to think about Him as justice too and you must think of Him as impartial. He is the Ruler of this great universe and His Rulership must be imparital and sin must be accounted for. If it is not atoned for in this life then where is it going to be atoned for if there is no future life? There are three ways by which one may suffer punishment: in body; in mind and in estate. Now, you will find that the idea of punishment for every sin is not carried out with reference to the body because some of the worst people in the world have the best health and some of the best people in the world are constast chronic invalids.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE That's it.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Contnuing) Well, now, there is proof that according to the bodily mode, there is no equitable punishment for sin in life and if it is not in this life and soooooooooooo uisplaymEcl sjT and sin must be punished or forgiven, one of the two, there must be a future life in which this punishment will be administered.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE Yes.

REV. JOHNSON: (Contnuing)—Then, the mental mode; the bigger the criminal, the less he is bothered about sin. A good man will suffer more pangs of conscience for having let the conductor pass him on the street car and not collect his fare and not calling his attention to it, han a bad man will suffer for having robbed a bank. A good man will suffer greater pangs of conscience for havisg wounded one's feelings than another man will who has committed murder.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE That's it.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing)—The bigger the criminal, the less he is bothered, the less he is punished mentally for his deed and neither do we find it in estate. Why some of the biggest libertines, some of the greatest debauches in the world are millionaires while some of the best people in all the world live in penury and want. Now, if yoh can think of a government whose God is just, whose rule is just, and you dare not say God is anything but just, then, if there is no way of administering punishment equitably in this life and it must be equitable or God would be unjust, then there is the argument for fiutre punishment from the standpoint of common sense and the Bible to justify the idea of future punishment—the idea of hell. I said that Russellism was serving the devil and not God for the very reason that it is saying to man, there is no hell—yiu are not immortal—you die as the horse dies and the Scriptures have been cited showing that there is no difference in man and beast; that man has no preeminence over the beast and my worthy opponent thought he said so much blt it is true that it relates to this life when one dies. He is like the beast so far as life is concerned but we have too much Bible and too much common sense ti admit there s no difference between man and beast with reference to future life. (Applause). Now, you let the average man believe that there is no place of punishment for him—no punishment for him despite what he does and you talk about Tulsa being "Hell's Half Acre" and it will become "Hell's Whole Acre;" you talk about murders and killing and everything else that goes on in Tulsa and I confess to you that if you can get the people of Tulsa to substitute the teachings of the International Bible Students' Association, that there is no hell and no punishment and you will make Tulsa at once a place unfit to live in It is a fact that the idea of hell, the idea of punishment is the greatest restraint on mas. We have not yet got to the place where we are willing to do right just because it is right. Lots of us are doing right though, but we are doing it because we recognize there is to be a reckoning. Every man must give an account to God for the deeds done in the body and because we look forward to that reckoning, because we look forward to the time when we must meet a Judge that cannot be bribed—we shall meet a Judge who will be absolutely fair—when we meet a Judge who administers justice impartially, because we look forward to that time we are careful about what we are doing now. I guess I had better save this until I come back, but I will start on it now.

The trouble with Russellism is they left out three agencies—they forgot man is free. They seem to have overlooked it and because he is free, he is responsible. If he is responsible, he must give an account to somebody somewhere but they don't take into consideration his account and his freedom and therefore they look over the responsibility and they say, no matter how degrading, no matter how fallen, no matter how mean, he is going to have another chance and he is going to get that in the resurrection. He is resurrected. The word itself means that the thing that goes down must come up but they say that thing that goes down, stays and something else come up. (Applaue)

(And now, at this time the Rev Johnson having concluded his remarks for the time, the following proceedings are had.)

MR. SMITHERMAN: Mr. Hill will now take twenty minutes for rebuttal. (Applause)

MR. HILL: I don't need twenty minutes—about five minutes will do me. I am all out of fix—I have noth ing to answer and don't want to go into my conclusion. I want to say with all earnestness that there is no wonder the poor people are in such gross darkness concerning God's plan, when our best educated college ministers have so little of the light of God's great plan. (Applause) Now, I say this in all candor and as a big broad minded friend, Rev. Johnson is in earnest but he is very unfortunate I wish to say before God and you people as not having a single idea of God's great knowledge and the plas of salvation. Why do I say that? I used to be the same way, but by the grace of God, I am permitted to see His plan and tell His truth. Now, I don't want to say anything more than—if we had time, just a weekend to argue on this matter, it woud be very beautiful; there are a whole lots of things I would like to talk to him about but we are discussisg the great plan of Salvation In the first place, he called your attention to a Scripture in Mary 16, I believe. about the 16th verse. about "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, bu he that believeth sot shall be damsed." I want to say that I am very much surprised that an intelligest educated minister does not know from the nisth verse in this Chapter, it is not the Bible and is recognized by all the scholars as interpolation. (Applause) It is acknowledged by every person that knows the Bible and all Greek scholars—he does not have to dispute with me, that the ninth verse, from the first verse to the ninth verse only is recognized as genuine from the manuscript, so I wave back (Laughter). Now, he quoted Matthew 10:28 to prove that or to give you the impression the soul could not be destroyed and I was going to spat him good but he came around and read the other but read it first and did not give you the thought he read only a part of that. Fear not them that can destroy the body but—cannot destroy the soul. I am not quoting the exact words but the substance—but fear him that can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. What is the thought? Showing that the soul can be destroyed and that is what the Lord wanted them to understand that, according to God's plan, through the sacrifice of Jesus, man was going to have a resurrection and a trial for life. Man could destroy this present feeble body but he could not destroy that chance—man has to live again Man could not do that, destroy one's chance, but God Himself (interrupted with applauses)—could destroy this life, feeble as it is and His chance for a resurrection if he was one of those whose eyes had become opened to the plan of salvation and then willingly and intelligently denied the Lord—he would be of that class—the Lord warned them.

Now, I am just going to say right here and stop—I will leave the rest of my statement because I don't feel like talking to-night on account of a little physsial inability. The subject is accept the teachings of the international Bible Students in the place of the teachings of the Church Denominations. And you talk about freedom—there is no freedom except among the International Bible Students. They are bound to God alone and all they do is upon the alter of sacrifice and I want to say here that those two hundred thousand ministers did not feed at the International Bible Students' table. The International Bible Students do not have a horde of preachers to support; neither have they got the world strewn from end to end with half-finished and bob-tailed churches; they have no such responsibility as that. This remark is not calculated to cast any reflection but it is the solems ruth. If thede is no objection, I will stop right here. I will close it. (Applause.)

(Now at this time, the applause having subsided, the following proceedings are had:)

MR. SMITHERMAN: Rev. Johnson will close his side of the question in a thirty minutes' talk. (Applause.)

REV. JOHNSON: I want to give my opposent credit for having some conscience. He started to say a bigger one than he started and he stopped. Now, he attempted to disprove what I said and what I said was simply what the Scriptures say: "that we should fear Him who can destroy the soul as well as the body but "destroy" simply means that God has the power to cast that soul in hell because it says. destroy both soul and body in hell, body in the grave and the soul in the other place He said that the International Bible Students' Association has no long string of bob-tailed churches and got a lot of applausee for the statement, but I want to say that is to the credit of the Church Denominations. The reason the International Bible Students' Association has so much money to give my worthy opponent to publish long articles in the newspaper every week and to rent the hall and pay the Stenographer and all that is because they not spreading that money so far; they are just centerng it in certain places and he has plenty of it. (Applause)

Now, I want to ask the question, brothers and sisters, what is the International Bible Students' Association doisg for the good of the world? How many orphanages has the International Bible Studests' Association established? —(interrupted by voices from the audience)

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: None.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) How many Hospitals with free wards for those who are unable to pay are maintained by the International Bible Students' Association? How many rescue Missions in the large cities to save the green country girl and the green farm girl as they enter these cities, from designing men to get them out of the things into which they have fallen and been entrapped and giving them a chance for life and respectability—(Interrupted by a voice from the audience)

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Tha's true.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Tha's true.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing—How many schools with scholarships for those who cannot pay are being maintained by the International Bible Students' Association? What is the the International Bible Students' Association doing with its money and doing with its brain? The one thing I do say they are doing—that the International Bible Students' Association is doing is to cripple the influence of the church (interrupted by voice from audience)

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: That's true. (Applause.)

REV. JOHNSON: The churches have built all the schools, all the Christian schools; the churches have built them. All the hospitals with freewards in them have been built by the church; the Interntinal Bible Students' Asociation is not furnshing them. The churches are furnishing missionaries to do this big rescue work in the big cities. The churches are the institutins that are preaching patriotism to the American youth while the Internatinal Bible Students are saying, this is God's plan no use in doing anything. If every body had believed what the International Bible Students' Association teaches ther would not have been a man to go to war. (Applause) I make no mistake about that. (continued applause) The big men in the Institution got put in jail (continued applause) and the reason my worthy opponent did not get put in jail was he was not big enough. (Applause and laughter.)

The Inernational Bible Students would close all the churches and in doing that, it would call from the foreign field every minister who has gone to carry the gospel of Christ to those who know it not. The Lord Jesus Christ said, "go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. (Applause) The International Bible Students' Association says there is no use in going—there is no use n gong, because God is working out His "Great Plan."

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes. (Applause)

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) And your preaching will not do any good and I am surprised that educated ministers know so little about "God's great plan."

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes, "great plan."

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) Listen—there is no need of persuading men from sin—God is going to give them a chance after they leave here and because of that there is no need of talking to them now. The International Bible Students woud destroy the influence of the Christian Church in the world ad I don't know anything that institution would do that would please the devil more.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: That is the truth. (Appause)

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) The thing that has given the devil concern is the Church with a Divinely called and appointed ministry, that is willing to make sacrifice and build "bob-tailed" churches, if you please, that the poor may have the gospel preached to them.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) The International Bible Students' Association is serving the devilb because it wants to cripple every good thing that is being done against the devil. Who are the people that would be glad if the International Bible Students' Association could prove there is no hell? Who are the people that would be glad: The good people? Would the people who are practicing the Golden Rule feel the greatest relief or would it be the people who are practicing anything but the Golden Rule that would feel relieved? Who are the people that would be anxious for my opponent to prove his contention tonight that there is no hell? They are the people that believe if the churches are right that there is no chance for them and for that reason they want the doctrine of the International Bible Students' Association proved so that they may not have to live under the consciousness that there is a wrath to come.

The International Bible Students' Association dethrones Christ and puts an angel in His place. You know I have been reading a little on the doctrine of Russellism and you don't know how surprised I was when I ran across this and these words of Mr. Russell: "Our Redeemer existed as a spirit being before he was made flesh and dwelt among men. At that time, as well as subsequently, he was properly known as God, a mighty one, as chief of angels and next to the Father, He was known as the Archangel (highest angel or messenger) whose name was Michael and whose name signifies 'who as God' or God's represntative." You will find this in the Bible Studies, Volume Five, Page Eighty-four. What saith the Scriptures now on the same subject? (Quoting) "His name shall be called Wonderful," Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace Does that sound like he was an Archangel? Justa big man in the Kingdom, something separate from God? "In the beginning was the word, and th word was with God, word, and the word was with God opponent will tell you that "word" means Christ, so he was in the beginning—He was with God and He was God, yet Russellism says He was an angel.

"For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the God-head bodily." Those other references were Isaiah 9:6 and John, 1st Chapter, 1st Verse.

"They shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, 'God' with us." Matthew 1:23.

Now, don't you know it is libelling Christ, it is dishonoring the Christ to dethrone Him and put an angel in His place, to make He and Michael one, but this is the doctrine of Russellism. This International Bible Students' Association would have you substitute that for the Church, Orthodox Christianity. Then, you must admit that Christ was not of the God-head but that He was subordinate, He was Michael. In substituting the doctrines of the International Bible Students' Association, you will have to swallow this too, Christ's body was not resurrected—that is what it teaches.

Studies in the Scriptures, Volume Two, page one hundred fifty-five, says, "We know nothing about what became of it (His body) whether it was dissolved into gases—no one knows." Again, in Volume One, page two hundred thirty, he says, "His human existence ended on the cross." Volume Five, page four hundred fifty-four says, "It was necessary, not only that the man Christ Jesus should die, but just necessry that the man Christ Jesus should stay dead." Volume Five, page four hundred sixty-six says, "The man Christ Jesus suffered for us death in the most absolute sense of the word everlasting destruction." Observe, please, Russellism says we know not what became of His body the angeln knew not and said, "He is not here—He is risen as He said." (Applause) Are you going to believ Mr. Russell and the International Bible Students' Association or the angel? Interrupted by voice from the audience.

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: The angel.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) The Disciples knew for they said, "The Lord is risen indeed and hath appeared to Simon." Luke 24:34. Paul knew and he said, "He was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve. After that he was seen of about five hundred brethren at once after that he was seen of James and of the Apostles and, last of all, He was seen of me also, as one born out of due time." (Interrupted by voice from the ahdience)

A VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Um huh.

REV. MR. JOHNSON: (Continuing) But Mr. Russell says, "We do not know what became of the body."

Well, now, in the face of these Scriptures, Mr. Russell had to get up some kind of explanation and what did he get up? He says that body that was buried did not rise—did not resurrect—his humanity stopped at the Cross and in all His appearances He created a new body and clothes for the occasion. Now, that means He did a lot of creating of bodies; He had a "Corporal Guard"—created new bodies for all of His appearances when He appeared the first time at the grave and on the way and in the upper room and when He appeared and dispelled the doubtings of Thomas and when He ascended and all were looking at Him go up; all of that mans also—that Jesus was bluffing that Jesus was fooiing the folks; making them believe that when He went to Thomas and showed him His hasds and Thomas said, "My Lord and God" that that was not body that was piereced on the cross that was not the Christ nailed to the Cross—that was just one Jesus made for the occasion. Then, he fooled Thomas and Thomas should have continued doubting. According to Russellism He fooled Thomas and played a base hypocrite. Are you going to believe that? Are yo ugoing to substitute these teachings for the doctrines of Orthodox Christianity? I am sure you will not.

Russellism teaches that the gospel is not for the whole world. Here is what Mr. Russell says on this subject, just to prove it—"The object and purpose of the gospel everywhere, not to the Jews only, but to every people can easily be demonstrated to all who have faith in God. To claim that God intended the gospel to convert the world and to know that it has done so, is to destroy faith in God and to destroy hope in any glorious outcome to the Divine plan of salvation; for those who claim that God intended the preachings of the gospel to accomplish the world's conversion must admit that it has accomplished no such purpose, and if God's plan has been a failure for eighteen centuries, what hope could any one have that it would be a success." Bible Studentts' Monthly, Volume Six, Number Sir. Following that same reasoning he would say to the Black man in the dark ages of slavery, for two hundred and forty four years; let's say two hundred years when he was about forty-four years from freeedom, he would say now you have been a slave for two hundred years and you are still a slave and you are not free—it that not proof you never will be free? That argument would be just as sound as Mr. Russell has said with reference to the salvation of the world, because men have not been saved universally then, the whole thing is false and must be explained in some way, but the Bible says "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation and he that believeth shall be saved and he that believeth not shall be damned." Why say go and preach to everybody if only a few can be saved? Why do that? Why did Jesus make such an unreasonable proposition and put such a big job on his followers when it was not necessary—when God did not intend to do it?

We are told that the Bible does not mean what it says with reference to the judgment. If you read the Tulsa Star and the Oklahoma Sun each week for some time now you will see over the signature of my worthy opponent under the caption, "Then End of the World Has Come"—(Laughter) and Men Now Living Will Never Die and wants hs to believe it. Now, this old Millenium Dawn has been popping up every once in a while since the first century. Somebody has come up wth it every century and there has been a group of people who have been preaching it and Mr. Russell, the father of the International Bible Students' Association, said the end of the world was coming in 1874, bu t didn't. (Laughter) And so he studied some more and he figured again—went back guessing at what Daniel meant by his times and so on, and he figured and figured and brought it down to October, 1914—that is certainly the time. After 1914 came and while there was no end, Mr. Russell had to make an explanation and so he said that the world has ended, you just don't know it—(Applause) and he goes on to explain what is meant by the end of the world and his explanation does anything but coincide wtth Holy Writ. John 14:2-3. "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come and receive you I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." Now, those are the words of Jesus—I am going, He said and I am going for the purpose of preparing a place for you and if I go and prepare that place I will come back and get you. That is what Jesus said. The International Bible Students' Association says that is not so—it is not that way at all—Jesus don't know. Instead of going off and preparing a place for us and getting us and taking us to it,He is coming back here where we are and make this place Heaven and He is going to stay here one hundred years and all these bad folks, all these people who don't try to do right are going to be resurrected and given another chance and they are going to be resurrected just as slowly as Adam was when he was made and he was created and if they don't make good, if they sin, He will not punish them for it—He is too good to punish anybody; He will not punish them, but he will cut them off, annihilate them and therefore they will be punished for what they have done because they will have no existence but, we are told in the Scripture Jesus is coming like he left.—Acts 1:11—"Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into Heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into Heaven, shall come in like manner as ye have seen Him go up into Heaven." Now, if He is coming back in like manner as He went away and is coming—the coming of Jesus is coincident with the end of the world, then why has not somebody seen Him if the end of the world is here, where is He hiding? We are told by the angel who consoled us when he left that He was coming back and He was going to come just like He went.

Now, friends, I want to just say this concluding word— I am told I have only two or three minutes and I want to say this: That if you adopt the teachings of Russellism you give man license to do as he pleases; you give every man license to kill if he wants to and debauch if he wants to—not only himself but then he en influence you—turn this world loose—passion upon passion, man without any regard for the welfare of his brother man. You turn the world loose in that condition of sinfulness as we can hardly imagine it because of the fact that we have the restraint that goes with the consciousness that we shall be somewhere in the next world in this body

We are here to ask as my last word, what about the International Bible Students' Association? What about my good friend who has opposed me in this debate? I imagine as soon as you have heard the argument on both sides that the best you can say for it will be what the man said about the gobbler but he has lost his strut. (Appluse)

(And now at this time Rev. Johnson having concluded his part of the debate, the audience starts up and sings the song entitled "All Hail the power of Jesus' Name,) afterwards the following proveedings are had:)

MR. SMITHERMAN: Mr. Hill now will close the debate. (Applause)

MR. HILL: The more I hear from the college men about the Bible, the more I am inclined to the belief that these seminaries should be wiped out of existence. (Applause) I mean that and no more; they mean alright but Oh! what mess and muddle they have gotten the world into. (Applause) I have no time to take up to analyze all the points that my opponent attempted to make about his statement with reference to the man Christ Jesus shows that he has no knowledge whatever of philosophy of the ransom. The perfect body of the man Christ Jesus was given for the perfect man Adam. My opponent does not know the difference between the humanity of Jesus Christ and Him as a Spirit Being. (Applause) My opponnt knows nothing of the characteristic qualities of an angel and a Spirit Being. The Lord Jesus appeared to Abraham. One of the qualities of a Spirit Being is to take the human body when it is necessary and dematerialize. That was the condition of the Lord Jesus Christ after the resurrection; that perfect human body had to go; it does not go for one thousand days and it is not Jesus any more. (Applause). That sacrifice could not have been made if the man Christ Jesus was not given up absolutely

Now I want to say here, the Lord had in mind these blind teachers at the very time, (Applause) and I will use the Lord's word. My opponent used Brother Russell's words but I will use the Lorl's word—how the Lord speaks of them (Applause) these who claim to be His Watchman—listen what he Lord says; "His watchmen are blind"— I want to say this is Isaiah 56th chapter, 10th, 11th and 12th versee—"His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs they cannot bark (Applause) "Sleeping, lying down, living to slumber." Ye are greedy dogs (Applause) which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand." (Applause) "Theey all look to their own way (Their donominatiin) everyone for his gain from his quarter." (Applause) "Come ye say they, I will fetch wine and we will fill ourselves with strong drink (strong doctrine) and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant." I think you will agree with me when I say that all of this horde of two hundred thousand and better preachers claim to represent the Lord and get the people in confusion, are all pretty good feeders. You don't have that "horle" on your hands if you are an International Bible Student but without going into these things I want to say in conclusion—there are many things I would like to say but will be a waste of time (Interrupted by Mr. Smitherman)

MR. SMITHERMAN: (To Mr. Hill) You have thirty minutes.

MR. HILL: Just at this time I wish to make what might he termed by some an awful statement. I charge the Church Denominations are in league with the Devil blind and misrepresent God's character and plan. This charge is made against the Denominations and not against the individuals. We wil now listen to both sides for a moment: God and the International Bible Studets on the one side and the devil and the Denominations on the other side. (Applause)

God tells us that the wages of sin is death; Romans 6:23; that disobedience to his law brings death Genesis 2:17; that the soul that sinneth it shall die Edekiel 18:4; that when a person dies he is unconcious has no memory cannot speak, breathe, think cannot work, has no feelings and knows nothing. Ecclesiastes 9:5, 6:10 Psalms 6:5, 115:17; 104:29; 146:4; the International Bible Students are teaching the same thing. But on the other hand, the devil says, ye shall not surely die, and that when man appears to die, he is then more alive than ever. The Church Denominations are teaching the same old lie.

God tells us that the literal earth abideth forever—Ecclesiastes :4; that he formed it to be inhabited—Isaiah 45:18; that he gave the earth to the children of men—Psalms 115:16. The International Bible are telling the people the same thing

The devil, through his cunning and blinding influence, is telling the people that the earth is to be burned up. The Denominations are teaching the same old thing, that the earth is to b burnd up.

God tells us that He will establish a Kingdom here upon this earth; that His Kingdom shall break in pieces and consume all the beastly kingdoms of the earth; that his King dom will stand forever—Daniel2:44; that when His Kingdom is n operation, all the dead, both of the just and unjust, will be resurrected, for the purpose of giving life everlasting to the just and giving the unjust an opportunity, through obedience, to gain life—John 5:28-29. The International Bible Students are teaching the same thing to those who will hear. (Applause)

The devil, hrough his tact and cunning, is teaching the people of the world that God's Kingdom has long been established in the world and that it is the duty of every race or nation to protect with shot and shell their selfish inerest against all other races or nations even to the sacrificing of millions of innocent lives; he further impresses the poor people that the resurrection of the dead is only for the purpose of heaping further damnation upon the condemned. The Denominations teach the same thing—that God's Kingdom has long been established and that the resurrection of the dead is only for the purpise of issuing to them their damnation.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I know many of you consecrated to the Lord and are willing to give even life for what you believe to be right. But, you have been kept in ignorance of God's great plan of salvation because of false teachings, I trust that you may, from to-night, be able to decide what teachings you will listen to.e

My opponent called attention to the fact that the world has not ended. I waht to say Pastor Russell told the world thirty some odd years before the great war, that the world would begin to end in 1914, at that time and the world ended; the only trouble with my opponnt is that it is just likely it was when the Lord went away; He says in like manner when I go away, the same will I come back. There was not but a few saw Him when He went away and there is only a few that know He is back.

He does ot know what the "world" means from a Bible point of view. It mans age or dispensation. I want to tell you the world has ended. When Peter said in II. Peter 3:6, "Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished." He did not mean the burning of the same earth as here buf meant that order of things which existed sixteen hundred and fifty-six years from the creation of man to the end of the present world, but my opponent does not know it, now. I make this testimony before God and the angels—it is the truth. Pastor Russell told the truth when he said the world would end in 1914—can you not hear and see the rumbling on all sides? In that connection this is all I will say.

I am glad to say, dear ones, that God's promise of esthlishing a Kingdom here upon earth is now in process of fulfillment. The old order is passing away preparatory to the establishing of he new. Whent his

OUR POLITICAL FAITH

"All men are born equal and endowed with certain inalienabl rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." —Thomas Jefferson.

We believe in the principles of true Democracy as promulgated by the patriot, Thomas Jefferson, and without fear or favor, we will be found at all times fighting for an honest, impartial application of these principles to all men regardless of race or color.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN OUTRAGE

THE CITY ADMINISTRATION has wilfully and deliberately flung an unwarranted insult in the face of the Colored people of this city by their outrageous treatment of a prominent Colored woman who was thrown in jail last week and denied bond because of an auto accident in which she figured as one of the principals. The full story is told in an article on the front page of this issue over the signature of Lawyer E. I. Sadler.

Hundreds of such accidents have happened in Tulsa, but this is the first time a colored woman has been involved and it is also the first time any woman has been placed in jail because of such accident.

Mayor Evans was appealed to in vain after fruitless attempts had been made by representative citizens to induce heads of the police department to release the woman on bond. The Mayor flatly refused to consider the case.

It is reported that hundreds of Colored women have registered and intend to vote the Republican ticket November 2d. This may or may not be true, but one thing is certain: The Colored women of Tulsa will not regard lightly this gross insult to the Race and particularly their sex by the bunch of Republicans they have helped elect to office. They will surely remember that the only injustice the Race has received from the city administrations have come when Republicans were in control. The former Republican administration started it with the segregation ordinance and followed this with many other needless discriminations.

It seems to be a fixed policy of Tulsa Republicans to embarrass and harass the Race at every opportunity.

In the face of these facts, considered alongside of the very fair treatment we have always received at the hands of the Democrats in this city and county, we cannot believe that any colored woman will so far forget her self-respect and her duty to the Race as to endorse with her ballot this new outrage by our Republican "friends."

No matter how you have registered, ladies; there is only one right way to vote, and that is to vote against the party whose representatives have wilfully misused you. We know there are men among us who are too narrow-minded and blindly partisan to resent any insult or injustice aimed at the Race if it comes from Republicans, but it is our belief and our ardent desire that our women will prove themselves worthy the rights given by the 19th amendment that they will not be the mindless, cringing cowards and political slaves that most of our men have been for more than a quarter of a century.

REPUBLICANS WAKING UP

EVEN THE TULSA WORLD, the recognized leading Republican newspaper in Oklahoma, has expressed disappointment in the vacillating position of Senator Harding on the League issue, and gives him the following good advice:

> "If Senator Harding has no advisers he should acquire some. If he has advisers he should instantly change them or utterly disregard them and strike out for himself."

We would openly admit that Harding has no mind of his own and that the minds he is following, the leaders of the Republican party, are utterly unsubstantial and dangerous to the success of the Republican ticket. If this be true, and no well informed man or woman can doubt it, the election of Senator Harding would be a dangerous thing for the American people.

On the other hand, Gov. Cox has taken a firm stand on the League issue, and every other issue involved, and is both proving that he is the tool of no man; that he has a mind and will of his own, and convinced of the righteousness of the great cause he is championing he fights on like a true soldier confident of his success. This is the kind of man the American people love—that's why Teddy Roosevelt lived and died the idol of the American people, and that's why James M. Cox will be elected the next president of the United States.

WE CAN'T FORGET

THE COLORED PEOPLE OF TULSA will not soon forget the raw deals handed to them by local Republicans. An honest and impartial comparison of the two parties here in this county and city, with respect to their attitude to the Race, will convince any fair-minded man or woman that our best friends have been found to be Democrats. A special instance is offered in the case of the two nominees for Sheriff. It will be remembered that Wm. McCullough, the Republican nominee, while serving as Sheriff of Tulsa County, tried to prevent a Colored Justice of the Peace from trying a white man for assaulting a defenseless Colored woman on a downtown street car on the ground that "No white man should be tried before a Colored Justice," and took the warrant from his one Colored deputy with the warning that he would never allow a Colored deputy to serve a warrant on a white man. This Colored deputy was none other than O. W. Gurley, who, be it said to his credit, resigned his position as deputy sheriff under McCullough because of this incident. We leave it to the voters among us to decide whether the Democratic or the Republican administration, as a whole, have shown more consideration to the Race. Speak out with your ballot against wrongs that every real man or woman must resent. Surely, we can't forget.

MANHOOD SAVED THE DAY

THE RECENT ATTEMPT to lynch a Colored man in Okmulgee for an alleged assault on a white woman, and subsequent events which almost precipitated a race riot, followed by a complete exoneration of the accused is another concrete example of the errors, shame and evil consequences of mob rule. Here is a case of a law-abiding citizen with a good reputation being arrested on suspicion, put in jail and narrowly escaping lynching by the timely action of the officers, and a general race war averted only by the determined action of courageous Race men, all on account of misleading circumstantial evidence surrounding the case. Had the mob carried out its fiendish intention an innocent victim would have paid the illegal penalty and a war between the races which inevitably would have followed would doubtless have cost the lives of many others.

But fortunately for Okmulgee manhood played its part and saved the day that might have buried the history of the town in odium and stained the state with the shame of a bloody race war.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS are trying to center the interest of Colored voters on national issues in order to diminish local Democratic strength. Don't be deceived. Our local affairs in politics are of far more importance to us than national affairs. Let's make sure and land our county Democratic ticket. It is composed of our best friends.

IF FORTY YEARS of Republican rule in Washington has failed to remove the evils, real or imaginary, that our group complain of, how can Republican enthusiasts hope to convince the thinking man or woman among us that vacillating Harding would do any more than his Republican predecessors have done?

WE THANK GOD that the day has passed—almost—when the hired tools of the Republican party can hog-tie and beguile our people into "voting 'er straight" for the G. O. P. Colored men and women are learning more and more of Republican hypocrisy and they are casting their ballots accordingly.

"AMBIGUOUS" HARDING'S FIRST NAME

MR. HARDING'S STAND, in his Oklahoma City speech, relative to the rights of the black man, is slightly ambiguous, in that it declares for equality in one sentence, and against it in the next, blowing hot one minute and cold with the next breath.—Daily Ardmoreite.

IF ANY ONE can point out any eight years under a Republican administration that the country has enjoyed as much general prosperity as we have lived under during the past eight years, in spite of the handicaps of the world war, then we might be willing to give the "Big Interest Party" another chance.

N. R. GRAHAM, candidate for the State Legislature on the Democratic ticket, would be elected by acclamation if such thing was possible under our laws. The man who successfully put over so many patriotic drives for his country will not fail in his efforts to serve the people of his country.

THERE IS A BIG DIFFERENCE between "favoring a thing" and literally "doing a thing," and this fact should be considered by those who have been led off by Harding's "favoring" policy.

TAFT, HUGHES, ROOT AND HOOVER seem to be the Big Four guiding the policies of the Republican nominee. Probably that accounts for Harding's vacillation.

SENATOR HARDING is some champion when it comes to using ambiguous language, and he uses it with dexterity in fishing for the Colored vote.

CHAIRMAN H. FABY is putting pep into the campaign and under his generalship the Democratic ticket will go over the top.

kingdom is fully established, then wrong doing will not be permitted. Then will come times of blessing and refreshing to all mankind. The crippled, the lame and halt will be made well and strong; the eyes of the blind will be made to see and the deaf ears to hear—Isaiah 35. All the dead shall be resurrected—John 5:28-30 and restitution of all things will progress until every one has enjoyed a full fair opportunity for the blessings of life, liberty and happiness—Acts 3:19-21. All who refused these proffered blessings will be destroyed. All who are willing to receive and obey the righteous laws of this kingdom will be restored to perfect manhood, and just here my opponent would impress you that God has not punished man enough when he punished him with death. Is it because my opponent is ignorant of what death really is; it is because my opponent is ignorant of what life means; he knows nothing about life except this dying condition he sees around here I will make you a simple illustration if you had a little piece of stone you would throw it around but someone told you, you would lose billions if you lost that, then you would put it away and take care of it and when man learns what life is and its value then, no greater punishment could come to man than to lose life. That is the punishmennt God gives to man—He says if you disobey, "The wages of sin is death." God will not change His law to eternal punishment or something else to suit the clergy. (Applause) God says death was a penalty and He tells you what death is and it does not make any difference what the hundreds or thousands of clergy may think, God says death is your penalty and that is what it will be and we dare not add any more than what God said.

I want to say here too, if you would get some idea of a perfect man, you take all the intelligence there is in the world, all the knowledge of science or art, music, history and what not—put all that together in one individual and as great as that might be—and I want to say all the physical beauty, put it all in one individual and as great as that might be. I want to remind you that that would only represent the remnant of a perfect man which has been in process of deterioration more than six thousand years. The time will come when men will order the temperature and climate just as he wants them. They were made to have dominion over earth, if God's promises are true and God's promises are true. These perfect ones are the ones, my dear friends, to whom the Lord will say "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." The reconstruction of the world will continue for a thousand years during which time the earth will be made more beautiful beyond description by the human tongue. Then Peace will prevail and all will be happy. There will be no more parting of loved ones. The people over the whole world, including the resurrected millions will gather in great multitudes to sing praises and do homage unto the Lord and Jehovah. The beautiful songs of praise will rise from earth to Heaven and the angels will catch the chorus and waft it back to earth until every creature in Heaven and in earth will be singing "Glory, Glory, Glory unto God and His Christ' worthy art. Thou to be praised, Great and Marvelous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty, just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of Saints.

Dear friends, I want to remind you that the International Bible Students don't intend to teach you one thing but what the Lord tell you. We koow the world is not going to listen now and we know what lesson the Lord is going to give them for not listening to this message.

By the Lord's gree, I say, seek peace , speak the truth, seek acknowledgement of God's plan, be humble and teachable here and you will be led out of this great darkness that the unwise servants and teachers have led you into—God bless you. (Applause)

(The debate now being closed, the following proceedings are had, to-wit:)

MR. SMITHERMAN: That closes the debate and of course it is left to you nd it is for you to decide which you will take the teachings of the International Bible Students or the teachings of the Church Denominations. It was not mentioned or agreed between the debaters that there would be any decision rendered except in the minds of the audience. That being true, the debate is now ended except for the benediction, which we will ask from Rev. Tucker.

REV. TUCKER: And now may the blessings of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost rest with and abide upon this congregation; bless the races of people that live together here in Tulsa; let peace and harmony abide with them no earth and in our kingdom—we ask this in Thy name forever. Amen.

P. S.—Kindly watch the next issue for answers to some points of the negative's debate which time would not permit during the evening of the debate.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS GENIUS?

New Art Introduced in Tulsa By Kansas City Boy

How would you like to be a silhouettist? (whatever it is)? If you have had the pleasure of meeting Wm. P. T. Gardner, 19 year old boy of Kansas City and the further pleasure of seeing him perform with scissors producing shadow-like photos or contours of any individual in less time than pencil sketch artist can sketch it, then you perhaps know what it means to be a silhouetteist.

It is a pleasure to meet young Gardner. He is an intelligent young fellow with refined bearing and a good conversationalist if you talk about things worth while.

He is a graduate of the Hutchinson Kansas High School but he did not learn his profession there. In fact he says he did not learn it; it came to him as a natural gift at the age of six years.

It is wonderful how easily he can produce a profle likeness of any person using nothing but a common pair of scissors ad black paper.

His method is simple but baffling. While the patient sits patiently, Gardner, with a small pair of scissors, saws deftly into his thin black paper. The result, obtained in about two minutes, is pasted on a white munting and there is your portrait, unmistakable to your friends. No drawings no tracings, no deliberations—just scissors and black paper. Gardner says he intends to stay here with the carnival.

Not only does he produce these "silhouettes," but he can just as easily and with the same rapidity and exactness take a plain piece of paper and cut it so as to produce connected written letters spelling your name. He is also a fine cartoonist and the Star has engaged one of his cartoons for next week's issue.

Mrs. F. B. Coger of Brookshire, Texas, arrived in Tulsa last week to visit her sister, Mrs. J. H. Garland. She expects to leave for home on Saturday, October 23rd.

Miss Nola Williamson of the Star Staff, is spending the week in Okmulgee with her brother, who is not in good health.

Women To Rebuke Republicans

COLORED WOMEN WILL VOTE STRONG FOR THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Mistreatment of Race Woman by Republican City Administration Will Be Resented at the Polls Next Tuesday

That the colored women of Tulsa do not propose to pass unnoticed the action of the police department and Mayor Evans in their very unfair treatment of Mrs. Partee, who was arrested last week and compelled to spend a night in the city jail because of an auto accident in which she was one of the principals, is being evidenced by the activity of several women who have been busy all the week organizing their forces to go to the polls Tuesday and rebuke the Republicans by casting their ballots for the Democratic ticket.

Many of those who have registered as Republicans and intended to vote the Republican ticket have signified their determination to assert their political independence in Tuesday's election by voting against the party whose representatives here in Tulsa have shown such little respect for them.

"We cannot swallow this insult--it would choke us to death," said one of the women yesterday. "If the Republicans think the colored women of Tulsa are bound to them by inseparable ties, and will support them regardless of their conduct toward us, they will find themselves very much mistaken Tuesday." And she left the pression that she meant all she said.

Thus it appears that our women who expect to take part in political affairs, unlike some of our less thoughtful men, will not be the tools of the G. O. P.

It is a commendable part these women of the race are playing in the closing days of the campaign. They propose to make themselves felt in the approaching election in a way that will not be pleasing to the Republican bosses, and that is just what they should do.

The colored women of this city are not altogether novices in the political world. They are naturally close observers and they have all failed to take in the political situation as it effects the race between the two parties here in Tulsa. Most of them know that the race has always fared better here under Democratic administrations and it is unthinkable that, knowing this, they will still vote the Republican ticket.

Harding's "Equality Policy" Enforced

Colored People Who Objected to "Jim Crow" Rule Told to Get Out if They Didn't Like It

Louisville, Oct. 25.—Five thousand colored Republicans, who attended the big Harding rally in Louisville, Ky., were seated in a separate part of the Armory. Colored people were met at ahe doors by the ushers and sent up to the "South gallery." Those who protested were told to "sit with their kind" or else "get out."

Gompers Pleads for Cox

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 25.—Samuel Gompers urged organized labor to support Governor Cox for election in an address tonight at a labor political rally here. He attacked Senator Harding as an opponent of legislation to benefit labor.

Judge Williams Sure of the Colored Vote

Popularity of County Judge Much in Evidence Among the Colored People of Tulsa

So far as the Colored vote of Tulsa is concerned, Judge W. B. Williams, present County Judge and democratic nominee for the position will be elected next Tuesday by an overwhelming majority, if pre-election sentiment counts for anything.

Practically every Colored man and woman voter in the city is decidedly pro-Williams and will vote for his re-election. He is easily the most popular man on either of the ple and his re-elecion is freely preple and his re-election is full predicted by the leaders of both political factions.

The popularity of Judge Williams among the Colored people of Tulsa is due solely to his well established policy of dealing fairly and justly with all men regardless of race or color. Every Colored person who knows Judge Williams know him as a big hearted, fair minded man, an honest conscientious official. who believes in the princples of the Golden Rule. He has on many occasions demonstrate these fine qualities of his noble character, and for this reason alone it is generally believed that every Colored voter in Tulsa, regardless of party affiliation will vote for him on Tuesday.

Not only is this true among the Colored people of this city—it is equally true all over the country. His name is a household word in every Colored home in the County where he is known.

The vote of the Colored people Tuesday for this splendid, upright man will be a fitting tribute to the best qualities to be found or hoped for in real manhood and at the same time a commendable expression of the Race's appreciation of a real friend in the deomcratic party. As one of the prominent educators said to a Star representative yesterday: "It is impossible to find a better man, so why run the risk of getting a much worse man by trying to find his equal?" And as another prominent educator said: "Judge Williams is all that any good man could possibly hope for; he is fair, honest and just, and absolutely without racial prejudice, just the man for a judicial position and while I am a Republican, I must admit that my party cannot produce a man more fitted for this position than Judge Williams. For my part, I am going to vote for him and I believe every professional man and woman of our Race in Tulsa who vote will vote for him."

What better recommendation could be given, a man? And this seems to be the consensus of opinion among Colored people respecting Judge Williams.

Women for Howard

An enthusiastic meeting was held by women at the call of Mrs. Robert Galbreath, chairmán of the Howard for Congress campaign, in the parlor of the Democratic headquarters, Hotel Tulsa, late Tuesday.

Mrs. G. N. Wright, Mrs. G. T. Cathey and Mrs. Don Hagler, compose the committee that was appointed to draft resolutions endorsing the candidacy and the splendid record Congressman Howard already has in the house.

"The women are showing an especial interest in the campaign of Congressman Howard," Mrs. Galbreath said, "because they do not forget that he was particularly active in getting word to them about their husbands, brothers an dsweethearts fighting at the front."

McSWINEY PASSES AWAY AT CORK

By Lloyd Allen

United Press Staff Correspondent.

London.—Terence MacSwinney died of heart failure, according to the verdict in an inquest over the remains of the Irish hunger striker.

A dilated heart, acute delirium and scurvy," "due to exhaustion from prolonged refusal to take food brought death," according to the verdict.

Mayor's Widow Testifies.

The lady mayoress, dressed in black and heavily veiled, was the only witness on behalf of the MacSwinney family and was the dominant figure of the proceedings. Her composure was indicated by her quick and pointed replies.

Mrs. MacSwinney successfully resisted the attempts of the coroner to have her characterize her late husband's occupation otherwise than as a "volunteer of the Irish Republican army."

The lady mayoress said her name was Muriel Francis MacSwinney and that she lived in Cork.

"What was he?" asked the coroner.

"An Irish volunteer,'" was the answer.

"Did he make a living by that?"

"No," answered Mrs. MacSwinney.

"Had he any other occupation?"

"He was a school teacher for a number of years," replied the lady Mrs. MacSwinney replied:

"My husband did nothing for years but work for his country."

Coroner Wyatt objected to the witness describing her husband as an Irish volunteer to which she rejoined:

"I don't see why, Ireland has an army of its own; don't you call that an occupation in your army."

"Yes," said the coroner, "but that is a different thing entirely."

"Quite," was the monosyllable reply of the witness.

"He went on a hunger strike the day he was arrested, as they had no right to arrest him; it was an offense against the laws of the Irish republic," Mrs. MacSwinney spiritedly replied to another uestion.

With the formality of the inquest out of the way, MacSwinney's body was to be conveyed from the prison mortuary to St. George's' cathedral to lie in state until 11 a. m. tomorrow, when mass will be held by Archbishop Mannix and Bishop Cotter.

MacSwiney, who defied the British government in life, continued to do so today in death. His funeral was planned as one of the greatest demonstrations of the kind in England.

"Terence no longer belongs to just our family," his sister Mary said. "At his death he became a kinsman of the entire Irish nation and all struggling people."

Although police were crowded about Brixton prison, there was no attempt to interfere with those who openly voiced their sympathy with MacSwiney's cause or flaunted the Sinn Fein colcrs. It was made clear there will be no interference with the funeral plans or funeral crowds so lon as no untoward demonstration is started.

Cork—Outside of the Cork city hall there was posted today the following notice:

"The second republican lord mayor of Cork lies, as lay his predecessor, murdered by the British overnment. Cork is in mourning. Citizens, or any section of them, will take only authorized action. Orders will be issued by proper authority."

Today the city is quiet with the exception of a slight stir caused by military raids on banks in search of firearms placed in vaults for safekeeping. Soldiers not on duty were restricted to their barracks.

The body of Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers, in Cork jail, will be removed tonight to a church from which the funeral will eb held tomorrow. With the exception of Kenny and Donivan, who are believed to be rapidly nearing death, doctors say there is still a chance to save the lives of the remaining hunger strikers if they are released.

Wherein The Tulsa Star Scratches Its Own Back

It is not often that the Tulsa Star undertakes to throw bouquets at itself, and it is even more rare that in excess of self appreciation over the success of its efforts in various fields, that it is tempted to scratch its own back within the limit of its column rules. But here goes. As the presidential, congressional and county campaigns are drawing to a close, the Tulsa Star finds itself in estatic elation over the triumph of the policies it has so faithfully and earnestly advocated to the end that votes of the Race should be divided between the two great parties, and not be solidly massed in either of them, particularly in the Republican party.

The Star points to the political conditions existing in Tulsa city and county, as evidence of the undisputable triumph of the principles for which it has fought for so many years. The political situation here is not equalled anywhere else in Okalhoma, and its parallel is not to be found anywhere else in the country.

It is true enough that there are colored candidates running for offices on the Republican ticket at St. Louis, Mo., Chicago, Ill., Cincinnati and Cleveland, Ohio, and several other places. In these instances, there is no division between the great parties on the part of the Race. It is also true that in New York Race candidates are in the field on Republican and Socialist tickets but the Socialist party, howsoever worhty its purposes may be, is not to be considered in strength and power with the Democratic party. Then in Maryland, we have a very able representative, Ashbie Hawkins, who is making a strong campaign for United States Senator. It is worth of mention here, that when Senator Harding recently visited Baltimore, he called around him the supporters of Hawkins and begged them in the interest of Republican party success in gaining a majority in the U. S. Senate, to forsake Hawkins and to give their support to Weller, the white candidate for the same office. This they declined to do, while at the same time they pledged their support to Senator Harding. This is a factional fight among Republicans only and has for its aim the punishing of the Mayor of Baltimore, who had repudiated the colored voters of Baltimore after they had elected him over and above a most powerful Democratic machine.

The situation in Tulsa, city and county, may be best illustrated by relating the story of the controversy in which the two leading white dailies of Tulsa engaged because there were colored candidates upon both the Republican and Democratic tickets. Prior to this controversy, it may be said the campaign for several months had been carried on so far as the surface is concerned as placid as the depthless wastes of the Pacific and the proverbial quietude of the Potomac. But this calm serenity was broken and disturbed, not by a Democrat, but by a Republican, a former Commissioner, who had been elected to office by Colored votes. This white Republican made the dire and awful discovery that a Colored man, Rev. E. N. Bryant, had been nominated and was making an earnest campaign for the same Commissionership he had formerly held. This disgruntled him so much that he could not keep his opinions to himself, so he wrote the editor of the Daily Tribune, so-called Democratic paper, and expressed his belief in the erroneous principle that while a Colored man should vote, yet the time was not ripe, nor had he advanced sufficiently to be fit for holding office. The Tribune unfor tunately and unwisely sided with this disaffected white Republican, and childed the Republicans of the city and county for having a Colored man on the ticket. The following day, the Tulsa World, the daily Republican organ, retaliated by confessing that a Colored man had been regularly nominated on the Republican ticket, but that there was also a Colored man running for office on the Democratic ticket. Thus the matter politically so far as color is concerned was horse and horse for both parties, and there was no room for either the pot or the kettle to call the other black. The Star regrets that the Tribun etook occasion to express its opinion for it could have gained several points for the party to which it claims allegiance, by letting the white ex-commissioner express his doleful voice from from the tombs. It also finds fault with the Tulsa World, which in connection with the matter made the entirely uncalled for and unfounded charge that this paper was "subsidized" by the Democrats.

The Star is, however, perfectly well satisfied. The fact that there are candidates representing the Race on both of the party tickets proves without doubt that there is a division of vote between the parties and that precisely is what we have contended for. Aside from these candidates, there is a strong likelihood of a division of the Colored vote in favor of a number of candidates (white) on the Democratic ticket. Our contemporary, the Colored Republican organ of Tulsa, proposes to carry a page ad supporting the re-election of that most excellent gentleman, Judge Williams of the County Court, and last week editorially favored his candidacy.

The Star cordially congratulates the Colored citizens of Tulsa over this liberal and broad-minded position they have taken and urges them to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast their ballots for the best men on either ticket.

COLORED VOTERS IN VIRGINIA TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

(A. N. P. Servce)

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 30—The names of two Colored candidates for office will appear on the ballot for the November election. One is

VOTE FOR

W. M. McCOLLOUGH

Repulican

Candidate for Sheriff

Election Nov. 2, 1920. Tulsa, Oklahoma

Jiseph R. Pollard, lawyer, State and city chairman of the Colored faction of the Republican party. Pollard was nominated by the State executive committee, and filed his notice of candidacy for the United States Senator of the Commonwealth.

The executive committee nominated at the same time candidates for Congress in four districts as follows: First District—J. Thomas Newsome Newport New; Second District—Thomas R. Reid, Portsmouth; Third District—H. H. Price, Richmond; Fourth District—Rev. F. L. Mason.

These nominations show that the breach between the white and Colored wings of the Republicas party has not been bridged. The executive committee advises the Colored voters to either refrain from voting for Congressman Slemp in the Ninth or vote for the Democratic candidate.

Pollard last night issued a call for a mass meeting of all Colored voters. They will be addressed by prominent, able speakers.

OKLAHOMA OPPOSED TO GOVERNMENT OPERATION

Editors of State in Large Majority Report Their Communities Against Socialistic Experiment

The Oklahoma public is not as ready to try radical government experiments as many residents of other states imagine, according to the results of a questionairre on the subject of Government operation of industries sent out to the editors who replied, 29, or 87 per cent expressed it is at their opinion that the citizens of their communities were opposed to the government going into business tn competition with its citizens.

The questionaire was sent out by the Press Service Company of New York City. While the inquiry was based on the general principle of government operation, the so-called Mucle Shoals bill now before Congress was used as a concrete example.,Under this bill a government owned corporation would be given power, among other things, to produce at Muscle Shoals various fertilizer products and sell them in competition with private masufacturers and dealers.

As to the wisdom of the government adopting this policy toward the firtlizer industry the editors were askel for their personal opinion. Of the 142 editors who gave an opinion on this point, 109, or 77 per cent were unqualifiedly opposed to the scheme.

The political affiliations of the Oklahoma papers whose editors ans wered the questionairre were: Republican, 27; Democratic, 72; Independent, 33; and miscellaneous, 17.

A summary of the results of the questionairre from the coustry at large shows that this opposition to government operation is general. Of 5154 editors replyisg 4466 or 86 per cent voted their communities against the proposition. This is an increase of 3 per cent in the opposition as compared with the results of a similar questionairre sent out by the Press Service Company a year ago in consectiin with the question of turning the railroads back to the owners.

The papers heard from in the present poll are 1857 Republican; 1350 Democratic; 1458 Indenpendent; and 462 miscellaneous. Not only did political bias play no part is the replies but sectional differences seem to have no appreciable effect on the result. The combined circulation of the papers whose editors replied is 11,428,817, whch means a constituency of at least 44,000,000 readers.

GETTING RESULTS IN HAITI INVESTIGATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—The following statement on Haiti has bees issued by the N. A. A. C. P.:

"With the appointment of a Naval Board of Investigation, consisting of Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo, and J. R. Oliver, U. S. N., Brigadier General J. H. Pendleton, to investigate the invasion of Haiti, the charges made by the Acting Secretary of the Association, Mr. James Weldon Johnson, and by Mr. Herbert J. Soligmann, both writisg in the Nation, have bebun to achieve results.

"The Association is gratified to announce that its charge that more than 3,000 Haitians were slaughtered by U S. Marines has been verified by the report of Brigadier General Barnett, former commandant of the Marine Corps who not only placed the number of those killed at about 3,250 but referred in his report to the "indiscriminate killngs" whch had taken place. When the National Association originally made this charge, the Secretary of Navy abolished it.

"After the publication of the Barnett report we wired Senator Harding requesting him to reiterate the charges with all strength at his command and calling to his attention the substantiation of our charges in the Barnett report.

Kentuckians Want Race Man on Board of Education

(A. N. P. Service)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30—The Colored people of this city have launched the candidacy of Wilson Lovett for a place on the local Board of Education. His petition has been filed with 57 more than the required number of names. It is proposed to "single shoot" the colored vote for him and therby make sure of his election. There is also considerable sentiment against the University of Louisville bond issue. It is very probable that the Colored vote will be cast against the issue.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH DURING THE GOSPEL AGE

Before discussing the mission of the Church it might be well for us to state what is the church and what class of persons constitute the church. The worl church means a called out class from among the people of the world—1st Peter 2:9. The Church is called out for the purpose of being drilled, polished and qualified for judges during the Milennium of Judgment Day—1st Cor. 6:2-3.

Before any one can become a member of this church or called out class he must be Baptized into Christ's death; that is to say, one must surrender to the Lord his will and all his earthly hopes, things and ambitions; yes, even life itself if he expects to live with the Lord—Romans 6:3-5-8.

A mistaken idea has losg prevailed concerning the mission of, the Church. It is believed by many that the Church should engage in all social, moral, religious and political reform movements, but such an idea is absolutely wrong and contrary to scripture. The Church is a class called out for the purpose of being fitted and qualified for Judges and teachers during the Milennium. While the church should and does greatly sympathize with the poor world in its efforts to reform its conditions, she is to spend all of her time in preparing and making herself ready for this all-portant position which when gained she will be able to permanently reform the world. To illustrate the thought suppose a certain person was selected and called out to be trained as a teacher of a very high position. You can readily see that while such persons would he in sympathy with any good move in the way of helping the people he could nit give his time to such movements especially if the time was limited in which he was to prepare himself for this high position.

Now these man made systems of Churches regardless to the names by which they are called. The people of the world have been taught by thousands of false preachers that any band of persons( who meet together, singing and praying, collect money, pay a preacher and build a church house), is a church but such a thought is absolutely wrong for the reason that no one can become a member of the Church that God recognizes unless he fully consecrates himself and agrees to do the will of God even unto death. The masses of the people have not only been misthught as to what constitutes the Church but they have also been misled as to what is the Chhrch's mission during this Gospel Age. It has been sounder from the housetops luring the latter part of this Gospel Age, by thousands of pinheaded, ignorant and unfaithful preachers, that the principal mission of the church s to go slumming for sinners, joining social, moral, religious and political societies and seek to reform the world along those lines. The people are also made to understand that no one could be a genuine Christian unless he was interested in some respct, with some of these reform movements. But such is a false idea of the Church's mission. While the Church admires in many respects and sympathizes with those engaged in reform work, she, the Church realizes that all the endeavors of man to reform the world will end in absolute failure and that whatever good is accomplished is but temporary at best. The Church fully understands that the world will never be truly reformed until all her members have finished their testings here below and passed beyond the veil. The members of the Church also know that they have been called out—1st Peter 2:9; to qualify or get themselys ready for Judges during the Milennium or Judgment Day—1st Cor. 6:2-3.

The value of these reform movements has been over-exaggerated by the Clergy and many others who have desired to hide their damnable schemes of graft and trickery behind a little batch of pretended reform work; such as giving a poor man a dinner once a year, Thanksgiving, for instance; giving and collecting money to build a home for wayward boys and girls and at the same time sustaining a condition which contributes largely to the cause of the poor man beng hungry and the boys and girls going astray; such as poor prices for farm products, extortionate taxes and high rents. There are other persons not prominently connected with any of these reform movements who have done and are doing more than many who are conspicuous. The Senator, Congressman, Newspaper man, Merchant, the Fireman, the Sheriff, the Policeman etc., who fearlessly advocate and stand up for what he believes to be right even at the sacrifice of friends or life, is contributing more to the social, moral, religious and political reformation of the world than the great majority of these pinheaded preachers.

The sending of Missionaries to Foreign Countries has proven to be a sad mistake for the reason that the truth concerning God's plan of Salvation was not sent with the missionaries. Since the Great War the Heathens are looking with great surprise upon the God of these so-called Christian Nations. They are declaring an utter disrespect for the religious teachings of a people whose God would sanction the killing of millions of innocent persons.

It is better that people hear nothing about God and His plan of salvation, before the Milennium of Judgment Day if they do not hear the truth. It is a fact well known that the person who has a lot of misunderstanding scriptures in his head is harder to be taught the truth than one who claims to know nothing about the Bible.

Nowhere in the Scriptures are God's people directed to spend their time in efforts at morally reforming the world. Our Lord did not engage in this work, neither did the Apostle, nor did they offer any suggestion to the effect the work of the Church should differ from the work which they performed and directed us to continue. On the contrary, they declare that we have the Apostles for examples of how we ought to walk. They declare that our Lord's course was in full perfect harmony with the Divine plan and will, and that the Apostles faithfully followed his example. And we are exhortel to simpy become co-workers together with God in His work, already instituted—not to order or attempt to improve on them. There were moralists and Moral reformers in our Lords Day; some along the line of abstinence, some along the line of asceticism, inculcating rigid self-denial in food, clothing etc., as essential to a moral uplift of the people. There were also political reformers who sought the establishment of Republican Institutions in his day; and Social reformers who sought to establish forms of communism. There were also dress reformers at that time, who advocated certain peculiar styles of cloth ing, beneficial to health, morals and religious sanctity. Do we find that our Lord or his Apostles ever associated with any of these or that they ever in any words or act gave sanction or encouragement to any of these theories or reforms? No. Not once. If then, the teaching example of our Lord and his Apostles are our criterion of the will of the Lord, the Church's commission is not to morally reform the world. But perhaps some one will say, times are changed from what they were, and the Church's work should change accordingly. We answer, that the Apostle Paul declares in so many words, "I have not shunned to declare unto you all the council of God." (Acts 20:27) Whatsoever therefore is additional to that which was stated by the Apostle is not the council of God. And any council from any other quarter is not to be received by Christians, and is sure to be misleading. Again, the Apostle says to Timothy, respectisg the word of God, "All scripture is given out by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (2nd Timothy 3:16-17). If therefore, it was God's design that the Church's mission should change at some future time we should be able to find in the scripture some intimaton of this kind, and some authority for the change. And if we find no authority for the change in her mission we should make no change.

But some one inqoires, did not our Lord especially go after the Publicans and Sinners and especially welcome them; and was not that an indication to us that the Church's work is to be largely amongst the lower, depraved class of mankind. We answer that the Publicans and Harlots were not made the subjects of special missionary efforts on the part of our Lord and His Apostles. It was when these classes came to His ministry, to His preaching, manifested interest therein and signs of repentance and reformation, that he received them cordially; he did not refuse to recognize them, as did the Pharisees. The record is not that he went on slumming missions, after the Publcans and Harlots, but he "Receiveth (Publicans and Halols) Sinners," and that many of these lower classes heard Him gladly (Luke 15:2; Mark 12:37)

The chief mission of the church is toward herself. She is to lift up the light of the world, the true light—not with the expectation of enligtening the world, not with the thought that her feeble lamp shall scatter earth's night of sin and darkness of superstition; for that can be accomplished only by the coming of the morning, the Milennial morning when the Son of Righteousness shall arise with healing in his wings. She holds up the light of the truth, the light of the Gospel during this night—to attract some—"a peculiar people"—Not to attract and gather all, but "Even as many as the Lord our God shall call." (Acts 2:39) Her message respecting the love of God and the salvation which is in Christ Jesus as it rings out into the world, is not expected to awaken the world and lead the world to the Lord. No She is merely bearing witness—a witness which will have to do also wth a future knowledge and opportunity to be granted to the world during the Millennium. She is instructed by the word of the Lord not to expect that any but a aomparatively small number will appreciate her light or her message: As the Prophet foretold so she has found it. "Who hath believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?" (Isa. 53:1; John 12:38) As the scripture declares so She, the Church finds it, that the vast majority of mankind are blind so that they cannot see the light: Some are stone blind, so as to see nothing; while others are partially blind and can get a little glimmer of it by which they can discern some things indistinctly. In hearing, likewise, the world's ears are dull of hearing—"Deaf" says the Scripture. Some hear nothing, others hear very imperfectly, few hear the message of Divine love and mercy clearly and distinctively The Church is to realize that her mission is not to these, the Blind and Deaf, but him, "That hath an ear (To hear) Let him hear (Rev. 2:7; 3:6-13-22.)

It is another part of the Church's mission to care for those who do see the light which she holds up, and who are attracted by that light and who come unto the Lord. She is to teach and instruct such, and to introduce them to the full followship of the high calling by making clear to them, as the Lord's mouthpiece, "What is the hope of our calling," present and future—Now to suffer with Christ for righteousness sake, to cultivate His spirit, His disposition, to bear much fruit of the spirit in our own hearts and lives, and thus, under Divine supervision, to be fitted, polished and prepared for a place in the Glorious Temple of the future for a share in the Glorious work of the incoming age—The Blessing of the world (1st Cor. 1:26; Eph. 1:18; 2d Thes. 1:11).

Any one who knows anything about the Bible and God's plan of salvation knows that Jesus Christ became a man for the purpose of laying down his human body for the redemption of the world. (1st Tim. 2:6; Heb. 10:4-5; 1st Cor. 15: 21-22) They also should know that Jesus was raised from the dead a life giving spirit being and not resurrected a man, of the earth earthy. (1st Cor. 15:45) And no one with even sound reason could expect Christ to give His human body for the ransom of man and receive it back. Any one should reason that if He laid His human body down for man He forever parts with the right to its possession. To say that Christ could receive again the same body laid down to redeem man would be the same as saying that a person could pay one thousand dollars to redeem a piece of mortgaged property, and at the same time have a right to receive back the one thousand dollars.

This piece is written for the purpose of explaining some points which time would not permit me to do during the Debate between Rev. H. T. S. Johnsin and my humble self on Sept. 28, 1920.

I must say that I do not know when I have been more surprised in any one than I was in Rev. Johnson during my debate with him. He convinced me and others that he knows absolutely nothing about God's Great Plan of Salvation; and worse of it all, he attempted to fool the people by quoting the 16th verse of the 16th Chapter of Mark to prove that there is an eternity of punishment after death, when he knew full well that the 16th chapter of Mark has only eight verses recognized as genuine, from the ninth through the twentieth is recognized by all Bible students as an interpolation. To say that the School in which Rev. Johnson was educated for the ministry did not inform him concerning these interpolations in the Bible would be casting a too gross a reflection upon the Institution. The only reasonable conclusion to reach is that Rev. Johnsn being hard pushed for facts to maintain his false position of eternal torment attempted to stuff this false scripture down the throats of an intelligent audience such as witnessed the debate. He possibly has been doing this for some time among the more simple minded persons and been getting by and perhaps thought that he could do the same thing during this debate.

This one act of attempting to get by with a known false statement should put all thoughtful persons on their guard concerning any state ments Rev. Johnson should make concerning the Scriptures.

Persnally I think well of Rev. Johnson but frankly speaking he and all other preachers of the Church Denominations who know no more about the Bible than he does, should stop trying to preach and take lessons from snme one better informed.

MILLIONS NOW WALKING ABOUT UPON EARTH WILL NEVER GO INTO THE GRAVE

I wish to say dear readers, that because you see this same heading apearing in the paper from time to time, do not think for once that you will read the same thing in each issue. I am taking up various phases of the proofs that millions now living will never die.

"The day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come." "It is the day of the Lord's vengeance and the year of recompense for the controversy of Zion."—Isaiah 63:4; 34:8.

Christening is that point of human society organized in forms of Covenant claiming to be Christian, particularly those Natons where Church and State join hands. The very center of Christendom is Austria, Girmany and Great Britian. Other Nations that are a part of Christendom are Russia, Scandanavia, Italy Spaing, Belgium and France with the United States as kind of side show of Christendom Other Natons of earth claiming to be part of Christ's Kingdom constitutes a part of Christendom also. The word Christendom means Christ's Kingdom, but as related to the Nations of earth is misapplied. We well know that these Nations are not Christ's Kingdom for the reason that He stated, "My Kingdom is not of this world (This unrigheous order of things)" but that when his Kingdom is established the will of God will be done on earth as it is in Heaven (John 18:3; Matth. 6:10). In Christendom there are of course, millions of good people who love the Lord, but Satan has so mixed error with truth causing an alliance to be made between an apostate Clergy and professional poloticians and big business, that the whole thing is an abomination unto the Lord. God permitted this condition of afairs to grow up and persist during the Gentile's time. When Zedekiah, the last King of Israel, was overthrown and the Gentile times by permission began, God foretold through the Prophet Ezekiel that he would permit it thus to be until the time coming for Christ's Kingdom to be established, and with His coming, the first thing to be done would be that "The Nation woul become angry and God's wrath is come;" That is to say, that the first work of the Messiah with reference to Christendom and the Nations of the earth would be the disintergration of the old order, the overthrowing of Satan's dominion to make way for the Kingdom of righetousness. —Rev. 11:18.

Many of the Prophets spoke and wrote of that some time. The Prophet Daniel described it as "a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation." (Daniel 12:1) Malachi mentions the same time, saying, "Behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea and all that do wickedly shall be stubble." (Malarhi 4:1). Another Prophet describes is as a day of clouds, trougle and thick darkness (Joel 2:2). Another calls it a time of darkness, even very dark, and no brightness in it. (Amos 5:20). The Lord Himself mentions it as a time of such great tribulation that were it not shortened no flesh would be saved. (Matth. 24:21). The time here mentioned is the time of judgment upon the Nations, particularly upon Christendom. We must not confuse it with the day of the individual Judgment of the peoples of the earth during Messiah's reign. The Prophet makes clear that it is time of Judgment on the Nations saying: "Come near, ye nations, to hear; and harken, ye people; let the earth hear, and all that is therein: the world and all things that come forth of it. For the indignation of the Lord is upon all Nations, and His fury upon all their armies." "The Lord is an everlasting King, at His wrath the earth shall tremble and the Nations shall not be able to abide His indignation." A noise shall come, even to the end of the earth; for the Lord has a controversy with the Nations. Thus saith the Lord of Host, "Behold evil shall go forth from Nation to Nation and a great whirl wind (fulense and complicated trouble and commotion) shall be raised up from the cost of the erath. And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth." "Wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the Nations that I may assemble the Kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth (the present social order) shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy; and then (afterward) will I turn unto the people a pure language, that they may all call upon a Name of the Lord, to serve Him with one consent." —Isaiah 34:1,2; Jer. 10:10; Zeph. 3:8-9.

The Prophet Isaiah, speaking as he stood at the very present hour and beholding the incoming Messiah's Kingdom with power and Glory says, "Who is this that comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is Glorious in his appeal traveling in the greatness of his strength."—Isaiah 53:1-6.

Edom was the name given to Esau, the twin brother of Jacob, who sold his birthright to Jacob and then persecuted Jacob. The same Edom is therefore an appropriate symbol of a class of people of the present order, of Christendom, who claim to be Christians but have sold their birthright. The birthright of the true Christian pictured by Jacob is the Heavenly prize, as the seed of Abraham according to the promise through which blessings will come to mankind. All who consecrated themselves to the Lord and were accepted by Him were Divinely permissioned to tell the good things to others and bind up the broken hearted, and comfort those that mourn. —Isaiah 61:1-3. Particularly in modern times have we marked an apostate Clergy, who unite themselves in an alliance and boldly announce, "We have agreed to abandon the Doctrines but unite in action," and have further allied themselves with Professonal, Politicians and Big Business, and have thus sold their birth right for a trifling consideration: namely the honor and plaudits of men. These are the predominating ones in Christendom. These are the ones to which Edom applies. Like their prototype Esau or Edom, who persecuted his brother Jacob, even so these persecute, imprison and illtreat the antitypical Jacob Class, the humble faithful followers of Jesus. This Class, the Dominating element in Christendom has been greatly advantaged over the other peoples of the earth in enlightment, education and temporal blessings. But little use have they made of these advantages which have come to them, and instead of of teaching the common people the great Doctrines of the Bible which wuld cheer their hearts and dry their tears, they, the false teachers, have united to oppress the common people and keep them in bondage—paying high salaries to preachers and building expensive church houses, which work among other things to keep the poor people bound down and oppressed.

As all the land of Edom symbolized all of Christendom, so its capital city, Bozrah, represented the Church system, the chief element of Christendom that is the most responsible. In this picture the Prophet represents the Lord as a victorious warrior who makes a great slaughter in Edom, and especially in Bozrah—Ecclesiasticism. In the church systems are both goats and sheep, figuratively speaking. The goats are those who pretend to be christians and are not, whereas the sheep are those who are consecrated, but are fearful to get away from the influences of the city of Bozrah, to wit the preachers. The Prophet, beholding the victorious one at advancing with majesty and in powers, inquires, "Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth the wine-press?" This Mighty One, who is the Great Messiah, replies "I have trodden the wine press alone, and of the Nations there was nine with me; and I trod them down in mine anger, and I trampled them in my fury; and their blood was sprinkled on my garments and all my raiment have I stained. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeem is come."—Isaiah 63:1-4.

All through the Gospel Age the Lord has marked the controversy in nominal Zion — Christendom. He has observed how his faithful followers have been perstcuted, imprisond and ill-treated, and how they at all times have had to contend for righteousness and to suffer at the hands of the Edom or Esau class. The persecution has endured to the fact that the true followers of Christ, the real friends of the common people and true witnesses of the Lord have spoken the truth and Satan, th God of this world, blinding and thereby controlling the others of Christendom, has hated the true followers of the Master and has caused their persecution. For his own wise purposes, the Lord has refrained from interfering until his due time; but God foreshadowed through His Prophet that the time would come when the Great Messiah would take a hand in the controversy. The reason for this he assigns through the Prophet saying, "For the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land (Interchurch World Movement and other organizations, disregarding the Doctrines and joining hands in action—but not to teach the truth, according to their own statement). By swearing and lying and killing and stealing and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish." (Hosea 4:1-3) The Lord Jesus, in speaking to John the Revelator of the same class and the same time says: 'For Nations have drunk of the wine of wrath of her fortification and the Kings of the earth have committed fonication with her (Church systems.) And the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another voice from Heaven saying "Come out of her, my people that ye be not partakers of her sayings and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto Heaven and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works; in the cup which she hath filled double." (Rev. 18:3-6) In this text the Lord calls upon the truly consecrated in Christendom to separate themselves from the unfaithful Church Systems, that they (the truly consecrated) be not partakers of the Church's System's plagues.

Thus the Prophet and the Lord Himself describes the climax of the troublesome times now upon the Nations of earth, particularly upon Christendom. Already a goodly portion of this trouble has transpired in the way of wars, famines, pestilence and revolution, which Jesus designated as only the beginning of sorrows." But there is yet more to follow, because the haughtiness of men must be brought low to prepare their hearts for the rule of righteousness. Jesus refers to the climax of this trouble upon Chrisentdom in these words: "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened there should be no flesh saved; but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. (Matth. 24:21,22) What, then, is the significance of the present stress of Christendom that should attract the attention of every order loving person particularly those who love the Lord The answer is the Great Messiah is exercising His Kingly authority and is visiting Jehovah's indignation upon Christendom making ready for the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom of Righteousness, which Kingdom will be a Kingdom of blessing, comfort and restitution of mankind to his oririnal estate.—Acts 3:19-21.

Jesus tells us plainly in the text quoted above that much flesh shall be saved, notwithstanding the trouble will be great; many will come through the trouble. The real joy that is to be gathered from this message then, is this: That the present distress upon Christendom and upon the Nations of the earth is due to the fact that the world, the old social order of things is passing away and that the new social order of things is coming in, and that millions of people now living upon this earth will never die and go into the grave because the Messiah will offer to mankind the opportunities of life, liberty and happiness, and those who accept upon the terms offered and obey his righteous rules shall live forever upon the earth in a state of happiness, peace and joy.

I am glad o say that the time is near at hand when the whole world will come to know the true messengers of God from the false ones. It is certainly a pitiable sight to note how many well-meaning people have been and are being led and kept in darkness concerning God's Great Plan of salvation by the heard of selfish and ignorant and God dishonoring persons going under the name of preachers and ambassadors for the Lord. The time is near and even at the door when [illegible] Christians will demand that all these false teachers leave these church houses to never return and that they, the earnest-hearted, will ask the true messengers to come and give them the soul-satisfying truth concerning the Great Plan of the Ages.

THE JUDGEMENT DAY

"Because he has appointtd a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whertof he hath given assarance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." Acts 17:31.

Since 1878 A. D. everything has been getting ready for the great Judgment Day long spoken of by the Bible. At the time St. Paul wrote the words of the above text the Judgment Day was future because he said so. The preachers in timts past taught the people that the Judgment Day would be a time of terror upon the earth, in which the people would be lined up in a twenty four hour day and most of them sent off to Hell-fire and brimstone there to endure in some unconceivable way tortures eternal in duration. St. Paul seems to give so such thought in his words. He looked forward to the Judgment Day as a time of great rejoicing and blessing, because he said that it shall be a judgment righteouness by Christ. When once the purpose of the Judgment Day is understood it makes glad the heart and comfort those who mourn.

The term Judgment signifies that the person to be julged must have a trial, and at that trial must have a full and fair opportunity, if he is judged righteously. Occasionally there is a man upon the bench, such as Judge Anderson of Bostos, who has the moral courage and the sense of justice to deal as ntarly right as it is noissble for imperfect man to do; but this is the exception to the rule. When the Lord judges we know that his Judgment will be righteous because he was promised that it shall be. "With righteousness shall he judge the poor." (Isah 11:4) Seldom do the poor get a righteous judgment now. "He shall judge the people with righteousntss" —Psalms 72:2.

"One day with the Lord is a thousand years and a thousand years is a day". 2d Peter 3:8. Christ shall reign a thousand years—Rev. 20:6. The Judgment, therefore, is the period of Messiah's reign of a thousand yars, hence it is called Mellennial, because millenial means a thousand years. The Great Messiah has already taken unto himself his great power to reign, and the Nations have been and are angry just as foretold. Rev. 11:11,18. The Lord is now permitting the wrath of man to break in pieces the present unrighteous order, and when that is gone, "The Government shall be upon his shoulder;and his name shall be called wonderful, concelor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6. The first work of this Judgment day will be to deal with the millions of people on the earth. Just before the beginning of that Judgment of blessing according to the words of Jesus, there will be a great Judgment upon the Nations, which is now in progress and of which we shall have more to say later. Following the World War and Revolutionary troubles now on the earth, there will be a great tribulation, "Such as was never sisce there was a nation and there will never be such a time of trouble again. (Matt. 24:21, 12) The Lord shows us that this time of tribulation and trouble will be shortened in order that many people now living upon earth may be saved and not go into death. The purpose of saving them will be to offer them Life-Everlasting through God's chosen channel, his Elect, the Seed according to the promise. Many of these people brought through the time of trouble will be the first ones to experience the blessings of the Righteous Judgment of Messiah. "They shall call on my same and I will hear them; I will say, it is my people; and they shall say, the Lord is my God." Zech. 13:9.

Jesus gave a picture of the Judgment day, representing the obedient ones as sheep and the disobedient ones as goats. A parable is a dark saying in which figures of speech are used to illustrate a fact. Jesus locates that time the same as St. Paul when he says, "Thes shall he sit upon the Throne of his Glory." (Matt. 25:31.) In other words, Christ will establish the Great Tribunal or Court, before which the peoples of earth will be judged, and this judgment will cover a period of a thousand years. First, those living on the earth at the beginning (Approximately 1925 A. D.) shall be brought to a ksowledge of the truth concerning the Ransom Sacrifice which has been provided for them and that under the terms of a new Covenant, which God has made for their benefit, it they will be obedient to it they shall be blessed with life, liberty and happiness. Those who, after coming to a full ksowledge of the facts, refuse to accept the terms and be obedient to them, are designated by Jesus as goats. A goat has a stubborn, mean disposition, and very well illustrates the class of people who will not be obedient to the law of the New Covenant. To these the Lord will say; "Depart from me, ye cursed, isto everlasting fire, prepared for the Devil and his angels. These shall go then into everlasting punishmest." (Matt. 25: 41,45) The Devil is not going to eternal torture but will be destroyed. (Heb. 2:14) His angels mean his messengers, those who are in harmony with him, they suffer a similar fate. The wilfully disobedient, the Goat class, will be a part of his messengers or angels, and these shall go away, be tursed away from the Lord into a punishment that will be lastng; that is to say from which there will be no recovery. The word punishment here means literaly cutting off. The highest punishment known to the law of civilized Nations is death. No civilized Government ever tortures anyone. There is no intimation in this scripture that any of the wicked will go away into cintinous torture, but they do go away into a punishment, that is to say, they are pusished with an everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and the Glory of his power. 2d Thes. 1:9.

The obedient class, represented as sheep will be taught and lead in the right way, and rendering themselves obedient unto the Lord's arrangement, they will be blessed unto everlasting life, whereas the wicked are punished with everlasting death. To the obedient ones the Lord will say: "Come ye blessed of my Father, innerit the Kingdom (earthly kingdom) prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. 25, 34." The meek shall inherit the earth." Psalms 37:11 "The righteous go away into eternal life." (Matt. 25:46) These, the righteous ones, shall be the ones that shall live forever. These are the ones that shall never die, never see death. (John 8:51, John 11:26) There are millions of persons on earth now, who, without doubt will be living when this Judgment day of the earth begins, and when retstituion blessings will be offered to them, and they believing the great truths then taught by the Messiah, and obeying them, they shall live forever, in happiness, in joy, in peace. The Lord, through his Prophet describing that Judgment Day, said, "When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness and committeth sin he shall die. Whes a wicked man turneth away from his wickedness and does that which is right he shall live." (Ezek. 18:26-28)

These restitution blessings will come gradually to the people as they obey the righteous teachings of the Messiah. The Lord through his arrangemests, will teach the people what to eat, how to eat, how to exercise and above all how to think and act. The healing of the sick and opening the eyes of the blind which Jesus performed when he was upon the earth was samples merely of what the Messiah will do in completeness durisg the Great Judgment Day." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be un-stopped. Then shall the lame man leap as the heart, and the tongue of the dumb sing." (Isaiah 35:5,6) That will be a happy asd glorious time, and when those who are living on the earth when restitution begins progressed a reasonably way over the high-way of Holliness, they will be preparing for and praying the Lord and expecting him to bring back their beloved dead. They will call upos the name of the Lord and he will hear them. "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come unto Zion (The Messiah) with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy gladsess, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." —Isaih 35:1,10. Thus the Lord's Prophet beautifully describes how Judgment will bring blessings to the people. Again, the Prophet, beholding this coming day of Judgment and blessing for mankisd, ecstasy explained: "Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth; the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved; He shall judge the people righteously. Let the Heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof. Let the field be joyfull and all that is therein; then shall all the trees of the woods rejoice before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth; He shall judge the world with righteousness and the people with truth." Psalms 96: 10,13.

The Judge or Court before whom the entire world will be tried during the reign of Christ will consist of Jesus the Head or Chief Justice, and the members of his body, the church, as associate Justices, all of whom will be perfect Glorious beings. In the carrying out of this arrangement, faithful ones such as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and the other Prophets resurrected as perfect human beings, will constitute the earthly representatives. The inflictions of punishments, however, for a violation of the Lord's arrasgement, will be direct. If a man shall attempt to break into his neighbor's house the Lord will immediately punish him upon the spot, by striking him blind or paralyzing ris arm He may be recovered from this, as the scripture show, by prayer and by obedience to righteousness, and after he has been given a full and fair trial and then if he still refuses to make progress, he will be destroyed in the secosd death from which there will never be asother resurrection. But the Scriptures show that he shall have at least one hundrel years trial, because as the Prophet states: "There shall be no more thence an infant of days nor an old man that hath not filled his days; for the child shall die an being an hundred years old shall be a curse." (Isaih 65:20.) Those who obey righteousness and profit by their experience and strive to make progress will be continued in the trial, and the Messiah will uplift, and strengthen, and bless them, and ultimately bring them back to a state of perfection and happiness.

This Great Judgment day must begin as soon as the present evil-world completely passes away and Messiah's Kingdom is in full control of everything. The Jubilee cycles, that we will at sometime in the future clearly set forth, marks 1925 as the date for the beginning of these blessings. And because the Lord has promised to bless those who obey righteousness, and because the time is so near at hand, we can with confidence state that there are millions of people now living on the earth who will never die and go into the grave. This is good news; it is comforting news; it is one of the great doctrines of the Bible—A doctrine which all the Churches and all the preachers should be teaching the people, because it is full time to teach it. This message, when received and understood, binds up the broken hearted and comforts those that mourn, enabling them to look beyond the present vale of tears and see the sunlight of God's love arising, which will soon heal and bless all the obedient ones upon the earth.

We are fully aware that not many persons can hear this message now for the reason that they have been stuffed so full of down-right false teachings concerning God's plans that it sounds like some new doctrine; when, as a matter of fact, it is the plain and simple faith and teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and his Apostles, which was first delivered to the saints—that is true followers of the Lord. We are only calling the world's attention to the old and true path, from which the most of the people of the world have strayed. The cause of all this is by the selfish and ignorant preachers telling the people everything concerning God's plan but the truth.

JAPS RAISE OBJECTIONS

Will Not Recognize Vanderlip Syndicate Agreement With Soviet for $400,000 Mile Lease

TOKIO, Nov. 6—The Japanese government will refuse to recognize the validity of the reported agreement of Washington Vanderlip on behalf of an American syndicate with the soviet government of Russia, whereby the Vanderlip syndicate obtains a lease hold on 4000,000 square miles of Russian territory, including Kamchatka.

In an interview with the Japanese foreign office today with the position of the government was set forth as follows:

"The soviet government of Russia has not been recognized by the world powers. The Japanese government does not feel bound to take cognizance of any private agreement entered into by the soviet authorities or whoever may be parties thereto. The Japanese government is further unprepared to assent to any act or measure infringing on Japan's treaty rights with Russia.

NO PROTEST BY JAPS YET

Predictions Premature, Says Special I. N. S. Correspondent

BY DUKE I. N. PARRY. ---- I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

TOKIO, Nov. 5 — Information from official sources today indicated that predictions that the Japanese government will immediately protest the action of California in passing the anti-Japanese land law to the United States government are premature

Japan, it was learned from an authoritative source, has thus far decided to rely for a solution of the question upon the conversations now in progress in Washington between Secretary of State Colby and Japanese Ambassador Shideshara.

GOMPERS VISION 'DANGER'

Says He Thinks Movement Is on Foot to Undermine Organized Labor

NEW YORK, Nov 6—Samuel Gompers, in presenting an American Federation of Labor charter to the newly organized Central Trades and Labor Council of Greater New York, this afternoon, exhorted mem bers to conduct themselves in a manner befitting the high standards of organized labor.

Mr. Gompers asserted that "reaction has jumped into the saddle" and that he believed an organized movement is on foot by big business to undermine labor.

St. Louis Sends Colored Man To State Legislature

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov 13—For the first time in the history of Missouri a Colored man has been elected to the legislature of this State. He is Walter Moore, republican nominee who was elected by a substantial majority to represent the so called "silk stocking" district of this city. Whie one ward in the district is almost entirely Colored, it is believed there that the vote of white women elected Mr. Moore.

AMERICAN LEGION TO BOOST "T-B" CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

Oklahoma City, Nov. 12.—With tht annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale less than three weeks away the American Legion has gotten into the harness to enable Oklahoma to make it a success again. H. B. Fell of Ardmore, department commander of the Legion, has written a letter to Jules Schevitz, general secretary of the Oklahoma Public Health association, pledging his support to the sale.

"Those of us who are to some extent aware of the wonderful work you are performing realize fully the great need of a continuance on at least as large a scale as in the past," says his letter. The representative of the U.S. Public Health service at Oklahoma Public Health me thatthe cooperation given him by the Oklahoma Poblic Health asso ciation has always been of the most hearty character, and I have also been informed that you have cooperated in a very successful manner with the Bureau of War Risk Insursurance and the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

"The Oklahoma Public Htalth association has been of great assistance to the sick and disabled exservice men and its work should be greatly appreciated by the ex-service men and citizens of the state. Theonly manner in which their appreciationcan be fully shown is through their support of the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale, and I trust that the sale will be more successful than any which you have had in the past. I intend to bring this matter to the attention of he various matter to the attention of the various out the state, and request them to tndorse the same." x

Colored Democrat Honored

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Henry Toole, one of Rock Hill's best known Colored citizens, was buried in that city Sunday. Toole was a Democrat and stuck to the white men through the reconstruction times and was highly respected by the people of Rock Hill. The honorary pallbearers were white men. A white undertaker also had charge of the funeral. A large crowd attended the funeral. However, there were only about fifteen Negroes present.

Notice To The Public

To the reading public:

In the last issue in October, 1920, of the Tulsa Star, the Oklahoma Sun and the Black Dispatch, Mr. Richard J. Hill concluded his debate with me on the subject—Resolved: That the teachings of the International Bible Students' Association should be substituted for the doctrines of the church denominations." He closed with these words: "Personally, I think well of Rev. Johnson, but frankly speaking, he and all other preachers of the church denominations who know no more about the Bible than he does, should stop trying to preach and take lessons from some one better informed.' If you'd ask him who is better informed he would refer you to himself or some other exponent of the doctrines of the late so-called Pastor Russell. What is the truth in the case? Rev. J. J. Ross has a transcript of the testimony of Mr. Russell in the court of Hamilton, Canada, and he says that Mr. Russell admitted under oath that he had never attended school but seven years, that he left school when about fourteen years old, that he did not know even the Greek alphabet; was not, therefore, familiar with the Greek language, had never taken a course in philosophy, systematic theology, and never attended any of the higher schools of learning. When Mr. Russell's attention was called to the published statement of Rev. J. J. Ross, he replied in Bible Students' Monthly, Vol. 6, No. 5. These are his words: "As respects my education in Greek and Hebrew, not only do I not claim very special knowledge of either language, but I claim that no one minister in a thousand is either a Hebrew or Greek scholar. To be able to spell out a few Greek words is of no earthly value. Nor is it necessary any longer to study these languages in order to have knowledge of the Bible. Our Presbyterian friends have gotten out at great cost Young's Analytical Hebrew, Chaldaic, Greek and English Lexicon Concordance, which any one may procure. And our Methodist friends have issued a similar work—Strong's Analytical Concordance and Lexicon. And there is a still older one entitled Englishman's Hebrew, Chaldaic, Greek and English Lexicon and Concordance, Additionally Liddell and Scott's Lexicon is a standard authority. The prices of these are not beyond the reach of the average man. By these works, scholarly information respecting the original text of the Bible is obtainable. I have all four of these works and have used them faithfully. Very few college professors would risk to give a critical translation of any text of Scripture without consulting these very works of reference, which are standard. To merely learn to read the Greek and Hebrew without a six years' course in their grammars is more likely to hinder than to help in Bible study; far better to take the acknowledged scholarship to which I have referred." In the above Mr. Russell does not only confess that he is not a Greek and Hebrew scholar, but he makes the further confession that Presbyterianism and Methodism are far superior to himself from the standpoint of scholarship. Yet Mr. Hill would have the public turn away from accepted truth by these sources of scholarship which the founder of his cult says are standard and swallow the vagaries of Russellism.

When Mr. Russell by his own confession disqualifies himself as scholarly authority would it be wise for us to let Mr. Hill persuade us that he is?

Mr. Hill pays the newspapers to publish him as "The great International Bible student," when he does not know a single law of interpretation. All he knows scripturally, has been learned from Mr. Russell's interpretations of the Bible. He slavishly copies from Mr. Russell's writings, publishes the same over his signature and expects an intelligent public to regard him as the great International Bible student. If Mr. Hill is so well informed and I am so ignorant, why did it take him a whole month to complete his rebuttal to what I said at Convention Hall, when he had as much time as I did and the advantage of closing the debate? And in his final rebuttal a month after the debate he is unfair. He writes as though the only scripture reference I could find to support eternal punishment was Mark 16:16, when it was only one of many given. Get your Bible, dear reader, and consult God's words according to the following references, namely: Matt. 8:12, 10:28, 12:32, 16:27-28, 18:9, 23:33, 25:41, 25:46, John 5:28-20. Acts 24:15, 2 Cor. 5:10, 2 Thes. 1:6-10, 2 Peter 3:7. These are only a few of the many scriptures which prove there is a hell—a place of eternal punishment.

As a finale, if you would know whether a person or institution is of God, you can always judge by observing whether or not that person or institution endorses those things which help the cause of God on earth. Does Russellism do that? Nay, verily. Russelism has nothin gbut the kindest things to say about the people and institutions whose work is opposed to right and righteousness and they exhaust their vocabulary in the use of severest terms with which they denounce the church denominations and the Christian ministry. "If "by their fruits ye shall know them" Russellism is the servant of the devil.

H. T. S. JOHNSON,
Pastor Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church.

OKMULGTE NEWS NOTES

Judge D. J. Wallace, V. Z. Hays, ably assisted by Mrs. J. B. Key and Mrs. J. M. White, are largely responsible for the republican victory last Tuesday. They got a large Colored vote which carried the county for the G. O. P.

Mr. S. A. Maxey, a prominent citizen of Paris, Texas, spent the week end in our city. He was greatly impresed with our town.

Dr. T. W. Kidd, pastor of Shorter Chapel A. M. E. Church, returned from asnual conference at Claremore Monday. Rev. Kidd and his members have succeeded in freeing their church from debt. He made a round report and was returned as pastor for another year. Okmulgee is justly proud of this Christian gentleman.

Dr. S. S. Jones delivered two able sermons at the First Baptist Church Sunday. The citizens of Okmulgee received first hand information of the inter-racial conference in Texarkana, Texas, Dr. Jones having taken an active part in the meetink. Oklahoma is proud of Dr. Jones. He is a fearless, safe and sane Race leader who knows no compromise.

The final rally at the Mt. Olive Presbyterian church closed Sunday night. Rev. Williams and members succeeded admirably.

A Y. M. C. A. for Okmulgee is very much needed. It is rumored that a call will be issued soon for a meeting to iron out plans for the same.

The foot ball game between Okmulgee and Muskogee resulted in a score of 8 to 7 in favor of Muskogee.

Mrs. Mattie Key Hessing and Mrs. B. A. Nance attended the A. M. E. conference at Claremore last week.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Wallace have returned from Kansas City.

Miss Nannie Day, a member of the Dunbar faculty, is on the sick list this week.

Miss Nell Leftridge, also a member of the Dunbar faculty, was on the sick list last week but was at her post of duty this week.

Miss E. L. Dean visited the Misses Ross and Leftridge Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Byrd is a new member of the Dunbar faculty.

THE JUDGEMENT DAY

"Because he has appointtd a day in which he will judge the world in righieousness by that man whom he hath ordained: whertof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." Acts 17:31.

Since 1878 A. D. everything has been getting ready for the great Judgment Day long spoken of by the Bible. At the time St. Paul wrote the words of the above text the Judgment Day was future because he said so. The preachers in timts past taught the people that the Judgment Day would be a time of terror upon the earth, in which the people would be lined up in a twenty four hour day and most of them sent off to Hell-fire and brimstone there to endure in some unconceivable way fortures eternal in duration. St. Paul seems to give so such thought in his words. He looked forward to the Judgment Day as a time of great rejoicing and blessing, because he said that it shall be a judgment righteouness by Christ. When once the purpose of the Judgment Day is understood it makes glad the heart and comfort those who mourn.

The term Judgment signifies that the person to be julged must have a trial, and at that trial must have a full and fair opportunity, if he is judged righteously. Occasionally there is a man upon the bench, such as Judge Anderson of Bostos, who has the moral courage and the sense of justice to deal as nlarly right as it is poissble for imperfect man to do; but this is the exception to the rule. When the Lord judges we know that his Judgment will be righteous because he was promised that it shall be. "With righieousess shall be judge the poor." (Isah 11:4) Seldom do the poor get a righteous judgment now. "He shall judge the people with righteousntss" —Psalms 72:2.

"One day with the Lord is a thousand years and a thousand years is a day". 2d Peter 3:8. Christ shall reign a thousand years—Rev. 20:6. The Judgment, therefore, is the period of Messiah's reign of a thousasd yars, hence it is called Mellennial, because millenial means a thousand years. The Great Messiah has already taken unto himself his great power to reign, and the Nations have been asd are asgry just as foretold. Rev. 11:11,18. The Lord is now permitting the wrath of man to break in pieces the present unrighteous order, and when that is gone, "The Government shall be upon his shoulder;and his name shall be called wonderful, concelor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6. The first work of this Judgment day will be to deal with the millions of people on the earth. Just before the beginning of that Judgment of blessing according to the words of Jesus, there will be a great Judgment upon the Nations, which is now in progress and of which we shall have more to say later. Following the World War and Revolutionary troubles now on the earth, there will be a great tribulation, "Such as was never sisce there was a nation and there will never be such a time of trouble again. (Matt. 24:21, 12) The Lord shows us that this time of tribulation and trouble will be shortened in order that many people now living upon earth may be saved and sot go into death. The puspose of saving them will be to offer them Life-Everlasting through God's chosen channel, his Elect, the Seed according to the promise. Many of these people brought through the time of trouble will be the first ones to experience the blessings of the righteous Judgment of Messian. "They shall call on my same and I will hear them; I will say, it is my people; and they shall say, the Lord is my God." Zech. 13:9.

Jesus gave a picture of the Judgment day, representing the obedient ones as sheep and the disobedient ones as goats A parable is a dark saying in which figures of speech are used to illustraie a fact. Jesus locates that time the same as St. Paul when he says, "Thes shall he sit upon the Throne of his Glory." (Matt. 25:31.) In other words, Christ will establish the Great Tribunal or Court, before which the peoples of earth will be judged, and this judgment will cover a period of a thousand years. First,, those living on the earth at the beginning (Approximately 1925 A. D.) shall be brought to a ksowledge of the truth concerning the Ransom Sacrifice whiih has been provided for them and that under the terms of a new Covenant, which God has made for their benefit, it they will be obedient to it they shall be blessed with life, liberty and happiness. Those who, after coming to a full ksowledge of the facts, refuse to accept the terms and be obedient to them, are designated by Jesus as goats. A goat has a stubborn, mean disposition, and very well illustrates the class of people who will not be obedient to the law of the New Covenant. To these the Lord will say; "Depart from me, ye cursed, isto everlasting fire, prepared for the Devil and his angels. These shall go then into everlasting punishmest." (Matt. 25: 41,45) The Devil is not going to eternal torture but will be destroyed. (Heb. 2:14) His angels mean his messengers, those who are in harmony with him, they suffer a similar fate. The willfully disobedient, the Goat class, will be a part of his messengers or angels, and these shall go away, be tursed away from the Lord into a punishment that will be lastng; that is to say from which there will be no recovery. The word punishment here means nferaly cutting off. The highest punishment known to the law of civilized Nations is death. No civilized Goverament ever tortures anyone. There is no intimation in this scripture that any of the wicked will go away into cintinous torture, but they do go away into a punishment, that is to say, they are punished with an everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and the Glory of his power. 2d Thes. 1:9.

The obedient class, represented as sheep will be taught and lead in the right way, and rendering themselves obedient unto the Lord's arrangement, they will be blessed unto everlasting life, whereas the wicked are punished with everlasting death. To the obedient ones the Lord will say: "Come ye blessed of my Father, innerit the Kingdom (earthly kingdom) prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. 25, 34." The meek shall inherit the earth." Psalms 37:11 "The righteous go away into eternal life." (Matt. 25:46) These, the righteous ones, shall be the ones that shall live forever. These are the ones that shall never die, never see death. (John 8:51, John 11:26) There are millions of persons on earth now, who, without doubt will be living when this Judgment day of the earth begins, and when retstituion blessings will be offered to them, and they believing the great truths then taught by the Messiah, and obeying them, they shall live forever, in happiness, in joy, in peace. The Lord, through his Prophet describing that Judgment Day, said, "When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness and committeth sin he shall die. Whes a wicked man turneth away from his wickedness and does that whch is right he shall live. " (Ezek. 18:26-28)

These restitution blessings will come gradually to the people as they obey the righteous teachings of the Messiah. The Lord through his arrangemests, will teach the people what to eat, how to eat, how to exercise and above all how to think and act. The healing of the sick and opening the eyes of the blind which Jesus performed when he was upon the earth was samples merely of what the Messiah will do in completeness durisg the Great Judgment Day." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be un-stopped. Then shall the lame man leap as the heart, and the tongue of the dumb sing." (Isaiah 35:5,6) That will be a happy asd glorious time, and when those who are living on the earth when restitution begins progressed a reasonably way over the high-way of Holliness, they will be preparing for and praying the Lord and expecting him to bring back their beloved dead. They will call upos the name of the Lord and he will hear them. "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come unto Zion (The Messiah) with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy gladsess, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." —Isaih 35:1,10. Thus the Lord's Prophet beautifully describes how Judgment will bring blessings to the people. Again, the Prophet, beholding this coming day of Judgment and blessing for mankisd, ecstasy explained: "Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth; the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved; He shall judge the people righteously. Let the Heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof. Let the field be joyfull and all that is therein; then shall all the trees of the woods rejoice before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth; He shall judge the world with righteousness and the people with truth." Psalms 96: 10,13.

The Judge or Court before whom the entire worsl will be tried during the reign of Christ will consist of Jesus the Head or Chief Justice, and the members of his body, the church, as associate Justices, all of whom will be perfect. Glorious beings. In the carrying out of this arrangement, faithful ones such as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and the other Prophets resurrected as perfect human beings, will constitute the earthly representatives. The inflictions of punishments, however, for a violation of the Lord's arrangement, will be direct. If a man shall attempt to break into his neighbor's house the Lord will immediately punish him upon the spot, by striking him blind or paralyzing ris arm He may be recovered from this, as the scripture show, by prayer and by obedience to righteousness, and after he has been given a full and fair trial and then if he still refuses to make progress, he will be destroyed in the secosd death from which there will never be asother resurrection. But the Scriptures show that he shall have at least one hundred years trial, because as the Prophet states: "There shall be no more thence an infant of days nor an old man that hath not filled his days; for the child shall die an being an hundred years old shall be a curse." (Isaih 65:20.) Those who obey righteousness and profit by their experience and strive to make progress will be continued in the trial, and the Messiah will uplift, and strengnen, and bless them, and ultimately bring them back to a state of perfection and happiness.

This Great Judgment day must begin as soon as the present evil-world completely passes away and Messiah's Kingdom is in full control of everything. The Jubilee cycles, that we will at sometime in the future clearly set forth, marks 1925 as the date for the beginning of these blessings. And because the Lord has promised to bless those who obey righteousness, and because the time is so near at hand, we can with confidence state that there are millions of people now living on the earth who will never die and go into the grave. This is good news; it is comforting news; it is one of the great doctrines of the Bible—A doctrine which all the Churches and all the preachers should be teaching the people, because it is full time to teach it. This message, when received and understood, binds up the broken hearted and comforts those that mourn, enabling them to look beyond the present vale of tears and see the sunlight of God's love arising, which will soon heal and bless all the obedient ones upon the earth.

We are fully aware that not many persons can hear this message now for the reason that they have been stuffed so full of down-right false teachings concerning God's plans that it sounds like some new doctrine; when, as a matter of fact, it is the plain and simple faith and teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and his Apostles, which was first delivered to the saints—that is true followers of the Lord. We are only calling the world's attention to the old and true path, from which the most of the people of the world have strayed. The cause of all this is by the selfish and ignorant preachers telling the people everything concerning God's plan but the truth.

JAPS RAISE OBJECTIONS

Will Not Recognize Vanderlip Syndicate Agreement With Soviet for $400,000 Mile Lease

TOKIO, Nov. 6—The Japanese government will refuse to recognize the validity of the reported agreement of Washington Vanderlip on behalf of an American syndicate with the soviet government of Russia, whereby the Vanderlip syndicate obtains a lease hold on 4000,000 square miles of Russian territory, including Kamchatka.

In an interview with the Japanese foreign office today with the position of the government was set forth as follows:

"The soviet government of Russia has not been recognized by the world powers. The Japanese government does not feel bound to take cognizance of any private agreement entered into by the soviet authorities or whoever may be parties thereto. The Japanese government is further unprepared to assent to any act or measure infringing on Japan's treaty rights with Russia.

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

TOKIO, Nov. 5 — Information from official sources today indicated that predictions that the Japanese government will immediately protest the action of California in passing the anti-Japanese land law to the United States government are premature

Japan, it was learned from an authoritative source, has thus far decided to rely for a solution of the question upon the conversations now in progress in Washington between Secretary of State Colby and Japanese Ambassador Shideshara.

GOMPERS VISION 'DANGER'

Says He Thinks Movement Is on Foot to Undermine Organized Labor

NEW YORK, Nov 6—Samuel Gompers, in presenting an American Federation of Labor charter to the newly organized Central Trades and Labor Council of Greater New York, this afternoon, exhorted members to conduct themselves in a manner befitting the high standards of organized labor.

Mr. Gompers asserted that "reaction has jumped into the saddle" and that he believed an organized movement is on foot by big business to undermine labor.

St. Louis Sends Colored Man To State Legislature

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov 13—For the first time in the history of Missouri a Colored man has been elected to the legislature of this State. He is Walter Moore, republican nominee who was elected by a substantial majority to represent the so called "silk stocking" district of this city. Whie one ward in the district is almost entirely Colored, it is believed there that the vote of white women elected Mr. Moore.

AMERICAN LEGION TO BOOST "T-B" CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

Oklahoma City, Nov. 12.—With tht annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale less than three weeks away the American Legion has gotten into the harness to enable Oklahoma to make it a success again. H. B. Fell of Ardmore, department commander of the Legion, has written a leiter to Jules Schevitz, general secretary of the Oklahoma Public Health association, pledging his support to the sale.

"Those of us who are to some extent aware of the wonderful work you are performing realize fully the great need of a continuance on at least as large a scale as in the past," says his letter. The representative of the U.S. Public Health service at Oklahoma Public Health me thatthe cooperation given him by the Oklahoma Poblic Health asso ciation has always been of the most hearty character, and I have also been informed that you have cooperated in a very successful manner with the Bureau of War Risk Insursurance and the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

"The Oklahoma Public Htalth association has been of great assistance to the sick and disabled ex-service men and its work should be greatly appreciated by the ex-service men and citizens of the state. Theonly manner in which their appreciationcan be fully shown is through their support of the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale, and I trust that the sale will be more successful than any which you have had in the past. I intend to bring this matter to the attention of he various matter to the attention of the various out the state, and request them to tndorse the same." x

Georgia Mob of Several Hundred Commits Tripple Murder

FIENDISH HELL HOUNDS GO UNPUNISHED AFTER HEINOUS MURDER OF HELPLESS PRISONERS

Coroner's Jury Closes Incident With Verdict of Death "At Hands of Persons Unknown."

Douglas, Ga., Nov. 18.—Three human beings, one of them a woman, all of them helpless prisoners in charge of Sheriff Tanner of Irvin county, were lynched seven miles from town today by a mob numbering several hundred white men, women and children. The lynched victims were William Perry, Will Ivory and his wife, who had been arrested in connection with the killing yesterday of Pearly Harper, a young white planter.

The trio were being rushed to Fitzgerald, the county seat, for "safe keeping," when the mob overtook them and lining them up, riddled their bodies with bullets.

Although this heinous crime was committed in broad daylight and none of the mob were masked, the coroner's jury has already rendered a verdict common in such cases that the victims had "died at the hands of persons unknown." No arrests have been made.

STATE TEACHERS TO MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

Three Days Will Be Given Over to Educators

The State Teachers' Association will convene in Tulsa next Thursday morning for a three days' meeting, ending Saturday. The stage is all set for one of the best sessions in the history of the organization and a large attendance is expected.

It is thought that some effort will be started during this meeting to obtain substantial increases in teachers' salaries and to establish better educational advantages for the separate schools of the state. A committee will probably be appointed to visit the legislature in January with this purpose in view.

President Pettus has been very active during the past year trying to better conditions for colored teachers and pupils of the state and in all probability he will insist on appointing a working committee to further the movement he has already started.

Aside from this part of the program the election of officers will probably will be the all absorbing interest.

Following is the official program of the session:

HILL WELL RECEIVED IN BARTLESVILLE

Methodist Preacher Lands Bible Student Lecturer to His Congregation

Bartlesville, Okla., Nov. 18.—What is considered by those who heard it, the most able and enlightening lecture they had ever heard on the facts of the Bible was delivered here Sunday afternoon by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, a noted International Bible Student of Tulsa. (n the audience were some of the most intelligent people of this city, several of whom were ministers of the gospel. Mr. Hill proved himself a master student of the Bible and one of the most forceful, convincing speakers ever heard in this city.

After the lecture Mr. Hill visited the Methodist church here, of which Rev. G. W. Washington is pastor. The pastor who had heard the lecture told his congregation that it was one of the most interesting he had ever heard and encouraged them to hear Mr. Hill if the opportunity ever presented itself.

So much impressed with Mr. Hill's interpretation of the Bible were the people of this city that they begged him for another date, offering him the use of the Methodist church any Sunday he would suggest.

Word has been received from Mr. Hill that he will return to Bartlesville Sunday, November 27, to deliver another lecture on the Bible. The people of Bartlesville are pleased with this news and a large audience will greet him on that date.

Mr. Hill, in speaking of his visit to Bartlesville last Sunday, said to a representative of the Star:

"I was well pleased with my visit to Bartlesville. The cordial reception given me there by the ministers of that city, as well as others, was indeed gratifying."

Hill Makes Reply

PUBLIC NOTICE

Any one who knows of a preacher who is still teaching that the wicked, after death is punished in a hell of fire and brimstone or tormented throughout eternity, please take such preacher's name and address and send it to me and I will take the matter up with him and see to it that he defends his position before the public and my face. And if he does not I will expose him as a man who is teaching falsehood for selfish purposes and yet is afraid to defend his position before the public.

With but few exceptions most preachers have learned sense enough to quit teaching the doctrine of Eternal Torment, and those few who are still doing so should be made to defend their false position or shut up. If you will do as I have asked you the time will soon be when the teachers of false doctrine will be no more.

Address me as follows:

RICHARD J. HILL,
R. F. D. No. 6, Box 240,
Telephone, Cedar 1505, Tulsa, Okla

There is one H. T. S. Johnson of Tulsa, Okla., who seems to yet be hanging to the blasphemous doctrine of Eternal Torment; but he contradicts himself in so many ways that it is hard to tell what he believes. I rather think that if a proper test was made it would develop that he does not believe in the Bible at all but rather he is idled to the popping point with the creeds and theories of men. Because it is inconceivable that a man of his supposed wisdom would so flatly contradict the plain statements of the Bible and all standard authorities concerning the punishment of sinners.

Worst of all he has the nerve to expose his ignorance by citing the following Scriptures to prove that sinners are eternally tormented after death: Matt. 8:12, 10:28, 12:32, 16:27-28, 18:9, 23:33, 25-46; John 5:28-39; Acts 24:15; 2nd Cor. 5:10; 2nd Thes. 1:6-10; 2nd Peter 3:7. Then he states that these are only a few of the many Scriptures which prove that there is a hell, a place of eternal punishment. As a matter of fact most of the Scriptures above cited are highly symbolic and do not have a literal meaning. A brief explanation of each Scripture follows:

Matt 8:12—

Refers to the trouble that came upon the Jews (not Gentiles) at the close of the Jewish age, A. D. 73; because of their failure as a nation to accept Christ as their Savior

Matt. 10:28—

Hell in this verse means the second death; a death from which there is no resurrection. The Lord's meaning is that we Christians should be careful and fear God, He has the power to destroy our chance of being resurrected during the Millenium or Judgment day.

Church Denominations; the earth

Matt. 12:32—

The word Holy Ghost or Holy Spirit means righteous knowledge concerning God's plan of salvation. Whoever sins against God with a full knowledge of what he is doing cannot expect to escape punishment for so doing during this Gospel age or (world) or during the Millenial Age (world to come).

Matt. 16:27-28—

This Scripture has no reference whatever to eternal torment but means that when the Lord shall fully come to set up His Kingdom here on earth he will reward the righteous with everlasting life and the wicked with stripes and punishment to make them better. This punishment will be just the same as a sensible father who punishes his disobedient children to make them better.

Matt. 18-9—

This whole verse is symbolic and the thing said is not the thing meant. Heaven would be an awful looking place if this Scripture meant exactly what it says literally. Heaven would be filled with one-eyed and one-legged people. This verse really means that we are to put aside habits that are as dear to us as an eye or a foot rather that keep these habits and go into the second death.

Matt. 23-33—

In this verse the Lord was speaking directly against the preacher of that day (Scribes and Pharisees). Christ asked them how could they expect to escape the second death when they with all their knowledge were more degraded in character than the common people.

Matt. 25:46—

This verse has reference to rewards and punishments to take place about one thousand years from now or about the year 2920 A. D., at which time the righteous of mankind will be awarded life everlasting and the wicked will receive a punishment that will last throughout eternity-everlasting. They will die and never be resurrected again, because Christ will die no more.

John 5:28-29—

This Scripture refers to the work to be done during the Millennium or Judgment day; at the beginning of which the righteous will be resurrected to receive stripes and punishments for the purpose of their developing a character worthy of everlasting life. The word Damnation in the King James version is rendered judgment in the original Greek. Therefore the meaning is that the wicked will be resurrected by judgments, stripes, etc.

Acts. 24:15—

This Scripture has no reference to a hell of punishment after death, but on the other hand it conclusively proves the very thing the International Bible Students are teaching the people from time to time—that both the good and the bad are to be resurrected from the dead.

2nd Cor. 5:10—

This is another Scripture that has no reference to punishment after death. But refers to the way a true Christian should live daily, while this side the grave. A true Christian must come before the judgment seat of Christ daily in his true character and not hypocritically—pretending to be one thing while in fact he is something else. God will reward our failures the same as our successes if we love God in righteousness and are what we are.

2nd Thes. 1:6-10—

Fire in the Bible is a symbol of destructive trouble. Flameing fire refers to great trouble. This Scripture refers to the time in which we are now living, when all individuals or institutions that will not hear the truth concerning the plans of Salvation will be destroyed from their false ideas. All persons or church systems not in line with the truth will not be permitted to continue in the presence of Christ during the Millennium or Judgment day.

This is another Scripture which has no reference to eternal torture of the wicked after death. The word Heaven mentioned in this verse means the means the organized governments of the world. The thought intended to be conveyed is that the earthly governments, church systems, and the men who are at the head of them must all pass away in the great time of trouble.

All true Christians are rather modest and very reluctant to even mention anything about their worldly education. They will, however, recognize the truth wherever they see it and it matters not where it is found whether in the denominations or out of them. They will also speak against error wherever found. Pastor Russell was of that character and disposition.

Rev. Johnson tried to make capital out of the fact that Pastor Russell recognized "Young's Analytical Hebrew," Chaldaic, Greek and English, Lexicon, Concordance, gotten out by the Presbyterians, Englishmen's Hebrew, Chaldaic, Greek and English Concordance, Liddel and Scott Lexicon, also Strong's Analytical Concordance and Lexicon gotten out by the Methodists, as standard authority in Hebrew and Greek.

This is one of the worst blunders that Rev. Johnson could have made because it shows him up to be absolutely opposed to the truth. When a man will disrecognize the truth in his own books in order to carry a false point it is hard to say what he will do to maintain his false position.

Strong's Concordance of the Bible is a standard work recognized by all Bible students of all denominations, not that it is the only standard work, but it is one that is highly recommended.

This work was gotten out by James Strong, a scholarly and honest hearted Methodist. If he was living today he would be teaching the same truth concerning the punishmetn of sinners that Pastor Russel and all other International Bible Students are teaching. In this exhaustive work there is not one word or phrase that can be rightly construed to mean that there is an eternity of torture after death for sinners. Rev. Johnson has this work or should have it and he fully knows that in the book that he has complimented highly and none too high, that it does not sustain him in his false position on the doctrine of eternal torment. And to prove that he knows his position is false he will not go before the public and my face and debate the subject of eternal torment for wilful sinners. I will use his book "Strong's Concordance" and show to the public that he is not teaching what the honest hearted Methodist, like James Strong, taught.

I therefore challenge him, by the Grace of God, to come before the public and my face and fully defend his position. I desire that he step forward at an early date that we may have the pleasure of settling this matter. I am not speaking in the spirit of anger or malice or in the spirit of the world, but I am speaking in the sense of an honest and fearless defender of the good name of Jehovah God and the common people who desire to know the truth.

My honest opinion is that the rumblings of my friend, Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, is only an evidence of the death-bed struggle against public opinion.

Rev. Johnson has more than once stated that I only copy Pastor Russell, which may be true in some respects, because Pastor Russell copied the Bible. Here goes one under the belt for the Reverend; and I want him to tell the public at an early date how Pastor Russell got the following statement in the Bible thuosands of years before he was born. Pastor Russell says "That when a man dies he is unconscious, has no memory, cannot speak, cannot breathe, cannot think, cannot give thanks, can do no work, neither loves, hates, or envies; has no feelings, and knows not anything. And he cites the following Scriptures to prove the above statement: Eccl. 9:5, 6, 10; Psalms 6:5, 115:17, 104:29, 146:4. According to what God says in His own word and repeated by Pastor Russell and his followers, there is nothing left of a man to be burned or tormented after he is dead.

Now Brother Johnson, the public is sitting with bated breath to hear from you.

RICHARD J. HILL.

Japs Suffer By White Man's Prejudice

By a decisive majority California has made it law that Japanese can own no land, can lease no land, cannot act as guardians for their American-born children in whose name land is held, and cannot own any share in American-controlled land owning companies. That this legislation constitutes the gravest injustice to the Japanese residents of California few will deny. In that state America's traditional sense of fair play has been swept away in a ferment of race prejudice and campaign buncombe. The notion that the Japanese land ownership constitutes a "menace" in the sense employed by anti-immigrationists is entirely refuted by the facts. Of the twenty-eight million acres of farming area which compose three-fourth of the state's total acreage only 458,000 acres, or 1.6 per cent, are under cultivation by Japanese. But this is not all. Of this ridiculously small proportion not over twenty seven thousand acres—less than one-tenth of one per cent—are owned by Japanese, the balance being made up of lands cultivated by Japanese under leases, under crop share contracts, under labor contracts, and finally, of 70,000 acres owned by American corporations with some Japanese shareholders.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 17—With the findisg of a raincoat spattered with blood, in a tumble down shack on the outskirts of the city late today the sheriff's office is certain that the arrest of the slayer of N. Matjasic a pawnbroker is only a matter of hours.

The owner of the raincoat is known the sheriff force declarts. He is a white man and his arresti they said will result in a sensation. Although Ed Dailey Colored is still said tonight that he had been elimiheld in the county jail, officers nated from their reckoning.

Reports that clothing found in his home was spotted with blood were denied.

The raincoat, although comparatively new, had been rent and torn. It was "literally soaked in blool" the officers declared.

Matjasic was found mudered in his store late in the morning of Sunday, November 14. His throat had been cut, his head split open and his skull crushed and there were 21 knife wounds in his body. Diamonds said to b worth more than $5,000 which Matjasic was accustomed to wearing, were missing. The officers, however, have abandoned the motive of robbery and believe the murder the work of a drug fiend.

BABYLON OR THE CHURCH SYSTEMS MUST GO DOWN

After the flood the descendants of Noah journeyed to the Land of Shinar, and they said, "Go to, let us build us a city and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. Gen. 11:41 At that time the people all spoke one language. They builded the tower and the Lord said, "Behold the people is one and they have all one language, and this they began to do and now nothing will restrain from them, which they have imagined to do, go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth, and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth.—Gen. 11:6. 9). From the word Babel is derived the word Babylon. Originally Babylon meant to the people the gate-way to God. Subsequently it became a term meaning confusion.

Later the country of Babylon under the Monarch Nebuchadnezzar, became a mighty empire. The capitol of the nation was named the city of Babylon. It was the most magnificient city of the ancient world, situated upon either side of the river Euphrates, enclosed within a vast system of double walls from thirty to eighty five feet thick and from seventy five to three hundred feet high. Builded upon these walls were low towers, facing each other, and in these walls were a hundred brazen gates, the gates corresponding to each street. The city was surrounded by a deep moat filled with water, which served as additional protection against attack. Inside the walls were splendid palaces. The city was not only noted for its wealth, but also for its moral degredation. It was given over to idolatry and iniquity. It was called "The Golden City, the Glory of the Kingdoms and the Beauty of the Chaldees." After the long and successful reign of Nebuchadnezzar, his son, Belshazzar, succeeded him, who was a profane and wicked ruler. Belhazzar and his princesses and associates, together with prostitute women, were holding a feast in the city. While the Babylonians were drunk and oblivious to their impending danger, Cyrus had dug a ditch, turning the Euphrates out of its course and then led the Persian Army under the gates on the dry bed of the Euphrates and sacked the city completely destroying it.

The whole matter is recorded in Holy Writ for the purpose of teaching a lesson to those who should live at the close of the Gospel Age where we now are. The Prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah, Daniel, and the Book of Revelations speak of Babylon, her degredation, her fall and destruction. The prophecies having been written after fall of literal Babylon manifestly refers to the antitype. In symbolic language a city represents an Ecclesiastic Government backed by civil power and influence.

To Christian people the organization of the Church System on earth originally meant the Gateway to God. Some years after Christ, the ruler of Pagan Rome embraced Christianity, evidently for political purposes. Ambitious and selfish men had succeeded to gain leadership in the church. The Church was legalized and became a system operated by Clergy and wealthy men, politicians for selfish purposes. In the Scripture the true Church is represented by a Pure Virgin, while the Apostate Church is pictured by an unchaste woman. The Revelation of Jesus Christ given to St. John clearly locates the antypical Babylon; "And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls having a golden cup in her hand, full of the abominations and filthiness of her fortifications; and upon her head was a ame written MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of Martyrs of Jesus; and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration" (Rev. 17: 4, 6.)

In the 15th Century A. D., came the Reformation, which made strides towards the truth and righteousness, but soon the Adversary entered and organized a selfish system, and these Protestant Systems have become the off-spring of the Modern Harlot as the Mother of Harlots dominate head to the confession that there are offsprings or daughters. In nearly ones there has been a great turning away from the truth. The preachers have forsaken the Ransomed sacrifice in a large degree and now in more recent months, comes the organization of the Inter-Church World Movement, which bears a manifest stating, "We have agreed to disregard the Doctrines and join in together in action," meaning thereby that they have forsaken the great truth taught by Jesus and the Apostles, and have united together for membership and money, in other words, they have united with professional politicians, the rich and the Mother Harlot for the very purpose of keeping the common poor people in ignorance and subjection.

As it was in the type, the people who originally built the tower of Babel, regarded it as a gate-way to God, and later, when their language became confused and all spoke a different language, it bore the significance of confusion; even so it is today with the Great Church Systems. Millions of honest hearted people believed that the Church was the Gate-way to God; but now they are becoming convinced that the whole matter is confusion and they do not know where to go. God fore-knew, of course, this great system of confusion, and fore-told it by his dealings with typical Babylon.

RICHARD J. HILL

Cyrus was a type of Christ. His turning the river Euphrates out of its course and leaving the ancient city of Babylon dry and unprotected, foreshadows how the Lord is only the honest hearted people, and only the honest hearted from the Church Systems and leaving her high and dry, preparatory for destruction. For instance, the Inter-Church World Movement, started out with great flare of trumpets and the Proclamation that they would shortly raise $336,777,526.54 with which to convert the world. They failed in getting this money although big businesses and politicians were behind them in the outset. The people are becoming more wise to the dishonest and insincere schemes and are turning away from the Inter-Church World Movement and all of the Systems of Babylon. Truly the Lord has written concerning her, "Thou are weighed in the balance and are found wanting."—Daniel 5:27. The Unrighteous Systems — Babylon, both Catholic and Protestants—are the off-sprngs of Satan, organized by him to carry out hs schemes of deceiving and keeping in subjection the common people. The Apostle Paul referring to the same thing, and applying his words at the end of the world, where we now are, said, "Then shall that wicked one be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of his presence." (2 Thes. 2:8) The more information the people have concerning the falsity of these Church Systems the sooner will they turn away from them and seek information concerning the Lord's word. God fore-knew and fore-told the doom and destruction of these unrighteous systems, saying, "The doom of Babylon which Isaiah saw—Lift ye up a standard upon the high mountain, (Kingdom), flais high your voice unto them, motion with the hands that they may enter into the gates of the princes."

"I have commanded my sanctified I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. There is a noise of tumult upon the mountains like as of a great people; then a tumultuous noise of the nations gathered together; the Lord of Host mustered the host of battle. Wail ye, for the day of Jehovah's at hand it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty, therefore all hands shall become weak and every mortal's heart shall melt and they shall have throes; as a woman that travaileth; they shall wonder every man as his neighbor, red like flames shall their faces glow. Behold the day of Jehovah cometh, direful wil day of Jehova cometh, direful with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of Heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be dark in his going forth, and the moon shall not shed abroad her light. And I will visit on the world its evil and on the wicked their imsuity, and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and the haughtiness of tyrants will I humble. I will make a man more precious than fine gold. Even a man than the golden wadge of Ophir. Therefore will I shake the Heavens and the earth shall be removed out of her place in the wrath of the Lord of Host, in the day of His fierce anger."—Isaiah 13:1.13.

At this time the Church Systems, Catholics and Protestants, claim to be exceedingly rich and powerful, and are utterly indifferent to the teachings of Jesus and the Apostles, and have entirely forgotten the humility of these faithful servants of the Lord. But in God's sight they are exactly the object. Of them, the Lord says; "thou sayeth I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing, and knoweth not that thou are wretched and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked."-Rev. 2:7.

Such being the solemn declaration against these unrighteous Systems, Catholics and Protestants those who have this knowledge should heed the warning from the Lord and flee out of her. "Thus saith the Lord, flee out the midst of Babylon and deliver every man his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity; for this the time of the Lord's vengeance he will render onto her a recompense. Forsake her; for her judgment reaches unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. My people, go ye out of the midst of her and deliver every man his soul from the fierce anger of the Lord."—Jer. 51:1, 45. This command means that all order loving Christian people who love the Lord and who desire to please him and who come to a knowledge of Babylon's or Church System's wickedness, will desire to separate themselves from these evil systems and seek the truth and follow it.

For the past two years the Babylonian's system in Germany, Austria-Hungary, Great Britian, Russia, Canada and the United States have been persecuting Christian people, who have refused to worship at her shrine and who have asked only to be permitted to teach the word as taught by Jesus and the Apostles and follow in the Master's footsteps. These persecutors have hailed Christians into the courts and railroaded some of them to prison without even giving them a trial. Particularly was this true in Germany and Austria, and in Canada where Christians were summarily dealt with and incarcerated without them an opportunity to be heard. In parts of the United States, officers, acting under the suggestion of the preachers, framed up evidence and caused the conviction and imprisonment of innocent men and women. These matters were brought to the attention of the rulers of the Land. The Lord had fore-told it should be thus saying: "They shall deliver (some of) you up to councils (courts) and in the synagogues (church system) ye shall be beaten, and ye shall be brought before rulers and Kings for my name's sake for a testimony against them—Marn 13:9.

It will be noted that the Lord gave utterance o these words in answer to the question as to what would be the proof of the end of the world. He said that shall be a world war, and famines and pestilences, earth quakes (Revolutions) in various places, and then should come these persecutions by the Babylonish systems. We are now in that time; the doom of Babylon is sealed, her fall is impending and near at hand. When the Church systems are dashed to pieces by the sledge hammers of truth and the people are liberated from her bondages and the greater light of the truth which is now due shine in upon them and they fully realize that the old order of things are passing away because he world has ended, then they will realize that the times of blessings are here, and millions now living and walking about upon earth will never die and go into the grave because Christ's Kingdom will soon be inaugurated, offering life, liberty and happiness to all who render themselves obedient to the terms of this Govednment which is now in process of establishment.

ARTISTIC BRUTE SOUGHT

(A. N. P. Service)

HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 19—Mrs. Jeannette L. Ryder, Band of Mercy, Havana, Protector of Animals and Chillren, is seeking Howard Butler, a preacher, painter and carpenter. Last heard of in Nassau, Key West Mobile, and Tampa. Mrs. Ryder has denounced Butler before the American Legation and Criminal Court of Havana with, "A Criminal action in having abandoned his three motheriess children immediately after the suicide of his young wife, and fleeing without a passport of record, to the jurisdiction of the United States." The story of Butler's treatmet of his wife and children, gives one a creepy feeling. Upon her death bed the dying woman said: "I did it bedause I did not care to see another child suffer. Butler has not fed those I've already borne him.

Georgia Mob of Several Hundred Commits Tripple Murder

FIENDISH HELL HOUNDS GO UNPUNISHED AFTER HEINOUS MURDER OF HELPLESS PRISONERS

Coroner's Jury Closes Incident With Verdict of Death "At Hands of Fersons Unknown."

Douglas, Ga., Nov. 18.—Three human beings, one of them a woman, all of them helpless prisoners in charge of Sheriff Tanner of Irvin county, were lynched seven miles from town today by a mob numbering several hundred white men, women and children. The lynched victims were William Perry, Will Ivory and his wife, who had been arrested in connection with the killing yesterday of Pearly Harper, a young white planter.

The trio were being rushed to Fitzgerald, the county seat, for "safe keeping," when the mob overtook them and boing them up, riddled their bodies with bullets.

Although this heinous crime was committed in broad daylight and none of the mob were masked, the coroner's jury has already rendered a verdict common in such cases that the victims had "died at the hands of persons unknown." No arrests have been made.

STATE TEACHERS TO MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

Three Days Will Be Given Over to Educators

The State Teachers' Association will convene in Tulsa next Thursday morning for a three days' meeting, ending Saturday. The stage is all set for one of the best sessions in the history of the organization and a large attendance is expected.

It is thought that some effort will be started during this meeting to obtain substantial increases in teachers' salaries and to establish better educational advantages for the separate schools of the state. A committee will probably be appointed to visit the legislature in January with this purpose in view.

President Pettus has been very active during the past year trying to better conditions for colored teachers and pupils of the state and in all probability he will insist on appointing a working committee to further the movement he has already started.

Aside from this part of the program the election of officers will probably will be the all absorbing interest.

Following is the official program of the session:

HILL WELL RECEIVED IN BARTLESVILLE

Methodist Preacher Lands Bible Student Lecturer to His Congregation

Bartlesville, Okla., Nov. 18.—What is considered by those who heard it, the most able and enlightening lecture they had ever heard on the facts of the Bible was delivered here Sunday afternoon by the Hon. Richard J. Hill, a noted International Bible Student of Tulsa. In the audience were some of the most inteligent people of this city, several of whom were ministers of the gospel. Mr. Hill proved himself a master student of the Bible and one of the most forceful, convincing speakers ever heard in this city.

After the lecture Mr. Hill visited the Methodist church here, of which Rev. G. W. Washington is pastor. The pastor who had heard the lecture told his congregation that it was one of the most interesting he had ever heard and encouraged them to hear Mr. Hill if the opportunity ever presented itself.

So much impressed with Mr. Hill's interpretation of the Bible were the people of this city that they begged him for another date, offering him the use of the Methodist church any Sunday he would suggest.

Word has been received from Mr. Hill that he will return to Bartlesville Sunday, November 27, to deliver another lecture on the Bible. The people of Bartlesville are pleased with this news and a large audience will greet him on that date.

Mr. Hill, in speaking of his visit to Bartlesville last Sunday, said to a representative of the Star:

"I was well pleased with my visit to Bartlesville. The cordial reception given me there by the ministers of that city, as well as others, was indeed gratifying."

Hill Makes Reply

PUBLIC NOTICE

Any one who knows of a preacher who is still teaching that the wicked, after death is punished in a hell of fire and brimstone or tormented throughout eternity, please take such preacher's name and address and send it to me and I will take the matter up with him and see to it that he defends his position before the public and my face. And if he does not I will expose him as a man who is teaching falsehood for selfish purposes and yet is afraid to defend his position before the public.

With but few exceptions most preachers have learned sense enough to quit teaching the doctrine of Eternal Torment, and those few who are still doing so should be made to defend their false position or shut up. If you will do as I have asked you the time will soon be when the teachers of false doctrine will be no more.

Address me as follows:

RICHARD J. HILL,
R. F. D. No. 6, Box 240,
Telephone, Cedar 1505, Tulsa, Okla

There is one H. T. S. Johnson of Tulsa, Okla., who seems to yet be hanging to the blasphemous doctrine of Eternal Torment; but he contradicts himself in so many ways that it is hard to tell what he believes. I rather think that if a proper test was made it would develop that he does not believe in the Bible at all but rather he is filled to the popping point with the creeds and theories of men. Because it is inconceivable that a man of his supposed wisdom would so flatly contradict the plain statements of the Bible and all standard authorities concerning the punishment of sinners.

Worst of all he has the nerve to expose his ignorance by citing the following Scriptures to prove that sinners are eternally tormented after death: Matt. 8:12, 10:28, 12:32, 16:27-28, 18:9, 23:33, 25-46; John 5:28-39; Acts 24:15; 2nd Cor. 5:10; 2nd Thes. 1:6-10; 2nd Peter 3:7. Then he states that these are only a few of the many Scriptures which prove that there is a hell, a place of eternal punishment. As a matter of fact most of the Scriptures above cited are highly symbolic and do not have a literal meaning. A brief explanation of each Scripture follows:

Matt 8:12—

Refers to the trouble that came upon the Jews (not Gentiles) at the close of the Jewish age, A. D. 73; because of their failure as a nation to accept Christ as their Savior

Matt. 10:28—

Hell in this verse means the second death; a death from which there is no resurrection. The Lord's meaning is that we Christians should be careful and fear God. He has the power to destroy our chance of being resurrected during the Millenium or Judgment day.

Church Denominations; the earth

Matt. 12:32—

The word Holy Ghost or Holy Spirit means righteous knowledge concerning God's plan of salvation. Whoever sins against God with a full knowledge of what he is doing cannot expect to escape punishment for so doing during this Gospel age or (world) or during the Millenial Age (world to come).

Matt. 16:27-28—

This Scripture has no reference whatever to eternal torment but means that when the Lord shall fully come to set up His Kingdom here on earth he will reward the righteous with everlasting life and the wicked with stripes and punishment to make them better. This punishment will be just the same as a sensible father who punishes his disobedient children to make them better.

Matt. 18-9—

This whole verse is symbolic and the thing said is not the thing meant. Heaven would be an awful looking place if this Scripture meant exactly what it says literally. Heaven would be filled with one-eyed and one-legged people. This verse really means that we are to put aside habits that are as dear to us as an eye or a foot rather that keep these habits and go into the second death.

Matt. 23:33—

In this verse the Lord was speaking directly against the preacher of that day (Scribes and Pharisees). Christ asked them how could they expect to escape the second death when they with all their knowledge were more degraded in character than the common people.

Matt. 25:46—

This verse has reference to rewards and punishments to take place about one thousand years from now or about the year 2920 A. D., at which time the righteous of mankind will be awarded life everlasting and the wicked will receive a punishment that will last throughout eternity-everlasting. They will die and never be resurrected again because Christ will die no more. John 5:28-29—

This Scripture refers to the work to be done during the Millennium or Judgment day; at the beginning of which the righteous will be resurrected to receive stripes and punishments for the purpose of their developing a character worthy of everlasting life. The word Damnation in the King James version is rendered judgment in the original Greek. Therefore the meaning is that the wicked will be resurrected by judgments, stripes, etc.

Acts. 24:15—

This Scripture has no reference to a hell of punishment after death, but on the other hand it conclusively proves the very thing the International Bible Students are teaching the people from time to time—that both the good and the bad are to be resurrected from the dead.

2nd Cor. 5:10—

This is another Scripture that has no reference to punishment after death. But refers to the way a true Christian should live daily, while this side the grave. A true Christian must come before the judgment seat of Christ daily in his true character and not hypocritically—pretending to be one thing while in fact he is something else. God will reward our failures the same as our successes if we love God in righteousness and are what we are.

2nd Thes. 1:6-10—

Fire in the Bible is a symbol of destructive trouble. Flameing fire refers to great trouble. This Scripture refers to the time in which we are now living, when all individuals or institutions that will not hear the truth concerning the plans of Salvation will be destroyed from their false ideas. All persons or church systems not in line with the truth will not be permitted to continue in the presence of Christ during the Millennium or Judgment day.

This is another Scripture which has no reference to eternal torture of the wicked after death. The word Heaven mentioned in this verse means the means the organized governments of the world. The thought intended to be conveyed is that the earthly governments, church systems, and the men who are at the head of them must all pass away in the great time of trouble.

All true Christians are rather modest and very reluctant to even mention anything about their worldly education. They will, however, recognize the truth wherever they see it and it matters not where it is found whether in the denominations or out of them. They will also speak against error wherever found. Pastor Russell was of that character and disposition.

Rev. Johnson tried to make capital out of the fact that Pastor Russell recognized "Young's Analytical Hebrew," Chaldaic, Greek and English Lexicon, Concordance, gotten out by the Presbyterians, Englishmen's Hebrew, Chaldaic, Greek and English Concordance, Liddel and Scott Lexicon, also Strong's Analytical Concordance and Lexicon gotten out by the Methodists, as standard authority in Hebrew and Greek.

This is one of the worst blunders that Rev. Johnson could have made because it shows him up to be absolutely opposed to the truth. When a man will disrecognize the truth in his own books in order to carry a false point it is hard to say what he will do to maintain his false position.

Strong's Concordance of the Bible is a standard work recognized by all Bible students of all denominations, not that it is the only standard work, but it is one that is highly recommended.

This work was gotten out by James Strong, a scholarly and honest hearted Methodist. If he was living today he would be teaching the same truth concerning the punishmetn of sinners that Pastor Russel and all other International Bible Students are teaching. In this exhaustive work there is not one word or phrase that can be rightly construed to mean that there is an eternity of torture after death for sinners. Rev. Johnson has this work or should have it and he fully knows that in the book that he has complimented highly and none too high, that it does not sustain him in his false position on the doctrine of eternal torment. And to prove that he knows his position is false he will not go before the public and my face and debate the subject of eternal torment for whiful sinners. I will use his book "Strong's Concordance" and show to the public that he is not teaching what the honest hearted Methodist, like James Strong, taught.

I therefore challenge him, by the Grace of God, to come before the public and my face and fully defend his position. I desire that he step forward at an early date that we may have the pleasure of settling this matter. I am not speaking in the spirit of anger or malice or in the spirit of the world, but I am speaking in the sense of an honest and fearless defender of the good name of Jehovah God and the common people who desire to know the truth.

My honest opinion is that the rumblings of my friend, Rev. H. T. S. Johnson, is only an evidence of the death-bed struggle against public opinion.

Rev. Johnson has more than once stated that I only copy Pastor Russell, which may be true in some respects, because Pastor Russell copied the Bible. Here goes one under the belt for the Reverend; and I want him to tell the public at an early date how Pastor Russell got the following statement in the Bible thuosands of years before he was born. Pastor Russell says "That when a man dies he is unconscious, has no memory, cannot speak, cannot breathe, cannot think, cannot give thanks, can do no work, neither loves, hates, or envies; has no feelings, and knows not anything. And he cites the following Scriptures to prove the above statement: Eccl. 9:5, 6, 10; Psalms 6:5, 115:17, 104:29, 146:4. According to what God says in His own word and repeated by Pastor Russell and his followers, there is nothing left of a man to be burned or tormented after he is dead.

Now Brother Johnson, the public is sitting with bated breath to hear from you.

RICHARD J. HILL.

Japs Suffer By White Man's Prejudice

By a decisive majority California has made it law that Japanese can own no land, can lease no land, cannot act as guardians for their American-born children in whose name land is held, and cannot own any share in American-controlled land owning companies. That this legislation constitutes the gravest injustice to the Japanese residents of California few will deny. In that state America's traditional sense of fair play has been swept away in a ferment of race prejudice and campaign buncombe. The notion that the Japanese land ownership constitutes a "menace" in the sense employed by anti-immigrationists is entirely refuted by the facts. Of the twenty-eight million acres of farming area which compose three-fourth of the state's total acreage only 458,000 acres, or 1.6 per cent, are under cultivation by Japanese. But this is not all. Of this ridiculously small proportion not over twenty-seven thousand acres—less than one-tenth of one per cent—are owned by Japanese, the balance being made up of lands cultivated by Japanese under leases, under crop share contracts, under labor contracts, and finally, of 30,000 acres owned by American corporations with some Japanese shareholders.
